LADIES who wear birds or the feathers thereof on their hats should read the following news report from Milford, Del.: "Contracts have been closed here for the bodies of 8,000 birds to be killed for New York milliners from 40 to 50c apiece. The contracts call for meadow larks, bluebirds, redwinged and crow-birds, English sparrows and baby owls."

THAT David Rose was re-elected as mayor of Milwaukee by 2,000 majority last Tuesday does not create so much surprise as the number who now claim to have bet on him. In this connection it may be well to state that the combined Republican and Socialist vote shows a majority against the late street railway franchise granted by the Rose administration.

E. C. WALL is right in asserting that free silver will not be an issue in the coming presidential campaign, in that it will occupy about the same position that free trade did in the last campaign, and because other and more important issues have since arisen.

The Wonderful Ganges.

One of the Greatest Rivers of the World, It Flows Through India as a Healing Stream of Health.

For hundreds of years the natives of India have considered their great river, the Ganges, pure and holy. A marvelous discovery has lately been made that its waters will kill the most deadly disease germs, even of cholera, within six hours, and that it is really a stream of health flowing through the land. A wonderful discovery was made 25 years ago in this country of a liquid that will quickly kill fatal disease germs, which is called Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. This medicine was made to cure all diseases of the chest, throat and lungs. It is now known that these diseases are commonly caused by very small germs that fasten upon the mucous membranes of throat and lungs. No medicine will cure these diseases which will not cleanse, soothe, and heal the inflamed membrane near the disease germs. This is just what this royal cure does. It will stop the most obstinate cough, give rest to the throat, and induce refreshing sleep. It cures Colds, Pneumonia, Bronchitis, Pleurisy, Hemorrhages, Grippe, Lung Fever, Asthma, Hay Fever, Croup, Whooping Cough, etc. It never fails to cure Consumption when taken in time, and many letters have been received proving that it has cured consumptives who had been given up to die by doctors. Read what Mrs. Ella P. Sweet, of Polo, Ill., says. She writes: "Can truly say that Dr. King's New Discovery is the best medicine that is made. It cured me of throat trouble that I had suffered with for years. My brother had asthma very bad and it cured him. It cured my uncle, who believes it has no equal, and many others that I advised to use it." Ask for it and take no substitute. Price 50 cents and $1.00. Money back if not cured. A trial bottle free. All druggists.

In almost every neighborhood there is someone whose life has been saved by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, or who has been cured of chronic diarrhoea by the use of that medicine. Last Monday, while J. Ruplinger, Jr., was chopping in the woods, his 6-year-old son meddled with a feeder-cut in the barn and cut the three middle fingers of one hand at the second joints. Luckily the child immediately reversed the machine and thus freed his hand, and then calmly left the barn to tell his mamma what the cutter had done. She called her husband from the woods, and he took the boy to Dr. Stoye of Theresa, who took the fingers off back of the second joints, as they were only hanging on by the skin.

The Devil's Diary.

The Topeka Capital's apprentice boy has given the New York World the following diary of his first day of Sheldon week:

11 a. m.—Sheldon made a speech to us, saying we mustn't smoke. He's a frost.

11:30 a. m.—Sheldon came fooling around the imposing stone 'n' got the sponge under his elbow. New coat for Sheldon.

120 p. m.—Asked Sheldon for dime to get new cylinder for the press. He's easy.

2:10 p. m.—Told him the lithograph room needed quarter's worth of metal. Wonder how long he'll last.

3:30 p. m.—Sheldon told me he liked the newspaper his first-rate. Went in an' ast him.

4 p. m.—Took proof of Sheldon article in and told him it was a lulu. "What's a lulu?" he said. "You are," I said. Not a cent.

5 p. m.—Offered him chunk o' roller for chewing gum. Didn't bite. Catching onto the biz.

5:30 p. m.—Sheldon wiped his face on the office towel. All he needs is a wig 'n' a rag-time song to be Billy West.

7 p. m.—Lit cigarette-stub back of galley-rack. Sheldon's nose all right. Suspended.

8:10 p. m.—Sent for. 8:25 p. m.—Got back. New kid in my place. Nadin't don't nothing but a form. Never saw a print-shop before.

8:30 p. m.—Told Sheldon that, seein' the new principle the office was working under, I'd forgive him.

10:50 p. m.—Asked Sheldon for a reason. Good chance.

Midnight.—Had square talk with Mr. Sheldon. Got the raise. Told him the editor want the whole thing. Said he believed that was right.

Wm. Orr, Newark, O., says: "We never feel safe without One Minute Cough Cure in the house. It saved my little boy's life when he had the pneumonia. We think it is the best medicine made." It cures coughs and all lung diseases. Pleasant to take, harmless and gives immediate results. All druggists.

Justice Brewer recently told a story of an Indiana justice of the peace who owned a farm where one line of his fence formed the boundary of that state and Ohio. One day his son and the hired man got to fighting on the place near the aforesaid line, whereupon the justice rushed up to the fence, mounted it, and with high-cocked head and the air of one who has to command, shouted: "In the name of the state of Indiana I demand the preservation of the peace!" Just then the fence gave way under his weight, and as he went down with the fence toppling over to the Ohio side he shouted to his son: "Give him a—! Jim; I've lost my jurisdiction!"—X.

Mrs. Harriet Evans, Hinsdale, Ill., writes: "I never fail to relieve my children from croup at once by using One Minute Cough Cure. I would not feel safe without it." Quickly cures coughs, colds, grippe and all throat and lung diseases. All druggists.

The Real Thing.—Johnny (who is jealous)—Mamma likes me better'n you. Evelyn (who enjoys teasing)—Why, no, Johnny, of course she loves Betty and me best! Just think, she was your mother long before she was yours! Johnny (scornfully)—Hoh, what of that? You are nothing but a sample copy, anyhow! And Betty's only a trial subscription! But I am the real thing!—Life.

M. B. Smith, Batternut, Mich., says: "DeWitt's Little Early Risers are the very best pills I ever used for constiveness, liver and bowel troubles." All druggists.

She—Oh, Harry, did you mail that horrid, hateful letter I wrote papa? He must have sent this $100 check the day I wrote it. He—Yes, I mailed it; he has it by this time. She—That's your money in trouble, a letter that'll get whenever I give you a letter that'll get him in trouble.—Indianapolis Journal.

Lewis Ackerman, Goshen, Ind., says: "DeWitt's Little Early Risers always bring certain relief, cure my headache and never gripe." They gently cleanse and invigorate the bowels and liver. All druggists.

No Interest in Religion. Nowadays the grandson of the Bible worshippers of bygone days, still nominally a Christian, an educated young fellow familiar with the literature of half a dozen countries, probably never had read a chapter in it and never will. He has a vague idea that the Book was lately overturned by the higher criticism. But as to what the criticism is, or what the book is, he has but vague ideas. They bore him, and in his hasty march through life has learned the trick of promptly riding his path of all things that bore him. The literature of his work, whatever that may be, does not bore him.—reports of findings in court. These things he understands. What have these abstractions, he says, to do with life-life? His work is life. Work now puts a stress and strain upon men of which our ancestors knew little. The American is in the thick of it.—An American mother in the Ladies' Home Journal.

SCOTT'S EMULSION OF COD-LIVER OIL WITH HYPOPHOSPHITES should always be kept in the house for the following reasons: FIRST—Because, if any member of the family has a hard cold, it will cure it. SECOND—Because, if the children are delicate and sickly, it will make them strong and well. THIRD—Because, if the father or mother is losing flesh and becoming thin and emaciated, it will build them up and give them flesh and strength. FOURTH—Because it is the standard remedy in all throat and lung affections. No household should be without it. Can be taken in summer as well as in winter. Price 50c and $1.00. All druggists. Remarkable Cure of Rheumatism. KESSA, Jackson Co., W. Va. About three years ago my wife had an attack of rheumatism which confined her to her bed for over a month and rendered her unable to walk a step without assistance, her limbs being swollen to double their normal size. Mr. S. Maddox insisted on my using Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I purchased a 50-cent bottle and used it according to the directions, and the next morning she walked to breakfast without assistance in any manner, and she has not had a similar attack since.—A. B.
