Grand Rapids.-The disappearance of William Marsan of Plover is causing uneasiness. The missing man is a bachelor, aged 28, employed on the farm of James Coulthurst. He had been for some time worried about his health.

Green Bay.-Damage aggregating several thousand dollars was done by fire to the Green Bay Show Case company's plant. The fire was caused by lightning. Several other buildings about the city were struck during the severe electrical storms.

Grand Rapids.-Alex Colodo of Bi ron was arrested at the public swimming pool upon his emerging. The fellow was ordered to get a bathing suit, but he laughed and plunged into the water.

Beloit .-- Harry Nelson, a Milwaukee boy, living at 465 Fourteenth avenue, visiting his uncle here, fell from a launch into the Rock river and was saved from drowning by timely efforts of an expert swimmer.

Madison .-- Jos Dragnie, who shot Mike Jelaca dead here after a quarrel, July 13, was sentenced to twenty-five years in prison.

Appleton.-Lawrence Schoot, Kimberly, was killed on the track at the driving park here while sending his motorcycle along at a fifty-five mile an hour clip in a trial heat. He lost control of the machine and collided with the tence. This is the second accident in two days.

Hudson .- A woman supposed to be Mabel Palmer, of Hudson, was struck by the Hudson, River Falls and Elleworth passenger train and instantly killed. Her face was mutilated so as to render identification difficult but the woman is believed to be Miss Palmer, who is missing.

ALL around you men are A talking about "Right-Cut" You yourself are probably telling your friends it's the Real Tobacco Chew. No "Right-Cut" user wants to see his friends go without it.

Made of pure, mellow tobacco-seasoned and sweetened just enough.

You get all the good of the rich, sappy tobacco.

Take a very small chew-less than one-quarter the old size. It will be more satisfying than a mouthful of ordimary tobacco. Just nibble on it until you find the strength chew that suits you. Tuck it away. Then let it rest. See how easily and evenly the real tobacco taste comes, how it satisfies without grinding, how much less you have to spit, how few chews you take to be tobacco That's why it is The Real Tobacco Chew. That's why it satisfied. costs less in the end.

It is a ready chew, cut fine and short shred so that you won't have to grind on it with your teeth. Grinding on ordinary candied tobacco makes you spit too much.

The taste of pure, rich tobacco does not need to be covered up with molasses and licorice. Notice how the salt brings out the rich tobacco taste in "Right-Cut."

The Watermeion and James, two the personal appearance, decide the response of the personal appearance, decide the response of country justice for speeding. Crossman, Bartlett and the Watermeion are robbed of their money and jeweiry in the night Alphonse, the general's chauffeur, and Bartlett's car are missing. The party proceeds in the general's car, gets lost argain and runs out of gasoline. Water-meion and Billy go to a farm house for food. Bartlett proposes to Henrietta and is accepted. Billy starts back with the farmer to tow the auto in. Hurrying to catch up with her. Watermeion finds Billy stuck in the railroad tracks with a frain rushing down upon her. He saves her life and confesses his love. Water-meion decides to sneak away in the night and take to the road again. A fire in the ageneral's car, and Watermeion de-dicas he cannot leave them yet. Water-meion confesses all to Billy and tells her he oannot marry her. Billy tells her fath-er that she wants to marry Watermeion but does not reveal his identity. Bartlett mets a message from his broker that Ratchelor has been in town all the time Watermeion confesses all, tells him of his love for Billy and that his right name is Jeroboam Martin.

Hero of War of 1812. David Porter, one of the naval heroes of the War of 1812, was given a great popular ovation by the people of Philadelphia. Ten days previously Captain Porter had reached New York after a long and hazardous voyage from Volparaiso, where on March 28, he had commanded the frigate Esser in her gallant, but unsuccessful fight against the British ships Phoebe and Cherub. Upon their arrival in New York, the surviving officers and members of the crew of the Essex were given an enthusiastic welcome. From New York Captain Porter proceeded to Philadelphia, where another popular ovation awaited him. On his arrival in the suburbs of the city the horses were taken from his carriage and it was drawn to the hotel by the populace.

ECZEMA ITCHED AND BURNED

R. F. D. No. 4, Box 55, Holland, Mich .- "My child's trouble began by getting red and sore around her neck. and her face, behind her ears, under her arms, and different parts of her body were affected. The eczema appeared in a rash first. It was wet and looked as if it was sweaty. It seemed to itch and burn so that she could not sleep or rest. It got so bad at last that behind her ears was one crust or sore so that I had to cut her hair. There was a hard crust covering her neck. She could not have her clothes buttoned at all. I could hardly change her clothes. It caused an awful difigurement for the time. She would cry when I had to wash her.

"We had her treated for some time but without success. I got one cake of Cuticura Soap and one box of Cuticura Ointment and I had not used more than half of what I bought when she was all cured." (Signed) Mrs. G. C. Riemersma, Mar. 21, 1914.

But if she caught a glimpse of it with her own eyes, saw this low er of hers in his true light, dirty, drunk, disreputable, the shock would kill her love utterly and Bartlett would not have to use that authority of his which was no authority, which Billy would refuse to obey. She had been free too long for any one to govern her now. The only person who could effectually break the unfortunate tangle was the Watermelon himself.

Bartlett looked at him and decided that his plan would work, that he would not have to take a last desperate and ineffectual stand against Billy.

No Help for It.

At one of the New York restaurants a willowy cabaret young person was doing the latest steps. The room was crowded, and most of the patrons stood in order to get a better view. One old gentleman, a Kentuckian, remained in his chair, playing idly with his glass, though the other members of his party were on tip-toe with interest. Finally one of them, a young girl, caught the old gentleman's sleeve and pulled it impatiently. "Oh, come on, major!" she said. "Be modern!"
