It is reported that an electric railway will be constructed between Oshkosh and Stevens Point this year.

With the street car tax bill in force the Milwaukee Street Railway company would pay $90,000 taxes this year instead of $25,000.

The funeral of Fius Dreher, who was well known throughout the state as proprietor of the Milwaukee garden, occurred in the Cream City on the 10th inst.

The punishment for the Pelican Lake election booth incendiaries should be little short of hanging, if found guilty of having fired the building for the purpose of burning up election returns.

The National Educational association will convene in Milwaukee on Tuesday, July 6th, and hold a 3-days session. A large attendance of Wisconsin pedagogues is naturally expected.

WILLIAM J. BRYAN'S plan of honoring Thomas Jefferson's memory is to have the government set aside Monticello, the Virginia home of Jefferson, as a reservation, to be thrown open to the people.

The Milwaukee street railway conductors who took some $5 gold-pieces for nickels and afterward turned them over to the company, are honest or else they suspected that the parties who tendered the yellow coin were "spotters."

With a candidate for United States senator indicted for bribery, all eyes are glancing toward Kentucky; but this will have no effect its output of whisky, as any unusual stir at the capital tends to throw revenue officers off the scent of "moonshiners."

It sounds queer to hear that Jose d'Amieva and Jose Gonzales are American citizens, but it must be true or else they would not have been liberated by the Spanish authorities in Cuba. Still, upon considering the matter further, we find that "Telephone Paulson" is an American citizen, also; so, in this respect, it seems that "there is nothing in a name."

The fish and game law, which some of our correspondents are anxious about, is now out in pamphlet form and may be had upon dropping a postal to an assemblyman. Among the new features is a provision requiring non-residents to pay $30 for the right to hunt deer, while residents pay only $1 for the same privilege. The duck and chicken season opens ten days later than formerly, and the spring shooting of ducks is discouraged by a provision prohibiting shipping or selling them.

The last four presidential elections likely prompted the following, from the Atlanta (Ga.) Constitution: "A majority of the people of this country are committed to no political party and never will be again. At every election they will vote the tickets of that party which most nearly represents their ideas of good government. Shibboleths that once roused men to enthusiasm are now empty clamor; scarecrows that used to huddle voters into herds are now unnoticed in the march to the polls."

The death of Daniel Wolsey Voorhees, ex-United States senator from Indiana, occurred at Washington last Saturday and the remains were interred at Terre Haute, Ind., yesterday. The deceased was a leading Democrat of the hoosier state and a lawyer of national reputation. In the latter connection it is related that "he figured in one of the most sensational murder trials in the history of Wisconsin—that of Willis Haseltine at Stevens Point, for the killing of Banker Morse. In the closing argument Voorhees made a memorable plea for Haseltine. The fact of the shooting was undisputed, but Senator Voorhees told the jurors that for over 200 years no jury of Anglo-Saxons had convicted a man of murder when he had slain the wrecker of his home. He said that the jury might avoid a conviction by finding that Haseltine was temporarily insane at the time of the shooting, and this the jurors promptly did."

The Chicago wholesale houses—of some of them—are preparing "a novel and original method of selling goods to the retail merchants in the smaller cities and towns." The Chronicle says, "in the new scheme rival drummers will travel together on special trains composed of Pullman cars, which will be arranged for the display of samples and for the permanent homes of the drummers while on the road. The train will roll into a town and the retail merchants will repair to it. Each drummer will be on hand before his own particular compartment of a car to exploit the qualities of his goods. The retail merchant will thus have an opportunity for comparing samples of different manufactures far better than he has ever had before." The plan seems to contemplate sending the store out to the patron instead of having the patron go to the store, as it were. It would enable the drummer to get over the road without carrying baggage, riding freight trains or putting up at "jim crow" hotels, and it would also enable his employer to figure out his expenses to a cent. However we do not expect to see the plan carried out until locomotives run by electricity.

The murderer of Blanche Lamont, Theodore Durant, has (for the second time) been sentenced to be hanged at San Quentin, Cal., on June 11th. The case is of the Pearl Bryan order, with the defense equally bent on staying justice, so Durant's death upon the gallows is anxiously awaited by all who believe in capital punishment.

THE government appropriation to relieve flood sufferers, along the banks of the Mississippi and Missouri rivers, is being used to good advantage, according to late reports. If the waters of streams take to receding soon, quite a portion of the appropriation may also be used re-establishing the sufferers on the sites of their former homes.

DIED.—At the residence of her parents, April 17, 1897, Mrs. Josie Farrell, aged 7 years. The deceased was sick but a short time; her illness was not regarded seriously until shortly before her death, when her condition became so critical that the best of medical aid was summoned without avail. The funeral was held last Thursday, and the remains were followed to their last resting place by a large concourse of relatives and friends. The pall bearers were Misses Flora Kohler, Mamie and Annie Flynn and Regina Thill.

"The difference between a newspaper man and a journalist," says a Kansas editor, "is that the newspaper man wears two white shirts a week while the journalist wears a white shirt two weeks."

WHEN?

When words are deeds,
When fiction is fact,
When credit is cash,
Other flour may be as good as White Pearl.

The Worry cow might have lived till now
If she hadn't lost her breath;
But she thought her hay wouldn't last all day,
And thus worried herself to death.

Though every rival does its best,
White Pearl leads all the rest;

Book Beer on Tap Tomorrow. The local agent of the Gutsch Brewing company informs us that he will deliver book beer to the retailers tomorrow, and, as the West Bend Brewing company is never behind in catering to the trade, we presume that there will be "locks enough to go around."

As to the origin of the term, "book beer," a note around and over to the "Kansas" side of town will prove that it is a beverage of such unusual color and potency as to be appropriately designated by a prancing billy-goat. It is held by some people that book beer is a fresh brew made of barley malt of the new crop of grain; but, a recent writer on the subject says, "it is not only a strong beer but an old one; and, if produced of early grain, it was of the spring before the beer hoists the national monarch of the flock as its emblematic banner."

There are a long time to fight so painful a disease as piles, but Jacob Mitchell of Union, Mo., arranged that long before he tried Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, which quickly and permanently cured him. It is equally effective for hemorrhoids and all skin affections.—C. Miller.

LAONICAL LOCALS.

Moving time is over. —Spring chickens—on the shell. —Fourth of July occurs on Sunday this year. —Easter bonnets will be out in full bloom tomorrow. —Miss Agnes Ryan spent Saturday in the Cream City. —The new fish and game law took effect last Saturday. —"Sunshine and shadow" is an appropriate April motto. —The newly elected village officers were sworn in last Monday. —See first page for an obituary notice of C. H. Miller of West Bend. —Potatoes are being marketed in large quantities here now days. —The latest news, relative to the Barton church trouble, appears upon the first page.

Miss Thekla Backhaus left for Marshfield last Thursday, where she intends to visit a week.

—Attorney H. P. Schmidt of Milwaukee called on relatives and friends here last Sunday. —Mr. and Mrs. Louis Krenn of St. Lawrence were guests of Baker Heilmann over Sunday. —Henry Wenzel and Henry Degenerhart of Campbellsport were among the Sunday callers here. —The air, during a portion of this week, has been quite chilly and ice formed during the nights. —There will be a grand Easter ball at Schneider's next Monday evening, and all are invited to attend. —Jacob Blake has improved the Madison house bar-room by laying a new hardwood floor therein. —Try the West Bend Brewing company's book beer—on draught tomorrow and sold by all dealers. —Last Monday L. Neuberg sold the jewelry store building, which he occupies, to Mat. Beisbier for $150. —Thanks to the many who have kindly remitted, and especially to those whose paper is now stamped "97." —F. Gueths, formerly the miller of the Kewaskum Mills, moved his household goods to Fond du Lac last Thursday. —It will soon be time for the Kewaskum base-ball club to reorganize, if we are going to have a nine this season. —Miss Mary Harter left for Milwaukee last Sunday with the intention of remaining in the Cream City for some time. —Joseph Mack, the well-known tavern keeper, was down from St. Kilian last Wednesday renewing old acquaintances here. —R. S. Demarest will commence making cheese, at his factory (formerly Ferber Bros.) next Monday morning, April 19th. —Beisbier & Gritter shipped two carloads of stock last Tuesday, and Backhaus & Hinkel shipped two more Wednesday. —Drs. Hausmann and Herriges attended the quarterly meeting of the Brainard Medical association at Milwaukee last Tuesday. —Mmes. Helman, who had charge of the Kewaskum creamery last year, moved to Barton last Monday and will run the L. Rosenheimer creamery there. —The two inches of snow which fell yesterday may give us a white Easter. A snow storm on the 16th of April is something unusual in this section. —A. G. Preshbacher, who attended the Agricultural college at Madison last winter, was last Monday engaged as assistant butter-maker in the West Bend creamery. —NOTICE.—The two parties who took a fish-net from my premises last Wednesday night, can save trouble and expense by settling with me on or before April 20th.—Ed. ASSMANN, Sr. —Anton Schaefer, who returned from Madison, Minn., six months ago and opened a cigar factory here, will return to Madison next week and engage in the same business there. —STILL, ANOTHER.—August Peterman, who lives two miles north of here, recommends the Remmel New Improved pump. After giving it a fair test, he says: "It is perfect in every respect." —M. D. Nickles of Lamar, Mo., who attended the funeral of his mother-in-law (Mrs. D. Kinney) last Tuesday, said that the published reports of property destroyed by floods down his way are not exaggerated. —Miss Jennie Hoenig entertained a number of her young friends at the family residence on Prospect avenue last Monday evening. The party was given in honor of the 15th anniversary of her birthday, and her guests spent the evening very pleasantly. —Mason Contractors Albert and Chas. Weddig and Herman Ogenorth, who are first-class mechanics, began their season's work last Monday; and, judging from the number of orders they have already, the season of 1897 will prove to be a prosperous one for them. —In observing Arbor and Bird day one's attention need not necessarily be confined to trees and birds—a general cleaning up will often do as well, and better in some instances. Anyway, trees look best in a clean yard, and the boy who throws the most stones during the rest of the year will be the first to observe bird-killing on the 30th of April.

LIME.—The undersigned has just opened their lime-kiln at New Fane, where lime can be purchased of them at reasonable prices; and they will carry a full stock of it throughout the season.—W. HEBERER & CO., New Fane.

—We are in receipt of Vol. III. of "Flanner's Own Collection of Piano Music," published by the well-known Flanner Music House, 211-215 Grand avenue, Milwaukee, Wis. The volume contains thirty fine selections for the piano, which can be had for 50 cents by addressing the above house. —The following named young folks were confirmed at the Moldenhauer church last Sunday forenoon: Paul Moldenhauer, Paul Retzlaff, Oscar Backhaus, Louis Schultz, Fred Backhaus, Lillie Backhaus and Barbara Backhaus. It is said that the manner in which they recited bible history was very praiseworthy. —The "Air ship" Seen Here. Those of our citizens who thought they saw an air-ship on the night of the 9th inst., were likely looking at Alpha Orionis, a star of the first magnitude, which traveled at that time and gave out colored light—at least this is in accord with the solution given by Prof. Hough of the Dearborn observatory in Evanston, Ill. He says: "Alpha Orionis has been roaming through its regular course in the firmament these 10,000,000 years and why it should have been settled upon in the last three weeks and pointed out at the headlight of a mysterious aerial vessel is a thing hard to explain. It appears on the meridian at 5 o'clock and becomes visible at 8 o'clock. At that time it resembles a strong white electric light. It first becomes noticeable in the central southwest portion of the sky. At an unusually rapid rate for a star it takes its course towards the northwest, finally disappearing in that corner. As the star begins to sink the atmospheric conditions cause it to appear to be of a reddish hue on the under side and green on the upper portion when seen through a glass. The center of the body is white. Another star which has an unusually bright appearance is Sirius, which is visible toward 10 o'clock in the southwest portion of the firmament."

BEECHWOOD BEAMLETS.

Mrs. Edward Stahl lies very ill at her home. Charley Miller is staying with J. F. Drescher again. J. F. Drescher is kept busy digging a cellar for the addition to his house. Geo. Kreutzinger of Campbellsport made a brief call here on the 9th inst. Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Koch made a swift trip to West Bend last Saturday. The town clerk's office has been moved to our burg, A. W. Butzke being the occupant. John Heberer and family of New Fane were guests of his father-in-law, A. Staeg, this week. Frank Rose paid $3 fine in Justice Hanrahan's court for striking at Fred Heider last Saturday evening. Miss Amelia Stahl, who had been visiting in Appleton a few weeks, returned home here last Monday. Posters are out announcing a mortgage sale of dry goods in Cascade as a result of the failure of Wm. Koch. Otto Leopert and family and a neighboring couple were over from Boltonville and spent Sunday with August Staeg. The youngest child of Mr. and Mrs. H. Dohmann died last Sunday from cramps, and was interred in the Lutheran cemetery last Tuesday, Rev. Ott officiating. Wm. Schulz, who had been making his home with William Schaefer and family, has gone to Kewaskum to work for the Gutsch Brewing Co. Success to you, William. Emma Staeg celebrated the 21st anniversary of her birthday last Sunday evening. Quite a number were in attendance and enjoyed the occasion until a late hour, but the "poney" lasted until some time the next day. Our burg was a scene of liveliness on the 9th inst., owing to the many people who assisted in raising the liberty pole. The crowning event, however, occurred when Martin Worden, the free silver apostle, came to dedicate the emblem of patriotism. In the midst of his oratorical delivery, however, the speaker was abruptly interrupted by some of our respectable citizens propounding questions, evidently thinking that the oration was drifting too far into the financial question. —BOLTONVILLE BUDGET.

Colds!

House cleaning is the order of the day. Mrs. Geo. Bolton is under the doctor's care. J. H. Neibler's children are suffering with pneumonia. The Kickapoo Indian Medicine Co. is showing in Woog's hall. F. M. Schuler made a business trip to Cascade last Saturday. Miss Ella Dettman of the Cream City is visiting her parents here. Aug. Schnurr has closed his saw-mill until after the busy season. Mr. Dan. Strohm of Iowa spent the past week with relatives here. B. Wescott and Nat. Lefevre are busy hauling lumber from town. Mr. Held and family have moved into the residence of Mrs. Luckup. Stephen Callaghan of Minnesota spent a few days with relatives here. Mr. and Mrs. Vetter of Cascade spent Sunday with the family of Sam Rou. Mrs. Luckup of West Bend visited her daughter, Mrs. G. Goerler, the past week. Mr. and Mrs. C. Webster of Kaukauna, are the guests of Sam Rou and family.

John Mulvanny, who attended college the past winter at Dixon, Ill., has returned home. Rev. J. Dysart of the Cream City preached in the Congregational church last Sunday. Mrs. J. Heipp and daughter, Alvina, of West Bend spent a few days with A. Heipp and wife. A dance will be given in the Odd Fellows' hall on Easter Monday by the young men of this vicinity. A "special Easter service" will be held in the Congregational church tomorrow. A silver collection will be taken. A weed in the garden can be easily destroyed when it first starts. Consumption can be nipped in the bud by One Minute Cough Cure.—Charles Bleyer, returned home here last Saturday evening. The L. Rosenheimer firm should build an elevator here, now that they have bought the creamery. It would stop grain from passing through here daily. This is a good point, with the same rates as West Bend. Where has our fire company gone—to worlds unknown? Haven't we anybody with push enough to set the wheel agoing, and not let the matter die of neglect? Wake up, boys, and let sister towns see that we are not burled yet. Wednesday morning, after S. Matanier had delivered milk to his patrons and was returning home, his horse became frightened and ran a short distance before Mr. M. could control the animal. However, no damage resulted. When a cold is contracted, cure it at once. One Minute Cough Cure will set you on the road to recovery in a minute. It will cure pneumonia, bronchitis, croup, and all forms of lung and throat troubles.—Chas. Miller. —DIED. BETHKE—Sunday, April 11, 1897, at 1 p. m. at the home of his parents, 3 miles east of here, of consumption, Reinhold Bethke, aged 29 years and 3 months. The deceased had been employed in Milwaukee as a tinner until last Christmas when, owing to poor health, he returned to live with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred. Bethke, but his condition continued growing gradually worse until death relieved him. The funeral took place last Wednesday at 1 p. m. from the family residence with services at the Moldenhauer church and interment at the cemetery thereof. KINNEY—At the home of Peter Kohn, on April 11, 1897, at 10 a. m., Mrs. D. Kinney, aged 62 years. After the death of her husband, about a year ago, the deceased sold her farm and lived with the Bingenheimer family here until about four weeks ago, when she went to Peter Kohn's (a few miles north-west of the village), where she took sick but had fairly recovered when, at 2 a. m. last Sunday, she was stricken with paralysis which resulted in her death at the time stated. She was a kind-hearted old lady who will be missed by many in this locality—especially the little folks, whose hearts she invariably won with gifts and like testimonials of her kind-heartedness. She leaves but one child, Mrs. M. D. Nickles of Lamar, Mo. The funeral took place last Tuesday and was conducted according to the rites of the Catholic church with interment at the local cemetery. —BILGO—On April 14, 1897, at 7 p. m., Ella, the 8-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Aug. Bilgo. The child had been attending the public school here all winter and residing with her grand-mother, Mrs. Chris. Bilgo. She was taken sick, a week previous to her death, with what was supposed to be measles until last Tuesday, when her condition became so critical that a physician was called only to find the patient suffering from an attack of diphtheria and that croup had set in; and, from that time on, the child received the best of medical treatment, but without avail. Ella was beloved by all at home and at school, and she will be greatly missed by her schoolmates and especially by her grand-mother, who has lost her only companion. The funeral took place Thursday at 1 p. m. with interment at the Lutheran cemetery here. We extend our heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved parents and relatives. —RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT. Whereas, It has pleased our Heavenly Father to remove from our midst our beloved and esteemed pupil and schoolmate, Ella Bilgo; and Whereas, In the demise of the departed, the Kewaskum public school has lost a true and faithful pupil, her parents a loving and dutiful child, and her classmates a kind and faithful companion; therefore, be it Resolved, That the teachers and pupils of the public school of Kewaskum, while submitting to the will of Divine Providence, deeply deplore the departure of their beloved pupil and schoolmate; and Resolved, That the sympathy of the school be extended to the parents and relatives of the deceased; and Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be read in the school room of the Kewaskum public school, and that a wreath of flowers be placed on her grave. —JAMES RYAN, MATHEWIA LAY, NOBA BACKHAUS, BYRON ROSENHEIMER, BENNY JANSSEN. —PUBLIC SCHOOL ITEMS. The Easter vacation began Thursday evening and will end next Wednesday morning. The following pupils were last week promoted from the lower to the upper department: Misses Ida and Lizzie Schleit, Katie Endlich, August Fichtner, Meta Klug, Gretchen Assmann, Katie and Lydia Schneider; Fred. Schleit, Willy Endlich, Willy Assmann, Ervin Smith, Arthur Koch and Herman Brandstetter. Croup and whooping cough are childhood's terrors; but, like pneumonia, bronchitis, and other throat and lung troubles, can be quickly cured by One Minute Cough Cure.—Chas. Miller. —A PROGRESSIVE STATE. The following resolution, No. 2, was adopted: Resolved, By the village board of the village of Kewaskum, that during the ensuing year the marshal be and is hereby directed to be on duty July 4-5 and on Cattle-fair days, and on the occasions of all other public assemblages, and to enforce all ordinances that comply with his office, and to act officially whenever he is called on; also Resolved, That the marshal's compensation for the above duties be and is hereby fixed at $50 for the ensuing year. The following resolution (No. 3) was adopted: Resolved, By the village board of the village of Kewaskum, that the compensation for the following named officers for the ensuing year be and is hereby fixed as follows: Clerk's salary, $75; assessor, per day, $3; treasurer, 2 per cent of all the saloon license money which he collects; street commissioner, 5 per cent of all the road and poll tax worked. The president appointed the following named standing committees: Road and Sewage.—Wm. Miller, Wenzel Kudeks and Nic. Mayer. Sidewalks and Bridges.—N. J. Mertes, Wm. Krahn and G. B. Wright. Street Light.—Wm. Krahn, G. B. Wright and N. J. Mertes. On motion the board adjourned to meet in regular session on May 3d. —JOSEPH SCHMIDT, Clerk.

BARTON BARDS.

Did you see the air-ship? Fine weather after the snow. John Ross sold a valuable colt this week for $60. G. Matanier, our milk peddler, has a fine outfit now days. J. Enwick has the contract to build a barn for C. J. Suckow. J. R. Nigh made a flying trip to Fond du Lac last Tuesday. Mat. Sauerssig will work with Riesch & Co. painting this summer. Tomorrow will be Easter Sunday. Look out for bad eggs, boys. X. Helzell, who has been sick for the past three weeks, is convalescing. J. Enwick has the barn on the premises of L. E. Nigh nearly completed. Boys, look out for the new fish and game law, which took effect last Saturday. Our miller, C. J. Suckow, shipped a carload of flour to Milwaukee this week. Our boys are pitching quoits, now days, for a new game, and it seems to be quite interesting. H. Kircher, Sr., visited friends in the Cream City this week, and also purchased his spring goods. Barton is booming now days. Two weeks ago there were several houses to rent, now there is not one. N. E. Woodford will soon put a new roof and siding on the barn belonging to Peter Fraser and rented by Nigh Bros. C. Morehouse, who spent the winter in Milwaukee with his son-in-law, H.
