Paul A. Hemmy, collector of revenue for the eastern district of Wisconsin has mailed out the following circular, which is self explanatory.

Congress has reported the documentary and proprietary stamp act of October 22, 1914. The repeal was made effective at midnight September 8, 1916. Stamps are no longer required on any documents or proprietary articles hereafter required to be stamped under the above mentioned act.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS TO RE-OPEN

The Local Public Schools Will Re-open Monday, Sept. 18 A Large Attendance is Looked For School commences Monday, September 18th. This no doubt will be greeted by many with smiles and others with a frown. Preparations for the opening have been completed. The buildings have been gone over from cellar to attic and everything is in spick and span shape. All the necessary improvements voted upon at the last annual meeting have also been installed.

The Kewaskum High School this year offers a variety of courses that rank with the best in the state. It is stated that the enrollment this year will exceed any previous year. Up to the present time there have been numerous applications for entry by non-residents.

It is important to the welfare of the children and the school that they start on the opening day. The state laws concerning school attendance between the ages of seven and sixteen are now so stringent that parents will want to start their children promptly the first day.

ASSESSMENT OF 200% ADVISED

Stockholders of the Campbellport State Bank Hold Meeting. President Barber Present

An assessment of 200 per cent on each share of stock to meet an alleged shortage of $100,000 in unbankable securities, was recommended at the stockholders meeting of the Campbellport State Bank last week Thursday evening by Thomas Herried, Bank Examiner.

No definite action was taken, nor will any be taken until the stockholders definitely ascertain whether the alleged worthless paper can be converted into cash or secured.

F. J. Barber, president of the bank, whose whereabouts were unknown for a few days, was present at the meeting Thursday evening. He claims that only about $15,000 of the alleged shortage is unsecured by good collateral.

An attempt is being made to get security for the alleged worthless paper by converting it into cash or securing it otherwise. After this investigation another meeting of the stockholders will be held to discuss the financial condition of the institution. It is said that none of the depositors of the bank will lose by reason of the suspension of business, which has been in effect since September 8th.

Timely Warnings

THRESH ENGINE SPARKS—Another threshing season is here. Each year this department receives quite a large number of reports of fires caused by threshing engines. In a short time such fires often destroy the entire crop of grain in stacks, straw and nearby buildings. Why this hazard of the finished product on which you have spent months of labor? A little precaution, calling for little or no expense, will insure the safety of your grain stacks.

See to it that the threshing engine has a good spark arrester on its smoke stack, and that the engine is so placed that the wind will not carry sparks toward the stacks. Grain should be stacked away from buildings, so that a stack fire cannot spread also to the buildings. Smoking on or around grain or straw stacks should not be allowed under any circumstances. The engineer should keep all oily waste to the left and not allow such waste to lie around, to ignite straw spontaneously.

A barrel of water and a few pails or a couple of chemical fire extinguishers on hand and ready for use, will help to extinguish an incipient fire in your grain stacks.

RUBBISH—The dry season has again emphasized the great fire danger present in rubbish. A spark, a carelessly thrown match, cigarette or cigar stub easily ignites dry rubbish and may start a bad fire, often even a conflagration. Young times of drouth it is especially important that basements, alleys and yards be free from combustible waste and rubbish. Why jeopardize perhaps your all for a few cents of waste paper or excelsior?

CHIMNEYS—Soon you will again start up your stove fires. Has the chimney been cleaned and is it free from cracks and defects? Is the stove sound and resting on a metal stoveboard? Is the stove-pipe sound, well joined and rigidly partitioned or floor is it surrounded with a double thickness and heavy asbestos? Is the stove or smokepipe close to any unprotected woodwork?

JUST A LITTLE SANE ACTION NOW MAY SAVE A GREAT SORROW LATER.

Dated September 1, 1916.

M. J. CLEARY, Insurance Commissioner and Ex Officio State FIRE Marshal.

PURPOSES OF COUNTY FAIR

An Educational Institution in the Gaudy Garb of Amusement Washington County Fair to be Held Oct. 2-4

The Fair which the Washington County Agricultural Society will hold here for the 56th time on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, October 2, 3, and 4, is primarily an educational uplifting institution but with a good knowledge of human nature the management has always dressed it up in the raiment of gaudy amusement. It is a reminder of our childhood, that we liked to learn playfully, that we liked to be amused while we are learning. The mass of the people does not care for dry education, and it would be still harder to make them pay on top of it.

This is why the Fair officials see to it that plenty of free attractions and amusements are secured so that the County Fair remains true to its traditions extending over a period of more than a half-century. With the refinement of taste, that rapidly spreads over the cities, these attractions must of necessity also become refined, or they will lose as a drawing card. The Fair officials are daily considering these changing conditions. They also will endeavor to keep away all objectionable side shows which prey upon a public that in reality consists only of a few backward, or perverse individuals who, being ossified in their taste, still cling to the crudest sort of entertainment. These pitiable few are a very negligible quantity.

For the coming County Fair a number of high class attractions have been secured, which should be at any rate equal to those of recent years, which were admittedly first class. Prominent among them are balloon ascensions on Tuesday and Wednesday afternoon by the renowned aeronaut Prof. N. J. Kuptz after ascending up to the clouds, of which we hope there will be but a few during Fair days, the balloonist will drop with his parachute. A sight of this kind still has its old fascination, in spite of aeroplanes and Zeppelins. In addition to this the program announces eight free performances by world renowned acrobats and aerial artists including a Japanese troupe. These attractions will be shown in the afternoon at 2 o'clock.

A new feature will be the Night Fair to be held on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, the second and third Fair days consisting of expert instruction in improving farm life all around. Sight is a quicker instructor than hearing. The many new devices and machines exhibited, which are intended to make the burdens of the farmer and the wives easier, at once appeal to the eye, if they have intrinsic value. The mental process in this case works much faster and seemingly with no effort, as compared with any lengthy explanation which we do not care to listen to on such an occasion. The lessons in the marvelous improvement of farm machinery and devices for a better household economy, which the eye grasps at a twinkling, are among the greatest lessons which the County Fair offers.

MORE TRENCHES TAKEN BY FRENCH

Village of Bourcraevnes Captured by Joffre's Men.

GERMAN BASE IS PERILED

Allies Advance 600 Yards Beyond the Bapaume-Perrone Highway and Take 2,300 Prisoners—Loss Admitted by Berlin.

London, Sept. 14.—Continuing the spectacular offensive which marked a gain of two miles and at night captured the village of Bourcraevnes and advanced 600 yards beyond the Bapaume-Perrone highway, the French extended their gains both north and south of the Somme.

A total of more than 2,300 prisoners captured in this action is officially reported by Paris. The same statement announces a new advance on the German base of Comblès from the north and the capture of the entire German trench system south of Prize farm. Smashing German counter-attacks at several points are declared to have been repulsed.

The statement from the French war office follows:

"North of the Somme we have extended our positions on the part of the front that faces the village of Comblès and taken by assault south of the Prize farm, the whole system of German trenches. Violent fighting took place during the day on our center and right, where the Germans made great efforts to recapture their lost ground. Two German regiments made a violent attack against Bois L'Abbe, but were able to retake it, but an irresistible counter-offensive by our troops dislodged them again from this position, which we now hold in its entirety. South of ridge No. 76 the enemy also made attempts against our gains but our infantry maintained all our new positions.

"2,300 Prisoners Captured." "The number of unaccounted prisoners counted up to now is more than 2,300, and the amount of war material left by the Germans in the sector of Bouchevaines alone and counted up to now is ten cannon, including some of heavy caliber, and about 40 machine guns.

"To the right of the Meuse, after an intense artillery preparation, the Germans attacked our recently conquered positions east of Fleury. They were repulsed and left 70 prisoners in our hands."

The French afternoon report says:

"North of the Somme the battle continued with marked success for our arms. The village of Bouchevaines was attacked at 8 p. m. and was captured, despite powerful resistance.

"In the morning our troops continued their advance toward the east. They have taken by assault the farm and wood of L'Abbe, 600 yards east of the Bethune highway and south-east of Bouchevaines. We captured more prisoners during these engagements, and took a quantity of material.

"On the right bank of the Meuse (Verdun front) we made some progress in the northern section of Veux-Chapitre wood."

Berlin Admits Loss.

The German official statement follows:

"Front of Field Marshal Prince Rupprecht of Bavaria (Somme): The bottle north of the Somme has recommenced. Our troops are engaged in heavy fighting between Comblès and the Somme. The French entered Bouchevaines. Artillery duels of great violence continue on both sides of the Somme.

"Front of the German crown prince (Verdun): East of the Meuse attacks made by the French in the sector of Thiamont and Souville failed, causing them sanguinary losses."

RUSS GAIN AT HALICZ

TEUTONS FAIL TO WEAKEN GRIP OF SLAVS AROUND CITY.

Berlin Announces Repulse of Attacks With Heavy Losses—Germans Clash With Rumanians.

Petrograd, Sept. 14.—Teuton efforts to weaken the tightening grip of the Russians on Halicz resulted in complete failure. The war office announced that the Russians had frustrated attempts by their foes to cross the Bystritza river to the south of Jezupol, one of the outlying defenses of Halicz. The official war reports follow:

"Southward of Jezupol an enemy attempt to cross the Bystritza was frustrated by our troops.

"In the wooded Carpathians enemy counter-attacks against the heights in the region of the upper river Czarny-Charamosch were repulsed.

"In the Baltic Saturday evening our fleet bombarded enemy trawlers in the Irben straits and some ran ashore."

Bucharest, Sept. 14.—The Austrians are retreating from the upper Maros and Alto valleys in Transylvania without attempting any serious resistance, it was officially announced.

The capture of Orsova by the Rumanians has stopped the progress of Austrian and Bulgarian supply ships on the Danube.

Berlin, Sept. 14.—Complete repulse of Russian attacks with heavy losses is announced in the German report on operations in the eastern war theater. It shows also that German troops are now fighting the Rumanians in Transylvania in the Hermanstadt region.

BULGARS ROUT ITALIANS

Sofia War Office Announces Victory After First Battle With Emanuel's Troops.

London, Sept. 14.—The Bulgarian war office announced that Bulgarian troops had defeated Italian forces in the Balkans in the first battle fought by the soldiers of the two nations.

The statement follows: "Rumanian front—Our troops continue to advance on the bank of the Danube and in Dobrudja.

Macedonian front—On September 11 near Getrovo lake there were feeble artillery engagements and patrol activity. In the Mogliena district small enemy detachments were repulsed. In the Vassard valley and near Dolran there was lively artillery fire.

Two Italian companies with machine guns and one squadron of cavalry advanced in the region of Butkovo-Daumya, being dispersed by our counter-attacks. Thirty Italians were captured. This was our first encounter with Italians.

In a combat September 10 near Nevoyn and Kardziko the enemy lost seven officers and about one hundred men killed. We captured many rifles, bags of ammunition thrown away by the enemy in his panic-stricken flight and two Scotch officers, besides more than 100 British soldiers.

The German official statement shows German troops are fighting the Rumanians in Transylvania. The statement says:

"The enemy's fleet is cruising off the Aegean coast. Aerohydroplanes successfully attacked the enemy's fleet in the harbor of Kavala.

"In Transylvania German troops entered into fighting contact with Rumanians in the districts of Hermannstadt and southeast of Hoetzling."

Berlin Admits Loss.

The German official statement follows:

"Front of Field Marshal Prince Rupprecht of Bavaria (Somme): The bottle north of the Somme has recommenced. Our troops are engaged in heavy fighting between Comblès and the Somme. The French entered Bouchevaines. Artillery duels of great violence continue on both sides of the Somme.

"Front of the German crown prince (Verdun): East of the Meuse attacks made by the French in the sector of Thiamont and Souville failed, causing them sanguinary losses."

Augusta, Me., Sept. 13.—Maine went back to the Republican fold by a decisive margin in the biennial election held on Monday. The Republicans made a clean sweep, electing a governor, two United States senators, four congressmen and the legislature.

The Republican candidate for governor, Carl E. Milliken of Island Falls, was elected governor over the incumbent, Oakley C. Curtis, Democrat, by about 12,000. With but 48 precincts out of 635 in the state missing, the vote was: Milliken, 77,047; Curtis, 64,879.

Col. Frederick Hale, the Republican candidate for United States senator for the long term, was elected over Senator Charles F. Johnson of Waterville (Dem.), by approximately 9,000 votes. Johnson's wide personal popularity had given the Democrats great hope of his return.

Ex-Gov. Bert M. Fernald of West Poland, the Republican candidate for United States senator for the short term, was elected over Prof. Kenneth C. M. Sills of Bowdoin college (Dem.) with 7,500 votes to spare.

In the congressional election Louis B. Goodall of Sanford (Rep.) was elected in the First district over ex-State Auditor Lamont A. Stevens of Wells (Dem.) by 3,000; Wallace E. White, Jr., of Lewiston (Rep.) was elected over Congressman Daniel J. McGillicuddy of Lewiston (Dem.) in the Second district by about 500; Congressman John A. Peters of Ellsworth (Rep.) was elected over Secretary of State John E. Bunker (Dem.) in the Third district by 4,000, and Ira G. Herzog of Houlton (Rep.), over Leonard A. Pierce of Houlton (Dem.) in the Fourth district by 5,000. Lincoln county, for years strongly Democratic, turned to the Republicans.

White had a plurality over McGillicuddy of 473 votes. McGillicuddy's defeat was the surprise of the campaign. He carried his city—Lewiston—by 1,200, although he lost the city of Auburn, across the Androscoggin river, by 300.

Both branches of the legislature will be strongly Republican, whereas now the senate is Republican and the house Democratic, with the Democrats in control on joint ballot with the assistance of the five Progressive members.

CONGRESS ADJOURNS AFTER PASSING REVENUE BILL

Appropriations Break Record and Houses Act on Crisis Growing Out of European War.

Washington, Sept. 11.—In a session issued following the adjournment of congress on Friday, President Wilson called attention to the "helpful and humane legislation" passed and declared that while he regretted additional legislation dealing with the recent dispute between the railroads and their employees had not been completed he had every reason to believe the question would be taken up immediately after congress reassembles.

Congress, which adjourned at 10 a. m., appropriated exactly $1,626,439,210, which, with obligations and authorizations for the future, makes the total $1,558,384,485.

Just before adjournment, Representative Gardner of Massachusetts introduced a resolution, which he announced he would press at the winter session, for congressional investigation of organizations which it is alleged under foreign influence have attempted to affect elections of congressmen. He named the American Embargo conference and the American Commerce and Protective committee among those he wanted investigated to disclose the source of their financial support and to determine whether they have violated the neutrality of the United States.

U. S. MEAT SUPPLY PERILED

Beef Shipments Lead Increases as Total Animals Decrease, National City Bank Report Shows.

New York, Sept. 12.—The European war is encroaching seriously upon the meat supply of this country, according to figures made public by the foreign trade department of the National City bank. Notwithstanding the marked decrease in the number of food animals in the United States, exports of meat have tripled since the beginning of the war and of beef alone exports are greater by tenfold.

The compilation shows that exports of meat of all kinds, which amounted to $45,000,000 pounds in the fiscal year 1914, the year prior to the war, amounted to $85,000,000 in 1915 and 1,339,000,000 pounds in 1916. The increase of 100 per cent in the total meat exports during the first year of the war and 200 per cent in the second year is trifling when compared with the gain in beef exports alone. The quantity of fresh beef exported jumped from 6,400,000 pounds in 1914 to 170,000,000 in 1915 and 231,000,000 in 1916.

SEARCH U. S. SHIP

BRITISH VIOLATE NEUTRALITY BY HOLDING UP VESSEL IN TERRITORIAL WATERS.

BASIS FOR SPECIFIC PROTEST

It is Probable That Great Britain Will Be Called Upon to Restrict the Operations of Her Squadron—Act Occurred Off the Philippine Islands.

Washington, Sept. 14.—Brigadier General Liggitt, commander of American military forces in the Philippines, reported to the war department facts that show a clear violation of American neutrality when a British destroyer held up the American steamer Cebu off Carabao Island early Monday.

General Liggitt reported that the Cebu was a mile and a half inside American territorial waters when she was stopped and boarded.

The Cebu's captain was compelled to give Lieutenant Bailes, the British commander, the ship's manifest and passenger list.

The official report was laid before Secretary of State Lansing by the war department.

On releasing the Cebu, the lieutenant made this note in its log: "Boarded at 3:50 a. m., 9-11-16, examined and passed."

There has been more than one complaint about the activity of the British vessels around the Philippines, and while General Liggitt's report furnishes the basis for a specific protest, it is probable that Great Britain will be called upon to restrict the operations of her patrolling squadron generally in and near the islands.

RECORD ADVANCE FOR FRENCH

Capture Great German Trench System in Day—Take 1,500 Prisoners Menace Kaiser's Lines.

Paris, Sept. 14.—In the swiftest and most sensational advance recorded since the opening drive of the German offensive at Verdun the French on Tuesday swept forward south of the Somme, advanced two miles east of Comblès, captured the entire German defensive system in a triangle approximately two miles by three or four, established themselves along the vital Peronne-Bapaume highway and captured 1,500 prisoners.

In this sweeping advance, officially reported by Paris, less than half an hour was consumed. In the area captured lie not only a great German trench system, but the strategically important hills, No. 145 and No. 76, the Farrieres wood.

The advance to the Peronne-Bapaume road, the chief route of communication between these great German bases, The French advance thrusts a salient into the German front which menaces Comblès on three sides.

London, Sept. 14.—Defeated by the entente allies in a 36-hour battle, the Bulgarians are retreating along the Struma on the Macedonian front. Heavy losses were inflicted on the troops of Czar Ferdinand, whose forces are being pursued by the French and British.

Athens reports that the French have crossed the Struma and captured the village of Yeglinah, within ten miles of Demir-Hissar.

In addition entente troops west of the Vardar, near Majadag, four miles south of Gjevelj, on the Serbian border, have driven the Bulgarians from their positions along a two-mile front, penetrating the enemy's line to a depth of nearly one-half mile, Paris advices say.

German army headquarters announces heavy fighting along both the Struma and Vardar, declaring the operations in the latter region resulted successfully for the Bulgarians.

A FAMOUS neurologist said recently in a lecture: "We don't give our patients much medicine any more. We give them something to think about. If we can make a man put his thoughts on something constructive and shift the focus of his mind from his bodily ills, we can give him a good start on the road to health."

CHAPTER I

Then I'm to understand there's no hope for me? "I'm afraid not..." Greyserson said reluctantly, sympathy in his eyes. "None whatever." The verdict was thus brusquely emphasized by Hart, one of the two consulting specialists. Having spoken, he glanced at his watch, then at the face of his colleague, Bushnell, who contented himself with a tolerant waggle of his head, apparently meant to imply that the subject of their deliberations really must be reasonable. Whitaker looked quickly from one to the other of his three judges, acutely sensitive to the dread significance to be detected in the expression of each.

heard and afterwards remembered in vivid detail. "Seems to be the open season for runaways," Hamilton was saying. "It's only a few days since Thurlow Ladislus' daughter—what's her name?—Mary—took the bit between her teeth and bolted with the old man's chauffeur." Somebody asked: "How far did they get before old Ladislus caught up?" "He didn't give chase. He's not that kind. If he was put to it, old Thurlow could play the unforbearing parent in a melodrama with not any make-up whatever."

The page now stood beside him with a tray. "Open it," he told the boy, indicating a half-bottle of champagne; and then to Peter: "I'm having a bath. Won't you jump in?" Peter whistled, watching the wine cream over the brandy in the long glass. "King's peg, eh?" he said, with a lift of disapproving eyebrows. "Here, boy, bring me some Scotch and plain water for common people."

Whatever he had meant to say, he left unfinished because of the return of the page with his Scotch; but he had said enough to let Whitaker understand that he knew about the Carstairs affair. "That's all right," said Whitaker; "I'm not going to make a fool of myself, but I am in a pretty bad way. Boy—"

"You Look as if You'd Seen a Ghost."

most, Greyserson says so, at least, and when I didn't believe him he called in Hart and Bushnell to hold my ante-mortem. They made it unanimous. If I'm uncommonly lucky I may live to see next Thanksgiving. "You can't make me believe that," Peter insisted. "It just can't be so. A man like you, who's always lived clean... Why, look at your athletic record! I won't believe it!"

The KITCHEN CABINET

SAVING LITTLE THINGS. Worry is nothing but a diluted dribbling fear. See that all the hours of the day are so full of interesting and healthful occupations that there is no chance for worry to stick its nose in.—Luther Gulick. Keep your soap in an ordinary wire basket over the sink as the soap dishes hold water and waste the soap. Four boiling soft water on small pieces of soap and use as soft soap. A little water left in tubs and pails of wood will prevent them from falling in pieces. Brown paper folded and placed in a wall pocket or drawer are always handy for wrapping articles. Keep a ball of twine, made from winding bits of string from the various packages. Heat new irons, baking dishes and frying pans gradually to save them from cracking. Save all husks from green corn, dry, and use as stuffing for porch pillows, or they make fine kindling for the grate fire. Brooms should be hung or rested on the handle in order to keep the broomcorn straight. The yolk of egg left when making cake may be covered with a little cold water and used a day or two later. A dish of preserves left from yesterday's meal may be added to whipped cream and served as a sauce to rice, gelatin or cornstarch pudding. By giving thought to the daily routine, having a system, with the economy of time duly considered, a great amount of work may be accomplished with less wear and tear of nerves than work done with no planning. Water in which vegetables are cooked should be saved for soups. In preparing any dish get all the materials ready before beginning the preparation; then there will be no hurried looking for some ingredient which is found missing. Nonbreakable kitchen utensils are the greatest economy in the kitchen, keeping each utensil, if possible, for its special use. Do not prepare such an amount that there will always be left-overs. Every bit of meat, being our most expensive food, should be utilized. Goldfish, baked or boiled may be served as croquettes or as a salad with any cooked dressing. A cupful of cold boiled rice may be added to the breakfast muffins, greatly improving them.

LET'S HAVE A PICNIC.

Shun the habit of "putting off" as you would a temptation to crime. The moment you feel the temptation, jump up and go with all your might to the most difficult thing you have to do.—Orison Sweet Marden. A picnic, to be a really enjoyable affair and no burden to anyone, should be prepared without much planning. Now one may buy a picnic box all ready for the eats, paper plates, napkins and small tin spoons. These add greatly to the comfort as a heavy basket to be packed, repacked and carried is a burden. As these outings are for social pleasure and rest it is wise that they be planned with the minimum of work. Only the easily digested foods should be carried and special thought should be made for the children. Older people may indulge in rich cakes and highly seasoned foods, but the children should be spared. There is an endless variety of sandwiches which may be prepared: finely chopped meat, fish that has been rubbed to a paste with seasonings and cream or salad dressing. Nut bread with butter is always a favorite, granular, brown, white and whole wheat give a pleasant variety. Crisp slices of cucumber dipped in dressing and put between buttered bread are most refreshing sandwiches, but they will not bear standing even a half hour. Fruits are always acceptable, especially the juicy peaches, pears, apples, and melons. Tomatoes are easily carried and with a small jar of salad dressing a tempting salad may soon be prepared. Lemonade may be prepared all ready for the addition of cold water and the drink for the children is ready. Care should be taken as to the amount served if much other fruit is eaten. Fruits quench thirst and appease hunger without adding burden to the body. A cheap chafing dish with a can of fuel will save the bother of building a fire if one cares to deny themselves that enjoyment. With this chafing dish all sorts of creamed things may be prepared or a pot of coffee may be made. Put the coffee into small bags, allowing a tablespoonful for each person; then the bags may be dropped into the boiling water and there will be no grounds for complaint. Lacto.—Beat two eggs, add two cupfuls of sugar, four and a half cupfuls of sour milk, a half cupful of grape juice and a half cupful of lemon juice. Freeze as usual. Other fruit juices may be used as desired. This is a most wholesome and refreshing ice to serve during the summer.

Only the easily digested foods should be carried and special thought should be made for the children. Older people may indulge in rich cakes and highly seasoned foods, but the children should be spared. There is an endless variety of sandwiches which may be prepared: finely chopped meat, fish that has been rubbed to a paste with seasonings and cream or salad dressing. Nut bread with butter is always a favorite, granular, brown, white and whole wheat give a pleasant variety. Crisp slices of cucumber dipped in dressing and put between buttered bread are most refreshing sandwiches, but they will not bear standing even a half hour. Fruits are always acceptable, especially the juicy peaches, pears, apples, and melons. Tomatoes are easily carried and with a small jar of salad dressing a tempting salad may soon be prepared. Lemonade may be prepared all ready for the addition of cold water and the drink for the children is ready. Care should be taken as to the amount served if much other fruit is eaten. Fruits quench thirst and appease hunger without adding burden to the body. A cheap chafing dish with a can of fuel will save the bother of building a fire if one cares to deny themselves that enjoyment. With this chafing dish all sorts of creamed things may be prepared or a pot of coffee may be made. Put the coffee into small bags, allowing a tablespoonful for each person; then the bags may be dropped into the boiling water and there will be no grounds for complaint. Lacto.—Beat two eggs, add two cupfuls of sugar, four and a half cupfuls of sour milk, a half cupful of grape juice and a half cupful of lemon juice. Freeze as usual. Other fruit juices may be used as desired. This is a most wholesome and refreshing ice to serve during the summer.

Both contain less heat producing properties than heavy meats. Try them for summer luncheons and picnic tidbits. Libby, McNeill & Libby Chicago. Insist on Libby's at your grocer's.

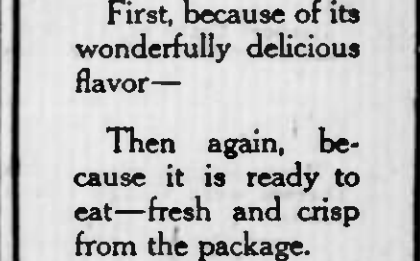

30 Cents per Pound. More of it sold in Wisconsin than any other one brand. Thirty years' experience in blending and roasting "Old Time Coffee" has produced a coffee that gives you more pleasure than any other one brand. There you tried it? John Hoffman & Sons Co. Milwaukee. Note: Our "Old Time Coffee" guarantees highest quality always.

Antidote for Loneliness. A little North side miss, whose mother is dead, lives with her little brothers and sister at the home of her grandmother. Her father, who is a physician, has his office and home in another part of the city. Surrounded by everything which brings happiness to the heart of a child, the little girl's thoughts often wandered to poor daddy, who was all alone. One day she surprised her grandmother with the startling remark: "Grandma, I wish daddy was a policeman."

Biblical Geography. A Chicago kiddie recently "stumped" his mother with this query: "What's the Miz?" "The Miz, dear? I'm sure I don't know. Where did you hear about it?" "At Sunday school. The superintendent said God made heaven and earth an' all that in the Miz!"

Suspicious. "I used to think Hobbs was as honest as the day, but I'm beginning to have my doubts." "What makes you distrust him?" "I called on him yesterday and saw four silk umbrellas in his room."

Gets Attention— First, because of its wonderfully delicious flavor— Then again, because it is ready to eat—fresh and crisp from the package. But the big "get attention" quality is its abundance of well-balanced, easily digestible nourishment. For sound health, every table should have its daily ration of Grape-Nuts— "There's a Reason"

Just suppose now that in Whitaker's battered mind the seed thought of suicide has started to swell and sprout—do you believe that the anticipation of a sea trip will kill the seed? There's a hint in this question.

(TO BE CONTINUED.) Not a Thief. Man who broke into the house while the owner was away and took nothing but a shave could scarcely be called a thief, because he went out with less than he came in with. Fine feathers often make the old man wear his suit another season.—Kansas City Journal.

Such is the opening remark of the principal character in the corking good story we have secured for our next serial

The Destroying Angel

By LOUIS JOSEPH VANCE

The doctors assure him that the mysterious disease from which he is suffering will be the death of him within six months. So the young man starts out in search of a quiet place where he can die peacefully and at once. His plan is frustrated by a chance meeting with a girl in distress, bent on suicide. He marries her so she may have the benefit of his fortune, then departs for the South Seas on a yachting trip with a friend.

Then things begin to happen; he doesn't die as predicted and he has all sorts of adventures in rapid succession. Every installment is alive with interest. Be sure you don't miss the issue containing the first one.

Watch for It!

The Destroying Angel begins in this issue of the Statesman. It is a story of absorbing interest and will hold your attention to the last chapter.

GOOD EFFECTS OF TROUBLE

Much of the Advancement of the World May Be Traced to Those Pugnaciously Inclined.

Most of us love trouble—that is, most of the human race. Man cannot remain contentedly out of trouble for any length of time, it seems.

Take the matter of politics, if you please. Half of the political troubles we read about are unnecessary.

Of course all of us like to flatter ourselves that we are doing something for the nation or the country or a group of people.

Mixing His Lines. The primer class at school was reading the story of Dick Whittington.

The teacher, calling on a little lad to read, was amazed to hear the child say glibly, without even looking at his book:

Important to Mothers Examine carefully every bottle of CASTORIA, a safe and sure remedy for infants and children, and see that it bears the Signature of J. C. FLETCHER.

Powerful Combination. Tim was a protégé of Mr. Blank, a well-known lawyer. He was often in trouble, but by personal influence with the courts Mr. Blank managed to have him let down easy.

"It's just this way," Tim replied, "I have Mr. Blank for my lawyer, and what he doesn't know about law I tell him."

DADDY'S EVENING FAIRY TALE BY MARY GRAHAM BONNER

EARTH VISITS MOON.

"Some time ago," commenced Daddy, "when it was night, and all the little Boys and Girls in the Land were sound asleep, there was an eclipse of the Moon."

"And before I go further I think I must tell you what an Eclipse is—for it sounds rather big and awful, doesn't it?"

"Well, when Mr. Moon is 'Eclipsed' as they say, it means the earth gets in the way, and when Mr. Sun is 'Eclipsed' it means that Mr. Moon is in the way.

"I'm Pretty Important, I Am." "Goodness! he was round and big and then he winked with the other, and he said to himself:

"The Earth is going to pay me a visit tonight. I am highly honored. It's not often that the Earth comes my way—and that's why I am all dressed up in my best."

"Pretty soon the Grown-Ups down on the Earth saw a dark light come over part of Mr. Moon's face.

"I'm pretty important, I am," said Mr. Moon to two very tall Pine Trees.

"Yes, Mr. Moon, you're very important. And you show us off too. We look handsome, and dark, and tall, when you throw your light over us."

"Hush—!" said Mr. Moon. "The Earth is on its way."

"And half of Mr. Moon could only be seen now. The other half was covered up by a dark shadow."

"That's the Earth throwing its shadow on the Moon," said the Grown-Ups to each other.

"Well, how do you do, Mr. Earth? It's a long time since I've seen you. And how have you been all this time?"

"Well," said the Earth, as it cast its shadow over Mr. Moon still more, "I've been in my usual good health. I still am a pretty good and solid soul, you know. I stand for so much too! I let folks walk all over me, and still I never mourn in the least."

"I let the King of the Clouds pour down on me—and Mr. Sun warms me up with his rays so that I begin to grow thirty again."

"And the Earth continued, 'sometimes Children dig me up—and I don't mind in the very least. It's just my nature I suppose!'"

"Yes," said Mr. Moon—"you are a good-natured old soul."

"Old?" asked the Earth. "Why every Spring I am just as young and fresh again as if I were not a minute old. Whatever do you mean, Mr. Moon?"

"That's true," said Mr. Moon. "You certainly do come up younger every Spring—but you have been around a great, great many years."

"It's a good thing I have," laughed the Earth, "and now tell me how you have been?"

"Mr. Moon was almost entirely covered by the Earth's shadow as he began his talk: 'I am shining as brightly as ever, and I still change my suit several times a month. In fact there's not much difference in me—or in my life. I do much the same things all ways. I'm what you might call a very sensible old fellow. I do everything right on time, and enjoy myself hugely!'"

"There, there," said the Earth. "I must be going again."

"What short visits you pay," said Mr. Moon as he began to show his brightness again.

"Do you know why I do that?" whispered the Earth.

"No," said Mr. Moon, and he took a little walk along the Sky:

"Because," said the Earth, "Grown-Ups think it's a wonderful thing when I call on you then. I don't let them get used to it—and so they think that it's very, very nice—and I don't look at all the Earth People, and then you'll agree with me."

"And of course, true enough, down on the Earth, everyone was looking at the Eclipse."

TO hold "its place in the sun," is the avowed purpose of a great nation's conflict. To hold "its place in the sun," is the object of every business in the great fight for industrial and commercial supremacy.

Certain-teed Roofing

takes "its place in the sun" and holds it longer than other similar roofing, because it is made of the very best quality roofing felt, thoroughly saturated with the correct blend of soft asphalts, and coated with a blend of harder asphalts.

The blend of asphalts used by "The General" is the result of long experience. It produces a roofing more pliable than those which have less saturation, and which are, therefore, harder and drier.

At each of the General's big mills, expert chemists are constantly employed to refine, test and blend the asphalts used; also to experiment for possible improvements.

The quality of CERTAIN-TEED is such that it is guaranteed for 5, 10 or 15 years, according to thickness (1, 2 or 3 ply). Experience proves that it lasts longer. Behind this guarantee is the responsibility of the world's largest manufacturer of roofings and building papers.

A Woman's Problem

How to Feel Well During Middle Life Told by Three Women Who Learned from Experience.

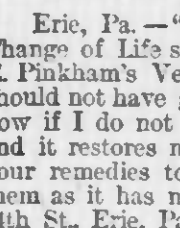

The Change of Life is a most critical period of a woman's existence, and neglect of health at this time invites disease and pain. Women everywhere should remember that there is no other remedy known to medicine that will so successfully carry women through this trying period as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs.

Philadelphia, Pa.—"I started the Change of Life five years ago. I always had a headache and backache with bearing down pains and I would have heat flashes very bad at times with dizzy spells and nervous feelings. After taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I feel like a new person and am in better health and no more troubled with the aches and pains I had before I took your wonderful remedy. I recommend it to my friends for I cannot praise it enough."—Mrs. MARGARET GRASSMAN, 759 N. Ringgold St., Philadelphia, Pa.

Beverly, Mass.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, for nervousness and dyspepsia, when I was going through the Change of Life. I found it very helpful and I have always spoken of it to other women who suffer as I did and have had them try it and they also have received good results from it."—Mrs. GEORGE A. DUNBAR, 17 Roundy St., Beverly, Mass.

Eric, Pa.—"I was in poor health when the Change of Life started with me and I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, or I think I should not have got over it as easy as I did. Even now if I do not feel good I take the Compound and it restores me in a short time. I will praise your remedies to every woman for it may help them as it has me."—Mrs. E. KISSLING, 931 East 24th St., Eric, Pa.

No other medicine has been so successful in relieving woman's suffering as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Women may receive free and helpful advice by writing the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. Such letters are received and answered by women only and held in strict confidence.

$200 or $300 MORE, AND WHAT A DIFFERENCE!

I once bought a 98-cent razor. For two weeks I shaved with it. Then I bought another one. I paid $3.50 and I still have it. Nobody can persuade me to part with it. And I challenge anybody to convince me that a 98-cent razor is cheaper than a $3.50 one.

No, gentlemen, the $3.50 razor is cheaper. It costs more, keeps a keen edge, gives me a good shave every day and lasts a lifetime.

No with the Chalmers car. It costs a little more—perhaps $200 or $300 more than some other cars. And what a difference that $300 makes!

The Chalmers keeps going day in, day out; year after year. It always looks the part. About all you need do is look after the gas, oil, water and grease cups.

And Chalmers gives five-year life. The average Chalmers owner keeps his car at least five years before he sells it second-hand or trades it in.

Quite a difference between the 3400 r. p. m. Chalmers and many other cars in that one respect.

Aside from all this—the performance of the 1917 Chalmers will make you catch your breath.

SAYS GERMANS BACK WILSON

OUTCRY AGAINST HIM IS TO GET G. O. P. VOTES

German-American Declares Voters Will Consult Their Pocket Books and Consider Welfare of Families First

(The Milwaukee Journal's Special Service, Sept. 11, 1916.)

PHILADELPHIA—The outcry against President Wilson's foreign policies raised by the German-American alliance is denounced by Emil Haefner, a German-American of this city, as a pretext to get votes for the Republican party. President Haefner and his fellow workers have always been Republicans, he says; and he predicts that German Democrats and Independents as well as many Republicans are going to vote for Wilson. In a communication published in The Record Mr. Haefner writes:

"Here is what I consider an absolutely fair, impartial, non-political proposition, and I offer it as sane, sound advice to all voters at the November election: All laborers, mechanics—wage earners of all kinds—farmers, shopkeepers and other businessmen, including manufacturers, bankers, builders and men in every vocation of life who have had better incomes enjoyed more prosperity and in other respects benefited from improved conditions the past three and a half years under the Wilson administration than they had for four and a half years under Taft for seven and a half years under Roosevelt and for four and a half years under McKinley, vote for Wilson so as to continue present conditions; in other words, to vote to leave well enough alone and against a change.

Welfare Close to Voters.
"A very large majority of the voters will take this view in November, because a man's pocket-book and the welfare of his family are nearer to him than political parties and that is why Wilson will win in a walk.

"I am a German and I resent the false attitude in which Haefner and his German alliance are placing me and my race with the American people. Unless that crowd disbanded and shut up, all citizens of German extraction will be in disfavor in this country after the election and the stigma of lack of patriotism and loyalty to the United States will stick to all of us with German blood in our veins, and we will be unpopular many years to come. Haefner, Weissman, Bartholdt and the rest of that crowd have always been Republicans and their alleged grievances against Wilson are only a pretext on their part to get votes for their party. German Democrats and Independents are not going to be fooled by such a transparent plot, and they are going to vote for Wilson, as are some German Republicans, I know, who are getting more wages, have more steady employment and are more prosperous than they were before Wilson became president.

"Wilson Did His Duty"
Wilson in his diplomatic correspondence with Germany regarding the Lusitania and other incidents simply did his duty—did what international law, which was on the books when he went into office, and for which he is not responsible, compelled him to do, and what the oath he took demanded of him. He did nothing to which any fair minded German can object. To the contrary, Roosevelt blackguarded the Germans shamefully, while Wilson never said an unkind word to them; and yet Haefner et al. have the nerve to ask us Germans to vote against Wilson for Hughes, who has undoubtedly tied himself up with Roosevelt to make him the premier of his cabinet and let him run his administration if elected for the sake of getting the Progressive vote. Think of that, my fellow Germans!"

Mrs. Amalia Klug, whose maiden name was Amalia Polzean, was born in Germany September 12th, 1845. She immigrated to this country when a young girl. Her union with Mr. Klug was blessed with five children; one daughter preceded the mother in death. The funeral, which was very largely attended, was held on Sunday afternoon in the Evangelical Lutheran church, the Rev. G. Kanies officiated. The remains were laid to rest in the congregation's cemetery.

Besides her grief stricken husband, she leaves to mourn her loss one son, Edwin Klug; three daughters, Mrs. August Stuege, Mrs. Charles Staeg and Mrs. Fred Schultz; seven grand children and a large number of relatives and friends. Mrs. Klug was always a devoted christian, a kind and loving wife and mother. Her acquaintances were very large, who extend deep sympathy to the bereaved relatives in this hour of sorrow.
