MISS SOMMERS' SCHOOL WINS PRIZE

To the West Bend school at West Bend, R. 14, goes the honor of winning the platform scale awarded by the Wisconsin Anti-Tuberculosis Association for the largest per capita sale of Red Cross Christmas seals made during December by any school in Washington county. Miss Elsie Sommers is the teacher of the prize winning school. The scale must be won by the same school three years in succession to become its permanent property, competition for it being limited to ungraded rural schools within the county.

In addition to awarding a scale to the rural school making the highest per capita sale of seals in each county of the state, the state association is also giving scales to the five state graded schools making the highest per capita sales in the state. These prizes have been won by the schools at Okauke, Waukesha county, Miss Anna K. Holm, principal; Burnett, Dodge county, Elva Larson, principal; Delafield, Waukesha county, Mabel Watrous, principal; Marathon, Marathon county, Walter E. Weber, principal; Excelsior, Sawyer county, J. Cathers, principal.

The possession of scales by rural schools will, it is believed, serve as a big stimulus to constructive health work. The importance of weighing and measuring children once a month as an index of their general physical condition is being urged by health authorities throughout the country and the Wisconsin Anti-Tuberculosis Association is laying special emphasis on the importance of securing proper nutrition for children and thus building up their resistance to disease. Attractive school room charts, with space for the recording of the monthly weight of each child in the room, were awarded as prizes to every school room in the state reaching a certain standard in the seal sale.

INSTALLS REPAIR MACHINE

Joseph Mayer, our popular and congenial shoe maker, has installed an electrical shoe repair machine in his shop. With the installation of this new machine Mr. Mayer is in a position to turn out first class work on short notice. With the aid of this machine he is able to trim the edge, polish them, and finish them up in first class. A No 1 shape within fifteen minutes time. It certainly is quite an improvement over the old method of doing this work by hand, which took hours to finish one shoe. Mr. Mayer has now a first class shoe repair shop, and is capable of handling all work, no matter how big or how small the job may be, and invites the public to step into his place of business, so he can demonstrate same to you, and convince you of the wonderful work this new addition to his shop is capable of doing. He also has a knife grinding attachment on same, and anyone having such work to do will do well to give him a trial. His motto is: "Avoid That Cold. We Mend the Hips. And Patch the Holes. Build up the Heels. And Save Your Soles."

At a meeting held by the county boards of Dodge, Fond du Lac and Washington counties, it was practically decided upon to build a two-story type of building for the tri-county tuberculosis sanatorium. This is to be the main building and is to contain the sanatorium proper, with beds and other accommodations for one hundred patients, and rooms for the attendants and other employees, a residence for the physician and his staff is also contemplated.

PUTS IN FINE AUTO SUPPLY STORE

John F. Schaefer, who for a number of years has been a dealer in the Overland cars, and who successfully conducted a garage and repair station in this village on East Main street, has during the past few weeks made extensive improvements, whereby he changed the former John W. Schaefer saloon into a most handy, nifty and up-to-date garage store, the first of its kind in this village. The east side of the building is equipped with shelves upon which are placed the various kinds of automobile accessories, all arranged in a nifty and businesslike manner, this part of the building is also equipped with drawers, office desk, glass counter, the rack and show window, all of them containing automobile accessories and parts. On the west side of the building is a counter and cigar stand on which are sold soft drinks and cigars by Mrs. John W. Schaefer, who will continue to run the soft drink business in the future as in the past. In making a store room out of this place, gives the employees at the garage more privacy and avoids interruptions from people who enter the garage to buy repairs or accessories. Besides it gives the employees more room to work in. The main room of the garage has also been made larger by taking out the west wall which separated it from the work shop. All told Mr. Schaefer is now in a position where he can boast of having a first class, A No. 1 garage, repair shop and garage store, enabling him to turn out first class work on short notice. The general public is cordially invited to step into his place of business and become acquainted with his new store.

LOCALS LOSE CHAMPIONSHIP

Before a large crowd of enthusiastic fans, the local basket ball team suffered another defeat, for the championship of Washington county, at the hands of the strong Slinger A. C. team at the Opera House last Sunday evening, by a score of 30 to 37. The locals played splendid ball in the first half of the game and by far had the visitors outclassed in every respect, the half ending 17 to 24 with Kewaskum at the long end. In the second half, however the visitors came back strong, but their strong efforts of winning would have been fruitless, had it not been for the fact that Spatz Miller suffered a split bone in his wrist during the early part of the half. Maurice Rosenheimer also suffered during the first half of this with his throat, which forced these two players to weaken to such an extent that their opponents had an easy time of it. But for this mishap, there is no question in the minds of the spectators that the visitors would have gone home a defeated team. One fact was demonstrated that the locals had it over the visitors by far when one compares the length of time that the two teams have played. With the injuries our boys have received it will undoubtedly mean that last Sunday's game marked the closing game of the season.

Tonight (Saturday) the local city girls team will go to Milwaukee to play the strong Federal Rubber company team of that place, as both teams are undefeated a good game can be looked forward to. Our girls are confident they will come home victorious.

STATE ENGINEER DONOHUE VISITS THE VILLAGE

Jerry Donohue, State Engineer for city sewage and water works, was in the village on Wednesday, giving plans and estimates to the village board. In an interview Mr. Donohue stated that the village of Kewaskum offers the best advantages for putting in a system than any other village or city he had so far visited. The reason for this being, that the village is closely built together, and not spread out over acres of land, as is usually the case in most of the smaller places. This being the case, together with the location and slope of the land, Kewaskum would be in a position to put in a sewage and water works system at a very low cost, about half of what it would cost other villages of this size. He further stated that as long as the wells of this village have never been inspected by the State Board of Health it would be a wise move for the voters of Kewaskum to look into this matter closely, for even though the well water apparently may seem to be perfectly alright in our estimation, we would be surprised at the condition the State Board of Health would find some of the wells to be in, and if inspected, which no doubt they will be sooner or later, will only result in having them condemned, which will be one of the reasons for forcing the village to put in a system. In speaking of wells being condemned—he stated "And why the state should take such a stand at the present time, is self-explanatory, in that the State Board of Health at Madison has found that something must be done to check the ever increasing amount of sickness within the state. Mr. Donohue also stated that as the village of Kewaskum is on the verge of building a new high school, according to the state laws of Wisconsin, no high school can be built in any city or village unless it is backed up with sewage and water works." In recent special and general elections, Brillion voted in favor of water works by a vote of 184 to 31; New Holstein 189 to 149; Colby 61 to 4, and Campbellsport in the last special election of Fond du Lac county in December had a 97 majority. Mr. Donohue made mention of these places in particular because they are all of them have to put in a system at double the cost of what it will cost Kewaskum at the very highest figures.

Mr. Donohue, is a man well posted on this work, and can explain matters in a most thorough manner. A mass meeting of the citizens of this village will be held some time in March, at which time Mr. Donohue will be present, and other prominent speakers of Madison, to explain matters in full to the voters here. Watch for the date and further particulars on this meeting, and make it a point to be present.

MANY OPERATIONS WHOLLY UN-NECESSARY

Expert Specialist Cures Without the Knife

That too many sufferers are unnecessarily operated on, who could have been cured without this too frequent use of the knife, is the claim of Dr. Karass of Milwaukee Expert, Specialist. A slight pain is often pronounced appendicitis, a costly operation is performed, when in reality the abdomen is opened the appendix is found healthy. Dr. Karass never operates, he never mutilates the body God made in his own image.

Goitre, gall stones, appendicitis, tumors, enlarged tonsils, adenoids, rupture, piles, fistula and diseases of women are cured by Dr. Karass without operation, pain or loss of time. The doctor also treats among many ailments diseases of the heart, lungs, stomach, kidneys, brain, nerves, liver, skin, including rheumatism, epilepsy, paralysis, catarrh, asthma, head noises, dizziness, deafness, weak lungs, stomach trouble, bloating, head aches, and special diseases. One of the principal reasons for the wonderful and almost miraculous results, Dr. Karass obtains in the treatment of chronic and long standing diseases is due to the most thorough and painstaking examination he makes of every one who calls on him. He gets at the direct cause of the disease which he removes thereby effecting a lasting cure. As Dr. Karass speaks several languages any one not speaking English can be understood. Examination free to all. Dr. Karass will be in his office in the Republican House, Kewaskum, Wis., every Friday between 9 A. M. and 12 (noon). Milwaukee office 418-Grand Ave.—Adv.

ST. MICHAELS MAN KILLED

A severe shock spread over this village and the entire community last Monday, when it was learned that John Engler, a prominent and well known prosperous farmer, residing about one mile north of St. Michaels, had been instantly killed at about 11 o'clock in the forenoon. Mr. Engler in company with his brother-in-law, Anthony Schaefer was engaged in cutting down timber in Mr. Engler's woods about a quarter of a mile from his home. While at work a large limb broke from a tree and struck Mr. Engler on the neck breaking the neck and causing instant death. Mr. Schaefer realizing what had happened immediately summoned help and took the lifeless body to the Engler home. Mr. Engler was born on February 8th 1874, at Elmore, where he grew to manhood. Later he went to Heading, North Dakota, where he successfully conducted a farm for two years. Upon his return to Wisconsin he was united in marriage to Miss Margaret Berres on October 8th, 1912. Shortly after their marriage they made their home on a farm in the town of Auburn until two years ago when they came to their present home. Deceased is survived by his grief stricken wife and the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. Chas. Breseman of the town of Wayne; Wm. Engler and Arnold Engler of Boone, Iowa; Edward Engler of Hutchinson, Kansas; Mrs. Chas. Hangartner of Garber, Oklahoma. Mr. Engler was a man of a kind and pleasant disposition, never shirking his duty. His main object in life was to make his home a comfortable and happy one. He was ever ready to help those in need, and was honest and upright in all his dealings. His absence will long be felt by his relatives and those who had the good fortune of making his acquaintance. The funeral will be held today (Saturday) with services in the St. Michael's Catholic church at 10 o'clock A. M. Rev. Beyer will conduct the last sad rites. Interment will take place in the adjoining cemetery. The Statesman together with the citizens of this community join in extending heartfelt sympathy to the surviving relatives in their hour of deep affliction. Call not back the dear departed. Anchored safe where storms are o'er On the harbor where we left him, Soon to meet and part no more. When we leave this world of chances, When we leave this world of care, We shall find our missing loved one In our Father's mansion fair.

A GRANDFATHER'S STORY

From $143 to a Competence in Three Years.

F. J. Chamberlain tells a story of his efforts before moving to Canada in 1906 to make a living. It was hard work. He had so many "ups and downs" that he became discouraged before he learned of the success of former neighbors of his who were doing well up in Canada. He sold his holdings for a song, and had a sale of what effects he had. When he straightened up with his storekeeper and paid a few debts he found that he had $143 in cash, a good constitution, a wife and five children. He had saved some few things from the sale. These he put into a car with the effects of a couple of others, who like him were going to Canada. He went into the Gem Colony in Alberta in 1910, bought a piece of land and commenced operations. The money he placed in the bank and started one of his boys out to earn enough money to supply the table. The older boy used his wages to break up the soil on the 160 acres. But let Mr. Chamberlain tell the rest of the story, which he has signed over his own signature. He says: "I rented 70 acres and hired it put into wheat, thrashed 23 wagon loads for my share. We lived in the granary two years. "The first of December, 1918, I laid the concrete foundation for a twenty-five hundred dollar house and completed it the last of January. I have nine head of horses and mules, five head of cattle, fifteen pieces of machinery, seven outbuildings paid for and half interest in a thrashing machine. This is an old grandfather's story, as my son-in-law came with four children from Idaho last March and bought 320 acres C. P. R. irrigated land and we helped him develop 200 acres of it. They can't say around here, 'everybody works but father.' "Increased His Wealth Six Hundred Fold

There are more stories of success in Western Canada. There's that of Allan Nicholson of Hazelbridge, Manitoba. In speaking of it he says: "I shall never regret coming to Manitoba. I came here seventeen years ago. I think it was in the spring of 1903. My old home was at Le Mars, Plymouth county, Washington township, Iowa, where I had been farming for a good many years. I had a farm of 248 acres, of which I owned 80 acres and rented 160. When I left in 1903 I sold my equity in the farm for $75,000 per acre. The nearest station to my place was Dalton, and my old neighbors there will remember me very well. "When I came to Canada I rented three-quarters of a section at South Plympton, near Springfield, Manitoba. After a year or two's experience at renting I bought my present farm of 320 acres, near Springfield, Manitoba, in mixed farming. I have always had good crops since I came here, and some of them have been bumper crops. "If I went back to the United States today I could take back $5,000 or $6,000 to every $1,000 that I brought into the country. My land today is worth from $75,000 to $85,000 an acre, and in addition to my grain growing I have made a specialty of high-grade Percheron horses, purebred Shorthorn cattle and purebred Berkshire pigs. I have had uniform good luck in connection with my stock, and today I would not sell my farm for a cent less than $30,000. "The older settlers of Le Mar, Iowa, will remember me very well. I was greatly impressed with the country when I made my first visit here in 1903, and that impression has been strengthened all the time I have been here. "The climate agrees with us all. Before I came here my doctor's bills were something awful. I had no sooner got one paid than I was due for another one. Since we have been in Manitoba $50,000 would pay all our doctor's bills for the last seventeen years. "I think I am doing my old friends a kindness in letting them know how well I have done since I came here. This is certainly a country of opportunities. I have had no more good luck than falls to the fortune of any ordinary person, and I am satisfied I could never have done as well had I remained in the old home. I shall be pleased at any time to give information to old friends who care to write me about my experiences in this country."

SUPERVISION OF WOOL IS ENDED

Four or Five Steps Necessary to Finish Work of War Industries Board.

SETTLE WITH 3,865 DEALERS

Reports Must Be Audited, Analyzed and Excess Profits Determined and Disbursed—Refunds in Many Cases Will Be Small.

Washington.—The department of agriculture is winding up the affairs of the domestic wool section of the war industries board. This work involves four distinct steps, and it seems probable that a fifth will be necessary. The first step is to secure, on forms furnished by the department, sworn reports from the 3,865 country dealers and the 179 distributing dealers to whom the war industries board issued permits to deal in wool of the 1918 clip.

The second involves the auditing of these reports in detail to determine whether the methods pursued and the profits made are in accordance with the regulations.

The third is the collection of excess profits from those persons or firms whose reports, after auditing show that such excess profits were made. As rapidly as they are received by the department, all remittances for excess profits are being deposited as a special fund in the treasury of the United States.

Disbursing Excess Profits.
The fourth is a careful analysis of each report which shows excess profits with a view to working out the fairest possible method of distributing such profits. After this is done, the department proposes to disburse the excess profits by check of its own disbursing officer drawn on the treasury of the United States.

The fifth step will be an audit, in the field, of the books and records of dealers whose reports for any reason seem to make this course advisable. The first division of the work has been very nearly completed. A relatively small number of approved dealers have failed to make reports, and it is believed that the transactions of many of these were so small as to be practically negligible.

It has been discovered that several hundred wool dealers carried on their business as usual during 1918 without obtaining permits. As the names of these dealers have been ascertained they have been required to furnish reports similar in respect to those required from permit holders and to pay over their excess profits whenever it appears that they have made more than the regulations allowed. In other words, they are not allowed to derive any advantage from having operated in ignorance or violation of the regulations. The discovery of many of these unauthorized dealers was impossible until the reports of the 179 dealers in distributing centers were audited, since the entire wool clip of the country eventually passed through their books either as purchases or consignments.

The second division of the work, that of auditing the reports received, is progressing rapidly as the fairest available will permit, and the collection of excess profits proceeds as the audit of each separate case is completed. As rapidly as excess profits are received from any dealer they are apportioned to the individual growers to the extent to which their identity is disclosed, but the actual payments are being withheld until the collection of excess profits is more nearly completed, in order that practically all the growers may receive their checks at approximately the same time.

The reports of many country dealers show no excess profits. Relatively small amounts of excess were made by most of the others, and the refunds to individual growers in many cases will be very small. In other words, the refunds will amount in the aggregate to several cents per pound upon all the wool which the dealer handled.

"The greater part of all excess profits," according to a report of the department, "appears to have accumulated in the hands of certain distributing center dealers who purchased largely through direct agencies in producing sections. Many of the distributing center dealers, who handled wools on consignment only and whose profits were necessarily limited to the commissions paid by the government, appear to have no excess. In the discussion of this subject in press, the fact that nearly two-thirds of the wool clip of the country is so-called territory wool from the Western and Pacific coast states, which was handled almost exclusively on consignments, and therefore furnished an opportunity for the accumulation of excess profits, has, to some extent at least, been overlooked."

Gift Costly to Giver.
London.—Giving a deserving case 60 cents cost a Tower Bridge man $3. The delighted recipient gave him a "pat" on the shoulder which knocked him through a plate glass window. "Good you didn't give him 5 shillings," observed the magistrate, ordering the unskilful philanthropist to pay for damages done.

Money Changers Make Profits Because Mints Cannot Meet the Demand.

MUST MAKE YOUR OWN CHANGE

Almost Impossible to Buy Merchandise in Small Quantities Unless You Have Exact Change—Taxicab System is Well Regulated.

San Antonio, Tex.—Money, taxicabs, flowers, fruits, dirt and trade embargoes—these are certain to attract the attention of travelers from the United States in Mexico.

Mexico is now on a wholly metallic basis, so far as money is concerned. This condition has been forced through a long series of worthless issues of paper money by various revolutionary factions prior to the inauguration of Carranza as president.

There is an abundance of native gold and silver out of which to coin money. All coins above 10-centavo pieces are of silver or gold. Inability of mints to meet the demand has created a shortage of change. This shortage has been taken advantage of by money changers all over the republic.

It is almost impossible to buy merchandise in large or small quantities unless you are able to make your own change. From 2 to 5 per cent is commonly charged by money changers for converting 10 or 20 peso pieces into silver of small denominations.

This shortage was made more acute about two years ago through the withdrawal from circulation of the old Mexican silver peso. This was caused by the advance in the price of silver, which made the peso worth approximately 50 per cent more than its face value as bullion. The new Mexican silver coins do not contain as high a percentage of silver as these old peso pieces.

It is hard to conceive of a cigar store refusing to sell one cigar because one has not the exact change, but that is the case all over Mexico. One also encounters difficulty in buying food while traveling, for the reason that food merchants at the stations are unable to make change readily. Often a meal may cost $2 because of this scarcity of change.

We in the states might learn something from the well-regulated taxicab system of Mexico City. I arrived in the capital at 3 a. m. My baggage was carried to a taxicab by a licensed and numbered cangadore. These cangadores insist upon showing travelers their numbers, in compliance with the law, and it is also for any stranger traveling in Mexico to note the number carefully. The cangadores, however, can be relied upon to handle your baggage with care and perfect safety.

Once your baggage is deposited in a taxicab, a policeman is on hand to note the chauffeur's license, the number of passengers and destination. The policeman gives the passenger a slip with these facts recorded, which should be retained in case the service is found to be faulty.

Taxicab rates are plainly posted in the cars.

Fruits and Flowers Plentiful.
Along the route to Mexico City I found the towns dirty, but the flower and fruit stands sumptuously stocked. Prices for fruit and flowers are so ridiculously low in comparison with prices in the states that one is tempted to buy in a ridiculous oversupply. One can buy a bouquet of roses as big around as a bushel basket for 50 cents American money.

I found considerable dissatisfaction throughout Mexico with the embargo against Mexican citrus fruit. Large quantities of oranges, lemons and lemons are raised in Mexico. The quality of this fruit is excellent. The excuse for the embargo is that the germ of a blight that is fatal to citrus fruits might be brought into the United States if markets were opened to the Mexicans, an old, however, on reliable authority, that this danger is more imaginary than real. I found strong sentiment everywhere for the lifting of the embargo and a similar embargo against cotton.

ing out of the mines is expected to take at least three years. It is hoped that by next year it will be possible to extract coal from the first galleries, which are only 600 feet deep, but it is not expected that the water will be pumped out of the lower workings, which run down to 2,250 yards, until 1923 or even 1924.

The railways in the Lens district will not be completely repaired till 1921. Of the 800 workmen's dwellings belonging to the miners' society, not a hundred can be repaired.

DADDY'S EVENING FAIRY TALE

DIFFERENT COLORED BAGS.

"There was a little girl named Melly," commenced Daddy, "who loved bags of all sizes and kinds and shapes and colors. She didn't want great and beautiful bags bought for her, but when she could have a bag which didn't cost anything and which didn't take anything that someone else needed, she was very happy."

"Of course, she had other things besides her bags," Daddy said, "toys and all sorts of things. But she was very fond of the bags, for her Auntie made them for her, and she was very fond of the Auntie who made the bags."

"Since Melly had been a little girl her Auntie had been very fond of her. "One day Melly's aunt was looking over a great box she had with pieces in it when Melly saw all the odd pieces of silk."

"Where did they all come from?" she asked her Auntie. "I have never seen so many different colored pieces of silk in my life."

"For years and years we've kept this box," her Auntie said. "Some of these pieces of silk were made from linings of little bonnets of mine when I used to go to school. And some of them were left from beautiful party dresses your granma had and some even pieces which came from your dresses. Do you see this piece?"

"Melly nodded her head. "That was from my best party dress about four years ago."

"And your mother put it in this box, for we've always kept the pieces of silk. They can be used for many things, quilts, patches—they may come in usefully many a time."

"Melly laughed to herself, for while she adored her Auntie she did think she kept a great many things which, perhaps, never would come in usefully again, but still it was better to be that way than to throw everything away and not put it to some use if it wasn't good enough to give away."

"I wonder," said Melly's Auntie, "if you would like to have me make you little bags, so you can carry your purse and your handkerchief in one when you go shopping, and your handkerchief and other odds and ends you carry around at other times in other bags?"

"I could make you so many bags of so many different colors. Some, you see, could be yellow, some blue, some pink, some gray, some orange, some purple, some tan, some rose, some green, some white."

"So that was the way Melly's bags came about, and her Auntie on her birthday and Christmas always gave her a few new bags made from the old silk."

"How gay and pretty they were and how Melly loved them. That was the history of the bags."

"Now one evening Melly had gone to sleep. Her mother was light snoring, as her Auntie had told it to be, though when her Auntie had told her she had found her with it open at times she had said, 'Oh, but, Auntie, I can't help it when I'm asleep.'"

"Ah, said the bag of pale blue, 'I'm but a baby. I am only a few years old.'"

"And I'm very old," said a little plaid bag. "I belonged to her grandmother."

"Well," said a purple bag, "it does seem funny to see the world again. It's nice to be young once more. Why, I was getting so used to the darkness of the piece box that I blinked, actually blinked—at least as much as a bag can blink—when I first got out again."

"And isn't it fun," said the green bag, "to see so many things? I went on a picnic yesterday, and a piece of bacon got into me in some way or other, a nice little crumbly piece."

"Well, I did feel funny. I felt like a person having breakfast. I must say I didn't eat it up—I'm not fond of eating—mostly because I'm without a mouth and a stomach, but it is fun to go to so many different places and to see what is going on in different places."

"I'm so glad I was made," said the rose bag. "I'm going to a dancing party this afternoon. They'll have ice-cream there and I'll hear all the children play and laugh and I'll hear them say, 'Oh, Melly, which bag have you got with you today?' And then I will be shown."

"We're the lucky little pieces of silk who are seeing the world for a second time," ended the yellow bag."

The woman who knows how to clothe herself correctly, from head to toe for the street, in unostentatious but elegant garb, as full of style as its quiet—well, she will command admiration. No one can outshine her.

Women of this day have a great advantage because the needs of all figures and all styles are very carefully studied by professional designers. They plan to conceal the angles of women who are too slender and to lengthen the curves of those who are too stout.

BOUDOIR PILLOWS

IT is hard to decide which of two things is most desirable in the female of the species, and they are the clothing she wears and the furniture of her home.

A great deal of attention is given now to pillows for different parts of the house—those for the living room, the porch and the bedrooms—which they help to make inviting and restful. Cretonnes and other cheerful and durable fabrics serve for plush furnishings, silks, tullestries, puresh and other more pretentious fabrics take care of the living rooms, while bedroom or boudoir pillows avail themselves of the dainty laces, embroideries, silks, ribbons and even gorgeous crepps and chiffons.

Most of these boudoir pillows are first covered with silk in light colors and over these colored foundations the dainty washable covers are fitted. They may be kept clean, and they must be, to preserve their chief charm.

Paris Fashions. What is described as the cuff turban is an interesting new small hat. A Paris model is of hatters' plush and is finished with a scroll embroidered mesh veil that is loosely draped over the hat.

Wet Curtains Mildew. There is a good chance of the curtains mildewing if folded and packed away when they are damp. It takes but a few minutes longer to dry them thoroughly before stowing them away, and the assurance of their keeping in good condition is worth these extra minutes.

WHY COLDS ARE DANGEROUS

You are often told to "beware of a cold", but why? We will tell you: Every cold weakens the lungs, lowers the vitality and paves the way for the more serious diseases. People who contract pneumonia first take cold. The longer a cold hangs on, the greater the danger, especially from the germ diseases, as a cold prepares the system for the reception and development of the germs of consumption, diphtheria, scarlet fever and whooping cough. The quicker you get rid of your cold, the less the danger of contracting one of these diseases. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has a great reputation as a cure for colds and can be depended upon. Musical Instruments of Insects.
Buzzing or humming of insects is mainly due to the rapid vibration of the wings, which often strike the air more than 100 times a second, but there is a certain special quality of instrument near the base of the wings. Chirping or rattling is due to some sort of "stridulating" organ, one hard part being scraped against another, as the bow of a fiddle—it may be leg against wing.

WHY COLDS ARE DANGEROUS

You are often told to "beware of a cold", but why? We will tell you: Every cold weakens the lungs, lowers the vitality and paves the way for the more serious diseases. People who contract pneumonia first take cold. The longer a cold hangs on, the greater the danger, especially from the germ diseases, as a cold prepares the system for the reception and development of the germs of consumption, diphtheria, scarlet fever and whooping cough. The quicker you get rid of your cold, the less the danger of contracting one of these diseases. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has a great reputation as a cure for colds and can be depended upon. It is pleasant to take.

"Paradise Regained" on Cabbage.
It is said that John Milton often used to have nothing but a few olives for dinner, and yet did not wonder so much when learning that the angels refused to do anything cheerful. He did not think we could write anything cheerful ourselves after dining on a few olives, though we have done it not infrequently on baked cabbage and prunes.—Old State Journal.

Make a Better Seed Bed

Just the same as two good heads are better than one when it comes to solving a difficult problem, so also are two sets of disk harrow gangs better than one when it comes to making a good seed bed.

The INTERNATIONAL TANDEM DISK HARROW leaves the seed bed in ideal condition to receive and nourish the seed. It is thorough in its work. It leaves no clods or lumps uncut. It strikes them from two angles—gets them "Coming and going" as it were.

The INTERNATIONAL TANDEM ATTACHMENT can be ordered to fit any INTERNATIONAL DISK HARROW. It is equipped with solid disk blades. Two draft arms pull from the front corners of the tandem attachment at opposite angles, holding the tandem rigidly in line while working, at the same time preventing the tandem blades from tracking the front harrow. At the end of the field or when making a turn the draft arms telescope backward, permitting both front and rear harrows to curve sharply without twisting the frame or sliding the gang.

Double up your disk harrow with an INTERNATIONAL TANDEM ATTACHMENT and make a better seed bed—raise a bigger crop. Let us help you do this.

—A bill has been introduced in congress limiting the pages of daily newspapers to sixteen pages and Sunday papers to forty-eight pages. —A meeting was held at the Turn hall, Fillmore, last Tuesday evening for the purpose of determining the sentiment of the community in regard to the establishing and building of a union or township high school. The new partnership will be known as the Wurtz-Chesley Land and Loan Company with offices over the State Bank at Fond du Lac. Mr. Chesley has owned his farm of 240 acres to Mich. Hill Jr., of Campbellsport, who has taken possession of same.

—Here an "Old Settler"

With a known farmer leading through 2000 dairy years the here may well be called one of the ancient inhabitants of the earth. Among the oldest Jews the here and its near relative, the cone of the rocks, were excluded from the ranks of edible animals; but as the flesh of the here was found to be both nutritious and wholesome the prejudice against it gradually disappeared and it began to be grown and domesticated for food.

No Safety in Seclusion.
A good old lady in a town not far from here piously thanked Providence each day of her life that she was not exposed to the perils that missionaries in savage countries incurred. As she was taking her usual morning walk one day a branch broke from an elm tree and fell upon her, injuring her so badly that her death resulted not long afterward. Yet none could have lived a more sheltered and secluded life than she.

Hawks Not All Enemies.
The department of agriculture says that of the 50 principal varieties of hawks 47 are of benefit to the farmer or shrew they catch great numbers of rodents that injure crops. It is even said that a hawk on the farm is as valuable as a cow. There are three varieties of hawks that are deadly to chickens and should be shot on sight.

When the Railer Was New.
Among the oldest forms of decorated glass bottles or flasks known to have been made in the United States is one which bears a relief design representing the first railway. The device shows a horse-drawn four-wheeled car along a rail. The vehicle is piled full of bales, lumps of coal or packages of freight. Around the margin is "Success to the railroad."

Educate Hotel Employees.
Arithmetic, bookkeeping, geography, hotel legislation, commercial correspondence, stenography, typewriting, ironing, cooking, linen mending, sewing and washing are some of the subjects taken at the school for women hotel employees in Besancon, France, which is releasing each week 10 women ready to fill positions in hotels ranging from cashiers to chambermaids.

Conditions That Make for Success.
The poet said that only those who had eaten their bread in tears could know the veritable presence of the heavenly powers. There is a discipline in struggle, a drill in hardship, that is essential to the making of a man of truly virile fiber—the man qualified to take command, whose attributes of leadership are felt as soon as he appears.—Exchange.

Solitudes of the Earth.
The Bushinland desert, in south-west Africa, is but little known. A few nomads—some of European and some of mixed descent—hang on its fringe. Here and there a few wild beasts, whose dwellers depend on the scarce bounty of the sky, will perhaps be found for a season. Otherwise it is a barren desert of 50,000 square miles.

Post Office Nerves.
According to the testimony of some hospital authorities, "post office nerves" are due partly to the frequent changes from day to night duty, with consequent irregularities of meals and sleep, partly to the changes of work whereby the same clerk may be standing all day for another, with diverse occupations, each needing special knowledge. Hence, in the opinion of some medical men, mechanical routine is less wearing than frequent change. Is it so?

"No, Bill, I wouldn't take a thousand dollars for it."

THAT'S what users say about Delco-Light, the complete electric plant. Levi Stout, Coffee Creek, Montana, says: "I would not take $2,000 for my Delco-Light if I could not get another." Albert Knoepke, Moccasin, Montana, says: "I would rather quit the ranch than do without Delco-Light." Why are these men so enthusiastic? It's because Delco-Light, with its successful air cooling, its one piece to oil, its kerosene burning engine and production of four kilowatt hours of electricity per gallon of fuel, gives them maximum service with minimum attention. The experiences of more than 75,000 satisfied users prove these things to be true of Delco-Light. Delco-Light brings to your farm or country home every comfort and convenience of the most modern and up-to-date city residence. Write, phone or call for catalog, prices and further details.

WILSON SIGNS RAILROAD BILL

Transportation Lines Go Back to Private Control Sunday Night.

PLEDGES FAIR WAGE BOARD

Twenty-Six Months of Federal Control and Operation End—President Names Walker D. Hines to Wind Up Matters.

Washington, March 2.—President Wilson signed the railroad bill, making it a law. The legislation on which congress has worked intermittently for months became effective—the president having approved it—at the same time the roads were turned back to the government to their owners at 12:01 o'clock Monday morning.

Thus ends 26 months of federal control and operation of the lines, some of the urgent journalistic advocates of government ownership have within the last week threatened Mr. Wilson that if he signed this bill he would seal the doom of the Democratic party, but he signed it, nevertheless.

The president issued a proclamation naming Walker D. Hines, under the provisions of the act, to wind up all matters arising out of federal control. He also sent his reply to the 15 railway unions which have urged that pending wage disputes should be left to a bipartisan body—managements and men—to operate independently of the bill.

The president took the position that the machinery set up by the new railroad act is ample to advance quick and fair settlements. He pointed out that the act itself sets forth that all carriers and their officers and employees shall exert every means possible to avoid a halt in transportation growing out of any dispute, and that whenever possible disputes shall be decided in conference between representatives and employees.

Mr. Wilson holds that the plain intention of the bill was that a bipartisan body should be set up to try to settle the pending wage problem. He told the unions he will at once call upon both sides to join in selecting such a committee. This board, he says, will be more than a satisfactory substitute for the body of experts he recently suggested when the threatened strike of the maintenance of way men was called off.

Concerning the labor board itself, on which three elements—the management, the workers and the public—are to have three members each, the president tells labor it is needlessly alarmed. "I cannot share the apprehension of yourselves and your constituents," he writes.

To the few labor leaders left in town the signing of the bill brought no surprise. The sentiment appeared to be that the promise of the president to expedite action on the pending wage disputes through a bipartisan agency would have a tonic effect on the situation.

The big leaders scouted the idea of any widespread strike, although sporadic walkouts have been bobbing up for some time. So far as the act itself goes, it is projected into politics and labor's move will be into the congressional elections, with the aim of getting what amendments it desires from the next congress.

ITALY BEGINS FIUME SIEGE

Stringent Blockade Is Established Against Commodities—Only Children to Be Given Food.

Fiume, March 2.—A siege of Fiume has begun with a stringent blockade against commodities, including foodstuffs.

"Perhaps we may appear to be lenient toward those occupying Fiume," said General Cavaglia of the government forces, "but it is not so. We shall exercise an iron blockade against the forces of Gabriele D'Annunzio. I am not offering them the slightest arm, but the children must be cared for. That is why I allowed 200 children to come out of Fiume and proceed to Milan."

HUNDREDS FREEZE TO DEATH

Blizzard Leaves Great Suffering in South Russia—Coldest in Twenty-Seven Years.

Novorossiisk, March 2.—Hundreds have been frozen to death in the worst storm in south Russia in 27 years. The mercury was four degrees below zero and for 80 hours a 60-mile gale swept the country, piling up great drifts of snow.

Geddes Agreeable to U. S.

Washington, March 3.—The British government has been formally notified by the state department that the appointment of Sir Auckland Geddes as British ambassador to the United States would be thoroughly agreeable.

Uphold Wilson Attitude.

Manchester, Eng., March 3.—President Wilson's letters in the Atlantic correspondence are considered by the guardian as a refutation "of the reports that his illness had caused some loss of mental force and balance."

Wireless Phone Carries Far.

New York, March 1.—Wireless telephone conversations have been carried on between Ossining, N. Y., and points in North Dakota and Kansas, a distance of approximately 1,500 miles, by Robert F. Gowen.

Iowa Thieves Loot Store.

Clinton, Ia., March 1.—Thieves who entered the Robert Lomman general merchandise store at Wheatland, this county, robbed the store of shoes, dress goods, gloves, suits and other merchandise valued at $2,500.

BAINBRIDGE COLBY

Bainbridge Colby of New York has been selected by President Wilson to succeed Mr. Lansing as secretary of state.

PACKING DECREE FILED

Attorney General Writes Last Chapter in Divorcement.

"Big Five" Must Confine Business to Distributing Meat and By-Products.

Washington, March 1.—The agreed decree under which the "Big 5" packers are forever enjoined from engaging in any line of business other than that of handling meats and produce was filed in the District of Columbia Supreme court. It was submitted by Attorney General Palmer, who said it "removed the menace of control of unrelated industries by the 'Big 5' and confined their activities in the future to the business of distributing meat and its by-products."

It was claimed by counsel for the company that congress acted illegally in limiting alcoholic content of liquor which can be sold under the constitutional amendment to an amount less than half of 1 per cent. It was also argued that the Mullerberg law permitting sale of 2 1/2 per cent in Wisconsin has precedence over later federal limitations.

Attorney William H. Austin and Attorney Ralph W. Jackman, Madison, represented the company at the hearing, while United States District Attorney H. A. Sawyer, his assistants and Eugene McIntyre and Walter Bender, representing the Wisconsin Anti-Saloon league, opposed the granting of a restraining order.

Trenton, N. J., March 2.—The New Jersey senate passed by a vote of 12 to 9 the compromise beer bill providing for the manufacturing, selling and transporting of beverages containing not more than 3 1/2 per cent alcohol by volume.

The bill, after being enacted into law, will not become effective until after peace is proclaimed. With the floor and the galleries jammed as never before the debate surged along until Senator Simpson from Hudson brought forth tumultuous applause by stating that it was up to the legislature to act on the concurrent powers vested in it by the Volstead act.

The Democratic state committee declared itself in favor of a plank in the Democratic national platform for "the restoration of personal liberty" and the abolition of the prohibition amendment, and for the right of the states to legislate upon prohibition.

FRANCE'S RAIL STRIKE ENDS

Mobilization of the Military Forces Found a Hard Nut to Crack.

Paris, March 3.—The strike on the French railroads has ended. An understanding was reached between the directors of the railways and the men, and the national federation immediately ordered the resumption of work. The strike began last week on the Paris-Lyon-Mediterranean road and was followed Saturday by an order for a strike on all the railroads of France, but reports from various quarters have told of the failure of the men to walk out. The mobilization for military duty of the railroad men, adopted by the government as a measure to combat the strike, resulted, the government announced, in the response of 50 per cent of the men called upon.

The Federation of Labor considered calling a general strike in all the trades as a last resort, but abandoned such a plan. The government caused the arrest of several of the strike leaders.

JAIL FOR STEALING MILK

Newark Man Must Spend Three Months in Prison for Taking One Bottle.

Newark, N. J., March 1.—Joseph Achan, forty, will spend three months in jail for stealing a bottle of milk. He was sentenced by Justice Brangan after he had been found guilty of stealing the milk while on his way to work at a Harrison factory.

Upholds Steel Trust.

Washington, March 3.—The Supreme court upheld formation of the United States Steel corporation and subsidiary combinations in the iron and steel industry, in refusing to dissolve the so-called "steel trust."

Militia Whip Asia Tribesmen.

London, March 3.—A dispatch from India reports an attack of Mangal and Zadrin tribesmen in Kuram, Afghanistan, 78 miles southeast of Kabul, was repulsed by British and Kuram militia. The aggressors lost 120 killed.

Panama Strike Is Over.

U. S. JUDGE PUTS O. K. ON 2.5 BEER

Federal Jurist at Milwaukee Says Wisconsin Act Is Legal.

MULBERGER LAW IS UPHELD

Manufacture and Sale of Alcoholic Beverages Will Be Permitted Under Terms of Ruling—New Jersey Gets 3 1/2 Beer.

Milwaukee, March 2.—Manufacture and sale of 2.5 per cent beer in Wisconsin was legalized in a decision handed down by Federal Judge Geiger in the test case brought by the Manitowoc Products company for an injunction to halt enforcement of the Volstead act.

By his decision Judge Geiger upheld the Mulberger law, thus assuming that state prohibition laws take precedence over federal regulation.

The decision resulted from the filing of an injunction suit by the Manitowoc Products company, a consolidation of three breweries at Manitowoc, to restrain enforcement of prohibition legislation insofar as it interferes with the manufacture of beer containing 2 1/2 per cent alcohol.

The constitutionality of title 2 of the prohibition enforcement law, which provides for the enforcement of the constitutional amendment as well as the constitutionality of the amendment itself was attacked during the arguments.

It was claimed by counsel for the company that congress acted illegally in limiting alcoholic content of liquor which can be sold under the constitutional amendment to an amount less than half of 1 per cent. It was also argued that the Mullerberg law permitting sale of 2 1/2 per cent in Wisconsin has precedence over later federal limitations.

Attorney William H. Austin and Attorney Ralph W. Jackman, Madison, represented the company at the hearing, while United States District Attorney H. A. Sawyer, his assistants and Eugene McIntyre and Walter Bender, representing the Wisconsin Anti-Saloon league, opposed the granting of a restraining order.

Trenton, N. J., March 2.—The New Jersey senate passed by a vote of 12 to 9 the compromise beer bill providing for the manufacturing, selling and transporting of beverages containing not more than 3 1/2 per cent alcohol by volume.

The bill, after being enacted into law, will not become effective until after peace is proclaimed. With the floor and the galleries jammed as never before the debate surged along until Senator Simpson from Hudson brought forth tumultuous applause by stating that it was up to the legislature to act on the concurrent powers vested in it by the Volstead act.

The Democratic state committee declared itself in favor of a plank in the Democratic national platform for "the restoration of personal liberty" and the abolition of the prohibition amendment, and for the right of the states to legislate upon prohibition.

RENEWS FUEL CONTROL

President Issues Executive Orders on Return of Roads.

Continues Government Control of Coal Distribution and Exportation—Hines Heads Board.

Washington, March 2.—President Wilson issued two executive orders in connection with return of railroads to their private owners. The orders will continue government control of coal distribution and exportation.

In one order Director General Hines and the central coal committee of the railroad administration are given renewed power of the fuel administrator to control domestic distribution of coal. When the coal strike came last fall former Fuel Administrator Garfield, by direction of the president, turned this authority over to the railroad administration.

Now that the railroad administration is dead, the president designates Mr. Hines and his agents as a special board under the food and fuel act to continue the work of coal distribution that they have been doing since November.

In another order the president appoints a board to carry out the provisions of the food and fuel act suspended in February, 1919, relative to control of tidewater transportation of coal at Hampton Roads, Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York to facilitate transportation and to reduce delays in the use of coal cars and carrying vessels.

This board is also given authority of the fuel administrator over exportation of coal. Its members are J. W. Howe, commissioner of the Tidewater Coal exchange, Rembrandt Peale, F. M. Whitaker and J. F. Fisher.

UNIONS TO GIVE U. S. LAW TRYOUT

President Asks Roads and Employees to Name Board.

TEST OF ACT IS POSTPONED

Labor Leaders Declare Men Are All Good Americans and Will Help President in His Efforts to See Justice Done.

Washington, March 3.—President Wilson asked the railway executives and employees to join in selecting representatives for a bipartisan board "for the purpose of attempting by conference to agree" upon a solution of the railway wage problem under section 301 of the railroad bill.

In his letter to the employees President Wilson quoted from his communication to them of last Saturday, saying he believed such a board would go far toward muzzling the wage dispute "for final disposition" and asked that the brotherhoods select "such numbers of representatives as may seem appropriate" to conduct the conference.

Both sides were requested by the president to forward the names of their representatives to Director General Hines who, the letter said, would arrange for the first conference at which questions of procedure and representation which might arise could be decided.

Reviews Wage Situation.

In his letter to Mr. Cuyler the president reviewed the railway wage situation from the presentation of the demands last August to the present time and recalled that last month he had told the union representatives that settlement of these demands ought not to be postponed for a further indefinite period and that the matter should be handled by an agency which could continue to function after federal operation of the roads ceased.

"Since the railroad companies have now resumed the operation of their properties and since the transportation act has become a law," he said, "the way is open for the immediate handling of the wage matter in accordance with procedure contemplated by that law."

"I believe all will agree that the matter calls for the earliest disposition and for the most active and earnest co-operation to avoid any delay whatever in bringing it to a conclusion. Section 301 of the transportation act contemplates that the carriers and employees may and ought to select representatives who will in effect constitute a bipartisan board for the purpose of attempting by conference to agree upon a solution of wage problems subject to other provisions of the law."

Wants Full Co-operation.

"In view of the generality of these demands, affecting the railroad employees on all the railroads which have been under federal control and in view of the manifest desirability and justice of the earliest possible disposition of the demands, I request that the railroad companies select such number of representatives as may seem appropriate to them to conduct the conference and negotiations contemplated by section 301, to the end that such representatives may promptly meet in conference with representatives selected by the employees in accordance with the request I am making of them and may thus initiate the necessary proceedings."

In his letter to the executives of the labor organizations, the president quoted from his communication to them last Saturday upon signing the railroad bill, in which he called attention to sections of the law providing for wage boards, and added:

"I therefore request that your organization select such number of representatives as may seem appropriate to them to conduct the conference and negotiation contemplated by section 301, to the end that such representatives may promptly meet in conference with the representatives selected by the railroad companies in accordance with the request I am making of them and may thus initiate the necessary proceedings."

Will Give New Law Trial.

Representatives of the railroad unions are understood to have voted to give the new railroad law a trial in bringing about a settlement of their wage demands.

It is understood also that they decided to hold in abeyance plans to test the constitutionality of the law and not to refer the controversy to the union membership for a vote "until the law has been given a fair trial."

This means, it is said, that all danger of a general strike at this time has been removed. One of the union officials said: "We are all good Americans and desire to go along with the president as far as we can for the decision of the union leaders was reached after a conference which has lasted more than three days."

MANITOWOC BLAST TAKES FIVE LIVES

EXPLOSION AT ALUMINUM FACTORY RESULTS IN PANIC AMONG GIRL WORKERS.

200 NEAR SCENE OF DISASTER

Clothing and Hair of Many Burned Off During Wild Scene Which Followed the Burning of the Gas Tank.

Manitowoc—Five girl employees of the Aluminum Goods Manufacturing company here have died as the result of an explosion at the plant, which was heard for over two miles. Four other girls are in the hospital in a precarious condition and little hope is entertained for their recovery.

The explosion took place on the third floor of the plant in a tank which serves to collect dust and poisonous gas in the process of polishing aluminum ware.

THE DEAD.

Hattie Holtz, 30 years old.
Pauline Komorowski, about 20 years old.
Josephine Schlesieler, 19 years old.
Frances Budycz, 19 years old.

The probably fatally injured are:
Emily Becker.
Anna Schade.
Lillian Sprinkler.
Blanche Komorowski.
Frances Rystikan.

Leap From Windows.

Hattie Holtz was the first victim of the disaster. She died shortly after being taken to the hospital. It is said that she jumped from the third floor of the building when the explosion came without warning. Miss Komorowski, Miss Schlesieler and Miss Budycz succumbed a few hours after being taken to the hospital. Esther Rusch, the fifth victim, died after a 24-hour attempt to save her life. Emily Becker is hovering between life and death and little hope is held out for her recovery.

Anna Schade, who leaped from the third floor of the factory with her clothing in flames, is expected to recover. In telling her story of the accident, she said that she was blown fifty feet across the room. She managed to crawl to the door of the room, but fearing that she would be trampled under foot in the wild rush which followed the blast, she leaped from the window. She alighted in a snowbank, which probably prevented more serious injuries.

The explosion, coming without warning and while more than 2,000 men and women were at work in the building, created a panic among the employees and in the wild rush many sustained severe injuries.

Enveloped in Flames.

The 200 girls employed in the building and polishing department, in which department the explosion occurred, were terror stricken by the blast, which for a few moments enveloped them in a mass of flames, and the escape of the majority of these employees was regarded as miraculous.

Their clothing and hair was set afire and in their rush for the doors and windows they came into contact with other employees, whose clothing also caught fire.

The blower pipe, in which the flames are thought to have started, it is said, leads from the various polishing, grinding and buffing machines to the huge tank, in which dust and acid are collected. This dust and acid are drawn into the tank by large fans and it is thought that friction in the pipes may have created the flame.

Until the investigation now being conducted by the state is completed, there will be no statement made on the probable cause of the explosion. The inquiry is being conducted by G. W. Kenniston of the Wisconsin industrial commission. He was called here at the request of officials of the Aluminum company.

FOURTEEN HURT IN CRASH

Confusion Regarding Signals Results in Omaha Train Hitting North Coast Limited.

Eau Claire—Several persons were injured here when a westbound passenger train on the Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis and Omaha railroad collided with the North Coast Limited. The accident happened in the yards where the limited was sidetracked.

All the injured were in the rear Pullman of the North Coast Limited. About fourteen persons were injured and three of them, who were quite seriously hurt, were taken to a local hospital. Several of the injured were able to proceed to the Twin cities.

A preliminary investigation indicated that confusion regarding signals in the yard had caused the Omaha road train to strike the rear end of the limited, which was on a side track. The west bound train was in charge of Engineer Tom Robinson, Chicago.

The wreck victims, who are in a local hospital, are: C. O. Ludlow, Chicago; R. A. Hutchinson, Weyauwega, Wis.; and Sam Wilson, newsboy, St. Paul.

The North Coast Limited was about an hour late when it pulled into the Eau Claire yards.

Suffered from Catarrh

Superior, Wis.—"I had been a great sufferer for about ten years with catarrh of the head, of nasal catarrh. I used Dr. Pierce's medicines for about five months, the 'Golden Medical Discovery' and Dr. Pierce's Catarrh Remedy, and am feeling better than I have in ten years. I used to have severe headaches, but I have never had one of these spells since I took the first bottle of Dr. Pierce's medicine. I can recommend these medicines judging by what they have done for me. I have also written Dr. Pierce's 'Invaluable' Hotel, in Buffalo, N. Y., in regard to my case and have always received prompt replies and much valuable information in regard to my particular case."—JOHN G. JOHNSON, 1217 Taylor Ave.

Followed by Rheumatism

Flint, Mich.—"Several years ago I became very poorly and finally had rheumatism so that I couldn't walk for several months. I doctored with four of our local doctors with very little relief, if any, and used some two or three different patent medicines. I got no better. My friends thought I wasn't going to get well at all. I was clear discouraged and when I read the paper of someone in my same condition who had been cured by taking Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery I didn't believe a word of it but I was giving what little money I had to the doctors anyway and thought I might as well give Dr. Pierce a little, so I got $5.00 worth of the Golden Medical Discovery and the little 'Pleasant Pellets' and took them. By that time I was so much better that I kept on and used so well I hardly knew myself. My friends were surprised. Of course I told them all I did was to take the 'Discovery' and take good care of myself, and I'm all straight-truth."—MRS. THEO. PACK, 1281 Stever Ave.

reconciliation between Mrs. Hardy and her daughter. Mrs. Hardy took her loss very much to heart. While Irene grieved for her father Mrs. Hardy grieved for herself.

"No, I'm not sick," said the girl brutally. "I'm drunk."

CHAPTER IX. Very slowly it dawned upon Mrs. Hardy that this respectable, thriving city, with its well-dressed, properly mannered people, its public spirit, its aggressiveness, its churches and theaters and schools, its law and order, and its afternoon teas, after all, was the real West; sincere, earnest; crude; perhaps, bare, certainly; but the spirit of its recent battle with the wilderness still fresh upon its person; lacking the finish that only time can give to a landscape or a civilization; but lacking also the moldiness, the mustiness, the insufferable artificiality of older communities.

CHAPTER X. "We must buy a house," she said to Irene. "We cannot afford to continue living at a hotel, and we must have our own home. You must look up a responsible dealer whose advice we can trust in a matter of this kind."

Accepted Incident as Mandate.
A remarkable case of ring binding is related of St. Athan, bishop of Zamora, who lived in the tenth century.
He wanted to surrender his bishopric and threw his episcopal ring into the Douro. But a fish brought it back to him, and he concluded that he should continue to bear his burden.

The Protection of a Boot— The Comfort of a Shoe

A miner's rubber shoe that farmers everywhere are wearing

IN the wettest weather—over the muddiest ground —you can keep your feet as dry as in boots—and yet have all the lightweight comfort of a leather shoe.

Farmers everywhere are strong for the new U. S. Bootee—a water-tight, lace rubber shoe that is just the thing for everyday service around the farm.

It was designed especially for miners, who must have a waterproof shoe that will not tire their feet. So the U. S. Bootee was made to withstand the roughest wear—absolutely water-tight—and yet light and comfortable.

Today it's fast becoming popular all over the country—with farmers and all men who have to work much out-of-doors. Worn right over your sock like an ordinary shoe, the U. S.
Bootee gives perfect protection always —whatever job you have on hand.

Its light weight and its smooth, easy fit will give you a new idea of real comfort in rubber footwear.

Ask your dealer today to show you a pair of the new U. S. Bootees. Look over the rest of his U. S. line

—boots, arctics, rubbers—whichever you need. Tough, heavy soles—special reinforcements at toe and heel—and always the highest quality rubber—these points are winning U. S. rubber footwear thousands of new friends every year.

Ask for U. S. rubber footwear—it means solid wear and long service for your money.

"U. S." Boots—Reinforced where the wear is heaviest. Made in all sizes and styles—Short, Storm King, Sporting and Hip. In red, black and white.
