FINANCIAL COMMUNICATION.

Editor Statesman:—Until recently, I have been an ardent advocate of the single gold standard, principally because it is now the monetary standard of all the great commercial nations of the world. However, since studying the question more thoroughly and impartially, I am free to admit that I have almost changed my mind.

It is a striking fact that the people of this country seem to be unanimously opposed to the single gold standard, for in all the national conventions that have been held so far they have declared in favor of bimetalism. The Democratic, Populist, National and Silver parties have boldly declared in favor of the free and unlimited coinage of both gold and silver at the ratio of 16 to 1 without waiting for the aid or consent of any other nation on earth; that means independent bimetalism. The Republicans, in their platform, express themselves in favor of bimetalism, but only when it can be brought about by an international agreement.

The first four parties say that the single gold standard is an injury to the laborers, farmers and business men of this country and propose a practical remedy for the evil. On the other hand the Republicans, in their platform, freely admit that the single gold standard is a bad thing, otherwise why should they try to get rid of it. But, they propose a remedy for the evil that is wholly impractical, and I predict the change can never be brought about in that way.

They wish to invite the principal commercial nations of the world to an international monetary conference and beg them to help us out of the single gold standard, which is admitted by all parties to be a very bad thing. This position of the Republican party might be considered ludicrous if it were not at the same time so humiliating to a very patriotic and proud American. Therefore, I prefer the Democratic party, which maintains that this country is great enough, and that its intelligent people are entirely competent to make their own financial laws.

As I said before, it is no longer necessary to argue the question of bimetalism; Republicans, as well as Democrats, agree that both gold and silver should be used as ultimate redemption money, because all the gold in the world could be put into a room 22 feet high, 22 feet wide, and 22 feet long; and that is certainly not enough alone to serve as money for our ever increasing population and commercial transactions; therefore, silver must be used in addition at a certain ratio.

If we adopt the Republican proposition and wait till England, Germany and France will kindly help us out, our farmers, laborers and business men may die in full faith of resurrection, but minus the relief. The Rothschild-Morgans, foreign capitalists and money lenders, are too well pleased with the present arrangement to voluntarily allow their respective governments to make a change. If the United States adopts free coinage of both gold and silver at the present ratio, 16 to 1, the least confusion will result, and the least injustice will be done to the people as a whole, while the foreign capitalists who have largely invested in American bonds, stocks, and securities will gladly force their respective governments to abolish the single standard and adopt the bimetallic currency. They will be compelled to do so.

If the change were made, I admit that all money lenders might not be done full justice. On the other hand, the present condition of things cannot last much longer because of the suffering it entails among laborers, farmers, and business men; therefore, the sooner the change is made the better. Capitalists always assume some risk when they invest their money.

One of the objections to the proposed change, from a Democratic standpoint, is that it would greatly benefit silvermine owners. If the law were enacted for the express purpose of benefiting them the objection would be grave, for the Democratic principles forbid class legislation of whatever kind, especially McKinleyism.

The fact is, however, that the law is to be enacted for the relief of the people as a whole, and the objection that silvermine owners might benefit thereby to a considerable extent is not a good reason for deferring much-needed financial legislation.

Again, our opponents maintain that in the event of this country alone adopting free coinage, surely all the silver of the world will be dumped on our shores and made into American dollars. This, again, would result in our benefit, for these foreigners would necessarily be compelled to take back with them something in return for their silver. They would exchange their dollars for the products of our farms and factories or invest them in American real estate and securities—just what we want. They will not leave their silver here for nothing.

Our opponents point to Mexico as an example of free coinage. We, in return, point to Brazil, a gold country, and ask them if not all travelers are agreed that the people of Mexico are as just as civilized and prosperous as the inhabitants of Brazil. The gold standard countries—such as the United States, England, Germany and France—are not the most enlightened and principal commercial nations of the world because of the gold standard, but in spite of the British standard.

Lastly, our Republican friends object to Mr. Bryan's candidity on account of his not being old enough. Let me tell them that youth is not always evidence of immaturity or age a synonym of wisdom. Alexander, at 24, went because he had no more worlds to conquer. Jesus of Nazareth, at the age of 30, was the founder of the christian religion. Napoleon, when 33 years old, made himself emperor of France. Washington, at the age of 42 was made commander-in-chief of the American army. Jefferson, at 33, drew up the Declaration of Independence. Webster, at the age of 31, was the ablest debater in the House of Representatives and had risen to the highest rank in his profession as a constitutional lawyer. Russel was elected governor of Massachusetts when only 30 years old and was admitted one of the best executives that the old Bay State ever had.

If elected, Wm. J. Bryan, when 37 years old, will begin to give us as good an administration as this country has ever been favored with, just as surely as he is now the most eloquent and ablest orator and debater in the world. Jeffersonian simplicity will once more distinguish official life in the Capital city and the interests of the common people receive the same consideration as those of the protection-made millionaires.

I will add that this communication was written for the thoughtful, honest and unbiased readers of the STATESMAN and is not expected to influence those who are blinded by narrow, partisan prejudice.

The Republicans made that law compelling the maintenance of the specie reserve at the $1,000,000 mark; and, Cleveland, as a faithful president, is simply obeying the law. The Republicans also made that greenback law which enables the speculator of Wall street to deplete the treasury and corner the gold. The tariff has nothing to do with this, for revenues and government dues can and are being paid in greenbacks, silver certificates, etc. This depletion was begun during Harrison's administration, as anyone can verify for himself by reading Secretary Foster's reports.

There is not the slightest doubt but that the gold withdrawals will continue, no matter who is elected, until our financial laws are changed. Under existing circumstances, it will be almost impossible to keep up the specie reserve; and, the man who says that the present Democratic administration is to blame for this condition of affairs, either does not know any better or deliberately tries to mislead people. The panic was at its highest when every Republican law was in full force and effect. The Wilson-Gorman tariff law was not passed until over a year later. Verily, deception, not to use a harsher term, will soon be a synonym of Republicanism. Again, there would now be a surplus in the U. S. treasury but for the adverse decision of our revered (?) supreme court on the income tax.

If you have ever seen a little child in the agony of summer complaint, you can realize the danger of the trouble and appreciate the value of instantaneous relief always offered by DeWitt's Colic and Cholera Cure. For dysentery and diarrhoea it is a reliable remedy. We could not afford to recommend this as a cure unless it is a cure.—Chas. Miller.

Extension from Milwaukee tomorrow at 10 a. m. Philip Schneider of St. Michaels left last Thursday.

Mr. H. P. Schmidt of the Cream City was here yesterday. Grand ball tomorrow evening at New park. All are invited.

Chas. Stark of Hartford is a guest here at the Rosenheimer family. Peter Loewen, T. S. revenue collector, was a caller here yesterday.

Some folks attached to a ring and chain. Please leave at this office. E. J. Hoering, the house mover of Kilian, was a caller here Thursday.

Fred. and Della Wagner of Milwaukee are guests at Dr. Elmergreen's. Lena Lusko of Mayville is here visiting her brother Charles and family.

Frank Kleist of Milwaukee was a guest of the Carl Dahlke family yesterday. Adolph Lieberman of the Gutsch sewing company, was here last Tuesday.

Mrs. Otto Backhaus and children spent Sunday with her parents in Oshkosh. Miss Lizzie Kempfer of West Bend was a guest of Miss Trillie Vogt here this week.

Mrs. Geo. Kern and children of the Cream City are guests of H. J. Lay and family. The Eagle hotel is being painted quite tastily by G. B. Wright and his workmen.

Fred. Belanke and family drove to Cascade last Sunday and visited there with relatives. A grand harvest ball will be given at F. Dyckman's hall at New Prospect next Saturday.

Excelsior—a pair of gold spectacles in case. Owner can have same by calling at this office. Peter Malget and H. Transch of Chicago were guests of Jos. Winandy here last Sunday.

Chas. Lusko and family spent Sunday at Plymouth, where they were guests of H. Lusko. Miss Olga Dahlke of Cedar Lake was here on a visit to her parents last Thursday and Friday.

The examination of teachers, last Wednesday and Thursday at the Public school house, was well attended. Oscar Mertz, who owns a large farm in Fond du Lac county, was here last Tuesday visiting Chas. Mertz.

N. J. Schaefer has moved his cigar factory into the Mertes building on Railroad street, opposite the depot. A coat of paint was applied to the North side park, this week, and it improves the appearance considerably.

The Democratic congressional convention for this county will be held at the grand opera house here on Sept. 5. Mrs. Aug. Mayer of Milwaukee returned home last Tuesday after spending a week with P. Plim and family.

Geo. Schief, Simon Somer, Theo. Schick, are the town delegates to the Democratic convention in Hartford today. Fannie Neidhafer left last Tuesday for her home in Milwaukee after spending a week with Mrs. A. Wagner here.

A new iron-bridge is to be built in the place of the old wooden-bridge over the creek south of here, by the C. & N.-W. Line. Rev. Frantz and children of Cleveland, O., arrived here Thursday and is the guest of his brother-in-law, H. J. Lay and family.

Tony Schaefer, who was formerly a cigar manufacturer here with G. F. Heiser, has decided to re-engage in that business here. R. Kusche and family of Oshkosh visited here from Saturday to Tuesday with Mrs. Kusche's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Backhaus, Sr.

Section Foreman Aringe has received tiling for a sewer, which is to be laid along the railroad track, from the main house to the river. M. Rosenheimer and family have returned from Cedar Lake as a result of renting their cottage to a Milwaukee party for a few weeks.

Those of our young ladies who gave their gallants an excursion trip to Long lake, some time ago, were tendered a return trip to the same place Sunday by the gentlemen.

Kilian Schmidt, C. C. Schwartz and brother, Henry, of Chicago who are spending a vacation with the former's parents at St. Kilian, were callers here last Tuesday.

Anna Marschall, while returning from Holy Hill last Sunday, lost her pocket-book, which contained $25. It is supposed to have been lost between here and A. Foot's farm.

Nic. Remmel is about as busy as a doctor during an epidemic; and this was especially so last Tuesday, when he was called to go in several different directions and fix up threshing outfits.

L. Michel, who formerly conducted the local bakery, was here from New Prospect last Wednesday enroute to West Bend. He says he will take possession of the Arimond mills in Dundee on Sept. 1st.

N. C. Michaels of Campbellsport is deepening the well on Jacob Van Vechten's farm. The depth was 60 feet but the drill is now down through solid rock, and an increased supply of water is expected.

Rev. F. P. Grome of Milwaukee and Mr. Zellock and daughter of Missouri, were guests of Frank Harter and Rev. Vogt last Monday; and they attended the Golden Jubilee over in St. Michaels last Tuesday.

Parties desiring to put up fine pickles can now get some excellent cucumbers from John Koehler of this place. Drop him a postal card and he will deliver the goods in whatever quantity you order them.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. H. Wittenberg on Aug. 16, 1896, a boy and a girl. Both mother and twins are doing well, while "Hank" bears up nobly, considering the showers of congratulations which are being heaped upon him.

The Bryan club will have their installation of officers next Monday evening at the Grand opera house. The officers, as elected last Monday night, are: H. Backhaus, Sr., president; N. Neuburg, vice-president; F. Gottschleben, secretary; H. Backhaus, Jr., treasurer.

The Democratic village caucus, which was held last Thursday evening, elected the following delegates to the county convention at Hartford today: N. M. Deutsch, J. J. Altenhofen and Jacob Schlosser. The delegation was instructed to support pronounced silver candidates in the county convention.

DIED.—At the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Sam Habig, in Wayne on Aug. 20th, at 3 p. m., Ludwig Heiser, aged 78 years. The deceased had been ill only a few days and was here at his son George's place last week. The funeral services will be held in St. Kilian today at 10 a. m.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Gottschleben and family left last Saturday for Winnetonka, Wis., to visit relatives there. A fine mess of fish was received here, from Frank, last Monday, showing that he was enjoying his vacation. However, they returned last Tuesday, and Mr. G. is now attending to his duties as station agent here.

The building occupied by the STATESMAN will be moved to the south end of the lot, next week; and a brand new brick structure 34x50 will be erected upon the present site by our landlord, Nic. Marx. The design contemplates a 2-story building with two store-rooms on the first floor and a hall over all, on the second floor.

A large number of friends, from here and Elmore, surprised Willie Hausmann last Thursday evening in honor of his 17th anniversary. The party gathered at Mrs. C. Fleischmann's residence at 8 o'clock and marched to the Hausmann residence, where the Kewaskum Brass quartette serenaded him. All who were present enjoyed the occasion.

A party of five strangers hired a livery team at West Bend last Tuesday; and, after visiting St. Michaels, ordered the teamster to drive over here, where the quintette skipped and left their livery bill unpaid. When last seen they were going north on the Fond du Lac road. It is generally supposed that they were a gang of crooks, who failed to secure enough booty at St. Michaels to pay their bill.

The Wild West show, which Buffalo Bill will give in Milwaukee next Monday and Tuesday, is said to contain all of the attractions exhibited by him in Chicago during the World's fair; but, we predict, the great scout himself will prove quite an attraction, as every newspaper reporter will endeavor to get his opinion on the political situation. However, as "Bill" is somewhat noted for business sagacity, it is safe to bet that he will neither say nor do anything which will detract the public's interest from his Congress of Rough Riders of the World. Bill's eloquence emanates principally from his cartridge belt, while in the show business; but, he is said to have secured a 1 1/2 fare from here to Milwaukee for the above dates without making a bit of noise about it.

NEW FINE FLATS. Fred Wiese and wife visited Random Lake last Sunday. Miss Annie Strupp is visiting with the Marx family. Louis Wiese was here a few days visiting his parents.

Miss Susie Fellenz made a trip to Fond du Lac last Saturday. A. C. Wynobel of the commission firm of Wynobel and Schroeder of Milwaukee had business here Thursday.

Last Thursday, while Frank Kiser and his helper were cleaning a well for Gus. Brown between Beechwood and Cascade, the former fell out of the bucket when lowered about 20 feet. The helper was then lowered and he, also, fell to the bottom of the well.

It is 60 feet from the surface to the bottom of the well, and it is generally supposed that the victims were overcome by gas. However, neighbors soon gathered and recovered the bodies of the dead men with the aid of ropes and grappling hooks.

Mr. Kaiser leaves a family living on a farm two miles east of Beechwood. He has been digging wells many seasons past and was well known here.

SOUTH DAKOTA SIFTINGS. The "old settler" and I were busy, during the last week in July, cutting grain for H. Zuehlke; and, on Aug. 1, the latter's brother August arrived from McCook county (36 miles south) with another binder, and he will help us this week, as Anton had his 100 acres cut in July. So, two binders started in on Jo. Zuehlke's place this week. On Wednesday Henry had 100 acres of wheat to cut yet, so three binders were put in the field, and on Thursday there were four running until 4 p. m., when we finished the job. The scene was interesting enough to repay a photographer for reproducing it. Imagine 4 binders, each with 4 horses and a driver, cutting grain while 4 men shocked it.

Henry Miller, son of Fred. Miller who lived in Wayne, owns 400 acres and is a wide-awake farmer. He was the first to commence stacking (last Wednesday) in this vicinity. He had 225 acres of grain, besides flax.

Six miles to the north-east there is a butter factory, which is owned by a club of farmers. The employees consist of a butter-maker and a salesman. Farmers, it seems, are gradually giving more attention to dairy matters.

Adolph Schmidt, son of Jno. Schmidt of Campbellsport owns a half-section adjoining his father's quarter here, although Adolph has a tenant upon it, as he is register of deeds here. However, the farm produced 250 acres of grain besides flax.

Wayne Warnings. Subscribe for the STATESMAN. Watch for the date of the leap year dance.

Geo. Petri of this place left for Milwaukee last Thursday on business. Geo. Abel of Kewaskum spent Sunday with parents and friends on a visit here.

The duck-hunting season will open Sept. 1. Wm. Kohl was here in the interest of Barwig Bros. last Thursday, a week ago.

Mrs. Kayser of Merton, Wis., is at present visiting relatives and friends here. Barney Demerest spent Sunday with relatives and friends on a visit at Kewaskum.

Messrs. Ernst Martin and Peter Bonello of Campbellsport were here last Sunday. Call on Postmaster Martin for your dynamite. 50, 60 and 75 per cent. dynamite on hand.

Miss Rosa Petri of this place attended the basket picnic at Long Lake with Kewaskum young people. Messrs. Kilian Schmidt and Schwartz of Chicago are spending a few weeks with the former's father and relatives.

Richard Frenz and his best lady friend from here spent Sunday with relatives and friends at Knowles on a visit. Quite a number of our young men attended the dance in St. Kilian last Sunday evening, and they had a good time.

Rosalie Kohl of this place attended the teachers' meeting at Kewaskum this week. As we hear, she will teach again in District No. 5.

Mr. Heiser, an aged man, is sick at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Samuel Hawig. He was so ill Tuesday that the children were called to see him. Henry Kohl, while a threshing machine was operating at his place last Monday, had the misfortune to fall through the hay loft of his barn and break two ribs. A physician was summoned, and the patient is now recovering from the effects of his fall.

Joachim G. Struening, who died here recently, was born in Meshlunburg Scherwin in the year 1815. In 1843 he married Charlotte Brandt, who died in 1858. Later he married Dorothea Schwartz, who survives him. He came to America in 1808 and settled in Wayne, Washington county, Wis.

The harvest festival and ball at St. Mack's hall last Sunday was a success in spite of the counter-attraction of Theresa and Ashford. There was a fine promenade concert in the afternoon, and over 60 couples enjoyed dancing till the dawn of the next day. Messrs. Louis, Richard and J. Wahlert were the floor managers, and George Wienner acted as prompter for the square dances. Schmidt's family orchestra furnished the music, assisted by Nic. Goring, the local clarinet virtuoso.

VILLAGE BOARD PROCEEDINGS. Kewaskum, Wis., Aug. 13, 1896. 7:30 p. m. The Village board met in special session with President Rosenheimer in the chair and all members present, except Albert Buss.

The meeting was called by the president for the purpose of taking steps to finish graveling and constructing sidewalk on Fond du Lac street, from Main street south to Dr. Brandt's residence. On motion it was Resolved, that the Street committee be and is hereby authorized and directed to buy the gravel and have Fond du Lac street from Main street south to Dr. Brandt's residence gravelled, and the east side of said street gutter-paved with stone; and, further,

Resolved, That the sidewalk committee be and is hereby authorized and directed to grade and construct a sidewalk on the east side of said street without delay. On motion the board adjourned. JOSEPH SCHMIDT, Clerk.

Ollie Schoetz, while climbing a ladder at the home of his uncle, H. Reis, of Scott, fell and fractured his collarbone. Mrs. Arnold of Fond du Lac, Mrs. Miller and daughter of Minneapolis, are visiting with the family of J. Bolton.

Mrs. L. A. Mallon and children, Frank Hanley, wife and child of the Cream City are visiting at the home of Thomas Riley. The house of J. Lussenden was brightened by the arrival of a little son on Tuesday, likewise the home of Mr. Lippert, on Saturday.

Married at the home of the bride's parents last Sunday, Emily Grundemann to John Schlamer of the town of West Bend. We wish them a happy future. Died, last Saturday, at the home of her sister at Chicago, Anna Clemens, aged 15 years. The remains were brought to West Bend, thence conveyed to her home near Newburg, where they were interred on Wednesday.

A number of our people attended the golden jubilee at St. Michaels last Tuesday. The untiring efforts of both pastor and congregation, to make the celebration a success, met favor amongst the large crowd which assembled, and all returned to their homes highly pleased with the pleasures of the day.

Democratic Congressional County Convention. Notice is hereby given that the Democratic congressional county convention for the purpose of electing 5 delegates to the Fifth Congressional district convention to be held at West Bend, September 8, 1896, will be held at the Grand opera house in Kewaskum, on Saturday, Sept. 5, at 1 p. m. The representation will be the same as at our other county convention. By order of committee, PH. SCHNEIDER, Chairman.

Wm. Pool went to Oshkosh last Thursday to attend the Sixth district congressional convention. Miss Olive Potter, who has been visiting here for the past 4 weeks, returned to Oakfield last Wednesday. The boys are all delighted now, as well as some of the older ones with the "merry-go-round," which is in operation here between the two towns.

WOMEN WANT TO KNOW.

TO WHOM CAN THEY TELL THEIR TROUBLES?

A Woman Answers "To Me"—Anxious Inquirers Intelligently Answered—Thousands of Grateful Letters.

Women regard it as a blessing that they can talk to a woman who fully understands their every ailment, and thus avoid the examinations, experiments and theories of incompetent physicians...

Female diseases yield to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once. Inflammation, ulceration, falling and displacement of the womb, ovarian troubles, spinal weakness and kidney complaints, all have their symptoms, and should be "nipped in the bud."

Here is testimony right to the point: "The doctors told me that unless I went to the hospital and had an operation performed, I could not live. I had falling, enlargement and ulceration of the womb."

"I was in constant misery all the time; my back ached; I was always tired. It was impossible to get up, to go to bed, to walk, to stand, to sit, to lie down, to do anything at all. I was a wreck. I decided that I would give your Compound and Sanative Wash a trial."

"I took three bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and used two packages of Sanative Wash, and I am now almost well. I am stouter and healthier than I have ever been in my life. My friends and neighbors and the doctors are surprised at my rapid improvement. I have told them all what I have been taking."

STURGE FIGS

Gladness Comes With a better understanding of the transient nature of the many physical ills, which vanish before proper efforts—rational efforts—pleasant efforts—rightly directed. There is comfort in the knowledge, that so many forms of sickness are not due to any actual disease, but simply to a contracted condition of the system, which the pleasant family laxative, Syrup of Figs, promptly removes.

PRINTESS CONSUMME.

Delicious First Course for Summer Month Dinners. Take three parts of rich consommé. It is not too necessary to say that this is never a simple beef soup, but a "double stock," made from beef and vegetables, boiled in another stock made from veal and other vegetables.

NEW VEGETABLES OF PARIS.

The City is Decorating Itself in Honor of the Great Exposition. Paris is taking great pains in the preparations for the exposition of 1900 to make it far and away above anything of the kind yet.

There will be public parks, gardens and squares erected in all parts of the city. The park of the Bois de Boulogne, and in the St. Marguerite quarter. Rows of trees will be planted at the "plantations" on the banks of the Canal St. Martin will be covered with turf.

Drinking in Hot Weather.

"If people only know how to really quench their thirst in this hot weather," said an up-town physician, "they would not be so thirsty as they are."

Physician's Advice for Hot Weather.

Dr. T. H. Smith, coroner's physician of New York city, said that the only slight knowledge and care by the public generally would put a stop to the high death rate from the heat in this city.

Continuous Wool Spinning.

A unique kind of machine has been devised by the inventor (R. L. Machine and Press Company) which continuously spins wool, thus rendering practicable the superduper of the wool spinning machine.

Use Good Seed.

Many farmers make the mistake of arguing this way: "I have some good grain that will bring a good price on the market; I will sell that. I have some poor shrivelled grain that grew down on low ground. I will keep that for seed."

Control of Swarming.

To control swarming bees, remove one of the prime factors. Brood is the only factor we can remove and not defeat our object—of decreasing the brood, instead of decreasing the honey yield, rather increases it.

Some Essentials to Success.

Farming is not a business where the failure of one adds to the success of another; on the contrary, the success of each individual is largely dependent upon the prosperity of all. The product from poorly farmed farms is of an inferior quality, for which it is difficult to find buyers.

ARMS AND FARMERS.

more buyers you will have for your product, and the competition upon the part of buyers will enable you to get good prices within easy distance of your own doors.

Vegetable Forcing House.

A good plan for securing a maximum of warmth at the least possible expenditure of internal heat is shown below. Such a house is, moreover, cheaply built as where loose stones are abundant, or simply rounded cobblestones.

BANK FORCING HOUSE.

The rear and end walls should have a tile drain laid just outside of their base, coming out upon the surface at the front. The rear wall should rise a little above the ground, which should be graded a trifle higher in the middle at the rear than at the ends to turn aside the surface water.

A Pretty Lawn Table.

Stumps of old trees that have outlived their usefulness and been relegated to the wood pile are not uncommonly seen upon lawns, and many attempts are made to turn them into artistic and useful objects.

Freezing Ice Cream.

Do not draw any water from the ice when freezing, unless water rises to the top of the can. The can should be one-third full of milk, as it will raise one-third while freezing.

Gooseberry Pickling.

To one pint of fine gooseberries add six slices of stale bread, one cupful of milk, half a cupful of sugar, one tablespoonful of butter, melted. Stew the gooseberries slowly ten minutes, cut the slices of bread to fit the dish and toast a light brown; dip each piece, while hot, in milk and spread with the melted butter.

Raspberry Shortcake.

To one quart of flour add two teaspoonfuls of baking powder and one teaspoonful of salt; rub thoroughly into this two tablespoonfuls of butter; add milk enough to make a soft dough; roll out about to one inch in thickness; roll in your pans and bake in a quick oven twenty minutes.

Picnic Biscuits.

Dissolve a half cake of compressed yeast in one cupful of warm cream, add two cupfuls of warm water and beat until thoroughly. Put in a warm place until well risen, then add sufficient flour to make a very soft dough; divide into two portions; roll each portion to about one-half inch thickness. Spread one sheet of dough with chopped figs or raisins, cover with the other; cut into biscuits of fancy shapes; allow them to rise until very light, and bake.

Hints to Housewives.

Paint upon window glass may be easily removed by rubbing with a cloth wet in hot strong vinegar. To ascertain if an egg is fresh, put it in a pail of water. If good it will sink immediately; if it floats it is doubtful.

Horizontal Hints.

Cultivate a home-town market. There is a form of blight working upon apple, cherry and quince trees, which is quite destructive. Are the young trees in the orchard starting in the right position—leaning a little to the southwest?

Home-tried Lard is Better and Stronger.

Home-tried lard is better and stronger than that which can be bought and does not require a great deal of time. To prevent lard from becoming rancid add some table salt to the lard when it is hot, in proportion of one teaspoonful of salt to each quart of liquid lard, and cook a few moments after the salt is added.

Summer Screen Easily Made.

Even the poorest days may develop a draft. In every family there is apt to be one member at least who is susceptible to currents of air that sweep around corners and enter through open doorways; therefore, a screen is desirable quite as much during the long summer days as when closed windows and steam make the winter home into a hothouse.

Milk Booths in New York.

Nathan Strauss milk booths, which are scattered throughout the city, are a godsend to the poor this weather. Big glasses of cool, sterilized milk can be obtained for 1 cent, and for warm regions the stands all day long, keeping the dairy maids busy dishing out the refreshing stands all day long.

Wisconsin Patents.

Patents for the following Wisconsin inventors are reported for this week by Erwin Wheeler & Wheeler, 58 and 59 Loan and Trust Building, Milwaukee, Wis. These attorneys will furnish the following: J. E. Lomon, E. Bernard, safety driving clutch; S. P. Cooke, Independence, reaping and mowing machine; J. C. Cross, Rockwell, C. Gerlach and E. Gebel, Milwaukee, aggr., cut-off and polishing machine; Milwaukee Harvester company, Milwaukee, self-feeding harrow; and separate parts thereof (trade mark).

A Chameleon Trout.

There is a peculiar species of trout in France which is called the "blackburn." It is almost pure black when taken from the water, but changes color to suit the receptacle in which it is put. In a white jar the creature changes to a pure albino from two to three days, in Scotland it changes back to black when put in a dark vessel.

Hall's Catarrh Cure
