Georgiously Decorated Streets Filled with Cheering People.

London, June 21.—The Queen is now in London. An immense crowd gathered near Paddington station in the early hours of this morning and waited with stolid patience. The early hours were enlivened by the pealing of bells and in the morning breeze everywhere floated the royal standard.

THE PROCESSION STARTS.
Wends Its Way from Buckingham Palace

Buckingham Palace, June 22.—The last of the procession is on sight, the rear of which is the Queen's carriage. The story of the Queen's coronation, the people, who the artillery in Hyde park, by a royal salute of six guns, is thundering the fact to the ears of the Queen. The Queen had actually started and the hearts of thousands of insurance people and other people who had bet on the fact that she would be crowned on June 22. The Queen's coronation was a success. The Queen's coronation was a success.

THE PROCESSION.

The procession was practically in three sections as far as St. Paul's, though the two last on route to the cathedral were considered as they moved into Piccadilly. The first to take up position was the colonial procession, which formed on the line of the procession, which formed on the line of the procession, which formed on the line of the procession.

THE QUEEN'S SPECIAL TRAIN.

The Queen, on arriving at the Broad Street station, passed through the private waiting room, leaning on the arm of an Indian attendant and, by a sloping gangway, entered her special carriage. The railway station was beautifully decorated in scarlet and gold, flowers in the garden and the Queen's train was close to the entrance door. The Queen's train was close to the entrance door.

THE START FOR LONDON.

The start for London was made at 12:10 p. m. and for almost an entire day, mounted troops of the crown colonies, the Rhodesian horse, the colonial infantry, the Indian, the Sikh, the Gurkha, the British Indian, the British Indian, the British Indian.

FOR CHAIR OF ECONOMICS.
Faculty Committee at Lawrence Recommends the Engagement of Rev. F. A. Hevinghorst.

Appleton, Wis., June 23.—[Special.]—At a meeting of the board of trustees today the committee on faculty reported recommending the engagement of Rev. F. A. Hevinghorst, of Chicago, as a lecturer on the History and Economics, made vacant by the resignation of Prof. C. O. Merica. All other members of the faculty were retained and the report of the committee was adopted. Rev. Hevinghorst is a graduate of the University of Berlin, Germany, and is at present preaching in the Central Illinois Methodist conference.

The committee on buildings and grounds asked for larger accommodations for the lady students at Ormsby hall and it may be necessary to provide rooms outside the hall for a number of ladies next fall if the demand for quarters continues. Repairs were ordered on the heating apparatus of the main college building. The petitions for and against the abolition of the military department were considered and it was unanimously decided to continue the drill and all other features of the military department on the same basis as heretofore.
