He was immediately taken to Dr Heidner's hospital and medical aid given him. As a result of the attack his entire left side is paralyzed, and he may never recover the use of it. He remained in the hospital until Saturday morning, when he was taken home by his son and son-in-law. His wife was with him from Wednesday until Friday.-West Bend News

W. E. Bennett, the well known miller of Mayfield, delivered fifteen barrels of flour to this city last Saturday. Mr Bennett recently took in Harry Warden, of West Bend, as a partner, and the Mayfield Roller Mills are now run under the firm name of Bennett & Warden. They have purchased a new 25 H. P., gasoline engine and as soon as they have it installed will begin running their mill both day and night. The Mayfield mill has gained a reputation of high excellence through Mr. Bennett, as he is an expert miller and a fine man to deal with. As Mr. Warden is also an expert miller, having had charge of the West Bend Mills for several years, the new firm will no doubt keep the mill humming. Hartford Times.

Fell From Wagon.

John Bastian of West Bend had a narrow escape from a serious accident last Saturday while coming to this city to deliver a feed cutter. As he was driving down East Summer street a jolt threw him from the wagon. His foot caught in the machine and his head struck against the wheel, knocking him unconscious. The team went on and Bastian's head and face kept pounding on the wheel until a passerby saw what had happened and stopped the team, A number quickly came to his assistance and released him. He was unconscious for a time but later came to, and was taken to the office of Rogers and Hoffman, where Dr. Rogers dressed his injuries. His father and John Gehl came over in an auto that afternoon and took him to West Bend,-Hartford Press.

Killed and 9 Injured

Another horrible railroad acciparty, killing thirteen and injuring nine. The driver and horses were uninjured.

The party was returning from a wedding celebration and dance which was held on a farm three of this village, and Fred Hammen miles from Neenah. Most all of the victims reside at Menasha.

The bodies of those killed were so badly mutilated that identification was possible only by fragments of clothing that clung to the several parts, Six of the vicwith an unfortunate accident last tims, all dead, were piled on the engine pilot, where they laid until removed by members of the train crew and passengers, who volunteered their services.

> The accident occured on the North Western crossing, which is considered very dangerous as a big billboard is along side of the rightof-way. Mist and fog also filled the atmosphere which added to the difficulty of seeing the approaching train. The driver claims that he made every effort to look in both directions along the track, but did not observe the on rushing train until his team had reached the track He whipped up the hors- able affair, es but managed to get the wagon

LAURIER DEFEATED

CANADIAN LIBERAL MINISTRY AND RECIPROCITY ARE BAD-LY BEATEN AT ELECTION.

BORDEN WILL BE PREMIER

Opposition Will Have a Majority of More Than 50 in New Parliament-Seven Members of Privy Council Are Ousted.

Montreat.-Sir Wilfrid Laurier, the Liberal Government and reciprocity with the United States suffered a most disastrous defeat at the colls throughout the Dominion of Canada. With reciprocity the paramount issue of the campaign the voting turned a Liberal majority of 42 into a Conservative majority of more than 50.

Speaking of the Divorce Evil

Trying to succeed in business without advertising is like the case of the man who, trying to cut expenses, divorced his wife and alone attempted to keep house and raise his children. It cost him more money for doctor bills and funeral expenses in a year than he gave his wife in a lifetime.

When advertising is divorced, business success becomes failure.

This paper is building your neighbor's business. He has reasons. He tried advertising and it helped him. It is not an experiment - this paper brings regults. Good, hard, convincing results - dollars.

La Crosse.-Samuel Hack, aged 40, of Mineral Point, in jail here, refuses to talk after running amuck with a revolver in the business district, fatally shooting one person and wounding another seriously.

Hack walked into a saloon, according to the police, and deliberately shot G. B. Cook, a bystander, through the head. He then ran to the street shooting as he ran. Geo. Nelson, Harmony, Minn., was the next victim. Nelson received a bullet in the head. He will recover. After a running battle with police, Hack was captured near the outskirts of the city. Though apparently rational, he stolidly refuses to give a reason for his act.

Cook, the first victim, is in a precarious condition, and probably will Concerning Railroads.

When next you hear a politician for revenue only" denouncing the railroad industry, which employs a million and a half men at high waukee last Tuesday, Wednesday wages, please remember facts like

The statistics indicating the ratio of passengers killed to passengers hauled one mile, demonstrates that on the average in 1909 a passenger could travel 4,000 times the distance around the earth without in another way, he could ride at the rate of 60 miles an hour for 220 vears without having a fatal accident. Similarly, the figures giving the ratio of the number of employes in service to the number killed that on the average an em-Move could work for 637 years before being killed. Would management by a board of politicians make travel safer than this?

Do you fully appreciate what the present average rates of 1.92 cents per passenger and 0.76 cents per on mile means? The former is a little less than the value of a twocent postage stamp, yet for the cost of this small stamp, the railway transports a passenger and his luggage one mile, and in addition, 3,600 pounds of vehicle to seat him, 650 pounds of vehicle for his luggage, and 2,000 pounds of sleeping, dining and parlor equipment for increasing his comfort. For the same tiny stamp the railway carries 2% tons of freight one mile for the shipper, and provides and hau's on its passenger trains for the Post Office Department the equivalent of a fully equipped post office wheels weighing 45 to 50 Mr. and Mrs. John Groeschel and tons a distance of about threebuarters of a mile.

SYNOPSIS.

Jack Keith, a Virginian, now a border plainsman, is riding along the Santa Fe trail on the lookout for roaming war parties of savages. He notices a camp fire at a distance and then sees a team attached to a wagon and at full gallop pursued by men on ponies. When Keith reaches the wagon the raiders have massacred two men and departed. He scarches the victims finding papers and a locket with a woman's portrait. He resolves to hunt down the murderers. Keith is arrested at Carson City, charged with the murder, his accuser being a ruffian named Black Bart. He goes to jall fully realizing the perit of swift horder justice. A companion in his cell is a negro, who tells him he is Neb and that he knew the Keith family back in Virginia. Neb says of the murdered men was John Sibley, the other Gen. Willis Walte, formerly an officer in the Confederate army. The lainsman and Neb escape from the lost in the sand desert.

CHAPTER VIII.

The Wilderness Cabin. The light was considerably farther away than they had at first supposed, advanced steadily toward te of the ground rapidly oming irregular, and litow growing shrubs. In they stumbled over outrock, and after a fall or empelled to move forward with extreme caution. But the mysterious yellow glow continually beckoned, and with new hope animating the hearts of both men, they staggered on, nerving themselves to the effort, and following closely along the bank of the stream. At last they arrived where they could perceive dimly something of the nature of this unexpected desert oasis. The light shone forth, plercing the night, through the uncurtained window of a log cabin, which would otherwise have been completely concealed from view by a group of low growing cottonwoods. This was all the black, enshrouding night revealed, and even this was merely made apparent by the yellow illumination of the window. The cabin stood upon an island, a strip of sand, partially covered by water, separating it from the north shore on which they stood. There was no sign of life about the hut, other than the burning lamp, but that alone was barren spot for headquarters. Away roving cattlemen would penetrate, in because of lack of game-a man might hide here year after year without danger of discovery. Yet such a one would not be likely to welcome their coming, and they were without arms. But Keith was not a man to hesitate long because of possible danger, and he stepped down into the shallow wa-

VEGETABLE HAND AND FACE

Curlous Freak Produced by Two Ears of Corn-Potato Has Face Like Bloated Old Loafer.

Of course we all know that corn has ears, but the accompanying picture will convince you that a stalk of corn may be gifted with a hand as well. The picture was taken from a photograph made of two ears of corn, each of which closely resembled a human hand. The one shown in the illustration was the more perfect of the two specimens, and you can readily see that most of the proportions resemble those of a hand with amusing correctness. Hands of corn are not uncommon, a certain variety of the vegetable having been named "hand corn" by the Indians owing to its tendency to produce hand-like ears. Nature produces some curious freaks, particularly among potatoes. Often the potato digger will turn up a great, fat tuber looking for all the world like the face of a bloated old loafer. The Chinese and Japanese make practice of cultivating curiosities of the vegetable kingdom. At the World's Fair of 1893 some Chinese stunted pines were exhibited that were only a few inches high, but were hundreds of years old. These curious

What Boys Should Learn.

There are great many thing boys, as boys, should learn. And if they learn these lessons so well as never to forget them during life, they will prove of great help to them oftentimes when they need help.

1. Not to tease boys and girls smaller than themselves. 2. Not to take the easiest chair in the room, put it in the pleasantest place, and forget to offer it to mother when she comes in to sit down. 8. To treat mother as politely as if she were a strange lady who did not spend her life in their service. 4. To be as kind and helpful to sisters as they expect their sisters to be to them. 5. To make their friends among good boys.

6. To take pride in being a gentleman at home. 7. To take mother into their confidence if they do anything wrong; and, and some elementary syllables and above all, never to lie about anything

MAKE YOUR OWN DOLL HOUSE

Directions for Making One That Any Little Girl Can Put Under Her Arm and Carry Away.

You have probably heard of the man who took up his bed and walked, but here is a bedroom that any girl can carry under her arm without the least difficulty. The best of it is that the young housewife can make the whole thing by a careful use of glue and part of some old book. This is the way to go about it: Get your father to give you some old volume with sound covers and a strong back. Then carefully cut the pages out of the book and stiffen the back with a piece of strong cardboard. which must be glued into place. Then cut two pieces of cardboard of equal length for your end walls and cut another piece sufficiently long to make the ceiling. These strips should be as wide as the space formerly occupied by the leaves. Glue the three strips to one of the book covers to correspond with the end walls and ceiling of the bedroom in the picture. This part of the bedroom can be made stronger by pasting bracing pieces at the joints.

It is a simple matter to cut out a window similar to the one in the picture, and any bright girl can shape the necessary bedroom furniture from pretty colored cardboard. An Open Window club button will complete the furnishing after the window has beer

WHY DO WE COUNT BY TENS?

Easily Seen How Much Easier and Better It Would Be to Reckon by Dozens-Fingers to Blame.

Why do we count by tens and not by twelves? It is unfortunate that our system of numbers has not two more signs so that the first number of two figures would be the number we now represent by "12." Twelve can be divided by two, three, four and six, and ten can be divided by only two and five. You can see how much better and easier it would be to reckon sums by dozens when you must divide the numbers every once in awhile, and you might think that the people that invented numbers would have seen capable of being incendiaries.—Burke up of the new dolls there is nothing to this. But nobody did invent numbers. Numbers were already invented before people knew that there could be such a thing as counting. Look at your hands, and you will see why people count by tens. Every one counts on his fingers sometimes. and there was once a time when not every one could do even that. Some savage tribes in Africa are so stupid that they cannot count above five. When they have got that far they say they have counted a "hand," and two "hands" are a "man." If men had been born with 12 figures instead of 10 we should have counted by dozens almost from the beginning.

A Crane Picked Up at Sea. That land cranes sometimes take long sea trips is proved by Captain Ginn, of the four-masted schooner Lewiston, which arrived at Boston recently from Savannah. The vessel was 60 miles off Hatteras when the lookout described what he thought was a diminutive balloon. The navigators trained their glasses on the strange object, which resolved itself into a combination of flapping wings and dangling legs, with a neck and head, that reminded the Lewiston's company of a croquet mallet with s

This is the age of substitution, and women who want a cure should insist upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound just as this woman did, and not accept something else on which the druggist can make a little more profit.

Women who are passing through this critical period or who are suffering from any of those distressing ills peculiar to their sex should not lose sight of the fact that for thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which is made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills. In almost every community you will find women who have been restored to health by Lydia E. Pink. ham's Vegetable Compound.

BUTTERMILK DISHES.

To keep up the interest in living every little while some new specific for prolonging life, renewing the tissues and preserving beauty springs into popular favor. Buttermilk and sour milk bave both been highly praised, and science is experimenting to prove the wonderful tales. For years buttermilk has been recommended by physicians for people troubled with gout, theumatism or liver troubles. Many times those who cannot retain sweet milk find buttermilk most satisfactory. A glass of iced buttermilk with a sandwich makes a most satisfying and wholesome luncheon. Buttermilk may be used in place of sour milk in cookery, making a richer and finer-grained product. For those fond of buttermilk, the buttermilk soup is a great delicacy. Heat a quart of buttermilk until nearly boiling; do not let it boil or it will curdle. Pour over three well-beaten eggs, seas 1 with salt and sugar and serve with a grating of nutmeg on top of each soup plate.

Woman's Power

Over Man Woman's most glorious endowment is the power to awaken and hold the pure and honest love of a worthy man. When she loses it and still loves on, no one in the wide world can know the heart agony she endures. The woman who suffers from weakness and derangement of her special womanly organism soon loses the power to sway the heart of a man. Her general health suffers and she loses her good looks, her attractiveness, her amiabilit and her power and prestige as a woman. Dr. R.V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N.Y., with the assistance of his staff of able physicians, has prescribed for and cured many thousands of women. He has devised a successful remedy for women's airments. It is known as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It is a positive specific for the weaknesses and disorders peculiar to women. It purifies, requiates, strengthens and heals. Medicine dealers sell it. No honest dealer will
