The winter wheat throughout this section is in good condition, although it has suffered some from frost.

The 1st of next month may prove an improvement upon April arbor days if crowning May queens does not detract from the work of planting trees.

The sixtieth wedding anniversary of Theodore Nabbefeld at Kaukauna, last Saturday, brought out the fact that his support is worth considerable to a candidate for office—he has 200 relatives.

The seventh ward school trouble in Milwaukee, it seems, was caused by teachers in need of disciplining; and, it seems from the investigation, nothing short of their discharge or Commissioner Trent's resignation will settle the trouble.

The movement for a shorter work-day (the initial step of which fell to the lot of organized carpenters) is seriously handicapped owing to improved machinery and the fact that many tradesmen now have to work overtime in order to average eight hours a day.

The first meeting of the State semi-centennial committee of 100 will meet in Milwaukee on the 5th of next month. At that meeting we hope Secretary Pollock will have something to prove that the people of Wisconsin want to celebrate the 50th anniversary of our admission to statehood; also, that they favor the Cream City as the site of such a celebration.

The buying combine of flour millers has caused Milwaukee grain dealers to notify country shippers to stop sending grain to the Cream City. Well, it will be all the better if the big millers come out in the country and buy all the milling material they want from the farmers. The grain market needs a change of some kind, and the millers can hardly worse matters any.

Now that Senator Tillman has been forcibly kissed by a woman suffragist in Colorado, it may be said that the reward of becoming a silver god has proven sufficient punishment for the senator who called our president a tin god; and, the tin-plate manufacturers are undoubtedly rejoiced thereat, as they undoubtedly do not relish the inference that they had any part or parcel in producing the present president.

The shooting of Joseph Strong at Appleton, a week ago last Wednesday, by an officer who supposed the victim was Julius Zuelke, seems to have been prompted as much by the reward offered as anything else. However, Garvey, in all probability is not kicking himself any harder than the Kalamazoo officer who released another image of Zuelke upon the strength of the report that the Appleton product would prove a dead likeness of the eleven-hundred-dollar man.

It is estimated that 5.8 inches of water fell hereabouts during the last two weeks ending yesterday; and, as a result, the country is becoming quite rich looking. The wooded lands are resplendent with budding houghs and flitting birds, the meadows are green with growing grass and dotted with grazing kine. The brooks are swelling with drainage from the highlands, while the mills along the banks of the Milwaukee river bum accompaniments to the waters as they go over the dams and into the course below.

The debating team of the University of Wisconsin defeated a like team of Minnesotans last week. However, the faculty of the opposing university have our sympathy—not because of defeat, but owing to the disgrace brought upon their institution by the students who tampered with a U. S. mail box upon the campus by changing it from cardinal to a combination white-green color. The kind of "war-paint" used may cut quite figure in a conflict with Lo, the uncivilized Indian; but, we regret that it has led to an unlawful act over a debate between university teams.

The Indians of British Guiana, according to a writer in the Nineteenth Century, are not far removed from the lowest savages in the depths of the Dark Continent. A root called the covassa is their principal food. It is prepared for use by scraping it on a piece of timber studded with sharp pebbles. Communism in its fullest extent prevails among them. As to clothes, the men get along with a breech-clout, while the women are in the height of fashion with a simple fringe. Though dwarfs, they are well made and sturdy, make capital boatmen and are excellent swimmers. Like our Indians, the women do all the real work.

The Democratic State Central committee will meet in the Plankinton house at Milwaukee on May 12 for the purpose of fixing a date for the State convention to select delegates to the National convention in Chicago. The State convention of delegates from the various congressional districts will undoubtedly produce quite a number of candidates for delegates to Chicago on July 7th, as the honor is just as great as that of a delegateship to the Republican National convention, while the distance to be traveled is considerably less. Then, too, a new chairman of the State Central committee will probably be elected, as E. C. Wall has signified his intention of retiring when the State convention meets.

It would seem, from the following, that veterans of the late war are going to be pretty well provided for, whether in National homes or out of them: "Senator Mitchell and Congressman Ojha have received a petition signed by sixty-five inmates of the Soldiers' home at Milwaukee praying for an appropriation to enable outside aid to be given to veterans entitled to admission to the home but who prefer to live outside. Many of the soldiers (the petition states) would prefer to live with their families, and they want to have their rations and clothing or the equivalent in money allowed them as though they were in the home. It is claimed that under the law such relief may be given, but it will be necessary to have a special appropriation for it."

NEW FANE FLATS.

Tillie Ramel, who was sick, is well again.

Farmers are about all through seeding in this vicinity.

Nic. Altenhofen of Adel called on his friends here last week.

Mrs. Caroline Klug went to Milwaukee last Sunday on a visit.

A party of our boys went out fishing Sunday and returned with sad faces.

H. Dahlke and wife were guests of A. G. Koch at Kewaskum last Sunday.

The infant child of Henry Ferks was christened last Sunday at their home.

Miss Louisa Haack is reported very ill and is under the care of Dr. Hausmann.

Emil Ramel is the possessor of a brand new buggy, which he purchased of L. Rosenheim lately.

Windisch has torn down his saloon building and is now running his bar in his old building until the new addition is completed.

BOLTONVILLE BUDGET.

Wm. Peters of West Bend spent last Sunday as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Heip.

Messrs. Jim and Ed. Riley left for Milwaukee this week, where they will spend the summer.

Messrs. P. H. Moriarity and A. Nigh of Barton made a short call on our village last Sunday evening.

F. M. Schuler departed Wednesday morning on an extended business trip through northern Wisconsin, Minnesota and South Dakota.

Miss Hattie Hasler and Julia Wislizen returned to Milwaukee last Monday after spending a short vacation with their parents here.

The Ladies Aid Society held their regular monthly social at R. H. Gordon's last Thursday afternoon. There was a good attendance.

Henry Moulter, a former resident of the Town of Scott, died at his home in Sheboygan, of pneumonia. The funeral took place last Sunday with interment in the Scott cemetery. Rev. Dexter officiating. Deceased was about 30 years of age and leaves a wife and five children to mourn his early death.

H. W. Morgenroth and Sylvester Wendel were initiated into the Modern Woodmen of America at Sunrise camp last Wednesday night. The membership of the camp has increased two fold since February and new members are being added at each meeting. Any one wishing to take advantage of the many benefits of this society should seek admission. Boltonville will soon have as large a camp as there is in the county.

LITHIA BEER.

This beer is brewed with water containing lithia, in a natural form, from our artesian well. Lithia is a recognized remedy for kidney disease and gout affections. This, combined with the admirable tonic qualities of our beer, makes it a most excellent beverage.

WEST BEND BREWING CO.

WAYNE WAFTINGS.

J. Foster has erected a wind-mill over his well.

Henry Heberer was over from Ebelville last Sunday.

Petri Bros. will start their cheese factory next Monday.

Henry Jung, Sr., and wife celebrated their golden wedding last Sunday.

George and Mrs. H. Petri spent last Monday and Tuesday in Milwaukee.

The Union Quadrille band will furnish music for the ball at Petri's hall to-night.

Wm. Foerster and August Zuelke made a business trip to the county seat last Monday.

Clifford R. Smallwood drove over from Kewaskum with a lady for company last Sunday.

Contractor Becker and crew are hustling up the foundation of Wm. Abel's new residence.

Mrs. Mat. Keilen and her daughter, Lizzie, of Seymour are visiting Postmaster Martin's family.

Anton and Jac. Werner of New London were here to see their sick mother during the fore part of this week.

The foundation for Abel's new building is nearly complete, and the carpenters have commenced working.

John Kippman, accompanied by Tillie Tolsemann of Theresa, spent last Sunday with the former's parents in our burg.

A raffle and ball will be given in Petri's hall under the direction of J. J. Guenther, E. Martin and G. Wolters, next Saturday. All are invited.

Peter Roos and William Wehling went to Chicago last Monday. Wm. will remain there, having employment, but Peter will return after a visit.

J. W. Pjorco, Republic, Ia., says: "I have used Quo Mingo Cough Cure in my family and for myself, with results so entirely satisfactory that I can hardly find words to express myself as to its merits. I will never fail to recommend it to others, on every occasion that presents itself."

Chas. Miller.

WISE AND OTHERWISE.

Cumso.—When I was at Niagara Falls I went through the Cave of the Winds. Cawker.—That's nothing; when at Washington I spent an hour in the Senate gallery.—Pack.

Young Husband.—Didn't I telegraph you not to bring your mother with you? Young Wife.—That's just what she has come to see you about; she read the dispatch.—Harkon Life.

Mistress.—How is it one never hears a sound in the kitchen when your sweet heart is with you of an evening? Domestic.—Please ma'am, the poor fellow is so bashful yet that he does nothing but eat.—Tid-Bits.

Husband.—Singular! Here's another account of a bank gone to pieces, and none of the directors knew anything about what was going on. Advanced Woman.—Of course not; it wouldn't be so, though, if the directors were women!—Pack.

Mistress.—Bridget, I find that you wore one of my low-necked dresses to the bus-drivers' ball last evening. It's the worst piece of impudence I ever heard of. You ought to be ashamed of yourself.

Bridget (meekly).—Of wuz, mum; Oi wuz. And me young man said if Oi iver wore sich an ondacent dress in public ag'in he'd bre'k our ingagemint.—London Tid-Bits.

A Washington correspondent finds that while the justices of the Supreme court are not as a rule absent minded, at least one of the number comes easily within that class. Not long ago he went out of town on a little trip. After his departure a page found under the justices chair a slip of paper on which was written "Mem.—Things to take along: One pair socks, one shirt, two collars, 1 pair cuffs and one wife."

A correspondent, says the New York Tribune, vouches for the truth of the following story: "Edith said a mother to her little 4-year-old daughter, 'I want you to go in your room, kneel down by your bed and ask God to forgive you for being such a very naughty little girl.' The child went, and upon returning her mother asked: 'Edith, did you ask God to forgive you for being such a bad girl?' The reply came as fast as the query: 'Yes, ma, and he said: 'Great Scott! I know lots worse little girls than you are!'"

Henry Labouchere has no sympathy with England in the troubles that she has lately brought upon herself, as he writes as follows: "Patrick McCarthy, an Irishman in America, one day found a blanket belonging to the government stores marked U. S., for United States. Pat. immediately annexed the blanket, remarking: 'Yes, that's mine—U for Patrick, S for McCarthy.' Be my soul, but this 'larnin' is a fine thing. If I had not been well educated I would never 'ave known the blanket to be mine at all, at all.' Our government (Great Britain) has been imitating Patrick McCarthy, annexing uncivilized territories and explaining that it did so in the interest of civilization. 'Be my soul, but this civilization is a fine thing.' But this conduct has brought trouble."

A charitable man in Birkenhead recently sent a bundle of cast-off clothing to a philanthropic society. Later he received from one of the recipients of garments given away by the society the following note: "The community man give me, amongst other things, what he called a pair of inexpressibles. I found your name and where you lived in one of your pockets. My wife luffed so when I showed 'em to her that I thought she would have a fit. She wants to know if there lives and breathes a man who has legs no bigger than that. She sed if there was, he order be taken up for vagrancy on the ground of having no visible means of support. I couldn't get 'em on my eldest boy, so I used 'em for gun cases. If you have another pair like 'em, don't throw 'em away, my wife can hang 'em at the fireplace and use 'em to keep the tongs in.'" Weekly Telegraph.

Greatness has its drawbacks as is shown by the experience of Prince Bismark, whose eighty first birthday was recently celebrated. Innumerable presents, principally things to eat and drink, have been forwarded to Friedrichsruhe. It is a problem rather what the prince and his family do with all the hams, sausages, huge pies, cheeses, jams and barrels of wine and beer, thousands of cigars and bales of tobacco, which are constantly being sent to the venerable statesman. He and his can never eat, drink or smoke it all. No doubt a lot of it is again sent away as gifts to the favored friends of the family. The anniversary of almost every battle of the French and German wars, the anniversaries not only of the prince's children are seized as excuses for a shower of beer, sausages and cigars on Friedrichsruhe, but even the anniversary of the death of Princess Bismark is marked by the arrival of consoling "delicatessen." A short time ago, one of the Frankfurt papers had a tiny paragraph to the effect that Prince Bismark had eaten a pickled pig's foot with "evident relish." For weeks afterward jars and even barrels full of pickled pigs' feet arrived at Friedrichsruhe from all parts of Germany. The approaches of the mansion were constantly being blocked by carriers' wagons arriving with more pigs' feet until at last stopped by more paragraphs in many papers, begging "admirers" not to send any more, as the Prince now positively loathed the sight of that one kind of food. In a deep pit on the estate are now buried the trotters of hundreds of porkers, whose upper legs are perhaps destined yet to reach the ex-German chancellor in the shape of hams on one of his anniversaries.—Troy Times.

It not only is so; it must be so: One Minute Cough Cure acts quickly, and that's what makes it so.—C. Miller, the local druggist.

WISCONSIN'S RESOURCES are attracting general attention, and its railroads furnish the means to develop them. The limitless iron ore deposits of the Penokee and Gogebie Iron Ranges provide abundant opportunity for the establishment of Iron Furnaces and general iron working industries. Hardwood timber in great quantities attracts manufacturers of all wood articles including Furniture, Woodenware, Staves, Headings, Hoops and Veneering; the Granite and Lime Stone quarries are attracting attention, as their quality is unsurpassed for fine building work and strong lime. Numerous Clay, Kaolin and Marl beds furnish the best material for Tile, Brick and Pottery. All of these materials are located on the line of the WISCONSIN CENTRAL, and any one who desires to locate a manufacturing plant is requested to write us, as we desire to confer with everyone who wants a good location with facilities for reaching markets everywhere. PUBLISHED EVERY SATURDAY.

Communications sent to this office for publication should be couched in respectable language and signed by the author, in order to receive proper attention.

GEO. NUGENT, Editor.

The winter wheat throughout this section is in good condition, although it has suffered some from frost.

The 1st of next month may prove an improvement upon April arbor days if crowning May queens does not detract from the work of planting trees.

The sixtieth wedding anniversary of Theodore Nabbefeld at Kaukauna, last Saturday, brought out the fact that his support is worth considerable to a candidate for office—he has 200 relatives.

The seventh ward school trouble in Milwaukee, it seems, was caused by teachers in need of disciplining; and, it seems from the investigation, nothing short of their discharge or Commissioner Trent's resignation will settle the trouble.

The movement for a shorter work-day (the initial step of which fell to the lot of organized carpenters) is seriously handicapped owing to improved machinery and the fact that many tradesmen now have to work overtime in order to average eight hours a day.

The first meeting of the State semi-centennial committee of 100 will meet in Milwaukee on the 5th of next month. At that meeting we hope Secretary Pollock will have something to prove that the people of Wisconsin want to celebrate the 50th anniversary of our admission to statehood; also, that they favor the Cream City as the site of such a celebration.

The buying combine of flour millers has notified Milwaukee grain dealers to notify country shippers to send grain to the Cream City. Well, it will be all the better if the big millers come out in the country and buy all the milling material they want from the farmers. The grain market needs a change of some kind, and the millers can hardly do worse matters any.

Now that Senator Tillman has been forcibly kissed by a woman suffragist in Colorado, it may be said that the reward of becoming a silver god has proven sufficient punishment for the senator who called our president a tin god; and, the tin-plate manufacturers are undoubtedly rejoiced thereat, as they undoubtedly did not relish the inference that they had any part or parcel in producing the present president.

The shooting of Joseph Strong at Appleton, a week ago last Wednesday, by an officer who supposed the victim was Julius Zuehl, seems to have been prompted as much by the reward offered as anything else. However, Garvey, in all probability is not kicking himself any harder than the Kalamazoo officer who released another image of Zuehl upon the strength of the report that the Appleton product would prove a dead likeness of the eleven-hundred-dollar man.

It is estimated that 5.8 inches of water fell hereabouts during the last two weeks ending yesterday; and, as a result, the country is becoming quite rich looking. The wooded lands are resplendent with budding boughs and flitting birds, the meadows are green with growing grass and dotted with grazing kine. The brooks are swelling with drainage from the highlands, while the mills along the banks of the Milwaukee river hum accompaniments to the waters as they go over the dams and into the course below.

The debating team of the University of Wisconsin defeated a like team of Minnesotans last week. However, the faculty of the opposing university have our sympathy—not because of defeat, but owing to the disgrace brought upon their institution by the students who tampered with a U. S. mail box upon the campus by changing it from cardinal to a combination white-green color. The kind of "war-paint" used may cut quite figure in a conflict with Lo, the uncivilized Indian; but, we regret that it has led to an unlawful act over a debate between university teams.

The Indians of British Guiana, according to a writer in the Nineteenth Century, are not far removed from the lowest savages in the depths of the Dark continent. A root called the covassa is their principal food. It is prepared for use by scraping it on a piece of timber studded with sharp pebbles. Communism to its fullest extent prevails among them. As to clothes, the men get along with a breech-clout, while the women are in the height of fashion with a simple fringe. Though dwarfs, they are well made and sturdy, make capital boatmen and are excellent swimmers. Like our Indians, the women do all the real work.

The Democratic State Central committee will meet in the Plankinton house at Milwaukee on May 12 for the purpose of fixing a date for the State convention to select delegates to the National convention in Chicago. The State convention of delegates from the various congressional districts will undoubtedly produce quite a number of candidates for delegates to Chicago on July 7th, as the honor is just as great as that of a delegateship to the Republican National convention, while the distance to be traveled is considerably less. Then, too, a new chairman of the State Central committee will probably be elected, as E. C. Wall has signified his intention of retiring when the State convention meets.

It would seem, from the following, that veterans of the late war are going to be pretty well provided for, whether in National homes or out of them: "Senator Mitchell and Congressman Ojien have received a petition signed by sixty-five inmates of the Soldiers' home at Milwaukee praying for an appropriation to enable outside aid to be given to veterans entitled to admission to the home but who prefer to live outside. Many of the soldiers (the petition states) would prefer to live with their families, and they want to have their rations and clothing or the equivalent in money allowed them as though they were in the home. It is claimed that under the law such relief may be given, but it will be necessary to have a special appropriation for it."

NEW FINE FLATS.

Tillie Ramel, who was sick, is well again.

Farmers are about all through seeding in this vicinity.

Nic. Altenhofen of Adel called on his friends here last week.

Mrs. Caroline Klug went to Milwaukee last Sunday on a visit.

A party of our boys went out fishing Sunday and returned with sad faces.

H. Dahlke and wife were guests of A. G. Koch at Kewaskum last Sunday.

The infant child of Henry Ferks was christened last Sunday at his home.

Miss Louisa Haack is reported very ill and is under the care of Dr. Hausmann.

Emil Ramel is the possessor of a brand new buggy, which he purchased of L. Rosenheimer lately.

Windisch has torn down his saloon building and is now running his bar in his hall building until the new addition is completed.

BOLTONVILLE BUDGET.

Wm. Peters of West Bend spent last Sunday as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Heip.

Messrs. Jim and Ed. Riley left for Milwaukee this week, where they will spend the summer.

Messrs. P. H. Moriarity and A. Nigh of Barton made a short call on our village last Sunday evening.

F. M. Schuler departed Wednesday morning on an extended business trip through northern Wisconsin, Minnesota and South Dakota.

Miss Hattie Hasler and Julia Wislizen returned to Milwaukee last Monday after spending a short vacation with their parents here.

The Ladies Aid Society held their regular monthly social at R. H. Gordon's last Thursday afternoon. There was a good attendance.

Henry Moulter, a former resident of the Town of Scott, died at his home in Sheboygan, of pneumonia. The funeral took place last Sunday with interment in the Scott cemetery. Rev. Dexter officiating. Deceased was about 30 years of age and leaves a wife and five children to mourn his early death.

H. W. Morgenroth and Sylvester Wendel were initiated into the Modern Woodmen of America at Sunrise camp last Wednesday night. The membership of the camp has increased two fold since February and new members are being added at each meeting. Any one wishing to take advantage of the many benefits of this society should seek admission. Boltonville will soon have as large a camp as there is in the county.

LITHIA BEER.

This beer is brewed with water containing lithia, in a natural form, from our artesian well. Lithia is a recognized remedy for kidney disease and gout affections. This, combined with the admirable tonic qualities of our beer, makes it a most excellent beverage.

WAYNE WAFTINGS.

J. Foster has erected a wind-mill over his well.

Henry Heberer was over from Elbeville last Sunday.

Petri Bros. will start their cheese factory next Monday.

Henry Jung, Sr., and wife celebrated their golden wedding last Sunday.

George and Mrs. H. Petri spent last Monday and Tuesday in Milwaukee.

The Union Quadrille band will furnish music for the ball at Petri's hall to-night.

Wm. Foerster and August Zuehl made a business trip to the county seat last Monday.

Clifford R. Smallwood drove over from Kewaskum with a lady for company last Sunday.

Contractor Becker and crew are hustling up the foundation of Wm. Abel's new residence.

Mrs. Mat. Keilen and her daughter, Lizzie, of Seymour are visiting Postmaster Martin's family.

Anton and Jac. Werner of New London were here to see their sick mother during the fore part of this week.

The foundation for Abel's new building is nearly complete, and the carpenters have commenced working.

John Kippenhan, accompanied by Tillie Tolsemann of Theresa, spent last Sunday with the former's parents in our burg.

A mille and ball will be given in Petri's hall under the direction of J. J. Guenther, E. Martin and G. Wolters, next Saturday. All are invited.

Peter Ross and William Wehling went to Chicago last Monday. Wm. will remain there, having employment, but Peter will return after a visit.

J. W. Pierce, Republic, Ia., says: "I have used One Minute Cough Cure in my family and for myself, with results so entirely satisfactory that I can hardly find words to express myself as to its merits. I will never fail to recommend it to others, on every occasion that presents itself."

Chas. Miller.

WISE AND OTHERWISE.

Cumso.—When I was at Niagara Falls I went through the Cave of the Winds. Cawker.—That's nothing; when at Washington I spent an hour in the Senate gallery.—Puck.

Young Husband.—Didn't I telegraph you not to bring your mother with you? Young Wife.—That's just what she has come to see you about; she read the dispatch.—Harkon Life.

Mistress.—How is it one never hears a sound in the kitchen when your sweet heart is with you of an evening? Domestic.—Please ma'am, the poor fellow is so bashful yet that he does nothing but eat.—Tid-Bits.

Husband.—Singular! Here's another account of a bank gone to pieces, and none of the directors knew anything about what was going on. Advanced Woman.—Of course not; it wouldn't be so, though, if the directors were women!—Puck.

Mistress.—Bridget, I find that you wore one of my low-necked dresses to the bus-drivers' ball last evening. It's the worst piece of impudence I ever heard of. You ought to be ashamed of yourself.

Bridget (meekly).—O! wuz, mum; O! wuz. And me young moon said if O! iver wore sich an ondacent dress in public ag'in he'd bre'k our ingagemint.—London Tid-Bits.

A Washington correspondent finds that while the justices of the Supreme court are not as a rule absent minded, at least one of the number comes easily within that class. Not long ago he went out of town on a little trip. After his departure a page found under the justices chair a slip of paper on which was written "Mem.—Things to take along: One pair socks, one shirt, two collars, 1 pair cuffs and one wife."

A correspondent, says the New York Tribune, vouches for the truth of the following story: "Elith said a mother to her little 4-year-old daughter, 'I want you to go in your room, kneel down by your bed and ask God to forgive you for being such a very naughty little girl.' The child went, and upon returning her mother asked: 'Elith, did you ask God to forgive you for being such a bad girl?' The reply came as fast as the query: 'Yes, ma, and he said: 'Great Scott! I know lots worse little girls than you are!'"

Henry Labouchere has no sympathy with England in the troubles that she has lately brought upon herself, as he writes as follows: "Patrick McCarthy, an Irishman in America, one day found a blanket belonging to the government stores marked U. S., for United States. Pat. immediately annexed the blanket, remarking: 'Yis, that's moine—U for Patrick, S for McCarthy. Be my sowl, but this Parmin' is a fine thing. If I had not been well educated I would niver 'ave known the blanket to be mine at all, at all.' Our government (Great Britain) has been imitating Patrick McCarthy, annexing unevlized territories and explaining that it did so in the interest of civilization. 'Be my sowl, but this civilization is a fine thing.' But this conduct has brought trouble."

A charitable man in Birkenhead recently sent a bundle of cast-off clothing to a philanthropic society. Later he received from one of the recipients of garments given away by the society the following note: "The community man 'giv' me, amongst other things, what he called a pair of inexpressibles. I found your name and where you lived in one of your pockets. My wife luffed so when I showed 'em to her that I thought she would have a fit. She wants to know if there lives and breathes a man who has legs no bigger than that. She said if there was, he order be taken up for vagrancy on the ground of having no visible means of support. I couldn't get 'em on my eldest boy, so I used 'em for gym cases. If you have another pair like 'em, don't throw 'em away, my wife can hang 'em at the fireplace and use 'em to keep the tongs in."—Weekly Telegraph.

Greatness has its drawbacks as is shown by the experience of Prince Bismarck, whose eighty first birthday was recently celebrated. Innumerable presents, principally things to eat and drink, have been forwarded to Friedrichsruhe. It is a problem rather what the prince and his family do with all the hams, sausages, huge pies, cheeses, jams and barrels of wine and beer, thousands of cigars and bales of tobacco, which are constantly being sent to the venerable statesman. He and his can never eat, drink or smoke it all. No doubt a lot of it is again sent away as gifts to the favored friends of the family. The anniversary of almost every battle of the French and German wars, the anniversaries not only of the prince's children are seized as excuses for a shower of beer, sausages and cigars on Friedrichsruhe, but even the anniversary of the death of Princess Bismarck is marked by the arrival of consoling "delicatessen." A short time ago, one of the Frankfort papers had a tiny paragraph to the effect that Prince Bismarck had eaten a pickled pig's foot with "evident relish." For weeks after pickled jars and even barrels full of pickled pigs' feet arrived at Friedrichsruhe from all parts of Germany. The approaches of the mansion were constantly being blocked by carriers' wagons arriving with more pigs' feet until at last stopped by more paragraphs in many papers, begging "admirers" not to send any more, as the prince now positively loathed the sight of that one kind of food. In a deep pit on the estate are now buried the trotters of hundreds of porkers, whose upper legs are perhaps destined yet to reach the ex-German chancellor in the shape of hams on one of his anniversaries.—Troy Times.

It not only is so; it must be so: One Minute Cough Cure acts quickly, and that's what makes it so.—C. Miller, the local druggist.

WISCONSIN'S RESOURCES
are attracting general attention, and its railroads furnish the means to develop them. The limitless iron ore deposits of the Penokee and Gogebic Iron Ranges provide abundant opportunity for the establishment of Iron Furnaces and general iron working industries. Hardwood timber in great quantities attracts manufacturers of all wood articles including Furniture, Woodware, Staves, Headings, Hoops and Veneering; the Granite and Lime Stone quarries are attracting attention, as their quality is unsurpassed for fine building work and strong lime. Numerous Clay, Kaolin and Marl beds furnish the best material for Tile, Brick and Pottery.
All of these materials are located on the line of the Wisconsin Central, and any one who desires to locate a manufacturing plant is requested to write us, as we desire to confer with everyone who wants a good location with facilities for reaching markets everywhere.
