CIRCUIT COURT HAS BUSY WEEK

The circuit court now in session at West Bend, had a very busy week. On Monday and Tuesday the case of Rosenthal & Day vs. The German Mutual Fire Insurance Company of the town of Auburn came up for trial before Judge C. A. Fowler of Fond du Lac, as the insurance company had filed an affidavit of prejudice against Judge Luck. The jury brought in a sealed verdict on Tuesday on a fifty, fifty basis. The case of J. B. Colt Company vs. Chas. Backhaus, the former suing Mr. Backhaus on a breach of contract, was decided not in favor of Mr. Backhaus on the grounds that the company failed to install an acetylene lighting plant within a reasonable time after having been given the contract. In the case of Edward Schaezel vs. David Present, jury awarded Schaezel $500 damages for being assaulted by Present. In the case of State vs. R. J. Vincent, the latter being charged with obtaining money under false pretense, was placed on probation for three years. He must also repay Louis F. Kuester the money he lost when Kuester purchased an automobile from Vincent on which there was a chattel mortgage. Vincent must report monthly to the probation officer. The case of W. Oelbafen vs. C. & N. W. Ry. Co., for damages by destruction of a barn by fire, said to have been caused by sparks from a locomotive, was settled out of court, as were the cases of Carl Ortan vs. Ed. Rippey and Wm. Tischka vs. John J. Rosenheimer.

DIANA HUNTING CLUB HAS ANNUAL OUTING

The Diana Hunting Club of this village held their 11th annual outing at the Mich Johannes farm last Sunday. Upon arriving at their destination they at once proceeded to the thick forests of that farm, to bag some of the wily cotton tails. This year's hunting however, did not prove quite as successful as in former years. Reports received from the members of the club state that the older rabbits which formerly were very numerous, were absent, while those which remained were not so plentiful. The sharpshooters to hit. After several hours of hunting, Host Johannes proposed the homeward trip which was sanctioned by the members of the party. Upon arriving at the homestead social enjoyment was afforded by the celebrated Rube Quartette and augmented orchestra of three pieces formed the main pastime for a few hours, after which the guests were invited to a splendid goose supper, which was highly appreciated and to which ample justice was done. Mrs. Johannes has served many elegant suppers for the members of the Diana Club but none could compare with this one. Although the members were not very successful in bagging the cotton tails, however, they made up for it after reaching the homestead where the occasion was most enjoyable. Thus the Diana Hunting Club is satisfied to announce its 11th annual outing a grand success and desire to thank Mr. and Mrs. Johannes for their kind hospitality and pleasing and excellent manner in which they entertained.

CITY TEAM WINS SECOND GAME

In a fast, interesting and exciting game of basket ball, the Kewaskum C. team defeated the strong Edisonettes of New London, at the Opera House, Saturday evening, by the close score of 17 to 21. The contest proved to be the hardest fought game ever played by the local quintette and the large number of fans who had come to witness same were kept in a high pitch of excitement throughout. Although the locals took the lead at the beginning the score never differed more than four points, and no team work, save work and lead by the first half ended 10 to 13 with the locals at the long end. The second half started with a rush. The visitors coming back strong and were successful in tying the score 17 to 17, after about five minutes of play. Both sides fought hard, and used every trick of the game known to them, in an effort to break the tie, which remained until the last three minutes of play. Spatz Miller, center, two field goals, bringing the score to 21. In the second half the locals scored 8 points to the visitors 7. It certainly was a rich treat to the fans, a game worth going miles to see. Spatz Miller, our center, played a star game, his foot work, pass work and lead by playing were far superior to the rest of the players, and it was through his brilliant playing that the game was won. Tonight (Saturday) the locals will clash with a team from the State University of Milwaukee. This contest will be one of the big games of the season, as the home boys will clash with a team consisting of floor guards, men who understand the game thoroughly and who have played in 17th and against all the best professional teams in the state. Be there and watch them play. On December 11 the locals will either play at North Lake or Random Lake at the latter places. Dec. 18 they will play Hartford on the home floor.

IN MEMORY

A precious one from us has gone,
A voice we loved is still;
A place is vacant in our home,

The boon his love had given,
And though the body slumbers here,
The soul is safe in Heaven.

POSTSCRIPT ABOUT FUR TRIMMED SUITS

A POSTSCRIPT written to the story of suits is due just now and may be briefly written, since the story itself was not a long one this season. There has been great uniformity of styles and considerable variety in details of finishing, and the points that distinguished suits at the beginning of the season proved to be very popular, so that there has been no good reason for running after strange gobs. Now that the season is over, and designers are turning their attention to spring, we are not likely to find any startling innovations in winter styles.

The two suits pictured are found among the liberal quota of fur-trimmed models that have made up a part of all representative collections. The suit at the left is one of the few that have shown themselves independent of the vague for cents reaching almost to the knees. There are a few models that keep it company, so that it is not wholly audacious, but they are very becoming and good in style. The coat shown in the picture has placements of fur at each side of the front and back, with two large buttons set in the spaces between the fur pieces and a generous shawl collar. The long grille of the material is finished at the ends with barrel-shaped ornaments made of the fur. Squirrel skins were chosen for this suit's trimming and the gray velvet turban covered with massed sprays of uncurled ostrich in gray looks well with it.

The suit at the right reveals a coat a little longer than the average, with a plain and fairly wide skirt. It is a fine model for a matronly wearer, with its straight coat and line of cloth-covered buttons from waist to neck. These buttons reappear at the sides where the coat is split, and add to the general trimness of this suit. Popular fur pieces for suits include seal, minkskin, squirrel, short-haired fox, Australian opossum and beaver. Another feather-covered hat suggests that velvet and feathers are not outlived by anything else for wear on the street, and here a velvet-covered toque makes the background for much uncurled ostrich.

Hats That Smile At Winter

IN A GROUP of hats for little girls, it is not without intention that a plain felt is placed at the top; for of all millinery for children, the handsome beaver or felt, with ribbon trim, holds its own as always above criticism and always appropriate. These beavers and felts, plain as they are, come in an unbelievable variety of shapes and endlessly ingenious ribbon trims, and in all needed sizes and colors. They are here and have been for many years and are as certain of return each year as the seasons are. Occasionally one comes across a model that has a little additional embellishment besides the ribbon band or sash and in those pictured there is a flat, stretched band of felt about the brim.

But even these lovely beavers and felts have rivals in pretty hats of velvet, each enhancing the virtue of the other. Just below the felt hat, at the left there is shown a delightful bonnet-like shape with soft crown of velvet. Its brim is made of ribbon. The velvet side-crown is gayly embroidered and ribbon is looped at the side with long ends falling. Little misses are much dressed up when they wear pretty head coverings of this description. The hat at the right is simpler and is also made of velvet. Two colors are used for it, the brim in a lighter tone than the crown, and a sash of ribbon finishes it.

A charming hat at the bottom of the group is an amusing miniature made like hats for grownups. It is also made of velvet with sectional crown and has an upturned brim split at each side. Silk cord edges the brim and outlines the seams in the crown and bright motifs in silk embroidery help the gaiety of the winter season. No wonder its small wearer is so pleased with it in general and her hat in particular. It is a clever piece of designing in which the means used for developing mature headwear have been perfectly adopted to childhood. Hats as elaborate as this look best with plain coats and it happens that coats for girls are plain this season.

GIVE ATTENTION TO LITTLE CALF

Start It Right if It Is to Develop Into Healthy and Profitable Cow.

KEEP IN THRIFTY CONDITION

Milk Testing Four to Five Per Cent Is Not Readily Digested by Young Calves and Often Causes Scouring—Roughage Invaluable.

During the first six months of its life a calf needs considerable attention, if it is to develop into a healthy and profitable cow. At this time of the year when a great many calves are started special care should be taken not only to get them started right, but also to keep them in a thrifty condition.

It is economy to keep calf in such condition that it will gain one to one and one-half pounds daily, rather than to allow it to become at all stunted. As rich milk, testing four to five per cent, is not readily digested by young calves and often causes scouring, it is best to feed them three to three and one-half per cent milk. A strong calf at this time of the year can be given one pound of milk for every eight pounds of its live weight.

Be Careful With Gruel.
Most dairymen get their calves gradually to eating some kind of calf meal in the form of a gruel, but many make the mistake of feeding too large a quantity of this gruel, thinking that it is not as wholesome as milk, and that they must, therefore, feed more of it to make up for the food value of the milk. This causes indigestion, and the calves become pot-bellied. The better practice is to feed from six to eight quarts of gruel and give the calves a good allowance of grain ration consisting of equal parts by weight of corn, oats, bran and oil meal.

Silage Often Disastrous.
Silage is often fed to calves with disastrous results. This may be overcome by first feeding grain, milk and hay, then silage. Good roughage is invaluable, and it is a wise practice to use the second cutting of alfalfa or clover for calf feeding.

KEEP BIRDS OUT OF GUTTERS

Strip of Galvanized Wire Cloth or Netting Will Effectively Exclude Sparrows.

To keep the birds from nesting in the gutters or leaves from blowing in, a strip of No. 4 or No. 6 galvanized wire cloth or netting should be crimped on top of the eaves gutter or held in place by wire passed around at intervals of every two or three feet.

The number of the wire cloth indicates the number of meshes to the inch, the finer being more suitable for the purpose. The covering will not interfere with a free passage of water, but will effectively exclude trash. Such a covering would be more effective if soldered in place before the gutter is put up.

RIGHT DRAFT OF EVENERS

First Thing to Do Is to See That They Are Working Free From Friction and Binding.

When figuring on the draft of eveners, and the allowance to be given, the first thing to see to is that the eveners are working free from friction and binding. After that, the next matter of importance is whether or not the part of the load to be carried by each horse is fair to the horse. Roughly, it will be found that a horse's working capacity is in proportion to its weight, that is, for horses of similar build. Put the bulk of the load on the bigger and stronger horse, but don't overload the matter. A couple inches the advantage means a lot—both ways!

ROLLING CUTTER IS USEFUL

Most Satisfactory for Covering Weeds, Tall Stubble and Other Rubbish on Farm.

Weeds, tall stubble and trash can be covered more satisfactorily if a rolling cutter is used on the plow. The cutter so that it makes a cut deep enough to separate roots and stubble. The cut should be made just ahead of and outside of the point of the plowshare. A trash gatherer, chain or rod, will help turn the stubble under. If plowing with a tractor, a better job can be done if the speed is increased to three miles per hour.

DEVICE FOR HOLDING BAGS WHILE FILLING

Saves Backache and Many Useless Adjectives.

Contrivance Is Made of Half a Pickle Barrel and Attached to Side of Bin or Granary—One Man Does Work of Two.

This device for holding sacks while filling them should save backache and many useless adjectives.

It is made of half a pickle-barrel with the ends knocked out, attached by a small block of wood to the side of a bin or granary.

Five or six mals driven through the sides of the barrel from the inside and pointed at an upward angle when the barrel is in place, hold the sack in place during the filling. The sack is rolled up over the bottom of the barrel as shown. It should be at the right height from the floor for filling, at the same time resting on the floor to prevent strain on the mals and wearing the sack.—Dale Van Horne, in Popular Science Monthly.

BOTH FRIEND AND NUISANCE

Crow Wages Warfare All Summer Long on Insect Pests—Raids Cornfield and Hen Yard.

That the crow's character is not so black as it is usually painted is disclosed by investigations made by the bureau of biological survey of the United States Department of Agriculture. In fact, the department's "birdmen" say that much of the work the crow does is of direct assistance to the farmer, for "Mistake Crows" wages warfare all summer long on insect pests. In fact, insects supply about one-fifth of his food, and those which he prefers in his diet are the worst insect pests the farmer has to contend with—grasshoppers, caterpillars, and white grubs and their parents, May beetles.

On the other hand, the crow raids the cornfield and the poultry yard, and kills small wild birds and destroys their nests. From the evidence at hand the crow's merits and shortcomings appear about equally divided. While it would not be well to give it absolute protection and thus afford the farmer no recourse when the bird is doing damage, the bureau of biological survey believes that to adopt the policy of killing every crow that comes within gunshot would be equally unwise.

DISTRIBUTE EXCESS PROFITS

Growers of 1918 Wool Crop Being Paid as Rapidly as Possible by Department of Agriculture.

Excess profits made by dealers who handled the wool clip in 1918 are being distributed to some 100,000 wool growers by the United States Department of Agriculture. It is estimated that the total amount of such excess profits is more than one million dollars, of which a little less than half has been turned over to the bureau of markets for distribution at the present time.

Some of the dealers who accumulated excess profits have failed or refused to refund the entire amount so far, and the bureau is working to secure the full amount. The department of justice is co-operating with the bureau, and it is hoped to complete the distribution of the funds at an early date.

DANGER OF DUST EXPLOSIONS

Cost 80 Lives and $7,000,000 Property Damage in 1919—Evil Almost Eliminated.

Grain dust and similar mill stipples appear harmless, but filtered through the air and ignited in a closed structure, they are as deadly as dynamite. Such explosions cost 80 lives and $7,000,000 property damages in 1919. The United States Department of Agriculture dust-explosion investigation service has practically eliminated the evil.

The handiest, most helpful tool on the farm is a well-used lead pencil. Applied to a piece of paper, and moved as directed by a fair amount of brains it can do wonders in saving losses and in pointing out where profits are to be had.

Begin Right Now to Conquer Your Rheumatism

If you are going to again rely upon the liniment bottle to try to rub your Rheumatism away, you will be doomed again to nothing but disappointment. A disease that can cause so much pain and suffering is not on the surface of the skin, and cannot be rubbed away.
Many forms of Rheumatism are caused by a tiny disease germ in the blood, and in such cases the only logical treatment is to search out and remove these germs from the blood.

For this purpose there is no more satisfactory remedy than S.S.S., the fine old blood remedy that has been in use for more than fifty years, and has given such general satisfaction for Rheumatism.

Begin taking S.S.S. today, and if you will write a complete history of your case, our medical director will give you expert advice, without charge. Address Chief Medical Director, 160 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.

Speaking Universally.

Since he had been to France he was very fond of astring his slight knowledge of French. On leaving his friend one evening said:
"Au revoir!"
"What do you mean?" asked his friend.
"I mean good-bye—'au revoir' is 'good-bye' in the French language," said the would-be linguist.
"Oh, I see," returned his friend.
"Well, caribolic acid to you!"
"What on earth does that mean?"
"Caribolic acid means 'good-bye' in any language," was the reply.

His Chief End in Life.

There lived in an English town a wealthy but exceedingly "right" old lady, who kept very few servants and paid them as little as possible.
Among these was an underfed, miserable-looking lad of fourteen, who answered the door, did the dishwashing, waited at table, weeded the garden, washed the dog and a few other things.
One day a visitor asked this lad:
"Well, my boy, and what do you do around here?"
"I do a butler, a kitchen maid and a gardener out of a job," replied the boy gravely.

WILSON TO ACT IN ARMENIA TROUBLE

Agrees to Use Good Offices to End Hostilities.

NO AUTHORITY TO USE FORCE

President Accepts League of Nations' Invitation to Mediate in Imbroglio—Will Name Representative to Work for Peace.

Washington, Dec. 1.—President Wilson has accepted the invitation of the League of Nations to act as mediator in the Armenian situation.

The President's acceptance is conditioned upon the use of moral influence. He explains that he is without authority to employ force without the consent of congress.

In accepting the invitation to mediate to end the hostilities now directed against the Armenian people, President Wilson wrote President Hymans of the league assembly that he did so on assurances of "the moral and diplomatic support of the principal powers" and reserves on the league council to suggest to him the avenue through which his proffer should be made.

He added that he was without power to use the military forces of the United States to enforce mediation, any material contribution depending upon congress, "which," he says, "is not now in session and whose action I could not forecast."

Text of the Letter.

President Wilson's letter to M. Hymans follows:
"I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your cabled message setting forth the resolution adopted by the assembly of the League of Nations, requesting the council of the league to arrive at an understanding with the governments with the view to trusting a power with the task of taking the necessary measures to stop the hostilities in Armenia."

"You offered to the United States the opportunity of undertaking the humanitarian task of using its good offices to end the present tragedy being enacted in Armenia, and you assure me that your proposal involves no repetition of the invitation to accept a mandate for Armenia."

"While the invitation to accept the mandate for Armenia has been rejected by the senate of the United States, this country has repeatedly declared its solicitude for the fate and welfare of the Armenian people in a manner and to an extent that justifies you in saying that the fate of Armenia has always been of special interest to the American people."

Has No Authorization.

"I am without authorization to offer or employ the military forces of the United States in any project for the relief of Armenia, and any material contribution would require the authorization of the congress which is not now in session and whose action I could not forecast. I am willing, however, upon assurances of the moral and diplomatic support of the principal powers, and in a spirit of sympathetic response to the request of the council of the League of Nations, to use my good offices and to proffer my personal mediation to a representative whom I may designate, to end the hostilities that are now being waged against the Armenian people and to bring peace and accord to the contending parties, relying upon the council of the League of Nations to suggest to me the avenues through which my proffer should be conveyed and the parties to whom it should be addressed. WOODROW WILSON."

Boston, Mass., Dec. 1.—Charles Ponzi, promoter of the quick rich scheme in which thousands of persons invested millions of dollars before it collapsed last August, pleaded guilty to using the mails in a scheme to defraud in the federal District court.

Sentence of five years in the Plymouth county jail was imposed by Judge Hale. Admitted.
It is related that when Judge Benjamin Toppin of Ohio, who died in the early 70s, applied for admission to the bar of that state he was asked just two questions. "Mr. Toppin, what is law?" was the first of these.

"An unjust distribution of justice," replied the applicant.
"What is equity?" was the second.
"A d-- imposition upon common sense!"

He was received into the brotherhood with open arms.

Swamp-Root has stood the test of years. It is sold by all druggists on its merit and it should help you. No other kidney medicine has so many friends.

Definition of a Friend.
Some one defined a friend as "one who is truer to me than I am to myself." We are not always true to ourselves, and one of the highest offices of friendship is to hold the life true to its best. The love that does not make us long to be better and stronger for its sake, and in gratitude for its possession, is not the highest type of love.

For Economy's Sake.
Mrs. Eke—What! You let your girl off every afternoon?
Mrs. Wye—Yes, indeed, and it's quite a saving. The more she is away the fewer dishes she breaks.—Boston Transcript.

Ungrateful Tourists.
Never since the foundation of the Great St. Bernard monastery have the monks been so shamefully exploited by Alpinists and tourists as this season.
For example, 700 visitors, the majority of whom arrived in motor cars recently, stayed the night and lunched and dined with wine free, but deliberately forgot to pay. The collection box at the entrance of the hospice contained only 15 francs when the crowd of visitors, among whom were several English and Americans, left.
The result was a most serious loss.—Geneva (Switzerland) Dispatch.

Should Be Quarantined.

Many physicians believe that anyone who has a bad cold should be completely isolated to prevent other members of the family and associates from contracting the disease, as colds are about as catching as measles. Our thing sure—the sooner one rids himself of a cold the less the danger, and you will look a good while before you find a better medicine than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to aid you in curing a cold.

The "U.S." Walrus

Three reasons why you'll like the new "U.S." Walrus

- 1—Can be cleaned instantly
- 2—Slips on over your leather shoes
- 3—Fleece-lined—warm and dry

NO more dirty, mud-clogged overshoes! Here's an overshoe that you can clean instantly—no matter how dirty it is! Toss a pail of water over it—or hold it right under a faucet—and every trace of mud washes quickly off its smooth rubber surface.

When you have to go out for wood, or to milk, or for any of these dozens of odd jobs around the place—you want an overshoe that you can slip on and off in a hurry. Here it is—buckle it on in a second—unbuckle it and push it off with your toe when you're through.

Ever work on a job all day long with wet, cold feet? If you have, you'll be glad of the soft, fleecy lining in this new overshoe that keeps your feet warm and comfortable. Dry, too—it's absolutely watertight.

Built for the hardest wear. Made by the oldest and largest rubber manufacturer in the world, the U. S. Walrus is built for the roughest wear. Its sole consists of heavy layers of the finest rubber. All other points of stress are specially reinforced.

Ask your dealer to show you the new U. S. Walrus. Look over the rest of this U. S. line—boots, booties, aprons—whatever you need. Every one is backed by over half a century of experience. The rubber comes from our own plantations—the whole process of manufacture is supervised by experts.

Always look for the U. S. Seal—it means solid wear and long service for your money.

"U.S." Seal—Reinforced where the wear is hardest. Made in U.S.A. and Japan. Hip, Half-hip, and Knee. In red, black, and white.

THE APPLE OF YOUR EYE

IF YOUR BOY has a bent toward farming, be sure that he has every chance to find it out. Don't let the distant rainbow tempt him away unless he is fitted only for the city.

Give him a personal interest in the farm life about him as he grows up. Let him own something. Put a plot of ground or some livestock in his care and see how keenly he responds.

Another wise thing to do is to entrust him with modern, labor-saving machines.

We are ready to help you in this because we are Headquarters for the Full Line of International Farm Machines, including Titan tractors, Primrose cream separators, P & O plows, International engines, manure spreaders, feed grinders, corn shellers, etc. Machines like these are making farm life more interesting and more profitable. Stop in and see us about your farm equipment needs.

SONORA

What is in a name? Here is what is in the Sonora name: A knowledge on your part that when you buy a Sonora you buy the phonograph that has proven superiority, because the only jury which heard and tested all of the phonographs at the Panama-Pacific Exposition recommended that the Sonora be given a marking for tone quality higher than that given to any other machine, because of this proof you should choose a Sonora. Hear it at our store.

The Sonora plays All Makes of disc records perfectly without extra attachments.

The Sonora is the instrument of matchless beauty and is not beyond your means, in fact it costs little more than machines of unknown make of which you know nothing about.

The Sonora, the phonograph sold without offering easy payments as the leading attraction. Do not be misled by the growing installment evil. Sonora is sold on a quality basis and you get full value, the terms being secondary consideration. Hear the Sonora and you will choose it.

A Sonora will make an Ideal Xmas Gift, let us sell you one.

Prices $75 to $2500

"In Every Respect" says the Good Judge

You get more genuine chewing satisfaction from the Real Tobacco Chew than you ever got from the ordinary kind.

The good tobacco taste lasts so long—a small chew of this class of tobacco lasts much longer than a big chew of the old kind. That's why it costs less to use.

Any man who has used both kinds will tell you that.

Off Summer Pastures

As your animals come in off the pastures they'll miss the tonics and laxatives which nature supplied to keep them in condition. It's a big change. You must supply what is lacking in the dry feed—hay, grain and fodder—or they will get "off feed" and out of fit.

Dr. Hess Stock Tonic

Supplies the Tonics—Laxatives—Diuretics
It keeps animals free from worms. It keeps their bowels open and regular. It keeps the appetite and digestion good. It conditions cows for calving. It helps to keep up the milk flow. It keeps feeding cattle right up on their appetites. It keeps hogs healthy, thrifty, free from worms. It means health and thrift for all animals.
