E. L. HUSTING IS CALLED BY DEATH

Pioneer Manufacturer Succumbs at Milwaukee After Short Illness. Headed Soda Works

E. L. Husting, president of the E. L. Husting company, manufacturer of soda water and weiss beer at Milwaukee, died Tuesday in Sacred Heart sanitarium, after a short illness from a complication of heart trouble and paralysis of the throat.

Mr. Husting was 68 years old. He was born in Luxembourg Aug. 24, 1848.

FIRST DROVE WAGON

His first employment in Milwaukee was with a confection concern for whom he drove a wagon selling "Yaukee Notions." Later he was employed by Philip Altpeter, pioneer brewer and malster, at Third and Sherman streets.

Mr. Husting embarked in business for himself in 1876, when he manufactured soda water and mineral waters, later adding weiss beer as a part of the business. His first factory was located in the basement of his dwelling, and all departments of the work were performed by Mr. Husting himself, assisted by his wife and children.

The business later grew to one of the largest and most modern of its kind in the state.

COMPANY IS INCORPORATED.
In 1900 the E. L. Husting company was incorporated, the stockholders consisting of Mr. Husting and his sons. Mr. Husting has been the president of the directing head of the business to the time of his death.

Mr. Husting took a deep interest in civic and municipal affairs. He was a member of many societies. Among these were the Old Settlers' club, the Milwaukee Verein, Deutscher club, the Milwaukee club, the Brewers' Benevolent association, the Eintracht society, Vorwarts society, the Milwaukee Sharpshooters society, the Merchants and Manufacturers' association, the Knights of the Macca-bees and others. Mr. Husting was a familiar figure on the annual trade excursions of the Merchants and Manufacturers' association.

FUNERAL ON FRIDAY

Mr. Husting is survived by his widow, three sons, Oscar T. E. L. Husting, Jr., and Bert, who are associated with their father in the E. L. Husting company; two daughters, Miss Elizabeth, and Mrs. E. J. Henning, San Diego, Cal., as well as two brothers, John E. Husting, Campbellport, Wis., and Peter Husting, Hastings, Minn., and two sisters, Mrs. J. V. Harter, Kewaskum, Wis., and Mrs. James Bannan, Mott, N. D. United States Senator Paul Husting, Mayville, is a cousin of Mr. Husting.

Funeral services were held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the family residence, 515 Galena street. Burial was made in Union cemetery.—Milwaukee Free Press.

MISS LAURA ZAHN BECOMES BRIDE

Well Known Ashford Young Lady United in Marriage to Louis Angeloff Will Reside on Farm at Lomira

Miss Laura Zahn and Louis Angeloff, both well known young people of the town of Ashford, were married at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. August Zahn. The Rev. W. R. Scherf performed the ceremony, and the wedding march was played by Mrs. A. Luedtke, a sister of the bride.

Miss Zahn was attired in a Copenhagen blue silk taffeta gown trimmed with georgette crepe and carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums.

Following the ceremony a reception was held and a wedding dinner served to a company of about 200 guests, relatives and friends. The residence was prettily decorated in pink and white. Mrs. A. Luedtke, Mrs. Otto Guell, Irving Zahn and Fred Unterhast assisted the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Angeloff will go immediately to housekeeping on a farm in the town of Lomira, where they will be at home to their friends after January 1st.

Big Fire at Boltonville

Last Wednesday evening at about 10 o'clock fire destroyed the Boltonville hotel and saloon, the barn, ice house and garage adjoining same and the Schoetz wagon shop nearby. The fire started in the Schoetz wagon shop and was of unknown origin. On account of the heavy wind blowing at the time of the fire, the flames spread rapidly. The hotel and saloon, owned by the Rapfom Lake Brewery, which was in the path of the flames, also caught fire and burned to the ground, together with the barn, ice house and garage. The loss to Mr. Schoetz will be about $300, partly covered by insurance. The hotel and saloon was run by William Raetzer, who had been in there since July. It will be a big loss to Mr. Raetzer as his automobile and the contents of the saloon and hotel were completely burned, with only a small amount of insurance covering same. Belger Bros. blacksmith shop which was in close proximity to the burned buildings, was saved. The Bostonville fire company was telephoned for and arrived on the scene in time to save other buildings in the vicinity. We were unable to learn whether the buildings would be rebuilt or not.

Complete Election Returns

Madison, Wis., Nov. 27.—Complete official returns, including the soldier vote, received by the secretary of state show that United States Senator Robert M. La Follette received a plurality of 118,162 over his Democratic opponent, William F. Wolfe.

His plurality this year exceeds by more than 15,000 the largest plurality ever before given to any candidate for any office within the gift of the people of Wisconsin. It is 15,000 larger than La Follette's plurality of six years ago when he received more than 100,000 over S. A. Cook in the Republican primary of 1910. It was 90,000 larger than the plurality given Hughes, and is more than 45,000 greater than the plurality given Governor Philipp.

La Follette received a total of 253,370 votes, or approximately 25,000 more than Hughes and more than 20,000 more than Philipp.

La Follette carried every county in the state excepting two, Kewaunee and Ozaukee. The plurality against him in Kewaunee was but 191 and in Ozaukee was only eighteen.

Woodmen Dance a Big Success

Last Thursday evening, Thanksgiving, the Modern Woodmen camp of this village gave another of their excellent dances in the Kewaskum House. It was a huge success and demonstrated to the people that the Woodmen are in the front rank when it comes to entertainment and occasions of this order. The number of dance tickets sold was something over 225. It was an ideal night and people came from far and near to get in on the festivities. An elegant chicken supper was served by Mrs. Adolph Backhaus, which was greatly enjoyed by all.

QUESTION OF BONDING THE COUNTY

$500,000 Bond Issue to be Voted Upon Next Spring. To Build Concrete Roads Across Entire County

The County Board of Supervisors at its meeting last Friday adopted a resolution which authorizes the submitting to a vote of the people at next spring's election the question of bonding the county in the sum of $500,000 for the construction of a system of permanent highways. The resolution was carried by a vote of 15 to 6, those voting against it being Backhaus of the town of Kewaskum, Burke of Erin, Harris of Arcenton, Kraetsch of Farmington, Muehrer of Polk, and Robinson of this city. The object of this bond issue is to build concrete roads across the county, from east to west and from north to south, two or three roads each way. It is estimated that if the bond issue carries and the $500,000 is available from the county, the state and the national aid to be added to the sum will bring it up to nearly a million dollars which sum will be sufficient to build one hundred miles of concrete roads. If a vote were taken on the question at this time it would be defeated, no doubt, but those who are advocating the question confidently believe that with a vigorous campaign of education on good roads, showing the folly of constructing state roads, and the great waste of money, the proposition can be carried. As there are two sides to every question, The Pilot will cheerfully give space to articles either for or against the bond issue, asking only that the author sign his or her name to the article. This is a proposition that should be given the most careful study, and we hope our readers will avail themselves of the opportunity to present their views to their fellow tax payers.—West Bend Pilot.

Former Kewaskum Boy Making Good

The following article was taken from the Beach Advance of Beach, North Dakota, and has the following to say of Mr. Hugo Klumb, a former Kewaskum boy: "It was the privilege of the writer to accompany Prof. Klumb to the Strahon school house last Saturday evening, where he was billed to deliver the extension lecture under the auspices of the Beach Agricultural High School. A capacity house greeted the speaker and his lecture was listened to with a great deal of interest. At its conclusion it was a most pleasing feature to have a number of questions asked relative to the subject, by people in the audience, each of which Mr. Klumb answered in a satisfactory way. This lecture is really a corn-cob, and is profusely illustrated with slides specially prepared to bring out the several points as they are taken up. Our little corn experience gave us just enough incite to bring home the importance of the point brought out by Prof. Klumb and his careful preparation of the subject. Corn is a most important crop wherever agriculture is practiced and will come into its own in this territory in time. At the conclusion of the lecture Prof. Hummel, superintendent of the manual training department of our school, gave a very interesting talk on the short course which opens on December 4, and to which tuition is free. He explained that in the manual training department instructions were given in the proper handling of tools. The importance of which can be readily realized upon the farm. Altogether it was a very successful evening.

KEWASKUM REGULARS DEFEATED

Snappy Segar Specials of Milwaukee Win by Narrow Margin of 17 to 16

In one of the fastest and most hotly contested basket ball games ever pulled off on the local floor our five were defeated by the close score of 17 to 16, by the strong Segar Specials of Milwaukee. The game was a close one throughout and although the Segar Specials are classed with the strongest teams in the state, our boys gave them a pretty hard run. The game was considered quite rough, but the spectators standpoint, but aside from the rough tactics of one of the Milwaukee players, it was a pretty clean game. In fast passing and team work the Cream City five had a shade the best of our boys, but in shooting baskets our quintette made up the deficiency in pass and team work. The game was replete in thrills from start to finish. The one unsportsmanlike feature of the game happened in the last half, with only two minutes to play, when O'Connors of the Specials slugged our center, Edgard Romaine, in the nose, thus putting it out of joint, and incidentally putting Mr. Romaine out of the game. Outside of this instance the visitors were a very gentlemanly bunch of players and we hope to see them play a return game here at some future date. Tonight, Saturday, our five go to Seasideville to meet the strong team of that place in their opening game. The next game at home for our boys will be with the Lawrence Specials of Appleton. Following is the lineup of the game last Saturday evening:

Kewaskum: Miller F., Hooley M., Rosenheimer F., O'Connor E., Romaine C., Weber A., Rosenheimer G., Holt G., Schaefer G., Risch W., Schaefer Sub. Strange

Baskets: Hooley 3, O'Connors 3, Strange 2, Miller 3, M. Rosenheimer 2. Free throws: Miller 6-7, Holt 1-1.

CALLED TO HER HEAVENLY HOME

Mrs. Peter Dricken Passes Away at Her Home Here After a Lingerin Illness

Another of our esteemed citizens passed away in eternal sleep Saturday, November 25th at 2 P. M. at her home here, after an illness of a little over a year's duration with diabetes. Mrs. Maggie Dricken was born in Germany on February 14, 1847, and immigrated to this country with her parents when three years of age, settling in Barton. On the 27th of May, 1867, she was joined in wedlock to Mr. Peter Dricken. They made their home on a farm in the town of Barton for several years, and six years ago came to this village where they have since resided. Eleven children were born to them, of whom five survive, namely: Ed J. of Whitefish Bay, Barbara, Mrs. John Gabriel of Milwaukee; Sir P. of Milwaukee; Catherine, Mrs. Henry Schools of West Bend; Mary, Mrs. L. Schiller of the town of Barton. She also leaves to mourn her loss her husband and one brother Joseph Niebler of West Bend. Mrs. Dricken was always of a kindly disposition and was beloved by all who had the pleasure of knowing her. Her absence will not only be missed by her immediate family, but by the entire community in which she has lived and loved. The funeral services were held from the Holy Trinity church in this village at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning, Rev. Vogt officiating. Interment took place in the congregation's cemetery. May her soul rest in everlasting peace.

CARD OF THANKS

We desire to thank all those friends and neighbors who so kindly assisted us during the illness, death and burial of our beloved wife and mother, Maggie Dricken, and also to all those who showed their respect for the departed by attending the funeral.

AN OLD TIME NAVAL EVENT.

John Paul Jones' Greatest Exploit, the Defeat of the Serapis.

Following up many feats of daring, John Paul Jones in the summer of 1778 captured near the English coast the British twenty gun warship Drake, of superior build to his vessel, the Ranger, and carried it into Brest with 160 prisoners. He had already won renown in America, and as a result of the ship Drake, furnished by French government, a recognition of his valor, Jones changed the name of the ship to Bonhomme Richard and in August, 1779, sailed with a squadron of five vessels, three American and two French, for the coast of Scotland, creating ever greater alarm among the inhabitants than had been done on a previous raid.

When off Flamborough, Jones fell in with a fleet of forty-one British merchantmen returning from the Baltic and convoyed by two powerful men-of-war—the Serapis, carrying forty guns, and the Countess of Scarborough, with twenty guns. On the evening of Sept. 23, 1779, Jones engaged the Serapis in battle, and after the hours of desperate fighting, during which the two ships were lashed together, the Serapis surrendered. The Bonhomme Richard, however, was so badly damaged that it sank two days later, the crew in the meantime being transferred to the Serapis.

For this victory, his most famous exploit, Jones, upon his arrival in Paris, was presented by Louis XVI. with a gold mounted sword and was decorated with the cross of the Order of Military Merit. Upon his return to America, in 1781, congress voted him a gold medal, passed a resolution commending his "zeal, prudence and intrepidity," assigned him to the command of a ship of the line then building and proposed to create for him the rank of rear admiral. He also received a complimentary letter from General Washington.

Waubeka Roller Mill Sold

The Waubeka Roller Mill was sold last Monday by J. P. Pallansch its sole owner since the year 1890, to Ernst J. Klessig, who took immediate possession. The sale also includes the pearl button factory and lots adjoining the mill property. Mr. Pallansch will assist Mr. Klessig for a short time until the new owner becomes acquainted with the details. Mr. Pallansch has been engaged in the milling business for forty-eight years and intends to live quietly and enjoy the fruits of his industry for the remainder of his years. With his estimable wife to accompany him it is quite probable that Mr. Pallansch will spend some months visiting relatives in various parts of the country, but no immediate departure is contemplated.—Random Lake Record.

Federal Reserve Board Sees Peril in Purchase of Short-Term Notes—Formal Statement Issued From Washington—Blow to Financiers.

Washington, Nov. 29.—The federal reserve board issued a statement on Monday warning banks and the public against the purchase of short-term foreign notes.

The statement will be a severe blow to the financiers who were planning to float these loans in the United States. The statement says in part:

"In view of contradictory notes which have appeared in the press regarding its attitude toward the purchasing of banks in this country of treasury bills of foreign governments, the board deems it a duty to define its position clearly.

"The board believes that at this time banks should proceed with much caution in locking up their funds in long term obligations which are short term in form or name, but which, either by contract or through force of circumstances, may have to be renewed until normal conditions return. The board's concern and responsibility lies primarily with the banking situation.

"If, however, our banking institutions have to intervene because foreign securities are offered faster than they can be absorbed by investors—that is, their depositors—an element would be introduced which, if not kept under control, would tend toward instability and ultimate injury to the economic development of this country.

"While the loans may be short in form and severally may be collected at maturity, the object of the borrower must be to attempt to renew them collectively, with the result that the aggregate amount placed here will remain until such time as it may be advantageously converted into a long-term obligation. It would, therefore, seem that funds of our banks, which should be available for short credit facilities to our merchants, manufacturers and farmers, would be absorbed for other purposes to a disproportionate degree, especially in view of the fact that many of our banks are already carrying foreign obligations which they are under agreement to renew.

"The board deems, therefore, its duty to caution the member banks that it does not regard it in the interest of the country at this time that they invest in foreign treasury bills of this character."

Mrs. Boissevain went to Europe as a delegate on the Ford peace ship, but left the party at Stockholm.

London, Nov. 29.—The foreign office has sent Ambassador Page a note definitely refusing to grant a safe conduct to Count Adam Tarnowski von Tarnow, the new Austro-Hungarian ambassador to the United States.

AMERICAN-MEXICAN CONFEREES SETTLE ON PACT.

General Pershing to Cross Border Within Forty Days After Signing of Protocol.

Atlantic City, N. J., Nov. 27.—An agreement was reached between the American and Mexican delegates to the joint conference here. It provides:

The provision is made that the time may be extended if conditions in northern Mexico are such as to constitute a menace to United States soil. The details of the withdrawal are left to General Pershing.

2. That United States troops thereafter shall patrol their side of the border and Mexican troops theirs, in order to guard against raids. Cooperation between both forces in case of necessity is provided.

ROADS ASK RELIEF OF U. S.

Revolutionary Change in Relations Asked of Congress—See Government Ownership.

Washington, Nov. 28.—The railroads of the country made a flat demand on Thursday for a revolutionary change in the relations of the government to the railroads.

General Counsel A. P. Thom of the railroad executives' committee told the Newlands joint congressional committee investigating interstate commerce conditions that unless the present system of railroad control is reformed, government ownership of the entire railroad systems of the country is inevitable.

Mr. Thom opened the testimony for the railroads with an outline of the positions the railroads take concerning railroad regulations. He declared the present system has almost completely precluded new railroad construction and has endangered the credit of all railroads.

The defendants are Miss Fannie Selling, Frank Ledvinka, James Oates and Hiram Stevens.

"What I wished to convey was simply my intention no longer to bear my masculine weight upon a woman—either you or any other woman."

A smile contended momentarily with the frown, and triumphed brilliantly. "I mean to ask you," he said deliberately, "to whom am I indebted?"

"This one knocked about, mostly, for his health's sake. I did drift into a sort of business, after a bit—gold mining in a haphazard, happy-go-lucky fashion—did pretty well at it and came home to astonish the natives."

"You find things—New York—disappointing?" she analyzed his tone.

"I find it overpowering—and lonely. Nobly sent a brass band to greet me at the dock; and all the people I used to know are either married and devoted to brats, or divorced and devoted to bridges; and my game has gone off so badly in six years that I don't belong any more."

She smiled, shaping her scarlet lips deliciously. The soft, warm wind whipped stray strands of hair, like cords of gold, about her face. Her eyelids were half lowered against the intolerable splendor of the day. The waters of the bay, wind-blurred and dark, seemed a shield of sapphire fashioned by nature solely to set off in clear relief her ardent loveliness.

Whitaker, noting how swiftly the mainland shores were disclosing the finer details of their beauty, could have wished the bay ten times as wide.

There is reason to believe that Ember and the young woman, who helped Whitaker after his fight on the beach with the strange spy, have some sort of plan concerning Whitaker which they don't want him to understand. It is outlined and strong hints are given about it in this installment. You will be puzzled by developments.

Then, in a casual voice, she inquired: "You've been out of the country for some time, I think you said?"

"Almost six years on the other side of the world—got back only this spring."

"What," she asked, eyes averted, spying out the channel—"what does one do on the other side of the world?"

"This one knocked about, mostly, for his health's sake. I did drift into a sort of business, after a bit—gold mining in a haphazard, happy-go-lucky fashion—did pretty well at it and came home to astonish the natives."

CHAPTER XI.

The Mousetrap.

Late in the afternoon of the same day, Ember, appearing suddenly in front of the bungalow, discovered Whitaker sitting up in state; a comfortable wicker chair supported his body and a canvas-seated camp stool one of his feet; which last was discreetly veiled in a dripping bath towel.

"I merely wondered. You see, I... Well, to tell the truth, I took the liberty of camping on his trail, while in town. But I couldn't find any trace of him."

"Oh, I say!" Whitaker expostulated, touched by this evidence of disinterested thoughtfulness. "You persuade yourself too much, old man. You set up an inference and idolize it as an immortal truth. Why, you had me going for a while. Only last night there was a fellow skulking round here, and I was just dippy enough, thanks to your influence, to think he resembled Drummond. But this morning I got a good look at him, and he's no more Drummond than you are."

Ember sat up, eyes snapping. "Who was he, then? Tell me about him—everything."

Whitaker resignedly delivered himself of the tale of the mare's nest—as he still regarded it. When he had come to the lame conclusion thereof, Ember yawned and rose.

"What are you going to do about it?" Whitaker inquired with irony.

"Wash and make myself fit to eat food," was the response. "I may possibly think a little. It's an exhilarating exercise which I don't hesitate to recommend to your distinguished consideration."

He was out of earshot, within the bungalow, before Whitaker could think up an adequately insolent retort. He could, however, do no less than smile incredulously at the beautiful world—so much, at least, he owed to his self-respect.

In the deepening twilight a mental shadow came to cloud the brightness of Whitaker's confident contentment. Neither good food nor good company seemed able to mitigate his sudden seizure of despondency. He sat glowering over his plate and glass, the burden of his conversation yea, yea and nay, nay. His host diagnosed his complaint from beneath shrewd eyebrows.

"Whitaker," he said at length, "a pessimist has been defined as a dog that won't scratch."

"Well," said the other sourly. "Come on. Be a sport. Have a good scratch on me."

Whitaker grinned reluctantly and briefly.

"Where's my wife?" he demanded abruptly.

"How in blazes—?" "There you are!" Whitaker complained. "You make great pretensions, and yet you fall down flat on your foolish face three times in less than as many hours. You don't know who the Fiskes are, you've lost track of your pet myth, Drummond, and you don't know where I can find my wife."

"Acquaintance of yours, I believe—Miss Fiske?" There was unfeigned amazement in the echo.

"Anything wonderful about that?" inquired Whitaker, sharply. "I fancied from what she said that you two were rather good friends."

"Just surprised—that's all," said Ember, recovering. "You see, I didn't think the Fiske place was open this year."

He stared suspiciously at Whitaker, but the latter was transparently ingenuous.

"She expressed an unaccountable desire to see you—told me to tell you."

"Oh? Such being the case, one would think she might've waited."

"She had just started home when you drove in," Whitaker explained with elaborate ease. "She'd merely run over for a moment to inquire after my ankle, and couldn't wait. I say, who are the Fiskes, anyway?"

"Well... the Fiskes are the people who own the next cottage."

"I know, but—" "Oh, I never troubled to inquire; have a hazy notion Fiske does something in Wall street." Ember passed smoothly over this flaw in his professional omniscience. "How did you happen to meet her?"

"Oh, mere accident. Over on the beach this morning. I slipped and hurt my ankle. She—ah—happened along and brought me home in her motor boat."

"You haven't seen Drummond—or any signs of him, have you?" "Eh—what?" Whitaker sat up, startled. "No, I... er... how should I?"

"I merely wondered. You see, I... Well, to tell the truth, I took the liberty of camping on his trail, while in town. But I couldn't find any trace of him."

"Oh, I say!" Whitaker expostulated, touched by this evidence of disinterested thoughtfulness. "You persuade yourself too much, old man. You set up an inference and idolize it as an immortal truth. AMERICAN SHIP IS TORPEDOED; CREW RESCUED

Steamer Chemung Refuses to Lower Flag as It Sinks.

CARRIED NO WAR MUNITIONS

Submarine Towed Crew to Within Five Miles of Land—Disaster Occurred Near Cabo De Gata, Spain.

London, Nov. 29.—Lloyd's reports that the American steamer Chemung was sunk.

The Chemung was torpedoed near Cabo de Gata, according to the dispatch.

The Chemung sailed from New York November 3 for Genoa and Naples and stopped at Faval, Azores, November 29. It was owned by the Harby Steamship company of New York, was built in 1888 at Buffalo and was 327 feet long and of 8,000 tons gross.

The steamer foundered with the American flag flying, it is added, the captain having formally refused to lower his colors.

The crew has been landed at Valencia by the Spanish steamer Giner, says a Reuter dispatch from Valencia.

The submarine towed the members of the crew to within five miles of the coast, the Valencia advises state, and then abandoned them. At the end of the day they were picked up by the Giner.

The Chemung, according to Lloyd's listing, is owned by the Atlantic & Pacific Coast Transportation company. It was a steel vessel of 2,615 tons, was 325.7 feet in length and was built by the Union Drydock company of Buffalo.

Carried No Comorand. New York, Nov. 29.—The Harris Magill Steamship company, representatives here of the Harby Steamship company, owners of the Chemung, reported sunk, said the vessel carried a general cargo only, no munitions or cargo owned by the Italian government being on board.

The ship was commanded by Capt. John L. Duffy and carried a crew of 35 men.

The crew list of the Chemung filed with customs officers here shows that only ten of the men on board, including Captain Duffy, were Americans, the others being Greeks, Russians, Spaniards and Mexicans.

The manifest of its cargo filed on date of sailing shows that it consisted mainly of iron and steel products, chemicals, dried fish, wooden staves, etc. Included in the cargo were 5,136 pieces of copper and 200 bales of cotton.

Valencia Consul Sends Report. Washington, Nov. 29.—Secretary Lansing announced receipt of official report of the sinking of the American steamer Chemung. The dispatch came from the American consul at Valencia.

He said all on board had been landed safely. The case appears to be similar to the destruction of the American ships William P. Frye and the Loelana, both carrying contraband, damages for which are to be awarded by diplomatic negotiation. As there was no loss of life nor apparent violation of Germany's pledges the case is not regarded as alarming.

Many Ships Are Sunk. These ships also have been sunk by submarines: Mihail or Michael, Greek steamship, Visborg, 1,311 tons, Norwegian steamship.

City of Birmingham, 7,398 tons, British steamer. Belle Ile, 1,883 tons, Norwegian steamer.

Alfred De Courcy, 164 tons, French sailing vessel. Malvina, 112 tons, French sailing vessel.

Rhona, 640 tons, British steamer. Christoforos, 2,345 tons, Greek steamer.

The Danish steamer Villenoes of 775 tons gross, from Esbjerg for Grimsby, has been captured.

Lloyd's reports that all the passengers and crew of the Birmingham were saved with the exception of a physician and three members of the crew who were drowned.

An official announcement given out here says that inquiries regarding the loss of the British hospital ships Britannic and Braemar Castle, sunk recently in the Aegean sea, have failed to establish whether they were destroyed by mines or torpedoes.

VILLA WINS CAPITAL

CHIHUAHUA CITY REPORTED CAPTURED BY BANDIT.

Gen. Trevino Said to Have Fled From Town After Being Deserted by His Infantry.

El Paso, Tex., Nov. 29.—United States government officials here say they have received information regarding the reported evacuation of Chihuahua City by General Trevino, the Carranza commander, because of a shortage of ammunition.

These officials have sent an official statement to Washington regarding this report, which, however, has not been confirmed.

Junrez, Mex., Nov. 29.—A persistent report is current here that General Trevino has evacuated Chihuahua City and is returning eastward, leaving Villa and his bandits in control of the city. The report is said to have been brought by courier to Terrazas station and telegrapher here.

Re-enforcements for General Trevino are being assembled at Sauc station, 32 miles north of Chihuahua City, and will be led toward the city of Gen. Francisco Gonzalez, commander of the Villa brigade, who left here with a train loaded with men and munitions. This is officially announced at military headquarters here.

One report current here, though not confirmed, is that General Trevino was able to take only his cavalry out of Chihuahua City, abandoning his artillery to Villa, while his infantry deserted to the bandit leader.

It is admitted by the Carranza officials here that Trevino is short of ammunition.

Carranza officers at Junrez would not confirm the report that Villa had taken Chihuahua, but said that they were informed Villa's forces were moving toward the border and that steps were being taken to defend Junrez against a possible bandit attack. This action was in accordance with orders said to have been received from General Trevino.

General Trevino, one report said, was moving south with his forces to join the re-enforcements under General Marzua, reported marching toward the Chihuahua state capital.

JOHN D. JR., TO QUIT JOB

Son of Standard Oil Magnate Over-taxed as Head of Foundation—Dr. Vincent to Get Job.

New York, Nov. 29.—John D. Rockefeller, Jr., will resign as president of the Rockefeller foundation on May 15, 1917, to become chairman of the board of trustees. He will be succeeded by Dr. George E. Vincent, president of the University of Minnesota and formerly dean of the junior colleges at the University of Chicago.

Announcement of Dr. Vincent's resignation from his present position was made here. Little significance is attached to Mr. Rockefeller's action. It is due entirely to his inability to administer the rapidly growing work of the foundation in addition to his other responsibilities.

KAISER TO SEND WILSON GIFT

Deutschland Will Bring De Luxe Set of American Authors as Christmas Present on Next Trip.

Geneva, Switzerland, Nov. 29.—Emperor William will send to President Wilson as a Christmas present a deluxe set of American authors specially prepared, printed and bound at the royal printing works in Berlin, according to the Budapest newspaper Az Est. The German submarine Deutschland, the newspaper says, will carry the gift to the United States on its next trip across the Atlantic. Emperor William's Christmas gift to Pope Benedict will be a Bible magnificently illuminated and bound.

GREECE ASKS NEUTRAL HELP

Appeal for Aid Is Made Through Constantine's Envoys in the U. S. and Other Lands.

Athens, Nov. 29.—The government of Greece appealed to the neutral nations through the Greek diplomats at the respective neutral capitals against the coercion being employed by the entente powers toward Greece.

Among the principal neutral nations to which the Greek appeal probably has been made are: United States, Sweden, Denmark, Holland, Spain, Switzerland and the South American countries.

WILSON ELECTORS CERTIFIED

Official Returns in California Election Are Delivered to Governor Johnson.

Sacramento, Cal., Nov. 29.—Final certification for the election of Democratic presidential electors in California was made at the office of Secretary of State Frank C. Jordan, Frank H. Cory, Jordan's chief deputy, made the certification and delivered the official returns to Marlin C. Madison, executive secretary to Governor Johnson, who receipted for the figures.

Bombardments in East. Berlin, Nov. 29.—Except for heavy bombardments by Russian artillery southwest of Duenaburg (Dvinsk) there have been no important developments between the Baltic and the Dulester.

GREAT TASKS AHEAD

DEMOCRATS WILL JUSTIFY THE PEOPLE'S CONFIDENCE.

Recent Electoral Vote a Deserved Indorsement of the Wilson Administration, as Well as a Commission to Further Service.

With the record of four years of the Wilson administration before them, the people of the United States have spoken. The verdict is "Well done!"

Opposed by the great corporations, opposed by Wall street, opposed by all fatteners of special privilege, Wilson won because of the confidence and support of those common people whom Lincoln thought "the Lord must have loved because he made so many of them." It is the plain folk of the United States who have re-elected him, in spite of the opposition of the interests and the classes.

The dreams of the great leaders of the forces of Democratic government in past ages have come true. Here is a nation which has greater wealth than any other state in the world, ruled, not by an oligarchy of the rich, but by the rank and file of its citizens.

It has been given to no one man since Jefferson to do so much to achieve this end as to Woodrow Wilson.

He has stood for men. He has put an end to the domination of the finances of the nation by Wall street. He has brought the taxing machinery of the government into harmony with the spirit of the modern age. He has put an end to the wearing out of little children in dusty mills to increase the gains of greed. He has brought to millions of farmers the promise of a secure independence and a wider life.

He has put his heel on the cautions brailleries of "dollar diplomacy." He has introduced a new note of peace and good will into our relations with Latin America. He has stood for the rights of peaceful peoples in the midst of world war.

In past ages, such leadership had had to wait years—seven centuries—for recognition of its quality and its fruits. But the American democracy has developed a quickness of response of the popular mind and heart to great leadership which is new under the sun. The people have understood Wilson, even in the hour of his achievement, and have crowned his work with their approval.

This victory is much more than recognition. It is a commission to further service. The achievements of Democracy have just begun. Great tasks still await it. This, like March 4, 1913, is "a day of dedication."—St. Louis Republic.

Tariff and Living Costs.

The Republican leaders publish a chart showing the increasing cost of living since the Democrats came into power, and triumphantly reproduce alongside it a plank from the Democratic platform of 1912 advocating tariff reduction in order that the cost of living might be reduced.

Do the Republicans think that the Democracy can overrule Providence itself? Do they mean to hold the administration at Washington responsible for the clouds in heaven and the wars of the other side of the world?

In 1913 our grain crop was 1,000,000,000 bushels smaller than it was in 1912. That meant higher prices for grain, and therefore higher prices for the necessities of life. In August, 1914, the Old World went to war, put farmers and mechanics to fighting, sealed up the great reservoir of Russian grain so that it should not reach the market. Of course, living costs have increased.

The Republican party machine did nary a childish thing during this campaign, but the attempt to make out that the Democratic promise to reduce cost of living by tariff reform was meant to imply Democratic ability to send commodities down in the market in the face of drought and of world war made it the prize performer in the political baby show.

Time to March Together. This is a time for a reedication of the entire American community to America—its peace, prosperity and honor. During the last few months the nation has been as two armies marching along different roads, but in the same direction. Now the roads converge and the two armies, the bloodless battle of the ballots past, should meet and mingle and continue their march together. Let us hear but the steady tramp of a united host keeping time to the music of the Union and the nation's best interests.—Chicago Herald.

Hughes was beaten because the people of California and other states of the West believed him to be a puppet of the "Old Guard."

All Together Now! It is now time for everybody to "get together" in the spirit that insures the well-being of the country. The election tension is over. Talk of recounts will not revive it. Let the temporary asperities of that memorable contest be forgotten. Democratic in the broad sense, let everyone accept in good grace the verdict of democracy. The things that bind all Americans together are infinite in comparison with the opinions that divide them. Henceforth let us think of the fundamental aims we hope to realize.

EVERYTHING WAS "JUST FINE"

Bunch of Giggling Girls Showed a Tendency to Work That Particular Phrase Overtime.

If you happened to be near the bunch of giggling girls in the station the other day, you would have concluded that only two words were left in the English language with which to express approval, answer questions or explain.

You couldn't help hearing the conversation, for after the fashion of some young girls, they didn't care who heard what they said.

They opened fire when they met by asking each other: "And how are you?" The answer was invariably: "Just fine!"

Then they tackled the weather, and each of them conceded that it was just fine. It seemed that one of the party hadn't been with the others for some time, and that her special chunk of other days was not present on this occasion, so one of them asked: "And how is Marie?"

"Oh, she's just fine!" was the enthusiastic reply. "She's married, you know."

"Married? Marie! Oh, hush! Did she get a nice man?" "Yes, he's just fine."

And they all exclaimed in chorus: "Isn't that just fine!"

THE PROFESSOR'S STATEMENT.

Prof. Aug. F. W. Schmitz, Thomas, Okla., writes: "I was troubled with Backache for about twenty-five years. When told I had Bright's Disease in its last stages, I tried Dodd's Kidney Pills. After using two boxes I was somewhat relieved and I stopped the treatment."

In the spring of the next year I had another attack. I went for Dodd's Kidney Pills and three relieved me again. I used three boxes. That is now three years ago and my Backache has not returned in its severity, and by using another two boxes a little later on, the pain left altogether and I have had no trouble since. You may use my statement. I recommend Dodd's Kidney Pills when and wherever I can." Dodd's Kidney Pills, 50c. per box at your dealer or Dodd's Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y.—Adv.

"The Spirit Was Willing." Despite the exhortations of her teacher, small Mary persistently lagged during the march in the kindergarten one morning.

At last the teacher called Mary to her side and said: "Mary, dear, can't you keep up with the music and the little boy in front of you?" "Yes," answered Mary, with a beaming and obliging smile, "I can, but my new shoes can't."

"No Sir!" You can't pull off substitutes as we have been using Anger-Pleasant Pills and we serve satisfaction since I was a boy, and I always found upon having it because I know what it will do."

Overland Automobiles

Which Do You Prefer?

Pullman or Freight?

No one would think of riding in a freight car if he could enjoy the comfort of a big, comfortable easy riding Pullman parlor car.

So with automobiles. Most of the popular priced cars ride like freight cars. This is due to the old fashioned type of spring.

Many manufacturers still continue to use them. The Overland does not. The 75 B Overland has the latest type of cantilever shock absorbing springs. As a result it is one of the easiest riding cars in the world. One demonstration will prove this. $635 f. o. b. Toledo.

Coat Models That Were Shown Early in the Season Retain Their Popularity, and There Is Little or No Indication of Changes—Smart Overgarments Are Worn With Big Muffler Collars of Cloth—Pretty Millinery for Small Girl.

The story of coats for this season has reached its closing chapter with the presentation of styles for midwinter and styles for driving. The drift of popular approval was two definite early in the season to encourage any radical new departures. Early models showed a beautiful adaptation of design to materials and were so excellent that they could hardly be improved upon, and there are no distinctly different lines or details of construction in the latest arrivals.

In coats for midwinter long sweeping lines, ample width, and muffler collars continue to be featured. Wool velour, tweeds, bolivia cloth, plush and fur fabrics are fur-trimmed and made up on the same lines as all-fur coats. Where fur is used on cloth garments it often appears in an all-fur collar with bands of fur to match bordering cuffs of the material. Plain plush and fur-fabrics make the warmest of wraps, excepting those that are made entirely of fur, and are of all things most serviceable for midwinter wear.

fat applique, of objects that they love—silhouettes of small animals and birds, outline pictures drawn with needlework in colored yarns, garden and field flowers, embroidered in prime order—all presage a new season of distinctly childish millinery for little ones.

These trimmings are simply made, as the hats in the picture demonstrate. In one of them a band of black velvet ribbon is drawn about a light felt shape and serves as a background for a procession of little chicks and geese, cut from colored felt, which are applied to it. They are fastened down with yarn or silk which serves to out-

STYLES IN CHILDREN'S MILLINERY.

And as rich looking as fur coats made in the same way. Many less expensive coats of velour, or other cloth, are trimmed with bands of fur-fabric, and some of them have collars of it. But the smartest cloth coats have big muffler collars of cloth and huge fur-trimmed collars of their own color. Some of the buttons are two and a half inches in diameter, and two or three of them are quite enough for one coat.

It doesn't make any difference just how the headwear of tiny girls is fashioned. It is sure to look pretty on its little wearers. For some time its inspiration has been drawn from the millinery of grownups. Small replicas of mature styles have the charm of miniatures, and the simpler hats of

Vom Schanplatz des europäischen Völkerrrieges

Hervorragende deutsche Erfolge auf der russischen Front bringen einen weiteren und überzeugenden Beweis für die Richtigkeit der Annahme, daß die russische Widerstandskraft in den letzten Monaten ganz bedeutend gelitten hat. Die Angriffe der Deutschen spielten sich auf verschiedenen Teilen der östlichen Front ab, und am erfolgreichsten waren sie nördlich von Baranowitz, einem der wichtigsten Eisenbahnknotenpunkte an der ganzen östlichen Front. Seitdem sich dieser Kreuzpunkt von zwei wichtigen Hauptströmen, die Wilna mit Kowel und Prewit - Witowsk mit Wlask verbinden, in deutschen Händen befindet, haben die Russen des östlichen Frontverweises Anstrengungen gemacht, sich wieder in den Besitz dieses Landes zu setzen. Tausende und Abertausende von Menschen haben sie an diesen Ver suchen, die samt und sonders in förtwährender Heftigkeit eudeten, geopfert. Der letzte große Versuch wurde vor zwei Monaten gemacht. Mit zwei Armeekorps liefen sie damals an, aber eine schwere dreitägige Schlacht entschied gegen die Russen, die, wie Berlin damals meldete, über 40,000 Tote eingebüßt hatten.

kleinere Veruche sind seitdem gemacht worden und waren gleichfalls vergebens. Jetzt drehten die Deutschen den Spieß um und griffen selbst an. Der Angriff war erfolgreich, indem die russischen Stellungen, die voranwärtig von Nordosten bedrohten, weggeräumt wurden. Die Stellung der Deutschen bei Baranowitz ist ferner denn je, da die Russen über den Strobova - Fluß, einen kleinen Nebenfluß des Dnabar, getrieben wurden. Sie waren anscheinend nicht mehr in der Lage, die Rücken, die die letzten Heftschläge dort gerissen, wieder auszufüllen.

Ähnlich erging es ihnen am Stochod und am Nowarowka, wo von den unter den furchtbarsten Opfern errungenen Stellungen der Russen Stück um Stück verloren ging, bis schließlich selbst die Hauptstellungen erschüttert wurden.

Bei der Betrachtung der Gesamtlage auf der russischen Front darf man nie außer Acht lassen, daß der Zweck der russischen Offensive im Juni der war, die deutschen Verbindungen aus Rußland zu verjagen und daß auf russischer Boden gefämpft wird. Der Vorteil oder das Nachteil würde also in den Händen der Gegner bleiben, selbst wenn die Deutschen sich lediglich auf die Deulante beschränken. Anstatt dessen behnen die Deutschen aber, wie der Fall von Baranowitz beweist, ihre Stellungen auf russischer Boden noch weiter aus, vermehren also die Hauptstützpunkte, die sie schon gegen Rußland in der Hand haben. Gegen die härteste russische Vorkriegsarmee muß sich unter solchen Umständen zeigen, daß auch die allerbeste Ausüstung auf Erfolg für Rußland endgültig und für immer begraben sein muß.

Rechnet man zu diesem eskalanten Beweis der Niederlage noch die russischen Heftschläge in der Bukowina und neuerdings in Rumänien, so gestalten sich die Ausichten Rußlands noch fäulechter. Es kämpft eben gänzlich ansichtslos im Kampf, den es nur aus fäuliger Scham und aus Eigneninn weiter führt.

In dieser Stelle ist es angebracht, nochmals auf die Meldungen einzugehen, die von russischen Separatistenkreisen berichten. Es heißt, daß russische und deutsche Abteilungen in Stocholm zusammengetroffen sind und daß die Wiederanfrichtung des Königreichs Polen durch Deutschland ein Entgegenkommen für die Russen war, denen eine polnische Grenze lieber wäre als eine deutsche. Aber erst wenn Rumänien am Boden liegt, wird Rußland seine letzte Hoffnung begraben, und dann wird auch der deutsch - russische Separatfriede kommen.

Dankes Ähnen.

Berlin, drahtlos nach Sanville. Die meisten deutschen Zeitungen melden die Rede des Premiers Asquith beim Lord Mayor's Banquet ohne längerer Hehrpredigung und bemerken nur kurz, daß die Rede zum Behen der Neutralen gehalten wurde, welche infolge der britischen Kriegsmethoden anfangen, die Geduld zu verlieren.

Die „Vossische Zeitung“ bemerkt, daß es um die britische Sache schlecht stehen muß, wenn der Premier sogar dem brutal gemißhandelten Griechenschland Kompromisse macht.

Die „Kölnische Zeitung“ bringt ein Interview mit einem französischen Staatsmann, der zwar einen Sonderfrieden zwischen Rußland und den Mittelmächten für unmöglich erklärt, aber hinzuffügt, daß es gelichehen könnte, daß nicht alle Mitglieder der Entente an demselben Tage Frieden schließen.

Zu den Waffen.

Berlin, drahtlos nach Sanville. Eine österreichisch - deutsche Proklamation, unterzeichnet von General-Gouverneur von Pefeler und General Staf, ruft polnische Freiwillige zu den Waffen, um gegen Rußland zu kämpfen.

Die Proklamation wiederholt die Verpfeudungen der Gründung eines unabhängigen Königreichs Polen, dessen Verwaltung wegen der Gefahr der Kriegszeit vorläufig noch in den Händen der Eroberer bleiben muß. „Der Kampf mit Rußland“, sagt die Proklamation, „ist noch nicht zu Ende. Ihr müßt mit zu tun. Trebet deshalb als Freiwillige an unserer Seite, um unsere Siege über Gurenllinterdrücker zu vollenden. Ihr sollt unter Euren eigenen Fahnen kämpfen und die Grundlage schaffen für eine polnische Armee, indem Ihr die ruhrreichen Ueberlieferungen Eurer Kriegsgeschichte durch Eure Trepne und Tapferkeit erneut.“

Vertreter der Liga des polnischen Staates fanden durch Vermittlung des General - Gouverneurs an Kaiser Wilhelm eine Landbespeltze für die Proklamation des Königreichs Polen.

„Wir glauben und hoffen,“ lautet die Bemeise, „daß die Verpfeudungen erfüllt werden, und wir sind entschlossen, Gut und Blut an der Seite unserer Befreier zu opfern, um das Königreich Polen zu einem unabhängigen und mächtigen Staat zu unterstützen.“

Sechs Staaten trocken gelegt.

Chicago, Als besonderes Merkmal der politischen Situation des Landes nach der Wahl ist das Faktum hervorzuheben, daß mehr als die Hälfte der Staaten des Landes jetzt trocken sind, oder trocken werden, sobald die Prohibitionsgeetze und die gewählten Beamten in Aktion treten. In Territorien Hinsicht haben 75 Prozent der Staaten den Verkauf von Spirituosen verboten.

Dienstag, der 7. November, sah einen großen Sieg der Prohibitionsisten. Sechs Staaten - Michigan, Nebraska, South Dakota, Montana, Utah und Florida - stimmten für Prohibition. Weitere zwei stimmten zwar nicht direkt über Prohibition ab, aber der Kampf fand zwischen Kandidaten der Trockenheit und Wässern statt und die Trockenheit siegten mit großer Majorität.

25 Staaten sind jetzt trocken, nämlich:

Maine, Kansas, Georgia, Mississippi, North Carolina, North Dakota, Oklahoma, Tennessee, West Virginia, Colorado, Virginia, Arizona, Washington, Oregon, Alabama, Arkansas, Iowa, Idaho, South Carolina, Michigan, Nebraska, South Dakota, Utah, Florida, Montana. In diesen kommt noch das Territorium von Alaska, welches dafür stimmte, die Saloons abzuschaffen.

Eine wichtige Farmkonferenz.

Zur Erhöhung der Farmprodukte tragen nicht in geringem Maße die großen Kosten für den Produktentransport bei. Dementselbe liegt zu neuem wird dieser Lage in Chicago eine Farmkonferenz gehalten werden, um eine das ganze Land umfassende Kampagne zur Verminderung der Kosten für den Produktentransport einzuleiten. Es ist berechnet worden, daß jährlich hunderte von Millionen den Farmern und Konsumenten verloren gehen, weil die primitiven Methoden zur Beförderung der Produkte zum Markte befolgt werden. Das Problem schließt kooperative Aktion ein und ist von allgemeinem Interesse. In einigen Gegenden des Nordwestens gibt es Farmvereinigungen, die den Verkauf lebenden Viehs erleichtern. Der Farmer, der nur einige wenige Schweine oder Schafe oder Künder zu verkaufen hat, kann nicht den Preis erwarten, der durch Sendung einer oder mehrerer Wagonladungen erzielt werden könnte. Die Farmvereinigungen haben einen Betriebsleiter, der in Fäulung mit den Farmern eines Bezirkes bleibt und die Zeit einer gemeinsamen Sendung vereinbart.

Ein greiser Held.

Berlin, drahtlos. (Uebersetzung - Agentur.) Daß im deutschen Meer die persönliche Tapferkeit kein Vorrecht der Jugend ist, ist wohl eine bekannte Tatsache, aber das 78jährige Veteran, der als Freiwilliger an die Front gegangen ist, sich noch das Eiserne Kreuz hat, dürfte selbst in diesem großen Kriege einzig dastehen. Hauptmann Zahn, welcher in diesem Alter nicht und bereits die Kriege von 1866 und 1870-71 mitgemacht hatte, kämpft als Freiwilliger mit den Jungen tapfer Seite an Seite und ist mit dem Eiserne Kreuz erster Klasse ausgezeichnet worden.

HOME MADE CHRISTMAS PRESENTS

Pretty Cap for Christmas

Bouffant or breakfast caps are among the pretty luxuries that women delight in and every year at holiday time they flourish anew. It seems that they are more captivating than ever this year and it is certain they were never shown in so great a variety of designs. There is no end to the original and beautiful combinations of ribbon and lace and tiny flowers, made of ribbon or chiffon, that go to make up this most fanciful headwear.

Two of the prettiest of the new caps are shown in the picture and it is evident that they are easy to make. At the top a cream-colored, silk lace is made into a small puff which is merely a circular piece gathered about the edge to fit over the top of the head. A frill of the same lace is sewed to the puff. Over this little lace cap a shapel piece made of ribbon or silk or satin is slipped. It is made of two pieces wide at the top and narrowing to a bridle under the chin, and is lined with silk. A narrow, corded piping finishes the edges, set between the outside and the lining. The bridle fastens with snap fasteners under a small little bow of two loops. Millinery flowers are tucked on at the sides.

The cap below is made of two wheels of fine net joined by a gathered band of satin ribbon, about five inches wide. The wheels are made of straight strips of net shirred together and edged with narrow val lace. This lace extends around the cap.

Baby ribbon is gathered and set about the wheels where the strips of net join and inside the lace edging. At the back a bow with long loops and ends is made of narrow ribbon matching the cap in color.

Set for My Lady's Desk

Just how attractive a desk set may be when it is made of heavy, light-blue paper and ornamented with white flowers and black foliage, may be gathered from the picture above.

An oblong size of an ordinary desk blotter is provided with two pockets extending across each end. They are fastened to it by means of black passepartout binding which extends along all sides of the oblong. Two smaller oblongs are cut from the heavy blue paper, to cover an address book and two white blotters. Narrow blue satin ribbon is used for fastening the leaves of the address book to its cover, and the two blotters to their cover. Then the covers are lettered.

The flowers and foliage are cut from printed paper napkins and pasted down. They look exactly like stencil painting. This is a convenient and pretty set, which costs next to nothing to make.

Pretty Table Decorations

Table decorations ought to come in for much attention as Christmas gifts this year, for there is a fad for artificial flowers as centerpieces. And the dining room is not the only one boasting beautiful touches of color in wonderfully life-like flowers made of ribbon or paper or bought from the milliner.

As a centerpiece for a luncheon table a little basket of ribbon roses sets in the midst of rose petals scattered over the cloth. Each rose petal, made of satin ribbon, is a tiny sachet.

There those who think they are mighty.

And "might makes right" is their creed. Oh! little care they for the people Who stand in the way of their greed.

A basket made of rose petals and a lace paper dolly is shown at the bottom of the picture. The foundation is of pastboard, with a handle of green silk-covered wire. The petals, which may be of either satin ribbon or paper, are glued to the foundation, which is a circular piece of cardboard. Millinery rose foliage and two buds either of paper or satin ribbon trail over the handle. The heart of every housekeeper will rejoice over such gifts as these.

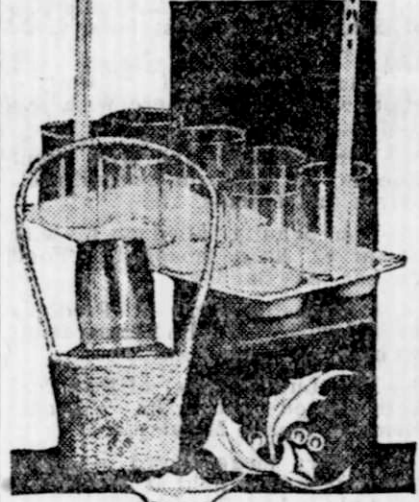

At the top of the picture above, an attractive lemonade server is made of an ordinary set of tin muffin rings, to which the daisy has added a handle. The server is painted with white or blue or other colored paint and allowed to dry. Flowers or leaves cut from printed paper napkins are then glued to it at each corner, at the sides and along the center. Finally a coat of shellac is brushed all over the server. When this dries the server is ready for a set of thin glasses.

Gifts Every Woman Likes

A lemonade and a water server are among the pretty and easily made gifts that every woman will like to receive.

satin ribbon narrower than the other. The scarf fastens with snap fasteners and is finished with gray silk tassels. At the right a ribbon ruff is made of wide satin ribbon. It is laid in double box plaits and sewed to a neckband stiffened with crinoline. It fastens under a tie of velvet ribbon.

This is quickly removed after the bird is ready for the table.

Sweet Potatoes, Southern Style.—Cook the potatoes in their skins until soft. FIGHT ON LIQUOR QUESTION PLANNED

Madison Legislator Will Urge State-Wide Referendum.

WOULD HAVE VOTE IN 1918

Bill to Be Introduced in Legislature Will Make Prohibition Effective in 1919 if People Adopt Measure.

Madison.—That a hot battle is going to be waged at the coming session of the legislature on the liquor question was intimated when William T. Evjue, newly elected member of the assembly from this district, announced that he would introduce a bill providing for a state-wide referendum on Wisconsin.

The bill will provide for the abolition of the liquor business in Wisconsin to a vote of the people at the general election to be held in November, 1918. In the event of the ratification of the bill by the people of the state it is proposed that the law shall go into effect either in July, 1919, or January 1, 1920.

"At the coming session of the legislature I shall introduce a bill providing that the question of state-wide prohibition be submitted to a vote of the people at the general election in November, 1918," said Mr. Evjue. "By having this held at the general election in November it can be conducted at little expense. Every state around Wisconsin is making headway on this proposition and if this state is going to continue to be known as progressive it must not lag behind such states as Michigan, Minnesota, Iowa and Illinois. Michigan has just gone dry by a referendum vote by a majority of 70,000. Iowa is dry. It is very probable that the Minnesota legislature will take action this winter which will make that state dry."

"I have chosen a referendum plan as the most suitable one to introduce at the coming session because I do not see how any member of the legislature can consistently oppose any plan that would give the people of Wisconsin a chance to settle this question for themselves. Even those members of the legislature inclined to be wet cannot deny the citizens of Wisconsin a chance to vote on the proposition."

"While the present legislature is wet, there is going to be a good fighting chance to get a referendum measure through."

Mr. Evjue was elected from the Madison district after a hard fight against him by the liquor interests. He won out in a three-cornered fight by the largest plurality ever given a candidate in this district. He is business manager of the Wisconsin State Journal.

He was born in Merrill and prior to coming to Madison was engaged in the newspaper business in Milwaukee and Chicago.

It is reported that William Jennings Bryan will come to Madison during the session of the legislature and that a big mass meeting will be held at the gymnasium in the interests of the Evjue bill.

New Forestry Law Sought.

A state-wide forestry law that will give to the conservation commission management of the state lands, so far as the constitution will permit, and otherwise simplify and harmonize the statutes relating to forestry land and state parks is proposed by the conservation commission in its report to Governor Philipp. Authority is asked to sell such forest reserve lands as are suitable for agriculture to purposes settlers, not more than 160 acres to one individual, also scattering tracts of state land. Continuation of the policy of building state roads in the state parks is asked and an appropriation of $40,000 for the purchase of the remaining of the interior holdings within the Devil's lake and peninsula parks.

A long list of recommendations for laws relating to the protection of fish and game in the state with a view to providing uniformity with neighboring states and at the same time to make the laws more effective is proposed. Among the more important of these are:

A general open and closed season over the entire state and the repeal of the many special county laws.

A closed season over the entire state for partridge, grouse and prairie chicken.

A change in the open season for wild birds to extend to December 31.

A reduction in the limit of the trout catch from 45 to 25.

Prohibition of the sale of black bass and muskellunge.

Reduction of the bag limit on geese from ten to five.

An increase of penalty for violation

Sets Milk Contract Record.

Monroe.—Edward Wittwer and brother, who control a number of cheese factories in the northern part of Green county, have set a new price record for milk, contracting with patrons for the coming 13 months at $1.50 and $2 per hundredweight. The $2 will be paid for the seven winter months, with $1.50 per hundredweight for the remainder of the period. In the past the contracts at the majority of factories in Green county have been for eight-month periods.

of the game laws is recommended—a fine of $300 for the use of dynamite, $100 for having venison in possession out of season, $200 for shipping game to market and $300 for serving venison in lumber camps or hotels.

An amendment of the one-buck hunting law is asked to provide that the buck must have horns at least four inches long.

Normals Seek $3,319,000.

Recommendations for the appropriation of $3,319,000 for operation, capital and maintenance of the nine state normal schools will be made to the legislature by the state board of education, according to the budget approved by that body for the biennium, 1917 and 1918. Following are the items that make up the budget:

Table with 2 columns: Item, Amount. Operation, 1917: $1,003,000; Operation, 1918: 1,043,000; Capital, 1917: 737,000; Capital, 1918: 478,000; Maintenance, 1917: 31,000; Maintenance, 1918: 27,000. Total: $3,319,000.

The above makes no consideration of the revolving funds, such as the dormitories at Oshkosh, Stevens Point and Superior and the cafeteria, stationery and special music courses. Neither has any recommendation been made for provision for extension work by the normal schools. For this purpose $4,000 a year is asked by each of the nine schools, but the matter has been referred to B. B. Buckingham, statistician of the board, for further consideration. The extension work proposed is not academic, but relates to the promotion of professional work among the teachers.

Included in the capital items above are provisions to meet requests for the purchase of lands, $131,850 for 1917 and $75,850 for 1918. These items, however, have been referred to the state engineer, who will make a survey of the needs of both the normal schools and the university with a view to determining the ultimate needs of the institutions in the way of added acres.

The university also will ask for funds to purchase lands, $60,000 for 1917 and $34,620 for 1918, principally to secure purchases of tracts upon which options now are held.

All these land purchase proposals will be made the subject of a supplementary report after the investigation.

For the purpose of comparison it is shown by the records that the actual expenditures of the normal schools for the year 1916 were:

Table with 2 columns: Item, Amount. Operation: $ 732,000; Capital: 382,000; Maintenance: 25,000. Total: $1,140,000.

For the present year and the future, however, there is an additional school, that of Eau Claire, which was opened last September.

Electors to Meet January 8.

On January 8 the Republican presidential electors will meet in the governor's reception room at the capital and cast Wisconsin's vote for Charles Evans Hughes. Separate ballots will be taken on president and vice president and three certified copies of each made, in accordance with the provisions of the United States constitution. One will be delivered to the president of the senate at Washington by a messenger appointed by the electors, one will be mailed to him and the other will be delivered to Judge A. L. Sanborn of the federal court in this district.

The Republican electors are: L. K. Baker, Odanah; George W. Burton, La Crosse; W. W. Storms, Racine; W. J. Kohler, Sheboygan; Frank Smith, Madison; J. T. Drought, Milwaukee; F. C. Pritzlaff, Milwaukee; H. D. Lauson, New Holstein; O. G. Munson, Viroqua; L. M. Alexander, Port Edwards; G. A. Walter, Jr., Green Bay; O. K. Hawley, Baldwin, and A. H. Stange, Merrill.

Will Fight Food Injunction.

Commissioner George J. Weigle of the dairy and food commission will take an immediate appeal to the United States Supreme court on the injunction granted the Curtice-Brother company, Rochester, New York, by Judge A. L. Sanborn against the enforcement of the state law prohibiting benzene food products to be shipped into Wisconsin.

In a recent decision in the federal district court, Judge Sanborn declared against the state law. Commissioner Weigle continued the enforcement of the law and the Curtice company asked an injunction, which was granted.

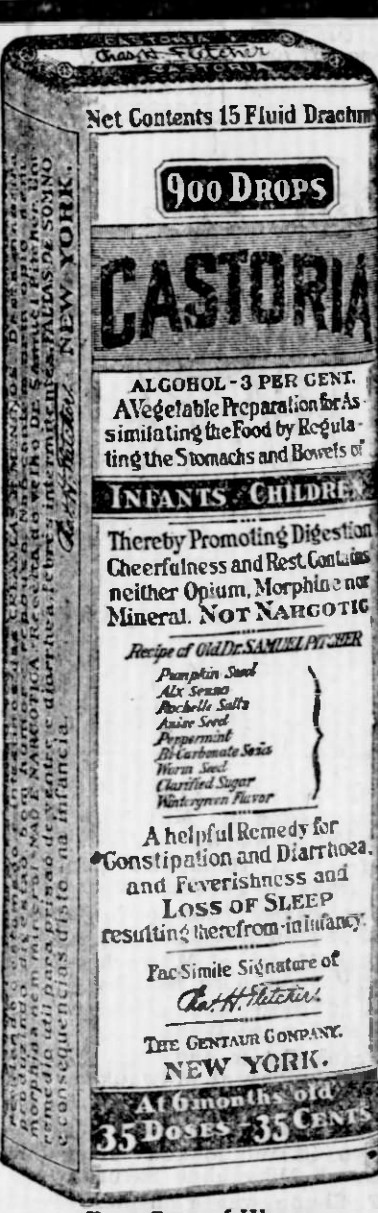

In his decree, Judge Sanborn held that as shipments of the Curtice products into the state were made in conformity with interstate commerce, the federal, rather than the state laws would apply.

Under the state law the use of benzene of soda in food stuffs is adulteration and illegal.

Rapid Progress in Soil Surveys.

The present season has been a busy one for the men who are inventorying the soils of the different sections of Wisconsin.

Besides the publication of detailed surveys of Jefferson and Columbia counties, and a preliminary survey of the north part of north central Wisconsin, including Iron, Vilas, Price and Oneida counties, the field work has been completed on detailed surveys in four other counties—Wood, Door, Portage and Milwaukee.

TO PREVENT OLD AGE COMING TOO SOON!

"Toxic poisons in the blood are thrown out by the kidneys. The kidneys act as filters for such poisons. If we wish to prevent old age coming too soon and increase our chances for a long life, we should drink plenty of pure water and take a little Anuric," says the famous Dr. Pierce of Buffalo, N. Y.

When suffering from backache, frequent or scanty urine, rheumatic pains here or there, or tant constant tired, worn-out feeling, the simple way to overcome these disorders is merely to obtain a little Anuric from your nearest druggist and you will quickly notice the grand results. You will find it thirty-seven times more potent than linin, and that it dissolves uric acid as hot water does sugar.

Sheboygan, Wis.—"Several years ago I developed a very bad case of woman's weakness. I took different kinds of medicine but received no benefit whatever from their use. I began taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and commenced to improve at once, and in six months I was well and hearty. That was twelve years ago and I have never been bothered since. This ailment was brought on through some heavy lifting I did before I was real strong after twins came. I know of no better medicine than 'Favorite Prescription' for women."—MRS. Canada's Liberal Offer of Wheat Land to Settlers is open to you—to every farmer or farmer's son who is anxious to establish for himself a happy home and prosperity. Canada's hearty invitation this year is more attractive than ever. Wheat is much higher but her fertile farm land just as cheap, and in the provinces of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta.

160 Acre Homesteads Are Actually Free to Settlers and Other Land Sold at from $15 to $20 per Acre. The great demand for Canadian Wheat will keep up the price. Where a farmer can get near $2 for wheat, and raise 20 to 45 bushels to the acre he is bound to make money—that's what you can expect in Western Canada. Wonderful yields also of Oats, Barley and Flax. Mixed Farming in Western Canada is fully as profitable an industry as grain raising.

The excellent grasses, full of nutrition, are the only food required either for beef or dairy purposes. Good schools, churches, markets, convenient climate, excellent military service is not compulsory in Canada but there is an annual demand for farm labor to replace the many young men who have volunteered for the war. THIS MAN HAD TO TRY TWO OR THREE TIMES BEFORE HE LEARNED TO TAKE A SMALL ENOUGH CHEW

GOSH, I'VE FOUND IT THE BEST TOBACCO I'VE EVER TUCKED AWAY IN MY JAW—AND SUCH A SMALL CHEW MAKES GOOD

YOU probably realize the change that two years have made among tobacco users. Hundreds of W-B CUT users waited months before they were willing to try it. Changing from one old kind of tobacco to another never seemed to improve matters. But common sense was bound to win. Rich tobacco, shredded, lightly salted—no cross sweetening—that's as far as tobacco satisfaction can go, and what a big difference it makes!

OPENING GUN OF CHRISTMAS CAMPAIGN

To Raise Funds for 1917 Anti-Tuberculosis Work

With the first shipment of Red Cross Christmas Seals out of the Milwaukee office of the Wisconsin Anti-Tuberculosis association to the local campaign managers in all parts of the state this week, the 1916 seal sale will be in full swing.

The sale of five million seals and the accumulation of five million pennies for continuing and extending the fight against tuberculosis in Wisconsin is the goal which has been set. With a strong determination to regain for Wisconsin the place which it lost to New York last year for the first time in the history of the national movement for financing the fight against tuberculosis by the sale of seals, the campaign has been organized both earlier and more extensively than in preceding years.

Wisconsin must lead the states of its class in the sale of Red Cross Christmas seals. This is the slogan. The large sale is made necessary both by the increasing demands which are made each year on the state association and by the fact that never before in the history of the state campaign have so many communities been interested in supporting health agencies for which funds are required. In a large number of cities, local associations or committees affiliated with the state association will retain half of their seal sale for the financing of local work. In the majority of instances the money will be devoted to the salary of a school nurse. In some instances this work is already established and in others the 1916 sale will be used as a means of securing the nursing service.

The mail sale, which was tried out last year as an experiment, proved such a success that at least twenty cities in the state will use the plan this year. It has been found that business men especially appreciate the convenience of the mail sales plan and that in this way a maximum of people are reached in a minimum of time, thus greatly facilitating the campaign by personal solicitation.

In order to meet the expected demand for seals, the Wisconsin association has placed its order for 14,000,000 seals. During last year's large sale, it was found necessary to buy seals from other states in order to meet demands.
