PUBLISHED EVERY SATURDAY.

C. & N. W. RAILWAY TIME-TABLE.

Table with columns for station names (Milwaukee, Grandville, Jackson, West Bend, Kewaskum, Fond du Lac, Elgin) and train times for various routes.

LAONICAL LOCALS.

Autumn colors are rare winners. It's the "bloomin'" last rose of summer. An overcoat and straw hat forces extremes to us.

We acknowledge receipt of an advertisement from Mat. Regner, the sewing machine and piano merchant of West Bend, and it will appear in our next issue.

The iron work for the village lock-up arrived yesterday and will be immediately arranged in the rear of the village hall, so that prisoners can be kept in safety hereafter.

FOR SALE.—An 80-acre farm in town of Auburn, Fond du Lac county, three miles north of Newfane. Can be had with or without machinery. Price, $3,500. Call on Peter Mueller, Newfane, Wis.

—Geo. Braun of Newfane reports that he has made 12,000 gallons of cider, with his mill, so far this season. We acknowledge receipt of some and can say that it of an excellent quality.

—Peter Scrooten, town chairman of Auburn, has been nominated for clerk of the courts on the Democratic ticket of Fond du Lac county. Peter is a resident in Auburn and his selection was a wise one.

—Mrs. S. Schneider, who has been living with her son, Charles, at Elkhardt Lake all summer, arrived here Monday and will stay with her daughter, Mrs. John Strobel, and family for some time.

—Robert Backhaus moved his family and household goods out from Milwaukee last Monday, and they now reside upon the farm of his deceased brother, Charles, which Robert will work in the future.

—A grand harvest dance will be held by Frank Diekmann in his hall at New Prospect on the night of the 15th inst., and Frank says that he proposes to make it an unusually enjoyable occasion for all who accept his public invitation.

—Rev. H. W. Karnopt, who succeeds Rev. Schmitt as pastor of the German M. E. church, will preach his initial sermon here tomorrow (Sunday) at 10:30 a. m. Rev. Karnopt is a young man and comes from Michigan City, Ind., where he held his first pastorage.

—Henry Stark has quite a curiosity upon his place here in that a cherry tree in his garden is blooming for the second time this season. At one time, since the tree bore fruit, the leaves thereon grew dry as if it would die out, but it now looks as if about to bear a second crop.

We acknowledge appreciation for the many items of interest sent and brought to the office by friends lately, and while thanking them for their kindness we sincerely hope that everybody will feel inclined and at liberty to give us any news they may consider deserving of publication.

—Mmes. C. Fleischmann and Chas. Weddig were among those who lost their pocket-books at the county fair Wednesday. Another lady is said to have lost $100, and it is feared that the pickpockets did an extensive business, as many people hold back reports of such losses in hopes of the capture of the thieves.

The Republican county convention at West Bend last Saturday resulted in the following nominations: For clerk, John Horlamus; for treasurer, L. Guth, Jr.; sheriff, Frank Schoenbeck; coroner, Ad. Detuncq; clerk of circuit court, Thomas Toner; district attorney, H. K. Butterfield; register of deeds, Charles F. Leins; surveyor, F. W. Koerber; superintendent of schools, R. M. Derse. Louis D. Guth of Kewaskum is the Republican nominee for assemblyman.

DIED.

ROSENKIRCH.—At the home of her parents on Prospect avenue, Yarrowing at 8:15, Miss Caroline denkirch, aged 20 years, 4 months and 6 days.

The deceased was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mat. Rodenkirch, who moved here last fall from St. Michaels, where the departed was born. She had been an invalid for years, with rheumatism, and was lately attacked by dropsy. However, death finally came to her relief, and she passed away as peacefully and quietly as though the parting gave no pain.

The funeral will be held Monday at 9:30 a. m., with interment at the Catholic cemetery. The bereaved relatives have the sympathy of the community.

Accidentally Killed Near Dundee. Frank Bockge, who resided about 3 miles north of Dundee and in the town of Osceola, came to his death last Tuesday by falling off his wagon. The accident happened while he was hauling a load of oats home from his old farm. While descending a hill the pole of the vehicle broke, precipitating Mr. Bockge between the wheels, which passed over his neck and killed him instantly.

THE COUNTY FAIR. The large attendance at the county fair last year would have been overstripped this season had the weather been so favorable, as the showing made was highly creditable to the management. Besides securing an unusually interesting and instructive display of exhibits, the races were made more attractive by the erection of a grand-stand for spectators, as well as a new building for the judges, while the course was in excellent condition and kept so throughout the track events.

An especially noticeable feature and one often spoken of to the credit of the management was the absence of taker and gambling games to fleece the crowd. Undoubtedly heavy offers were made to enter these things, but the management evidently held firm, preferring even light receipts and small cash on hand at the close of the fair, rather than lower the character of the fair. Aside from being entirely legitimate, the side attractions admitted furnished some novel sights and amusements, as in the case of the Ocean Wave, for instance.

Considering the cool weather which prevailed throughout all three days, the attendance at the fair may be said to have been a credit to the people of Washington county and flattering to its agricultural society.

VILLAGE BOARD PROCEEDINGS. Kewaskum, Wis., Oct. 3, 1898. 7:30 p. m. The board met in regular session, with President Rosenheim in the chair and all trustees present, except Wm. Miller and G. B. Wright. Minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

The following bills were allowed: Chas. Backhaus, gravel, $1.50; A. G. Koch, spikes, 1.25; Wm. Loverson, labor on street, 2.50; Henry Polzin, same, 30.85; J. P. Klein, unloading and dressing 2 carloads of carbstone, 31.88; Charles Fechter, trimming street lamps during Sept., 4.00; H. J. Lay, bill of $89.21 for lumber, oil, less 2 per cent., 49.08; Nat. Bros., bill of Sept. 22 and 30 for carbstone, allowed less 2 per cent., 121.52; Kewaskum Electric Light Co., electric current for street lights during Sept., 40.00.

That part of resolution No. 6 reading "curbing west side of Fond du Lac street, commencing at intersection of Fred. Behnke's hardware store and running north to Chas. J. Schaefer's blacksmith shop" was rescinded on concluding not to curb same this fall. On motion the board adjourned. JOSEPH SCHMIDT, Clerk.

MEN'S CLOTHING. The biggest stock and lowest prices are shown at The Quick Sale. You can save more money now than ever before; also on shoes, underwear, etc. The Quick Sale, West Bend.

Growth of Milwaukee Daily News. On another page of this paper will be found the advertisement of The Milwaukee Daily News, the pioneer and largest penny paper in Wisconsin. All political, war, state and general news can always be found in its columns. The Daily News is very outspoken, a firm believer in the reform movement, and has the courage to speak the truth at all times. That such a paper is appreciated and well patronized by the people of Wisconsin is shown by the fact that its publishers are now erecting a more commodious office building on West Water street, near Grand avenue.

Attention, Please! Your kind attention is called to the fact that recently I added to my stock of high grade watches, clocks, jewelry, silverware, rings, etc., a line of new and pretty designs in sterling silver flat ware, such as tea and tablespoons, sugar coffee, berry, ice cream, jelly and preserve spoons, cold meat forks, napkin rings, and a great many other sterling silver novelties too numerous to mention, all at correspondingly low prices. Thanking all of my old and new customers for their liberal patronage and soliciting a continuance thereof, I remain yours very truly, O. B. BRAUNWARTH, Jeweler and Optician, West Bend, Wis.

BOLTONVILLE BUDGET.

Members of the Albert Dettmann family are ill with scarlet fever. Mrs. Geo. Bolton entertained a number of relatives and friends last Sunday.

A number of our "sports" were among the excursionists to Chicago last Sunday. Miss Katie Kenney of the Cream City is spending some time with her mother here.

Rosella Riley left for the Cream City last Wednesday and is now employed there. J. H. Neiber and wife drove to Myra last Sunday to visit Mr. and Mrs. Max. Wendland.

Mr. Krause and wife from Port Washington spent Saturday and Sunday as a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Vet. Wendel. The public school was closed last Wednesday to give the teachers and scholars an opportunity to attend the county fair.

Miss Mary Dullea left Monday for the town of Wayne, where she has commenced teaching her term of school in Dist. No. 11. The Modern Women of this burg and vicinity gave a fish picnic at Ochler's lake Sunday, and all who were present report as having highly enjoyed the occasion.

ELMORE ETCHINGS. Dr. Hausmann of Kewaskum was a caller here Monday. Will Hausmann of Kewaskum was a caller here last Saturday. School commenced last Monday with Miss Celia Goss as teacher.

Wm. Klumb went to Milwaukee last Saturday and returned Monday. Martha Komens has left for Merrill, where she will stay for some time. The following are on the sick list, viz: Mrs. Schmalz and Anton Romens.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Zuehlke made a trip to the town of Polk last Monday. Mrs. Geo. Hess of Milwaukee visited the Fleischmann family a few days this week. Miss Alma Klumb left for Milwaukee last Saturday, where she is learning dressmaking.

Chris. Straubing improved the appearance of his barn this week with a new coat of paint. Jacob Scheid of Black Creek, who was visiting relatives here, returned to his home last Monday. Two carloads of live-stock were shipped from Campbellsport to Chicago last Tuesday by Schimmelpfening & Fleischmann.

Mrs. John Kleinhaus of Rhine and Miss Lizzie Meyer of St. Anna were here visiting Frank Kleinhaus and family last Sunday and Monday. Frank Flitter, Charley and Frank Fleischmann were hunting at Newfane last Sunday and had good success. Most likely the former struck a deer trail.

Wm. Reinhardt and Rev. Beiser returned home from Sheboygan last Tuesday, accompanied by Rev. Samuel Elliger of Bouton, Ia., who spent a few days visiting friends here. J. F., the champion pedestrian of Newfane, walked to a husking bee at Chris. Baker's lately in 45 minutes. He also shot a coon on the way, but the animal proved to be a skunk when J. F. went to pick it up.

ST. MICHAELS MITES. Corn husking and potato digging is nearly completed. A few of our people attended the county fair at West Bend this week. Nic. Fellenz and son Eugene from Newfanelle called on the former's parents here lately. Miss Tina Fellenz of Kewaskum visited the Joseph Fellenz family here for a few days last week. Grandpa Schlaefer of Campbellsport spent a few days of last week with old-time friends in this vicinity. Mrs. Jacob Theisen and children from West Washington are spending a few weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Math. Theisen. Mrs. Joe Schlaefer and children from Campbellsport returned home last Sunday after spending several days with the Math. Koller family.

WAYNE WAFTINGS.

H. J. Lay and wife from Kewaskum spent Sunday with relatives here. Petri Bros. shipped a carload of clover seed from Kewaskum last Monday.

Joseph Vogel of the town has sold his 100-acre farm to Herman Bartlet for $6,200. Albert Abel and his cousin, Louisa Kaiser, rode over to Cascade last Saturday and returned Monday.

The 8-year-old daughter of Chris. Warnicke of the town died of inflammation of the bowels Tuesday morning. John Emmer has been drawn to serve on the petit jury at the October term of the circuit court at West Bend.

Miss Louisa Kaiser returned to her home at Merton last Tuesday, after a week's visit here with relatives. Many of our townsmen attended the county fair this week, and they report the display of exhibits as having been very good. Foerster Bros. received two windmills this week, one of which they will put up for Wm. Ferber and the other for Val. Bachmann.

Foerster Bros. have been husking corn with their new machine this week, for Messrs. Murphy, Zuehlke and Flasch, and they all say it does splendid work. John Schleicher, who drove over here last Saturday evening was surprised when he got home and found that the boys had put the front wheels on the hind axle of his buggy and vice versa.

The dance party which was to have been held in Petri's hall last Saturday night, was postponed to some future date, as the proprietors were unable to clear the hall of apples which they had stored therein. Andrew Martin received the sad news of the death of his aged mother at Bloomer last Saturday and immediately left for there, where the funeral was held Sunday. Before returning he visited at Boyd, Marshfield and Eau Claire.

ST. KILIAN SHARPS. Rev. Burrebach spent Wednesday at the Cream City. Farmers hereabouts have nearly finished corn husking. The Rev. Peter Burrebach made a trip to the Cream City last Wednesday.

Messrs. Manuel Gardieu and Wm. Schulz of Lomira were in our burg yesterday. John Strachota, who was working at Theresa, is now husking corn for Peter Flasch. Adam Emmer & Co. threshed clover seed at the Spring Brook stock farm last Monday.

Jos. Mack was a delegate to the Democratic county convention at West Bend last Thursday. Andy Flasch returned from Wood county last Sunday, and he speaks highly of that section, whither he intends to return soon. Mmes. Volm and Trauba returned to their home at Marathon City last Monday, after visiting relatives and friends here for two weeks.

A husking bee was held at Jacob Wiesner's place last Saturday evening until 10:30, when dancing was indulged in and greatly enjoyed. A large, new line of fall and winter goods are now displayed at A. Strachota's store, and they are being sold at the lowest prices. Call and see! Many from here attended the funeral of Peter Berg at Ashford on Sept. 30, and they report it as having been the largest in point of attendance that they have witnessed for some time.

KOHLVILLE ITEMS. P. Schellinger transacted business at Newfane last Tuesday. Some of our folks attended the ball at St. Anthony last Sunday. Mrs. John Rosenthal of Clintonville visited the Geo. Gutjahr family during the fore part of the week. August and Conrad Brinkmann and their families attended the Kleinjung wedding at St. Lawrence last Wednesday.
