Several days ago samples of nut-lump and slack coal, taken from the Wisconsin mine at the mouth of Saginaw river, were sent to Pittsburgh and transformed into coke. The product has been returned and the results are reported to be satisfactory.

Jasper Eganard, a farmer near Ashby, was killed last week by a vicious man who had been just shot and killed and fell while chasing sheep into a pen to be sheared. The man's head struck him just over the heart, and death was instantaneous.

The new peach just recently reported from the western part of the state has made its appearance some parts of the Sanilac county and is doing considerable damage to the peach orchards. The pest in the shape of a long slender fly with yellow stripes across its back.

From land in Berrien county is selling at high figures. A fifteen-acre tract near Benton Harbor is being offered for $2500 per acre, and it is thought the peach crop this year will pay for itself and the price paid for the land is especially adapted and set to peaches.

The excellent dry weather of this spring, together with a cool wind has brightened the buds of the peach orchards in Berrien and other counties and the prospects of a good crop are now better than for some years. The buds are also showing great damage in the apple orchards.

Patwater is fast assuming a desert appearance. The men who were employed in the furniture factory here in Detroit in March have been obliged to go elsewhere to get employment, and many of them have sought for their families at that there is someone moving out nearly every day.

Nichols and Son of Calumet captured a 25-pound carp and a 129-pound stringer off the mouth of the River in Lake Michigan. The carp is believed to be the largest specimen ever taken in Michigan on the lake, and was secured by Nichols and Son. The fish was secured by a man who had been 45 cents. He pulled a half-dollar from his pocket and used it to buy the fish. The fish was found in the river instead.

A Kent county cat whose kittens were taken away from her and young rabbits stolen from her and brought up by the housewife, although she showed a desire to eat them, and now she tries to catch little chicks into her basket, as if she wanted to eat them so to speak, at raising that species of young.

A peculiar disease has made its appearance at Dewberry, Sanilac county. The doctors think it resembles and claim it is contracted from cattle. The man who had charge of a large herd of cattle all winter is suffering terribly from the disease, the symptoms of which are large swellings on the face and hands and the falling out of the hair.

Good Story is told in the Argonaut about Richard Croker and Pat Donahue, a prospective mayor in one of the New York Irish wards. Donahue was new to the ward, and Croker invited him to dinner at the Waldorf-Astoria. Feeling that Donahue might make a break for it, Croker invited Donahue to dinner at the Waldorf-Astoria.

A friend of William M. Evans reports him as being much amused by having read a recently published account of himself. Evans says, "I don't really feel any way like an old photograph," he remarked, "but I fancy you can still make out the features."

BOERS AND CONTINUE WAR.
Kruger Says They Will Still Battle for Independence.
DECLINES OUR OFFER.
Boers Expected to Fall Back Into an Almost Inaccessible Mountain Region.

New York, June 7.—A dispatch to the Herald from Lourenco Marques says: In answer to a telegraphic inquiry to President Kruger informing him of the offer of 100 acres of land in America to each burgher, the President replied: "We thank you for this generous offer of land, but the burghers are determined to fight for their own land and independence to the bitter end."

Great numbers of the enemy still occupy Majuba Hill, Laings' Nek and the Pogwam range as far east as Engelbrecht's pass. On the Bellarsberg the positions of the Boers are strong. Gen. Buller's army is in command. It should be able to continue fighting with all probability all back on Lydenburg as a safe retreat into the almost inaccessible mountains of the Murchison range. The Boers' entry into the Transvaal by way of Volharts can only result in failure and unnecessary loss of life on both sides.

Robert's Plans.
London, June 7.—The war is regarded as virtually under control, and the Boers can expect success in pushing upon isolated command posts and the Boer army followed by embarrassment in finding places where prisoners can be held. The Boers' first work at Pretoria is to release the prisoners at Waterburg. This is estimated to cost the Boers £100,000, although the official news has not been received. Their number has been roughly estimated at 4000, but a large proportion of them will probably be unfit for duty after their long confinement.

The British line from Heilbron through Lindenberg and Senekal extends to the north, and is held by the Boers. The Boers are expected to fall back into the almost inaccessible mountains of the Murchison range. The Boers' entry into the Transvaal by way of Volharts can only result in failure and unnecessary loss of life on both sides.

Gen. Buller is reported to be conferring with Lord Roberts at Laing's Nek, but it is more likely to be swinging round to the north. The Boers are expected to fall back into the almost inaccessible mountains of the Murchison range. The Boers' entry into the Transvaal by way of Volharts can only result in failure and unnecessary loss of life on both sides.

Milwaukee Cadet at West Point Gives Promise of a Fine Military Record.
West Point, Md., June 7.—Only fifty-four officers will be added to the army when the first class of cadets at the Military academy is graduated on Wednesday next week. This is the smallest class West Point has turned out for some time, and the loss, just at a time when the demand for army officers is very great. There are so few, in fact, that only two have been spared and these men who are on the disabled list to go as instructors to the different state camps. But that the first class of the military academy is graduated on Wednesday next week. This is the smallest class West Point has turned out for some time, and the loss, just at a time when the demand for army officers is very great.

AT SEA LEVEL.

The Great Lakes Would be Reduced to Mere Ponds. If the chain of great lakes which bound the northern continent of the United States could be brought to the level of the sea two of the chains would be practically wiped off the face of the earth.

Superior, if reduced to the sea level, would be robbed of the chain of water as wide variations of extreme depth as the big fresh-water system. Beginning with Superior and following the chain toward the sea level for Superior, 581 feet for Michigan and Huron, 573 for Erie and 245 for Ontario.
