

He needs the best of care ...

and your extra Bonds can provide it!

- Caring for our 300,000 casualties is going to cost hundreds of millions in the next few years.

It is one of your Government's most solemn obligations.

It's a debt we all acknowledge and are glad to pay.

Want to see where the money goes? Well: 15,000 men will need artificial legs. Physical and psychiatric care will run to millions this coming year, alone. Men will need to learn new trades. That's going to cost millions more.

We could go on. But is there any need?

The job has to be done. We all want it done.

Buy extra Bonds in the Victory Loan to see that it gets done properly, and promptly!

needs a ticket home ...

and your extra Bonds can provide it!

- You've loaned your Government the money to send him overseas. Now help bring him back.

Feeding, housing, and giving medical care to millions of men, and transporting them home, is an expensive business.

And all of us want to give our fighting men the right start after they're home and ready to settle down again.

Seeing that they get education, loans to start their own businesses and all the other help that's due them under the G.I. Bill of Rights will cost billions of dollars.

Buy extra Bonds—to help make victory real for the men who won it!

You need a backlog of savings ...

and your extra Bonds can provide it!

- It's been a great feeling, hasn't it, to have those War Bonds salted away, these last few years?

A feeling of security.

Let an emergency come. You can face it.

Now, when you buy extra Bonds, you're buying an extra cushion. Something to tide you over, in uncertain times. Something to provide the extras you've always wanted, but never had the extra savings to buy.

Makes sense, any way you look at it, to put away some extra Bonds now—for the sake of the men who made victory possible—for your country's sake—for your own sake!

*Following the Victory Loan, the sale of E, F, and G U.S. Savings Bonds will continue through regular authorized agencies and through the Payroll Savings Plan.

HOME-COMING ACTIVITIES SUCCESSFUL

Echoes reverberate from the homecoming activities. It's only a whisper (for it was done so quietly and unassumingly) but it should be echoed and re-echoed that Miss Margaret Browne is responsible for the success of this year's homecoming activities. Under her supervision and direction the other faculty members were enabled to contribute to a well-organized program. Thank you, Miss Browne.—The student body.

Thanks, too, to the float judges, Mrs. Minnie Mertes, Rev. Beck, and August Koch, who gave their time and thought to estimating and evaluating the floats.

To you Coach Mitchell, thanks for coaching our football team to the third championship in three years. We are proud of our boys as we know they are proud of you.

1. The Game
Details on the homecoming game with Campbellsport which Kewaskum won, 50-12, for their third straight championship will be found on the front page of this issue.

2. The Floats
Judges Rev. Beck, Mrs. Minnie Mertes and August Koch selected the sophomore class float as the best in this year's homecoming parade Friday afternoon. The prize pennant was awarded by homecoming king Jerome Stautz to sophomore class representative Barbara Falk at the homecoming dance Friday evening.

"Campbellsport Is All Washed Up" proclaimed the banner preceding the sophomore float. Between goal posts hung a line of black wash bearing the orange letters (Campbellsport's colors) "Campbellsport." On the field of grass knelt David Pence in a football uniform scrubbing out clothes in a big tub. Marilyn Buss in a cheerleader's outfit hung up the wash. Behind the float trailed the other members of the sophomore class dressed as washerwomen carrying wash tubs, wash baskets and singing "Super Suds." Two boys led the float pounding on a large metal tub with a wash stick.

The parade was led by flag-bearer Allen Sauer, the baton twirlers, Doris Mae Stahl, Joyce Bartelt and Ruth Eichstedt, and the drummers Ruth Mantel and Eugene Keller.

After the football players who rode in full uniform in the school bus came the queen and her court. Queen Alice Backhaus in long white robe decorated in gold stars represented the moon. A gold moon framed her head. Surrounding her were the stars, her ladies in waiting in flowing blue robes decorated with silver stars. Huge silver stars framed their heads.

In a horse and buggy captioned "Old Time Rivals" sat Eileen Backus and Doris Hoffmann dressed in old-fashioned clothes. Other senior class members similarly dressed trailed along. Their signs read "Beat Campbellsport."

Kewaskum. Gerald Stern, knelt with his bride victory, Vernell Schacht, before preacher Norbert K'umb on the junior float which announced "Victory is Ours." Defeated Campbellsport, Bernice Trapp, cried on the sidelines. Members of the class walked behind of the wedding party carrying a huge gift box.

The freshman float portrayed a hospital wherein the injured Campbellsport players lay moaning. The grade floats represented:

7th and 8th grades—Hanging Campbellsport (Miss Jeanne Wilcox).

5th and 6th grades—Hospital for Campbellsport (Miss Belva Wilcox).
3rd and 4th grades—The Indians (Mrs. Laverne Hron).

1st and 2nd grades—Roping in Campbellsport (Miss Viola Daley).

Committees of pupils worked on the floats. The royalty and sophomores were supervised by Miss Hulda Kohlbeck; the seniors and the juniors were assisted by Miss Margaret Browne; the freshmen worked under Miss Betty Puareia and Miss Carol Ockerlander.

3. The Dance
Under a roof of interwoven blue and gold streamers the pupils, alumni, and faculty members of K. H. S. danced Friday night to the music of Joe Schneider's orchestra. Similar colored streamers hung in loops on the wall and from the lights.

Highlight of the dance was the coronation and grand march. King Jerome Stautz and his Queen Alice Backhaus knelt in a square composed of the queen's court and their escorts: Grace Volm and Glenway Backhaus, Marguerite Coulter and Donald Wierman, Pat Martens and Allen Stahl, Mercedes Lehnerz and Harold Boettcher, Audrey Bruessel and Johnny McElhatton, and Dolores Schmitz and John Tessar. Dolores and John placed the crowns on the heads of the king and of the queen. During the ceremony a small vocal group (Valeria Koerble, Doris Mae Stahl, Dolores Hammen, Betty Ann Rose and Miss Kohlbeck) sang the coronation hymn. Miss Ockerlander accompanied them at the piano.

After the coronation and presentation of the prize pennant, the royalty led the grand march which ended with a cross and arch.

Miss Puareia was in charge of dance arrangements. Miss Kohlbeck supervised the coronation and grand march.

4. The Pep Rally
On Thursday evening the senior class under the direction of Miss Ockerlander presented a skit portraying the football players the night before the homecoming game. Harold Boettcher was the master of ceremonies, alumnus Roger Schleif, Capt. Glenway Backhaus, Homecoming King Jerome Stautz, Coach Mitchell and Principal C. Rose spoke briefly. The cheerleaders led the student body in a series of yells and Miss Kohlbeck directed the singing of the school song.

SENIORS WIN IN FOOTBALL

In the annual intersquad game the seniors defeated the underclassmen 39-19 Tuesday afternoon. The six senior boys, many with four years of football experience, proved to be too tough for the well-balanced underclassmen's team. The seniors who won will be sorely missed next year—Stautz, Krueger, Perkins, Backhaus, Stahl and Boettcher, who couldn't play because of an injured nose suffered in the Campbellsport game.

SADIE HAWKINS DAY DANCE

Sadie Hawkins day was celebrated at the high school with a dance on Thursday evening. Girls invited the boys, escorted them to the dance, and paid for their refreshments. Wieners and orange drink were on sale. The juke box furnished the music and the colorful homecoming decorations were still up.

STUDENT COUNCIL MINUTES

The student council met on Monday, Oct. 29 in the commercial room with President Auggie Bilgo presiding. All members were present.

The secretary was instructed to make a correction in the minutes.

LaVerne Gatzke's name was omitted as freshman representative in council membership record. The minutes were then accepted as read.
