CIRCUS WELL LIKED BY ALL

The Brothers Will Visit This Village Again Next Year With a Larger and Better Circus

Beverung Bros. circus made its first appearance in this village on Thursday, and pleased all who attended. The circus is a new proposition, this being its first year, and it is a promising aggregation
The owners are Milwaukee boys.
Highly decorated wagons, regulation rings, a noisy brass band left Wednesday for a few weeks and other circus accessories at visit with her brother, Dr. Zell-Math. Staehler had the misfor-tune of being quite badly burned last Tuesday morning, while in tracted many people. Especially pleasing to the children was the troupe of trained Shetland ponies in charge of Prof. J. W. Whiteley. These ponies certainly displayed a marked degree of intelligence and land. careful training, and their clever-ly executed tricks made them the center of attraction. Geo. Andipas, the Greek Samson amazed those who attended the production by his marvelous feats, and the Erwins, clever slack wire pression by their sensational acts. Their slack wire performance proved particularly pleasing.

The clowns also presented new novelties, and their antics were a Wednesday for his home in Hartsource of amusement for the chil- ford for a few days visit with dren. Other features of the latest type added to the attractiveness of the production. The Beverung brothers spent many months preparing this pro-duction and they have gathered together a well trained troup of animals, which made the show a decided success. They also have promised to visit this village again next year with a still larger and better circus. Their next vis-it will undoubtedly be welcomed with a larger attendance than at their performances here last Thursday afternoon and evening.

The youngest, Michael, is only four years old. The others are Edna, eleven; Catherine, nine, and Elizabeth, eight.

Since the divorce obtained by Mrs. Cudahy from her husband two years ago Mr. Cudahy has been living at the Hotel Baltimore and on his farm near Bolton.

Mrs. Cudahy has been living in an apartment at 3527 Main street. The children, who were taken from the mother under the divorce agreement, were given to the parents of Mr. Cudahy, with whom they have been since that time.

The children, when the case shall be taken before the city court here, probably will be allowed to return to the home of the parents.

The formal decree of divorce was issued to the Cudahys following a sensational attack of the husband upon Jere Lillis, a banker, two years ago. At the Cudahy home Tuesday night few details of the reunion were given out. It was admitted that the two had begun to live together again, and it was stated that an effective reconciliation had been made.

CENTER OF THE STAGE

H. F. Cochems, Who Nominated Mc-Govern for Charmansh p, Resigns from Delegation.

Chicago, June 18.-Wisconsin held the center of the stage at the national republican convention today. From 10 in the morning, when the Wisconsin delegation met for its final caucus, until the election of Senator Elihu Root as temporary ly has been pointed out by his prede chairman of the republican nationa: cessors that the practice of attaching convention, Wisconsin and the Wisconsin idea were on every man's tongue and in every man's thoughts. It started when the delegates filed into their seats with the La Follette banner at its head and the first real cheer of the convention was accorded the banner and the men who bore it. Then came a lull during which the effort of the Roosevelt forces to turn down the temporary roll of delegates prepared by the national committee was defeated and at last the convention reached the stage where nominations for temporary chairman were in order. George L. Record and Former Gov. John Franklin Fort of New Jersey, gave a signal to Henry F. Cochems, delegate from the Fifth. Wisconsin district, and the man who placed the name of La Follette in nomination before the convention of 1908. Mr. Cochems rushed to the edge of the speaker's platform and was hoisted upon it by the New Jersey men and then and there turned the spotlight on Wisconsin.

Speaking for himself "as an individual and in the name of the progressive republicans and of those who constitute the 90 per cent of common people in the United States,' he placed the name of Gov. SYNOPSIS.

Lieut. Harry Mallory is ordered to the Philippines. He and Marjorie Newton decide to slope, but wreck of taxicab prevents their seeing minister on the way to the train. Transcontinental train is taking on passengers. Porter has a lively time with an Englishman and Ira Lathrop, a Yankee business man.

CHAPTER II. (Continued.) He resigned himself to the despot, evenin'. and began to transfer his burdens to the seat. But he did nothing to the check the foreign usurper, satisfaction of the Englishman, Everything must be placed otherwise; the catch-all here, the portmanteau there, the Gladstone there, the golfsticks you. There was a witness to his helpless bage-a newcomer, the American counterpart of the Englishman in all that makes travel difficult for the fellow travelers. Ira Lathrop was zealous to resent anything short of perfection, quick and loud of complaint, apparently impossible to please.

In everything else he was the opposite of the Englishman. He was burly, middle-aged, rough, careless in attire, careless of speech-as uncouth and savage as one can well be who is plainly a man of means.

It was not enough that a freeborn Afro-American should be caught kneeling to an Englishman. But when he had escaped this penance, and advanced hospitably to the newcomer, he must be greeted with a snarl. "Say, are you the porter of this car, or that man's nurse?" "I can't tell yet. What's yo' num-slammed into the seat his entire hand baggage, one ancient and rusty valise. The porter gazed upon him with increased depression. The passenger list had opened inauspiciously with two of the worst types of travelers the Anglo-Saxon race has developed. But their anger was not their worst trait in the porter's eyes. He was, in character.

When you meet a stranger you reveal your own character in what you question is, "Who are his people?" With others, "What has he achieved?" With others, "How much is he worth?" to his estimate.

Mallery waited for it, watch in hand, He boosted Marjorie's elbow aboard and bombarded the conductor with questions. But the conductor had no more heard of their street than they had of his. Their agitation did not disturb his stoic calm, but he invited them to come along to the next crossing, where they could find another car and more learned conductors,

He threw Marjorie into a panic by ordering her to jettison Snoozleums, but the lieutenant bought his soul for a small price, and overlooked the fact that he did not ring up their fares. The young couple squeezed into a seat and talked anxiously in sharp

THE PEEVISH CHILD

NEEDS TREATMENT When a child sulks drowsily, or is fretful, it is usually due to some slight disorder of the digestive organs, and a mild laxative is very often all that is necessary to restore cheerfulness and buoyancy of spirits.

In cases where the use of a gentle, effective laxative stimulant is indicated, many of the best physicians are now prescribing Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. This preparation is admittedly the perfect laxative, being mild, yet positive in its action on the bowels, and far preferable to violent cathartics and purgative waters. It is very pleasant to the taste and is an ideal remedy to regulate and strengthen the stomach, liver and bowels. Its easy, natural action makes it especially desirable in the case of children, a dose at bed-time being sure to have the desired result next morning, with no attendant unpleasantness or discomfort. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is sold by druggists everywhere in 50c and $1.00 bottles. If you have never tried this splendld remedy, write to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 201 Washington St., Monticello, Ill., for a sample. He will be very glad to send a trial bottle without any expense to you whatever.

The Motor Car with a record, in all parts of the world, for useful and satisfactory services. Ford Model T, the motor car which delivers expectations without any disappointments. Lower in price and higher in quality.

The lightest weight 4-cylinder car in the world, size, power and capacity considered-60 pounds for every horse power. If heavy weight is valuable in a motor car, why do not the makers of the heavy cars advertise the fact? There is a reason.

With complete equipment; Extension Top, Speedometer, Ford Magneto built into motor, Automatic Brass Windshield, Two 6-inch Gas Lamps, Generator, Three Oil Lamps, Horn and Tools. $710.00

We believe FORD MODEL T is fully ten per ceni better in quality than ever before. Not because there have been any changes in design, but simply because of added refinements and continences. It is the same car that has given such splendid satisfaction to more than 80,000 owners. The same car that is so familiarly known from "Greenland's icy mountains to India's coral strand." The car of immediate adaptability to the wants of all men. Just as reliable, serviceable and enjoyable on the farm as it is on the paved streets of the city. Surely you see them wherever you go, and they go wherever you see them. Keep these facts in mind: Extreme simplicity in design. Vanadium steel (scient fically heat treated) construction. Magneto built into the motor. Ford planetary spur transmission. Ford spring suspension. Ford rear axle. Quick accessibility to mechanism. 20 to 25 miles per gallon of gasoline. 8,000 to 10,000 miles on one set of tires. Every statement made in Ford advertising is a fact, nothing of "glittering generalities" of exaggeration. You can depend upon our advertisements just s you can depend upon the FORD MODELT car. maid, once asserted that a woman was not a "person," and a London suffragette insists that the word "person" in its legal sense includes woman. The word has had an interesting history. Rignifying by etymology something to make a sound through, the Latin "permeant the character represented by the player-"dramatis personae." Then it came to mean the part or character one sustains in real life, and so the Frank J. Cheney makes oath that he "persona ecclesiae," the man who rep-FRANK J.
