County $69,236 Short of Bond Quota in Last Week

$233,664.00 worth of U. S. war bonds were purchased in Washington county from July 1 through the 23rd. To reach the quota set for July of $302,900.00, only $69,236.00 worth had to be purchased the last week. County Chairman Robert H. Rolfs in announcing these figures was very optimistic in the belief that the quota would be reached this month.

"The people of Washington county should be complimented on the spirit they are showing in doing this job," said Mr. Rolfs. "Thanks to all of you who bought war bonds this month."

On Friday night, the last night of the month, "Liberty House" was dedicated in West Bend at the O'Meara triangle on Main street. It will be open every Friday evening. War bonds can be purchased there. It was the last opportunity to buy a bond in July. A bond bought on the last day of the month is dated as of the 1st, so you're really getting 30 days' interest throw in when you buy a bond at the end of the month.

Visit "Liberty House"—buy a bond and ring "Liberty bell." Every time you ring it you are ringing the death knell for the dictators.

Creamery Truck Tips Over After Collision

A 1940 model V-8 truck owned by the Kewaskum Creamery company was badly damaged late Tuesday afternoon as the result of a collision with an auto at Decker's Corner about 10 miles southeast of West Bend. The accident occurred on County Trunk N while the truck was returning to Kewaskum after delivering milk to stands outside the city limits of Milwaukee. Paul Sabish, the driver, escaped with minor scratches. The name of the driver of the car and extent of his injuries, if any, were not learned.

The collision occurred on a crossroad. The car approached from a side road and plowed into the right side of the truck. The truck was thrown off the highway and rolled completely over in the ditch. The insulated body, front fenders, running boards and hood of the truck were damaged. The truck was loaded with empty glass jars and bottles which were broken.

Common Sense Will Help Wash Summertime's Heat

Lightly. Eat Little but Often, Relax, Don't Get Too Much Sun at One Time, Is Way to Keep Cool.

By CLIFF LANGE
Released by Western Newspaper Union.

Let the heat get you down! Don't let it keep you from working, or eating or enjoying your summer. Don't let it keep you from sleeping and getting that necessary rest.

Since 1912 ingenuity have gone a long way helping you to keep cool. The basic aid of forcing the temperature, and you'll find the way to whipping those "summers" much about the same. You can't do much about the summer temperature, but you can do a number of things to help yourself. One of the things you can do is to dress cool.

The first thing to do is to "dress cool." Wear light, tight fitting clothes. Avoid heavy, tight fitting clothes. Avoid heavy, tight fitting clothes.

And this is an ice cream cone. It could be vanilla, peach, lemon, tutti-frutti, or perhaps pineapple. It doesn't make that much difference, though.

War Nerves' Even Disturbing Children

The war has created for children serious problems which American parents and teachers must understand.

Dr. Erickson listed five causes of emotional problems in children: 1. Children are disturbed because adults are disturbed.

2. Children are getting less attention and recognition. 3. There is increasing instability in home life—mothers working, fathers leaving, and workers shifted to new positions and new locations.

4. There is increasing economic instability—stores and stations closing, rationing, deprivations, and newly rich problems in some cases. 5. The scares and blares are increasing in intensity.

Best Way

This is one of the nation's favorite ways of cooling off. It doesn't make any difference whether you swim in a private pool, a park river, pond lake or sea—it does the trick.

The summer sun, in seeming retaliation, shows its resentment on thousands of swimmers every day by giving them a severe case of sunburn, or blistering.

TO YOUR Good Health

VACATIONS NEEDED

A news item some weeks ago spoke of a convention of tourist agencies. There was a general feeling that there was no use trying to push the tourist trade during the war as the minds of the people would not be on holidays, travel, or vacations.

One member, however, pointed out that there was never a time when a vacation was needed more by all workers than at this time. The British authorities call the vacations furloughs, which is the name given to the holiday granted soldiers. As a matter of fact, a great many are now working directly or indirectly on war work and need the vacation or holiday which has been shown to help health and morale and increase output of work in the long run.

As to just what vacation one should take, the individual knows best because, after all, to get away from the routine of work at, or away from home, to get a real change is the important factor in getting the most out of a vacation.

Doing what you want to do is another large factor in getting the most out of your vacation. The fact that after waiting for months you are now able to do what you have planned to do, gives a vacation a flying start in enjoyment.

Unfortunately, before some can go on a vacation, they have a great amount of work to do—mental and physical—so that by the time they are to go they are completely exhausted. For them to rush off and do what they most want to do—hike, dance, play strenuous games like tennis—is a great mistake with body and mind so tired.

As pointed out before, the word vacation means to vacate, to leave your present surroundings amid different circumstances.

In planning to get the most out of a vacation, I have previously suggested that it is best to rest the first two days of your vacation to get over the tiredness due to getting ready to go. Then, when rested, you can indulge in the swimming, boating, dancing, walking, climbing you had planned. Then, before you return to work or business, spend the last day or two the same as the first two days—resting and loafing.

One of the pleasures of the summer months are the outdoor picnics, the family reunions, the parties and fishing trips both for the youngsters and the grownups.

Although rubber restrictions will cut down on many of the long auto trips on such picnics and outdoor excursions, it won't—at least it shouldn't—be the ingenious—cut down on the outings held in the nearby woods, or even in the side, or back.

It is on such picnics, and side-yard excursions that real summer time meals, old style "Dutch Lunches" can be served. Meals having salads, cold cuts, cheeses, lemonade, iced-tea, iced-coffee, and other fruit juice drinks.

The little extra equipment needed for such meals that break the monotony of eating indoors all the time is available at any of the local retail stores. It used to be during the not far past days that it was thought necessary to travel 15 to 50 miles to a favorite picnic spot. There were used to be the steak fry on the fire pits, or the weiner roast.

Today, with plenty of room available, alongside or behind the house, or in the field or woods near home, there is no reason why similar "picnic" equipment isn't available. The war hasn't stopped, in fact, couldn't stop, American ingenuity.

Many times, too, in the desire to cool off there were long trips to distant pools, or "favorite" spots on lakes and rivers. Today, when rationing has stopped that there is no reason why the shower equipment at home shouldn't be given an extra workout.

You know, just because it used to be only the kids who had a good time with the outdoor shower is no reason why you couldn't enjoy one, too. Of course if you dislike the idea of imitating the kids and enjoying the whirling spray, why not rig up an outfit for you and the rest of the older persons.

Such an outfit could be dropped from one of the trees in the yard, or attached to a post used for the washline.

This war has brought the people of the nation more closely together than at any time since the advent of the automobile. This year there'll be more local entertaining, visiting, and genuine social life than ever before.

Common sense will take care of most of the heat's oppressiveness. That which can't be taken care of should be treated as a matter of fact. A matter of, "Well, this is the summertime. It should be hot."

This summer has seen, and will continue seeing until the days cool off, plenty of local picnics in which various successful means to combat the heat have been achieved.

You can do more about taking care of the heat by actually doing something to counteract the effects of it. Talking about the weather, about "how hot it is" isn't doing you any good, nor the person saying it.

You got to help yourself, and those not able to help themselves, if you want to let Mr. Sun continue working while you do.

The instruments used to shock adults into action also reach the children—headlines, radio, air raid drills, first aid, and blackouts.

In helping children to solve their new problems parents and teachers should observe the following main principles, Dr. Erickson said:

1. Treat each child as an individual person. 2. Keep the schools going and pay more attention to child nutrition. 3. Try to spend more time and do more things with the children, particularly the fathers.

1. Unless it is too thick electrolysis is the best method. Your physician can refer you to an electrolysis expert or apply to the physio-therapy department of your nearest hospital.

2. Have you any suggestions regarding coloring matter that could be used to cover a lack of pigmentation in the skin of the hands?

3. Your druggist carries the coloring matter used to cover these spots.

Garden—Fresh Vegetables Bring Health to Your Table (See Recipes Below.)

Summer Salads

Salads with summertime meals form a perfect alliance bringing your family precious pep-giving minerals and vitamins. Vitamins A, B, and C are well represented in crisp celery, golden skinned carrots, rosy cheeked tomatoes, green glowing cucumbers and lettuce. Dress them up with a light liquid salad oil blended with seasonings to bring out the hidden flavoring of the vegetables, and you have a perfect warm weather meal.

Wash and drain dry your favorite salad greens—such as lettuce, romaine, watercress or endive; a combination of two or more may be used. Cut or break into pieces and combine with portions of diced celery, cucumber, green pepper, radishes and minced onion. Chill thoroughly. Then place in a salad bowl; add Basic French Dressing and bits of tomato. Toss lightly until well blended. This type of salad may also be served with just an oil and vinegar combination as a dressing.

Basic French Dressing. (Makes 1/2 cup) 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon sugar, 1/4 teaspoon paprika, Dash white pepper, 1/2 teaspoon dry mustard, 1/2 cup mild salad oil, 1/2 cup cider vinegar or lemon juice.

Combine first five ingredients in a jar and blend well. Add vinegar, cover and shake; add oil and shake again thoroughly. Just before using, shake again. Or simply mix ingredients together in a bowl and beat with mixer until well blended.

Leftover meats and vegetables served daintily in lettuce cups make tempting main dishes for lunch or supper. Have a hot soup, potato chips, thin bread and butter sandwiches and fresh fruit to serve with salad. The next three salads are perfect as a main course.

Veal Salad, Summer Style. (Serves 6) 2 cups cold veal, diced, 1 cup string beans or celery or both, 6 hard-cooked eggs.

Kidneys Must Work Well

For You To Feel Well 24 hours every day, 7 days every week, never stopping, the kidneys filter waste matter from the blood. If more power were aware of how the kidneys must constantly remove surplus fluid, excess acids and other waste matter that cannot stay in the blood without injury to health, there would be better understanding of why the whole system is upset when kidneys fail to function properly.

Burning, scanty or too frequent urination sometimes warns that something is wrong. You may suffer nagging backache, headaches, dizziness, rheumatic pains, getting up at night, swelling. Why not try Doan's Pills? You will be using a medicine recommended by the country over. Doan's stimulate the function of the kidneys and help them to flush out poisonous waste from the blood. They contain nothing harmful. Flat Doan's today. Use with confidence. At all drug stores.

THE APPLE MAGGOT SPRAY

In a few days it will be time to apply the apple maggot spray to Washington county orchards. The apple maggot flies which produce the so-called apple worm are now beginning to emerge in orchards where this insect was present during the past year. To control this infestation the orchard should be sprayed as soon as the flies emerge from the ground and before the eggs are laid. As near as can be estimated the time for applying this spray will be between July 30 and August 5th.

Materials to use: 2 lbs. of lead arsenate, 1 1/2 gallons of lime sulphur, 100 gallons of water.

It is advisable to use the lime sulphur in this spray because of the foliage scab present in most orchards this year. The use of lime sulphur will serve to protect the fruit from scab infection.

Cherry Leaf Spot—The disease most seriously affecting the foliage of the cherry trees is commonly known as "leaf spot." All varieties of cherry trees are subject to attacks of this disease which is caused by a fungus. The disease is quite common in Wisconsin this year. It can successfully be controlled by spraying all cherry trees with a lime sulphur solution using about two gallons of liquid lime sulphur to one hundred gallons of water. Those fruit growers receiving the regular orchard spray will find it desirable to use the same mixture on their cherry trees.

Members of Washington county assembled in their district schoolhouse on Tuesday evening, July 21, to discuss the production of top quality milk on the farms of Washington county. These schoolhouse meetings were conducted by the farmers themselves with the help and guidance of the local leaders who had attended a county training meeting.

The warm summer months always present a problem to dairy farmers regarding the proper and most convenient methods of handling the milk produced on the farm. With the government purchases confined largely to top quality cheese, and with the rigid inspection rules of dairy plants, the production of first class milk is necessary. At these meetings dairy farmers were given information on many of the little inexpensive things that they can do to improve the quality of their milk. Among these may be mentioned such things as the proper cleansing of the milk utensils, the use of chlorine solution for cleansing these utensils, cheapest and best methods of cooling the milk, and the proper care and sterilization of milking machines.

Many dairymen in the county are already producing excellent milk, yet there are many that can be greatly benefited by the information given out at these meetings. The production of quality dairy products is necessary for a good consumer market, and it is urged that all producers of dairy products will strive for the production of a top quality product as outlined in the schoolhouse meetings of last week.

QUALITY MILK MEETINGS WELL ATTENDED

Approximately one-half of the farmers of Washington county attended.

Council of Defense Tells How to Buy Good Used Tires, Prevent "Chiseling"

There is a limited number of good used tires available. In some cases unscrupulous dealers are now selling tires that should not be on the highway. In your transactions involving used tires, we ask that you do the following for your own welfare as well as that of your fellow drivers:

1. Before buying a used tire, have it checked by your regular service station or by a tire inspector. These people are interested in seeing that you get value for your money.
2. If, after learning the conditions of the tire, you decide to buy it, observe the following:
 - A. Do not pay more than ceiling prices. These prices are on display everywhere tires are sold. If you pay more than ceiling prices, you are helping to keep the "chisellers" in business. Typical prices are shown as follows:
 - Tires retaining 7-32 inch or more tread design depth: 6.00x16, $8.10; 6.50x16, $9.85; 5.50x19, $8.25.
 - Tires retaining 3-32 inch but less than 7-32 inch design depth: 6.00x16, $6.65; 6.50x16, $8.05; 5.50x19, $6.75.
 - Tires with less than 3-32 inch tread and regrooved tires: 6.00x16, $4.45; 6.50x16, $5.35; 5.50x19, $4.50.
 - B. Smooth tires—no tread suitable for retreading: 6.00x16, $1.50; 6.50x16, $1.50; 5.50x19, $1.50.
3. Discuss your tire problems with your regular station attendant. He will be glad to give you his best advice. If you require further information contact an inspector or your local board office.

Pressure on two small containers in the belt instantly releases gas which automatically renders the life saving device ready for service. The belt weighs little more than two pounds.

"V" for VICTORY in Jersey Cows

Jersey Breeders have adopted an all out "V" for Victory body type. This "V" shape conformation makes cows give more milk. Our Government has demanded increased milk production for Lend Lease abroad and nutrition at home. This has forcefully popularized the "V" type dairy cow.

"Pack a Lunch That Packs a Punch"

The wartime job of keeping house may seem commonplace and unimportant to the mother who has to stay at home, but more and more scientists and government authorities are beginning to realize that the health of the nation lies largely in the hands of the housewife.

For example, it has been proven conclusively by tests that when a worker gets well-balanced meals in his lunchbox, he just naturally does more and better quality work, feels better and loses less time from sickness than he does when his lunches are poorly planned. And when children eat nutritious lunches, they concentrate better and get better grades.

Of course, packing lunches presents many problems. Unless mother packs what Johnny likes, Johnny will refuse to eat it and it doesn't matter how nutritious it was. Also both father and the school children complain when they get the same thing day after day. The growing scarcity of some foods is another headache.

So mother's job isn't so easy. She is expected to make the lunches conform to the rules of good nutrition, and yet make the food so attractive and so varied that the family will be both happy and healthy. All of this is, of course, doubly important during wartime, since father is probably working on some important phase of war production.

With so many things to keep in mind, mother may want to check over the following timely tips on lunchbox meals, taken from a new government-approved folder entitled "Pack A Lunch That Packs A Punch":

1. Plan lunches at the same time you plan other meals and avoid buying special, expensive foods just for the lunchbox. 2. Reserve one corner of the cupboard for lunchbox equipment. 3. Avoid lunches with too many starchy foods that fill up but don't stay with you. 4. Try to include every day: a vacuum bottle drink or food, two different sandwiches, and two of the following three items... a raw vegetable or salad, a fruit, a dessert.

The lunchbox booklet, prepared by General Electric Company's Home Service Institute and approved by U.S. Government National Nutrition Program nutritionists, is available to readers of this paper without charge. It contains a great many suggestions in addition to those above, including a handy simplified food chart for planning balanced lunchbox meals without counting calories and vitamins. The chart counts them for you.

Learning to Fly 'Sky Pups'

The U. S. Balloon Barrage Training Center at Camp Tyson, Tenn., provides the training necessary for the handling, sailing and repairing of the huge bags which are flown as an aerial stockade against attacking bombers. These balloons are flown in critical areas to prevent enemy aircraft from bombing at low altitudes and can be raised to great heights in a few minutes.

"Alarm! Balloons aloft!" At this command, squads of balloon men rush to their posts, as pictured here.

Picture Parade

An outdoor class being taught how to deflate the gas from a balloon into a "nurse bag," at left.

Here is shown the motor-driven winch which winds and unwinds the steel cable controlling the flight of the balloon.

"A stitch in time." As tedious a job as peeling spuds is sewing up the rip in a balloon fabric. Here Sgt. Albert Kabrielian is shown sewing miles and miles of seams (or so it seems to him).

Trainees, seated around their instructor, look like Lilliputians at a weenie roast.

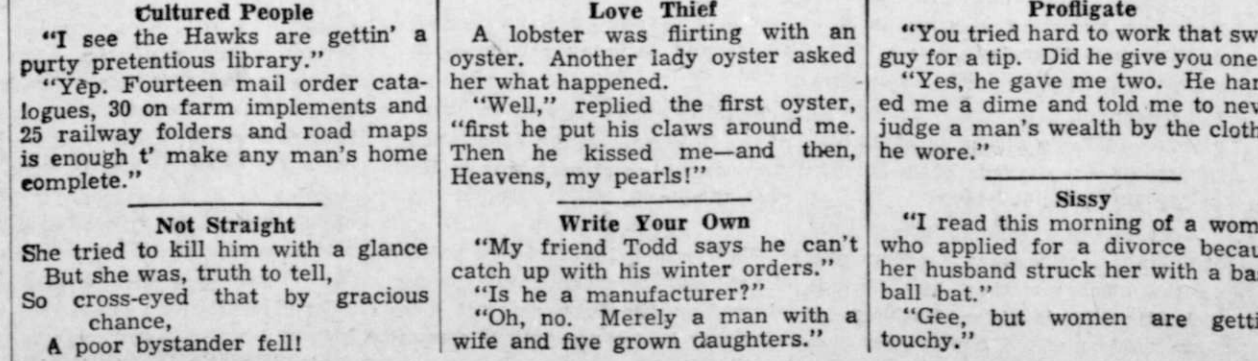

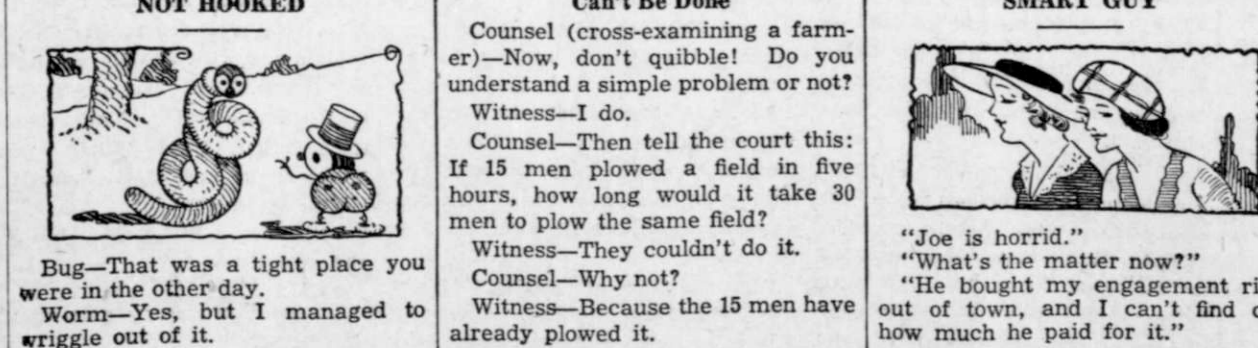

Private instructor Robert Kehr teaches the cordage class how to make a "monkey fist"—a knot used in the rigging of a balloon.

Pickled Finish
A pickled finish can be produced on yellow pine by rubbing in a coat of rather thin white oil paint. After the paint is dry, the surface is sanded and given a coat of flat varnish. When this is dry, either paste or liquid wax is applied. For a gray effect, gray paint is used instead of white. If the wood is open-grain in character, a white filler can be applied. When the surplus filler is wiped off, the filled part will show up white.

The Rail Fence Passes
The old-fashioned rail fence, which encouraged brush rows and other vegetation necessary to small game and which is considered highly desirable by conservationists, is well on its way out, the Ohio conservation department reports. A recent survey in three Ohio counties showed only 20 of 2,692 fences inspected to be rail structures. Once the most common of Ohio fences, they now constitute less than 1 per cent and are disappearing rapidly.

Amusement in Work
When men are rightly directed their amusement grows out of their work, as the color of a fruitful flower; when they are faithfully helpful and cooperative, all their emotions are deep, perpetual and unending. The soul as is the nature of the body.—John Ruskin

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

Strained honey, heated and mixed with soft butter and a dash of cinnamon and cloves, gives a delicious flavor to toasted muffins, hot waffles or pancakes.

Chopped ripe olives with the merest dash of garlic make a pungent filling for small white bread sandwiches to be toasted and served with cocktails.

A good way to utilize stale bread is to make crisp rusks to eat with butter and cheese. Break up the bread into fairly equal sizes, dip into a little sweetened milk, and bake in a warm oven until dry and crisp.

A little candied ginger, finely chopped, gives zest to a fruit cocktail, salad or sherbet. It also is good added to whipped cream and used to top puddings. Be careful to use just a little of it, however.

Copper flashing around pipes, dormer windows and the edges of roofs never needs painting. But copper is now on the priority list. If you have or are installing galvanized flashing, remember that it should be examined frequently and kept covered with paint.

CHAPTER IX

...at the easy lope back to...
...Catties went very...
...The moment he was out...
...Con ventured to start the...
...back on the trail over which...
...had been driven.

...was pursued, it missed him...
...He slept on a hill that...
...the next day...
...of the afternoon, at a...
...these forty miles from the...
...the Spanish helped; and he...
...a great deal of pains to make...
...patience with the women...
...encountered.

...chambers. With the carbine he...
...went outside through a back door...
...to the corner of the house. He...
...sent a half-dozen shots into the...
...messie roots and stopped Saint's fire...
...Then he ran to another position...
...where he could see a little of the...
...blue shirt. He drove Saint around...
...the root-pile, dodged back himself...
...when the tall cowboy loosed a...
...desperate burst of shots, then caught...
...Saint when he was running for...
...cover of a house. He saw dud puff...
...from the blue shirt and Saint...
...staggered, but caught himself and...
...jumped around a corner.

...He will carry my brand," he...
...told Garcia as he bought the town's...
...drinks and traded rough jokes with...
...the men. "I see that when you of...
...San Marcos say that you are my...
...friends, it is more than words. I...
...would have been killed without...
...knowing whose lead struck me, I...
...think, but Amelia called. Then...
...Margarita led me into her house and...
...the boy came with my long gun. I...
...thank you all."

...Those words did not come from...
...the mouth only," Garcia said...
...earnestly. "They came from here, also!"

...He heaved his thick chest and...
...to find Amelia and Margarita...
...carrying bottles of the most crimson...
...perfume on Garcia's shelves. He was...
...in Amelia's house, surrounded by...
...her small brothers and sisters, when...
...that woodcutter who had warned...
...him against Gonzales appeared at...
...the door. His dark face was...
...excited. He motioned to Con.

..."El Comanche! You remember...
...me—Antonio Salazar? I have that...
...to tell you which will not wait; which...
...is for you only."

..."Of course!" Con cried. "I owe...
...you for that other time, when you...
...kept me from walking out upon...
...Gonzales' pistol!"

...He went through the children and...
...trailed the woodcutter to the corral...
...behind Amelia's.

..."I was not here when you drove...
...Saint from San Marcos," Antonio...
...said so quickly. "I did not know that...
...you were here. But he met me on...
...the road today and I had a bottle of...
...tequila. He took it from me and...
...when he had drunk the most of it...
...he talked. He boasts always, but...
...more when he has been drinking. He...
...came to San Marcos for cartridges...
...El Comanche. And for why? For...
...robbery of the bank at Tivan, to...
...morrow night! He did not say to...
...morrow night, but I am sure."

...He had gathered from Saint's...
...bragging talk that the Paramores...
...were already on the move. He was...
...to join them outside of Tivan with...
...the shells. They were taking...
...advantage of Nevil Lowe's absence...
...from town to make Dud's biggest...
...blow to date.

..."It seemed to me that you would...
...wish to know," Antonio jogged him...
...when he was quiet for a long time...
...thinking. "I know that it is war...
...between you and them, now."

..."I am glad that you thought to...
...tell me. Say nothing to anyone, as...
...you thought, there is war between...
...me and Dud Paramore. So I have...
...interest in anything he plans. Here!...
...Buy drinks for the woman and the...
...children. I am riding!"

...As he rode across the hills, he...
...considered what lay ahead of him...
...It seemed to him that he could do...
...no more than ruin Dud's raid, but...
...he could do that effectively and with...
...safety.

...He moved up the side of the...
...building, along the yard-wide space...
...between it and the store adjoining...
...to squat in the gloom with...
...Winchester across his knees. It was...
...still early, something after ten.

...As the minutes dragged toward...
...midnight and the passers-by were...
...fewer, he watched the bank...
...impatiently. He had no plan, except to...
...startle the gang with his fire, stop...
...the robbery attempt, bring the town...
...swarming out and force the...
...Paramores to run.

..."Then I'll send word to dear old...
...Dud," he thought, grinning tightly...
..."Let him know who put the...
...cockle burr under his saddle; and...
...how Saint talked too much and let...
...out the scheme."

...Past midnight, when only a few...
...lights were shining on the street...
...and the saloon he watched beside...
...was quiet, a shadowy figure...
...appeared at the corner of the bank...
...Con stood, carbine ready, watching...
...strainedly. Another vague shape...
...joined the first. Hardly visible, they...
...seemed to wait as he was waiting...
...One by one, the lights of Tivan were...
...blinking out.

...Then a dull explosion sounded. Con...
...swore softly, shortly. They had...
...moved faster than he had expected...
...at the bank. He shoved the carbine...
...out and fired three shots at the...
...lurking men and they disappeared...
...From the saloon came yells.

...Con ran straight across the street...
...as men appeared in the doors of...
...the town's buildings. From that...
...corner where the men had stood, he...
...could see in the moonlight a...
...furry of figures at the rear of the...
...bank. They were busy with horses...
...He wondered if they had got the...
...money from the vault, or if his...
...shooting had startled them before they...
...had finished.

...Between bank and horses a tall...
...man appeared, running. Con placed...
...him as Dandy. He was carrying a...
...sack and Con began to fire at his...
...legs; saw him pitch forward and...
...drop the sack. The high, singsong...
...voice of Dud lifted shrilly:

..."Hightail! They're onto us! High-...
...tail!"

...He appeared out of the milling...
...group, mounted. Con leaned against...
...the bank wall and fired at him...
...steadily. The horse went down and...
...took Dud out of sight. Now, from...
...right and left of the harried...
...robbers, Tivan men opened ragged...
...fire. From the difference of reports, Con...
...guessed that snatched-up guns of...
...all kinds were being brought into...
...play.

...Three riders whirled clear of the...
...confusion and fairly hurled their...
...horses forward. Low over the horns...
...they disappeared at the racing...
...lop. One horse was down, another...
...began to trot off, riderless. A man...
...lifted himself from the ground on...
...one knee and, as firing continued...
...dropped again.

..."I think," Con told himself, "that...
...this is where I roll!"

...He edged into the gloom under a...
...wooden awning and kept close to...
...the front wall as he worked toward...
...a corner. Down the side wall of a...
...store; to the rear where he could...
...look toward Pancho; then quickly...
...across the litter of bottles and cans...
...and trash to the dozing sorrel, he...
...moved with an amused grin lifting...
...mouth-corners. Dud had got away...
...he was fairly certain.

...Out of the darkness of some...
...doorway or passage opposite Pancho...
...a man stepped suddenly. He was...
...with a yard of Con when he said...
..."Well—" and automatically Con...
...seeing the carbine he carried...
...pivoted and struck him in the face...
...The long swing carried all his...
...weight and the fist connected square...
...ly. Back into the shadows the man...
...fell with no more than a short...
...grunt. He sprawled there and Con...
...after long memory might see him...
...a split-second of staring, ran...
...across to Pancho and mounted.

...He rode at the walk to a safe...
...distance, then skirted Tivan at the...
...trot and came at the lope to pick...
...up the trail of the three survivors...
...of Dud's raid. He made no effort...
...to actually trail them. But the...
...general direction they would take...
...was easy to decide, with the Lobos...
...rising to the northeast.

...When opposite the bank, he swung...
...down and hitched Pancho behind a...
...saloon.

...He moved up the side of the...
...building, along the yard-wide space...
...between it and the store adjoining...
...to squat in the gloom with...

AMERICA GOES BACKYARDISH

This is going to be a backyard summer. The slogan is "See Your Own Landscaping First!"

The gas and tire crisis is going to reintroduce to millions of Americans the attractions of their own homes.

Merchants report boom sales of hammocks, swings, lawn games, rustic furniture, porch comforts and outdoor grills. One big department store reports a run on shuffle board sets, croquet sets and archery equipment. Believe it or not it is even advertising "six-foot stilts as great fun for grown-ups."

So many target games are being bought, together with the archery sets that it is a question whether or not more people won't be hurt at home than were formerly hurt on the open roads.

People who have gone for life in their own backyards insist that they have discovered it possible to enjoy all the comforts they used to drive miles to get. With a 50 per cent cut in indigestion, no interference from the motorcycle cops and 90 per cent fewer family disputes.

The great joy of spending an entire Sunday in one family group with no battles regarding detours is being widely discovered.

And it is amazing how many people are discovering that a hotdog cooked on a backyard grill tastes better than the ones in the roadside stands. Not to mention the additional exercise setting up the grill, getting the charcoal and rushing for salve to apply to burned thumbs.

Imagine the complete change in habits: a whole Sunday without any interference by traffic lights!

The fine thing about a charcoal grill is that it has no carburetor adjustments and no defective windshield wipers.

And this is what makes a charcoal grill such a genuine relief: you only use one to the yard and no woman driver is going to back into it.

That the hold-out system of collecting the income tax will go through is certain. Out of almost every man's salary a percentage will be deducted at the office and turned over to Uncle Sam. Can you remember away back when the bookkeeping department in a business house lived a normal life?

Have you got a rubber stamp? You know how it tends to slow; Give it to your country now; Let it help to slow the foe!

"General Spaatz Named Head of AEF Air Forces."—Headline. Eisenhower? ... Nimitz? ... Stratemeyer? ... Spaatz? Boy, will this be confusing to the Germans!

A man who killed a neighbor for leaving the radio on too loudly has been let off with seven years in prison. The judge must have lived in an apartment, too.

President Roosevelt says it may be necessary to confiscate all auto tires. The President now looks at the common citizen and says, "I wouldn't mind being in your shoes."

If tire confiscations become a fact it may be necessary to reward that old campaign pledge: A two quart garage and four cars on every tire.

Give Up "Makeshift" Constipation Remedies!

Why fool with constipation? Why try to combat the trouble after it has already made you miserable? It may well be that your constipation is caused by too little "bulk food" in your diet, for medical science warns that lack of "bulk" is one of the commonest causes of constipation. If yours is this kind of constipation, those purges and cathartics can give you, at best, only temporary relief. Eating KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN regularly, on the other hand, corrects the cause by supplying the "bulk food" you lack and must have! Enjoy this crisp, crunchy cereal daily, drink plenty of water, and like so many others, you'll "Join the Regulars"! ALL-BRAN is made by Kellogg's in Battle Creek. If your condition is not helped by this simple treatment, see a doctor.

ATTENTION

Horse and Cattle Owners!

Dead animals are essential to help win the war as they are processed into a high grade feed for Poultry, Cattle and Hogs which in return produce essentials which we must have to win a war. Glycerine is taken out of all Fats and Oils from dead animals and this is made into T. N. T. for high explosives, and only Rendering Plants produce these products; as all dead animals buried or used otherwise are a waste to our country. Call your Renderer, Wm. Laabs, to collect your dead animals and you will be paid a fair price for them. Renderers can not pay an inflationary price as there is a ceiling on all of the products of rendering plants. Call at your nearest Phone West Bend 75 or Campbellsport 25F1 and reverse charges when you call. Yours truly, Wm. Laabs, Renderer.

County Exceeds USO Quota by Over $1,000

The people of Washington county may well be proud of their record in the 1942 U.S.O. campaign. Assigned the task of raising $8,000.00 toward the $2,000,000.00 dollar national quota, we raised $9,122.33. For expenses, locally, $269.35 was spent. The check of Armand Hauser of Hartford, treasurer for the county committee. In the sum of $8,852.35, has gone to Walter J. Cummings, treasurer, United Service Organizations, for National Defense Inc., 1630 Empire Bldg., New York, N. Y.

That sort of result means a lot of work. Many people do not stop to consider the effort that must go into a county wide drive. Working under the two county co-chairmen assisted by the Washington County Council of Defense, every town, city and village set up a local committee of from ten to thirty people. Meetings were held in each precinct and plans made for the canvass. Vim and vigor made it go. With tire shortage and labor shortage, a real sacrifice was made, especially by those in the farm areas. But they were all good soldiers and every precinct chairman was a good captain. We will not mention their names again, but we want to remind all citizens of the fact that our county's good record and outstanding reputation for all war drives, is due to the little army of drivers—the men and women who knock at the doors and ring the door bells, collecting a dollar here and a dollar there—maybe a five or a ten spot. Then, too, the newspapers. They gave us the link when we needed it and they gave generously. Movie show houses ran leaders and trailers. Factory and brush heads did their part. Yes, so did the farmers and the shop workers. In fact, a good job was done by all, and now we may all rejoice.

LOSE TO ST. MICHAELS BUT BEAT CAMPBELLSPORT
 Holy Name team made enough errors to lose three games at St. Michaels on Sunday morning and as a result was nosed out 13-12. The defeat followed 7 straight victories. Kewaskum had a man on third with one out in the last inning but failed to score when the next two batters popped and flied out. St. Michaels used some new players in the game which strengthened their lineup. Kewaskum is still in first place, a game ahead. After getting the misplays out of their system last Sunday the players hope to play their usual brand of ball again this Sunday at St. Kilian.

Monday evening the team played a return game against the Campbellsport village team there and won 12-7. To take both games of the non-league series. After scoring 10 runs off Pricco the Belles put in a new pitcher from Fond du Lac in the fifth inning. He had a blazing fast ball but the team coined two more runs off of him although he was by far the best pitcher the team has faced. The team played just the opposite of the St. Michaels game, failing to make an error and playing airtight ball.

VITAMINS FOR Victory

The war we are now fighting and the dire necessity of winning it, has suddenly made nutrition a very important word in our lives. It is closely related with building stronger bodies, stronger morale, and improved individual production efficiency. Many Americans are not getting the vitamins and minerals they need every day.

The Office of Defense Health and Welfare Services has set forth these simple suggestions for planning nutritious meals. Combine these rules with proper care of foods and low-temperature cooking, and body-building meals will result.

U.S. NEEDS US STRONG

EAT NUTRITIONAL FOOD

Every day, eat this way

- MILK AND MILK PRODUCTS . . . at least a glass for every meal. For children, use evaporated or dried milk.
- GRAIN, VEGETABLES, FRUIT . . . or new cereals, breads or stales—eat at least one of these.
- GREEN OR YELLOW VEGETABLES . . . one big helping of some every day. Raw, or well cooked.
- OTHER VEGETABLES, FRUIT . . . other vegetables or fruits in season.

Then eat other foods you also like
