sonage of St. Lucas Ev. Lutheran church on Labor day.

Funeral services for Elnor H. Hintz, 27, Campbellsport, who was fatally injured while at work in a Kewaskum Utensil Co. warehouse at about 9:15 a. m. Friday, Sept. 2, were held Monday at 1:30 p. m. from the Twohig Funeral home, Campbellsport, and at 2 p. m. in Trinity Lutheran church, Dundee, the Rev. Walter Strolisthein officiating. Burial was in lon cemetery Campbellsport.

A son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Hintz, Campbellsport, formerly of Dundee, the young man was fatally injured when a heavy box of raw aluminum fell on him while he was attempting to store it in a warehouse at the plant. Hintz was operating a tractor-lift and apparently carted the heavy case of metal into the warehouse to hoist it into a storage space when the box toppled down upon him. The injured man died shortly afterwards, reportedly of a broken neck and skull fracture. He was discovered by another employee of the plant, Ralph Remmel, Hintz had been employed at the plant since Oct. 7, 1946.

Hintz was born in the town of Osceola Oct. 8, 1921. He graduated from the Campbellsport High school in 1939. In November, 1942, he entered the army and saw duty in the European area with the radio service. He received his discharge in November, not until the final week end that win- end at Shawano.

On May 20, 1948, Mr. Hintz married Miss Mary Letz in St. Matthew's parsonage, Campbellsport. Surviving are his wife and a four-month-old son, Daniel Joseph; the parents; a brother, Allen, at home, and a sister, Mrs. Donald T. Reichel, Milwaukes.

MRS. GEORGE BINGENHEIMER

Funeral services were held Saturday, Sept. 3, for Mrs. George P. Bingenheimer, nee Haug, 79. of 189 Fourth st., Fond du Lac, a native of the town of Kewaskum, and a resident of Fond du Lac for more than a half century. She died at's p. m. That night we had dinner at the Plaza and it was there that we first saw Kandace. She was sitting alone in a booth, and when she caught Joe staring at her boldly, she nodded and smiled at him.

Instinctively I knew, when I saw the tall dark man come through the door, that Joe was in for trouble. And I was right. The tall dark man strode toward the booth and there was something about him that caused my blood to creep. I stood up, but was by no means quick enough. The stranger had grasped Joe by the coat front, jerked him to his feet and slapped his face. Joe was hauling back for a havmaker when my arms closed about him.

After a while a messenger came in and handed me a note. I read it and looked sourly at Joe. "Now you've done it. That was Count Obeid and that was his girl you insulted."

"Insulted?" said Joe

"And he wants to fight a duel with you. He realizes our boat sails first thing in the morning, so in order to accommodate us he'll await our pleasure at dawn. He will do you the honor of permitting you to choose your own weapons."

Joe shook his head and tried to grasp it. "That punk-the dope who smacked my jaw-wants to fight a duel? You mean like they do in Sabatini's books?" "And I can choose my own weapons," Joe went on. He stood up, "Come on." I followed him, not quite daring to use force in stopping him again, yet ready for an emergency. We went back to the Plaza. The count and his girl were, of course, gone. Joe made inquiries, wrote down an address and beckoned me to follow. A taxi deposited us before a pretentious looking house of white adobe. A servant admitted us and presently Count Obeid appeared.

'You're giving me the honor of choosing my own weapons," said Joe. "I'll take these," and he knot-ted up his fists and held them

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS Russia Threatens Yugoslav Regime; Truman Takes Arms Row to People; Excise Tax Cut Stymied This Year

EDITOR'S NOTE: When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of Western Newspaper Union's news analysts and not necessarily of this newspaper.)

YUGOSLAVIA: War Clouds

Was the United States ready to go to war on behalf of Yugoslavia?

That was a paramount question as the hard-boiled struggle between Yugoslavia and Russia reached the threat-of-war stage. Diplomats pondered the question: What would the United States do if Stalin sent the Soviet army to overthrow Marshal Tito's regime in Yugoslavia?

BRITISH and American diplomats, however, ruled out the likelihood of a shooting war. They regarded Moscow's threat to "take more effective measures" in Yugoslavia as only a part of the war of nerves. British newspapers took a different view. They regarded the Soviet note as the "worst threat of war since 1939."

No one outside the Kremlin could know for sure what was coming next. But the threat that began 14 months ago to upset Tito when the Cominform read him out of the Communists party developed long ago into frequent shootings along the satellite borders.

Diplomats in Belgrade frankly were worried. As an example of the jittery situation, one embassy thought it had an inside tip on an "invasion" date.

THE QUESTION of American involvement was not quite as academic as it might appear. With the issue squarely joined between Communism and the west, and with the U.S. serving as the arsenal of the west, involvement as a result of any warlike Kremlin move was an ever-present possibility.

EXCISE TAX:

Not This Year

All hope for any reduction this year of federal excise taxes appeared doomed as congress shut the door on the issue. Excise taxes are collected on such items as furs, jewelry, luggage, cosmetics, transportation and telephone bills.

CHAIRMAN DOUGHTON (D. N.C.) of the tax-writing house ways and means committee issued a statement saying that he sees no prospect for a reduction in these taxes now. He gave as a reason the federal deficit threat of more than five billion dollars in the current fiscal year.

To clarify the subject for consumers, he added:

"I believe it is important to make this clear so that consumers will not postpone the purchase of goods subject to tax in the hope of an immediate reduction." BUT HE HELD out hope of tax reliefs in the future. He said he had requested the congressional staff days. of tax experts to begin now a study

TRUMAN: To The People

President Truman submitted his arms-for-Europe proposal to the people through the medium of the golden jubilee convention of the Veterans of Foreign Wars at Miami DECLARING the armament proposal was the "price of peace," he termed it this nation's guarantee against war and urged approval. The President, contending that peace with freedom and justice c a n n o t be "bought cheaply," urged that congress immediately approve the 1.5 billion-dollar arms outlay. He conceded the cost was "considerable," but added that it "represents an investment in security that will be worth many times its cost."

There were those in congress, however, who were in noticeable disagreement with President Truman. These included several congressmen who have been stalwart supporters of administration policy.

THE DISSENTERS argued that it was "pouring money down a ratto attempt to prevent war hole" or adequately arm the north Atlantic pact signatories as the Truman proposal planned. Others declared the program was simply "putting small arms in the hands of con-stabulary of little nations." U. S.

military experts agreed that even with the program operative as envisioned by the President, Russia could overrun the continent in 60

Claiming this, they added that since the U.S. would have to pay ties, hospitals and doctors by the for World War III anyway if and when it came, the wiser course would be to build up national defense and striking power to the point where no surprise attack on this nation could be successful.

CHINA REDS: Trading Is Out

"You It had a familiar ring: can't do business with the Chinese Communists." Remember? "You can't do business with Hitler." That certainly was true, and according to officials best informed on the Chinese situation, it was equally true of the Chinese Reds.

SLOWLY BUT SURELY, Amercan businessmen and officials are finding out the truth of the statement. In ever-increasing numpers they are pulling out of the great centers in China. And with hem goes inevitably the prospect for any important trade agreenents between the United States and Communist China.

Yet there was an annoying paraox in the situation for the Chinese riends of the Kremlin. For the fact was that the Reds would have to turn to the United States if they were to obtain many things hey need to fill the gaping holes in China's distraught economy.

THE American state department and other U. S. officials are in-censed at the way American offiials and private citizens have een treated by the Communists in China. They apparently have come to the conclusion that nothing can be accomplished by maintaining arge consulate staffs in cities where the Reds have taken over. Weeks of trying to come to some terms with the Communists show nothing but failure.

To the initiate, this came as a surprise to U. S. policy makers. They had expected that as the Chinese Communists poured into Shanghi and other coastal points they would take a live-and-let-live attitude toward the Americans. They also figured that the Communists would have to do business with the U.S., inasmuch as they would have to look to the West rather than Russia for imports to neet China's economic needs. But somehow or other it didn't work out that way.

POLIO: Isolation Cut

Sufficient beds for polio patients n the nation's hospitals-a major problem in fighting the maladyappeared to be in sight as a result of a new approach to treatment and diagnosis in the early stages of the disease.

THIS may be brought about almost overnight and it can be done without adding a single bed in hospitals for acute cases, or training another nurse. Too, it will save millions of dollars in the cost of treatment.

All this is declared possible because of a decision by public health and medical authorities cutting the isolation period for early polio to one week-longer only if the fever lasts longer. Some states have been isolating polio patients for two weeks, some even for three or four, but the average has been two weeks.

The one week recommendation, made by 20 medical authorities, is part of a new guide for health officers of all the states. The guide ties, hospitals and doctors by the

The gambling grandmother of Gardena, Calif., had a relapse.

MRS. SULA BELL STIMSON, 49, had been stricken with a compelling urge to gamble. She reached the stage where she forged checks with which to obtain funds for poker playing. She just couldn't resist the yen to see what that next card would be.

Last November she was brought into court for her weakness and was placed on probation for three years. Last April she was arrested again and a physician testified she had undergone a personality change from a normal housewife to a person afflicted with a craving for gambling.

HE SAID doses of glutamic acid had been used with some success in similar cases, recommended such treatment for Mrs. Stimson. " agreed, and she was released to the custody of her family with court orders to continue the treatment.

It didn't work. The gambling grandmother had succumbed again to the fascination of the poker deck. The acid test had failed.

ELECTRONICS: Machine Has 'Brain'

parade of "mechanical The brain" devices appeared neverending. The newest group-an automatic computer called Binac-is smaller, cheaper, brighter than the others. It can calculate 12,000 times faster than a human being and does problems 25 times faster than more complicated machines. The inventors predicted it would usher in another industrial revolution in which machines can take over many jobs now done by man.

BINAC, built to order for Northrop aircraft company, was designed especially for complicated engineering problems such as in designing new military aircraft and guided missiles.

But Binac was not the last word in the field of mechanical "brains." A larger, general-purpose type of "magic brain" called Univac was under construction. Its first customer will be the U.S. census bureau

UNIVAC, it was said, could even play chess, but only about as good as an average player, not an expert. It is expected that the machine also would be able to write simple melodies and lyrics because musical harmonics follow simple rules

 Hollywood parents, like parents everywhere, are proud of their children and like to have them photographed. They choose Madame Valeska, noted photographer, who has made pic-tures of practically every movie star's child in the film capital. In the photo at top is Gene Kelly's daughter, Kerry. Her doll is forgotten, but Madam Valeska is recording the mood. Just below Kerry Kelly is Anita Louise's daughter, Malanie, apparently trying to decide "how high is up?"

IRISH POTATO-Strange as it may seem, the so-called trisb polatoes did not come from Ireland, and they are not really polatoes. The common potato belongs to the nightshade tamily and is bolanical ly related to the tomato. It was extensively cultivated by the South American Indians. From there it was taken to Europe and later introduced into North America.

REGAIN A CHRISTIAN LIFE !

Referring to blood pressure and body weight it is interesting to know that the greatest number of heart strokes (coronary thrombosis) occur after 40 years of age and grow fewer after the age of 60.

In a series of cases reported from Finland, the results showed that the average body weight in women increased as the blood pressure rose. Among those with high blood pressure, considerable more overweight was found than among those with normal blood pressure. More cases of high blood pressure were also found in women of excess weight than in those of normal and richer food can be bought and weight.

Insurance companies have been pointing out for years that as excess weight accumulates the blood pressure rises and that increased blood pressure occurs more frequently in persons of excess weight than in other persons.

A noted United States physician, Dr. Fishburg, has stated that the presence of overweight and high blood pressure in the same person is often due to hereditary predisposition to these two conditions. The lesson from the above is that weight begins to increase and also the blood pressure at the age of 40, when "life begins," because more less physical work is done or ex-
