After the caucus last night the members were so tired that they all sought their beds and for the first time since the contest began the corridors of the Park hotel were deserted at the comparatively early hour of 12 o'clock, save for the newspaper men and a few night owls who never go to bed anyway.

The first ballot, the forty-eighth taken in caucus, gave Mr. Quarles 40, Mr. Stephenson 26, Mr. Babcock 17, Mr. Cook 17, and Judge Webb 10. Mr. Quarles' loss of one was accounted for by Mr. Buffington, who came in voted for Mr. Quarles and made

At 11:45, when the thirty-sixth ballot thought there would be a caucus tonight At 11:45, when the thirty-sixth ballot had been taken, Senator Woodworth renewed the motion to take a recess until 3 o'clock. There was opposition and a division was called for. A count disclosed 46 members in favor of adjournment to 45 opposed, and the caucus adjourned. The announcement of the results of newed the motion to take a recess until 3 o'clock. There was opposition and a division was called for. A count dis-closed 46 members in favor of adjourn-ment to 45 opposed, and the caucus ad-journed. The announcement of the re-sult was greeted with applause.

Sixth Session. Madison, Wis., Jan. 24.-[Special.]-The afternoon caucus opened promptly at 3 o'clock and the thirty-seventh ballot was taken. Assemblyman Anderson, who deserted to Cook in the morning, went back to Quarles, Mr. Anderson says that he voted for Mr. Cook for a few ballots out of deference to sentiment in his locality. The ballot showed no change, the voting progressing rapidly and without incident. Two ballots had been taken by 3:15 o'clock. On the thirty-ninth ballot there was no prospect for change, and the newspaper men ceased to keep tab on the roll call. Mr. Willy made a little fun accidentally by voting twice for Cook when he meant some of the names three or four times before he could get a response. It took all the men within ten feet of Senator Jones to stir him up to vote. The ballot

The sixty-eighth was no better. Neither showed the slightest change.

Senator Whitman moved to adjourn until 7:30 o'clock this evening and the motion prevailed. Ninth Session. Madison, Wis., Jan. 26 .- [Special]-

Madison, Wis., Jan. 26.—[Special]— Five ballots were taken at the evening session. There was no change on the three first ballots, but on the seventy-third ballot Mr. Fiege left the chamber, which cut Stephenson's vote to 24. Campaign.
The country does not appreciate the military evils of the Santiago campaign, because the war did not last long enough to teach its lesson thoroughly. Such evils as there were, however, were due to the influence of politicians over the army, and It was suggested that Judge Orton be to the actual command of the military forces by the legislative branch of the allowed to read it, which he did with great facility. He also made remarks to the effect that he desired simply to get the sense of the caucus as to whether a session should be held every day or only the sense of the caucus as to whether a session both houses must be taken into account on that vote.

Senaror Thayer called the caucus to order at 10:30 o'clock and the balloting began promptly. The roll cill showed only one absentee, Mr. Holland.

Assemblyman Anderson voted for Mr. Cook, as he had done in the Assembly, but as his vote was not noticed then the change caused some excitement. The trots stood: Quarles, 40; Stephenson, 25; Cook, 18; Babcock, 17; Webb, 10. The first vote was the twenty-sixth taken in caucus. Ballot after ballots was taken without a change, and with nothing to break the monotony of the roil call except an occasional lapse of memory on the part of some members who had been half asleep. Mr. Hall, the most wideawake member of the Assembly, was caught napping once, and did not respond until his name had been called three or four times.

The sense of the caucus as to whether a session should be held every day or only so session should be held every day or only on the session should be held every day or only on cervity day.

Mr. Wheeler wanted time to consider the resolution and it was laid over to the next session.

The sixtieth ballot, the third of the afternoon, developed no changes, and the caucus settled back into its old attitude, and there was as much noise as ever.

On the sixty-first ballot there was no change and no prospect of any, and all hope of a general break-up for this aftiernoon was abandoned. The feeling still act on his nominations, his treaties, his domestic policy, and who will grant him his supplies? The truth on this point is probably that Congress will never believe in the need of preparing for sudden emergencies until its perverse blindness without any more of the members who had been without any more of the members who had been half asleep. Mr. Hall, the most wide and has given him authority. Will not done the resolution and it was laid over to the next session.

yers of Fond du Lac, and prominent in political circles, was the son of Rev. H. R. Colman, who was born in New York state in 1800, became a minister of the state in 1800, became a minister of the Methodist Episcopal church, preached in Eastern New York until 1840, when he came to Wisconsin as a missionary to the Oneida Indians. Remaining in that work for some years, he finally took up his residence in Fond du Lac in 1847, and that was his home for the greater part of his time until his death in 1895. His wife was Lydia Elvira Spier, who was born at Lake Pleasant, N. Y., in 1802 and died in 1890. The first of this family came from England and settled at Weathersfield, Conn., in 1636. Perhaps one of the best things that can be said

Colman in Fond du Lac, and was admitted to the bar in 1866, and since that time has been in the active practice of the law in Fond du Lac to the present date. From 1867 to 1879 he was a member of the firm of Hauser & Colman; of Colman, Carter & Kent in 1879 and 1880; from 1880 to 1882 the firm was Colman & Sutherland, and in firm was Colman & Sutherland, and in 1836 his firm was Colman & Parkinson. or that class of cases against the government. He won for the government the test case on title to land on which stands the new Milwaukee government building and superintended the payments for the same. Since the close of President Harrison's administration his attention has been largely devoted to corporation law tention has been largely devoted to cor-poration law.

Mr. Colman enlisted as a private in Co. G. First Wisconsin cavalry, and served as private and commissary-ser-gent until January, 1863, when he was honorably discharged for physical disability.

He cast his first vote for Abraham Lincoln for President in 1864, and has always been a member of the Republican party. In 1867 he was appointed register of bankruptey, and held that position until 1872, when he resigned it to take his seat as a member of the Assembly in the Wisconshn Legislature. In that session he was chairman of the committee on federal relations, and leader of the House on political matters. He originated the movement and prepared the bill, which became a law the following session, to abolish the office of state prison commissioner, and put the affairs of the state prison into the hands of a board of directors. In 1880 he was the nominee of the Republican party for Congress in the then Fifth district of Wisconsin, running against Gen. E. S. Bragg, nominee of the Democratic party, and reducing his majority about 4000.

He was a member of the G. A. R. post; Ancient Order of United Workmen; Knights of Honor and Royal Arcanum. Of the latter he has been a member of the supreme council for fifteen years, and was also a member of the Methodist Episcopal church.

Mr. Colman was married to Lizzie M. Hill of Madison, Wis., September 29, 1868. The children are Edna M. Colman, Claire Colman—died in 1888—Ralph H. Colman and Paul Colman.

LOST IN A BLIZZARD.

Roll call in the Senate on the 20th showed three absentees—Senators Bissell, Jacobs and Weed. Senator Stout Introduced his oill providing for a system of state forests. The bill provides that the sale of all public lands, except the school and university lands, is to stop from the passage of the bill, and to be kept for forest preserves. The forest system is to be directed by a superintendent, who shall receive $3000 a year. The bill was referred to the special committee on forestry. Senator Dennett's bill providing for the adjustment of swamp-land claims was referred to the public-lands committee. The bill authorizes the governor to select in lieu of relinquished swamp lands a like quantity of land from the unappropriated public lands within the state to which no claim is asserted. The sum of money appropriated out of the general fund to carry out the provisions of the bill shall be relimbursed from the sale of any lands acquired through the provisions of the act. Senator Roehr then introduced a bill to adjust the fees and salarles in the register of deeds' office of Milwauke county. The bill was referred to the committee on incorporations. The report of J. Q. Emory, who was appointed under the laws of 1897 to collect historical material in co-operation with the State Historical society, showed that his research had resulted in the addition to the state archives of valuable essays and addresses on pioneer days. On motion of Senator McGillivray the Senate adjourned until 8:30 p. m. on the 23d.

Lieut.-Gov. Stone called the Senate to order on the evening of the 23d and the Rey.

Lieut.-Gov. Stone called the Senate to order on the evening of the 23d and the Rev. H. A. Winter, who was chaplain last week, offered the prayer. Senators Weed and Mailer were absent. Senator Bayley offered a resolution on the death of former Senator G. W. Pratt of Oshkosh, which was adopted under the rule for privileged resolutions. Senator Baxter made a short speech testifying to Mr. Pratt's personal qualities. The following bills were introduced: By Senator Jones, relating to the jurisdiction of the municipal court of Waukesha county; by Senator Jones, making an appropriation to reimburse certain persons who invested money in the Keeley cure institute at Waukesha under a law afterward declared invalid. The law provided that the state should pay part of the expense of cures in the Waukesha Keeley institute. Orders were issued in accordance with the law and taken by people of Waukesha. When the courts declared that state aid could not be given the Institute these worthless orders were left on the hands of those who had taken them.

In the Senate on the 24th Mr. Dennett introduced a resolution to have the Legislature memorialize Congress to make the election of senators by popular vote instead of by legislatures as at present. Senator McGillivray then moved that the Senate proceed to elect a United States senator. Senator Baxter obejeted on the ground that, according to law, the vote should be taken at 12 o'clock on Tuesday. Senator Thayer called for the reading of the law, which supported Senator McGillivray's motion, the time for Tuesday's ballot not being designated. The roll was called and the vote was as follows: Quarles, 13; Stephenson, 6; Babcock, 3; Cook, 4; Webb, 5; Ryan, 2.

Elihu Colman was born in Oneida, Brown county, Wis., May 11, 1841. He came with his parents to Fond du Lac in 1847, and that city has been his home since that time. His preliminary education was received in the graded schools of Fond du Lac, and in the preparatory department of Lawrence university, Appleton, Wis. Prepared for college, he entered the collegiate department at Appleton in the classical course, and was graduated therefrom in June, 1865, with second honors.

In the Senate on the 26th there were three absentees—Senators Bissell, Jacobs and Weed. Senator Green presented the report of the commissioners of fisheries, which was ordered placed on the journal. Senator Munson introduced a bill defining express companies and prescribing a license for the operation of such companies within the state, which was referred to the committee on state affairs. Senator Whitehead thought that according to the resolution disposing of the various portions of the governor's message the bill should go to the committee on assessment and collection of taxes in order to prevent an influx of bills of the same nature. Senator Munson agreeing, the bill was so referred. Senator Lamoreux spoke in support of Senator Whitehead's opinion. The Senate reconvened at 11:50 and appointed Senators Green, Withee and Weed to act in conjunction with five assemblymen in entertaining the Michigan legislators. A meeting of the Senate railroad committee was called for the afternoon to consider the governor's recommendation on the pass question.

Quite a batch of bills were introduced in the Assembly on the 20th, including one or two important ones. Mr. Keene introduced a facetious resolution requiring that a dose of castor-oil be administered to each chair in the chamber, which led Mr. Hall to crack the only joke he was ever known to spring. He moved to refer the resolution to the sergeant-at-arms. Mr. Thomas introduced an express bill, and other bills were introduced as follows: By Mr. True, amending the laws of 1898, relating to marriages; by Mr. Wells, providing for the survey of islands in Wisconsin river hetween Kilbourn City and Prairie du Chien; by Mr. Orton, relating to the adoption of children providing that when children adopted before they are 2 years old shall have lived with their foster-parents five years notice of adoption shall not be necessary.

There was a large crowd of spectators in the Assembly on the evening of the 23d but the visitors were disappointed at the brevity of the session, having to vacate the chamber before the caucus opened at 9 o'clock. It was 8:35 o'clock when Speaker Ray dropped the gavel and announced "the assembly will be in order." Prayer was offered by the Rev. H. A. Winter, and Speaker Ray requested the legislators to arise and remain standing. This is a new departure from the custom which has obtained in the Assembly in recent years, though it has been the practice in the Senate. Leaves of absence were granted Messrs. Becker, Ives, Loth, Johnson and Lange. Only one bill was introduced, Mr. Hoeble presented a measure relating to the foreclosure of mortgages by advertisement. The bill was referred to the judiciary committee. It places the statute just where is was before the recent revision, with the exception that it provides that service shall be made upon the occupant of the premises if they are occupied.

Heavy Snowstorm in Michigan—Three Calumet Men Missing.

Calumet, Mich., Jan. 26.—[Special.]—
Three men are reported lost in the worst blizzard this city has ever seen. Searching parties are out looking for them and business generally is suspended and no trains are running. Abraham Hovenen was lost in the storm last night but was found by searching parties this morning, not much the worse for his night's exposure.

The feature of the Assembly session on the 24th outside of the first formal vote for United States senator, was the introduction of Assemblyman Hall's long expected antipass bill. It is a sweeping measure as will be seen from its very long and very explicit title. It provides a severe penalty for the violation of its provisions, the penalty being forfeiture of office and a fin's of from $200 to $500. The bill was referred to the committee on railroads. Judge Orton introduced two very sweeping insurance bills, which, if they should become laws, would, it is estimated, increase the revenues of the state $150,000 a year. The first changes this system of taxing life insurance companies, so that the companies organized in this state, instead of paying a license fee of $300, shall year, a tax of 1 now companies organized in this state, instead of paying a license fee trains are running. Marquette, Mich., Jan. 26.—A blinding snowstorm with a high wind is raging. The trains are late. The street car system is knocked out. Business is almost abandoned. The storm is general all over the peninsula.

Marinette, Wis., Jan. 26.—[Special.]—A strong northeast wind has been blowing all day and turned into a regular blizzard this afternoon. The country roads are blocked and the snow is piled in drifts. There has been much damage done to the telephone wires.

It is estimated, increase the revenues of the state $150,000 a year. DEATH OF ELIHU COLMAN

Sudden Demise of a Well-Known Fond du Lac Lawyer.

DIED OF HEART DISEASE

Fond du Lac, Wis., Jan. 26 .- [Special.] -Elihu Colman, a prominent attorney of this city and well known throughout the state, dropped dead at the Beaumont hotel in Green Bay at 6:15 p. m. yester-day. A coroner's jury returned a verdict of death from heart failure. Relatives were immediately summoned from this city and his remains were brought here this morning. Mr. Colman had been in Green Bay on a business mission and was on his way to catch a return train, when he was seized with an apopieptic fit, brought on, it is thought, by nervous exertion. His stenographer, who accom-panied him, summoned a passing carriage and he was driven back to the hotel, Joint Assembly.

The Wisconsin Legislature met in joint assembly at noon on the 25th and cast its first builot for United States senator. The two houses convened separately at 11:50 o'clock and waited for the hour of 12, upon which the joint assembly had to be held according to law. In the Assembly a space had been cleared in front of the desks and chairs placed there for the senators. There was quire a crowd of spectators, and there would have been a large one if the public had understood that the joint assembly was an open meeting. At 12 o'clock the sergeant-at-arms announced: "The honorable, the lleutenant-governor and the members of the Senate." The members of the Senate came in, preceded by the sergeant-at-arms. After some other formalities Lieut.-Gov. Stone, who presided, announced that it appearing from the journals of the two houses that no one had received a majority in either house the members would respond to their names with their preference for senator. Chief Clerk Nowell of the Assembly then called the roll. The ballot, the first formal one of the joint assembly session, resulted as follows: Quarles, 41; Stephenson, 26; Cook, 17; Babcock, 16; Webb, 10; Ryan, 19; total, 129; necessary to a choice, 65.

The Legislature took its second formal ballot in joint assembly for United States senator at noon on the 26th without making a choice. As on the 25th, both houses convened at 11:50 and at 12 o'clock joined in the Assembly chamber. The proceedings were an exact repetition of those of the day before. Lleut.-Gov. Stone presided in the Assembly chamber. The proceedings were an exact repetition of those of the day before. Lieut-Gov. Stone presided over the Joint assembly and Chief Clerk Nowell of the Assembly acted as clerk. The roll call showed no change. Senators Blssell, Jacobs and Weed and Assemblymen Ellne, Lange, Holcomb and Thiessenhusen were absent. Of the absentees Messrs, Jacobs, Weed, Eline and Lange are Democrats. Mr. Bissell is a Babcock man; Mr. Thiessenhusen a Cook man, and Mr. Holcomb supposed to be a Quarles man. Catarrh and Stomach Trouble.

SWANSON REZUMATIC CURE Co., CRICAGO, July 25, '98.

I think "5 DROPS" is the best medicine in the world; it has done me so much good. Before using "5 DROPS" I could hardly lie in bed long enough to go to sleep. I would have to get up and walk around, or sit up in bed. I don't know what was the matter with me, but I was suffering all through me, and my body was so tender that part of the time I could hardly lie on the softest bed. As it has benefited me so much I have recommended it to my neighbors. Three of my daughters have sent to you for "5 DROPS;" also two of my lady friends. One of my daughters was suffering terribly with her stomach, and was all bloated up until she weighed 174 pounds, but after she took She thinks there never was such medicine. Butchering hogs has many disagree able features, but some of these, par ticularly the lifting of the hogs before and after dressing, can be robbed of many of their objections by having a convenient arrangement for scalding, scraping, cleaning and hanging. One arrangement for lightening labor in this way is shown in the accompanying illustration. The farm sled can be used as the scraping platform b. The scalding vat a may be any large barrel which will hold water. Securely block and brace it so that it will not be displaced in putting the hog in and taking it out. In the iron kettle, c, the water is heated. The hog is killed and drawn along the side of the scraping platform opposite the iron kettle. Instead of lifting the carcass onto the platform by band, make use of the pivotal lever attached to the post d. thousands of them, are suffering from lingering dis-eases induced by life in poisonous southern camps, the result of changes of climate, or of imperfect nutrition caused by improper and badly cooked food. Sleeping on the ground has doubtless developed rheumatism in hundreds who were predisposed to the disease. In such cases the Boys of '98 may take a lesson from the experi#### ence of the Heroes of the Civil War.

Mundreds of the Boys of '63 have testified to the efficacy of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People in driving out malaria, Theumatism and other diseases contracted during their days of hardship and privation in the army. These pills are the best tonic in the world.

As a Robinson, of Mt. Sterling, Ill., is a veteran of the Civil war, having served in the 8rd Pennsylvania Volunteers. He went to the war a vigorous farmer's boy and came back broken in health, a victim of sciatic rheumatism. Most of the time he was unfitted for manual labor of any kind, and his sufferings were at all times intense. He says: "Nothing seemed to give me permanent relief until three years ago, when my attention was called to some of the wonderful cures effected by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. I had not taken more than half a box when I noticed an improvement in my condition, and I keep on improving steadily. To them I owe my restoration to health. They are a grand remedy."—Mt.
