Dr. T. G. Farnsworth, 76 S. Kanawha St., Buckhannon, W. Va., retired physician of over forty years' experience, ex-State Congressman, ex-City Mayor and ex-County Health Officer, praises Doan's Kidney Pfils. Here is Dr. Farnsworth's experience as he tells it: "It was just a few years after my retiring from practicing medicine that I found I was afflicted with severe disorder of the kidneys and bladder. I grew steadily werse, and sometimes I was unable to get around at all. The kidney secretions were retarded and so painful in passing I would cry out in misery. I was in a frightful condition. After I had lost hope in other remedies, Doan's Kidney Pfils were brought to my attention and I tried them. I soon noticed a change for the better. I used several boxes and they cured me completely. Never in my practice did I know a remedy that would accomplish what Doan's Kidney Pfils did, and I give them my heartiest endorsement."

something. The Europe I left was full of hope. The Europe of the third yea: of the war was sinking to a stubbore desperation. They thought the end of the war would eventually be a resumption of the old order. They never dreamed it would be a Europe of settled peace.

"Now all the peoples of Europe are buoyed up in the hope that all the nations of the world shall unite their moral and physical forces that right shall prevail. What would happen if America should fail the world of its hope? All nations will be set up as hostile camps again, and the men at the peace conference will go home with their heads upon their breasrs because they will have failed. We would leave on the pence table notning but a modern scrap of paper."

The biggest roof in Boston stretched over the holders of tickets for the first address of President Wilson after his return from the peace conference today. Out of some 150,000 who had thought it worth while to chance a formal application in the hope that their equests for admission might be honored, 8,000 gained admission to Mechanics hall. Of these 2,000 stood in the second balcony, which is not provided with seats.

The crowd had waited an hour and a half. Outside thousands lined the Massachusetts avenue to Copley square, for a glimpse of the president as his car made its way slowly to of the people of Europe for a lasting the hall from the hotel where he had presidential party.

Hail Gayly Decorated.

For an hour before the president arrived the combined bands of the Conmonwealth pier and the Harvard naval radio school entertained the audience. Decorations with the national colors, remaining from a peace jubilee fete on Saturday night, concealed the walls and celling. The platform was flanked with pictures of the president and Lincoln, and of Roosevett and Washington. A sounding board that was constructed to aid the voice of Colonel Roosevelt when he made his last speech in this city, was use i again today with good effect.

Those for whom seats were reserved on the platform included Ambassador David R. Francis. Maj. Gen. Clarence R. Edwards, Rear Admiral Spencer S. Wood, Bishop William Lawrence, William Cardinal O'Connell, Assistant Secretary of the Navy Franklin D. Roosevelt, Secretary Tumulty, Raymond T. Baker, director of the mint; Gov. John W. Barnett of New Hampshire; Governor Milliken of Maine, and Congressman Guy T. Helvering of Kansas; Patrick D. Norton of North Dakota, George Valite of Ohio, and Charles C. Carlin of Virginia.

President Wilson arrived at the half at 2:30 o'clock. He entered at the West Newton street entrance, which led to the stage. As his party reached the outer door a bottery in the rail. way yards at the rear of the hall fired a presidential salute of 21 guns. Inside the hall the band struck up "Hail to the Chief." The president was escorted to private room at the right of the platform and a moment later appeared on the stage. The thousands who had found seats rose, cheering and waving flags. The roar from the audience drowned the music of the band.

President Wilson and his party left for Washington at 4:40 p. m. on a special train. A great crowd, which blocked all the streets around the South Terminal station, cheered the president as he entered the station to beard the train.

COMB SAGE TEA IN FADED OR GRAY HAIR

If Mixed with Sulphur it Darkens so Naturally Nobody can Tell

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and attractive with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, all ready to use, at very little cost. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been appliedit's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the grey hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and beautiful.—Adv.

5% Early-Delivery Discount

On Mogul and Titan Tractors

TEARLY five thousand of our boys in khaki and blue are coming back to work. We shall, of course) make a place in our organization for every one of them, but we wish to do it without throwing out of employment the men who took their places and have worked faithfully for us ever since. This is not going to be so easy for us as for some others, because the Government designated ours as an essential industry during the war, and we actually increased the efficiency of our organization after our boys left to join the

We can, however, give steady work both to our present help and to the returning soldiers and sailors, if we can bring about an immediate increase in tractor production. In order to do this we must move forward to the farm some thousands of tractors that are ordered for delivery at various dates up to May 1st, and we shall also have to ship a large number of tractors that farmers intended to order later this season, but could just as well take now. To those farmers who are so situated as to be able to take advantage of it we make the following proposition:

Our Early-Delivery Discount Plan

If you will take delivery of a Mogul or Titan tractor now we will reward your co-operation as follows: To those who will accept delivery of a Mogul or Titan 10-20 on or before March 8th we will give an Early Delivery Discount of 5% from the price of the tractor. (This amounts to $61.25 in the case of the Titan 10-20 and $56.25 on the Mogul 10-20.)

After March 8th the following discounts will be given:

For delivery during week of March 10 to March 15 inclusive 4% 17 " " 22 24 " " 29 " 31 " April 5

This discount will go a long ways towards paying the fuel bills of your tractor during this season.

By taking advantage of this Early-Delivery Discount, you will not only be helping yourself, but will enable us more easily to put back to work our army of returning boys without breaking up our present organization.

You will find that you need a few weeks to get acquainted with your new tractor. The man who has his tractor early can become tamiliar with it, so that when the first day of good plowing weather dawns, he will be able to get in the field without a moment's lost time. That in itself is a very good reason for taking early delivery.

Go to your dealer and tell him that you will accept immediate delivery of your Mogul or Titan 10-20 horsepower tractor, so he can make up his carload shipments without delay.

BARTON PASSES THROUGH PERILS WHICH RECALL THE PROPHECY OF "ROVIN' KATE."

Synopsis .- Barton Baynes, an orphan, goes to live with his uncle, Peabody Baynes, and his Aunt Deel on a farm on Rattleroad, in a neighborhood called Lickitysplit, about the year 1826. He meets Sally Dunkelberg, about his own age, but socially of a class above the Bayneses, and is fascinated by her pretty face and fine clothes. Barton also meets Roving Kate, known in the neighborhood as the "Silent Woman." Amos Grimshaw, a young son of the richest man in the township, is a visitor at the Baynes home and Roving Kate tells the boys' fortunes, predicting a bright future for Barton and death on the gallows for Amos. Barton meets Silas Wright, Jr., a man prominent in public affairs, who evinces much interest in the boy. Barton learns of the power of money when Mr. Grimshaw threatens to-take the Baynes farm unless a note which he holds is paid.

Opportunities of Western Canada Becoming Known.

Fertile Soil on Which Can Be Produced Record Crops Offered to Settlers at Prices Attractive to Farm Seekers.

In the early months of 1919 there was a demand for farm lands in Western Canada, the greatest that has ever been in the history of the country. This despite the fact that farm lands have increased in price, as the value of the farm product has increased and the virility and productive value of Western Canada farm lands have come more and more into evidence. Farming there is no longer an experiment. Good crops can be grown in all localities, some probably a little more favorable than others, but on the whole a good-more than good-general average. Land elsewhere on the continent is used for the developing of one hundred and twenty dollar steers thirty-five dollar hogs, two dollar and wenty cent wheat and eighty-five cent oats, and its price is anywhere from one hundred and fifty to three hundred dollars an acre. Western Canada land sells at from twenty to forty dollars an acre, and the farmer cultivating it gets one hundred and twenty-five dollars for his steer, thirtyfive dollars for his hog, two dollars and twenty cents for his wheat, and eighty-five cents for his oats. And he can grow corn, too, but Western Canada is saying no more about it than North Dakota did fifteen years ago. when it was an experiment there, and see what North Dakota is doing today. The prediction is that in less than a decade corn will be grown successfully in all parts of Western Canada. It is, therefore, easy to account ern Canada lands. The war is ended. soldler, holding up his strength and maintaining his vitality, won the war. No! Burns hard or soft coal, screenings. slack, coke, wood or lignite burns it clean, delivers all the heat, none wasted. Makes soft coal as efficient as hard.

Fourteen Essential Points

1. Every seam riveted, THEN WELDED under melting heat (D)-absolutely and everlastingly tight. These seams never open, never leak.

2. LARGE COMBUSTION CHAMBER (E)—smooth inside, no flues, no obstructions, no deposit of soot. This is a separating chamber in which the heated contents are at the top, the coolest at the bottom (see No. 3).

3. SMOKE OUTLET (G) AT THE BOTTOM. Here we draw away the coolest of the contents of the combustion chamber, leaving the hottest for your use and benefit.

4. FIRE-BOX (B) AND ASH PIT FULLY ENCLOSED by outer welded steel radiator, no burnt air odor, no red-hot surfaces, no leakage as with cast iron fire bowls.

5. FIRE-BOX (B) CLOSE TO THE FRONT, convenient in operation, no chutes necessary as with other styles having firepots in the center.

6. HEAVY FIRE BRICK SLABS (H). These accumulate heat necessary for combustion of gases. The ideal form for inferior and smoky fuels, and perfect for the best. Metal fire-bowls are not equal to brick for good combustion, and cannot be replaced without taking down the

7. LARGE GRATE AREA and deep fire (I) best for any fuel, permitting large bodies of air o enter for perfect combustion.

8. PERFORATED FIRE-DOOR LINING (C)—Sprays air supply all over the fire, mingling with gas and smoke, promoting perfect combustion. Soot and black smoke are reduced, producing heat, not smudge, 9. EVAPORATING PAN (A)—EVAPORATES sufficient water, and affords ample humidity essential to health; saves fuel

10. Clean-out-door (F) where all deposits of soot and ashes are EASILY REMOVED; no other cleaning required. 11. FIRE-DOOR (C) LOW DOWN, 32 inches from floor, easy
