GEO. NUGENT, Editor.

THE annexation fever is spreading. Somebody now wants this country to purchase Greenland and take in the Esquimaux.

THERE are many complaints from all over the country as to the dry weather. Farmers find fall plowing difficult, the fall feed is short, and in the winter wheat sections the ground is too dry for the seed to germinate.

THE fair season is over for this year, and it has been more than usually interesting. The exhibits have been large and the attendance more generous than usual. The farmers have been getting better prices for their produce, and that fact accounts for the greater portion of the gains for the fairs, for when the farmer is satisfied with the results of the year's work he is a master hand at enjoying himself and exhibiting what he has raised.

HAVING sent a company of soldiers to Alaska to help guard the property of gold hunters and assist in maintaining law and order, the administration is now considering a request to establish a permanent Naval patrol on the Yukon river. These things, together with ordering government reindeer to be taken to St. Michaels for use in transporting food to Dawson City, reminds one that upon certain occasions ours is a very paternal sort of government.

BOB LA FOLLETTE has created a stir among the people this season with his addresses on the subject of corporation control of political machines. The people know that something is wrong and they are patient listeners to anybody who seeks to inform them what it is, consequently Mr. La Follette has had large audiences wherever he went. At the county fairs he has been a good drawing card, but he has also addressed meetings of considerable size elsewhere, notably in Sauk county, where the farmers had a picnic a few weeks ago at which his address was the most prominent feature. Mr. La Follette has set a good example for the prominent speakers of the state. Let them get closer to the people in "off years," when politics does not blight everything. The people want information on public subjects, but they are not particularly anxious to have politics served up to them every day. A dozen or more leading speakers might very profitably address a score of meetings each during the season between political campaigns, and they would always find good and appreciative audiences ready to hear.

SPAIN has had a change in the ministry, the Conservatives going out and the Liberals coming in under the lead of their great political chieftain, Sagasta. The change does not mean anything for Cuba, for the new government will not dare give up the island, and the Cubans will accept nothing that falls short of complete independence. The Spanish people are very sensitive on the question of Cuba. The island represents almost all that there is left of the once extensive possessions of Spain in the New World, and they imagine that it would be a national disgrace to lose it. Spain has poured out blood and treasure in unlimited quantities to hold the island in the past. It has been a source of endless expense for many years, and even now the outcome is so much in doubt that the Cubans have high hopes of winning. Of course the United States will take no hand in the business. The recent proposition to Spain was merely to the effect that this country would mediate between the contending parties if that mediation was acceptable, but there was no thought of intervention in behalf of the Cubans. The nations of Europe would not permit any such intervention if it were attempted. The Cubans will have to fight their own battle. They have no claim upon the United States nor any other country.

WHAT we need in this country is better farming. There is too much slipshod work done. Farmers try to get over too much ground when at work. They like to see results right at the time, forgetting that the better the condition of the ground at the time of planting and the better the seed the better the crop will be. In case of crops which need cultivation after they are above the ground, the farmer can coin dollars by giving them extra attention. One farmer in Langlade county has raised 498 bushels of potatoes from one acre of ground this year—a most remarkable result, and one which shows what good farming will do. Another farmer in the same county raised 730 bushels from 21 acres, or at the rate of 34 bushels to the acre. The crop season is over for this year, but there is another year coming, and in the meantime much may be learned by the farmer at the institutes which will be held during the winter. The farmer can be the most independent man in the community if he chooses, but he must be ready to take advantage of everything he can learn from others. Farming is a science, and the best way to make crops is the way he should do. The men selected to deliver lectures at the farmers' institutes are chosen because of their success in their special lines of farming. Their teachings are on theories reduced to practices and will benefit everybody who is desirous of receiving benefit from them.

MILWAUKEE people talk of getting up a great show next year to celebrate the 50th anniversary of the admission of Wisconsin as a state. Such a celebration would attract thousands of people to the city, but it would cost a large amount of money, and as yet nobody has been found with a plan to raise it. These are hardly the times for magnificent expenditures. The people are too poor to contribute to such a purpose, and the matter is likely to end in talk or else the adoption of a program which will be on a smaller scale.

ELMORE ETCHINGS.

John Schneider, Sr., has returned from Oshkosh, where he had been threshing for his brother, who makes bottle-covers from rye straw.

August Lade, Jr., has bought a lot from F. M. Findeisen and will build in the near future. He has moved in with H. Kuehl for the present.

Rev. A. T. Miller returned last Wednesday from Rio, Columbia county, where he went to look over a field of labor. He preached there last Sunday.

WAYNE WAITINGS.

Fine weather for this season. We acknowledge a friendly call from the publisher of the STATESMAN last Tuesday.

Most of our farmers will likely finish up their corn harvesting this week. A good crop is reported.

Clover seed is a splendid crop this year. Jacob Batzler and crew threshed over 400 bushels in this vicinity.

The auction at John Steichen, Jr.'s was well attended. Cattle and sheep were sold like hot cakes, and at good prices.

August Znelke held a husking bee last Monday evening, at which about thirty five loads of corn were husked in 3 1/2 hours.

George Germann, who lives near St. Kilian, was out on hunting last week and luck befell him to the extent of shooting two on one tree.

Herman Zinkler and family moved to their new farm, about two miles north of Campbellsport, last Tuesday. He had fifteen hired teams hauling his household goods.

BARTON BARDS.

A large number of friends were present at a husking bee held at Chris. Hartmann's last Saturday evening.

Those who attended the Sheboygan county fair last Tuesday were well pleased with it. The races on the last day were better than on the preceding day, but the attendance was not so large.

DUNDEE DOINGS.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. James Cahill last Sunday, a son.

Michael O'Connor has rented Mrs. Ross' farm for the coming year.

A Blodgett of Iowa made a short call on his brother here last Wednesday.

Our district school will commence next Monday with Mr. Kelly of Byron as teacher.

Miss Rose Murray visited her sister, Mrs. A. Naughton at New Cassel the latter part of this week.

Jacob Armond of Campbellsport spent Tuesday looking after his business interests in this village.

Rain is needed very badly in this vicinity, and a number of wells have gone dry as a result of the drought.

A young man living not over 1 1/2 miles from the village, last Thursday left his team to feed on "post hay" from the time he left the factory till along in the afternoon. If this is repeated someone will apply the remedy "in such cases made and provided."

The Plymouth Review had a pretty write up regarding the one-sidedness of the ball game between Dundee and Plymouth. But, in justice to our pitcher, the article should have stated that he struck out 14 men. However, it wouldn't look well (in Plymouth) with the statement that Diedrich struck out but 11. The game resulted in a score of 8 to 21 in favor of Plymouth.

BOLTONVILLE BUDGET.

Miss Clara Strohm spent last Sunday at Kewaskum.

Mr. and Mrs. George Glover were at Cascades last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Neibler visited at St. Michaels last Sunday.

Mrs. T. M. Claffin and children were out from Milwaukee visiting friends here the past week.

Edward Dulka and daughters, Hannah and Mary, attended the wedding of Chas. G. Dulka and Beatrice Larkin of La Crosse on Thursday of last week.

DIED:—At his home one mile south of here, on Oct. 1st, Thomas Kiley, at the advanced age of 77 years. The deceased was born at Carthage, Jefferson county, N. Y., in 1820. He came to Wisconsin at an early age and settled in the town of Farmington, where he married Miss Mary Goodman, who preceded him in death eight years ago. Ten children were born to them, two of whom (Tommy and an infant) preceded their father in death, while the following remain to mourn his demise: Julia (Mrs. T. Bruders) of Holland, Mary Ann (Mrs. L. Mallon) of Milwaukee, James, Maggie, Esther, Martha, Rosella and Angie, who are at home. The children have lost a loving and dutiful father, the church a worthy member, and the community a loyal citizen. The high respect in which he was held was manifested by the large number of sorrowing friends from Boltonville and abroad who followed the remains to their final resting place. The funeral took place last Monday with services at St. John's church, Rev. Muenzer officiating.

Few men in this country are better or more favorably known to the drug and medicine trade than E. J. Schall, buyer in the proprietary medicine department of the Meyer Bros' Drug Co., St. Louis. He says: "My boy came home from school with his hand badly lacerated and bleeding, and suffering great pain. I dressed the wound and applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm freely; all pain ceased, and in a remarkably short time, it healed without leaving a scar. For wounds, sprains, swellings and rheumatism, I know of no medicine or prescription equal to it. I consider it a household necessity." Sold by L. Rosenheimer.

ELASTIC STARCH has been before the people of the United States for twenty-three years, and is without doubt the greatest starch invention of the Nineteenth century. Last year its sales reached the unprecedented number of twenty million packages. It is prepared upon scientific principles by men who have had years of practical experience in fancy laundrying. It makes ironing easy, restores old summer dresses to their natural whiteness, and imparts to linen a beautiful and lasting finish. It is the only starch manufactured that is perfectly harmless, containing neither arsenic, alum nor any other substance injurious to linen, and can be used even for a baby-powder. (Oct 3)

NOTICE.—For the benefit of those who did not have an opportunity to take advantage of our Dollar Sale, we have extended the time ten days.—L. ROSENHEIMER.

—Last Sunday Geo. F. Heisler of the Grand opera house unhesitatingly announced that the finest-voiced party ever heard at the place is a daughter of his—born Saturday.

—Henry Backhaus & Son are having a concrete foundation built on the south side of the flour mill, preparatory to setting up their new engine, which will arrive soon.

—Misses Sadie and Hattie Rauch of the town of Auburn spent last week visiting relatives and friends in Milwaukee, instead of here as erroneously stated in our previous issue.

—The marriage of Augusta Rammel to John Geize was solemnized by Rev. Greve last Wednesday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, three miles south-west of here.

—August Rosenthal, a brother-in-law of Geo. Petri here, had $131 worth of white clover seed stolen from his place, three miles west of West Bend, by unknown parties last Saturday night.

—Everyone desires to keep informed on Yukon, the Klondyke and Alaskan gold fields. Send 10c for large Compendium of vast information and big color map to Hamilton Pub. Co., Indianapolis, Ind.

—The Social hop at the South Side park last Sunday evening was not so well attended as the committee expected it would be. Still the crowd compared favorably with that of like events held for some time past.

—Quite a number of our young men were attracted to the dance in New Fane last Saturday night; and, judging from their early return last Sunday morning, they enjoyed Mr. Koch's opening ball immensely.

—The dry spell which we are experiencing seems to be general throughout Wisconsin, while forest and marsh fires similar to those of two years ago are said to be responsible for the smoky atmosphere of the past week.

—We lately received a copy of the annual catalogue of the Milwaukee Medical College and School of Dentistry, wherein Dr. Elmergreen is the professor of obstetrics. This reminds us that the July number of the Milwaukee Medical Journal contains an extensive article on "Antisepsis and Antiseptics," by the Doctor.

—The duck shoot at Schneider's last Sunday was attended by quite a number of expert marksmen, so that those not well up in that line were not in it. However, Sheriff Weddig seems to have secured the bulk of the game, as when he drove out of here for West Bend, last Monday night, he had a whole flock of ducks in his buggy.

—The Milwaukee party who inserted the following notice in last Monday's issue of the Sentinel may have adopted the best plan for getting a reliable "kitchen mechanic" now days: "Wanted—Young unmarried man of good appearance to do housework in a private family. Must have best of references. Address letters to 2001 Wells street."

—The excursion train which passed through here enroute to Milwaukee last Sunday had eight coaches, but the passengers could have been carried in half that number of cars. Only a dozen tickets were sold at this station. The Wisconsin Central started the practice, and since the North-Western Line followed suit on the above occasion, we may look for a cheap round-trip to Milwaukee almost any Sunday.

—A Teachers' institute will be held in the High school at West Bend on Oct. 22-23, with Prof. W. H. Cheever of the Milwaukee Normal and Prof. W. C. Hewit of the Oshkosh Normal school as conductors. In the evening of the first day Prof. J. W. Stearns of the State university will deliver a lecture. Such an array of talent should prompt school boards to allow teachers to spend Friday, Oct. 22, at the institute.

—Fire is raging in a 400-acre swamp in the town of Myra, this county, and spreading rapidly despite all efforts to check it. Large volumes of smoke are constantly rolling from the swamp and spreading far around the country, and now about eighty acres of swamp is a fiery mass. Large tamarack and elms lay in all directions, and no one knows when the fire will cease. The land is owned by a Mr. Nieman of Milwaukee.

—Sheriff Weddig served an attachment on some stock, while Wm. Annas of the town of Ashford was in the act of delivering them to Beisler & Backhaus last Wednesday morning. The attachment was made to satisfy an account of $23 held against Mr. Annas by A. G. Koch, and for a while it looked as though considerable trouble would ensue, as the farmer summoned a lawyer from Fond du Lac by telegram. The latter arrived here at noon, and later on advised his client to settle with Mr. Koch for $18 and pay $10 for the advice, making a total of $28, or $5 more than the original amount.

—The cash system inaugurated by our leading merchants on the 1st of this month is proving to be the most advanced stride yet taken in the mercantile history of Kewaskum. For instance, last Tuesday we interviewed a member of the L. Rosenheimer firm and found the previous day's sales to have exceeded those of any Monday for several years past; also that the patrons of this firm's store are highly pleased and speak in very commendatory terms of the enterprise of the Kewaskum merchants who have mutually benefitted themselves and their customers by adopting the cash system.

Robert A. Grubbe of Fillmore Assigns. Last Tuesday the above named merchant made a voluntary assignment in favor of Max Grubbe, his cousin. Neither the reason for the assignment nor the amount of the liabilities is known. Good authorities estimate the indebtedness at between $12,000 and $15,000, as many farmers in the vicinity of Fillmore are heavily interested.

Besides a general store and a saloon, Mr. Grubbe also conducted a cheese factory, which had a good patronage, and it is said that farmers have received no pay for milk delivered at the factory for several months.

The business was an old establishment, having been founded in 1863 by Henry Grubbe, who conducted it until seven years ago, when his son, Robert A., took charge. It had always been regarded as a stable business, and the failure is a great surprise to many.

VILLAGE BOARD PROCEEDINGS. Kewaskum, Wis., Oct. 4, 1897, 7:30 p. m. The Board met in regular session with President Rosenheimer in the chair and all trustees present.

Minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved. The following bills were allowed: David Caser, labor with team, $13.75; Chas. C. Schaefer, same, 4.00; Jos. Strobel, trimming and repairing st. lamps during September, 5.50; L. Rosenheimer, merchandise, 5.33; Kewaskum Electric Light Co., current for street lamps during September, 8.00; A. A. Perschbacher, lighting pipes and furnishing blow-point, 2.30; Nic. Greve, labor, 1.50; Ang. Raunthum, bill (paid over at previous meeting) for gravel and damages to blow-point, 34.15; Joseph Strahota, labor, 21.75; John P. Klein, grading street, 16.00; Albert Weddig, unloading and dressing 750 feet of curbstones, 2.50; Aug. Buss, cleaning sewer, 2.50; John Bassel, labor, 15.00; Geo. Kuehn, same, 15.00; John Weddig, same, .50.

The clerk was directed to notify the local agent of the Chicago & North-Western Railway company that said company is graded and the street crossing to grade on Main St. railroad according, without delay; also to change the guard-gate posts, if possible. The clerk was also ordered to collect all delinquent dog taxes in conjunction with the marshal.

On motion the board adjourned. JOSEPH SCHMIDT, Clerk.

E. C. True of the Insurance department at Madison was here and examined the Campbellsport Mutual fire insurance company last Tuesday. He had no criticisms to make, found everything O. K., and the company in a flourishing condition.

NOTICE.—I earnestly request a settlement of all old accounts before Jan. 1, 1898, as I have concluded to conduct my business on a strictly cash basis thereafter. I believe the change to cash sales and small profits will prove beneficial alike to myself and patrons. So please settle up, as I desire to close my books within the present year. I would also state that from and after the 15th of this month, until Jan. 1st, I will make a reduction of 10 per cent on all cash sales.—L. C. KOHLER.

Judge Sawyer held his regular session of the Probate court and disposed of an unusually large number of cases.

As the nights are getting cooler the tramps seem inclined to leave their summer resorts and seek shelter and hospitality in the busy town. Jo. says he is "ready for 'em."

Old Sol is slowly moving toward the southern latitudes; yet, before parting, he can not avoid casting some very warm glances. He seems reluctant to yield the mastership to his successor, Old Boreas.

The fight for the postmastership here is waxing warm these days. West Bend therefore has a little campaign of its own, the fight being between two worthy aspirants, and each one is doing his utmost to succeed in the race.

We need not speak about the drouth, as it seems to be universal; that is to say, all sections of the country are treated the same. Our weather-man, Father Terborg, is doing his best to invoke the much needed showers, but to no avail.

The jury commission of Washington county has completed its work of listing "good men and true" to constitute the jury for the coming term of the Circuit court. Last Saturday its report was filed with the clerk of the courts.

Upon examination of the list of names we are of the opinion that it is a good one, and the commission deserves credit for its work.

Deputy Ins. Commissioners True and Timme of Madison made an examination of the affairs of the West Bend Mutual fire insurance company last week. The result of their examination is highly satisfactory to the Insurance department, and a report of the examination will be published in the near future.

From the examination of the financial standing of the company it has been ascertained that the total amount expended by the company since its organization is only 19 per cent of the full premium which would have been paid to old line companies for the same amount at risk for the term aforesaid. This is just 1 per cent less than would have been paid by the old line companies for commissions to agents. A saving of 81 per cent to our members will certainly be appreciated.

It is said that the plans for changing the color of the 2-cent stamp from red to green will fail because the International Postal congress has decided that the letter postage of nations embraced within the congress should be red.

We do not hear so much lately from John L. Sullivan and his campaign for mayor. Perhaps John has had another relapse.

"I can't see how any family lives without Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says J. R. Adams, a well known druggist of Geneva, Ala., in a letter inquiring the price of a dozen bottles, that he might not only have it for use in his own family, but supply it to his neighbors. The reason some people get along without it, is because they do not know its value, and what a vast amount of suffering it will save. Wherever it becomes known and used, it is a recognized necessity, for it is the only remedy that can always be depended upon for bowel complaints, both for children and adults. For sale by L. Rosenheimer.
