CELEBRATIONS FOR JULY 4 AND 5

There Will be Plenty of Amusements in This Village to Celebrate July 4 and 5

PREPARATIONS ALMOST COMPLETE

Preparations for the Celebrations of These Two Days Almost Complete.

Kewaskum will again this year celebrate July 4th and 5th in a most elaborate manner. Jos. Eberle, proprietor of the North Side Park has made arrangements to have a picnic in the afternoon of the fourth and a dance in the evening, while Chas. Groeschel, proprietor of the South Side Park will close the festivities with a dance in his park hall on the fifth. Music for the picnic will be furnished by the Kewaskum Concert Band, while the Kewaskum Quintette will furnish the dance music on both evenings.

The picnic in the North Side Park this year will be the best held here for years. Landlord Eberle has made arrangements to have enough amusements of all kinds on hand for the benefit of the crowd. A grand street parade at about 1 o'clock in the afternoon will also be held, providing satisfactory arrangements can be made. This parade is supposed to consist of automobiles and different floats. A brilliant display of fireworks will also be given in the North Side Park on the evening of the fourth. Mr. Eberle has purchased the largest and best display of fireworks ever exhibited in this village.

Kewaskum appeals to the whole community to come and celebrate the fourth. This day will be one not to be forgotten. Let the Eagle Scream in this village on that day.

Gives Good Show.

The four act drama, "The Power of the Cross," which was presented in Groeschel's hall last Sunday evening by J. Burt Johnson and Company scored a decided hit and was very largely attended.

J. Burt Johnson that popular comedian appeared as the Negro Servant. His appearance on the stage at all times kept the audience in continual merriment.

The drama presented here is the same play that had such a long run in New York recently. The plot of same was very interesting and educational. It was not a play of comedy but a melodrama. The specialties between the acts were also well received.

Just before the last act, Mr. Johnson gave a short announcement by thanking the people of Kewaskum for their turn out. He also stated that the people from this village gave him his start when he appeared here for the opening night of "Life for Life."

Since then he has played here the Diamond King, Sars Shot Sam, Zek the Country Boy and last Sunday, The Power of the Cross. All of these plays were listened to by packed houses. He will again appear here at the opening of his next fall season in the drama, "And the World Still Goes On."

After the show at 10 o'clock and eleven o'clock, the building of a County Home and Central Heating, Lighting and Power Plant, for Washington County, at West Bend, Wis.

Plans and specifications may be seen at the office of the county clerk of said county; at the office of J. E. Wengen, architect, at Fond du Lac, Wis., and at the Builder's Exchange, 456 Broadway, Milwaukee, Wis.

Bidders wishing plans and specifications for submitting bids, must first deposit $25.00 with the county clerk, for the return of plans and specifications within five days; said $25.00 will be returned to bidder when above conditions are fulfilled.

HUSBAND LIVING; LOST $200 LEGACY

Mrs. Anna Tuttle Will Receive $8 a Year

WARNING AGAINST PROTEST

Frederick Buettner's Will Prohibits Placing of Tombstone Over Grave—Warns Heirs Against Protesting

(Fond du Lac Commonwealth)

Because she is not a widow, Anna M. Tuttle, of Schofield, formerly Miss Anna Buettner of the town of Auburn, will not get $200, which was left her by her father, Frederick A. Buettner, who died April 22 at his home in Auburn. The fact that her husband is still living will not bar Mrs. Tuttle from receiving part of her father's estate, the will providing that the executor pay her $8 a year, this amount to be utilized in the purchase of clothing.

Mr. Buettner left an estate of $1,000 which was in personal property, his real estate having been turned over to a son, Robert, residing in Auburn, for care lavished upon Mrs. Buettner, who died a short time ago. Another peculiar provision in the will is that which directs that no tombstone or monument be erected over the grave of the testator.

Charles Buettner, the son who is named as executor, is to receive $300. The will further provides that in the event that either of the children make protest against the will he is to forfeit his share of the Pond du Lac Commonwealth.

German Baptists of Wisconsin in Session.

The semi annual meetings of the German Baptists of Wisconsin were held from June 12 to 14 in the German Baptist church at Wayne, Wis. J. M. Hoeflin, state missionary had charge of the services on Sunday and Monday evenings. Rev. W. E. Schmitt of Lebanon preached the opening sermon.

Officers were elected on Tuesday morning, who are as follows: President, Rev. Emil Miller of Sheboygan; Vice-President, Rev. F. S. Gorgens of Watertown.

During the sessions on Tuesday two very interesting papers were read by Rev. Matzkie of Kossuth on "The Second Coming of Christ" and by Rev. Kose of Milwaukee on "The Conscience." Following these papers a general discussion was taken by the delegates of the association. At the evening services Rev. F. W. C. Meyer of Milwaukee preached a sermon taking for his text, Heb. 13-10.

During the sessions on Wednesday, the following brethren presented papers. Rev. W. S. Arpor "The Influence of the Country Church on our Work." Rev. F. S. Gorgens, "The Sunday School and its Possibilities." Rev. Emil Miller, "The Kingdom of God." A general discussion followed these readings.

Shortly before the close of the afternoon session some of the piecer members of the Wayne church gave addresses stating of the work one at Wayne in olden times.

The Wayne church was organized in 1853 by Rev. Grim, thus making it one of the oldest churches of the German Baptists in the state. In its day it was also one of the strongest and most influential of the Baptist churches, but owing to the fact that many of the families have moved away to other parts of the country it has lost a little of its activity, nevertheless the olden spirit is still felt and seen among those who still are with the church. Though there are only three families with the church they invited the association to stay with them. The treatment which the delegates, who came from all parts of the state, received was beyond expectation. Everyone was heartily welcomed and well taken care of.

The closing sermon was preached Wednesday evening by Rev. Matzkie of Kossuth.

Fire in Washington House.

Those of our firemen who were not at the firemen's convention at South Germantown last Sunday and all our citizens were given a bad scare last Sunday afternoon shortly after one o'clock by the sounding of the fire alarm. A high wind prevailed at that time. The fire was in the Washington House, and was discovered by one of the ladies in the house, who smelled smoke. Upon investigation, it was found to be in a small garret, really an unused space of about three feet between the ceiling of the top floor and the roof. The fire was immediately extinguished with a few pails of water by some of the employees, as only some papers and things usually stored in a garret were burning. The fire department responded very promptly but its services were not needed. Our citizens can be thankful that the fire was put out so soon, as the strong wind blowing at that time and it being in the business district would make it a hard and stubborn fire to fight. Absolutely no cause for its origin can be determined upon, as there was no stove piping or electric wiring near where the fire was discovered.—West Bend News.

KILLED BY LIGHTNING

Louis Krenn of Tomah was Instantly Killed by Lightning Last Week Wednesday at His Home

FORMERLY RESIDED IN TOWN OF AUBURN

Mr. Krenn is Well Known in This Vicinity Having Formerly Resided in the Town of Auburn on the Farm Now Occupied by Anton Schrauth

The sad news of the accidental death of Louis Krenn of Tomah was received here this week. The death was caused by lightning. Mr. Krenn is well known in this vicinity having about 9 years ago owned the farm now occupied by Anton Schrauth 1/2 mile north of this village on the Fond du Lac road, in the town of Auburn. We extend our deep sympathy to the bereaved family in their late bereavement. Following is a clipping of the accident taken from the Monroe County Democrat of Tomah, Wis.

The people of this community, were shocked Sunday morning to learn that Louis Krenn, a prominent farmer residing on the Fred Mooney farm about a mile north of this city had been killed by lightning Saturday night. The deceased, his wife and baby daughter were in the sitting room down stairs preparing to retire for the night when the fatal stroke came, killing him instantly although his wife and baby escaped without injury. Dr. Winter was called and upon examination found that death was instantaneous. Mrs. Heilmann and her daughter, mother-in-law and sister-in-law of Mr. Krenn from Hartford, were visiting at his home and had just gone upstairs and retired. The lightning struck one side of the bed upon which they lay, shattering it into splinters although the occupants escaped uninjured. Louis Krenn was born in the town of Hartford, Washington County, Wis., in the year 1876, where he resided continuously until about three years ago when he came to Tomah. Eleven years ago at Hartford he was united in marriage to Miss Anna Heilmann, and to this union two children were born, both daughters, one in her tenth year and the other an infant of about two years. Besides his widow and daughter he is survived by his aged father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Krenn, his grandfathers, Jacob May, and two brothers and three sisters as follows: Joseph Krenn, Mrs. Andrew Heilmann, Mrs. Wm. Rehberg and Miss Rosa Krenn, all residing at Tomah and John Krenn of Taylor, N. D., all of whom were present at the funeral. Those from out of town who came to attend the last sad rights were Mr. and Mrs. John Heilmann, George Heilmann, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schilling, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Gehring, Wenzel Gehl, Miss Delia Gehl and George Kauber, all of Hartford, Herman Breuer of Addison, George Schuchers of West Bend, Miss Mary Krenn of Fond du Lac and Fred Mooney of Sparta. Mr. Krenn was a kind and indulgent father and a good neighbor, all of which was evidenced by the large procession which followed his remains from his late residence to the St. Mary's Catholic church in this city where the last sad rites were held, conducted by Rev. Louis Wurst, who paid a beautiful tribute to Mr. Krenn, as a good citizen and faithful member of his church. The floral offerings were many and beautiful covering the casket completely. The pall bearers were James Reel, John Markee, Wilfred Kelly, John Gasper, Peter Comiskey and Will Brennan. Undertaker Olson was the funeral director. Interment was made in St. Mary's cemetery.

Silly mad dog scares are a little backward this year.

These be the days when the most uncertain thing in life is the sure tip

The trouble with Luther Burbank's strawberries is they do not taste like strawberries.

New York proposes to beautify its skyscrapers. Might try some of the modern millinery.

Hereafter teach the children that the year has three seasons—summer, autumn and winter.

A woman paid $30 long distance telephone charges to talk to a parrot—one, one with feathers.

Notwithstanding it is 20 yards long, Queen Mary's coronation train will run in one section only.

Queen Mary's determined stand against rouge is a terrible blow to some lovely complexions.

A baby, it is reported, has actually been born on Fifth avenue, New York. It has $5,000,000 a coming.

When you will be sure don't argue. Somebody will be right to get the impression that you are wrong.

Taxicab prices in New York are going up, but fortunately joy riding is not one of the necessities of life.

A common fly lays 900 eggs a season, it is said. Probably a pure strain Leghorn fly could do even better.

Among the year's divorces are to be found some of last year's romances. The latter seldom last over that time.

There is also a shortage of farm labor in Austria, though the cities are growing. The bright lights attract, regardless of nationality.

A census of the hens in Ireland shows 24,000,000 present. Soon the old reliable potato will begin to be jealous of the upstart egg.

Some men seem to delight in starting a bonfire in the back yard just after the next-door neighbor has hung out her washing on the line.

Queen Mary decides at the last minute against bobble, elbow sleeves and collarless afternoon gowns. The American peeress division is peevish.

The Boston preacher who told his congregation that women have forgotten how to blush is wrong, but any how, the men ought not to make them blush.

Professor Arrhenius knows of other suns 50,000 times larger than our sun. We could have used one of them a week ago, but our own sun is doing better now.

The mocking bird is held up for emulation in modesty. This good point has been overlooked because of the number of whistling soloists who have been inspired.

A Harvard professor says Gray's "Elegy" would be rejected by the editor of any modern magazine. Some editor has probably returned one of the Harvard professor's poems.

America's corn crop would rebuild every railroad in the land in eight years, but there is no ready constitutional way in which the crops of eight years could be applied in that manner.

Sixty students working their way through the Washburn Law school at Topeka, Kan., earned $25,000 last year an average of more than $413 each. A good many lawyers would be glad to get a chance of that kind.

One of the sculptors explains that it is impossible to "show the majesty of the human form in trousers and skirts." We might, without assuming any risk of being considered ultra-conservative, add, "especially harem skirts."

A Providence judge has decided that a husband is justified in slapping his wife's face if he catches her going through his pockets. Next some disgruntled court will rule that a woman has now lost her time-honored right to change her mind.

Twenty thousand toothbrushes and as many packages of tooth powder have been presented to the school children of Philadelphia. We hope the school children of Philadelphia are also receiving instructions concerning the inadvisability of picking their teeth in public.

A landlady in New Jersey, finding she could not get objectionable tenants to leave, set the house on fire. She was arrested for arson, but she gained her point, and proved again that when a woman really sets her mind on any given object, mere masculine opposition is bound to go astray before the wind.

A Boston school-teacher itemizes a yearly minimum expense account for a woman and puts in two umbrellas. This either is extravagance or an acknowledgment of absent-mindedness.

DIRECT VOTE WINS

RESOLUTION FOR POPULAR ELECTION OF SENATORS APPROVED BY SENATE.

FINAL VOTE IS 64 TO 24

Bristow Amendment for Supervision
By the Federal Government is Also Adopted, Vice-President Sherman Casting the Deciding Ballot.

Washington.—By a vote of 64 to 24, the United States senate, after a day of sharp debate, adopted a resolution to submit to the states an amendment to the constitution for the election of senators by direct vote.

The Bristow amendment, which reserves to the federal government the right to control the senatorial elections in the states, was adopted before the final vote, 44 to 44, with Vice-President Sherman casting the deciding vote.

The vote on the Bristow amendment was as follows:

Yeas—Bourne, Bradley, Brandegee, Briggs, Bristow, Brown, Burnham, Burton, Clapp, Clark, Wyoming; Clarke, Arkansas; Crane, Crawford, Cullom, Cummins, Curtis, Dixon, Dupont, Gallinger, Gamble, Guggenheim, Hepburn, Jones, Kenyon, Lippitt, Lodge, Lorimer, McCumber, McLean, Nelson, Nixon, Oliver, Page, Penrose, Perkins, Richardson, Root, Smith, Michigan; Smoot, Stephenson, Sutherland, Townsend, Warren, Wetmore—44.

Nays—Bacon, Bailey, Bankhead, Borah, Bryan, Chamberlain, Chilton, Culberson, Davis, Fletcher Foster, Gore, Gronna, Hitchcock, Johnson, Johnston, Kern, La Follette, Lea, Martin, Martin, Myers, Newlands, O'Gorman, Overman, Owen, Paynter, Percy, Poindexter, Pomerene, Rayner, Reed, Shively, Simmons, Smith, Maryland; Smith, S. C.; Stone, Swanson, Taylor, Terrell, Thornton, Watson, Williams, Works.

This was the supreme test. During the exciting debate over the Bristow proposition, party feeling ran high, the Democrats insisting that not to include Senator Borah's original proposition that the states shall control the time, place and manner of electing senators would impose upon the states federal authority too dangerous to grant. It was openly charged that the amendment to the constitution, if Bristow amendment was carried, as it did, will be defeated in the states.

The resolution as amended must pass the house of representatives by a two-thirds vote, and then be ratified by three-fourths of the states.

The final vote on the resolution follows:
For—Bailey, Borah, Bourne, Bradley, Briggs, Bristow, Brown, Bryan, Burton, Chamberlain, Chilton, Clapp, Clark, Wyoming; Clarke, Arkansas; Crawford, Culberson, Cullom, Cummins, Curtis, Davis, Dixon, Dupont, Gamble, Gore, Gronna, Guggenheim, Hitchcock, Johnson, Jones, Kenyon, Kern, La Follette, Lea, McCumber, McLean, Martin, Martine, Myers, Newlands, Nixon, O'Gorman, Owen, Paynter, Perkins, Pomerene, Rayner, Reed, Shively, Simmons, Smith, Maryland; Smith, Michigan; Smith, S. C.; Stephenson, Stone, Sutherland, Swanson, Taylor, Thornton, Townsend, Warren, Watson, Works—64.

Against—Bacon, Bankhead, Brandegee, Burnham, Crane, Dillingham, Fletcher Foster, Frye, Gallinger, Hepburn, Johnston, Lippitt, Lodge, Lorimer, Oliver, Page, Penrose, Percy, Richardson, Root, Smoot, Terrell, Wetmore, Williams—24.

The Democrats who voted no on final passage did so because of the Bristow amendment.

ASK FOR LORIMER EVIDENCE

Subpoenas for Witnesses in Illinois Are Issued by U. S. Senate Investigating Committee.

Washington.—Subpoenas for a number of prominent men to testify here in the new Lorimer investigation have been issued and a special officer from the office of the senate sergeant-at-arms has been sent to Chicago to serve them. The greatest secrecy is attached to the action by the special committee having the investigation in charge.

It is understood, however, that among the men to be summoned are these: Lee O'Neil Browne, Democratic leader in the Illinois house; Edward Hines, president of the Edward Hines Lumber company of Chicago; Edward Tilden, whose name was connected with the $100,000 fund alleged to have been collected for use in electing Senator Lorimer; Clarence S. Frank, general manager of the International Harvester company, whose disclosure of an attempt to have his corporation subscribe to the alleged fund was a feature of the investigation by the Illinois legislature.

Score Drown in Mexican Flood.
Chihuahua, Mexico.—Rain has caused an overflow of the Chiviscar river, damaging much property in the lowlands. The village of Santa Eulalia is reported to have been washed away and twenty persons drowned.

Seven Hurt in Explosion.
Albany, N. Y.—Seven men were injured seriously and Frank S. Adams, superintendent of the Albany Chemical company, is missing as the result of an explosion in the company's plant at Van Rensselaer island.

HELD FOR SWINDLING

HEAD OF AMERICA ELECTRIC FUSE COMPANY ARRESTED.

Frank G. Jones Is Charged With Having Forged Notes Aggregating $800,000.

Muskegon, Mich.—It is believed by the creditors of Frank G. Jones, president of the American Electrical Fuse company and a director of the Hackley National bank of this city, that he has, through fraudulent operations, swindled them out of hundreds of thousands of dollars.

Jones was arrested on a warrant sworn out by officers of the Old National Bank of Grand Rapids, charging him with obtaining $50,000 under false pretenses. An under sheriff took him to the Grand Rapids jail.

In the Grand Rapids federal court a petition in bankruptcy was filed by George A. Hume, Thomas Hume and John G. Emery, three Muskegon creditors with claims amounting to $33,999. Referee Wicks appointed Paul S. Moon of Muskegon as receiver. It is alleged the liabilities of the concern are $750,000 and the assets $150,000.

Banks throughout the central states are believed to have been victimized in sums of $20,000 to $50,000.

Jones was a Chicago lawyer before he went to Adrian to establish the company. In Adrian the company got into trouble through some checks it sent out.

Many of the stockholders are Muskegon people, quite a number of them employees of the company. The receiver has discharged all the high salaried officials, keeping only a small working force. The plant will continue in operation.

PACT BATTLE ON IN SENATE

Reciprocity Bill Is Reported by Finance Committee Without Recommendation and Fight Begins.

Washington.—The Canadian reciprocity bill was returned to the senate, with several reports setting forth the diverse views of members of the finance committee.

The majority report was noncommittal—neither for nor against. Senators Williams, Stone and Kern, Democrats, submitted a statement endorsing the measure as "half a loaf," and therefore better than no tariff revision at all, and urging its acceptance without amendment, declaring proposed additions to the bill intended to bring about its defeat.

Senators La Follette and McCumber presented reports in opposition to the measure.

"When I want two things I want both, but if I can't get both, then I want the one I can get," Mr. Williams said. "Not only is it true that I would, as original propositions, favor most of the amendments offered, but I could easily write down several hundred others that I would like to put upon the statute books, reducing the burden of tariff taxation upon the people."

"But I see no sense in refusing to kill a rattlesnake because I cannot at the same time kill an anaconda." Mr. Williams favors the house "farmers' free list bill," but is not in favor of it as an amendment to this bill, because he thinks the result of putting it on would be to defeat the bill.

Mr. La Follette says the bill makes the farmer the scapegoat in the interest of the railroad, the miller, the packer, the newspaper publisher.

RAIL LOOT TRIAL IS ON

Chicagoan Being Made Scapegoat to Protect the Big Four Is Charge.

Cincinnati.—Charles W. Baker, attorney for Edgar S. Cooke of Chicago, who is on trial here charged with embezzling $24,000 from the Big Four railroad, in his opening statement declared that his client was being made a scapegoat by officials of the company to protect the road from punishment for giving rebates.

Baker said that officials of the Big Four railroad were suspected of taking millions of dollars from the treasury and paying it in violation of federal laws to favorite shippers.

"If the truth were known," said Baker, "Warriner did not take $643,000, as charged, but he probably took $1,643,000 or $2,643,000, but he took it for the purpose of the railroad."

The Big Four, he said, did not make any charges against Comstock, the former treasurer of the railroad. He said they induced Warriner to appear without counsel and plead guilty, and then had Cooke indicted for embezzlement.

He said the Big Four railroad had not made any demand upon the American Surety company, which signed Cooke's bond, and that P. A. Hewitt, auditor at the time, covered in the indictment of Cooke, had been promoted since.

TIMES HAVE CHANGED

It Was Not Like This in the Olden Days if a Bump Bug Got in Sister's Hair.

TO QUIZ ROOSEVELT

EX-PRESIDENT AND J. P. MORGAN MUST TESTIFY, SAY STEEL PROBERS.

TENNESSEE DEAL THE ISSUE

F. B. Kellogg, Government Prosecutor in Standard Oil Case, Admits He Is Counsel for Subsidiary Companies in Steel Combine.

Washington.—Ex-President Roosevelt and J. P. Morgan will be summoned to appear before the Stanley steel investigating committee to give testimony on how certain railroads owned by the steel trust are able to declare enormous dividends on small capitalization.

Chairman Stanley made this known when he declared there was so much in connection with the steel corporation he desired cleared up that he intended bringing before the committee everyone who could throw any light on the subject.

Colonel Roosevelt will be asked about his tacit assent to the absorption of the Tennessee Coal & Iron company by the steel corporation, and Mr. Morgan will be queried concerning the panic of 1907 and the financial transactions preceding and consummating the deal through which the Tennessee company stock was turned over to the steel corporation.

Frank B. Kellogg, special counsel of the government in suits for the dissolution of the Standard Oil, admitted to the committee that his law firm is counsel for subsidiary companies of the steel corporation. He said he had no apology to make to the American people for this connection.

Since 1907, Mr. Kellogg has been prosecuting the Standard Oil under engagement by the department of justice. Before that he had been employed by the government to make arguments in suits against the paper trust and the Union Pacific railroad. Attorney General Wickersham knew of his connection with the steel corporation.

Mr. Kellogg said he had never been asked by anyone connected with the government as to his views as to the legality of the steel corporation under the Sherman law, or the legality of any of its acts or methods of operation. He was incensed by criticism of his connection with the steel corporation.

James Cayley, former vice-president of the steel corporation, told the committee there had been an understanding during many years between the railroads and steel rail makers as to the price of rails. He had never heard of apportioning the tons of the rails among the rail makers or a territorial division of the business. He said there was no danger of an iron ore famine because of the vast supply not only in the United States but throughout the world.

In 1907 and 1908 he attended the famous Gary dinners, but never heard any discussion as to prices or business territory. He gravely stated the only discussions he recalled covered such points as abolishing Sunday labor and improving the welfare of the workmen, together with talk as to general business conditions.

News Notes of Wisconsin

Grantsburg.—A log jam of two miles in length, containing 20,000,000 feet of logs, has formed on the St. Croix river, beginning at the mouth of Wood river and extending up to the Tennessee flats. More than 100 men have been struggling for several days to get a "drag" on it.

La Crosse.—La Crosse was practically without water service or fire protection for nine hours recently, when shifting sand bars clogged both of the city mains. Water was finally secured by breaking one of the intakes, near the shore, but the necessity of providing a different system of securing water from the Mississippi river confronts the city.

Washington, D. C.—Among the fifty postal savings banks authorized were the following in Wisconsin: Grand Rapids, New London, Platteville, Shawano and Waukesha.

Florence.—Judge Warning of the Florence County court has rendered a decision in the Marshall Field inheritance tax case, finding for the state.

Madison.—Gov. McGovern refused pardon to Henry Miller of Milwaukee, sentenced last January to a term of eighteen months in the house of correction for burglary; to Edward Gannon of Milwaukee, sentenced last August to three years in the state prison for a statutory offense; to Ernest Jerome of Monroe county, sentenced last March to two years in the state prison for adultery, and to Veil La Belle of Marinette county, sentenced several months ago to five years in the state prison for burglary.

SELECTS TWO AIDES

REYES AND DE LA BARRA TO BE IN MADERO'S CABINET.

Understanding Between Three Mexican Leaders Is Reached Which Simplifies Election.

Mexico City.—"If I should be elected president, Senor De La Barra will be minister of foreign relations and General Reyes will be minister of war in my cabinet," said Francisco I. Madero following a visit to the presidential residence at Chapultepec castle, where he talked with both President De La Barra and General Reyes. Both men have consented to accept these portfolios and their decision was announced in an official bulletin issued at the National palace.

Juarez, Mex.—That the United States is becoming tired of the shooting and other acts of anarchists on the California-Mexico border and steps must be taken at once to stop it is the burden of messages sent to the Mexican war department by Gen. Benjamin Viljeon, military adviser to Francisco I. Madero.

General Viljeon expressed the fear the Washington government may withdraw its offer to allow Mexican troops to travel through the United States to Lower California unless the privilege is promptly taken advantage of.

The former Boer general bases his advice to Mexico City on many complaints of residents of California, who threaten to take measures of their own.

MRS. NATION LEFT $10,000

After the death of Mrs. McNab her children are to receive $500 each. The remainder of the estate is to be given to the Carrie Nation Home for Drunkards' Wives and Widows at Kansas City for a home for children twelve years old and under.

JUDGE JENKINS DIES AT HIS HOME

FORMER STATE LEGISLATOR, CONGRESSMAN AND CITIZEN.

SICK FOR THE LAST YEAR

Overwork While Serving Government Causes Fatal Illness of Noted Badger Lawyer—Served His Country Well.

Chippewa Falls.—John J. Jenkins, former congressman from the Tenth Wisconsin district and federal judge in Porto Rico, from which position he resigned on June 8, 1910, died at his home here of general physical breakdown, brought on by overwork while in the south.

Judge Jenkins, who is 68 years old, has been a leading figure in the state for over fifty years. From the time when he enlisted in the union army at the age of 17, he has risen to a commanding position in the state and nation through his own efforts.

Judge Jenkins was born in Weymouth, Eng., on Aug. 20, 1843, and received a common school education. He came to Baraboo, Wis., in 1853. At the age of 17 he enlisted in the Sauk County riflemen in April, 1861; was sworn into the state service on June 10, 1861, and mustered into the United States service on July 16, 1861, as a member of company A, Sixth regiment, Wisconsin volunteer infantry.

He stayed with his regiment on every march and in every fight for three years and as the victory had not yet been won, re-enlisted on Jan. 1, 1864, at Culpepper, Va., and was discharged on Feb. 27, 1865, for disability.

Gen. Grant appointed him United States attorney for the territory of Wyoming in 1876. On his retirement from the service of the United States he returned to Chippewa Falls and resumed his law practice. At that time he was a partner of Judge R. D. Marshall, present Supreme court justice, but later formed the law firm of Jenkins & Jenkins.

In 1894 he was elected to the Fifty-fourth congress and then re-elected to the Fifty-fifth congress by a largely increased majority.

After his defeat for congress by Irving Lenroot in 1908 he was named federal judge of Porto Rico, but resigned because of ill health in June, 1910. He returned to his home in April, 1911, and since that time failed rapidly in health.

THREE SAVE THEMSELVES

Squall Hits Sailboat Near Shore on Little Lake des Morts Turning It Over—Occupants Entangled in the Sails Unable to Get Out.

Appleton.—The annual outing of the clerks of one of the leading dry goods stores in Appleton came to grief on Little Lake des Morts recently when four were drowned. Two others were rescued after both had practically given up the struggle for life, and three young men saved themselves when a sailboat was hit by a squall and capsized not more than 300 feet from shore.

The dead are: Miss M. Geenen, Kimberly. Miss Rose Geenen, Kimberly. Miss Madge Brill, Buchanan. Miss Ruth Pollock, Appleton.

Those who narrowly escaped drowning are: Miss Rose Schmidt, Miss Rossmessl, John and Christ Mullen of Appleton, and A. R. Strange of Neenah.

The Geenen girls were sisters and nieces of the owners of the store whose clerks were on an outing. The Mullen brothers rescued two of the girls. Strange is not a good swimmer, and had a struggle getting to shore alone. The four girls who were drowned were held under water by the sail of the boat. When the party left Stroeb's island, where a picnic dinner had been served, the lake was perfectly calm. The heavy wind blew up in less than five minutes and caught the loaded craft before the shore could be reached. Practically all of the remainder of the picnic party witnessed the tragedy from Stroeb's island, the scene of the drowning being only a short distance from the picnic grounds.

Speaking of the Divorce Evil

Trying to succeed in business without advertising is like the case of the man who, trying to cut expenses, divorced his wife and alone attempted to keep house and raise his children. It cost him more money for doctor bills and funeral expenses in a year than he gave his wife in a lifetime.

When advertising is divorced, business success becomes failure.

This paper is building your neighbor's business. He has reasons. He tried advertising and it helped him. It is not an experiment—this paper brings results. Good, hard, convincing results—dollars.

HIS VIEW OF IT.

Smart—Do you think the colleges turn out the best men? Wise—Sure. I was turned out in my sophomore year.

DOCTOR PRESCRIBES CUTICURA REMEDIES

"I wish to let you know of a couple of recent cures which I have made by the use of the Cuticura Remedies. Last August, Mr. — of this city came to my office, troubled with a severe skin eruption. It was dermatitis in its worst form. It started with a slight eruption and would affect most parts of his body, thighs, elbows, chest, back and abdomen—and would terminate in little pustules. The itching and burning was dreadful and he would almost tear his skin apart, trying to get relief. I recommended all the various treatments I could think of and he spent about fifteen dollars on prescriptions, but nothing seemed to help him.

"In the meantime my wife, who was continually suffering with a slight skin trouble and who had been trying different prescriptions and methods with my assistance, told me she was going to get some of the Cuticura Remedies and give them a fair trial. But as I did not know much about Cuticura at that time I was doubtful whether it would help her. Her skin would thicken, break and bleed, especially on the fingers, wrists and arms. I could do nothing to relieve her permanently. When she first applied the warm baths of Cuticura Soap and applications of Cuticura Ointment she saw a decided improvement and in a few days she was completely cured.

"I lost no time in recommending the Cuticura Remedies to Mr. —, and this was two months ago. I told him to wash with warm baths of the Cuticura Soap and to apply the Cuticura Ointment generously. Believe me, from the very first day's use of the Cuticura Remedies he was greatly relieved and today he is completely cured through their use. I have great faith in the Cuticura Remedies and shall always have a good word for them now that I am convinced of their wonderful merits." (Signed) B. L. Whitehead, M. D., 108 Dartmouth St., Boston, Mass., July 22, 1910.

Many a man has discovered that popularity is not worth the price. Garfield Tea overcomes constipation, sick-headache and bilious attacks. Charity is too often charitably dispensed.

WOMEN MAY AVOID OPERATIONS

By taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

The following letter from Mrs. Orville Rock will prove how unwise it is for women to submit to the dangers of a surgical operation when it may be avoided by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. She was four weeks in the hospital and came home suffering worse than before.

Here is her own statement. Paw Paw, Mich.—"Two years ago I suffered very severely with a displacement. I could not be on my feet for a long time. My physician treated me for seven months without much relief and at last sent me to Ann Arbor for an operation. I was there four weeks and came home suffering worse than before. My mother advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I did. Today I am well and strong and do all my own housework. I owe my health to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and advise my friends who are afflicted with any female complaint to try it." Mrs. ORVILLE ROCK, R. R. No. 5, Paw Paw, Michigan.

If you are ill do not drag along until an operation is necessary, but at once take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for women's ills, and has positively restored the health of thousands of women. Why don't you try it?

SYNOPSIS.

James Wilson or Jimmy as he is called by his friends. Jimmy was round and looked shorter than he really was. His ambition in life was to be taken seriously, but people steadily refused to do so. His art is considered a huge joke, except to himself. If he asked people to dinner everyone expected a frolic. Jimmy marries Bella Knowless they live together a year and are divorced. Jimmy's friends arrange to celebrate the first anniversary of his divorce. The party is in full swing when Jimmy receives a telegram from his Aunt Selma, who will arrive in four hours to visit him and his wife. He neglects to tell her of his divorce. Jimmy takes Kit into his confidence. He suggests that Kit play the hostess for one night. Mr. Mrs. Wilson pro tem. Aunt Selma arrives and the deception works out as planned. Jim's Jap servant is taken ill. Bella, Jimmy's divorced wife, enters the house and asks Kit who is being taken away in the ambulance. Belle insists it is Jim. Kit tells her Jim is well and is in the house. Harbison steps out on the porch and discovers a man tacking a card on the door. He demands an explanation. The man points to the placard and Harbison sees the word "Smallpox" printed on it. He tells him the guests cannot leave the house until the quarantine is lifted. After the lifting of the quarantine several letters are found in the mail box undelivered, one is addressed to Henry Lively, Iquitos, Chile, which was written by Harbison. He describes minutely of their incarceration, also of his infatuation for Mrs. Wilson. Aunt Selma is taken ill with a crize. Betty acts as nurse. Harbison finds Kit sulking on the roof. She tells him that Jim has been treating her outrageously. It starts downstairs, when suddenly she is clasped in the arms of a man who kisses her several times. She believes that Harbison did it and is humiliated. Aunt Selma tells Jimmy that her cameo bracelet and other articles of jewelry have been stolen. She accuses Betty of the theft. Jimmy tells Aunt Selma all about the strange happenings, but she persists in suspecting Betty of the theft. Harbison demands an explanation from Kit as to her conduct towards him. She tells him of the incident on the roof. He does not deny nor confirm her accusation. One of the guests devises a way to escape from the house.

It was a transparent plot on Bella's part: Two elderly ladies, house miles from anywhere, long evenings in the music room with an open fire and Bella at the harp playing the two songs she knows. When we were ready and gathered in the kitchen, in the darkness, of course, Dal went up on the roof and signaled with a lantern to the cars on the drive. Then he went downstairs, took a last look at the drawing-room, flung the papers, shook the powder, opened the windows and yelled "fire!"

Of course, huddled in the kitchen, we had heard little or nothing. But we plainly heard Dal on the first floor and Flannigan on the second yelling "fire," and the patter of feet as the guards ran to the front of the house. And at that instant we remembered Aunt Selma!

That was the cause of the whole trouble. I don't know why they turned on me; she wasn't my aunt. But by the time they had got her out of bed, and had wrapped her in an elderdown comfort, and stuck slippers on her feet and a motor veil on her head, the glare at the front of the house was beginning to die away. She didn't understand at all, and we had no time to explain. I remember that she wanted to go back and get her "plate," whatever that may be, but Jim took her by the arm and hurried her along, and the rest, who had waited, and were in awful tempers, stood aside and let them out first.

The door to the area steps was open, and by the street lights we could see a fence and a gate, which opened on a side street. Jim and Aunt Selma ran straight for the gate; the wind blowing Aunt Selma's comfort like a sail. Then, with our feet, so to speak, on the first rung of the ladder of liberty, it slipped. A half dozen guards and reporters came around the house and drove us back like sheep into a slaughter pen. It was the most humiliating moment of my life.

Dal had been for fighting a way through, and just for a minute I think I went berserk myself. But Max spied one of the reporters setting up a flash-light as we stood, undecided, at the top of the steps, and after that there was nothing to do but retreat. We backed slowly, to show them we were not afraid. And when we were all in the kitchen again, and had turned on the lights and Bella was crying with her head against Mr. Harbison's arm, Dal said, cheerfully: "Well, it has done some good, anyhow. We have lost Aunt Selma."

And we all shook hands on it, although we were sorry about Jim. And Dal said we would have some champagne and drink to Aunt Selma's comfort, and we could have her teeth fumigated and send them to her. Somebody said "Poor old Jim," and at that Bella looked up. She stared around the group, and then she went quite pale.

"How," she asked, "do you mean—that Jim is—out there, too?" "Jim and Aunt Selma!" I said as calmly as I could for joy. You see how it simplified the situation for me. "By this time they are a mile away, and going!"

Everybody shook hands again except Bella. She had dropped into a chair, and sat biting her lip and breathing hard, and she would not join in any of the hilarity at getting rid of Aunt Selma. Finally she got up and knocked over her chair.

"You are a lot of cowards," she stormed. "You deserted them out there, left them. Heaven knows where they are—a defenseless old woman, and—and a man who did not even have an overcoat. And it is snowing!" "Never mind," Dal said, reassuringly. "He can borrow Aunt Selma's comfort. Make the old lady discard from weakness. Anyhow, Bella, if I know anything of human nature, the old lady will make it hot enough for him. Poor old Jim!"

Then they shook hands again, and with that there came a terrible banging at the door, which we had locked. "Open the door!" some one commanded. It was one of the guards. "Open it yourself!" Dallas called, moving a kitchen table to re-enforce the lock.

"Open that door or we will break it in!" Dallas put his hands in his pockets, seated himself on the table, and whistled cheerfully. We could hear them conferring outside, and they made another appeal, which was refused. Suddenly Bella came over and confronted Dallas.

"They have brought them back!" she said dramatically. "They are out there now; I distinctly heard Jim's voice. Open that door, Dallas!" "Oh, don't let them in!" I wailed. It was quite involuntary, but the disappointment was too awful. "Dallas, don't open that door!"

Dal swung his feet and smiled from Bella to me. "Think what a solution it is to all our difficulties," he said, easily. "Without Aunt Selma I could be happy here indefinitely." There was more knocking, and somebody—Max, I think—said to let them in, that it was a fool thing anyhow, and that he wanted to go to bed and forget it; his feet were cold. And just then there was a crash, and part of one of the windows fell in. The next blow from outside brought the rest of the glass, and—somebody was coming through, feet first. It was Jim.

He did not speak to any of us, but turned and helped in a bundle of red and yellow silk comfort that proved to be Aunt Selma, also feet first. I had a glimpse of a half-dozen heads outside, guards and reporters. Then Jim jerked the shade down and unwatched Aunt Selma's legs so that she could walk, offered his arm, and stalked past us and upstairs, without a word!

None of us spoke. We turned out the lights and went upstairs and took off our wraps and went to bed. It had been almost a fiasco.

CHAPTER XV.

Suspicion and Discard. Every one was nasty the next morning. Aunt Selma declared that her feet were frost-bitten and kept Bella rubbing them with ice water all morning. And Jim was impossible. He refused to speak to any of us, and he watched Bella furtively, as if he suspected her of trying to get him out of the house.

When luncheon time came around and he had shown no indication of going to the telephone and ordering it, we had a conclave, and Max was chosen to remind him of the hour. Jim was shut in the studio, and we waited together in the hall while Max went up. When he came down he was somewhat ruffled.

"He wouldn't open the door," he reported, "and when I told him it was meal time, he said he wasn't hungry, and he didn't give a whoop about the rest of us. He had asked us here to dinner; he hadn't proposed to adopt us." So we finally ordered luncheon ourselves, and about two o'clock Jim came downstairs, sheepishly, and ate what was left. Anne declared that Bella had been scolding him in the upper hall, but I doubted it. She was never seen to speak to him unnecessarily.

The excitement of the escape over, Mr. Harbison and I remained on terms of armed neutrality. And Max still hunted for Anne's pearls, using them, the men declared, as a good excuse to avoid tinkering with the furnace or repairing the dumb-waiter, which took the queerest notions, and stopped once halfway up from the kitchen, for an hour, with the dinner on it. Anyhow, Max was searching the house systematically, armed with a copy of Poe's "Purloined Letter" and Gaboriau's "Monsieur Lecoq." He went through the seats of the chairs with hatpins, tore up the beds, and lifted rugs, until the house was in a state of confusion. And the next day, the fourth, he found something—not much, but it was curious. He had been in the studio, poking around behind the dusty pictures, with Jimmy expostulating every time he moved anything and the rest standing around watching him.

Max was strutting. "We get it by eliminations," he said, importantly. "The pearls being nowhere else in the house, they must be here in the studio. Three parts of the studio having yielded nothing, they must be in the fourth. Ladies and gentlemen, let me have your attention for one moment. I tap this canvas with my wand—there is nothing up my sleeve. Then I prepare to move the canvas—so. And I put my hand in the pocket of this disreputable velvet coat, so. Behold!"

Then he gave a low exclamation and looked at something he held in his hand. Every one stepped forward, and on his palm was the small diamond clasp from Anne's collar!

Jimmy was apologetic. He tried to smile, but no one else did. "Well, I'll be flabbergasted!" he said. "I say, you people, you don't think for a minute that I put that thing there? Why, I haven't worn that coat for a month. It's—it's a trick of yours, Max."

But Max shook his head; he looked stupefied, and stood gazing from the clasp to the pocket of the old painting coat. Betty dropped on a folding stool, that promptly collapsed with her and created a welcome diversion, while Anne pounced on the clasp greedily, with a little cry.

"We will find it all now," she said, excitedly. "Did you look in the other pockets, Max?" Then, for the first time, I was conscious of an air of constraint among the men. Dallas was whistling softly, and Mr. Harbison, having rescued Betty, was standing silent and aloof, watching the scene with non-committal eyes. It was Max who spoke first, after a hurried inventory of the other pockets.

"Nothing else," he said, constrainedly. "I'll move the rest of the canvases." But Jim interfered, to every one's surprise. "I wouldn't if I were you, Max. There's nothing back there. I had 'em out yesterday." He was quite pale.

"Nonsense!" Max said gruffly. "If it's a practical joke, Jim, why don't you fess up? Anne has worried enough." "The pearls are not there, I tell you," Jim began. Although the studio was cold, there were little fire beads of moisture on his face. "I must ask you not to move those pictures." And then Aunt Selma came to the rescue; she stalked over and stood with her back against the stack of canvases.

"As far as I understand this," she declaimed, "you gentlemen are trying to intimate that James knows something of that young woman's jewelry, because you found a part of it in his pocket. Certainly you will not move the pictures. How do you know that the young gentleman who said he found it there didn't have it up his sleeve?"

She looked around triumphantly, and Max glowered. Dallas soothed her, however. "Exactly so," he said. "How do we know that Max didn't have the clasp up his sleeve? My dear lady, neither my wife nor I care anything for the pearls, as compared with the priceless pearl of peace. I suggest tea on the roof; those in favor—? My arm, Miss Caruthers."

It was all well enough for Jim to say later that he didn't dare to have the canvases moved, for he had stuck behind them all sorts of chorus girl photographs and life-class crayons that were not for Aunt Selma's eye, besides four empty siphons, two full ones, and three bottles of whisky. Not a soul believed him; there was a new element of suspicion and discord in the house.

A FAIR RETORT.

Pat, who had a bad coin given to him, decided to try and spend it. He therefore went into a tobacconist and asked for a cigar. The shopman handed over the cigar, and Pat, putting the cigar in his mouth, tendered the coin. He was making his way out when the shopman shouted:

"Hey, man, do you know it is a bad one?" Pat turned round and said: "Never mind. I'll smoke it if it kills me."

A Sure Sign.

"Was the audience this evening a fashionable one?" "No; it consisted of very ordinary people."

"But the people in the boxes seemed to be handsomely and stylishly dressed."

"So they were, but they weren't fashionable for all that. They kept quiet all the time the play was going on."

Going Too Far.

"John, what on earth are you doing?" called Mrs. Geeker to her spouse, who was thumping, pounding and swearing in the cellar.

"Didn't you tell me to shake down the furnace?" he asked.

"Yes, but you needn't shake down the house."

The KITCHEN CABINET

W E MEASURE success by accuracy. The true measure is appreciation. He who loves most has most.

HELPFUL HINTS.

When grease is spilled on the kitchen floor or table pour cold water over it at once. This hardens the grease before it can sink in, and much of it can be scraped off.

Try ground caraway seed in cakes and cookies. It is much better liked than the whole seed.

Add a teaspoonful of turpentine to the water in the boiler when boiling clothes. It will whiten them.

When cutting fresh bread, dip the knife in hot water.

When cutting fresh cake, use a fork for cutting. This is well to remember when cutting hot ginger cake.

Put a little sand in the tall vases to keep them from tipping over.

Scraped raw potato applied to a burn will give quick relief.

Soak new brooms in strong salt water before using. This toughens them and they wear better.

Celery eaten freely is good to cure neuralgia.

When buying carpets for durability, choose those with small figures.

A brighter window will result if no soap, but a few drops of kerosene, is used in the water.

Turn-up bits of newspaper and soap suds will clean the water bottle beautifully.

Never use soap and water on varnished surfaces.

Keep an apple in the cake box and the cake will keep fresh much longer.

A piece of camphor kept with the silver will keep it from tarnishing.

A little salt in the water will keep flowers much longer.

A cure for hiccoughs is to take a long breath and hold it as long as possible.

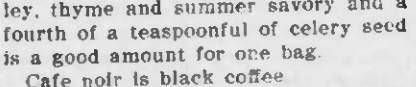

A few drops of oil of lavender will sweeten the air in a room and a little sprinkled in the book cases before they are shut up for the summer will keep the books from molding.

Never bite thread with the teeth. It injures the enamel.

Boiled flaxseed and lemon juice is excellent for a cough.

A little butter added to cake frosting improves it.

Never put any acid fruits into tin-ware.

HEARTY welcome manifested in kindly and polite attentions, will make a very plain meal more enjoyable than a banquet.

TERMS USED IN COOKING.

There are many confusing terms used in cookery, many of them from the French. The term saute means to cook in a small amount of fat.

Soup bag is a most indefinite expression, which means a bunch of herbs and spices tied in a small piece of cheese cloth and used to flavor soup.

The following proportions may help: Three cloves, six pepper corns, four mustard seeds, three sprays of parsley, thyme and summer savory and a fourth of a teaspoonful of celery seed is a good amount for one bag.

Cafe noir is black coffee.

Gratin is with browned crumbs.

Bisque is either a soup made of fish or tomato, which is called a mock bisque, or an ice cream to which is added chopped nuts.

A mousse is a frozen dessert that is thickened with gelatin.

A parafit is thickened with eggs and then molded to freeze.

Suggestions.

A very easy and simple way of cleaning windows is to moisten a little whiting in water, rub it over the window and allow it to dry. Then rub it off and polish with a newspaper. This leaves the glass clear and bright.

When butter gets strong, put a little into cold water to which a pinch of soda has been added. Let it stand two hours, then pour off the water. The butter will be wonderfully sweetened.

Grass stains are easily removed if they are well rubbed with lard before putting them into the washing suds.

To remove the odor of onions from the hands, wash them in water with a little mustard.

White tissue paper makes most satisfactory dress shields and it may be renewed daily at small expense. Don't forget to try them, especially when the dressmaker is fitting a gown on a hot day.

Put anything washable that has been stained with ink at once into milk. Rub the spot, and in a short time it will be entirely removed.

Nellie Maxwell.

Mr. Graytop.

"I try to keep young," said Mr. Graytop, "and I keep right on fancying that I look so; but every now and then something happens that jars me. Only this morning as I was walking along the street a sweet little child ran up to me and said: "'Are you grandpa?'" "This, you see, was the comment of a quite unprejudiced observer; and it is things like this that jar— that more than jar—that jolt me."

MUNYON'S PAW-PAW PILLS

TRADE MARK

A trial package of Munyon's Paw Paw Pills will be sent free to anyone on request. Address Professor Munyon, 53d & Jefferson Sts., Philadelphia, Pa. If you are in need of medical advice, do not fail to write Professor Munyon. Your communication will be treated in strict confidence, and your case will be diagnosed as carefully as though you had a personal interview.

Munyon's Paw Paw Pills are unlike all other laxatives or cathartics. They coax the liver into activity by gentle methods. They do not scour; they do not gripe; they do not weaken, but they do start all the secretions of the liver and stomach in a way that soon puts these organs in a healthy condition and corrects constipation. In my opinion constipation is responsible for most ailments. There are 26 feet of human bowels, which is really a sewer pipe. When this pipe becomes clogged the whole system becomes poisoned, causing biliousness, indigestion and impure blood, which often produce rheumatism and kidney ailments. No woman who suffers with constipation or any liver ailment can expect to have a clear complexion or enjoy good health. If I had my way I would prohibit the sale of nine-tenths of the cathartics that are now being sold for the reason that they soon destroy the lining of the stomach, setting up serious forms of indigestion, and so paralyze the bowels that they refuse to act unless forced by strong purgatives.

Munyon's Paw Paw Pills are a tonic to the stomach, liver and nerves. They invigorate instead of weaken; they enrich the blood instead of impoverish it; they enable the stomach to get all the nourishment from food that is put into it.

These pills contain no calomel, no dope; they are soothing, healing and stimulating. They school the bowels to act without physic.

Regular size bottle, containing 45 pills, 25 cents. Munyon Laboratory, 53d & Jefferson Sts., Philadelphia.

Nowadays.

Grandmother—And now would you like me to tell you a story, dears? Advanced Child—Oh, granny, not a story, please; They're so stodgy and unconvincing and as out-of-date as tunes in music. We should much prefer an impressionist word-picture, or a subtle character sketch.—Punch.

Constipation causes and seriously aggravates many diseases. It is thoroughly cured by Dr. Pierce's Pellets. Tiny sugar-coated granules.

The love of a man for his wife may be the real thing, but it doesn't seem to interfere with his appetite.

It's difficult for people to generate advice that is foolproof.

Garfield Tea keeps the bodily machinery in order; it regulates the digestive organs and overcomes constipation.

It's easier to put up a bluff than it is to put up the stuff.
