NEW ENGINE IN-STALLED THIS WEEK

The work of installing the new 290 H. P. Nordberg-Todd Uniflow Poppet Valve engine at the power plant was completed this week, and same was given a tryout on Thursday morning, which proved satisfactory in every respect. The engine and generator will however, have to be run empty for at generator to dry out thoroughly from the moisture that may have entered same by shipping. The new engine is arranged for direct connection to a new 250 K. V. A.-A. C. current generator, which is run at 200 revolu tions per minute. On a full load in will be able to generate two hundred forty kilowatts which is equal to 300 H. P. One of the features of the new engine is that it is equipped with a synchronizing device which enables the engineer to regulate the speed in such a way as to make it run paralell with another engine. The engine was purchased of the Norberg Engine Company of Milwaykee. This comhas established a reputation it: hard to surpass in the turning out of a first class product. Good Plain Chocolate Cake. - Beat one-fourth of a cupful of butter, also one egg: gradually heat the two together, Add three squares of melted chocolate, then add alternately one cupful of milk, half a cupful of hot water and two cupfuls of sifted flour, sifted again with one teaspoonful of cinnamon, half a teaspoonful of salt, and three teaspoonfuls of baking powder. Bake in a sheet or layers. Cover with white or chocolate frosting.

Maple Sirup Cake,-Beat half a cupful of butter to a cream, add half a cupful of sugar, two well-beaten eggs and a cupful of maple strup. Sift together two and one-half cupfuls of flour, two teaspoonfuls of baking powder, half a teaspoonful of ginger, and three-fourths of a teaspoonful of soun. Add to the first mixture alternately with one-half cupful of hot water. Bake in two layers or a sheet. Finish with caramel frosting.

Pear Bavarian Cream .-- Drain the sirup from a can of pears. Soften onethird of a package of gelatin in onefourth of a cupful of cold water, then add to one cupful of the pear juice heated. Add the juice of one lemon and one-third of a cupful of sugar. Turn half of this mixture into an oval charlotte mold holding one quart and let chill on ice. Set the rest of the mixture aside on ice to harden. Cut thin slices from half pears and use these to line the mold. Do not put these in place until the fell, becomes firm. Press the rest of the pears through a sieve. Soften one-third of a package of gelatin in cold water and let it dissolve in a dish of hot water. Add the pear pulp, the juice of a temon and grated rind if desired. one-third of a cupful of sugar, stir the mixture over ice water until it begins to set, then fold in one cupful of cream beaten very light. When the mixture holds its shape use it in filling the mold. When serving unmold and garnish with cubes of bright colored jelly and whipped cream.

CANNING WITHOUT COOKING.

Any fruit except perhaps pineapple, which is hard to mash to a smooth pulp, may be kept indefinitely when mixed with equal parts of sugar. The fruit must be thoroughly blended, if berries, every one crushed, or the mixture will be sure to ferment. To Can Rhubarb .- Wash the rhubarb cut into small pieces and pack into a sterilized jar. Fill the jar to overflowing with cold water. Seal as usual. Some advocate the repeating of the process for two mornings, then the third day seal and set away, leaving 24 hours between each change of Tomatoes should be firm, ripe, but not overripe. Scald, peel and pack in jars. Be sure that the hard, green center is all removed. Pack when thoroughly cold; add a teaspoonful of salt and the same of sugar to a quart. Cover with cold water, seal and let stand upside down for two days. Then

Grape jelly without cooking is delicious. Press the juice from the rips fruit and add an equal quantity of sugar; stir and let stand until the sugar is thoroughly dissolved and ther pour into the glasses and set in the sun for a day or two. Seal as usual. The flavor of this jelly is much superior to that which is cooked.

Beet Relish .- The beets for this rectpe are cooked, then chopped; add an equal quantity of chopped cabbage, half as much celery and one cupful of fresh grated horseradish, one cupful of sugar, one teaspoonful of cayenne and cover with fresh snappy vinegar, Can and seal.

Oil Pickles .- Slice, without peeling, cucumbers one inch in diameter; add to two quarts of the sliced cucumbers, four thinly-sliced onions, or a dozen small ones will make a better looking mixture. Cover with strong salt water and let stand overnight. Drain and add one cupful of olive oil, mustard seed, celery seed and enough vinegar to just cover. Seal and keep in Other Recipes.

Tomato Rarebit .-- Put two tablespoonfuls of butter in a double boller or chafing dish and when well melted add two tablespoonfuls of flour. Pour on gradually three-fourths of a cupful of cream and when thick add the same amount of strained, stewed tomatoes, an eighth of a teaspoonful of soda, two cupfuls of finely minced cheese, and when melted add two eggs slightly beaten, salt, mustard and pepper to taste. Remove at once from the heat fter the eggs are added.

"Yes, I will," growled Mollie, "for they are really worth telling." "It wasn't particularly grateful of

I thought to myself: "'When I come back I will have a good dinner awaiting me and I may be very hungry.' So I started forth." "Oh, it was such a thrilling thing to do," said Billy. "I am really very jealous of you for having gotten out. And did you like the park?"

"It's a nice park and it has a few nice trees," said Mollie, "but people are very queer. Yes, they're very queer, indeed."

"Tell me all about them-and everything," said Billy. "You see I got out of my yard when the keeper was fixing my dinner in my small house, or at the entrance to my house. I thought to myself: "'Now, I'll have some adventures. I've been in this park for a number of years, you know," Mollie continued, "and I've never really had any adventures before. So I went forth as much disappointed. I recognized the little girl as one who had thrown peanuts in my yard. "But one can't account for the lack of friendship of some folks.

"I wandered on and seeing a baby carriage I thought I'd look at the baby to see what sort of a child it was going to turn out to be. And I thought I'd give it some good advice. I thought I would tell it to be loyal to its friends and not like a dear at one time and then be horrid to its nurse at another

"But didn't that baby's nurse hit me; yes, hit me and screamed just as if I'd eaten up the baby. I didn't want to do any harm. I only was out for an airing, but they got me mad, they did. "Then they all began to chase me and there was great excitement. I climbed up a tree and looked down and grinned at them. "But my pleasure was gone, for they hadn't left me alone in the first place.

They didn't know how pleasant I had felt when I started out. "And so by the time I got back again, or rather by the time I was brought back. I was so exhausted from being chased, and so sad because people liked to look at me and call on me when I was here, but didn't want me to call on them-that I simply had to have a good sleep." "Even if the people weren't so polite," said Billy enviously, "you had an adventure worth while." "I did," agreed Mollie, as she started to eat her dinner.

PAID ADVERTISEMENT: (Authorized, and paid for by the Washington County Democratic Committee, Ed. A. McCollow, chairman, Hartford, Wis. F. W. Bucklin, secretary, West Bend, Wis.)

THESE CANDIDATES DESERVE YOUR VOTE ON NOVEMBER 2nd

TO THE VOTERS OF WASHINGTON COUNTY:

You are about to employ public servants for a period of two years. On November 2nd you will go to the election polls to do this in your own interest, as well as for the general public good. You will be called upon to make your choice, and as good citizens you are interested in choosing the best men for the offices to be filled.

The Democratic County Committee is proud in being able to recommend for your favorable consideration, the names of some of your fellow citizens who stand high in the estimation of all who know them. These men, if elected, will prove themselves capable public servants. The past record of each and every one of them gives us this assurance. The candidates on the County Ticket are all Washington county men. Our candidate for Congress hails from Ozaukee county. All of these candidates are in the very prime of life and in every way qualified for the positions they seek. There is not among them any man who has not proven himself a good, substantial, self-supporting citizen. There are among them no worn-out politicians seeking a meal ticket at the hands of the voters; they are all men of good standing who have made good in their several walks of life, men who have made their own way in the world by their own industry and ability. They offer their services to the public and on the record they have made for themselves, ask your indorsement.

We present here a short sketch of these candidates. with the request that you acquaint yourself as far as possible with the merit that attaches to each. We feel certain that upon comparison with others seeking these positions, the Democratic candidates will fare well at the hands of the voters. In the nature of things it is not possible or even to be expected or desired that each candidate personally see each voter, much as they would like to do so. But it is to your interest that you make the right choice, and we desire to help you in doing this, by presenting the merits of the candidates whose names appear on the Democratic ticket.

FOR SHERIFF

George Hron, of West Bend

We feel certain that the voters of the county do not want to make laughing stock of any county office, least of all the position of sheriff. We need for this office a man of steady, sober habits and temperament. We want a man who has been tried and found not wanting. George Hron, the Democratic candidate for the office of sheriff, regardless of party, will no doubt be the overwhelming choice of the oters of the county. He was born in the town of West Bend in 1881, atended the public schools of his home town, and at an early age started out o make his own way in the world. No salary attaches to the office of coroner and the fees connected with the office are not such as to make the office an attractive one. Yet it is important that the most competent man available should fill the position for no one knows when or how often the coroner may be called upon to act in the most serious affairs. Not in many years have the voters of Washington county had an opportunity to vote for a man for this position whose qualifications equal those of Mr. Wolf. Born in the town of Addison in the year 1861, he has been for more than sixty years a resident of this county. He was educated in the common schools of the county and attended the Pio Nono college. He is a prosperous and up-to-date farmer, a man with a family consisting of a wife and ten children. Two of his sons served in the great war, and one of them died in that service. Temperament and experience are the two qualities that go far in making good officers. You cannot make a silk purse out of a pig's ear, but you can make a good county treasurer of a man who has a record such as Mr. Schmeling has. He was born in South Germantown in 1863, and industriously followed the trade of horseshoeing and blacksmithing for 38 years. Mr. Schmeling has always been a man who interested himself in other activities than his own business; he is the treasurer of the South Germantown Mutual Fire Insurance company, director of the Germantown Canning company, and director of the Citizens' Bank of South Germantown. In all these positions he has been active and has obtained training which qualifies him for the office of county treasurer. His fairness and ability has been recognized by those among whom he has lived. This is shown by the fact that he has been assessor of the city of Hartford for about 20 years, giving universal satisfaction. Mr. Buckreus writes an excellent hand, has a good mastery of the English language, has a keen, alert mind, and the saving grace of a fine sense of humor. # NOTICE OF GENERAL ELECTION

TO THE ELECTORS OF WASHINGTON COUNTY:-

OFFICE OF COUNTY CLERK, OCTOBER 26, 1920.

Notice is hereby given that a general election is to be held in the several towns, wards, villages, and election precincts in the county of Washington on the 2nd day of November, 1920, at which the officers named below are to be chosen. The names of the candidates for each office to be voted for, whose nominations have been certified to or filed in this office, are given under the title of the office and under the appropriate party or other designation, each in its proper column, together with the question submitted to a vote, in the sample ballot below.

INSTRUCTIONS TO VOTERS:

The following instructions are given for the information and guidance of voters:

(a) A voter upon entering the polling place and giving his name and residence, will receive a ballot from the ballot clerk which must have indorsed thereon the names or initials of both ballot clerks, and no other ballot can be used. Upon receiving his ballot, the voter must retire alone to a booth or compartment and prepare the same for voting. A ballot clerk may inform the voter as to the proper manner of marking a ballot, but he must not advise or indicate in any manner whom to vote for.

(b) If a voter wishes to vote for all the candidates nominated by any party he shall make a cross or other mark under the party designation printed at the top of the ballot in the circle made for that purpose. A ballot so marked and having no other mark will be counted for all the candidates of that party in the column underneath, unless the names of some of the candidates of the party have been erased or a name shall be written in or cross mark be placed in the square at the right of the name or names of candidates in another column. If the voter does not wish to vote for all the candidates nominated by one party, he shall mark his ballot by making a cross or mark in the square at the right of the name of the candidates for whom he intends to vote, or by inserting or writing in the name of the candidates for presidential electors by making a cross (X) or mark in the circle (O) under the party designated at the head of the party column, or he may vote for the candidates for presidential electors by making a cross (X) or mark in the square at the right of the name of each candidate for elector for whom he wishes to vote. If a voter does not wish to vote for any one or more candidates for presidential electors in the group, he may erase the name of such candidate or candidates and may write in the space provided therefor, the name or names of the person or persons for whom he desires to vote, and the cross (X) or mark in the circle (O) at the head of the party column shall count as a vote for each of the candidates in such column. If a voter does not wish to vote for any candidates for president or vice-president or for any presidential electors, whose names appear upon the ballot, he may insert or write in the names of the candidates for president and vice-president. and presidential electors to a number equal to the number of electors to be elected, in the appropriate spaces in the blank column at the right of the ate spaces in the blank column at the right of the ballot.

(d) A voter may vote upon a question submitted to a vote of the people by making a cross (X) or mark in the square at the right of the answer which he intends to give.

(e) The ballot should not be marked in any other manner. If the ballot be spoiled, it must be returned to the ballot clerk, who must issue another in its stead, but not more than three in all shall be issued to any one voter. Five minutes' time is allowed in booth to mark ballot. Unofficial ballots or memorandum to assist the voter in marking his ballot can be taken into the booth, and may be used to copy from. The ballot must not be shown so that any person can see how it has been marked by voter.

(f) After it is marked it should be folded so that the inside cannot be seen, but so that the printed indorsements and signatures of the ballot clerks on the outside may be seen. Then the voter should pass out of the booth or compartment, give his name to the inspector in charge of the ballot box, hand him his ballot to be placed in the box, and pass out of the voting place.

(g) A voter, who declares to the presiding officer that he is unable to read, or that by reason of physical disability he is unable to mark his ballot, can have assistance of one or two election officers in marking the same, to be chosen by the voter; and if he declares that he is totally blind, he may be assisted by any person chosen by him from among the legal voters of the county. The presiding officer may administer an oath in his discretion, as to such person's disability.

"One of these days!" Why not now? The farm home nowdays can easily made as modern as a city home, no ifference where that farm home lies. fodern heating is easily accomplished or the hot air or hot water systems ffered today are available for any loality. For the other conveniences of ght, power and running water, electricity offers the open sesame to these odern features, and electricity can be and anywhere today, regardless of location. This is because today the farmer can buy his own small electric plant and what's more, he can run it imself, without any expert knowledge or assistance. The farm electric plant has finally been developed to the point where it is just as dependable as any other piece of standard farm equipment. This doesn't mean that the farmer can pick up just any combination of engine, generator and switchboard which some enterprising agent or manufacturer may tell him is a lighting plant. But there are trustworthy and dependable farm electric plants and there is no necessity for the farmer's buying any other kind. When he has secured the kind that has been ried and that is operating successfuly by the thousand, he can be assured of electric lights for his house and barns, electric power for all the small machines like washing machines. thurn, cream separator, fanning mill, grindstone, vacuum sweeper, heat for e electric iron-in short, complete electric service that his family should e enjoying now, instead of "One of

BOYS

BOYS are well-known. You don't have to go to far lands or to the County Fair to look upon them. Everywhere, it is still the style to have Boys.

Perhaps you are trying to run one or more Boys right this minute. Then you will know that since the world began they were never so tremendously important as now. Your hopes and your aims center on them. You must deliver them out of Boyhood into successful Manhood.

Will your sons stay with the land, or will the will-o-the-wisp of the cities call them away? Armies of country Boys, who could be happiest and most successful on farms, respond to the artificial glamour of town life before they are old enough to know their own minds. They do not know that the rewards of country life-in money, health, and happiness-are far greater. Make them realize that! Guide the restless ambitions of your Boys and spare no pains!

Machines have been a powerful factor in stemming the flow to the cities. Machines banish drudgery and make labor interesting; machines foster the love of mechanics in the Boy; machines are builders of fortunes.

You now own many of the machines made by the International Harvester Company. We are headquarters for the International Full Line, including Titan tractors, International engines, and manure spreaders, Primrose cream separators, McCormick and Deering harvesting, having, and corn machines, tillage tools, Pao plows, etc. Give the Boys every chance for liking farming and farm life. Perhaps more of these machines will help keep them contented.

JUDGE LANDIS SEIZES PROBE

Officially Takes Charge of the Booze Investigation at Chicago.

GARRITY IS "SITTING TIGHT"

Declares He Will Not Turn Over Police Documents to U. S. District Attorney-Talk Less and Act More, Says Landia.

Chicago, Oct. 27 .- The government liquor investigation was officially taken over by Federal Judge Kenesaw Mountain Landis. Immediately on seizing the reins of the booze inquiry Judge Landis issued a laconic statement in which he admonished the United States district attorney's office to "show more action and do less talking."

But at the same time Assistant United States District Attorney John J. Kelly, special prosecutor in the liquor quiz was preparing to wrest from Chief of Police John J. Garrity additional records of the police investigation. He said he would issue subif the latter refused the records. But Chief Garrity announced that he was "sitting tight." "I am tired of being made a monkey in this thing," the chief said.

MACSWINEY DIES IN ENGLISH JAIL

Lord Mayor of Cork, Ireland, Succumbs on 74th Day of Hunger Strike.

KIN WITH HIM AT THE END

Heart Failure Given as Cause of Death -Was Elected a Sinn Fein Member From Cork to the British Parliament.

London, Oct. 25 .- Terence MacSwiney, lord mayor of Cork, died at Brixton prison today following a hunger strike that started August 12. This was the seventy-fourth day of the strike-which was interrupted on its sixty-ninth day by involuntary feeding by the authorities, while the lord mayor was unconscious.

John MacSwiney and the chaplain, who had been walting downstairs in 4:35 to go to the mayor's bedside, as his hunger strike, it was thought death was approaching. Mrs. MacSwiney, accompanied by her parents and the Misses Annie and Mary MacSwiney, sisters of the lord mayor, arrived at Brixton prison at The cause of MacSwiney's death was heart fallure, according to a statement issued at the home office. MacSwiney's hunger strike began August 12 when, with ten of his associates, he was arrested by soldiers in Cork while attending a session of a Sinn Fein court. After trial by a court-martial under the regulations of the defense of the realm act, he was found guilty of sedition and sentenced to two years' imprisonment, which he MacSwiney, then an alderman of Cork, was elected lord mayor of the city at a special session of the Cork corporation on March 30 of this year to succeed Lord Mayor MacCurtin, assassinated in mysterious circumstances. He was a well-known Sinn Fein leader and, prior to his election, had been deported and imprisoned sev-

When arrested on August 12 Mac-Swiney managed to escape to the street from the back of the city hall, which soldiers had surrounded, but was captured outside. He was taken to the military barracks and came up for trial on August 16. The courtmartial found him guilty of having control of the secret police cipher, of having in his possession a document likely to cause disaffection, namely, a copy of a resolution of the Cork cor-Dail Eireann, the Irish Republican parliament, and of having made a seditious speech on the occasion of his

Already weak at the trial because disputed the jurisdiction of the court, saying: "I am the lord mayor of this city and its chief magistrate. I declare this court illegal and those taking part in it liable to arrest under the laws of the Irish republic."

The day following his trial Lord Mayor MacSwiney was deported to England aboard a destroyer, under a heavy military escort, and was lodged in Brixton prison. The government announced on August 19 that he was sentenced to two years' imprisonment. MacSwiney was first arrested in May, 1916, and was deported without trial to Wakefield prison, England. A few months later he was released without explanation. He was rearrested in February, 1917, and was again deported without trial. He escaped and returned to Ireland in June. 1917, and was arrested in the following November and sentenced to nine months' imprisonment for seditious ut-

Released on account of poor health in February 1918, MacSwiney was again arrested the next month. He was sent to Belfast prison to complete his term of imprisonment and was discharged September 6, supposedly in broken health. Despite his condition he was arrested as he left the prison gates and taken to England, but was released in March, 1919. Warrants were issued for his arrest in September and November, 1919, and January and March of this year.

Terence MacSwiney was forty years old. He started life as a draper's assistant.

While in Wakefield jail he met Muriel Murphy, daughter of a wealthy Cork distiller, who visited the fall, and Federal Grand Jurors Return Bill Conshortly after they were united in marriage despite much opposition.

MacSwiney was elected as a Sinn Fein member from Cork to the British lic was confirmed.

Mr. Redmond's story is the first direct testimony unearthed by the grand jury tending to show that Attorney Austrian, in charge of the investigation for Comiskey, had actual evidence against alleged crooked players before the 1920 season started.

DEMPSEY AND CARPENTIER TO BATTLE FOR $500,000

Two Great Boxers Will Meet in New York Early in the New Year.

New York, Oct. 27.-Jack Dempsey, leavyweight champion of the world, and Georges Carpentier, heavyweight champion of Europe, will fight for the world's championship sometime between February 1 and July 4, 4921. The two fighters came to terms and a contract will be formally signed to-

The announcement of the agreement was made following a conference in which Jack Kearns, manager of Dempsey; Francois Descamps manager of Carpentier; Charles Cochran, London promoter; Tex Rickard, American promoter, and William A. Brady, theatrical man, participated. The bout will be promoted by Cochran, Rickard and Brady.

Although the participants refused to divulge any further details of the match until the contract is formally signed, it was learned that the fight will be for not less than ten rounds and no more than fifteen. It is understood that under the terms of the contract the championship battle may be held in the United States, Canada or Cuba. It is strongly suspected that the match will be held in New York

There is no question that the fight will probably be the biggest attraction the pugilistic world has known. The three most respectable and bestknown sporting men in the world are tiated by other witnesses, it probably behind the match and Dempsey and will bring widespread changes in Carpentier, both in their prime, are baseball circles. While Tex Rickard and his fellow promoters refused to disclose the amount of the purse to be given the players to start the 1920 pennant pugilists before the formal signing of the contract, it is known that, including certain percentages, it will approuch $500,000.

"YOUR FATHER-"

Synopsis.—Never having known his father, and living with his mother on a housebat on the Wabash river, Pearlister—the only name he has—learn from her a part of the story of her sad life. The recital is interrupted by a fearful fit of coughing and he hur-ries ashore to seek a root that affords relief. He meets a young girl whom he mentally christens the Wild Rose. She eludes him before he can make her acquaint-ance. A vacant cabin on the shore has attracted the attention of the alling woman, and they move into it. Their first meal is interrupted by a stranger who resents their presence. The youth drives the man from their home. His pres-ence has strangely affected the mother. That night the youth finds within a mussel the largest pearl that has been found on the river,

"That pearl's intirely too valuable to take chances on," he muttered, laying his coat in the bow, with the shotgun across it, giving the final shove to the boat and leaping in. "I reckon I'll jist stick around till y'u git it in th' bank t'morrow. That hell-hound, th' Red Mask, stuck up th' Milford stage down th' river last week. Your Blue Moon would be nuts t' him; an' we did make a right smart fuss when y'u found it."

Most men of high destinies have high sounding names. Pym and Rabakuk may be pretty well, but they must not think to cope with the Cromwells and Isalahs. And you could not find a hetter case in point than that of the English admirals. Drake and Rooke and Hawke are picked names for men of execution. Frobisher, Rodney, Boscawen, Foul-Wather, Jack Byron are all good to catch the eye in a page of a naval history. Cloudesley Shovel is a mouthful of quaint and sounding syllables. Benbow has a buildog quality that suits the man's character, and it takes us back to those English archers who were his true comrades for plainness, tenacity and pluck. Raleigh is spirited and martial, and signifies an act of hold conduct in the field. . . .- "Virginibus Puerisqua," by Louis Stevenson.

The Cockade.

The cuckade, an ornament or knet of ribbon or rosette of leather, was originally worn as a military or navai decoration or as the badge of a political party. Cockades made of ribbons of the national colors were worn by soldlers of the national wars of the eight. eenth century. In England after the expulsion of the Stuart dynasty the ence. You can publish this and I will tell any one who writes to me the good it has done me."—Mrs. MARGARET DANZ, 743 N. 25th Street, Phila., Pa.

It hardly seems possible that there is a woman in this country who will continue to suffer without giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial after all the evidence that is continually being published, proving beyond contra-diction that this grand old medicine has relieved more suffering among women than any other medicine in the world.

JUST A LITTLE STORY—A TRUE STORY

WO men met the other day after a separa-I tion of many years. One remarked the prosperous appearance of the other as the "other" noted the seedy appearance of his friend.

They exchanged experiences. The prosperous one claimed his prosperity due to early thrift and opening a savings account when he was a young man. His savings had started him in business and the habits acquired had guided him in later years.

The "other" had not saved. He had put off from day to day his first deposit and because he had not saved had been forced to watch opportunity pass him by. His watchword was "tomorrow" and tomorrow never comes.

Moral: Don't wait! Come to the bank NOW and make your first deposit—one dollar will open an account.
