PRIVATE PURKEY WORRIES ABOUT RECONVERSION
Dear Ed: Well, I am pretty tied up in the European war, but I get a couple of minutes now and then to think about my reconversion plans. Reverting me from the job of a foreign demonstrator for the arsenal of democracy back to a local filling station attendant is not going to be easy.

Two years in a global fracas like this make a man a new model. He gets to be a hard boiled, quick tempered guy with a hide like a gorilla and a very itchy finger on a gun. Take me. I got all geared up for destruction and it is not going to be no cinch making me over for peaceful pursuits.

Sometimes I wonder how long it will take to reconvert me so I will not want to end all arguments with a bazooka. Before the war I was a fine sample of a peaceful American. In my gas station job I was polite, I never got quarrelsome with nobody and was even taught to turn the other cheek. But in the war I got made over into a rough and tumble Dick Tracy fighting on a 24-hour basis and never remembering nothing about good manners.

As soon as the ump blows the whistle on this war me and the boys has got to get ourselves all retooled, regearred and refinished so we get fighting out of our systems and go all day without shooting nobody. We got to be able to come on strangers all of a sudden and not fire at 'em first. We got to get used to ordering breakfast, and sleeping late mornings.

I suppose when I get back to the gas station job I will not pay no attention to orders at first unless they is yelled at me in a rough voice and I guess the boss better wear stripes on his coat for a time. Also I will not be able to look at a hill, a mountain or a beach no place without feeling I got to take it. Every time I see a bridge I will want to blow it up from habit.

Just being back at the pumping station with no iron hat on and without a ton of equipment on my back will seem funny in the first stages of my reconversion and I guess maybe the boss should make it easy by letting me strap a couple of tires and 40 pounds of auto supplies on me for a while.

Reconverting myself to soft beds, light shoes and no k. p. duty is a big job, and I will need the help of Mr. Byrnes and Barney Baruch all right. But the big reconversion task will be to get my stomach back on a basis where it can stand eggs that ain't never been took out of no cans.

Well I sure got a problem but I am giving it plenty of thought and I hope for the best.

Yours as always,
OSCAR

RECONVERSION WORRIES
A Volunteer Shop Worker:
Oh, reconversion frightens me, I fear the sudden step
That reconverts me to a girl
Who ends the day with pep;
That finds no wrenches in my hands
And not a clock to punch—
And makes me throw away those slacks
And take my time at lunch!
To have my nails look right again,
To wear once more a skirt,
To lack a pay check every week—
Ah, that, I fear, will hurt!

A Housewife:
How will I reconvert myself
From harassed, fretful days
And worries over ration points
And all those OPAs?
From living everything by points,
Not knowing where I'm at
To entering the butcher shop
And saying "Gimme THAT!"!!!

A Husband:
Oh, speed the reconversion days;
To war my wife did go;
And I've been keeping up the house
(or very nearly so):
Of drug-store food I'm pretty sick,
My stomach's on the bum;
The kitchen sink is full of plates,
I'm feeling extra glum;
So send the Missus home to me,
Without her life's a blur;
From everything in this damned war
I'll reconvert to HER.

Farsighted Boss Didn't Wish to Set Precedent

The old millowner had very strong objections to granting concessions to his workpeople. One day one of the oldest hands approached him. "If you please, sir, I would like to have next Friday off," he said. "You want next Friday off, eh? What in the world for?" "Well, you see, it's like this. It's my silver wedding, and me and the missus is going to have a bit of celebrating to do, and we thought—" "Oh, you did," broke in the employer. "And tell me one thing: is this going to happen every 25 years?"

SNAPPY FACTS ABOUT RUBBER

If you have any doubts about the shortage of new passenger car tires, a recent statement by a government agency that knows the situation should clear your mind. It points out that less than one new tire for each car on the road will be produced in 1944, even if the industry is able to achieve the goal of 22 million passenger car tires.

The care is imperative now, particularly with users of truck and bus casings. Stocks are low, and it is estimated that during the latter part of the year there will be a shortage of 25,000 tires a month to meet replacement requirements on vehicles using tires of the 8.25 size and over.

Soldier of the Soil

VICTORY begins with the American farmer, working from long before sunset until long after nightfall. Upon him falls the burden of feeding the fighting forces... the civilian population... and hungry mouths in war-torn countries. To the challenge of producing more food than ever, American soldiers of the soil have responded with heroic effort. Despite shortages of help and equipment, they have established records. They have contributed mightily towards winning the war. Now you are asked to help your fellowmen in another way... to contribute money to give men in the armed forces needed recreation, to give books and sports equipment to prisoners of war, to give nerve-shattered men in the merchant marine a chance to recuperate. To give unfortunate people abroad and at home a chance to have life, liberty, and happiness. The dollars you can give are needed more than ever this year. Please give generously.
