Judge Alonzo G. Meyers was sitting under a big tree in Brandon, Miss., one fine day, exchanging experiences with Dr. Hart, the minister, and some more of the folks of Brandon. Judge Meyers has a file which includes twenty-seven counties, and nineteen of them are about the size of the trunk of New York. He said I had a big foot, and I said: "Don't you always find that you know always have a big foot?"

He said: "Oh, yes; that's the rule."
I said: "Well, says, 'Oh, yes; that's the rule.'"

And he says, "Oh, that's true, too."
Dr. Hart charged the subject to the prospect for a good cotton crop, which were not encouraging.

A Foretaste of the Millennium.

I do not remember in all my life a more exquisite sensation of pleasure than when, last summer, in the great and crowded Central hall, New York, I was surrounded by my heterogeneous public, all classes and nations meeting there, I saw a squirrel go about among the children on the broad footpath, stopping before each one, and standing up on his hind legs, as if he were a child of the millennium, when the lamb shall lie down with the lion and a little child shall rule over the beasts of the forest.

The occasional familiarity of birds, and even of some quadrupeds, with certain known individuals in more or less secluded situations, I have often seen, but of the poorer classes, for whom it is the only playground, to see this little creature, unable to fly, and if molested, venture trustfully to question everyone who passes, was a pleasure I have never had elsewhere, for where have I never seen such trust by a close saloon on Sunday and election days.

Decided by a Thread.

As we came in on the Big Four train last Saturday from Delaware we noticed a well-barbed and high-crowned "young man of the period" conspicuous among the expense of the owners, and I, as a result of the latter 1348 animals (12.9 per cent) were found tuberculous and were condemned.

In our previous correspondence the item relative to the marriage of John Mathien and Christiana Schmit was wrong, in that the latter name should have been Schneider.

Memorial day dawned bright and warm. Flags were hoisted at half-mast over our business houses and a great many residences in memory of the nation's deceased heroes.

S. Diering, an old resident of this place, went to Fond du Lac last Tuesday to have a cancer removed from his jaw. However, he was informed that the disease had gone so far that an operation would prove fatal, so he returned home the next day.

SCOTT'S EMULSION

OF COD-LIVER OIL WITH HYPOPHOSPHITES

should always be kept in the house for the following reasons:

- FIRST—Because, if any member of the family has a hard cold, it will cure it. SECOND—Because, if the children are delicate and sickly, it will make them strong and well. THIRD—Because, if the father or mother is losing flesh and becoming thin and emaciated, it will build them up and give them flesh and strength. FOURTH—Because it is the standard remedy in all throat and lung affections.

No household should be without it. It can be taken in summer as well as in winter.

OUR PUBLIC SCHOOL CLOSING.

Prof. W. C. Hewitt of the Oshkosh Normal to Deliver the Commencement Address—Seven Diplomats for Pupils.

The public school will close next Wednesday, June 7th, with a picnic at the Northside park in the afternoon.

The Kewaskum brass band will furnish music for the occasion, and everybody is cordially invited to participate in the picnic and help to make it pleasant for the pupils.

The commencement exercises will be held next Thursday evening in Marx's hall, with an admission fee of 10c will be charged, and the following scholars will receive diplomas crediting them with two years of high school work.

Backhaus, Otto E. Lay, Amalia M. Ockenfels, Byron H. Rosenheimer, Newton W. Rosenheimer, Agnes M. Schaefer and Joseph F. Schmidt.

Prof. W. C. Hewitt will deliver the commencement address, which will certainly prove to be the greatest yet heard here in the educational line.

The exercises began at 9 a. m., when the members of the Isaac Hendricks post formed in line at their hall, with the Campbellsport band to the fore.

and marched to the depot to meet the speakers, A. F. Backhaus of Kewaskum and L. A. Williams of Fond du Lac, who were expected but did not arrive until later.

The marchers then retraced their steps to the hall, where the ritual exercises of the post were held with Jos. Goss acting as chaplain and the band interspersing with music.

In the afternoon the post and band members met at the headquarters of the former and marched to the L. O. G. T. hall and escorted the Modern Woodmen to the public school house, where a grand procession was formed as follows:

Mounted Marshal Post. Campbellsport Brass Band. Isaac Hendricks Post. Modern Woodmen. School Children.

Citizens Afoot and in Carriages. Upon reaching Main street square the paraders formed a circle, wherein the school children gave a pretty exhibition in drilling, after which all proceeded to the G. A. R. post hall.

in front of which a stand had been built with a seating capacity which proved insufficient for the immense crowd. Nevertheless, the programme of recitations, songs, etc., was attentively listened to and remarkably well rendered, also the oration delivered by August F. Backhaus and the address by Attorney L. A. Williams.

The following is the programme which was rendered: Quartet—Teating on the Heavenly Highlands. Messrs. Book, Meek, Hill and Tanner Solo—Again Our Boys Put on the Blue. R. Goss Conductor. Recitation and Song—Primary Pupils Double Quartet—Peacefully Resting. Mrs. M. Schmitt. Grammar School Pupils Duet—As the Years Roll By. The Misses Golder Duet—The Wounded Soldier. Laura Ebert and Flora Kohler Recitation—You Put No Flowers on My Grave. Mrs. J. Schmitt. Stella Kitz and Gertrude Goss Memorial Address. Laura Ebert Solo—Nameless, Unknown. Mary Rosler Recitation—The Boys Bine. Herman Paas Oration. August F. Backhaus Address. L. A. Williams Duet—The Boys Are Still Marching. Lou Flint and Edna Heimer

Upon the conclusion of the programme the procession re-formed and proceeded to the Union cemetery, where the graves were appropriately decorated and the usual ceremonies held, after which all marched back to the village via Newcell and disbanded fully satisfied of having participated in the greatest Memorial day observance ever witnessed in Campbellsport.

STATE OF WISCONSIN. COUNTY COURT FOR WASHINGTON COUNTY. IS PROBATE. Notice is hereby given that at the special term of the county court to be held in and for said county at the probate office in the city of West Bend, on the third Tuesday, to-wit: June 10, 1896, the following matter will be heard and considered.

The application of Wm. B. Backhaus for the appointment of administrator of the estate of Charles Backhaus, late of the village of Kewaskum, in said county, deceased. Dated May 16, 1896. By Order of the Court. H. W. SAWYER, County Judge. BARNET & KUCHENMEISTER, Att'ys.

SINCE it has been demonstrated that our troops can capture more Philippine strongholds than the can garrison, the insurgents are evidently fighting much after the fashion that served the Cubans so well when hard pressed.

DEORATION DAY AT CAMPBELLSPORT.

As usual, a number of our citizens joined the nearest public gathering in observance of Memorial day—at Campbellsport. As a result of yearly observing the date with formal exercises, the G. A. R. post and citizens of the place naturally rendered a very interesting programme, and the attendance exceeded that of any previous year in point of numbers.

The weather, too, was as favorably as could be had, and it undoubtedly did a great deal towards bringing out such a large crowd. The village generally was appropriately decorated, almost every building having had a copy of our national flag floating in respect of the day which has been dedicated by our country to the loved ones whom we honor in their final resting place—men whose sacrifices for their country's sake are to be remembered as a lesson in patriotism to those who enjoy the blessings of living in the greatest country under the sun.

The exercises began at 9 a. m., when the members of the Isaac Hendricks post formed in line at their hall, with the Campbellsport band to the fore, and marched to the depot to meet the speakers, A. F. Backhaus of Kewaskum and L. A. Williams of Fond du Lac, who were expected but did not arrive until later.
