WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS-

Truman Begins Busiest Four Years; GOP Wins First Senate Vote Test; Bevin Offers Critics Olive Branch

(EDITOR'S NOTE: When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of Western Newspaper Union's news analysts and not necessarily of this newspaper.)

INAUGURATION: Brief Interlude

President Truman could lay valid claim to the title "busiest man in the world." The inaugural behind him, the nation's chief executive was up to his neck in problems, both foreign and domestic.

ON THE HOME FRONT, there was a little matter of having congress impliment Democratic campaign pledges and provide funds for the continuing armament expansion. Abroad, with this nation committed to the gargantuan task of saving the world from communism, the problem was equally monumental.

But for awhile, on January 20, Harry Truman, Missouri farm boy who rose to the presidency of the United States, once by succession, currently on his own vote-getting prowess, relaxed, basked in public adulation, may even have forgotten the tremendous pressure under which he labored.

ORIGINALLY PLANNED as a more or less sedate affair, with this atmosphere desired by Truman, the inauguration, instead, was turned into one of the most lavish and spectacular since Andrew Jackson rode into the top spot.

Packed and jammed, Washington gave a hero's welcome to the World War I artillery captain. Truman buttons, Truman pictures, Truman banners were greatly in evidence and the President, seeing these and the vast multitudes, must have wondered if there were anyone at all who voted against him in the November election.

BUT THE INTERMISSION from duty was brief. The parade, the swearing in ceremonies, the round of gala capital affairs that night, and the next day, Harry Truman was again on the job.

Peace has been his rallying cry. Its importance marked all his utterances. Now he was buckled down to the job of trying to preserve it. Men of good will everywhere in the world were wishing him success.

MONKEYS:

Up in the Air

For whatever benefit it may be to scientists or anthropologists, two sad-eyed dogs will not calm 300 Rhesus monkeys.

THIS WAS graphically, if somewhat disturbingly demonstrated when 30 crates of the monkeys arrived in New York by plane from the Azores.

The trip started sedately enough with all the monkeys locked in their | OLIVE BRANCH: crates. Two large, sad-eyed dogs were along because someone had said their presence would tend to keep tranquil the monkeys' spirits. Somehow most of the monkeys ot out of the crates and suddenly there were monkeys in the cockpit, monkeys through the plane, monkeys peeping out of windows and monkeys even trying to liberate other monkeys.

Capt. Miguel Braganca and his crew, heavily outnumbered, was forced to stay in the forward part of the ship while the monkeys cavorted. The monkeys saw to that. Says the captain: "They kept hanging on the cockpit door and watching us all the time."

When the plane reached La Guardia field, about a dozen chattering monkeys were starting to climb out the windows, but eight airline cargomen joined the crew and with brooms and blankets finally snared the truants. The monkeys were consigned for infantile paralysis research.

SIX "NO'S": Was It Revolt?

Six Democrats joining with senate Republicans gave the GOP victory in the first test of strength since the 81st congress convened. The issue may have been trivial, but the result burned Democratic leaders. Scott Lucas, Illinois, successor to Vice-President Barkley as majority floor leader, "sputtered." Barkley was also put out. For, it appeared, the result was an unexpected as it was "humiliating."

THE ISSUE was exemption of inauguration tickets from federal amusement taxes. The exemption slid through the house 199 to 49. so one can imagine the surprise when it failed in the senate.

Chief target of administration censure was Kentucky's Virgil Chapman.

But those who remembered the Kentucky campaign would recall that Chapman showed no little independence in his drive for votes.

Cupid Curbed

The army is making it tougher for American G.I.'s to marry German frauleins. In the first place, many army authorities and chaplains suspect too many German girls are using marriage as an excuse to escape from the hard life of occupied Germany to the United States. There is also an apparent desire to protect young draftees expected to start arriving soon in Germany

The foreign minister also indicated that de facto recognition of the government of Israel was being seriously considered. If that step were taken by Great Britain. it would mean the death knell of Arab hopes for continuation of strife or any eventual triumph in the Holy Land controversy.

U. S. BUDGET: Under Attack

The question whether President Truman's 21 billion dollar budget was excessive was being raised again. This time John Foster Dulles, chairman of the U.S. delegation to the United Nations general assembly in Paris, raised the issue. The budget, which Dulles questioned, provides 15 billions for military expenditures, six billions for foreign aid during fiscal 1950 DULLES THOUGHT it too high He pointed to dwindling war fears and potential menace to U. S. economical health as reasons for curtailment of Truman proposals.

Conceding that there is a "risk" of war, Dulles declared the "risk is not so great that we should seriously jeopardize our own economic health . . . by saddling our-selves with such vast armament." Dulles suggested cause, implied a remedy. He blamed lack of sufficient unification of U.S. armed forces for administration belief in the need of huge military outlay, and declared that present huge military expenditures cannot go on. "I thing our armament is exaggerated by the fact that there is not sufficient unification between the different branches of our (armed) services," he said. "It seems as though the rivalry were such that each branch wants to be strong enough so that if there is a

"OF COURSE, there is always a risk. You have a tense situation like a dry autumn in the woods when any fool can start a fire. "It is entirely possible, however, to have better relations with Russia and I think it is probable." The problem was up to congress. Could it gamble on the "fool" in the woods, or should it prepare with all possible equipment to stand by for a possible conflagration?

Testers Amazed

U. S. air force intelligence testers rubbed their eyes, looked again. Yes, there it was-a perfect I. Q. score by a gangling, bespectacled Kentucky youth seeking a connection with the military.

WILLIAM M. BELEW, 18, of Simpsonville had done what no one before him had been able to achieve, something the army believed impossible. Told he was not expected to answer all the questions correctly, he nevertheless went ahead and, in rapid-fire order, dashed through the test without a single error.

It was the preliminary test given volunteers at the air force recruiting office in Louisville. The testers were amazed. They checked, rechecked the score, found it perfect. They then checked the records. Sure enough, Belew was the first to make a perfect score.
THESE NEW TESTS, much more exacting than the old, have been in use since last May. Questions divided into three sections, vocabulary, arithmetic, and perception of spatial relationship. There are 45 questions and they must be answered in 40 minutes Belew will give the air force a trial. If he likes it, he will make it a career; if he doesn't he will take up accounting.

Simpsonville high school basketballer and diamond performer, Belew stands six feet tall, weighs 160 pounds, was expected to pass the army physical examination with ease.

COLD WAR:

Two More Years Some encouragement of peace hopes was provided by United Nations leadership indications that they expect the cold war between Russia and the U.S. to continue in the diplomatic stage for another two years, at least. This would mean, of course, that there would be no shooting war prior to that the U. N. could soon hit its stride.

Tax Bill Is Rabbit Stew To Congressman Doughton

By BAUKHAGE News Analyst and Commentator.

WASHINGTON, D. C .-- Another rabbit stew has been served up to Rep. Robert L. Doughton of North Carolina, and he's all ready for it. Representative Doughton, I might suggest if you don't know it, is not only the oldest member of the house of representatives (85) but likewise the oldest hand at handling tax measures.

He had to step down from the chairmanship of the ways and means committee for the brief Republican interlude. Now he's back at the old stand, sharpening the butcher knife again.

but instead of saying grace he was heard to mutter: "Rabbit's rough. Rabbit's tough. Oh, Lord, I've had rabbit enough' That, opined Mr. Doughton, was the way he felt about the tax bills.

But he has to help meet the biggest peacetime budget ever submitted to a congress and he's ready

In the 38 years that he has represented the state of North Carolina in the congress, the habits of the dean of the octogenarian's club in the lower house have changed very little since the last time. explored them in some detail nore than a score of years ago.

He has earned a tremendous respect from the men who work on fiscal matters in the house of representatives where the money bills have to originate. And because he has a theory of his own about collecting and spending the people's

"Ob, Lord, I've bad rabbit enough." committee looking very different than he wants it to look, though it may not always suit all the other members. Doughton doesn't go so far as to say that fiscal legislation should be non-partisan, but he does say it ought to be as non-provincial and as pro-national as possible.

His experience in collecting money that ought to be collected goes back a long way. One story involves a man he went to see about a horse-two horses, to be exact. This man had bought a team from Doughton (the congressman is still a farmer in his own right, though he has to spend more time away from home than he used to). Later on the man wrote that ton's committee has to take care he didn't think the span was worth the $800 he had agreed to pay and wouldn't pay it. The deal had been negotiated at a distance and the principals had never met. So one in addition the matter of certain day Doughton dropped in at the revisions in the basic tax code. farm and said he wanted to look over a good team. The man showed several, but none seemed to suit

Mr. Doughton. "All right," said the man, "I'll show you the best pair you ever saw in your life.'

He brought out the horses recently acquired from Mr. Doughton, but still unpaid for. And what might they be worth? Well considerably over $800. Mr. Doughton introduced himself and didn't have much trouble in collecting.

There is another reason why Doughton is a god man to have on the collecting end of a bargainif you aren't the debtor. He's a farmer, true, but he is also a banker, and he works at both when he isn't in Washington. He doesn't keep banker's hours, however. He goes to his office at 6:30 a.m. works throughout the day, and he's often back in the office after din-

Men Are a Laugh

Bell Syndicate-WNU Features By KATHLEEN NORRIS

TT'S A WISE man, indeed, at whom the women of the family don't occasionally laugh. The other day I had a quiet laugh at my favorite psychologist. He is my favorite because his talk is usually so down-to-the ground I've listened to him on the radio for some months and know that he is a professor and writer in his own line.

But the other day he went 'way off the track and I confess I enjoyed it. I've quoted him here twice, once as reminding us that our first great ally, God, is being pretty well neglected in international conferparent's farm near there. His father, wounded in the war between ences these days and again when he gave some excellent simple advice about uprooting corrosive hates from our hearts.

active to her last hours, interested in the day's mail and the daily The talk that made me laugh in a quiet superior way was not on his such grave subjects. It was about father, the boy started off for him- an annual family gathering of his self, gradually acquiring more until own clan, apparently consisting of he became a livestock raiser and as many as 35 or 40 persons.

It seems that usually women prepare the feasts on these occasions, each bringing her own famous dish, He has described himself as a prepared in special and longpraised ways.

All Nonsense

Well, my psychologist and some other men of the group decided that this was all nonsense. There was no reason for the women to fuss and flurry about so simple a thing as a ceremonial dinner, so this year, let the boys do it!

So the boys, he boasted, laid in buns and frankfurters, mustard, paper plates, cups and napkins, pop and coffe, cakes from a famous baker and ice cream from somewhere-the drugstore, perhaps. And there was their feast, so simple, so easy to eat, so econom-

a sort of unwritten law in his dis-Now, if he had stopped there, I trict that one term was all a man would have forgiven him. Men have could expect, for Republicans and been making clumsy attempts at Democrats had always swapped cooking, dinner preparing and babytending since time began. Women during the same period, have praised the poor unsuspecting fellows, have quietly unpinned the baby, made the crib over, turned out lights, taken away explosive toys or eaten the surprisingly novel frankfurters and ice cream and declared loyally that there never were such brilliantly original caterers!

But he didn't stop there. He went on to say that if ever the women were foolish enough again to set a table with lace and candles, dress turkeys, frost cakes, proudly produce the string beans with mushrooms and the corn with peppers, the iced puddings and lemon meringue pies.

Have No Sympathy

The men wouldn't have any sympathy with them. Not one whit. The men wouldn't help clear up and the women could bear the result of their own folly. More than that, housewives generally had better stop fussing with food as all important, because men didn't care a whoop what they ate. Men want the little woman cool, pretty, rested and free. She can-I gathered this anyway-she can give him frankfurters and bakery cake right straight along.

Well, I'm older than the professor and, in this respect, I'm wiser. Believe me, professor, the sweet, cool chatty little woman with the can-opener and the bakery bill loses out. There's no sensation in the world that makes a tired man feel so snug, so content, so loved as to have the smoking kidney chop, the asparagus, the cube of cornbread, the apple dumpling put before him by the woman who cares enough to fuss with them for him. More divorces break loose in the kitchen than in any other part of the house. Slapdash cooking is extravagant cooking and monotonous cooking means ulcers, mental, moral and physical.

Smart mothers know that no disturbing subjects must be opened until the husband is fed comfortably. Good wives set a pretty as well as a nourishing table and the things that world-travelers see first and appreciate most are those very candles, the line, the silver dish or olives or chocolates.

No congratulations go from me to you on that commonplace, sloppy, mustard-smeared, mashed paperplate-and-napkin meal you men served so complacently. We women, in these servantless days, have too much of that sort of makeshift.

39th Anniversary

FEBRUARY 6 TO 12

BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA

• In every part of the nation more than 2,200,000 boys and their adult leaders, will observe Boy Scout Week, Feb. 6th to 12th, marking the 39th anniversary of the Boy Scouts of America. The theme of the celebration is "Adventure—that's Scouting!"

This year the movement is emphasizing the fun and fellowship its members get out of the game of Scouting. More high adventure is planned in the out-of-doors. Their adventure in citizenship will find Scouts emphasizing civic service activities, emergency service training and world Scouting relationships. During Boy Scout Week, Scouts, their parents and countless communities will honor the volunteer adult leaders of the nation's 70,000 Cub Packs, Scout Troops and Senior Units. Above is the official poster marking the Scout birthday.

F.H.A. INSTALLS OFFICERS

On Jan. 26, 1949, the F.H.A. of Ke. waskum High had one of its most important ceremonies, the installation of officers. Before a white-covered table and the light from six red and white candles, each of the officers vowed that she would perform her duties well. The installing was done by the officers of the Plymouth F.H.A., who were accompanied by some of their members. Questions concerning F.H.A. work were asked and discussed. Mr Rose, who was also present, expressed his appreciation to Plymouth F.H.A. Following this, punch, cookies, and salted nuts were served.

Pork Biscuit Roll (Serves 4)

- 2 cups sifted flour 3 teaspoons baking powder
- 1 teaspoon salt 4 tablespoons fat meat drippings cup milk (about)
- 3 tablespoons melted fat I cup ground cooked pork 1 egg 2 tablespoons minced onion
- 14 teaspoon salt 5 or 6 apples

Sift together flour, baking powder and salt. Cut in fat; add milk to make a soft dough. Roll dough into rectangular sheet length of dish. 1/3 inch thick. Brush with melted fat. Combine meat, egg, onion and salt. Spread mixture over dough. Roll as for jelly roll. Place roll cut side down in a 10-inch heat-resistant glass dish. Cut apples in halves and arrange along sides of roll. Bake in a hot oven (400° F.) for 30 minutes. Cut in thick slices and serve with extra gravy or tomato sauce.

All Work, No Play . . .

Can you take your job too seriously?

Answer: Yes, if you attempt to | make it take the place in your life that belongs to things which mean more to your natural instincts-to your need to be loved and admired, for instance. Healthy-minded men and women find their deepest satisfaction in relationships with other human beings; they enjoy wealth or success, but do not feel their "lives depend" upon them. And only a person who makes his career a "compensation" for his failure to love and be loved will take it so seriously that he'll "break down" worrying about

It now is known that cancer can be cured in its early stages. Cancer organizations, while continuing to spend money to try to find the cause of cancer, are spending more time and money to supply citizens with detection depots or centers. These centers are under the supervision of cancer specialists and equipped to detect cancer-early.

An editorial in the Journal of the America: Medical Association some weeks ago stated that the medical attack on cancer includes: (1) prevention, (2) early detection and (3) adequate treatment.

HEALTH NOTES

Overweight is not only a fore-runner but an actual cause of high blood pressure.

If you're pale and you tire easily, avoid pernicious anemia by eating more meat and green vegetables to supply more iron to the blood. Be sure to include plenty of liver in your diet. Also plenty of egg yolk and whole grains.

It doesn't help the morale of an elderly patient to be put entirely under the care of the geriatrician-(a specialist in diseases of old age). As long as his family doctor continues to see him at stated intervals, he will not consider himself so old that he has been put "on the shelf."

The underweight or undernouris listless, restless and irritable.

Two conditions which cause breathlessness, often mistaken as a symptom of heart disease, are eating too much acid food-meat, eggs, fish -and having a blocked nose, which does not allow enough oxygen to reach the lungs and purify the blood.

THE wealthy contractor liked to know all about the employees who toiled in his vast business. One day he came upon a new young man who was dexterously counting out a large wad of the firm's cash into pay envelopes.

"Where did you get your financial training, young man?" he asked.

"Yale," the young man answered. Mr. Biggs was a staunch advocate of higher learning. "Good," he said, "and what's your name?"

"Yackson."

East Coast Fishermen Boost Herring Catches for Europe

BLOCK ISLAND, R. I.-The fish in Block Island sound are feeling the effects of the European Recovery plan.

Millions of herring - left undisturbed in the past for lack of a market - are being caught to feed the hungry abroad. Huge trailers are carrying the silvery, foot-long fish to canning factories on the eastern shore of Maryland and to

Carl Johnson, veteran fishing captain, explained they had been in the sound for years. "But," he said, 'this is the first year we've handled them. The large majority are canned for the new type of lendlease for Europe. We're trying to knock a couple of billion dollars off the Marshall plan figures."

More than 31/2 million pounds of herring have been caught since the run started Large balloon nets dragged along the shore bottom are used to snare them. The best place to find the herring is from three to nine miles out.

The herring found the sound a good place to escape whales.
