Friedmann Evading the Law.

Dr. Friedmann's course, since he landed on our shores, has been one of constant evasion. His claims for his treatment rest solely on his own statements. He has not qualified as a physician in New York or Rhode Island. He has failed even to answer the letters of the officers of the Public Health Service. He has persistently refused to furnish any proof of the claims made for his preparation. Now comes the most startling development of all. According to newspaper reports, branch "institutes" are to be established in every state by a syndicate formed by Dr. Friedmann and his promoters. Each "institute" will make its own serum or culture, or whatever Dr. Friedmann's remedy is. Thus, by a technicality, he will evade the federal law, which, for the purpose of protecting the public against impure and dangerous serums and vaccines, places all these preparations which are subject to interstate commerce under the control of the Public Health Service. State laws are slow of enactment and slower of enforcement. This plan will sweep aside the strong arm of the Public Health Service, which otherwise would protect the unfortunate consumers. It will allow the promoter to make and sell to the victims of disease, at any profit he sees fit, a secret product, the value of which rests entirely on Friedmann's unsupported statements. Suppose an American physician went to Berlin with unproved claims for some new treatment of consumption. Suppose he refused to produce proof of his statements, refused to submit his remedy to other scientific men, attempted to evade the German laws disregarding German officials and, finally, through a legal technicality, planned to bleed the German consumers of his scanty means by selling him a preparation of unproved value and possible danger? Would the German people permit their sick to be the victims of such a scheme? Why did Friedmann come to the United States? Because we have, in Europe, the reputation of being "easy." Because this country is supposed to be the home of the get-rich-quick promoter. The American people have no respect for the man who uses legal technicalities for profit or to escape punishment. Will the American public and the American press tolerate this attempt to make our unfortunate consumers a source of gain for a rapacious foreigner promoting a remedy of unproved merit in violation of the spirit of our laws?—American Medical Journal.

FIRE MARSHAL'S DEPT.

State Marshal at Madison Issues Bulletin on Comparative Cost of Proof Construction

At this time of the year many are building or planning to build. We urge upon all such the necessity and advisability of using fire resistive materials as far as possible.

The comparative cost and reason showing the need, both private and public, of fireproof construction are well stated by Philip H. Bevier, C. E. as follows:

"At the present price of building material, fireproof construction can be erected at a cost not to exceed 10 to 15 per cent. more than non-fireproof, and when we consider that fireproof buildings deteriorate about one-ninth of 1 per cent per year as compared to 4 per cent. for ordinary buildings that they rent better and that money can be borrowed on them on better terms, that they are vermin-proof, cooler in summer and warmer in winter, it would certainly seem the part of wisdom and self-interest to adopt a better method in every case when a building is intended to be of a permanent character.

When a man builds a house in the country, it may be that he has a right to jeopardize his own life and property and those of his family and gamble with the insurance companies, but there is no question that the owner of property in a city or town has no right to erect a structure which will be a menace to the safety of the life and property of the adjacent owner. The principle is clearly recognized in practice, and many of the smaller cities are adopting building codes requiring fireproof construction through out a certain portion of the business section, and semi-fireproof buildings in less congested districts.

One-half of the money spent by American cities for fire losses were spent for better building construction, the annual loss by fire would soon begin to decrease. Improvement along the line of better construction can only come gradually. It can and should be hastened in thickly settled communities by stringent building laws. City officials must be awakened to their responsibilities and the individual shown that his own pecuniary interest lies in lessening the fire waste. Old buildings should be torn down at once and rebuilt, but we can see to it that the new buildings built here where they are a menace to other structures."

T. M. Purcell, State Fire Marshal.

WILL SOON ADJOURN

Legislation Is Being Pushed Ahead So As To Close Up All Work Before the Hot Months Set In.

Madison, Wis. May Special—With the month of June near at hand the legislature is working with all speed to get the work cleaned before the hot months set in. All minor bills are being rapidly disposed of. All committees, except the finance committee, are caught up to date with their hearings and are in a position to give all bills referred to them immediate consideration. The work of the finance committee must of necessity be delayed until most other measures are disposed of.

The large bulk of measures will be ground through the legislature very shortly leaving to be considered the state financial budget and the bigger measures, such as the market commission bill, the authors pensions, water powers, etc. Just whether the legislature has sufficient information to pass wisely upon these larger measures or not gives rise to the suggestion that the legislature might well take a recess until next winter to give the committee an opportunity to gather full information before attempting to enact the proposed laws.

This legislature has handled the largest volume of legislation on record and within the next few days the members will be called upon to feel the great responsibilities of their position when these larger measures come up for their consideration. The success of these measures depends upon the information the legislature have in their possession at the time of their passage.

Since the legislature has been called upon to stay in session longer than was anticipated by the flood of legislation that was sent to it from all over the state there is a strong disposition among farmer members to favor taking a recess until next winter to give them a chance to carry on their own vocation while the committees are working the legislation into shape. In fact the members have had their minds so occupied with the matters actually before them that they have had but little time to study the bigger proposals.

If a recess is not taken until next winter the legislature may have to place some of the biggest bills in the hands of a special committee to report to the next legislature.

RAISE SUPERVISORS' PAY

Those who doubted that this legislature would refer the woman suffrage to a referendum may relax as it is now passed both houses and sent to the governor for his signature.

RAISE SUPERVISORS' PAY

Under a law recently passed the county board of supervisors may raise their pay to $400 per day if they so choose. They may also claim mileage by way of the most usual route instead of the nearest route.

DEFENDS COMPENSATION ACT

The assembly this week repeatedly voted down amendments to the workmen's compensation act which were designed to weaken the act and make it unpopular. An amendment to restore the common law defense of contributory negligence in this state was lost by a vote of 55 to 22. Another amendment to place farmers under the act was lost 50 to 27.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY'S WIN

The bill introduced at the request of the district attorney's association providing that the earnings of convicts may be paid to legal dependents has started towards passage. The bill provides that the county sheriff shall find employment for his prisoners and pay the wages over to their families or needy dependents. In the event the convicts are employed on the roads the county will pay the wages to the dependents.

MARKETING BILL PASSES

The bill providing that the industrial commission collect the names and standing of reliable purchasers of farm products and furnish such lists to farmers upon application has now passed both houses. This bill will encourage direct marketing.

RAISE MEMBERS' PAY

The legislature seems determined to again refer to the people a constitutional amendment to increase the pay of the members of the legislature to $500 per year. The present pay has been so small that in recent years members have been actually money out of their pockets by working for the state. They hope the people will give more consideration to their request this time.

STATE LOANS TO FARMERS

The Nye resolution providing an amendment to the constitution so the state may use its credit to obtain funds to loan to farmers is well on its way to final passage. The amendment provides that the state shall not loan money to any individual other than upon farm real estate property.

SECOND DEGREE

VERDICT GIVEN

John Lavalle Faces Long Term in State's Prison

TERM FROM 15 TO 25 YEARS

May Reduce Time By Good Behavior to Nine Years.—Alleged Forger Goes to Trial

(Fond du Lac Commonwealther)

John Lavalle, charged with the murder of Peter Guenther, November 23, 1912, at North Fond du Lac was found guilty at 9 o'clock this morning of murder in the second degree. Lavalle, in court when the jury returned its verdict had expected other results, and he was visibly affected when the court read the verdict. The prisoner thought the jury would say that he was guilty while insane from the excessive drinking of liquor.

Lavalle, under the verdict of the jury, is liable to a sentence of from 14 to 25 years in state's prison. Fourteen years is the minimum sentence and 25 years the maximum. By good behavior and exemplary conduct during confinement he may shorten his term to nine years, and under the parole law he may be free on parole at the expiration of seven years should the state board of parole find that such action was justifiable.

After hearing the verdict Lavalle went back to the county jail where he has been confined since the crime. Just when he will be sentenced will depend upon the convenience of the court. Ordinarily such sentences are not passed until the criminal calendar is conducted.

Lavalle's attorney, J. E. O'Brien realizing that there was no chance of freeing his client, put all of his energies into an effort to sustain a verdict of guilty while insane, which was the special plea of the trial. The defense banked on that outcome, while on the other hand the state pushed every proof to establish the contrary to this plea. The state was satisfied, it is said, with the verdict which has been returned.

The jury retired in the case at 4:45 o'clock Friday evening. When court opened at 9 o'clock this morning the foreman reported that a verdict had been reached. The jury was then admitted to the room and Lavalle having been summoned to court the verdict was presented.

The next case on the criminal calendar to be taken up was that of the state vs. Frank Turner alias William Shelley, charged with having passed a forged check in this city April 23, 1912. The transaction is alleged to have taken place in the Goll saloon at the corner of Macy and West Second streets. The check was for $14.50 and bore the name of E. M. Moore, which signature the state alleges was fictitious. Turner on the day mentioned, it is alleged in the information visited the Goll place and called for a glass of beer. The proprietor's son was at that time tending bar in the place, and on giving Turner the beer the latter asked if he would cash a check in payment. Turner, the complaint says, invited Goll to drink with him and then signed the check on the bar, affixing the name Frank Turner.

J. E. O'Brien appears for the defendant and District Attorney T. C. Downs for the state.

NAMING OF HOST IS STOPPED BY ERROR

RULING BY LIEUT. GOV. MORRIS PREVENTS CONFIRMATION AS FIRE MARSHAL.

MISTAKE MADE A TIE IN VOTE

Vote of Mayor Over on Motion to Lay Matter Over for One Week Wrongly Recorded—Friends of Confirmation Had Necessary Majority.

Madison.—The Milwaukee of Cleop H. Post, of Milwaukee as fire marshal was defeated in the senate through a ruling of Lieut. Gov. Morris.

The friends of confirmation had a majority, all that was needed, but on roll call on a motion of Senator Otto Bosshard that the confirmation lay over one week, Senator Stevens voted no, but was recorded by the clerk as voting aye. This gave the tie 15 to 15 for the motion.

Lieut. Gov. Morris ruled the vote could not be changed after it had been announced. Senator Timothy Burke appealed from the decision of the chair.

On this motion the vote should have been 15 to 14 against the motion, but for the failure on the part of Senator Stevens to record that his vote had been wrongly recorded in time.

Having taken the bill from the table Senator Bosshard moved the matter to be laid over for one week. On this motion the vote should have been 15 to 14 against the motion, but for the failure on the part of Senator Stevens to record that his vote had been wrongly recorded in time.

Chance for Late Voters. The Hinkel bill which provides that voters in the booth or standing in line at the time for voting the polls shall be permitted to vote was concurred in by the senate tonight.

The Pauli bill providing that when an electric railway occupies any state highway improvements made thereon shall be not less than twelve feet on each side of such railway track, was also concurred in.

The assembly went on record today as opposing any duplication of telephone companies in rural districts by engrossing the Kneen bill requiring companies to secure a certificate of necessity from the railroad commission before building.

By a vote of 44 to 24, the assembly sent to engrossment Senator Burke's bill appropriating $2,000 for a state game fund.

The senate killed the Stevens bill providing for the indeterminate sentence or the paroling of convicts. The Gorecki bill forbidding the sale of liquor on school property was laid at the foot of the calendar.

After a stormy career the Walsh bill directed against so-called "furniture sharks" was ordered engrossed. As amended it provides that installments houses shall repay half the amount paid, provided 50 per cent of the price has been paid.

More Trouble for Lobbyists. The bars against lobbyists are put up a notch higher in a resolution introduced in the lower house this morning by Assemblyman Douglas Anderson.

CROWDS STORM CARS

ONE BURNED, OTHERS TRACKED. ON CINCINNATI TRACKS.

Crews Are Compelled to Flee for Their Lives After Being Beaten by Mobs.

Cincinnati, May 13.—One car burned, five deserted and left standing on the streets in the downtown section and the crews of these six cars either beaten or forced to flee for cover is the total result of an effort made by the Cincinnati Traction company to operate cars on its lines.

An Avondale line car while passing Hunt Street and Broadway was suddenly segen to be ablaze. Several men in a wagon driving alongside the car had thrown a quantity of gasoline over it and then put a match to it.

Two other Avondale cars passed through the center of the city followed by a jeering crowd, but upon reaching Seventh and Sycamore streets some one cut the trolley ropes, while a combined assault was made on the cars by a crowd of strikers or sympathizers and several of the crew were roughly handled.

On Central avenue, in the West End, two John street cars attempted to work their way to the center of the city when a heavy wagon was driven directly in front of them and apparently stalled.

Before the police could move the wagon from the tracks a crowd boarded the cars, rocks and bottles were hurled through them and a few of the crew of sixteen men managed to escape bruises or cuts.

Another Avondale car was stopped at Court Street and Broadway and the crew deserted without a fight. The traction company announced that it would continue to make attempts to operate the cars, and further trouble is feared.

On Central avenue, in the West End, two John street cars attempted to work their way to the center of the city when a heavy wagon was driven directly in front of them and apparently stalled.

Before the police could move the wagon from the tracks a crowd boarded the cars, rocks and bottles were hurled through them and a few of the crew of sixteen men managed to escape bruises or cuts.

Another Avondale car was stopped at Court Street and Broadway and the crew deserted without a fight. The traction company announced that it would continue to make attempts to operate the cars, and further trouble is feared.

NAVY PLANS STOLEN

SENSATION CAUSED BY THEFT OF DOCUMENTS AS TO DREAD-NOUGHT.

DETECTIVES ARE AT WORK

No Clue Is Yet Discovered of Thieves Who Took Papers Relative to Giant Battleship Pennsylvania Two Months Ago.

Washington, May 15.—A sensation was caused in navy circles Tuesday when the disclosure was made that important plans, some of which relate to the new dreadnought Pennsylvania, had been stolen from the department.

It can be said on reliable authority that the thefts began two months ago and that, despite the Bureau's secret service men, the activity of detective agencies has been police, no clue to the thief has been discovered, not knowing what document was got next.

According to the information available at this time the loss of the documents began to be noticed in February. Most of the thefts have been comparatively insignificant, relating to the manual of the department and similar documents.

Outside aid was called in and for weeks under the pretense of a change of administration detectives have been slipped into clerical positions in most of the bureaus of the department and persons known to have handled the stolen documents have been under the closest surveillance.

The knowledge of the situation came out through an inadvertent disclosure by one of the detectives. The department itself refused to say anything on the subject, but it is understood it may lift the lid later.

It is asserted that the missing documents are not of considerable value to those who abstracted them, but if combined with other plans in the department would practically force the navy constructors to change plans of battleships now authorized. It is to protect the secrets of the department and prevent the loss of the complete plans of new battleships that the department is exercising every known precaution to prevent further leaks and thefts.

An attempt is expected to make capital out of the situation in the department by the war propagandists representing manufacturers of war materials, but the theory of those acquainted with the conditions is that no connection can be established between the theft of the papers and any government having diplomatic controversies with the United States.

Building of the dreadnought Pennsylvania, part of the details and minor plans of which have been taken, was authorized by the last congress. It has been designed to armament 31,000 tons and will carry a displacement of 34 heavy guns, exceeding in gun power the battleships of any other nation.

It is understood here that special surveillances has been established over the bureau of construction and repair, headed by Naval Constructor Wait, and the bureau of ordnance, of which Rear Admiral N. C. Twining is the head. The missing plans are said to have been traced to both of these bureaus, but which one had them last has not been ascertained.

General Slain by Maniac. Military Attache to Bavaria and Police Officers Shot Down on Streets of Munich.

Munich, Bavaria, May 15.—Gen. von Lewinski, the Prussian military attache to Bavaria, was killed here Tuesday by a supposed lunatic, who fired three revolver shots at him. A sergeant of police also was killed. The assassin, whose name is Straffer, attacked the general on a crowded street, first firing several shots at him and then turning his weapon on Police Sergeant Follender, who dashed to the officer's assistance.

The man was killed by a shot through the heart. Gen. von Lewinski was still alive when picked up. He was taken to the hospital in an ambulance, but died shortly afterward.

The assailant was seized by a crowd who tried to lynch him, and succeeded in seriously injuring him before he was rescued by the police.

Von Lewinski was an officer of the general staff and occupied an important position in the scheme of cooperation of the Prussian and Bavarian armies.

WILSON ASKS DELAY TO "REFORM" PARTY

REQUESTS JOHNSON TO DEFER ACTION ON ANTI-ALIEN LAW.

President Declares Through Bryan That He Is Ready to Co-operate With California to Correct Error.

Washington, May 13.—The federal government's final effort to delay alien land owning legislation in California was made Sunday when Secretary Bryan, in the name of President Wilson, telegraphed Governor Johnson.

The president in part is as follows: "The statement in press is to express his appreciation of your courtesies in delaying action on the land bill before you until the Japanese government has been communicated to the Japanese government and considered by it."

"His excellency, Baron Chinda, has on behalf of his government, presented an earnest protest against the measure. As you have before you but two alternatives, viz: to approve or to veto, it will avail nothing to recall to your attention the amendment suggested to the legislature and as the president has already laid before you his views upon the subject, it is unnecessary to reiterate them."

"If a postponement comments itself to your judgment the president will be pleased to co-operate in a systematic effort to discover and correct any evils that may exist in connection with land ownership by aliens."

THE KITCHEN CABINET

I find so much of goodness in men whom men pronounce divine. I find so much of sin and blot, I hesitate to draw the line, Where God has not.

HELPFUL HINTS. Chopped English vanilla add an interesting flavor to vanilla ice cream. Borax is a great whitener of clothes, and is a disinfectant for the ice chest, and sprinkled around where there are roaches and ants it will drive them away.

An old piano stool will be found very useful in the kitchen, as it may be adjusted to any height desired. Ammonia applied to old rubbers will brighten them when they have become dull.

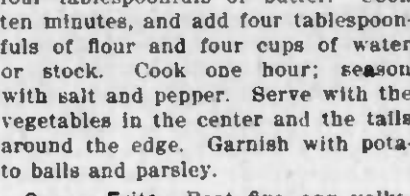

All vegetables should be put to cook in boiling water. We read every now and then, in supposedly reliable papers, that vegetables put to cook in boiling water will become tasteless. Fastidious butter, but principles should be followed in even the cooking of vegetables. Some people may like wet, soggy potatoes; but that does not make them wholesome.

When baking beans, use a few small brown mustard cups for a portion, with a bit of pork on top. Such a dish makes a pleasing change for the lunch basket.

When blotting spots on a garment, place a cleaner under the spot before applying the gasoline, then rub until clean and dry and there will be no rings left on the cloth.

Raisins cut in halves make a nice addition to a fruit salad. When making icing and meringue, use a revolving egg beater, as it makes a firm, finer-grained texture than a flat whip. The meringue if full of large holes is not so attractive, and is more apt to fall after baking.

When beating whites for a cake, use a flat whip, as we want as much air in the egg as possible, to hold up the dough and make it light. Any cream or chicken soup is improved by the addition of a little grated cheese.

COOKING delectable food so that it is more digestible, improves the flavor and appearance, thus making it more appetizing. It also kills dangerous organisms.

A FEW ENTREES. Here are few entrees which are a little out of the ordinary: Haricots of Ox Tails.—Cut three or four tails in four-inch pieces; add one-half cup of carrot, the same of onion, and four tablespoons of butter. Cook ten minutes, and add four tablespoons of flour and four cups of water or stock. Cook one hour; season with salt and pepper. Serve with the vegetables in the center and the tails around the edge. Garnish with potato balls and parsley.

Creme Frite.—Beat five egg yolks, add a half cupful of sugar. Moisten three tablespoons of cornstarch with a few tablespoons of milk, add the starch to the milk and cook twenty minutes. Add egg mixture, four teaspoons of butter, salt, an inch of cinnamon; cook a minute, then pour into a buttered dish to mold. When cool cut in diamonds, dip in egg and crumbs and fry in deep fat. Serve with lemon sauce and the grated peel.

Braised Sweetbread.—Arrange in the bottom of a buttered baking dish one-fourth cup each of chopped carrot, celery, onions and salt pork. Place parboiled sweetbreads on top of the vegetables; cover with stock in a tightly covered dish and bake slowly three-quarters of an hour. Remove vegetables to a serving dish and serve the sweetbreads on top.

Creamer Cauliflower With Ham.—Boil a small head of cauliflower, in salted water until tender, then drain and drain through a sieve. Add three well beaten eggs, a cup of white sauce and pour into a mold. Bake until firm. Turn out on a hot platter, moisten with a cup of white sauce and sprinkle with chopped ham.

Mushroom Pot Pourri.—Cut in slices one lamb's kidney, saute in butter. Remove from the butter and add twelve mushrooms cut in slices. Melt two tablespoons of oil of butter; add two cups of tomato, a few drops of onion juice, one and a half teaspoonful of Worcestershire sauce, salt and pepper. Serve in center of a hot platter with rice and white sauce.

Obstacles Insurmountable. An east Tennessee girl is credited with the following reply to a question as to whether she had been to the fair: "I didn't want; I didn't want to go, and if I had wanted to go I couldn't have gotten to gwine."

Knockers. A haberdasher complains that canes do not find a ready sale in this town. This may be because it is difficult to carry a cane and a hammer at the same time.—Topeka Journal.

Stretching Tight Shoes. Tight shoes may be stretched by filling them half full of oats, dampened with water. Plug the top of the shoes with paper, the dampness will soften the leather and swell the oats, stretching until thoroughly dry.

Wisdom. "Every man ought to save up enough to buy himself a good big fender," said the thrifty citizen. "Yes," replied Farmer Cornstossel; "and then do something else with the money."

NEW MEMBERS FOR STATE FAIR BOARD

GOV. MCGOVERN NAMES WILKINSON, BAYFIELD; SAXE AND KLETZSCH, MILWAUKEE.

TWO GET REAPPOINTMENTS

C. L. Hill of Rosendale and Charles H. Everett of Racine are Old Members Retained on Board—Terms for All End June 1, 1916.

Madison.—New blood was added to the state board of agriculture when Gov. McGovern named three new members and reappointed two, all for terms ending June 1, 1916.

The new members are Dr. Gustave Kletzsch, of Milwaukee; Alonzo H. Wilkinson, of Bayfield, and Thomas Saxe, of Milwaukee. The old members reappointed are C. L. Hill, of Rosendale, and Charles H. Everett, of Racine.

Dr. Kletzsch succeeds William G. MacLaren, member-at-large. Although he is a resident of Milwaukee he is interested in agriculture, owning a farm at Thiensville and another in Langlade county.

Mr. Wilkinson is a banker of Bayfield, interested largely in agriculture in northern Wisconsin, is a member of one of the agricultural societies of that section and during the past winter took the course in agriculture at the university. He represents the Eleventh congressional district on the board. He succeeds Ira Chryst of Hudson, who was legislated out of the district by the appointment of 1911, creating a vacancy.

Mr. Saxe succeeds Frank G. Cannon of the Fourth district. He is an amusement promoter and a member of the firm of Saxe Bros., well known in theatrical and amusement circles in the middle west.

Messrs. Everett and Hill are old tried members of the board, the former editor and proprietor of the Wisconsin Agriculturist, published at Racine, and the latter one of the finest stock breeders of the state. Mr. Everett represents the First district on the board and Mr. Hill the sixth.

HANSEN QUITS THE ASSEMBLY

Manitowoc Lawmaker Packs His Belongings and Leaves Madison in Disgust.

Madison.—There was a dramatic moment in the assembly when Hansen, state bacteriologist, arose and asked the speaker for indefinite leave of absence. "I can't stand for any more of this freak legislation!" he exclaimed, referring to the Linley white-slave traffic bill passed against his protest. "If I am not granted leave," he added, "I shall be absent anyway." Mr. Hansen's request for indefinite leave of absence was voted down, but he closed his desk and left the chamber saying he would not return.

The bill by the committee on labor, establishing semi-monthly pay, days for all employers of labor of any kind, including the state and all municipalities, was passed by the assembly.

The Whiteside bill to appoint a special legislative committee to investigate the forestry conditions in Forest, Vilas, Oneida, Price and Iron counties and forbidding the further purchase by the state of land for forestry purposes until July 1, 1915, was passed by the assembly without a dissenting vote.

Speaker Hull's direct marketing bill was ordered to third reading in the senate and then given final passage by a vote of 15 to 5.

Reconsiderations Are Refused.

Madison.—The assembly has refused reconsideration on three important legislative questions: The Pfennig bill to divorce control of saloons and breweries, the L. L. Johnson bill to merge the state fire marshal's office with the state insurance department and the Battis bill to wipe out an amendment in the Wolf River Development project compelling the company to pay 1 per cent of its earnings to the state.

FISHING OPENS DAY EARLIER

Law Passed by Legislature Allows for Season Opening May 30 Instead of June 1.

Madison.—To add to the enjoyment of those who are fishing enthusiasts the Wisconsin legislature has recently amended the fish and game laws so that the open season for taking game fish from the waters of the state begins on May 30, instead of June 1, as formerly. This will allow many who live close enough to reach fishing spots within a day's time the opportunity to spend Memorial day at their favorite recreation.

A law passed by the legislature about three weeks ago provided protection for the crawfish and crabs by prohibiting the taking of them between June 10 and March 1. This will keep them from being disturbed during their spawning.

A new law that many fishermen and others interested in the protection of the fish of the state are at a loss to understand is that recently passed allowing pike in waters adjacent to Green Bay to be taken by net after May 1. The pike, they say, is one of the most delicate of game fish and its spawning is not completely over until after the month of May. This relaxation of the law, it is believed, will tend to disturb them and retard their increase.

SAVED BY FREAK IN WRECK

Twenty-Two Passengers Escape Injury When Combination Train Goes in Ditch Near Appleton.

Appleton.—That twenty-one passengers were not killed or injured in the wreck of a combination train on the Milwaukee road, five miles from Appleton, is nothing less than miraculous. The train was running thirty-five miles an hour, down grade, when the front axle on a coal car next to the engine snapped off, letting the car onto the ties.

Every car in the train left the rails, several of them being thrown into a deep ditch. A car loaded with furniture just ahead of the passenger coach on the rear of the train broke from the train and plunged into the ditch in such a manner as to keep the coach on the right of way.

Three hundred feet of track was torn up and half the cars in the train so badly damaged the wrecking crew burned them rather than attempt to put them back on the rails.

CONDEMN FRIEDMANN CURE

State Bacteriologist, Dr. M. P. Ravenel, Declares Tuberculosis Serum is Fraud on Public.

Madison.—Dr. M. P. Ravenel, state bacteriologist, and Dr. J. W. Coon, superintendent of the state tuberculosis sanatorium at Wales, have little or no faith in the Friedmann cure for tuberculosis. Dr. Ravenel returned from Washington, where he attended a meeting of the National Association for the Study of Tuberculosis, and said that the Friedmann cure was a colossal fraud.

Dr. J. W. Coon, who was sent east a month ago by the state board of control to investigate the cure, also became convinced that the tests did not bear out the claims of Dr. Friedmann.

Dr. Ravenel said that he expected within a few days to have some cultures of the serum here for the purpose of studying them, but did not intend to experiment on human beings.

Workhouse Keeper Acquitted.

Marquette.—After being out twenty-seven hours, the jury in the murder case of Peter J. Christ, Marinette county workhouse keeper, brought in a verdict of not guilty. Joseph Leblanc is credited with having held out for conviction against eleven other jurors for eighteen hours. Christ was tried for killing Howard Leaf, workhouse prisoner, on April 10, in a quarrel. Christ justified the act by a self-defense plea.

Bishop Quayle to Preside.

SIX MEET DEATH IN MOTOR BOAT WRECK

PLEASURE CRAFT AT WAUSAU STRIKES A SUBMERGED PIER IN RIVER.

MOTHER WATCHES TRAGEDY

Mother Stands on Shore Powerless to Aid While Her Husband and Four Children Drown—Excursion Boat Lost Rudder.

Wausau.—Six people, a father and four children, and a friend, were drowned in the Wisconsin river here while the mother of the family, friends and hundreds of spectators looked on, stricken dumb by the suddenness of the disaster. Four were saved only by desperate swimming against the swift, treacherous current.

Gustave Janke, Jr., had taken his four sons, Gustave, Jr., Walter, Henry and Gilbert, and his two daughters, Eleanor and Gertrude, and joined an excursion party down the river in a large gasoline launch.

Nearing a point opposite their landing place on the return the rudder broke and the boat was carried helplessly onto a submerged rock, tearing a hole in the bottom. The boat immediately filled and it sank before help could arrive.

The elder Janke was seen to make an heroic effort to save the life of one of his daughters who came up nearest to him, but the struggle was too much in view of the frantic struggles of the terrified girl, and Janke sank exhausted, the daughter disappearing at the same time. The same fate was met by the other daughter and her two brothers, Walter and Gustave, Jr., while Herman Roehl lost his life in trying to reach one of the Janke boys, who was bewildered and on the point of going under. Four others were rescued.

Mrs. Janke, standing on the bank to meet her family on the return, went frantic at the sight. Her condition is critical.

SHERIFFS TERM UNCHANGED

Bill by Assemblyman Greenwood Allowing Them to Succeed Seives, Killed in Assembly.

Madison.—The assembly is opposed to changing the law in relation to election of sheriffs. That body indefinitely postponed the Greenwood bill making sheriffs eligible to succeed themselves and also with the Murphy bill regarding county officers.

A number of dam and water power bills were laid on the table at the recommendation of the committee. The bills will remain there until the legislature decides what will be done with the water power bill now under consideration.

The assembly concurred in the Zopty bill providing for the paying of expenses of the defense against county, town, city or village officers.

AUTO BANDITS ROB FARMERS

Two Brothers, Aged 70, Are Bound and Gagged in Their Home Near Elkhorn.

Elkhorn.—An automobile containing four men stopped at the farm house of the Richmond brothers in Troy and demanded what money there was in the house. Being informed that they had no money the hold-up men knocked the two brothers down and bound and gagged them. After searching the house and obtaining but little booty the robbers made their escape. The Richmond brothers are bachelors, live alone and are both over 70 years old. It was nearly morning before they could free themselves from the ropes with which they were bound and give the alarm.

SUITABLE AND PRETTY GIFTS

Few Things for Prospective Bride Are in Better Taste Than the Easily Made Sachets.

Are any of your friends engaged? If so, why not make them some pretty sachets for an engagement gift? They are always appreciated and can easily be made. Purchase a quantity of satin ribbon two inches in width. The shops offer many bargains in ribbons at this season. Cut the sachets in squares, pad them with cotton and sprinkle with sachet powder. Then whipstitch the edges together. Stack a dozen of these together and tie with baby ribbon. On top place a flat bow ornamented with tiny rosebuds made from ribbon. An eighth of a yard of half-inch ribbon is required for each rose and they are formed by swirling the ribbon round and round a center. Foliage may be made from green silk to accompany these roses if desired.

This is a charming gift for the graduate. So prepare for June, which is not far distant.

AFTERNOON GOWN

An afternoon gown of printed silk over lace and embroidery, set off with a belt and sash of black satin ribbon.

Charming Gown in Gray. A new model in very fine mouse-gray cloth is very chic by its absolute simplicity of style. The corsage and skirt have the appearance of being all in one. The bodice part has a plain plastron effect, with long, loose armholes reaching to the waist. The sleeves are braided all over in tones of gray soucha, a panel at the side continuing in the form of a deep band around the bottom of the skirt in the same soucha braiding. The sash is wound round the waist and tied on the left hip with a full bow and ends. This sash arrangement is in gray soft Liberty satin, toning in with the other shades of gray.

There is one kind of woman who will worry because she has forgotten what it was that she intended to do about.

FATIGUE A FOE TO BEAUTY

Woman Who Would Retain Charm Should Avoid Allowing Herself to Be Victim of Overwork.

Over-fatigue is a foe to beauty. Even if there were no lasting effects from it, which there are, a wearied look in a woman's face adds nothing to her charm. Rather, it is as the appearance of a faded flower compared with that of a fresh one. The muscles and muscular tissues become gradually weak and show themselves with particular perversity in ugly rings and bags about the eyes, in a lengthening of the lines between the nose and the mouth, and a general sagging.

Fatigue, too, has a direct effect upon the stomach muscles, causing them to sag also, and become unable to work properly, and this, in turn, reflects upon the complexion, rendering it sallow and eventually blotched. So, I say, avoid fatigue.

Rest whenever you can. Whatever the routine of your day may be, it is possible for you to snatch a moment, or, at least, a second or two, here and there, of complete relaxation. Take a long breath and relax, then go on at tension if necessary, but it is rarely, very rarely, necessary, and there is a point to be made much of. Resist tension.

Bathe the tired face in cold water. It stimulates circulation, and brings relief, at least to one's feelings, even if its effect does not go very far beneath the surface. Hot water followed by a cold dash is also refreshing and especially is to be recommended to the woman of nervous temperament. A few drops of camphor in ice water makes an excellent lotion for the rejuvenation of the tired face muscles, but it should be followed by the application of a good face cream. Remove the cream with a dry, soft cloth and behold, you feel like a new woman.

Of Black Charmeuse.

The feature of the skirt lifted by means of a few plaits is an universal now as the train. On a lovely afternoon dress of black charmeuse the skirt was thus lifted beneath three very large jet buttons, and the fullness was looped round towards the back in graceful folds. The corsage of this gown had a very elegant sailor collar of fine lace and revers of the same in front, making a charming little heart-shaped opening, which just revealed the collar and guimpe of fine net. A flat waistband of the same silk with long fringed ends covered the union of skirt and corsage. The sleeves were long, and set well below the turn of the shoulder with a piped seam.

Novel Trimming.

A novel trimming is little padded flowers, which are cut out of velvet broche ribbon with a sharp pair of scissors, and are applied to the straw of the hat, a small mouth at cotton beneath bringing the flower into relief. In the case of a hat of black pedal straw, the round crown was covered all over with decoupe and padded rosebuds in velvet broche.

Crude Colors for Blondes.

Crude, brilliant colors are seen on the hats as on the dresses, and one should be very young and of a blonde complexion to stand the combination of certain clashing colors. The trimmings are still very high.

Gloves for Morning and Afternoon. White gloves are the accepted thing now; some few are rayed with black, and there is a plentiful sprinkling of champagne and chamis-colored glove kid. These gloves are worn morning and afternoon.

NOTES FROM MEADOWBROOK FARM

By William Pitt

Keep ahead of weeds.

Geese are money makers.

Hran is excellent for layers.

Shelter the manure spreader.

Careful feeding prevents scours.

Potatoes are only a fair feed for cows.

Clean cultivation in the orchard is necessary.

Corn silage and alfalfa hay make a balanced ration.

The cow that is a good producer must be fed liberally.

Don't make the garden too small for the hand wheel hoe.

Alkali water has very little effect upon the flavor of butter.

The best way to kill out weeds is never to let 'em come up.

Two-fifths of the world's 100 million swine are in the United States.

The milk giving quality can be developed only when it is inherited.

There is much more to plowing than sitting up and holding the lines.

Similarity of breeding stock produces offspring of much greater value.

Give the stock plenty of salt, and be sure they drink an abundance of water.

The most expensive help on some farms is the dog sent to round up the cows.

The vegetable and fruit garden can be made the most profitable acre on the farm.

Success in dairy farming depends as much on the man as upon any natural condition.

In planting a new orchard it is far better to use too much space than to crowd the trees.

Sunshine, pure air and clean surroundings will do much to make the dairy barn more attractive.

If you must use manure in the newly planted orchard, better put it on top of the ground—never in the hole with the tree.

Calves should have the milk warm from the separator, and the pigs should have their share sweet and in the same way.

Not much use treating seed potatoes for scab if they are to be planted in the same ground where the crop was scabby last year.

Many of the good dairymen started with Shorthorn and dual purpose cows. As soon as they began to study, however, they changed.

Two eyes to the piece is the right way to cut seed potatoes, but have the piece large enough so as to give the sprouts a good start.

The common disk harrow found upon every farm in the northwest is one of the most valuable of all the implements used by the farmer.

In setting out trees the holes should not be dug too far in advance. The sooner the tree is set after digging the hole the better the start it will make.

Enlarge the early orchard for early fruits. It is rather difficult to have a surplus of early and late fruits, and the middle season is more easily overstocked.

The black raspberry thrives best on land that lies well for natural drainage. It can not be grown on land that is naturally of a wet and therefore cold nature.

Milking is one of the most important tasks on the farm and should be so considered. It can scarcely be called a side issue when so much profit depends upon it.

The silo has now become almost a necessity on the farm, if profits are looked for. There are many farms on which it is not yet found, but the number of these is decreasing.

The arrangement of the farmstead should have careful consideration for it must be remembered that this is the headquarters of all the farm work. If there is waste here there is sure to be waste in other parts of the farm.

Exercise is necessary both for man and beast, but this does not mean that there should be an over-amount. It is especially bad policy to arrange the house so that the wife must take a long walk every time she goes from the kitchen to the dining room.

Poor butter is the curse of the farm dairy. It is better economy to sell the butter-fat of the whole-milk than to try to manufacture the product at home if you have not the equipment with which to turn out a high quality. This equipment is available and it can certainly be secured if there should be a change in your plans.

Beware of poor seed.

Live stock means success.

Chicks need much attention.

Make paths and borders neat.

Tankage is recommended for sows.

Silage will not injure the cow's teeth.

Alfalfa is the greatest permanent hog forage.

Evergreens ought to be planted as easily as possible.

Head work will often save hard work on the farm.

All the various breeds of hogs have their ardent admirers.

Oats and peas will provide a good growing ration for hogs.

Oats cut at the proper time make a very good quality of hay.

Every pig that goes to pasture should have a ring in his nose.

The best way to get nitrogen into the soil is to sow it with clover.

You cannot rush a hog, and as soon as you try it you will get in a mess.

It does not take much buttermilk in the butter to make it turn rancid early.

During the summer months, the ewes should have access to luxuriant pasture.

If you can't afford to buy a pure-bred cow or bull, buy a calf and breed up a herd.

There is just as much need of improved dairymen as there is of improved herds.

When in doubt as to what use to make of hen manure, try it as a top dressing on grass.

The farm should be well supplied with garden tools if you want the boys to do the work.

Continued close confinement in the stalls is liable to cause permanent enlargement of the joints.

This is the season to plan the buildings and changes that will be made on the farm a little later.

Big machinery is not always profitable. The machine should fit the farm and the power to handle it.

If you cannot provide a dip for swine, give them a spray. The boys can spray hogs without any trouble.

The horses that are best able to stand hard strains are those which work steadily every day in the week.

When opening your silo bear in mind that whenever you change feed the change should be made gradually.

One good cow well fed and cared for will give more net profits than two good cows not so well fed and cared for.

Raising chickens in confinement under too artificial conditions leads to ultimate trouble in the laying and breeding pens.

The best piece of advice for a beginner in poultry raising is to go slow at

DID YOU EVER STOP TO "THINK" About the "Twin Tables"

Up to this time, Pedestal Tables have been made with a single pedestal, but their shortcomings are so many that one manufacturer has succeeded in overcoming them by using two pedestals—each oval or oblong and complete in itself. They are called

"Twin" Pedestal Extension Tables

They are superior to others because:
No troublesome lock necessary. Gaping or standing open at bottom impossible. As perfect extended as when closed.
In extending a "Twin" to 6 ft. the tops open without spreading pedestals. Prevents marring of finish on legs. If extended farther than this the pedestals spread, giving the most rigid support possible without exposing unfinished surfaces, locks, bolts, etc., as is the case with the single pedestal tables, a feature worthy of your attention, especially when entertaining friends at luncheon or if table is continually used, in the extended position.

"Twins" are made in numerous designs and finishes.
