The first place Kewaskum Legion continued to set a hot pace in the Lakes circuit with two more victories the past week in league competition. Besides these wins, they also copped an exhibition game. The victories were over Juneau, Thiensville and Hustisford. The team now has a record of 11 games won in 12 starts in the Lakes loop.

On Saturday night the locals played an exhibition contest against Juneau of the Rock River league at the McLane school gym, West Bend. The game was part of a super doubleheader in which the West Bend Benders tackled the Dow Chemical Co. team of Midland, Mich. in the professional nightcap. Kewaskum upset the big Juneau five, 44 to 32, after leading all the way. Honeck and W. Tessar, with 13 and 11 points, paced the win, while W. Nommensen, one of two 6 foot, 5 inch brutes on the Juneau team, led the losers with 16 points to take high honors. In the second game the Dows handily whipped the Benders, with Paul Cloyd, Ray Patterson and Fred Behm, all former University of Wisconsin stars, leading the attack. Not being a league game, Kewaskum used 11 men of its 13 man squad in the game.

The next night, Sunday, Kewaskum met Thiensville on the floor in a Lakes game and soundly trounced the invaders for the third time this season by a score of 63 to 34—a margin of 29 points. The Legion had a very easy time of it and used 10 men in the tussle. They were way ahead of Thiensville at all stages of the contest. Paul Kral had a sharp shooting eye and a big night in scoring. He dropped in 22 points on 5 field goals and 12 out of 14 free throws to lead the way. He was closely followed by Wayland Tessar, who counted 18 points and "Killy" Honeck, who netted 16. Boesch of Thiensville, one of the league's leading scorers, was held to 9 points but led his team.

Braving a heavy snowstorm Tuesday night, the team traveled to Hustisford and again came through with a resounding victory. They had a field night of it as they ran up one of their biggest scores of the season in the small, low Hustisford hall. The Legion handed Hustisford their worst shellacking of the season to the tune of 66 to 27—a margin of 39 points. Speaking of offense, Kewaskum ran up a total of 123 points in the Thiensville and Hustisford games, and a total of 173 points including the Juneau contest Saturday.

Kral had another big night and set a scoring record for the season as he dumped in 26 points, only one point less than the entire Hustisford team made. He was outstanding offensively as he dropped in 12 baskets and a pair of free tosses. His 26 in this game and 23 against Thiensville give him 48 points in his last two games. He was again pressed by W. Tessar and Honeck, who shone out with 19 and 17 points respectively. Kewaskum's guards held Hackbarth, another of the top scorers in the circuit, to 10 points. The boys connected from all angles, built up a lead at the start and ran up the score more as the game went along. Kewaskum had only 7 players along for the game.

On Thursday night the Lakes five was scheduled to play Butler at Sussex and the Rivers team was to play Merion at the same place but both contests were postponed due to the storm and snow-blocked roads.

RIVERS TEAM GIVES FIRST PLACE HARTFORD GOOD RUN

The Kewaskum Rivers team tackled the strong, league leading Hartford five in the first game here Sunday and lost by 16 points, 64-48, although they gave Hartford a surprising fight and were in the game all the way. Hartford led all the way but the contest was closer and more interesting than the score shows. Hartford has won 11 and lost 1. G. Backhaus with 16 points, and Krueger with 15, were best for the locals, while Gundrum and Wenzel, with 17 and 15 points, paced the visitors. Here are the lineups:

CAMPBELLSPORT LAKES AND RIVERS TEAMS HERE SUNDAY

The Kewaskum teams return to the home court this Sunday, Feb. 2, to play what should be two of the best games of the season and a good crowd should be on hand. The Lakes team will meet the third place Campbellsport Belles for the second time, and the Rivers quint plays the Campbellsport Rivers team. In their first meeting the teams split, the local Lakes team defeating the Belles and the Rivers five losing a close one to the Campbellsport B's. Be sure to come and see these neighbors play.

Dutch Youth Arrives Here From Germany

Fred Mulber, a Hollander, arrived in Kewaskum last Friday from Germany for an extended stay with Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Johnson and family. The young man sailed from Germany on Jan. 3 and arrived in the United States at New York on Jan. 16. From New York he came to Kewaskum.

Young Fred, whose original home was in Zaan Dam, Holland, located about three miles from Amsterdam, served with the American Red Cross 20 months in Mannheim, Germany. While there he became a close friend of Pfc. Darwin Brussel, son of A. C. Johnson, who is serving at Mannheim with the United States army of occupation.

Mulber wanted to leave Germany and come to this country and through Pfc. Brussel, arrangements were made for the trip. Pfc. Brussel contacted his mother here and she and Mr. Johnson obtained the papers necessary to admit him to this country and act as guardian over him.

The young man, a tall, slender youth of 23, speaks a fine English. He likes our country and expects to seek employment here for the present.

Worst Snowstorm in 23 Years Hits Area, Isolates Community

This area is still shoveling out after the worst snowstorm and blizzard in 23 years, if not the worst on record, which lasted from Tuesday evening until Thursday night. The storm was accompanied by a 30 mile an hour wind which piled up the snow in gigantic drifts 10 to 12 feet high in some places. All railroad and highway traffic was completely tied up and many sections were without electric power and light.

A heavy snow began falling Tuesday around 6 p. m., accompanied by a light wind. The snow continued to fall all night and during the night the wind increased in velocity so that by Wednesday morning it reached gale proportions. The storm continued all day Wednesday, through the night and all day Thursday, finally letting up on Thursday night. Coming from the east, the wind, with the blinding snow, was so fierce Wednesday afternoon and night that it was next to impossible to walk against it.

The Chicago & North Western line was without train service through here for 41 hours, there was no highway traffic at all from Wednesday night until Thursday afternoon and very little the day before and after that. Many sections were without power and light. The Kewaskum Utensil Co. and Ke-

EVEN THE STORK USES SKIS TO BRING TWIN GIRLS

With no other way of transportation, our village physician and his wife used skis to get to the Rolland Senn home a short distance north of the village Thursday morning on a confinement case. While on the case, a county plow succeeded in opening a road to the home shortly before noon and the doctor was then able to get his patient to the hospital where she gave birth to twin daughters in the afternoon.

Kewaskum Creamery Co. were without power Thursday and were unable to run, most of the employees being given the day off. The village was without street lights on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday nights, leaving the snowbound streets in darkness. There was no trucking service of any sort, no delivery of milk, bread and other commodities from Wednesday to Friday.

Many people were marooned in other towns and farm houses and others from out of town were marooned here. A number of local folks were marooned in Milwaukee and stayed in the North Western depot there overnight. Cars were abandoned in huge snowbanks in the village and along highways. Some autos left standing in the streets here Wednesday were almost completely covered with snow. Eight and ten foot drifts were a common sight all over the village and some people were seen going to work Thursday on skis. No one used the sidewalks that morning, instead a path was beaten down the middle of Main street. Our citizens shoveled and re-shoveled snow Wednesday and Thursday, the wind covering up walks almost as fast as they were shoveled open. Most people just shoveled a path through the drifts.

The snow measured 16 or 17 inches on the level and in some places on the streets the drifts were five and six feet high. Highway 55 and Main street were not opened until Thursday afternoon when a county highway plow opened a single lane through the snow. The village snowplow was of no use as it was unable to penetrate the deep, hard packed drifts and on Friday all side streets in the village were still closed tight. County roads also were still closed Friday morning except for main highways where in most cases a single lane was opened. Some farmers began bringing in their milk with horses and bobbleighs Friday. Fortunately there were no fires. The fire trucks could not have left the fire house. There was practically no milk brought in to the Kewaskum Creamery Co. on Thursday, only by one or two farmers with sleds. Business places were open Thursday, practically without customers.

All schools in this area were closed Thursday and Friday and the children had a grand time skiing, tobogganing and wallowing in the drifts. Basketball games, bowling and other scheduled events all were postponed. There was no mail service from Wednesday night to Friday and rural carriers did not even attempt to cover their routes. The village was without newspapers and delivery of Milwaukee papers was made in the city only.

County highway crews are working day and night with crippled equipment to clear highways and the village has a crew of men plowing and shoveling to open the streets. As this is being written Friday morning we look into snow piled above the bottom of the window panes in front of the Statesman office. Fortunately there was no snow covering the ground preceding the storm, all of it having melted, otherwise the snow would have been that much deeper.

There was no North, Western train through here from around 6 p. m. Wednesday until 10:45 a. m. Friday, a period of almost 41 hours. The railroad's snowplow plowed its way through here shortly after the noon hour Thursday. The engineer in the engine reported backing drifts as high as the locomotive between Eden and Campbellsport. The snowplow got as far as Jackson where it was unable to open mountainous drifts and became stalled in one of the big drifts. Another locomotive was sent out from Milwaukee but was not able to get to the stalled engine. Then a call was made for a locomotive from Fond du Lac which went through here late Thursday on its way to Jackson to come to the aid of the snowbound engine. Some members of the Kewaskum section crew were taken along on the snowplow and as it was still stuck Thursday night, they had to stay overnight there. Greyhound bus service through here had not yet been resumed on Friday.

March of Dimes Drive is Extended Few Days

Close to $1,000 from sources other than the coin collection boxes had been contributed to the 1947 March of Dimes in the North Washington County chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, Inc., by the end of last week, B. D. Rice, chapter fund raising chairman, disclosed Monday of this week.

While the 1947 March of Dimes was scheduled to officially end Thursday, Jan. 30, the anniversary of the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt's birth, it will be continued for a few more days in the North Washington County chapter, the chairman revealed. The extension will allow for full completion of the campaign in the chapter area, it was explained.

Rice added that industries in the area are being contacted insofar as possible by the campaign committee's co-industrial chairmen, James R. Brown and A. V. Weasler, West Bend, but that there is a possibility some industries may be overlooked inadvertently. (CONTINUED ON LAST PAGE)

TO OUR READERS

We regret that your Statesman is so late but there's nothing we could do about it. The newsprint on which the Statesman is printed was tied up in Milwaukee because of the severe snowstorm. Our newsprint and ready printed section comes from the Western Newspaper Union in Milwaukee each week and is shipped to us via Northern Transportation Co. truck. The paper usually arrives here on Wednesday or Thursday but like everything else, the Northern trucks were at a standstill. We waited patiently until Saturday morning and then placed calls with the Newspaper Union and Northern Transportation Co. in Fond du Lac and Milwaukee. We were informed that our newsprint was tied up in the Northern shops in Milwaukee, that no personnel of the company had been able to reach their offices since Wednesday, and so trucks would haul until Monday. So our paper did not reach here until Monday morning. There was no way we could pick it up either because of one being at the company's offices. Don't blame us—blame the weather and poor transportation. It put us out too. Sorry.

Mrs. Pierce, Family Leave to Join Cpl. Pierce in Germany

Mrs. Clifton Pierce and four children left this village Wednesday for Chicago where they are visiting a few days with the children's grandmother before leaving for New York Saturday. From New York they will sail for Weishaden, Germany, to join their husband and father, Cpl. Pierce, who is serving there with the Headquarters 1st Constabulary Brigade, U. S. Army. They do not know definitely just when they will sail.

In an interview with the writer, Mrs. Pierce stated that she and the children would remain in Germany as long as Cpl. Pierce is stationed there, which may be several years. If they like it there, they may make their permanent residence in that country. Cpl. Pierce is a veteran of many years' service in the army. He was wounded in action twice during World War II, being seriously wounded the second time when he was shot in the lung. He was honorably discharged while holding the rank of lieutenant and re-enlisted again as a private. He has about 10 more years of service to put in before being retired on pension. While stationed in Illinois last year he was able to spend much time at his home here before going overseas again.

The Pierce family have been residents of this village for the past 2 1/2 years. Mrs. Pierce said they liked Kewaskum very much and made many good friends, also that they were treated very nice and hated to leave. The oldest Pierce boy, Kenneth, was a member of the Kewaskum high school football and basketball teams the past season. The home occupied by the family on the corner of Second and Railroad streets has been rented to the W. J. Stenmans.

Mrs. Pierce and children were accompanied to Chicago by Mrs. Leroy Keller, who remained there until Friday.

Korea a Sore Spot in Far Eastern Politics

By BAUKHAGE

WNU Service, 1616 Eye Street, N. W., Washington, D. C.

WASHINGTON. — "Reveal the secret clauses in the Yalta agreement and the American people will demand a free and independent Korea." That is what you hear from the earnest group of Koreans and Americans who will be waving a tearful but hopeful farewell to their beloved leader and friend—the venerable Dr. Syngman Rhee—as he departs for "the land of the morning calm" for the second time since his exile 45 years ago. Dr. Rhee's followers consider him the legitimate head of the provisional Korean government set up by those leaders fortunate enough to escape when Japan dealt Korea its final, crushing blow in 1945.

Baukhage

Presidents of the United States since Theodore Roosevelt's time, state department and other government officials have been consistently sympathetic and stubbornly uncooperative with the effort of this unflagging patriot to obtain recognition of his country. They did not frown on his return to Korea when it was "liberated" by the defeat of Japan. They put no obstacles in the way of his choice as head of the group which set up a provisional government of Korea. They permitted that group to send an observer to the U. N. but when Dr. Rhee returned from Korea in December of last year his efforts to make his voice heard before the international body were blocked by the state department ukase, "No official standing."

Today Korea is a nation bisected by the Yalta parallel. The North, under Russian control, is separated by the Asiatic model of the Iron Curtain and no real Korea government exists in the Southern half, still administered by the U. S. military government. This is due, Dr. Rhee says, to the same lack of official sanction from the state department which the aging doctor has sought since Pearl Harbor.

"All we ask is that we be allowed to hold elections to set up in the American zone of Korea a national government just as the Russians have set up what they call a 'democratic government' in their zone. We only ask that the United States do for us what they have already done for Japan.

"The other liberated countries have been given this privilege. We never fought against the Allies. For more than 45 years we have carried underground work against our Japanese oppressors. We were ready for a democratic government. He paused a moment and said: "You may be surprised, as I was, to learn how familiar the Koreans are with the democratic system." The Japanese, it seems, when they made their various levies upon the Koreans found they had to deal with a system that had already been set up, based on the democratic choice of a leader for a group of perhaps 20 homes which, in turn, chose their representatives for larger groups. Dr. Rhee said he found his people were much more familiar with these processes than he thought they could be even though he had followed their activities so closely through all these years. Then Dr. Rhee went on to explain that with cooperation of the military government, at least five attempts had been made to set up a national government; that each time the Communists had blocked it by refusing to join and because of the directives under which the military government was forced to operate—no government was permitted in which the Communists did not participate.

"They (the Communists) claim they have 20,000 members in the southern area—what right have 20,000, if there are that many (which I doubt), to interfere with the rights of 18 million Koreans in the southern zone?" asks Dr. Rhee.

In the secret agreement at Yalta, Dr. Rhee asserts: "President Roosevelt agreed that Manchuria and Northern Korea be placed in the zone of the Soviets. This was contrary to the spirit of the Atlantic Charter and the other agreements up to that time. When the American people realize this, I am sure sentiment will develop that will make it possible for Korea to become a nation again. I am going back to Korea with that hope."

FROM THE FAR NORTH . . . Presenting a majestic picture of symmetry and winter at war with the earth's inner force, towering Mt. Shishaldin on Unimak island in the Aleutians is plumed by smoke emitted by the seething volcano concealed in the cone-like mountain.

CONGRESS:

Tax-Minded

Standing pat on their determination to scale personal income taxes and trim the 1947-'48 budget of unnecessary frills, GOP house leaders massed to push through a 20 per cent cut proposed by Representative Knutson (Rep., Minn.).

With the Republicans cautious about piling military expenditures because of the unsettled world situation, President Truman's budget did not leave too much room for tinkering.

As a result, GOP leaders planned to concentrate on the income cut estimated at 3 1/2 billion dollars and continue the current high excise levies on liquor, furs, jewelry and other items.

Representative Taber (Rep., N. Y.), chairman of the house appropriations committee, asserted the budget could be reduced at least 3 to 4 billion dollars, still allowing essential expenditures and assuring a payment on the national debt. Such a cut would bring the budget in line with the decrease in revenue resulting from the 20 per cent tax slash.

FORD:

Production Lead

Declaring that the high standard of American living was based upon mass production, Ford Motor company slashed the price of nine models from $15 to $50 to stimulate a cautious buyers' market.

Thus did Henry Ford II, youthful president of the famed auto company, steal a march on organized labor on the eve of negotiations for new contracts and set the pace for industry generally. As labor was to clamor for higher wages, Ford inferred that they could be paid out of increasing production of goods, with workers sharing the rising profits.

With prices away up and buyers hesitant to pay for inflated values, American industry stands at the crossroads, Ford said. Bring prices within reach of the average consumer through mass production and the orderly development of a strengthening recession, he declared. With employee efficiency on the rise, Ford revealed that his company is turning out about 4,000 units a day, exclusive of buses and tractors.

ALLIANCE:

Britain-France

Traditional allies against Germany, Great Britain and France renewed their old bond in London by agreeing to a treaty of alliance to guard against a rebirth of an aggressive Reich.

Though the alliance ostensibly was directed against Germany, observers saw in the pact a strengthening of the western European powers against the expanded influence of Russia on the continent. With Britain and France serving as a core, smaller nations like Holland and Belgium might adhere to the western bloc to check the threat of communism.

In concluding their alliance, Britain and France agreed to work for the orderly development of western European economy to promote mutual prosperity and at the same time prevent establishment of a strong industrial base for war in Germany. Emphasis was placed on harmonizing the British and French economies to remove trade conflicts and harnessing essential German industry, like coal, to the needs of neighboring countries.

GEORGIA:

Chip Of Old Block

With "Old Gene" gone, "Young Herman" kept alive the fiery Talmadge tradition in Georgia politics.

When his father died before he could be inaugurated, young Talmadge mustered sufficient support in the legislature to have himself named governor; then, defying incumbent Governor Arnall, who held his election illegal, he set up his own offices in the state capital.

Meeting young Talmadge's bold challenge, Arnall carried the issue to the state supreme court, dominated by his own appointees. But again Herman struck back by threatening to ignore an adverse court decision on the grounds that the constitution empowered the legislature to elect a governor and a denial of the right represented judicial encroachment upon the legislative branch of government.

Amid the hub-bub, one sure fact emerged: Young Talmadge had demonstrated political leadership and was a power to be reckoned with in Georgia politics.

Veterans' Dental Care

Dental service provided for veterans with service-connected disabilities by Veterans' administration amounted to approximately $1,950,000 as of November 30, and of this amount $1,750,000 was paid to participating dentists on a fee basis. Applications for treatments increased to 207,000 at the end of November.

Home town dental care for these veterans with service-connected disabilities now is available in all 48 states, according to VA, and the fee schedule for participating dentists was set by VA in cooperation with American Dental Association. Each state contract was negotiated separately by the state dental society and the VA branch offices having jurisdiction over that state and participating dentists are nominated by the state society and approved by VA branch offices.

As of December 4, there were 99,055 veterans in VA hospitals; 600,000 veterans have applied for G.I. loans amounting to almost $3,000,000,000; approximately 5,675,000 National Service Life Insurance policies were in force as of November 30 and their total insurance value was approximately $35,000,000,000.

Questions and Answers

Q. Can a World War I widow get a pension for an adopted baby? This is a grandchild of the World War I veteran. He has been dead 18 months and his widow adopted their grandchild and can she get a pension for it too?—Widow, Dalton, Ga.

A. If the child is legally adopted, such children come under the same status as other dependent children and, if the child is a minor, he should be eligible for pension.

Q. My son was drafted in the army January 25, 1944. He took out an $18.75 war bond each month and had them made out to me. I received them regularly up until December, 1945, and haven't received one since. The boy is still in Japan. I would like to know what to do about it.—Mother, Livingston, Ky.

A. If the money is still being deducted from his pay for the purchase of the bonds, you should continue to receive them. Since you are not, write to the Central Field fiscal office, U. S. Army, Chief of Finance, 4900 Goodfield Blvd., St. Louis 2, Mo., giving your son's full name, serial number and where, if you know, he authorized the money to be deducted from his pay.

Q. I was discharged from the WAVES on October 17, 1945. I had quite a lot of dental work done during February and March of 1946. Now I have been told by an ex-soldier that the government paid for his dental work because he had it done before he was discharged. My question is whether I am eligible for this. I have been discharged for over a year, but the work was done and the bill paid by myself just a few months after I was discharged. The dental work was necessary and urgent as the X-rays will testify.—Mrs. R. E. H., Melstone, Mont.

A. Veterans with service-connected disabilities are eligible for free dental work from Veterans' administration. Both the army and navy provided dental care and treatment for members of the armed forces. However, if you obtained your dental work after your discharge, I do not believe you are eligible for reimbursement by the government if you have no service-connected disability.

Q. I have a husband in Manila and he said he would give me a divorce. When I sent him the papers he refused to sign them and he hasn't supported me since. Can I get a divorce without sending him the papers?—M. D. K., Adolphus, Ky.

A. You should consult an attorney.

Q. I want to know if my husband can get a divorce while in the army and where can I get this information or the papers concerning this? Mrs. J. L. H., St. Louis, Mo.

A. Your husband has the same legal rights in the army as he has as a civilian. Should such a case be filed, you will be notified in the manner prescribed by the law.

Q. I am writing in regard to my terminal leave pay. I filed my application in or around August, 1946, and as yet I have not received a notice or check or my discharge papers. Can you tell me if it was sent to me? I am a veteran of World War II and served 2 years and 18 days.—R. B., Rochester, N. Y.

A. Generally speaking, terminal leave checks or bonds are mailed about 60 days after application. In your case, suggest you write to the same office to which you sent your application and ask the reason for the delay may be a normal one.

Q. I am a discharged veteran of this war and I would like to become a naturalized citizen of this country. Can you tell me how to proceed to obtain naturalization?—J. A. Z., Hammond, Ind.

A. If you are honorably discharged, you may apply at the nearest immigration and Naturalization service, probably in Gary, Ind. December 31, 1946, was the last day for which the so-called "short" naturalization could be made, so you will have to inquire at the Gary office as to just what procedure is necessary.

Railroad Tickets Out of Slot Machines

The Pennsylvania railroad is installing an automatic ticket vending machine. You drop in your money and out comes your transportation, like gum, peanuts or cigarettes.

This brings to the weary railroad traveler a sign of relief unheard of since the wood-burning locomotive days. At last it is demonstrated that it is possible for a traveler to get a railroad ticket without any manifestations of boredom, indifference or slow motion.

No long waits in line while a ticket window attendant stages his "Jim the Penman" tableau! No delays while he goes through those complex and mysterious operations with something that looks like a cross between a bandage, a set of naturalization papers and an income tax report!

A fellow who is getting unusual acclaim for foresight just now is the husband who told his wife he would buy her a fur coat on her birthday, knowing it fell after July 1, 1947.

The Army-Notre Dame games, after the 1947 one, will not be held for several years, but already we got a call from a man who wants to know "how's chances for two tickets for 1950?"

There is, however, a fly in the ointment. Harry A. Cobrin, secretary of the Clothing Manufacturers association of America, says the jeans won't be back before summer and perhaps not until late next September!

Judge Frank A. Picard, who originated the portal-to-portal business, in New York and we can't get over the impression he is the fellow we heard in a hotel dining room ordering a "portal-to-portal steak."

Bathed in Mutual Admiration

There is a distinctive brand of political humor often buried in that remarkable and largely unread (and frequently tardy) document, the Congressional Record.

The Republican recommendation that senators meet in formal session only three times a week, Monday, Wednesday and Friday, devoting the other two days to committee work recently touched off a typical exchange between Republicans and Democrats on the senate floor. Both parties conjured lightly with the names of founding fathers.

Majority Leader Wallace White of Maine began by opining that an exception to the Monday-Wednesday-Friday rule should perhaps be made for Lincoln's birthday (which falls on Wednesday this year) so that Republican senators could, as he put it, "have opportunity to go to their homes and elsewhere to make their customary, and I think, proper, speeches on Lincoln's birthday." He added that provision, too, might be made for Washington's birthday.

Senator White then recalled that the Democrats usually have either a Jackson Day or Jefferson Day dinner, for which they might want to be excused from the senate.

Minority Leader Barkley was agreeable. Said he: "So far as Lincoln Day absenteeism is concerned, we have no objection to any deviation from this program (the MWF rule) that would permit our friends to get back to Lincoln."

The Record records as follows: Mr. Barkley: I think the closer the party gets back to Lincoln the nearer it will come to Jefferson. I think there will be no difficulty about arranging for Washington's birthday and for Lincoln's birthday. So far as Jackson is concerned, the Democrats have always celebrated Jackson Day on the 8th of January, today, which is the day of the Battle of New Orleans.

Mr. White: I think the senator from Kentucky is celebrating it now.

HOPE FOR HOMES

Million Houses To Be Started

WASHINGTON. — Construction will be started on a million new permanent dwelling units and about 900,000 units will be completed by private bidders during 1947, it is estimated by the department of commerce. The estimates compare with 675,000 units started and about 450,000 completed during 1946.

Prospects for meeting the nation's construction industry goal of 15 billion dollars, representing an increase of 50 per cent over last year, were termed favorable by John L. Haynes, chief of the commerce department's construction division.

An additional outlay of 6 1/2 billion to 7 billion dollars will be made for repairs and maintenance, according to Haynes.

Haynes points out that the estimates are based "on the assumption that increases in the cost of construction will be moderate in 1947 and that any increases in the price index of materials and labor rates will be offset, in part at least, by the increased volume of building materials."

It also is assumed, he adds, "that present remaining controls on non-residential construction will be eased and that there will be no general business recession in 1947 severe enough to impede construction."

Haynes' estimates show that 6 billion dollars will be expended for private residential construction, exclusive of farm homes, for the largest outlay in any class of construction.

Private construction of all types, he adds, will make up the bulk of the year's new construction spending, amounting to 11,700 million dollars or 49 per cent more than last year.

CALIFORNIA:

More than 10,000 new stores or "trade outlets" were licensed in California last fall, and for the first time quarterly taxable retail sales in the state exceeded 2 billion dollars, a state-sponsored survey made to aid business planning disclosed.

Of the 10,176 new trade outlets licensed between July and October, 9,887 were "independents" and 489 were "chains." The total California trade outlets has reached 241,801. Notwithstanding a net gain of 42,000 outlets since V-J Day, the number of outlets for each 1,000 population in October was 26—three less than the prewar ratio of 29. State researchers predict that the prewar ratio will be reached sometime in 1947 if the present rate of expansion continues.

In the second quarter of 1946, taxable retail sales in California mounted to $2,113,277,680, yielding taxes assessed at $52,831,942. Second quarter taxable sales in 1945 were slightly more than 1 1/2 billion dollars.

SOIL CONSERVATION AND CANNING CROP GROWERS MEET

During the war years the canning crop industry of Wisconsin has been asked to produce as much as possible. Quality was sacrificed for quantity. Now the industry is gradually returning to a normal production basis where QUALITY must again be stressed.

There is a need for canning crop growers to have a voice in determining what shall constitute the different grades of the various canning crops and the prices to be paid for the different grades of a normal pack.

To discuss the problems involved in making proper adjustments in the growing and packing of canning crops, the following meetings will be held:

- Hartford City Hall, Hartford—Feb. 1, 1:30 p. m.
- Boyan's Hall, Germantown—Feb. 1, 1:30 p. m.
- Rockfield Inn, Rockfield—Feb. 1, 1:30 p. m.
- Jackson Village Hall, Jackson—Feb. 1, 1:30 p. m.
- Court House, West Bend—Feb. 1, 1:30 p. m.

In addition to the above-mentioned programs the Washington County Soil Conservation Service will present a motion picture on soil conservation practices applicable to our county followed by a short talk by Phil Baum, soil conservation foreman.

You are invited to attend your nearest meeting.

CLEAN AND TREAT SEED OATS

Many farmers who have been growing Viking oats in recent years are asking if it is advisable to continue if it is subject to what is known as "Victoria blight."

Up to the present time this blight has caused very little damage in Wisconsin. The blight has been discovered in a few fields during the past year, but the loss has been very small, less than 1%.

Florida oats, a new white oat, available for the first time this year, is also subject to this blight. Presently all Florida oats and is now in the hands of seed houses and is priced at $1.00 or more per bushel.

In view of this high price for seed stock, it is questionable if the superior qualities of Florida oats over Vermont is sufficient to justify the increased cost. Farmers having pure strains of Vermont are advised to plant it in 1947.

All seed oats should be carefully cleaned with a good mill. This will remove many of the diseased and inferior kernels. A good cleaning job will also assure a higher germination percentage. In addition all seed should be treated with new improved ozonated at the rate of one-half ounce per bushel. The seed should be treated at least two days before sowing. A revolving steel drum, a concrete mixer, or a gravity type mixer may be used. Treating seed to prevent rusts and smuts is very important. This applies to all varieties of oats, barley or wheat. Such treated seed is as nutritious as a livestock feed.

OUTLOOK CONFERENCE FORSES PRICE DROP

With farm product prices beginning the postwar downward course predicted by economists, Wisconsin farm leaders met in the university's agricultural hall in Madison last week to appraise the outlook for 1947. These were the proposals outlined by College of Agriculture experts and others:

1. Better is likely to decline below its 1946 level this summer, with cheese prices falling especially.
2. Average producer milk prices are scheduled for an immediate drop of 75 cents to a dollar a hundredweight.
3. Lower farm prices will be accompanied by continued high farm operation costs.
4. Whether American farmers can continue to market present volumes of production at fair prices is doubtful.
5. (Confidential speakers advised farmers to stick to the improved farming practices developed during the last few years but to watch costs more closely, to rely on cooperative marketing, making all possible improvements in efficiency, and to seek a reduction in the spread between consumer and producer prices.

FRANK FELIX LEAVES FOR MINNEAPOLIS TO ATTEND GAMBLE MERCHANDISE MART AND SHOW

Planorama Draws Nation-Wide Interest

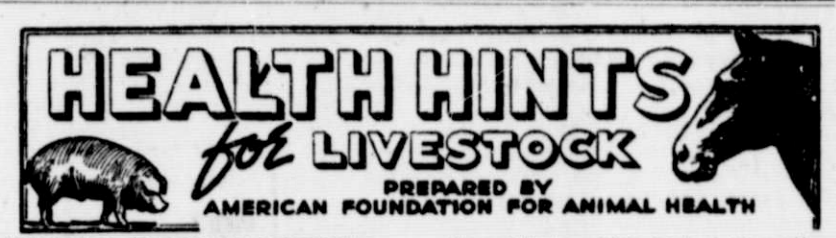

Frank Felix turned the supervision of the local Gamble store over to Arlene Mertes and Alan Stoffel and left for Minneapolis Sunday to attend the Planorama merchandise mart and sales show sponsored by Gamble-Skogmo, Inc., who supply merchandise to the local store.

For several weeks Mr. Felix has been receiving information concerning the Planorama and outlining the features that have made it a national event. More than 200 manufacturers and suppliers representing most sections of the country filled the huge Minneapolis auditorium with displays and exhibits. Speakers and business leaders of national prominence attended.

Mr. Felix was joined in Minneapolis by retail store representatives from most states, Canada and Hawaii. The total attendance passed 2,000 persons. The Planorama brought to Minneapolis one of the largest delegations ever to convene in that city.

Theme for the Planorama, "New Heights in Flight-47," is carried on the emblem reproduced above.

SHEEP RAISERS NEED TO COMBAT SCABIES

A tiny mite, barely visible to the naked eye, is causing sheep-raisers and livestock health authorities no end of worry. This mite is responsible for the disease called "scabies" or "mange", a condition that appears to be spreading rapidly among farm flocks from the Missouri River eastward. Western sheep-growers long ago instituted strict control measures and have practically eradicated the disease.

If an owner notices sheep having a patchy loss of wool, small crusts and cracks on the skin, or a tendency to rub against fences and pens, the condition should immediately be called to the attention of the local veterinarian. Sheep scabies is a "reportable" disease and legal penalties may be inflicted if such animals are knowingly sold or not placed under quarantine.

If sheep scabies is detected early, control is not too difficult. Spaced dippings in approved dip solutions will kill the mites which cause the condition. Bedding should be cleaned out where scabies has been present, and rubbing posts, trees, bunks, and other objects which harbor the mites should also be disinfected. Unfamiliarity of small sheep producers with this disease, transportation of animals by trucks, marketing through local sales, and the wartime shortage of inspectors and dipping materials, are among the causes for the continued increase in reports of scabies outbreaks.

A similar mite causes a like condition in cattle but fortunately it is much more rare than the sheep disease. Cattle scabies is also a reportable disease and should be suspected whenever the herd shows continued itching and loss of the hair coat.

NO 'DOG'S LIFE'

Old-timers of Canine Kingdom Boast of Interesting Careers

WNU Features. It may be a "dog's life," but it's still a good life, it is revealed in a series of unusual animal stories compiled by Gaines Dog Research center of New York in connection with its quest for the oldest dog in America.

Pampered oldsters of the human race command no more attention than do their counterparts in the canine realm and occasionally, too, their owners sadly admit, even doddering old dogs are inclined to "go to the dogs."

The homesick dog which traveled 1,800 miles through strange territory to find his family, the talking dog, the dog credited with killing more than 600 coyotes, the dog which went to school daily and, after his mistress' graduation, accompanied her to the office every morning — all these and many other yarns of a sensational character were uncovered by the Gaines center in response to its query concerning the oldest dog.

Reports on more than 200 dogs were received from 43 states and Canada.

Ranks as Oldest.

Oldest is Laddie Boy (named after the late President Harding's dog), a 25 1/2-year-old male owned by Mrs. E. C. Baynard of Rocky Mount, N. C. His ancestry is "dubious," Mrs. Baynard explains, his mother was a Pekinese and his father a "traveling man." Laddie Boy's age is equivalent to 135 years in a human being.

The exceptional attention and care which he has received from his mistress for more than a quarter century are credited with Laddie's longevity. Although a dog half his age is considered old, Laddie still can amble about. He prefers, however, to spend long hours in his wicker basket, barking vigorously when he wants his dinner or other attention. Laddie's eyesight is very poor but his health remains good as he has required no veterinary attention for four years. Despite an almost complete absence of teeth, Laddie has a big appetite. He is devoid of all his hair save for the head, legs and a narrow furrow on his back.

Besides Laddie, there were reports on 19 other dogs 20 years of age or older. The average dog has a span of life of 10 to 12 years.

Not all of the owners who submitted data mentioned the sex of their aged pets. Of those who did, however, 106 reported males and 78 females, indicating that the male dog's longevity is greater.

The North Central states of Michigan, Wisconsin, Illinois, Indiana and Ohio reported the most aged dogs—40 in all—with the Middle Atlantic states of New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania trailing with 39. Among individual states,

HEFTY HAULS

Crooks Specialize in 'Big Jobs'—Even Houses

Thieves operated in a big way during the past year, the crop of crooks finding few jobs too hazardous to handle.

In the line of big jobs, the San Fernando, Calif., valley thief probably rates the year's laurels. Undoubtedly cognizant of the housing shortage, that enterprising thief stole a three-room house.

A close second was the light-fingered but strong-backed thief who stole a country schoolhouse at Quesnel, British Columbia.

There may have been a reason for stealing living accommodations—but no one can figure out what even a thief wanted with a road grader, complete with 12-foot blade. However, when one was left unguarded a few weeks near Vancouver, Wash., it disappeared.

Not only the outside jobs proved big, however. In Boston, a thief carefully rigged up a block and tackle to steal a piano from a third floor apartment. The piano probably was out of tune; police recovered it later in a pawnshop.

Efficiency is the keynote in the burglary realm, it seems. An enterprising second-story man out in San Bernardino, Calif., rigged up a labor-saving electric hoist to steal a quarter-ton safe.

A couple of holdup artists in Washington, D. C., got off with

Traffic Violators Attend School and Write Essays

LINCOLN, NEB. — An unusual method of dealing with traffic violators is practiced by Municipal Judge Edward C. Fisher as a means of promoting traffic education to replace the customary "fine-and-forget" procedure.

When youngsters break traffic laws, the magistrate gives them a choice of two punishments. One is the customary fine. The other is attendance at a juvenile traffic

Valuation of Farmer's Wife Set at $60,000

CHICAGO —When a farmer takes a wife, he also bargains for $60,000 worth of labor during her lifetime, Miss Gertrude Dieken declared in a talk before a farm meeting here.

Asserting that the rural housewife is far more valuable than her urban counterpart, Miss Dieken insisted that "a farmer and his wife are in partnership."

Although 16 years of age, Buddy, a shepherd of the collie type belonging to Mrs. Stoddard Porter of Grahamsville, N. Y., still works for a living. His main job is to bring the cows home from pasture every afternoon and, his owner points out, he has never come in without all of them.

In addition to his herding duties, he has completely eliminated woodchucks from the Porter farm.

Follows Mistress. Duplicating the story of Mary and her little lamb, Mrs. Martha V. Albers of Arthur, Ill., reports that her fox terrier, Rex, now 17 years old, daily accompanied her and her two brothers to grammar school and then to high school.

A real old-timer is Foxy, a collie owned by Capt. William Penn Lodge of Long Beach Island, N. J. Now 22 years old, Foxy can credit his longevity to an active youth.

Mothers Instincts Prevail. Mothers' instincts prevail among the queens of the canine world, the Gaines survey discloses.

From Mrs. B. J. Blackburn of Roseville, Mich., came a picture of her sporty-looking purebred wire fox terrier, Acelona.

Wire Girl (Acelona), now 12 years of age and still svelte of figure, Acie has produced 10 litters of puppies and raised all of them.

Besides nursing her own offspring, she has acted as foster mother on three different occasions for other dog mothers who were unable to care for all their puppies.

Fred Oertel of Keokuk, Iowa, relates that his white female spitz, Migdie, had a litter of three healthy puppies in May, 1946, when she was 16 years old.

Numerous owners reported 16 and 17-year-old dogs who are refusing to act their age by rattling, chasing cats and picking fights with other dogs.

Henry A. Reichold, the Detroit industrialist, thinks there are two or three million people who want to listen to straight classical music, with no interruptions or commercial interferences.

Caravan To Follow Mormon Trek

SALT LAKE CITY. — Retracing the route of Brigham Young and the first band of Mormon pioneers just 100 years ago, a caravan of 43 canvas-topped motor cars will carry 143 men, 3 women and 2 children half way across the United States.

The journey, extending from Illinois to Utah, will be one of the 69 major events which Utah residents have planned as attractions for the Beehive state's centennial celebration.

Starting at Nauvoo, Ill., July 14, the automobiles will journey 1,500 miles to Salt Lake City, following as closely as possible the route traversed by the original Mormon settlers.

At the traffic school the teen-agers (18 and under) view a safety movie or picture, hear a lecture by a city official and write a 1,000-word essay on "Why I Won't Do It Again."

Two-thirds of the youthful traffic violators elect the second means of paying their debt, with a little prompting from parents, who also must attend the Saturday session of the school.

Fisher also gives adult violators, except drunken and reckless drivers, the alternative of paying a fine or penance through voluntary license forfeiture, attendance at the school and essay writing.

The judge believes too many traffic courts are a "joke," regarded by the public "as a source of amusement or a racket to get their money."

Kathleen Norris Says: The Governess Wife

"I asked to see his checkbook the other day and the young man had to explain quite a few details to me."

By KATHLEEN NORRIS

DON'T marry a man with the idea that it will be easy to change him. It never works; they don't change. They may develop qualities and tastes that surprise you—you may find the man you thought a stay-at-home likes to go out every night, or that the man you thought a night club favorite never wants to leave his own fireside. Such surprises as that are the very commonplace of marriage.

But not changes. The jealous sweetheart will continue to be jealous, the lazy man who is always changing jobs will go on shifting, the lad who drinks too much and gambles away his money will go right on drinking and gambling.

The other day I had a talk with a bride-to-be. It struck me as extremely ominous, and I've been wondering ever since if the promised husband has any idea of the training in store for him. All the conditions of their marriage seem to be ideal, good social standing, old family friendships, comfortable income and a most attractive apartment ready and waiting. But the bride's attitude is not so promising.

She was buying gloves, with one of her bridesmaids as companion, and chattered quite freely of her plans.

Tom, it seems, has to make business trips to New York now and then and likes to make them by plane. But Sharon has stopped that. "I'm deathly afraid of planes," she explained, "and I put my foot down."

"Don't let precedents start." It also appeared that she had been quite frank about Tom's mother. Tom wanted to stop off at Santa Barbara and see his mother, on his honeymoon trip to Mexico; Sharon said no.

"Once you start that sort of thing it establishes a precedent," she told me. Duck shooting was mentioned; Tom is a famous shot. "I think that young man's duck hunting days are over," Sharon murmured confidently, eyeing a beautiful glove on her beautiful hand.

"He's going to be the best-trained husband in town," she said happily. "His friends won't know him. I asked to see his checkbook the other day, and the young man had to explain quite a few details to me."

I was too stunned to reply. If she had been talking of an airdale puppy it might have been intelligible, but Tom is six feet of bony, vital, assertive human being, with a fine mind, a fine education and a fine war record. She paid for her gloves and went her happy way, and I went mine with a feeling of intense pity for Tom.

There are ways, of course, in which wives can exert influence; the little ways of neatness and consideration and promptness and thrift. But those occasions when suggestions are in order come only now and then, and should be handled naturally, with affection and tact. Men change, and women do too, in a happy marriage, but they change without knowing it, the miracle of growing trust and companionship and improvement is never visible, and certainly never cut-and-dried before ever the marriage takes place.

So I have great fears for the marriage of Sharon and Tom, and feel reasonably sure that he will grow

MAKING HIM OVER

Women have tried many, many times to reform their husbands, to "make them over," but it has rarely been successful. Men cling stubbornly to their ways, resistant to appeals and pressures. This is especially true in regards to personal habits, likes and dislikes. Sometimes, where a man realizes in his heart that he is at fault, he will, with his wife's aid, struggle to change his ways. When he is convinced that he is right, however, he will seldom yield, at least not permanently.

Miss Norris in today's article tells about a bride who is starting off wrong and is heading for trouble. She is quite attractive and intelligent, but she is not keen enough to realize that trying to make over a big, successful, well-educated young man is fatal to happy married life.

She doesn't want him to travel by air, or go hunting, or visit his mother in California, and that's just a start; she intends to "train" him in her ways of thinking and acting. Sooner or later Tom is going to rebel and he is going to tell Sharon bluntly that he intends to have his own way in personal matters. Sharon may bristle up and the quarrel that leads to the divorce court will have begun. If she has learned anything of human nature by that time, however, she will give up trying to change her husband.

restless under this organized control, and break away from her. No girl should marry a man unless she likes him as he is. Sharon apparently likes Tom only for certain possibilities she sees in him, and if Tom ever suspects that he has married a governess and trainer rather than a wife, he will be infuriated.

Tactful Handling. Sometimes after years of marriage this sense of smug superiority breaks out in a wife. "Why not have that gray paper in the halls?" the husband suggests. "Because it would be perfectly ridiculous, dear," says the wife. "Why would it be ridiculous? Wasn't our old room at home that way?" "Our old room was simply hideous," the wife returned smoothly, "and everyone knows you have no taste, darling."

One wife I know merely smiles and listens when her husband holds forth at breakfast about something he likes or doesn't like in domestic matters. She smiles, listens with faintly raised eyebrows, and very slightly shakes her head, for the benefit of her daughters.

"Just as soon as he goes," her expression tells them, "we'll fix it all our way."

Very few men, no matter how abrupt or absent-minded or absorbed, treat their wives to this sort of arrogant rudeness. Instead there appears to be a general impression that Mommy does know best about things. So some of them alienate their own families, give up old friends and comfortable habits, pay uncomplainingly for furniture and wallpaper they don't really like, for long years and years. But there comes a breaking point, and wives might as well be on the watch not to reach it. To try to change a man is usually to lose him entirely.

Lamp Sterilizes Milk An ultra violet ray lamp capable of killing airborne bacteria has been produced by the Westinghouse Electric Corp. for use in dairy barns. The new device, known as steril-lamp, can reduce the amount of such bacteria by 90 per cent, Allen Desautel, lamp operation engineer for the company said. "Milk in healthy cows is uncontaminated, but as soon as it leaves the cow it is on its own," he said. "Few foods provide such an excellent medium for bacterial growth."

"He may never leave his fireside."

Old House—New Face

WITH building materials for new homes still scarce, it's often good sense to face-lift an old house. Make sure before going ahead, however, that the structure is sound.

And how about the interior of your house? Is it dated by dark woodwork?

Grease two or three inches up the inside of the pot in which you are boiling rice, noodles or spaghetti, and the water won't boil over.

The card party given by the ladies of Holy Trinity parish Wednesday evening was greeted by a packed house. Prize winners were: Skat—Rev. Vogt and Art. Schaefer; cinch—Mrs. Nic. Mayer and S. C. The Bank of Kewaskum has just completed the work of installing a modern, up-to-date burglar alarm system, which guards against day and night burglary. The system is so delicate that the least bit of tampering will give the alarm. The vault is completely lined with a network of wires an inch apart so that no one can drill through any side of the vault without striking one of them. Throughout the bank building at the windows, under the teller's workboard, desks and tables are push buttons and an employee of the bank can press these buttons without making a noticeable movement of the body. Employees can also sound the alarm by touching any of the foot rails at the windows. Outside the building is a large bell. From the bank wires also lead to several nearby business places and dwelling houses in which small alarm bells have been installed. As soon as any of the push buttons, wires or rails in the bank have been touched, the little bells will start ringing before the large one in front of the bank rings. In all the places in which these alarm bells have been installed, the owners are equipped with automatic shotguns and when the bells ring they will have a chance to place themselves at positions in view of the front of the bank to prevent the burglars' getaway. They can be at their positions before the big alarm sends out its warning to the burglars.

March of Dimes Drive

Dimes. He said these organizations have been responding with contributions in "a generous and excellent manner."

Rice also disclosed the number of checks in support of the March of Dimes from individuals is steadily growing and urged those of means who have not yet sent in their checks to help this great humanitarian cause "to do so today."

Despite the encouraging features reported by the chairman, he bemoaned the fact that the chapter is far from achieving the goal the campaign committee believes it can attain in the current drive. For that reason the drive will be extended several more days in the North Washington County chapter as a last appeal to everyone to contribute as generously as possible to the fund.

The $64 question is a piker compared to that facing a person stricken by infantile paralysis. In a last minute plea stressing the vital need to support this year's March of Dimes, he asked: "Could you afford to pay $35 a day for four months if you were stricken by polio?"

He asked that the $35 a day rate is by no means unusual in treating polio patients, particularly respirator cases, citing cases of polio patients in the North Washington County chapter. Rice declared: "The expensive cost of hospital treatment and prolonged care has been paid in full by the chapter, supplemented with funds from the national foundation's March of Dimes in fulfillment of the pledge that no one stricken with polio need go untreated for lack of money, regardless of age, race, creed, or color."

Polio is one of the costliest diseases in the medical books, as any typical case history will testify, the chairman added. He said few families, even with substantial incomes, can afford hospital, doctors' bills, nurses' fees, and additional costs of long term convalescent care.

"Local chapters of the national foundation, with money raised through the annual March of Dimes for this purpose, stand ready throughout the nation, as in North Washington county, to offer financial assistance whenever and wherever the disease strikes," Rice continued.

"If chapters run low on funds or exhaust them quickly for a single emergency case or for epidemics as they did last year in 35 states, including Wisconsin, Minnesota and less seriously affected areas, national headquarters sends sums to meet the community's bill, just like the foundation did in the case of Washington county," man of the chapter's women's division, for the part being played by women's organizations in the 1947 March of Dimes drive and individuals not contacted to support the drive. Checks may be made out and sent to Rice, and the firms and individuals so doing will be given due credit and recognition. The chairman praised the efforts of Mrs. F. W. Manthei, West Bend, chair-
