SATURDAY, OCT. 6, 1900.

It is now estimated that the census of the United States will reach 76,000,000.

The recent tornado at Morristown, Minn., which killed several people, is the first storm of the kind reported for some time, but the Middle West is never free from these strange wind storms, erroneously called cyclones.

The launching of the new torpedo boat O'Brien recalls an almost forgotten event in Revolutionary history, the capture of the British sloop Margaretta, off Machias, Me., by the O'Brien brothers, within a month after the battle of Lexington.

A GENERAL CRUSADE against profanity, like that of the Holy Name societies of Brooklyn, N. Y., is badly needed. Swearing is heard in the streets, on the sidewalks, and wherever men congregate, to the intense annoyance of many who are compelled to listen.

In an article on immigration to Canada the Baltimore Herald says: "Certain sections of British North America are said to be attracting an extensive immigration, drawing even from the United States a thrifty class of settlers. Much of the recent immigration has been to the district of Manitoba, which lies directly north of Minnesota and North Dakota. This Canadian State is noted for its superlatively rich wheat lands, producing some seasons as much as 40 bushels to the acre. More than half of Lake Winnipeg is within the area of Manitoba, and other lakes are numerous. These great bodies of water probably modify the winter climate."

The Philadelphia Record kindly says that it is a pathetic spectacle that is presented to the American people in the departure of the aged John Sherman from his lifelong home at Mansfield, O., never to return. "Mr. Sherman, it adds, 'is blessed with an ample store of worldly goods, and in view of his feeble condition the severance of old ties probably gives him little distress; the onlookers and his old associates are the greater sufferers. Like all human beings Mr. Sherman has committed errors, but he has a large balance to the good in public services well and honestly performed. It would be unjust to utterly forget such men amid the stress and hurly-burly of life because their days of usefulness are past, and it is fitting that John Sherman's journey to end his days at Washington should draw at least appreciative notice from his fellow-citizens.'"

"We regret to observe," says the Pittsburg Dispatch, "that certain organs of the strenuous American people are declaring that the new Cuban constitutional convention is composed of 'eminently unsatisfactory material.' The regret is based on the fact that the specifications adduced in support of this assertion reach as severely on the United States as on the Cubans. One article of this sort produced as evidence of the unsatisfactory character of the delegates is the fact that 29 of the total membership of 31 are in favor of the independence of Cuba. It is surely a strange indictment that the Cubans are in favor of what the United States, by the solemn declaration of congress, has said must be done. If this sentiment shows the Cuban delegates to be reckless, impractical and revolutionary, what must be the deduction concerning the high powers of the United States, who are pledged to exactly the same thing?"

"The fact that some 2,000 magistrates in the state of Pennsylvania favor the whipping post for the punishment of certain classes of offenders denotes a striking change in public sentiment regarding that peculiar agency for the vindication of outraged law," the New York Mail and Express observes. "It isn't so very long ago that every flogging of criminals in the neighboring state of Delaware, where the whipping post is still a cherished institution, was made the text in Pennsylvania for learned and reproachful dissertations on the survival of barbarous methods of administering justice, and figuratively speaking, the Keystone commonwealth was devoutly thankful that she had long ago abolished all such cruel appliances from her penal institutions. But now, either because of her intimate contact with Delaware or because of a conviction that her laws as now administered do not act as a proper corrective for wife beating and kindred grades of crime, Pennsylvania reveals a growing inclination to adopt the whipping post on her own account."

Dr. W. H. Lewis, Lawrenceville, Va., writes: "I am using Kodol Dyspepsia Cure in my practice among severe cases of indigestion and find it an admirable remedy." Many hundreds of physicians depend upon the use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure in stomach troubles. It digests what you eat, and allows you to eat all the good food you need, providing you do not overload your stomach. Gives instant relief and a permanent cure. All druggists.

Miss Gowan, one of the missionary party which arrived at San Francisco on the Coptic last Tuesday, is highly disgusted with the foreign ministers in Pekin. "I do believe," she declared, "there would have been no uprising if those men had tried half as hard to keep down the Boxers as they did to keep their offices. My opinion is that the ministers are personally too interested in China to want to bring affairs to a peaceful termination within a reasonable time. Had they tried they could have averted the entire misfortune."

The Rev. Frederick K. Brown, presiding elder of the Methodist mission in Tien Tsin, who guided the allied forces into the Chinese capital, was one of the passengers on the Coptic. He said: "The capture of Tien Tsin on July 15th by the allied forces was so unexpected that the various treasuries, yamens and mints did not have time to hide their treasures or destroy their documents. I was requested by the allies to search the dockets and files of the various Chinese departments, and, in doing so came across many accounts which clearly incriminate the highest officials. A complete register of all the Boxers in the villages around Tien Tsin was also found, giving names and descriptions so perfectly that when the suppression there of this pestilential society is undertaken the list will be of great assistance."

During the winter of 1897 Mr. James Reed, one of the leading citizens and merchants of Clay, Clay county, W. Va., struck his leg against a cake of ice in such a manner as to bruise it severely. It became very much swollen and pained him so badly that he could not walk without the aid of crutches. He was treated by physicians, also used several kinds of liniment and two or three gallons of whisky in bathing it, but nothing gave any relief until he began using Chamberlain's Pain Balm. This brought almost a complete cure in a week's time, and he believes that had he not used this remedy his leg would have had to be amputated. Pain Balm is unequalled for sprains, bruises and rheumatism. For sale by L. Rosenheimer.

Many years ago two bishops were entertained by a hostess, who after dinner caused a box of cigars to be handed to them. The first bishop considered smoking a device of the Evil One, and with more force than politeness denounced the habit of smoking. The other bishop, being a lover of the weed, contrived to reprove his reverend brother's narrow-mindedness by putting the following question: "Now, which do you think is most to be commended, the use or abuse of a thing?" The other promptly replied: "The abuse, of course." Then responded the genial bishop, "you see that I use tobacco while you abuse it!"

TRAMPS MAKE A FIGHT.

Hoboes supposed to have robbed Remmel's Hardware Store Resist Arrest. Tuesday last Sheriff Fred Jachne of Jefferson and four assistants arrested five tramps in the stock-yards here, after a desperate fight.
