COMPANY OWNED CITY

A Plat on File at Fond du Lac Resala a Famous Case in Brown County.

Fond du Lac, Wis., Nov. 23.—[Special.]—The building in the block of the court's office in this city a plat which was closely linked with the early history of Fond du Lac, being a description of what is now known as the city proper and town. The plat is a portion of the records of a case that was tried in Brown county, in what is now the city of Green Bay.

In November, 1835, prominent citizens of Green Bay organized what was known as the Fond du Lac company, which had real estate at or near the head of Lake Winnebago, in Brown county, Wisconsin territory. By the 1st of January, 1838, the company owned 37,015 acres of land, in what is today the city and town of Fond du Lac. The first officers of the company were James Duane Doty, president, and afterwards elected the first governing body of Wisconsin, which was named as receiver of the company. In 1846, Master in Chancery Ellis sold all the lands and town lots of the company that had not been disposed of previous to the commencement of the suit by Darling. An act was later passed to repeal the act of 1846, and the company was dissolved. The act of 1846 was approved February 3, 1842, which was as follows:

Be it enacted by the council of the House of Representatives of the territory of Wisconsin, That the act entitled "An act to incorporate the Fond du Lac company approved February 3, 1842, is hereby repealed, provided that said company shall be liable for all debts which may not be contracted by said company, in as full and ample manner as if said act had not been passed.

Approved February 3, 1842.

From that time the company became a thing of the past.

TO BUILD A THEATER.

Fond du Lac will Have a Fine Ground Floor Opera House.

READY BY SEPTEMBER.

Work will commence on New Structure May 1—Owned by a Local Company.

Fond du Lac, Wis., Nov. 20.—[Special.]—Fond du Lac is to have a new ground floor theater to be constructed by a stock company not to exceed ten people, four of whom have already been secured. The project, thus far, has been kept secret, all communication between the parties interested having been carried on through the mails. The site, although not yet selected, will be not far from Main street. There is to be a stage upon either side of the building, with offices above. Between the stages there will be a fifteen-foot entrance to the theater, which will open into a hall—twenty-five feet in length, in which will be located the box seats. The building will have a seating capacity of 1200, through double doors one can enter the waiting room, which will contain chairs and couches. From doors will be the entrance to the theater. On either side of the auditorium, near the entrance, will be ticket rooms. The house will be approached from near this point, the gallery from the outside. The house will be a two-story building, with a double door in parquette and dressing circle to be upholstered. The interior decorations will be in light shades which will harmonize with artificial light. There are to be a number of boxes, and a large orchestra. The new Crescent Opera house, constructed large enough to drive a team of horses upon and of ample capacity to accommodate the special services of the average spectacular play. The building will cost between $18,000 and $20,000. Work on the structure will be commenced about May 1 and completed by September 15.

Fond du Lac has long completed a first-class opera house. The old Amory hall was condemned years ago as unsafe. The new Crescent Opera house, remodelled two years ago at a cost of nearly $5000, is inadequate in point of seating capacity and in the larger companies sufficient stage room. For these reasons this city has been deprived of witnessing the better class of plays, and the people will hail with delight the prospect of soon enjoying the comforts of a metropolitan opera house.

TRIAL OF MIKE BEREZ.

Marshfield Man is Charged with the Murder of a Hermit.

Fond du Lac, Wis., Nov. 21.—[Special.]—The second criminal case to be taken up will be that of the state against Mike Beretz, charged with the murder of John Blumenseder, a hermit of the town of Marshfield, who for over thirty years resided in a log hut on one portion of the farm of John Fuerster, on the morning of March 29 while the majority of the residents of that town were attending church. On the return of Mr. and Mrs. Fuerster from church, the former visited the hut with some food for the old man and as he entered the sleeping room he found Blumenseder lying stretched at full length on the floor, evidently dead. Examination and ascertained that he was dead. Neighbors were called in and later an undertaker summoned and as he was removing the clothing he noticed blood on the undergarments. The officers were then notified and an inquest was held. It was ascertained on examination by a physician that three bullets had entered from behind, indicating that he had been shot down from behind. The bullets are now in the possession of the state.

On April 10 Mike Beretz, a chesapeake from the town of Marshfield, was arrested. On the preliminary examination the evidence against Beretz was very weak and he was discharged. On May 19 the officers found a stump near the scene of the murder and they were brought to this city and a preliminary examination was held. The evidence was quite strong and Beretz was held in the city. He was taken up immediately following the termination of the Wightman case.

—Arrang is said to be the apple orchard of Ireland.

Chattanooga, Tenn., Nov. 23.—At 10 o'clock this morning the exercises of dedicating the 107 monuments and markers of the state of Illinois on the battlefields surrounding the city were held at Orchard Knolls, one of the most beautiful principal memorial shafts and famous during the Civil war as the headquarters of Gen. Grant. It is estimated that more than 1000 Chattanooga people attended the exercises. Among the distinguished visitors were Senator Cullom, Gov.
