WARDEN'S BIG HAUL, Round up of Live Wines a Fishermen for breaking Game Law.

Fond du Lac, Wis., Sept. 21.—[Special.] The biggest haul of fish ever made in Wisconsin was made here today.

Wardens have been watching for certain fishermen who are out of legal fishing and today the raid planned was carried out.

The fishermen were surprised but before the capture was made, the warden took possession of a fishing boat worth $200, a row and 2000 feet of net, besides the fish.

Three men were arrested, they are Charles Damsen and M. Reine of Oshkosh and one of the fishermen of Stockbridge. All make their living by fishing.

The officers have been after Damsen for three years and he was taken before the justice of the peace this morning.

Game Warden Carpenter was only appointed a few days ago by Gov. Scofield. He was assisted in the capture by Deputy Cleveland and Stevenson.

The Crow's Hat. In front of a sidewalk at Little country circus, today, a little crowd of a hoarse-voiced man was shouting.

"Here you are, now! The ossified man! Step right up, gentlemen, and see the greatest living thing on earth! Nine-tenth century! Only 10 cents!"

A dozen men stood in a group a little way from the speaker, and one of them was convinced of the wisdom of parting with 10 cents.

Presently an old farmer came out of the crowd, having viewed the ossified man. "Here, my friend," roared the showman, "tell the gentlemen here, what you think of the greatest living curiosity of the Nineteenth century."

The farmer, who had been looking at the ossified man, and he answered, in such a low voice that nobody could hear him. "Well, I'll tell you, I had the darned little man!"

"I'll take care of you," shouted the showman, "step right up, gentlemen, and see the greatest living curiosity of the Nineteenth century! Only 10 cents!"

The farmer's testimony, promptly paid its dues and walked in—New York Tribune.

Frightened the Water. Robert Barr, the novelist, is a great journalist. L. F. Austin, an English writer, tells how Barr worried a waiter.

"I was finishing breakfast one morning at the pleasantest window. I saw one of the waiters and said to a waiter: 'What do you think of the waiter who is coming to lunch at once? Who's the man sitting there? I'll turn him out!'"

A Newspaper Crisis.

Vanity Fair takes the view, which is shared by several weeklies, that the alarmist daily papers have created a fictitious crisis.

Conservative sifting of the conflicting opinions and rumors prevailing regarding the outcome of the dispute will be more practicable after the cabinet meeting, though the official announcement of the ministerial decision is likely to be delayed a few days.

The London edition of the Standard and Diggers' News of Johannesburg gave out a cable dispatch today purporting to be from Johannesburg, saying that the returns from the field corners of the Transvaal and Orange Free State show that £2,000,000 worth of gold is ready to take the field at short notice.

SATURDAY, SEPT. 23, 1899.

THE PARDON OF DREYFUS forms such a popular climax that the case might be profitably dramatized.

It is reported that Gotham is suffering from a scarcity of 1-dollar bills, but we presume she will come out all right so long as her supply of cents is not similarly affected.

SINCE the potato crop of Michigan and the national trust convention have both panned out as Gov. Pin-gree desired, we presume his cup of joy is full to overflowing.

THE War department is reported to have had a powerful search light made, which is to be mounted on the intrenchments at Manila for night use in lighting the surrounding country and preventing surprise by the insurgents. Thus it seems that the location of the hostile Filipinos is about as uncertain as that of the Irishman's flea.

EX-SENATOR WASHINGTON of Minnesota, who is one of the world's best wheat experts and has lately returned from Europe, says of this year's grain supply: "The crops throughout Europe are good this year, with the single exception of Russia, where the wheat yield is poor. In Germany, Austria and Hungary, and all other parts of Europe, the crop is better than it has been in years. This will lessen the demand for breadstuffs from the United States to some extent; but, with our short crop here, there will be a good market for all that we have produced. Argentine is rapidly getting to the front as a wheat producing country, but the United States will lead in this respect for a long time to come."

ONLY about half the states were represented at the initial encampment of Spanish war veterans in Washington recently. The object of the association is to incorporate a national body of the various organizations of soldiers and sailors of the Spanish war. That the organization is to be non-partisan was shown by the election of Gen. J. W. Keifer of Ohio as commander-in-chief with Col. W. J. Bryan of Nebraska as one of the twelve members of the council of administration, while the election of Lieut. Hamilton H. Hunt of Louisiana as a member of the same council indicates that the color lines are not to be drawn. President McKinley was made the first honorary member, and Miss Helen Gould was chosen as sponsor of the new organization. The place of holding the next meeting was left to the judgment of the council of administration.

The Queen's Big Family. Queen Victoria has had 9 children, of whom 7 survive; 40 grandchildren, of whom 33 survive; 30 great-grandchildren, who are all living.

Of the latter 19 are boys and 11 girls. Five are grandchildren of the Prince of Wales; 17 are grandchildren of the Empress Frederick; 8 are grandchildren of the late Princess Alice; 3 are grandchildren of the Duke of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha.

This would appear to make a total of 33, but 2 of them are grandchildren of both the Empress Frederick and the Princess Alice, while one is a grandchild of both Princess Alice and the Duke of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha.

It will be seen that in the course of Nature the future rulers of Great Britain, Germany, Russia, Greece and Roumania will be descendants of her majesty.—X.

PRESS PULSATIONS.

There is a general, widespread feeling, that in the campaign of next year the Democratic party will be given an opportunity to redeem the government from the evils of Republican misrule. This feeling is not confined to any section of the country, nor to any class, but seems to permeate all sections and classes, manifesting itself in newspaper publications, in the casual utterances of public men and in private conversation. No satisfactory explanation nor description of it can be given further than to say that on all sides and in every direction there is expectation of a change. It is the feeling which takes possession of an army on the eve of a great movement and which leads the rank and file to prepare for a march even before their immediate leaders have received such orders.—Atlanta Constitution.

It Grew on Sunday. In a country town near New York an old-fashioned preacher had exhorted his flock not to read the Sunday newspapers. On the following Monday he was strolling through the market place when he spied some unusually fine asparagus (a vegetable of which he was almost gluttonously fond) in the stall of one of his parishioners.

"Mr. Smith," said the parson, "I will buy some of your asparagus if it is not too dear."

Now Smith was a confirmed reader of the Sunday newspaper, so he decided to play a joke on his pastor.

"I am sorry said the dealer, but I would not like to have it on my conscience that I sold you such grass as that."

"What's the matter with it?" asked the preacher in surprise. "I never saw any finer looking."

"Oh, it's all right that way," said Mr. Smith, "but, you see, I picked it early this morning; it sprang up and grew on Sunday."—New York Tribune.

Jacob Brissel returned home last Monday, after a few weeks' visit with his daughter, Mrs. Louis Thill, at Hartford.

John Hess and Miss Louisa Schlei-ger were married Wednesday in the Zion church, with Rev. Stevens officiating. The groom is a highly respected teacher, while the bride is an amiable young lady who has the respect of all who know her.

Misses Julia Hess and Lena Schlei-ger acted as bridesmaids, while Wm. Hess and John Schlei-ger were the groomsmen. The young couple will reside at Neno, where the groom will teach a public school. We wish them a happy future. Among those from elsewhere in attendance at the wedding we noticed the following, viz: Mr. and Mrs. Schwimann, Mrs. John Kibbel and Miss Katie Schneider of the Cream City, also Wm. Hess of Mondovi.

"Father," said a young hopeful the other day, "how many fowls are there on the table?" "Why," said the old gentleman as he complacently looked at a pair of nicely-roasted chickens, "there are two." "Two?" asked the smart lad; "there are three." "Three?" exclaimed the matter-of-fact parent; "I'd like to see you prove it." "That's easy. Isn't that one?" said the boy, laying his knife on the first, "and that two?" pointing to the second; "and do not one and two make three?" "Really," said the father turning to his wife, who was stupefied at the immense learning of their son; "really, this boy is a genius, and deserves to be encouraged;" and then, to show that there is fun in old folks too, he added, "wife, you take one fowl and I'll take the second, while John may have the third for his learning."—X.

ELMORE ETCHINGS.

Chris. Schmalz was at Fond du Lac last Monday.

Quite a number from here attended the Washington county fair.

Michael Litscher has improved the residence of Mrs. Senn with a coat of paint.

Mrs. Frank Mauch is on the sick list, and Dr. Hausmann of Kewaskum is attending her.

A threshers' dance will be held in Elmore hall on Sunday night, Oct. 1st, with music by the St. Kilian orchestra. Tickets 25c.

How Postal Cards Are Often Wasted. "Women often send messages to the dress or dry goods shops on postal cards," says the Ladies Home Journal, "attaching a bit of cloth, ribbon or lace as samples. This renders the card un-mailable, so it is always sent to the dead-letter office and invariably destroyed. Men—presumably—not infrequently paste a clever joke or a telling political fragment on a postal and mail it to a friend, but it never arrives to the party addressed. Nothing may be attached to a postal card, nor may anything but the address be written on the face side."

FILLMORE FLASHES. Corn husking has commenced.

A number from here attended the County fair.

Michael Schmitt of Port Washington was a caller here Tuesday.

Adolph Goldammer of Elkart Lake visited relatives here last week.

The dance given by E. W. Wittig last Sunday night was fairly well attended, despite the inclemency of the weather, and all had a good time.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Sebastian are rejoicing over the arrival of a bouncing boy.

Mrs. Rev. Grunewald and son Otto left for First Atkinson last Monday to spend several days there.

Miss Bertha Kleiss visited relatives and friends at Fredonia last week.

While at work upon the roof of a house, a Turkish slater fell into the street, striking and killing a wealthy old man, but escaping serious injury himself. The son of the deceased had the slater arrested and taken before the court, where he tried to convince that the prisoner should be condemned; and, though the innocence of the poor man was clearly established, nothing would serve him but the law of retaliation. The court accordingly sentenced the slater to be placed exactly upon the spot where the deceased was at the time of the accident; and "You," said he to the son, "will go upon the house-roof, fall onto the slater and kill him if you can."—Atlanta Constitution.

Thirsty Patron (calling for second glass of beer)—"Give me a large glass, this time!" Barkeeper—"Very well, sir; but it won't hold any more than the smaller looking one." T. F.—"Well, the whole business is based on a notion, you know."—Tombstone Inscription.

John Clerk, afterward known as Lord Eldin, was limping down High street in Edinburgh one day when he heard a young lady remark to her companion, "That is the famous John Clerk, the lame lawyer." Upon over-hearing the last words he turned around and said, "You lie, ma'am! I am a lame man, but not a lame lawyer."—X.

GRANDMA HAD CONSUMPTION. and I am afraid I have inherited it. I do not feel well; I have a cough; my lungs are sore; am losing flesh. What shall I do?

Your doctor says take care of yourself and take plain cod-liver oil, but you can't take it. Only the strong, healthy person can take it, and they can't take it long. It is so rich it upsets the stomach. But you can take SCOTT'S EMULSION It is very palatable and easily digested. If you will take plenty of fresh air, and exercise, and SCOTT'S EMULSION steadily, there is very little doubt about your recovery.

There are hypophosphites in it; they give strength and tone up the nervous system while the cod liver oil feeds and nourishes.

SLOW PERSONS.

How Their Deliberate and Poky Ways Annoy Street-Car Conductors.

"Yes, we're six minutes late," said the conductor; "but it's no fault of mine. We had more old and sick people on this trip than I ever saw before in all my life. Now watch that poor chap. He has to move slow. He has two minutes to get off. Odd, isn't it, that people will suffer that way when, if they would go about it right, nine out of ten of them could be cured. Now, I know a man—his name is R. B. Greever—he's a rich merchant in Chilhowie, Va., who had consumption from letting a bad cold run till it settled on his lungs. He couldn't lie down nights—just sat up and coughed. He was so bad all the doctors gave him up. He tried everything, but nothing did him any good until, one day, a friend told him to try Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. Well, you ought to have seen the quick change in Mr. Greever. He was able to attend to business in a short time. That's several years ago; and I saw him the other day and he looked as well as any man. That medicine's a great thing. I've known people to have the worst kind of coughs and colds and to be cured by it in a day or two, and they say it will cure Bronchitis, the Grip, Asthma, Pleurisy, Lung Fever, Spitting of Blood, Pneumonia and hay fever. When my little girls had Croup and Whooping Cough I didn't have to call a doctor—just used a little of this medicine and they were all right. Did you say Main street, sir? Well, here we are. Remember, whenever you have any throat or lung trouble, the best thing to take for it is Dr. King's New Discovery." The car went on, but the conductor had stated a fact that millions of people had proved in the last 25 years. Large bottles are sold at 50 cents and $1.00. Money back if not cured. A trial bottle free. At all druggists.

Mrs. Chat (nudging husband over-working his snoring organs)—"William, you'd make less noise if you'd keep your mouth shut!" Mr. Chat (half awake)—"So'd you."—Tit-Bits.

A Letter to the Public.

Fall and Winter Goods have been arriving in such large quantities that we were kept busy hustling, instead of enjoying a summer vacation.

But we now have our store in such shape that we enjoy the result of the hustling. We have a more complete line of desirable goods than any house in more than one or two counties.

Our goods are now in such shape that a glance through our store will show you what you want and need, and that the above statement is correct.

It was a hit, upon the part of our buyer, in purchasing early and in large quantities, as it enables us to give you the benefit of a large selection and, what is more, a share in the low prices which we took advantage of.

We will not endeavor to mention goods nor prices, as the STATESMAN is not provided to enlarge his sheet this week. A general invitation is herewith extended to all. It will afford us pleasure to show you through our different departments and see you satisfied that we are able to serve you better than ever.

Yours for business,

L. ROSENHEIMER,

Kewaskum, Wisconsin.

P. S.—Don't forget that we buy, at any time, anything produced on a farm and pay the highest market price therefor.
