Ayrshire cattle are becoming more and more popular with Wisconsin dairymen. Those who have herds of Ayrshires are finding them capable of living up to their reputations, and it is claimed that the Ayrshire breeders of Scottland are recognizing more than ever before, the necessity of having their cattle posess ro-bust constitutions as well as shapely vessels. There are a goodly number of herds of this breed in Wisconsin. That meat making will compare with butter making as a profitable farm industry if present conditions continue, was the opinion expressed by an old Wisconsin stockman of national reputation in a recent conference with an official of the Wisconsin Live Stock Breeders' Association. Meat making, he said, is wide spread making, he said, is what speaking, he said, is what speaking and in coming years will become a still more highly profitable againstitutal industry. It is a committed to the said of the s ricultural industry. It is a com-mon observation that all of our best farmers are stockmen who breed live stock of one or more

ROUTING COTTONY MAPLE SCALE

Shade trees of soft maple and boxelder varieties, which have suffered so much from the cottony maple scale during the last few years, may be freed from these destructive pests if they are thoroughly treated this fall with a cheap home-made oil spray.

When the trees are dorn dormant. that is after the leaves have fallen, is the best time to wage war on the scale. A most effective remedy consists of a kerosene emulsion made according to the following formula: kerosene, two gallons, coal-oil, lamp-oil, whaleoil or laundry soap one half pound and one gallon soft water.

Dissolve the soap in boiling water, then remove from the fire, add the kerosene, and thoroughly agitate the mixture until a creamy solution is obtained. This can be done by pouring the mixture into the tank of a spray pump and pumping the liquid through the nozzle back into the tank. This forms a stock solution which must be deluted before using. In order to make a ten per cent s-lution, which is the best strength for spring spraying, add six gallons of water to one gallon the solution and agitate thoroughly before using. For fall spray, of a thirty per cent solution add one and one gallons of water to each gallon of the stock solution. This will kill most of the scale without injury to the trees. The cottony maple scale affects a wide range of trees and shrubs but is rarely dangerous to except the soft maple and Remedial measures are not always necessary against this pest on account of the numerous parasites, or enemies which usually hold it in check. But it seems from past experiences, that the scale appears periodically evervear or two until the parasites multiply sufficiently to gain again the upper hand and control it for another series of years.

Boerner's horse hitched to the delivery wagon, was badly injur-ed on Tuesday afternoon. The animal shied for some reason and took a notion to run away. Coming down Walnut street at breakneck speed, it broke away from the wagon ,but still carried thills. It attempted a short turn at the west entrance of Phil. Heipp's store, but slid on the cement walk and banged up against the front a light of glass break-ing. It then tore up Main street and at the old postoffice build-ing got onto the stone sidewalk. Again it slipped and kept on slipping until it landed up against The First State Bank building. This checked its mad flight and it was captured. # CHAPTER III.

He found himself, a lonely foreign figure knowing not whither he would go, somehow in the city's heart.

Chance led him to the principal thoroughfare. The city had begun to quit its toil and the released toilers were pouring into the street, an endless unordered horde, heedless of him as they were of one another. Never before had he seen so many people.

He had a confused sense of being sucked into a narrow, gloomy canyon through which poured a flood of humanity, a treacherous dangerous torrent, with many cross-currents, Countless faces, wan in the unnatural twilight, streamed by him; a stranger type to him, fox-featured, restless of Full . irkness fell. He paused under a fiery sign, The Seneca. Through a great plate-glass window he saw a gaudy red-and-gold interior broken by many columns that to the inexpert eve somewhat resembled marble. Uniformed pages scurried to and fro. Welldressed men lounged in easy chairs or sauntered leisurely about, Many lights burned brilliantly. He looked within longingly.

While he debated whether or not to enter this expensive-looking hostelry, a porter swooped upon him and enatched from his hands the ancient carpetbag that held his slender ward-"This way, suh!"

He followed the porter to the desk, painfully conscious of the figure he cut, uncouth, out of place. A clerk of lofty mien placed an open register before him. "Write your name here."

Mark wrote it. "And your town."

Mark hesitated-and then, with a dogged lowering of his head, firmly wrote the name of that city.

In the dining room that night many smiles were cast at the raw country youth. He did not regard himself as a subject for mirth. As he attacked the strange viands the waiter set before him, a little of his self-confidence returned. The vivid sense of a cruel, wing of the veranda. overpowering entity faded. Home-squad. "Git a move on!" thundered a voice in his ear. "D'ye think yez arre a prathy shtuck in th' grround? Marrch!' It was the voice of Houlahan. Mark marched.

Corporal Houlahan had no romantic conception of his duties, and his tyranny was of a sort to give his underlings the realistic point of view.

"Here, ye Oly-"

"Av bane Johann." "Ye're Moike, 'f Ol say ut." bellowed Houlahan. He enlarged upon Johann's dishonorable pedigree. "Dig in!"

The Swede, the best worker in the gang, began to shovel in a nervous haste that added nothing to his efficiency. Mark saw the red creep into the fair skin.

"Shtir it up, ye Frinch loafer!" the corporal addressed the next in line. "We're runnin' no barber shop here. F'r two cints Oi'd bate some worruk into yez."

It was a tired and sadly fretted gang the noon whistle relieved. Mark stretched himself out on the ground closing his eyes on the dinner pails his comrades produced; in his eagerness to be enlisted he had not thought of his midday meal, and he was very hungry

He felt a hand on his shoulder and opened his eyes. The Frenchman and the Swede sat beside him.

"M'sieu ees 'ongree, eh?" Frenchman carefully broke a loaf of brown bread-all his meal-in the middle and proffered Mark one-half. "Un' t'irety?" The Swede held out a bottle filled with cold coffee.

I Want Some (US) CARTRIDGES

Test after test after test of ammunition has proved the value of the U.S. non-mercurie primer. No mercury in the primer means no harmful, corrosive fouling of the barrel, no destroying action on the brass cartridge case, no varying time of ignition. The U. S. primer is a strictly chemical compound that acts with perfect uniformity.

Where fulminate of mercury is used, ground glass is also used. Ground glass is difficult to mix with mercury and its effect is not only to wear down the rifling, but also to cool the primer flame by absorbing about 16% of the heat.

DISAPPEARED Coffee Alls Vanish Before Postum.

It seems almost too good to be true, the way headache, pervousness, insomnia, and many other obscure troubles vanish when coffee is dismissed and Postum used as the regular table beverage.

The reason is clear. Coffee contains a poisonous drug-caffeinewhich causes the trouble, but Postum contains only the food elements in choice hard wheat with a little mo> at war, but the nations struggling for peace in Europe today, and send to the President assurance of our hearty approval of the course he has taken and our congratula-tions upon the success of that course, which was so vehemently and constantly assailed. Review the past eighteen months and see under what pressure President Wilson has persisted in his watchful waiting, and through that patience and self-restrain has brought two nations to this condition of peace and resultant prosperity.

The people of America owe to President Wilson today what the people of America owed to Geo. Washington when he prevented a war with England, which France and nearly all of America were clamoring for. Surely Wilson waited, and was not made tired by waiting .- Louisville Post.

We wish to call attention to the fact that Kewaskum seems to be failing in its attempt at entertain-Commissions reduced from forty-five ing its guests lately. Now last Sunday was a very poor example-of welcoming one of the biggest events that this town has during events that this town has during State pay roll cut one million dollars.
State highway tax cut one million the year, namely the excursion and picnic of the B. of L. F & E.
Not a flag or welcome sign was houses, although the advancement association has a large assort-ment of them. It would be very fittle trouble and expense to put these up, thereby demonstrating that the railroad men's efforts were appreciated. These gentlemen have been coming here for the past six years and every year Reference library to be servant, not has been larger than its predecessor. So in the future the tusi-ness people of this village should wake up get together and decorate their places and do all in their power to hold this annual event and keep up the reputation of the Campaign cry: "Retrenchment, ecc- village in hospitality. Other place es would be only too glad to get this excursion and are offering all manner of inducements to take it from Kewaskum.

John A. Aylward, progressive Democratic candidate for governor, started out in life as a tion hand on the railroad which passed through his home town. His father was the section foreman, but in that day the railroads left nothing to the section foremen in the way of discretionary powers regarding working

The section workmen received the sum of $1 per day for their services. Mr. Aylward earned and received this amount for a considerable time, but the high cost of living was getting a good start at that time and the $1 per day was hardly an adequate earn-

Young Aylward looked closely into living conditions among the section workmen of his town and eventually carried the investiga-tion further away. The men had been attempting to secure an ropean orders for coal. Coal is increase in pay but as they applied, nothing ever became of it. Once interested in a proposi- Statesmao.

young man started on a tour of the entire division of the road and explained the value of or-ganized effort. He succeeded in organizing the men on the civision and presented their carms for an increase as a representative of the organization. The railway officials did not consider the problem long, as the request for an increase was companied by an ultimatum. The division section men received an increase of $1.15. This was the first definite action aimed toward the betterment of conditions of his fellow men that John Aylward ever took. But since then he has devoted a great amount of time and energy to-ward smoothing the path of the men who toil for existence in this

One of the important questions with the Democratic voters of Wisconsin this year is the completion of the candidates on the state Democratic ticket in regard to the national program as resented by President Wilson.

In this respect the candidacy of Let us contrast our condition with that, not only of the nations twar, but the nations struggling twar, but the nations struggling sympathy and harmony with the Monday with her sister Mrs. Jim. Aylward-Husting ticket leaves no question as to the stand, and the utterances and actions of the gentlemen on this ticket have clearly shown the sincerity of their belief in the policies of President Wilson and their endorsement of his administration.

On the other hand the actions of these supporting Judge Karel as candidate for governor strongly indicate a general lack of sympathy with President Wil-

One of the most significant incidents bearing upon this phase of the campaign occurred in Rock County, when the Democrats of the county gathered for the purpose of formulating their preferences.

A set of resolutions endorsing the national administration was presented by a Wilson democrat. Such resolutions were in the nature of common courtesy to the administration and set forth the belief and confidence of the Rock County Democrats in the president and his policies.

The Karel supporters in the meeting defeated the resolutions and the meeting adjourned without the customary courtesy. The Wilson men used every legitimate effort to secure the passage of the measure, but the Karel contingent showed their inharmonious atti-tude toward the Wilson administration by marshalling a majority of one against it.

This overt act. in connection with the general stalwart character of the support aligned with Karel cannot help but show the true character of the faction. With them the Democracy of the nation counts for nearly counts for naught, and it is pretty clear indication that in the case of their success the interests of the national administration will suffer at their hands.

Mr. Aylward and Mr. Husting clearly maintain their position as Wilson Democrats. They can be depended upon by the head of the nation and the interests of the party in Wisconsin will be best cared for in the future if placed in the hands of such sincere Demo-crats as Messrs. Aylward and

MORE CHRISTMAS CANDIES.

Now that we have the foundation made, a few suggestions as to the ways of using it in different varieties: For orange creams, grate the yellow rind of an orange, scraping every speck from the grater with a fork; ad a pinch of tartaric the size of a pea. Add two tablespoonfuls or more of confectioner's sugar and enough orange juice to mix, and then make it into small balls. These are the centers which are dipped into melted fondant tinted yellow with saffron. Melt the fondant over hot water, being careful not to melt it back to clear su

Roll the flavored fondant into balls, press in the half of a walnut, and allow it to dry on waxed paper.

A candy which is most attractive may be made of different layers, flain use. In this same district vored with a variety of tinting and with the addition of chopped nuts and raisins to one layer. Arrange in layers, in a tin box or mold; then, when hard, the whole piece may be dipped in chocolate, and when sliced will make a very pretty addition to the candy box if the colors pink, green and a layer of plain white is used with the layer of chopped nuts and fruit. Nuggets.-Boil together a cupful each of brown and white sugar, a half cup of water to the soft ball stage. Pour this in a fine stream over the white of an egg beaten stiff. Continue beating until it will hold its shape when dropped; add a pinch of soda, a little vanilla and a few nuts when beginning to beat. Drop in small balls on waxed or buttered paper. They will harden immediately. Glace Nuts.-Boil a pound of sugar with a cup of water until it hairs, then add half a cup of vinegar and boil rapidly until when tried in ice water it cracks in the teeth. Now continue to boil until the faintest tinge of yellow is seen, then remove the dish, and set it in a pan of boiling water. Have the nuts clean and dry, drop in with the left hand and remove quickly with the right. Often one dipping will be

Flax-1.66@1.70. STATE NOTES IN BRIEF

Superior.—Ten actions seeking aleged damages totaling $59,500 have been started against the Duluth Street railway company in the Circuit court here. The suits are the outcome of the recent accident on the Billings park line in Superior when a car toppled from a viaduct to the ground twenty feet below, carrying with it more than a score of passengers. The suits are for amounts ranging from $2,000 to $10,000. The larger amount is asked by Edward Brooten, a dock worker, who claims the sight of one eye was destroyed.

Merrill.—An unidentified man, one of several Finlanders employed on the Soo railroad near Heafford Junction, in company with a friend, was crossing a high trestle when the man fell from the bridge and was instantly killed. An investigation by physicians revealed that the man had met death by striking his head on the bridge before he reached the water and that his death was clearly acwell - it was cidental.

Racine.—For the first time in the history of Racine county the coroner served notice upon the sheriff, restraining the latter from destroying liquor confiscated in a raid on a Wind Lake resort. The coroner is the only person who can serve such notice on the sheriff. The action came about when Edward Fuhman was fined $50 and costs for conducting a resort without a license.

Oshkosh.-Dr. Louis Warfield, a Milwaukee physician, and his wife figured in a capsizing accident during the heavy flow on Lake Winnebago. They had been in the water for some time before they were rescued by yachts. Both were good sailors and swimmers, and were able to take care of themselves until rescue came to them.

Maiden Rock.-Mrs. John Giebler, aged 76, a resident of Oak Grove for fifty years, was drowned in the Mississippi river. Her body was recovered in three feet of water by her son. Grand Rapids.—The property of the Brunel Falls Manufacturing company, Cornell, was sold under a decree of foreclosure for $1,500,000 to the Cornell Wood Product company.

Oconomowoc.—A gift of $100 from Mrs. W. B. Cushing of Fredonia, N. Y., has been received toward the fund for the monument to be erected in memtheir old home in Delafield. Mrs. Cushing is the widow of William B. Cushing, one of the three brothers in whose honor the monument is to be placed.

Madison.—The state railroad commission ordered the Grange Hall Farmers' Telephone company of Rockelm, Pierce county, to discontinue service on a new line built by the company in the town of Rockelm because it parallels a line of the Highland Telephone company of Elmwood. The Grange Hall company built the lines without authority from the railroad commis-

Eau Claire — Aug. 28 has been set as the date for the annual picnic and field meeting of the farmers of Eau Claire county. Silos, alfalfa, clover and crop rotation are some of the subjects to be discussed by speakers.

Aged Woman Swindled.

Waukesha.—Mrs. Andrews of Mukwonago, an elderly woman, was made the victim of a "bunco game." A man pretending to be an eyeglass fitter, visited the lady saying that he had been sent there by a Milwaukee physician. He later insisted that she write him a check for $75, which he cashed.

Kenosha.—Dr. J. H. Holm had a narrow escape from death when the automobile in which he was riding collided with a taxicab. Both automobiles were wrecked.

La Crosse.—Official announcement has been made of the La Crosse Interstate fair, which will be held here Sept. 22 to 25. A total purse of $4,500 has been carded. The fastest race on the program will be a 2:09 pace preceded by a 2:18 trot. More than $7,500 is offered this year in premiums.

Racine.-The campaign of the Racine Commercial club for county road improvements netted $3,000 in a single day. The Franksville road residents just outside the city contributed $600. Prospects are the campaign will be productive of results far beyond the expectation of the promoters.

THE NIGHT WATCHMAN THROWS LIGHT ON THE SUBJECT

ON'T take a big chew. Just a nibble will satisfy you, because "Right-Cut" is the Real Tobacco Chew.

Taste it, smell it—see how different it is from ordinary tobacco.

By the time you've used up half a pouch you'll be telling your friends about it, same as the men you hear talking about it now.

Pure, rich, sappy tobacco-seasoned and sweetened just enough.

Take a very small chew—less than one-quarter the old size. It will be more satisfying than a mouthful of ordinary tobacco. Just nibble on it until you find the strength chew that suits you. Tuck it away. Then let it rest. See how easily and evenly the real tobacco taste comes, how it satisfies without grinding, how much less you have to spit, how few chews you take to be tobacco satisfied. That's why it is The Real Tobacco Chew. That's why it costs less in the end.

It is a ready chew, fine and short shred so that you won't have o grind on it with your seth. Grinding on ordinary candied tobasco nakes you spit too much. The taste of pure, rich tobacco does not need to be sovered up with molesses and rice. Notice how the salt brings out the rich tobacco taste in "Right-Cut." One small chew takes the place of two big chews of the old kind.
