INGALLS IS DEAD.

The Former Kansas Senator Passes Away at Las Vegas, New Mexico.

Las Vegas, N. M., Aug. 16.—Former United States Senator John J. Ingalls died at Las Vegas at 2:25 a. m. today. He was surrounded by his wife and two sons, Ellsworth and Archibald. The funeral will be held in Aichison, Kas.

Senator Ingalls' illness dated from March, 1904, when at Washington he threw back troubling him. He worked steadily writing political articles for newspapers throughout the country. He was treated by several specialists, but received no relief, and on their advice, returned with his family to Las Vegas, N. M.

As to the proposition that the Confederate veterans issue a circular, Gen. Chaular, president of the association, insisted that Shaw's remarks should be treated with the utmost respect. He stated that the veterans would not take part in such a meeting, and that following resolution, which was unanimously adopted: "The veterans of the recent occurrences at Atlanta and the utterances there of the commander of the G. A. R. in this association, which were both unbecomingly and unbecomingly..."

Atchison, At home he grew no better. Ten months ago he sought another change in climate, traveling through New Mexico and Arizona. He was still able to write occasionally for the newspapers and to attend to his business. He was seriously ill since he came to Las Vegas, and only two months ago planned to return to his home in Aichison, Mo. He remained in New Mexico, Mrs. Ingalls being unable to leave her home in Aichison, Mo. She telegraphed Ellsworth and Sheffield that their father was sinking. They arrived in time to see him die. Senator Ingalls left a widow and six children.

John James Ingalls was born in Middlebury, Mass., December 29, 1833. Graduating from Williams college in 1855 he began the study of law and was admitted to the bar in 1857. He removed to Aichison, Mo., in 1859, and was a member of the Territorial council in 1860, and of the state senate in 1861 and 1862. He was elected to the U. S. senate from Kansas in 1873, and served eight years, the last two years as majority leader. He was a member of the U. GEN. GORDON CONDEMNED.

Confederates Reject Invitation to Attend G. A. R. Encampment at Chicago.

New Orleans, La., Aug. 16.—The Confederate Association of the Army of the Tennessee, which includes a large majority of the Confederate veterans in New Orleans, at a meeting here, have protested against Gen. J. B. Gordon, commanding the United Confederate veterans, attending the G. A. R. encampment at Chicago.

As to the proposition that the Confederate veterans issue a circular, Gen. Chaular, president of the association, insisted that Shaw's remarks should be treated with the utmost respect. TO BREAK UP THE GANG.

Detectives Will Soon Raid the Log Stealing Association.

La Crosse, Wis., Aug. 16.—(Special.)—Chief Hunt of Hunt's Detective Agency states that he has located the gang of log thieves who the other evening stole $1000 worth of timber from a raft on the Mississippi side of the Mississippi. The gang was held on Saturday night at sixteen boats overpowered the watchman and took the property to this city, where H. Goddard, a wealthy lumberman, bought the logs, innocently it is claimed, and had them sawed into lumber.

Mr. Hunt states that he has discovered a place in a secluded spot on the river near from the city where the logs stolen by the gang are taken and the markings obliterated. Systematic stunts have been going on here for some time, but all attempts to capture the lawbreakers have so far been unsuccessful.

The Hunt agency states that in a short time they will make a raid on the rendezvous of the gang and find out who they are. They expect to keep away from the city with their booty and hide it in some place where they can conveniently leave the city for other climes. They have the rivermen terrorized and are hard to get evidence against the criminals.

ORGANIZED labor appears to be regarded as quite a political factor, as it is reported that W. J. Bryan, Theo. Roosevelt, R. M. La Follette and other noted politicians will speak at the Labor day picnic in Milwaukee on Sept. 3.

CHICAGO is dissatisfied with the federal census returns, and the Garden city may have a new count to offer Director Merriam in case the official figures do not show the city's population to be greater than the unofficial report sent out from Washington.

HOBSON has been refused permission to take part in the Chinese war on the ground that his forte is construction and not destruction. This is the first intimation we have heard to the effect that the much kidded hero of the Merrimack did a poor job in destroying that vessel.

THE total amount of money appropriated at the last session of congress was $710,150,862.88. In addition to the specific appropriations made, contracts are authorized for an increase of the naval establishment and for various public works requiring future appropriations in the aggregate sum of $58,440,374.

It is reported from Vera Cruz that "Bellinzi's serum is having a wonderful curative effect on even the worst cases of yellow fever." Undoubtedly this brand of serum is great disease-checking stuff. In fact, to the average American, the mere name of it would seem sufficient to cause a radical change in the condition of any fever patient.

THE Hackensack preacher whose recent text was "Every woman that prayeth or propheseth with her head uncovered dishonoreth her head," is in a fair way to be visited by some irate husband with his coat off, as the theatre habit of removing headgear has a pretty strong hold on the women when they practice it in church.

THE consumption of over 30,000,000 gallons of lake water per day, during the "dry spell" of last week, is a pretty good record for such an anti-prohibition place as Milwaukee. However, a decided reduction in these figures is anticipated this week, owing to cooler weather and the fact that printers from all over the country are enjoying the hospitality of the Cream city.

ARPOOS of the closing year of the 19th century, as well as of the Cream city merchants' tour of Wisconsin, the Milwaukee Sentinel last Tuesday issued a special edition which will prove a decidedly valuable souvenir for a great many years to come. It is called the Century edition and consists of five sections, two of which are elaborately illustrated in colors, while numerous half-tone pictures throughout the whole work show up the towns and industries of the state to good advantage.

THE man who killed Messenger Chas. Lane and robbed the way safe of the Adams express company, on the Pennsylvania east-bound train that arrived in Columbus, O., at midnight on the 10th inst., has proven to be Chas. R. H. Farrell, an ex-messenger who was discharged by the company a few weeks ago, on the suspicion of having opened packages on his run. After being a ride from his friend Lane on the plea of poverty, Farrell shot the messenger and robbed the safe, escaping in the darkness as the train slowed up to stop at a station just beyond Columbus. The criminal claims he was impelled to the double crime to obtain money to marry his sweetheart in the latter city, a beautiful young lady whom the detectives seem to have saved from becoming the wife of a man whose inclination to steal was such as to lead to the cold-blooded murder of a friend.

THE actress who is called Cherry Simpson seems to have a cross between the Cherry Sisters and Jerry Simpson for a stage name.

IF Samuel Leopold, whose work as a painter was accepted in the Paris salon, is ashamed of his kinship in America, they certainly have a good reason for becoming ashamed of him.

THE boasted philanthropy of Miss Helen Gould did not save a penniless widow of Elmira, N. Y., from starting out about for Chicago with an infant in her arms, this week. But perhaps the necessary railroad fare for the unfortunate woman to reach the home of her girlhood would be considered too insignificant an item for philanthropy of the Gould brand.

End to Tobacco Prizes. The commissioner of internal revenue has issued a circular prohibiting the use by manufacturers of cigars, cigarettes or tobacco, when put up in statutory packages of labels containing "any promise or offer, or any order or certificate for any gift, prize, premium, payment or reward." This regulation is so late effect on Sept. 1st.

The order, however, will not prevent manufacturers from sending prize coupons to retailers for dissemination among purchasers of their goods, but is designed to prohibit the statutory package as a distributor of gift enterprises.—X.

The Chinese complain that Christians never met them as equals, but with condescension and often with plain contempt. They are a patient people, compassing the impossible to lay their bones together, respecting authority, and enduring even usurpation for centuries, until the wonder is that there should be a China to break up.—X.

The Goat—I warn you, about 10 tonight the maid is going to elope with the milkman. The Watchdog—Indeed! How do you know all this? The Goat—I have inside information; I swallowed his note.—Collier's Weekly.

It will surprise you to experience the benefit obtained by using the dainty and famous little pills known as DeWitt's Little Early Risers. All druggists.

It Touched the Burglar's Heart. The burglar had entered the house as quietly as possible, but his shoes were not padded, and they made some noise. He had just reached the door of the bedroom when he heard somebody moving in the bed as if about to get up, and he paused. The sound of a woman's voice floated to his ears.

"If you don't take off your boots when you come into this house," it said, "there's going to be trouble. Here it's been raining for three hours, and you dare to tramp over my carpets with your muddy boots. Go down stairs and take them off this minute." He went down and out to his "pad," saying: "I can't rob that house; it reminds me of home."—X.

THE HEATHEN CHINER.

Oh, th' Haythen Chinse, in a minute, Will be passin' across th' divide, As they water-ski up under him it T' save his Mongolian hide. Had seen 't his cue an' his liver, We will give him an alligant dance! As smirki' ay, stuttin' an' shiverin'—Tuck yer shirt inside o' yer pants!

Ye never was good as a nation, With yer slantin' an' ignorant eyes—Make way for th' lords o' creation, If we as ye 'f follow our laws. Ye never was good as a voter, What good in th' land are ye, shure? Ye never was good as a hoster; Monogoy, we shows ye th' dure!

Their Booshoir an' England agin ye, Uncle Sam's at yer pigtail, ye say; Ye, out with yer leperous clan! Th' impoor o' Germany's a rase, He will write up an copy o' ye; His poems will teach ye a lesson—Ye haythin, climb down 't yer knee!

For th' powers be lookin' 'er allies, For th' honor o' the gallant Japan; They will divy yer teas an' yer rices—Th' 'lmost 't yer 'lmost 't yer 'lmost! For it's one an' all o' them sayin' In accents both rapid an' low; Th' Haythin Chinse, he must go!—Harold McGrath in Syracuse Herald.

Chinese are dangerous enemies, for they are treacherous. That's why all counterfeits of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve are dangerous. They look like DeWitt's, but instead of the all healing witch hazel they contain ingredients liable to irritate the skin and cause blood poisoning. For piles, injuries and skin diseases use the original and genuine DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. All druggists.

MATRIMONIAL. Miss Helen Mauch of this place was married to Wm. Jaeger of Ashford last Monday in the St. Matthew church at Newcassel. After the ceremony the bridal party repaired to the bride's home, where the wedding was duly celebrated. The bride was dressed in gray poplin made up with white corded silk and pearl trimmings, while a wreath of myrtle crowned her head. The groom wore a suit of the regular style for such an occasion. Misses Lizzie Mauch and Annie Jaeger acted as bridesmaids, while Adam Jaeger and Benny Mauch served as groomsmen. The couple are "at home" on the old Hangartner place, which the groom now owns. We extend congratulations.

OBITUARY. Mrs. E. A. A. Beckinger, better known as Grandma Hausmann, died suddenly, in the evening of the 10th inst., from the effects of stomach cramps.

The deceased's maiden name was Heisen. She was born Dec. 2, 1834, in the province of Brandenburg, Germany, and came to this country in 1853 with her widowed mother. They settled at Buffalo, N. Y., where the daughter married E. E. Hausmann in 1854. In '59 they moved to St. Louis and conducted a shoe store until '68, when they located on a farm in the town of Scott, Sheboygan county, where her husband died in '70, leaving 8 children, but one of whom survives, viz: Wm. Hausmann, now of Kewaskum. She sent the latter to a medical college, and upon his graduation in '74, she sold her farm in Scott and moved to Elmore, where Dr. Hausmann first practiced. In 1877 she married Conrad Beckinger, who died in '79, since which time she had lived alone.

As indicated by the large attendance at the funeral, the deceased had many friends and was highly respected by all who knew her.

A Mother Tells How She Saved Her Little Daughter's Life. I am the mother of eight children and have had a great deal of experience with medicines. Last summer my little daughter had dysentery in its worst form. We thought it would die, but nothing seemed to do her any good. I saw by an advertisement in our paper that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was highly recommended and sent and got a bottle at once. It proved to be one of the very best medicines we ever had in the house. It saved my little daughter's life. I am anxious for every mother to know what an excellent medicine it is. I know it at first it would have saved me a great deal of anxiety and my little daughter much suffering.—Yours truly, Mrs. Geo. F. Burdick, Liberty, R. I. For sale by L. Rosenheimer.

Mr. Major, the famous cement man of New York, explains some very interesting facts about Major's Cement. The multitudes who use this standard article know that it is many hundred per cent. better than other cements for such similar claimants made, but a great many do not know why. The simple reason is that Mr. Major uses the best materials ever discovered and other manufacturers do not use them, because they are too expensive and do not show large profits. Mr. Major's cement is made up of the elements of his cement costs $7.50 a ton, and another costs $2.50 a gallon, while a large share of the so-called cements and liquid glue upon the market are nothing more than 16c glue, dissolved in water or other acid, and in some cases, altered slightly in color and odor by the addition of cheap and useless materials. Major's cement retails at 15c and 25c a bottle, and when a dealer tries to sell a substitute you can depend upon it that his only object is to make larger profit. The profit on Major's cement is as much as any dealer ought to make on any cement. And this is doubly true in view of the fact that each dealer gets his share of the benefit of Mr. Major's advertising, which now amounts to over $5,000 a month, throughout the country. Established in 1856. Insist on having Major's. Don't accept any off-hand advice from a druggist. If you are all hands (and you will be likely to find that you are a good deal more so than you imagine) you can repair your rubber and leather articles with Major's Leather Cement. And you will be surprised at how many dollars a year you will thus save. If your druggist can't supply you, it will be forwarded by mail, either kind free of postage.
