Kewaskum First in Badger Firemen's Tourney Parade

Boltonville was host to the annual tournament and picnic of the Badger Firemen's association on Saturday evening and Sunday. The biggest crowd ever assembled in that village attended the event Sunday and saw a most colorful parade. The volunteers of the Boltonville fire department are to be congratulated for their untiring efforts to make the affair such a grand success.

The Kewaskum fire department did not participate in the Sunday morning tournament contests this year because of a lack of volunteers. However, the local firemen did turn out big for the parade, and led by the Legion drum and bugle corps, they succeeded in winning first place for having the most men in the parade. They had 39. Kewaskum also took part in the water fights Saturday and Sunday evenings. Cash prizes were given in the contests, parade and water fights.

Results of the contests, as submitted by George J. Armbruster, Cedarburg, secretary-treasurer of the Badger association, were as follows:

Timers and judges were John Feutz, Slinger; E. Schneider, Cedarburg; William Hilgart, Grafton; Harry Schaefer, Kewaskum; Art. Schmidt, Germantown; J. Martin, Kewaskum, was parade judge. Secretary Geo. J. Armbruster of Cedarburg acted as official scorer for the various contests.

Kewaskum Band, Glee Club Thanked for Wood Concert

The musical director of Kewaskum high school, Elmer Schabo, received a "thank you" communication from the veterans' hospital at Wood, Wis. for the band concert staged by the Kewaskum band and glee club at the hospital on June 11.

Nickerson, acting field director of service in veterans' hospitals, the letter informed Schabo that "the enthusiastic and spontaneous response of the men indicated a keen pleasure in the performance. Please convey to each student who participated in this program our genuine appreciation for rendering such a worthwhile service to the veterans at Wood."

The performance was arranged through the Wisconsin Lakeside council of the American Red Cross, of which the West Bend chapter is a member. Some 60 students participated. Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Utensils Defeated on Sunday and 4th

LAND OF LAKES STANDINGS (Northern Division)

Table with columns: Won, Lost. Rows: Lannon, Granville, Mequon, Waukesha Dales, Waukesha CYO, Kewaskum.

Scores last Sunday—Waukesha Dales 8, Kewaskum 1; Lannon 10, Granville 2; Mequon 7, Waukesha CYO 5.

Scores Fourth of July—Granville 6, Kewaskum 4; Waukesha Dales 3, Mequon 1; Lannon 6, Waukesha CYO 2.

Games this Sunday—Mequon at Kewaskum, Waukesha CYO at Granville, Lannon at Waukesha Dales.

The Utensils lost their ninth and tenth games over the holiday week end. Sunday at Waukesha they were downed by the Dales, 8-1, and at home on the 4th Granville turned the trick, 6-1. The team last won on May 25 from Waukesha CYO and since has dropped seven in succession, many of them being close ones.

You can't win without hits and that was the case Sunday when the Utensils were checked with two safeties by Pete Dellios, whom they knocked out of the box the last time out. But it was different this time as Dellios fanned eight and walked three as he subdued Kewaskum in easy fashion. The Dales collected nine hits off John Tassar, who struck out four and walked two. Four Dale batters came through with two bingles apiece. Norm Held and John Tessar got the Utensils' only two hits. Five errors were marked up against the losers.

On the Fourth things ran closer. The visitors took a 5-1 lead early in the contest but a sixth inning rally by the Utensils just fell short of tying Granville. They tallied three runs in this frame, bringing it to 5-4. The opponents netted one more in the ninth to complete the run making. Kewaskum garnered seven hits off Batzler, while Granville nicked Marx for 12. The Utensils were without the services of John Tassar and "Barny" Prost in the contest. Batzler whiffed only two and gave up two free passes. Marx fanned five and walked one. Leading Granville's hit department was Gitzlaff with three for four. Jerome Stautz was the losers' only batter with two safeties.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Mrs. Paul Rosenthal, who passed away on July 7, 1947: A precious one from us has gone, A voice we loved is stilled; A place is vacant in our home, Which never can be filled. God in His wisdom has recalled, The boon His love had given, And though the body slumbers here, The soul is safe in Heaven. Sadly missed by her husband, Paul Rosenthal, and family.

Oshkosh All-Girls Corps to Headline Legion Parade Sun.

Annual Picnic to Feature 2 Bands, 2 Drum Corps, Old Time Jamboree Entertainment

Plans were completed this week by the Kewaskum American Legion post for their grand picnic and parade this Sunday, July 9. The afternoon and evening picnic in the village park will be preceded by a big parade which will get underway promptly at 12:30 p. m.

Featuring the parade will be the Oshkosh High school all-girls drum and bugle corps with their unique Indian square brief uniforms. This corps is an outstanding musical organization and their very colorful uniforms make a hit in any parade. Some of our people who had a chance to attend the festival of music at Cedarburg recently and saw the girls can tell you how well they were received. Although they didn't win a prize at Cedarburg, against the keenest of competition, they received a splendid ovation.

The Legion's own local drum and bugle corps will also march in the parade, along with both the Campbellsport and Kewaskum bands. These four musical organizations will add much to the parade which will also feature floats, kiddies in costume and with decorated vehicles, neighboring Legionnaires and drill teams, firemen, Ruth Elchstedt's baton sparklers of Barton, and other units.

Three prizes will be awarded for the best floats in the parade and also for the best children's specialties. Judges will be Mrs. Ben Gregorius of Los Angeles, Calif., Village President Charles Miller and Clifford Rose, principal Kewaskum public schools. The judges' stand will be on the porch of the Mrs. Wm. F. Schultz home on Main street and winners will be announced later in the park. The Legion urges businessmen and kiddies to please co-operate in entering floats and other specialties in the parade.

Free entertainment in the park will be provided by Johnny Gale's Old Time Jamboree, starring headliners of barn dance, stage and radio with music, singing and comedy. Advance reports are that this is a hilarious show and one well worth seeing. The acts will be staged both afternoon and evening and in between there will be band concerts and recorded music.

The Legion has engaged rides for the kiddies and a variety of concessions and amusements for the enjoyment of all. Parking and admission are free. There's always a good time at the Kewaskum picnics, so come.

ONE ACCIDENT REPORTED OVER HOLIDAY WEEK END

Although traffic was extremely heavy over the Fourth of July week end, only one accident occurred in this vicinity. One traffic death occurred east of St. Michaels but this happened too early to be considered part of the holiday toll. Ray Dorst, 47, Marathon, reported slight property damage to his car Monday, July 3, when a hit and run driver sideswiped his vehicle on Hwy. 45-55 in the Kewaskum swamp.

SOFTBALL TEAM NOTCHES VICTORY OVER BEECHWOOD

The Kewaskum softball team regained its winning ways Sunday in trouncing Beechwood, 10-1, in a Cross Country loop tilt. The local team, which dropped its only game of the season the week previous, still rests in first place. Kohlsvell, which won on a forfeit from Dundee Sunday, is second.

Scouts, Leaders at Valley Forge Write

National Jamboree Valley Forge, Pa. June 30, 1950

Dear Editor: How are you? We're fine! We just wanted to let you know about the big Scout Jamboree we are attending at Valley Forge which opened today.

President Truman, Honorary President of the Boy Scouts of America, officially opened the Jamboree and drove through the grounds, visiting all 35 Sectional Camps. Governor James H. Duff, of Pennsylvania who invited the Scouts to hold the Jamboree at Valley Forge inspected the camps and welcomed us at the opening ceremonies.

Boy, oh boy is this place big. Almost four square miles in this beautiful historical park have been turned over to the Scouts. We Scouts think we're lucky to be able to pitch our camp where Gen. George Washington and his Continental Army camped during the winter of 1777 and 1778. If Washington's men who served at Valley Forge could see the Scouts' Jamboree Camp they would be surprised at the clean camp, big food depots, the many kinds of tents and camping activities of the Boy Scouts of America today.

Forty-seven thousand Scouts and Scout Leaders are here from every part of America, including Hawaii, Alaska and the Canal Zone. Thousands of Scouts have been arriving during the past three days. More than a hundred special trains and buses have been bringing Scouts from every direction. The place is a bee-hive of activity. Everywhere you look you see tents, flags and boys—thousands of Boy Scouts in Khaki uniforms and colorful Jamboree neckerchiefs. Some Troops are using the old Prairie Schooners in place of tents which remind us of another period in the history of our great nation. Every Troop has attractive gateways showing the outdoor flavor of Scouting.

Region Seven, which includes the states of Illinois, Indiana, Michigan and Wisconsin, has about 7,000 Scouts and Leaders in attendance. Our Troop's campsite is located just south of the National Memorial Arch. Near us are Scouts from Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Pennsylvania, Maryland and Virginia. Some of the most interesting groups we have met are the Scouts from foreign lands. Delegations encamped in the International Section include Scouts from England, Scotland, France, Austria, Germany, Norway, several South American countries and our neighboring countries, Canada and Mexico are here. The International camp is more than just a Scout camp, it is a sample of the United Nations at work. Troops in this Section are Scouts from foreign countries and American Scouts, all camping together. Scouting seems to develop a spirit of fellowship and good will. The entire picture throughout the Jamboree is one of understanding and good sportsmanship.

Campers are equipped to carry on their own program. Each Patrol brought its own equipment. Food is drawn from the Commissary and cooked by Scouts themselves. Everyone shares in the camp duties and pleasures. A full program is provided for each day. There will be displays of skills, campfires, Scoutcraft events, inter-camp visits and excursions to historic shrines in and near Philadelphia.

Swapping has already begun. Scouts from our Troop are trading gadgets with Scouts from Texas and New Mexico who brought thousands of horned toads to trade, and Florida Scouts brought a collection of snakes and lizards to trade for souvenirs from other sections of the country.

There is so much happening, so much to see and do we can't possibly add any more to this letter, but if you would like when we get home we'll try to tell you more about the Jamboree.

Yours very truly, Preston Pierce Bob Rose Troop No. 3 Section No. 22

June 20, 1950

It's quite a place! They say "George Washington slept here"—well, if he did be sure didn't have 4,999 noisy Scouts as members of his Continental Army of 10,000. Maybe it was just so cold the sound froze and then all thawed out in the spring! Whoops—that's a foul Bunyah yarn!

As you already noted the envelope is a "first day cover" and it carries the first Boy Scout Commemorative stamp ever issued. You will note the day of mailing is the opening day of this great Jamboree. Tonight we will all be together for the big sendoff. Then on July 2nd the big convocation, then on the 4th the great Independence Day observance in this, one of the nation's most historic and revered shrines.

Our campsite has very little shade; in fact, we can look in most any direction and note the highest tree to be

LAND O' RIVERS STANDINGS (Northern Division)

Table with columns: Won, Lost. Rows: West Bend, Kewaskum, Allenton, Saukville, Barton, Slinger, Jackson, Newburg.

Scores last Sunday—Kewaskum 8, Barton 3; Slinger 3, West Bend 1; Allenton 5, Jackson 3; Newburg 11, Saukville 6.

Scores Fourth of July—West Bend 14, Kewaskum 6; Slinger 9, Allenton 4; Saukville 3, Barton 1; Newburg 4, Jackson 3.

Games this Sunday—Kewaskum at Newburg, Jackson at Saukville, Slinger at Barton, Allenton at West Bend.

The Kewaskum Chevrolets fared evenly in two games over the holiday week end. Sunday they conquered Barton on the home field, 8-3, and on the 4th they were downed for the second time by first place West Bend, 14-6. Allenton also split in two games and remained tied with the locals for second place.

Four two-run innings were enough to take Barton's measure. Honeck went the route for the winners and pitched a fine game. He held the Barton hitters to five bingles and breezed along without too much trouble. Honeck struck out two and walked four. The Chev's lashed out at two visiting hurlers, Dick Rose and Al Duenkel, for a total of 14 safeties. Rose passed four batters and whiffed two. Duenkel didn't walk a batter and fanned five. Each pitcher was touched for seven hits. Duenkel came in in the fifth frame. Topping Kewaskum's onslaught was Bud Korth who connected for four straight hits before going out the last time up. Augie Bilgo also poled three hits in five trips. R. Duenkel was Barton's only batter with two safeties.

West Bend was too much to contend with on the 4th. Kewaskum started with a holiday boom in the first inning with three runs but from then on Lloyd Kral held them pretty much under control. Three local pitchers, Backhaus, Honeck and Dreher, couldn't end the assault. Backhaus walked two and struck out one. Honeck walked none and fanned one, and Dreher passed four and struck out two. Kral whiffed the entire contest and was nicked for eight hits, struck out seven and passed three. The winners got 12 hits off the local hurlers. Four West Bend hitters were credited with two hits apiece. Bob Dreher and Don Lutz were the only Kewaskum batters with two. Korth and Bilgo smacked out long home runs. Seven errors were chalked against the Chevrolets.

just the height of a blade of grass. Believe me the big Troop dining flies (vents) will come in handy when the old sun really works. We are one of the few contingents to have such a fine shelter.

The trip over was wonderful. There is a lot to tell you when we return (it will be up to you to see that every Scout has a chance to tell his story and he will have a big one, to every possible community group anywhere around his home territory). If there is any chance for you to visit us at the Jamboree we want you to do it, but if you cannot try to be on deck to welcome the boys when the special train arrives home. We expect to pull in to West Bend about 1:00 p. m. or thereabouts Monday, July 10; about a half hour later Kewaskum and around 2:00 p. m. in Fond du Lac for the last unloading. The train continues on for Oshkosh, Appleton and Green Bay contingents.

Our tepes provide one of the most colorful sights of any section. Also our gateways, the Badger signs, have caused a lot of comment. One can feel justly proud of your 112 boys which we exceeded only by the Council with headquarters at Wausau which had 114.

Guess that's it—wish we could all write to you personal letters but it will be impossible so please consider this our Jamboree mailing from all of us to all of you at home.

Yours sincerely, Robert Rupnow, Troop 1 William Lankton, Troop 2 Frank Smith, Troop 3 Lloyd Shafer, Contingent Leader AND THE ENTIRE GANG

Francis Wiedmeyer is Killed in Crash Near St. Michaels

Francis Pius Wiedmeyer, 30, of Route 2, Kewaskum, was killed at 5:30 p. m. Friday, June 30, when his heavy Packard car went out of control on Highway 28, about one mile east of St. Michaels, and crashed into a tree. Alone, Wiedmeyer was heading east toward his home a short distance away at the time. County police said that the machine traveled 250 feet along the shoulder of the road before knocking off guard rails and hitting the tree. The car overturned and came to a stop between a road embankment and oats field. The car was a complete wreck, the entire top being sheared off. Wiedmeyer was dead when taken from the wreckage and the body was brought to Miller's funeral home.

The young man was born Aug. 23, 1919 in the town of Farmington. With the exception of three and one-half years of service in the military forces during World War II, he spent his entire life in the town of Farmington. He served for one and one-half years overseas in the European theatre.

Wiedmeyer, who was engaged in farming, was married to Alice Schneider on May 16, 1942 at St. Mathias church, Nabob. She survives along with three children, Kenneth, six years; Rose Mary, three years, and Robert, one year. He is further survived by his father, Frank Wiedmeyer, his mother having predeceased him on June 7, 1946; three sisters, Hildegard (Mrs. Peter Gonerling) of West Bend, Agatha (Mrs. John Breit) of the town of Farmington, and Irene (Mrs. Roman Breit) of Newburg; and two brothers, Leo and Math, of the town of Farmington.

The deceased was a member of the Holy Name society of St. Michael's church, St. Michaels.

The body was in state at Miller's funeral home after 9 a. m. Monday. Funeral services were conducted at 9:30 a. m. Tuesday, July 4, in St. Michael's church, the Rev. Francis Eschweiler presiding. Interment was in the parish cemetery, Kewaskum Post No. 284, American Legion, conducted military services at the cemetery.

Their comforting expressions of sympathy and thoughtfulness will always be remembered. We are very grateful to Rev. Eschweiler, choir, organist, pallbearers, drivers, traffic officer, members of the Kewaskum American Legion, for the flowers and spiritual bouquets, to Miller's, and all who showed respect.

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS

Russia Offers Cold War 'Terms'; Dewey to Retire From Politics; F. B. I. Arrests Two in Spy Case

EDITOR'S NOTE: When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of Western Newspaper Union's news analysis and not necessarily of this newspaper.

COLD WAR: New Peace Terms

Observers are speculating over so-called cold war peace terms reportedly acceptable to the Russians which include a demand that the United States cease helping to re-arm western Europe.

It was an ironic demand because at the same time the Soviet agreed to recognize the Atlantic pact as a legitimate regional defense group under the terms of the United Nations charter.

It is this pact that pledges the western nations to mutual aid. The Soviet also had three demands on the Far East:

- (1) Elimination of the United Nations of the representatives of Generalissimo Chiang Kai Shek's government.
(2) Acceptance by the western powers of the Russian "gold ruble" as the basic currency for China's foreign trade.
(3) Soviet participation in the conclusion of a peace treaty with Japan which would guarantee the latter country what Moscow considers to be "political freedom."

In the European field, the Soviet had four rather vague offers:
(1) Unification of Germany within the framework of the Potsdam agreement.
(2) Neutralization of Germany.
(3) Withdrawal of all occupational forces from Germany.
(4) General reduction of armaments and armies, including the abandonment of conscription.

Observers did not believe the terms would be attractive enough to bring about any settlement of differences between the East and the West. Russia, as usual, wants a great deal but is vague about tangible returns.

DEWEY: Plans to Retire

One of the most spectacular careers in modern American politics has come to a halt, at least temporarily. Governor Thomas E. Dewey of New York has announced he will retire from politics after 20 years in public life and probably return to private law practice when his second term expires next December 31.

Dewey said in a one-sentence statement which he personally distributed to reporters, "I shall not be a candidate for re-election next fall." He renounced further personal White House ambitions last December.

As expected, his announcement raised a number of questions in the New York state political picture as well as on the national scene.

Dewey, New York's only Republican governor in the past 30 years, added, however, that he would continue an active interest in public affairs. He promised to speak out on "issues affecting the welfare of the state and nation," especially foreign affairs.

He rose to political prominence when he pyramided his fame and methodical efficiency as a racket-busting prosecutor in New York city into two terms as governor and two nominations for President. He was defeated by President Roosevelt in 1944. In 1948, he lost to President Truman.

HUNGARY: Demands Ransom

The custom of blackmail, ransom and intrigue so often employed by the Nazis in the reign of terror over Europe, has put in a more obvious appearance under the Communists.

Hungary has demanded the ancient crown of St. Stephen as ransom for Robert A. Vogeler, imprisoned American businessman. According to reports from Europe, Hungarian Communists have offered to swap Vogeler for the 1,000-year-old crown which is the symbol of Magyar royalty.

The crown was taken from Hungary by the Nazis and later found by the American troops in Germany.

CORPORATIONS: Increased Taxes

When the election-conscious house and senate began a program of tax cutting after President Truman offered his budget, he warned any reductions must be met with revenue from other sources.

Now, the house ways and means committee, obviously bidding for presidential approval of the excise-tax cut, had voted a $433,000,000 increase in the yearly tax on big corporations.

If the new corporate-tax plan became law, the normal tax rate on the biggest corporations would be stepped up from 38 per cent to 41. The new proposal was voted after a conference with the President. It was believed in many quarters congress will pass an excise-cutting bill and the President will sign it.

If the bill becomes law, the excise taxes will be slashed—probably September 1—on fur coats, jewelry, movies, luggage, travel, tickets, telephones, baby bottle warmers, and scores of other items.

Admits Spying

David Greenglass, 28, former noncommissioned army officer, has admitted giving Russia information about the atomic bomb. He was the third person arrested in the spy ring since the British scientist Klaus Fuchs was taken into custody.

ESPIONAGE: New Arrests Made

Since British scientist Klaus Fuchs admitted spying for Russia the F. B. I. has been closing the net around associates in the United States who passed along classified atomic information to him.

As a result two new arrests have been made. One of the accused admitted that he passed along atomic secrets from the Los Alamos, N. M., plant in 1945.

He is David Greenglass, a 28-year-old former Communist league leader who explained his act: "I felt it was gross negligence on the part of the United States not to give Russia the information about the atom bomb because she was an ally."

The other accused, Dean Slack, a 44-year-old Syracuse, N. Y., chemist, denied he knew Henry Gold, the first arrested in this country. He added he was not and never had been a Communist.

Both men are held under $100,000 bonds. Meanwhile, a grand jury investigating Amerasia case, which has been much in the headlines recently, cleared the administration's handling of the stolen documents case, but strongly recommended the impaneling of a new grand jury to continue the investigation.

Also in connection with the case, Emmanuel S. Larsen, himself arrested and fined in the 1945 case that hinged on the theft of hundreds of diplomatic and military papers, told a senate investigating committee he regarded former navy lieutenant Andrew Roth as a "Communist, and the principal conspirator" in the stolen-documents case.

Government officials indicated that the arrest of Slack and Greenglass was only the beginning in the battle to break up what may possibly be one of the greatest spy rings in the history of this country.

COMMUNISTS: Defeat by Ballot

Political observers were pleased with the outcome of the state election returns in the Ruhr section of Western Germany. They felt it was a defeat of the Communists by the ballot.

In the British zone the voters picked a 215-seat parliament and voted on a proposed state constitution. The returns indicated Communist strength had tumbled to a postwar low when they received only 5 per cent of the valid ballots, compared with 14 per cent in the election three years ago.

The workers, however, favored the proposed state constitution with its socialization clause: "Large factories of the basic industries and undertakings which, because of their monopolistic position have special significance, shall be transferred to common ownership."

The specific industries were not named in the draft. Western observers felt the elections justifiable in that they would:

- 1. Give the new nationalist parties, which were not even in the arena in the federal elections last August a chance to show their muscle.
2. Tell whether communism is gaining in Western Germany.
3. Test the popularity of the West German Federal Government's policies.

Rent Control

The house and senate committees considering rent control have agreed upon a six-month extension of federal controls and another six months in communities which want them.

Although both branches of congress must approve the measure, there seemed little doubt that they would do so.

Observers said the bill will be on the President's desk before June 30. Mr. Truman is expected to sign the bill, although it falls short of the full one-year extension he had urged in a special message to congress.

The committees accepted a provision to give counties the right to remove controls by December 31. The bill would have no effect on states or local areas which have dropped federal controls. Communities that wish to continue ceilings for six months of next year would be required to take affirmative action either by referendum or by action of their governing body.

LABOR: Degree of Unity

A degree of future unity between big labor unions appeared on the horizon as the A. F. L. and the C. I. O. worked on plans for their pending cooperation conference. The one notable exception, however, was the uninvited United Mine Workers.

UMW chief John L. Lewis was not happy at being left out of the conference. He said a conference without his union is no way to achieve labor unity.

While he was making that statement, the national labor relations board took a swat at the UMW by ruling it broke the Taft-Hartley law by a campaign of violence to organize employees of a Harlan county, Kentucky, department store.

The board ordered the union to cease assaulting, or threatening the store employees. If the union ignores the order it could eventually lead to possible jail sentences or fines for union officials.

But while the UMW struggles with its problems, there were long strides by the other union toward cooperation—if not eventual merger.

Among the developments: 1. Joseph D. Keenan, top A. F. L. political organizer addressed the C. I. O.'s political action committee. His subject was a renewed effort by the union to unite to repeal the Taft-Hartley law.

2. A cross section of American labor ranks attended a two-day meeting aimed at raising assistance for the Israeli federation of labor.

3. The Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen accepted C. I. O. proposal for a committee to work together on common problems and eventually aim at consolidation.

INFLATION: To Financial Ruin

Former President Herbert Hoover, in a speech before the U. S. Junior Chamber of Commerce convention in Chicago, has again warned that financial disaster is in prospect for the country unless the government curtails its spending policies drastically.

Unless an immediate halt is ordered on spending, Mr. Hoover predicted the undermining of an economy which he said would provide one million new jobs annually. For 17 years, he maintained, Democratic administrations had continued the spending spree.

"Financing government deficits by borrowing, if continued long enough, has only one end—inflation," the former President said. "We ourselves have already decreased the purchasing power of the dollar about 50 per cent, and we are still creeping along the road."

"The five-cent telephone call and the five-cent fare have already gone, and the five-cent bar has shrunk. A new round of inflation is now appearing in direct or indirect wage and salary increases and rising commodity prices.

"If we keep on this road, we are certain to realize the President's ideal of $4,000 a year to every family. But it will not have $4,000 purchasing power."

"To this question of further government borrowing to meet deficits, my answer is that it is the road to disaster for every cottage in the land."

DEFICIT: At 3.8 Billion

The administration has predicted a $5,400,000 deficit by the end of the fiscal year June 30, but shortly before the deadline it appeared the amount would be well under the estimate.

A $773,625,000 interest payment on the national debt boosted the deficit to $3,887,529,000. The payment was made two weeks before the end of the fiscal year.

To Retire

Governor Thomas E. Dewey (center) is shown being interviewed by newsmen shortly before he announced he would not be a candidate for reelection as governor of New York when his second term expires next December. He may return to private law practice.

BRIDGES MINED: Just in Case

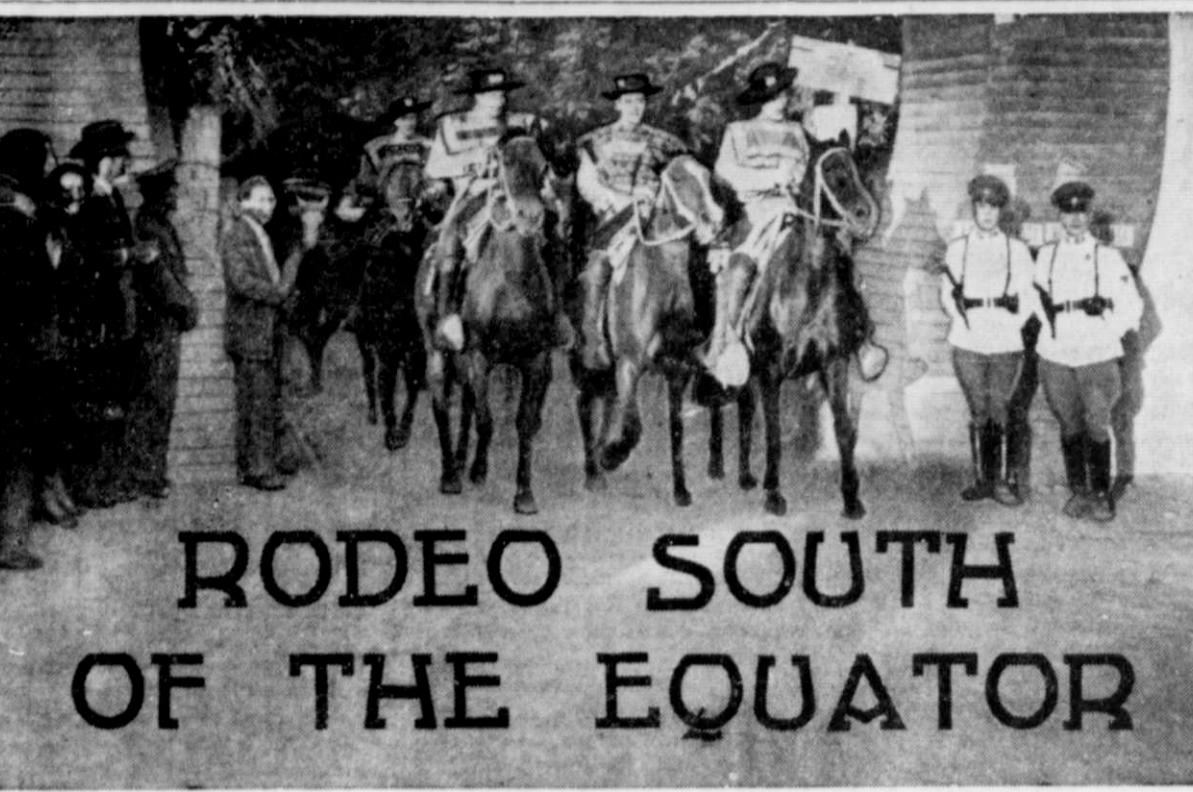

Whether or not the world is face to face with another war has been in the minds of the everyday citizen almost since the final shot was fired in World War II.

Now it comes to light that the key roads and bridges in Western Germany are being prepared for quick destruction in case of a Soviet attack. Similar preparations apparently are being made in other European countries.

Observers said the measures were probably from a master plan drawn up by the western defense chiefs, although official occupation sources declined to confirm or deny such actions are being taken.

A French source said: "It is not only the French zone and along the Rhine these measures are being taken, but everywhere in Western Germany. . . It is the allied high command which ordered this."

As could be expected, the news touched off an uproar in the Russian-controlled East German press.

RODEO SOUTH OF THE EQUATOR

weekly Picture story

The champs (above) are in action. The lead rider is about to crowd his steer against the wall to earn point one. The steer will be reversed and his partner will take his turn at pinning the animal to the other side of the arena. At right, a wealthy ranch owner waits his turn to enter the contest.

Points are scored by stopping the steer by pressure of the horse against the steer's neck, stopping the animal by pressure of the horse against the middle, and stopping it by pressure against the flank. At right two riders have scored a point by crowding the animal against the wall. Note how rider has come out of saddle to throw his weight with the horse.

The leg and foot gear (left) protects the rider from the perspiration of the horse. The hand carved wooden stirrup shoes protect the rider's foot from being crushed against a steer or wall, and the huge spurs drive the horse into rapid turns, fast starts and stops. The spurs turn against the animal instead of prodding into the flesh. Below a point is scored as the animal is crowded at the neck to stop him and make him turn. The chest of the horse is pressed against the steer driving him into the matted wall.

U.S. Dollar Devalued 40 Percent In Purchasing Power in Ten Years

This is the first of two articles on inflation, how it works and its future, as prepared by the Family Economics Bureau of Northwestern National Life Insurance Company.

In these hectic days, fresh alarms and fresh problems flare up both here and abroad, crowding each other through the spotlight. Seldom is there time enough to think each problem through.

Meanwhile, inflation creeps quietly on, down underneath. It chisels every pay envelope, every savings account. It undermines every pension program, every plan for future security. It weakens our ability to deal with all our other problems, both at home and abroad.

Though inflation has gotten badly mixed up in politics, no one party has a monopoly on the blame for it. Groups and individuals belonging to all our important political parties have contributed to our present inflation menace, usually with the best of intentions.

Buying Power Down
Inflation needs to be thought through now, regardless of politics and in spite of all other distractions. For we, like Britain and France and many other nations, now have the inflation habit. As citizens of a democracy, we must all share the blame as well as take the consequences, if we do not find a cure.

Our own dollar has been devalued 40 per cent in actual buying power since 1939. The white haired couple existing on old age assistance, the elderly worker retired on a pension, the widow trying to keep her family together on social security and her husband's savings—these can testify whether inflation has whittled down their comfort and their security.

To see how, and why, the inflation process goes on and on, we must first stop long enough to realize the nature of money, and why it grows or shrinks in buying power.

Money is only waste paper unless there are things to buy. Without things to buy, it is as worthless as a hat-check when there are no hats in the checkroom. Things to buy—or goods, as the economists call them—result from work and production.

Money enables the farmer in Minnesota to trade a gallon of milk for canned pineapple from Hawaii, or fresh oranges from Florida. The money that passes through many hands to make these trades possible isn't wealth, nor does it create a standard of living. The milk, the pineapple, and the oranges are the wealth and the standard of living. It is production of these things that makes the U.S. dollar valuable, and makes the American standard of living so high.

In the wild post-war Chinese inflation it was not uncommon for a "ricksha coolie to earn 175 million Chinese dollars a week, but he often had difficulty buying enough food with his baskets full of money to keep from starving. There were lots of dollars being poured out by government, but not much food being produced or marketed. Though the people's dollar incomes increased fantastically, this did not raise their living standard; it merely devalued their dollars.

The inflation that is nibbling away at our dollars and our pensions and our future security is not the kind of inflation that afflicted China. Instead it is a creeping, gradual credit inflation that is far harder to see. Here's an illustration of how it works:

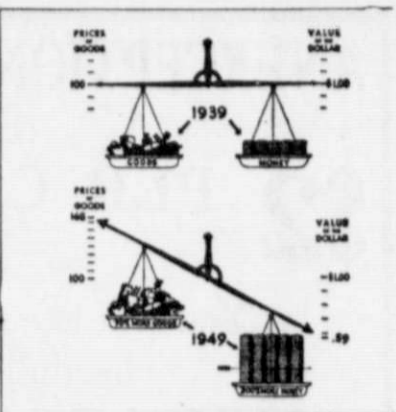

Money Supply Trebled
Our government borrows a million dollars from a federal reserve bank to meet some of its expenses. The U.S. treasury gives the bank a note or bonds for a million dollars. The bank simply marks up a deposit of a million dollars in the name of the U.S. treasury, and keeps Uncle Sam's promise to repay the loan as security.

The treasury then writes checks on that million-dollar bank account until it is all paid out, for road building, pensions, airplanes, public housing, salaries of government employees.

The total number of dollar "claim-tickets" in circulation is increased by a million, just as surely as if the government had printed up a million dollars in crisp new greenbacks and had spent that money instead.

Uncle Sam's checkbook dollars are deposited by individuals and business concerns in their own bank accounts; they write new checks as they pass the dollars on. The total number of dollar "claim-tickets" in circulation until Uncle Sam repays his loan. Some of the people who receive the bank checks will probably want actual greenbacks for them; any Federal Reserve bank can print up new paper money, using that same million-dollar IOU of Uncle Sam's as security, with only 25 per cent gold reserve required under the present law.

Now, to see just what has happened to the purchasing power of the dollar:

The above chart prepared by the Family Economics Bureau of Northwestern National Life Insurance Company shows clearly why your dollar has shrunk to 57 cents' worth.

opened to the purchasing power of the dollar:
In 1939 we had a little under 83 billion dollars of this "checkbook" money and a little over seven billion dollars of coins and paper money—a total "money supply" of 40 billion dollars in 1939.

By late 1949 we had 93 billion dollars of "checkbook" money and 27 billion dollars of coins and paper money—a total money supply of 120 billion dollars in 1949.

This is just three times as many dollar "claim-tickets" for goods as were outstanding in 1939.

But our production of goods has increased, too, though it hasn't trebled, like the money supply, or even doubled—it has increased about 70 per cent.

Production Fights Inflation
If there were no more dollars in circulation today than in 1939, each dollar would be a claim for about 70 per cent more goods; it would buy approximately as much today as $1.70 would buy in 1939.

But there are three times as many dollar "claim-tickets" outstanding today. So each dollar can claim only about a third as much. A third of $1.70 would be about 57 cents; actually we have about a 59-cent dollar today, compared with its 1939 buying power. If it weren't for the large and active group of teenagers, who call themselves "Clark's Larks".

Elizabeth Taylor's wedding gown may have been gorgeous, but a lot of girls are going to decide to copy the one Claudette Colbert wears in RKO's "The Secret Fury." A Hat-Carnegie original, it is white, embroidered in seed pearls.

Stan Freeman, one of the permanent stars of the popular "Piano Playhouse", can give a Carnegie Hall concert one night and arrange a singing commercial the next day. He's heard all over the air; "Rate Your Mate" is the new Joey Adams show, his latest assignment.

In 1941 he won the McDowell Award as the outstanding young American pianist in the country. Some of the most dramatically beautiful scenes ever filmed with mountain backgrounds were brought back from the French Alps for "The White Tower" by Director Ted Tetzlaff. An avalanche provided a really sensational sequence.

The government borrowings, however, did not increase production of consumer goods. The things those borrowed dollars were spent for either "went up in smoke" during the war, or were mostly junked after the war. The borrowed dollars are still with us as pure inflation.

From the latest official estimates, our government is now spending over five billion dollars more than it takes in in the current year. As previously pointed out, this means that five billion borrowed checkbook dollars are gradually added to an already existing money supply of about 130 billion dollars.

If every other influence stayed exactly the same, so we could watch this 4 per cent inflation at work, all by itself, we would find, each individual American dollar gradually "watered down" about 4 cents in buying power. This is, it would take $1.04 to buy as much as $1.00 bought previously.

This means about four cents sucked out of each of our old dollars to create five billion new dollars. No "new purchasing power" has been created; the purchasing power of the new money has been taken away from all the old money.

Production Not Increased by Inflation

As a crude example of inflation, suppose a restaurant checkroom started giving each customer two hot-checks when he turned in his hot. This would certainly not increase the supply of hats; the patrons would have no better off than before, although they would have a merry jingle in their pockets. Each customer would either have to give up two hot checks to reclaim his hat, or else some customer would come away with two hats, and some with none.

Neither does issuing more American dollars increase our supply of goods or raise our American standard of living, although for a while it seems as if it does.

Annual Deficit Total Five Billion

Only five out of the 21 years since 1929 have been war years. Yet in 18 of the 21 years, our government has spent more than it has taken in; has had to make up the difference with new borrowed dollars, steadily inflating our money supply, whittling bits off our old dollars to create the new ones.

Already officially predicted is another five billion dollar deficit for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1951. Deficits have a habit of outgrowing advance estimates; a year ago, our current five billion dollar deficit was officially estimated at less than one billion dollars. As with the drug habit, the victim of the inflation habit intends to take "just one more shot" and then quit.

But each "shot" leads to another until the victim is beyond help.

GOOD CITIZEN Democratic Government Based On Individual Freedom, Dignity

This is the first of a series of 10 articles from the booklet "Good Citizen" published by The American Heritage Foundation concerning the rights and duties of an American. Composed of leaders in the fields of religion, education, industry, labor and commerce, the foundation was organized early in 1947 to fight the rising tide of indifference and cynicism toward the privileges and responsibilities of American citizenship. It is a strictly a nonpolitical, educational organization. It is not antagonistic to any group or principle, and all those groups or principles are hostile to the dignity and freedom of men.

WHETHER YOU call it democracy or a Republic, whether you judge its benefits by the car in your garage or by freedom to worship at the church of your choice, by the food on your table or by your freedom to speak out in public without fear, you are living under a system of government based on the dignity and freedom of the individual, that derives its powers from the bottom up rather than from the top down.

Clearly we must work at democracy to make democracy work—we must work for the freedom that works for us.

JEFF CLARK, who earned his way through Westminster College, in Sharon, Pa., as a radio-engineer disc jockey, landed high on the stardust trail when he was picked as top vocalist on "Your Hit Parade" as substitute for Sinatra. He switched from his platter-playing role with instant success in his first radio singing job, won the Arthur Godfrey Talent Scout award, and starred in his own New York radio and television shows before being tapped for starring honors. The handsome young baritone—his 25—is unmarried, plays the violin and the guitar and is the inspiration of a large and active group of teenagers, who call themselves "Clark's Larks".

What are your rights as an American citizen? . . .

1. FREEDOM of worship according to your conscience.
2. FREEDOM of speech and freedom of the press, including right to criticize the government and public officials.

3. RIGHT of the people to assemble peaceably and to petition the government for a redress of grievances—fancied or real.

4. THE RIGHT to keep and bear arms. (This means that the people as a whole shall have the right to keep and bear arms for the defense of their country. Their right to carry certain types of weapons for personal use, or to have them in their homes, is frequently limited by various federal, state, and local regulations, such as the Sullivan act in New York state.)

5. PROTECTION of the people against unreasonable search and seizure of person and property by the government without proper authority and good cause.

6. NO PERSON shall be held to answer for any major crime without review and indictment by a grand jury.

7. NO PERSON shall be placed in jeopardy (indicted, prosecuted or imprisoned) twice for the same crime.

8. NO PERSON shall be compelled to act as a witness against himself in any criminal case.

9. IF A PERSON is accused of a crime, he has: the right to a speedy trial; the right to the help of a lawyer; the right to trial by a jury, impartially selected; the right to call witnesses in his favor.

10. NO WIFE may be required to testify against her husband (or vice versa) in any criminal proceeding.

11. NO PRIVATE property may be taken for public use without just compensation and due process of law.

12. EXCESSIVE bail shall not be required, nor cruel and unusual punishment inflicted.

13. A PERSON is presumed to be innocent until proven guilty.

14. THE RIGHT to vote, secretly, for anyone you want. (The constitution protects you against abridgement of this right. The specific right, however, is granted by the various states.)

15. FREEDOM of person, under the protection of habeas corpus, which gives any person who claims to be unlawfully held by an officer or private person the right to have a hearing at once so that he may know the reason why he is being held. (This means that the government of the United States cannot, arrest persons as individuals or groups, throw them into prison or concentration camps, hold them there indefinitely and do what it pleases to them.)

16. NO "EX POST FACTO" law can be passed. (This means that in our daily living and thinking we can enjoy the liberty of doing and saying all that the existing law permits. Even if, at a later date, our government makes these things illegal, it cannot "date back" the law to make illegal anything that was done before the law was passed.)

BROADWAY AND MAIN STREET

A Little Secret of Murder—Revealed After 40 Years

By BILLY ROSE

On an October morning in 1903, in a village not far from La Rochelle in eastern France, a young priest paled as he listened to his first confession.

"Yesterday afternoon," he heard the penitent on the other side of the curtain say, "I met a stange girl on the dirt road that runs by the pond. When I tried to make friends with her, she laughed at me, and I got so mad I picked up a stone and hit her to make her stop laughing. She fell down, and when I yelled and she didn't move I got scared and buried her beside some bushes."

Father Antoine recognized the voice as that of a 15-year-old who was known in the village as "the boy who never told her, and afterwards I got all mixed up about what I wanted to do and what I really did."

"I suspected as much all along," said Father Antoine, "but I must admit I was shocked at first. You see, you were the first person who had ever confessed to me."

Two years later, the boy's family moved to Paris and the priest left but forgot the incident—until a new paved road was laid alongside the old dirt one. Under a bush near the pond was found the decomposed body of a girl, and the coroner testified it had been there about two years and the skull had been crushed by some heavy object.

Bound by his vows, Father Antoine could say nothing, and for the next 40 years the secret remained with him.

THE YEARS of the German occupation were difficult ones for those who lived in the La Rochelle district, but many of the villagers did what they could for the resistance movement—and not the least among them was the priest, now in his late 60's. And when liberation finally came, a great celebration was arranged with Father Antoine as the guest of honor.

After the dinner there was a good deal of reminiscing among the veterans of the underground, but when someone asked the priest to tell of his own adventures, he smiled and declined. "The occasion was essential for all of us," he explained, "but in my calling the essential is almost an everyday occurrence. As a matter of fact, the first confession I ever heard was that of a murderer."

Then, remembering his vows, Father Antoine apologized for his off-guard remark, and despite the urging of the guests would say no more.

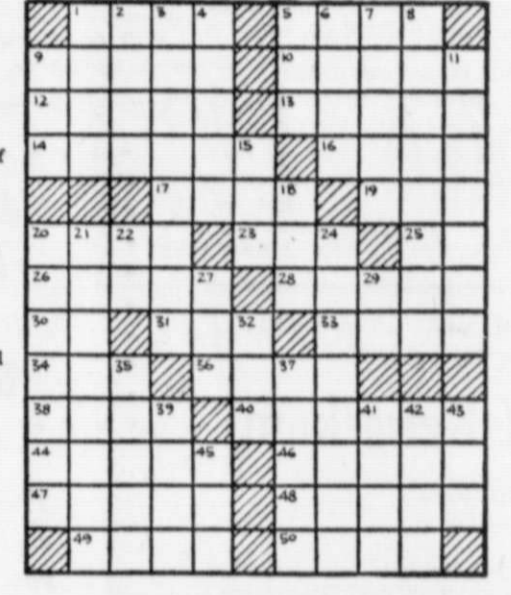

Later that evening a delegation of underground workers from other districts joined the celebration and one of them, a colonel in the Maquis, was asked to say a few words.

"Meeting Father Antoine tonight is a great pleasure," he said to the gathering, "and not only because of his war record. Although he doesn't remember my name or face, I knew him when I was a boy—as a matter of fact, I was the first person who ever confessed to him."

THE FICTION CORNER

SEE WHAT I MEAN?
By Richard H. Wilkinson

EXCEPT FOR the fact that Allen Bursley was a coward, Maybelle's happiness was complete. Being a Wesleyan, even though the once vast properties of her forefathers had shriveled to a mere 20-acre farm on the outskirts of Stockbridge, she could not abide cowards.

Worst of all, Allen Bursley didn't seem to think that being branded a coward was at all important.

"Why," he asked, "should I want to fight Steve Legge? I've nothing against him. He's done nothing to offend me."

"Why?" she stormed. "You ask me why? Isn't it enough to be told he's saying such dreadful things about you?"

"But suppose the stories aren't true? And what if they are?"

"Allen Bursley," Maybelle said tensely, "you listen to me. When you came up here and bought the Thompson place and tried to make a go of farming, everyone laughed. But you fooled 'em. You made the place pay by dint of hard work, and then you made me fall in love with you—and I was tremendously happy and wanted to get married only—"

"Only," said Allen, "every one figured you were Steve Legge's girl, and when we became engaged Steve began to threaten. And now you want to marry me, till I've licked him."

"I wouldn't marry a coward," said Maybelle scornfully.

The word spread like wildfire. Maybelle Wesleyan had broken off her engagement with Allen Bursley, because Allen had admitted being afraid of Steve Legge. Steve became more swaggering. He yearned for some excuse to bully the city man.

Allen withheld the apology that rose to his lips.

THE OPPORTUNITY came a fortnight later in front of the village postoffice. It was evening and more than half of the town's population was gathered there. Allen Bursley came out onto the porch, his attention concentrated on a letter in his hand. He did not see the outburst of Steve Legge, and fell over it, saving himself by grasping a post.

"Look where you're going, you clumsy idiot! Kicking a man in the leg."

Allen withheld the apology that rose to his lips, and said instead: "Keep your legs under you if you don't want them kicked."

"Say! Who do you think you're talking to, you shriveled-up city sissy?"

Allen hesitated, carefully folded his letter and tucked it into his pocket. "Legge," he said, "I don't want to quarrel with you—"

Steve let out a roar of contemptuous laughter. "Afraid, eh? Well, we don't abide cowards—"

"But," finished Allen quietly, "since you insist, let me advise you, you brought it on yourself."

Steve lunged and something struck him like a sledge-hammer and set him back on his heels.

He struck out blindly, accompanying his blows with foul curses, only to have the curses jammed between his teeth with the same sledge hammer.

Above him Allen Bursley heard a feminine cry from behind and turned to see Maybelle running toward him. He held out his arms, but she stopped, hand over mouth, trying to get out the cry of warning, and falling. The club, held in the hand of Steve Legge, descended crushingly on the back of Allen's head.

When Allen opened his eyes his head was pillowed in the lap of Maybelle. She was looking up at someone and talking. "Allen licked him," she was saying. "He's much stronger than he looks—"

Allen's eyes twinkled. "No, I'm not," he said unexpectedly. "It wasn't because I'm strong. It was knowledge—knowing how to handle myself, like knowing how to farm. That's the trouble with you folks up here. You don't know how to do things. See what I mean?"

"All I ask is that you teach me how to—make you a good wife forever and ever."

Old Half Dollar Commemorates Trip

The Old Spanish Trail half dollar of 1935 commemorated the 400th anniversary of the first overland trek on land that now is part of the U. S.

The expedition, heading westward through the gulf states and ending in what is now El Paso, was organized by Cabeza de Vaca, a Spaniard, in 1535 in St. Augustine, Fla.

The 10,000 halves of this special series were struck at the Philadelphia mint in September, 1935, and they were distributed at $2 each by the El Paso Museum committee, with the profit furthering the museum.

L. W. Hoeffcker, El Paso coin collector and later president of the American Numismatic association designed the coin. Edmund J. Senn prepared the models. No portrait of de Vaca is known so, as the explorer's name means "head of a cow," this device was chosen for the obverse (heads) of the coin. The words include Liberty/Alvar Nunez Cabeza de Vaca/United States of America/E Pluribus Unum/Half Dollar.

On the other side is a yucca tree in full bloom superimposed upon a map showing the expedition's route through Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana and Texas, the dates 1535-1935 and the words El Paso/Old Spanish Trail/In God We Trust.

Novelty of the design attracted wide comment at the time. Dealers charge up to $12 for the coin today.

How do you raise a revolutionist?

Why—just like you and I were brought up—because our ancestors are just about the greatest revolutionists of all time. When most of the world's people were being pushed around by all-powerful governments, Americans revolted... and won freedom from government force and tyranny.

Fourth of July is a good time to reflect on the fact that those hardwon freedoms are in danger. The old idea of all-powerful government has made a comeback. And when government gains power, its people lose precious rights and freedoms.

Even here in America, we've been giving more and more power to our federal government. You hear people say, "Let the government take over certain industries and services—the doctors, the railroads, the electric companies." And when an ambitious government takes over enough things—you have SOCIALISM, whether you want it or not. In a socialistic U. S. A. there would be NO freedoms for you—or your children.

Talk this over with your friends. It's the most alarming danger America is facing today.

Corn Borer Serious Threat to Midwest

Loss Last Year in Six States Totals Millions
Last year in six states of the corn belt the European corn borer caused a loss of some 300 million dollars. In 23 other states, damage ranged from slight to quite severe.
The corn borer appeared in this country in 1917 along the Atlantic seaboard. It has spread steadily until today it has reached states as far west as Kansas and Nebraska and the Dakotas, and south to the Tennessee-Alabama line. Not only is the pest covering more ground each year. It is, in many places working more destructively. In Iowa, for example, the borer cost each corn farmer last year an average of 750 dollars.

There is nothing to indicate that the destruction has reached a peak. In fact, unless adequate controls are adopted, the corn belt may find the worse to come.
Chemical control must from now on be considered part of the regular production of the crop.

Humans Susceptible To 80 Animal Diseases

Animal diseases are a constant threat to the health of human beings, two public health physicians declare in the Journal of the American Veterinary Medical Association.
In one report, Dr. F. S. Leeder of the Michigan department of health, said human beings are susceptible to at least 80 diseases of animals. Many of these diseases are prevalent in the United States, he reported. The danger that foreign maladies may be imported by high speed air travel is also very real, he said.
Most animal diseases to which man is susceptible are spread primarily by livestock and wild game with which human beings come into contact. Work of veterinarians in helping to stamp out or control such diseases is thus an important factor in bettering human health.
In another journal article, Dr. W. P. Deering, deputy surgeon general of the U. S. Public Health Service, points to the value of having veterinarians work closely with health departments to protect the public against such dangerous maladies as rabies.

A New Light

A new light—the electric arc—is appearing in farm shops, barns and garages from Maine to California. Farmers by the thousands are now saving themselves time and money by using arc welding to do their quick easy repairing and building of farm equipment.

Poultry Experts Advise Weeding Out Cockerels

All cockerels, except those to be kept for breeders, should be removed from the pullet flock by the time they are 12 weeks of age, poultry experts report.
If the cockerels are marketed at 12 weeks of age they will command a better price than if they are kept longer. If kept longer their meat becomes coarse and stringy. The rate of gain per pound of feed decreases with age and size of birds.

50 Degrees Best Egg Storage Temperature

The best storage temperature for hatching eggs is 50 degrees Fahrenheit, according to tests conducted by the U. S. department of agriculture.
Temperatures of 30 and 40 degrees tended to reduce hatchability. However, when the storage temperature was held at 50 degrees, the hatchability of some eggs was preserved for as long as 42 days.

Can your Fruits, Berries with this Chart (See Recipe Below)

Fruit Canning Is Easy

FRUIT CANNING yields big returns for little effort, every homemaker admits when she goes to her canning shelf to load her arms with a jar of pears for the luncheon salad, berries for pie, or peaches for dessert.

It's delightful, too, to gaze on the colorful jars of fruit and berries, with their luscious array of colors and marvel at the juicy goodness in them.

Fruit canning is simple, too, because the fruit requires only a short cooking time to prepare for the jars. This cooking before packing helps shrink the fruit to give a better pack and, at the same time, extracts some juices which may be used for packing.

Select Ripe Fruits

FOR FRUIT canning, it's wise to choose fruits which reach full maturity on vines or trees in place of getting green produce which you have to ripen on the window sill or out on the back porch. Naturally ripened fruits and berries have firmness that makes them easier to handle as well as sweetness which can be acquired in no other way.

Plan to can only the amount that you can handle efficiently for speed is required so there is no spoilage on the way to the jar. When fruit waits around after one step for another, it will be exposed to air and will lose much of its flavor and appearance.

Making A Water Bath

THE USE OF a boiling water bath canner has been widely used and recommended for processing fruits since it gives such good results. This can easily be made at home if you do not already have one.

Select a large preserving kettle, lard pail or even wash tub. The vessel should have a cover which fits during processing and thus prevent the water from boiling away. Even so, it's a good idea to have a kettle of water bubbling on the range to replace whatever does boil away and escape in steam, as the jars must be well covered during the whole processing time.

Whatever vessel is used for a canner such as described above

LYNN SAYS:

Use These Tips For Fruit Canning

To help decide how many jars you'll need, use these figures as a guide. Two to two and one-half pounds of the following will give one quart canned produce: apples, apricots, peaches and pears.

Heavy syrups give the most luscious packs in canned fruits. Use three or four cups of sugar to a quart of water. Bring to a boil and cook just until sugar is completely dissolved.

One and one-half to two pounds of plums are required for a quart canner. Large plums can be plunged in boiling water, then in cold to slip off skins easily.

You'll need about one and one-half pounds of cherries for a quart of the canned fruit. Prick the cherries with a fork while heating to prevent skin from bursting.

One and one-half to two quarts of berries are needed to yield a quart of the canned product. Be certain to remove all under and over-ripe berries from those you plan to can for best results.

Lynn Chambers' Menu

- Barbecued Chicken

- Boston Cream Pie

should also have a rack that keeps the jars off the bottom of the canner about one-half an inch. If you cannot buy a rack to fit, use jar lids, fitting these all around the bottom.

Use This Routine for Canning

THE SAME ROUTINE applies to all fruits, berries and tomatoes, the latter being included in this class rather than with vegetables since tomatoes are a acid like fruits instead of non-acid, as are vegetables.

Get together pint and quart jars as needed, and see that they have no imperfections such as cracks or chips off them. Check, also, to see that you have enough suitable covers as well as jar rings, if you are using the cap and rubber closure.

Fill the canner almost full of water—the jars will take up some room, so it does not have to be completely filled, and turn on the fire so the water can start to come to a boil as you work on the fruit. Prepare the fruit with a thorough washing. Bacteria lodge in soil, and you want to get rid of this so that none will rub into the fruit as you pare or cut it.

Use the chart for preparing the fruit for jars. If you want excellent results, you'll grade the fruit for size and ripeness as much as possible when packing jars.

Fill one jar at a time to within ¼ inch of the top with both fruit and syrup (or fruit juice or water, as desired). Run a spatula down the inside of the jar to remove air bubbles. Wipe top clean and put on the jar, as directed by the manufacturer.

Process and Cool Jars

AS EACH JAR is filled it should be placed into the canner, without touching or giving them a chance to bump against each other. When the canner is full, check to see there is enough water to cover jars thoroughly.

When water comes to a boil, start counting processing time. When time is up, lift the jars out on a folded cloth or several thicknesses of newspaper. Tighten those covers which need it, according to the type which you use.

Fruit or berries which you plan to use for pie or as juice for jelly can be canned without sugar. You'll add this when the fruit or juice is used.

The riper the fruit or berry, the less it will need in the way of sweetening. However, allow at least some syrup for sweetening the fruit as you'll need liquid for filling the jars.

Pick plums for canning just as they begin to ripen. If too ripe, they will be mushy. If too green, they lack flavor.

It takes three to three and one-half pounds of rhubarb to make a quart of the canned fruit.

Overripe fruits and berries may be simmered with some water, then strained, and used as part of the water in the sugar syrup for canning.

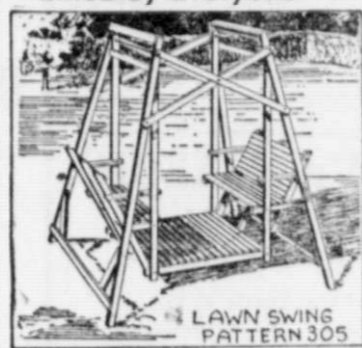

Thinner syrups may be used for berries and small fruits. In this case use one to two cups of sugar for a quart of water.

Some people feel that salt emphasizes sweetness. In this case add one-fourth teaspoon salt to each quart of syrup.

Don't Be Satisfied With Only Temporary Relief—Now It Is Possible To TREAT THE CAUSE OF ALL YOUR SICKNESSES

DUE TO DEFICIENCIES OF VITAMINS B<sub>1</sub>, B<sub>2</sub>, NIACIN AND IRON

Mr. John McClenon, P. O. Box 8191, Los Angeles, California. "My age is 44. My trouble is stomach distress. Can't eat and when I do, it makes me sick. But HADACOL has done me more good than anything I have tried. My mother lives in Mobile, Alabama, and sent it to me. I don't think there's anything better than HADACOL, and if there is you can have it." (A very thoughtful mother to send her son HADACOL. Why don't you send a bottle to a relative with this trouble?)

Mrs. Ophelia Jefferson of Gulfport, Mississippi. "I'd been suffering from neuritis pains and aches and was advised to have my teeth extracted, but received no relief. I'm now on my seventh bottle of HADACOL and it's given me entire relief from the aches and pains. I'm able now to do a full day's work. The makers of such a marvelous remedy should certainly be praised."

Mrs. Virgie Finley, Route No. 1, Monterey, Tennessee. "I was weak and run-down so that I could hardly sleep, and was so nervous I could hardly do my housework. My stomach had so much gas on it that everything I ate seemed to hurt me. I have tried all kinds of medicine and nothing seemed to help me. I started taking HADACOL a few weeks ago and believe me it surely has helped me. Now I can eat anything and am sleeping well at night. I cannot praise HADACOL enough and I have taken only 4 bottles." (Mrs. Finley is a wise woman. She knows continued use of HADACOL prevents such distress from returning.)

Mrs. George F. Tuff of Poplar Bluff, Missouri. "I am 57 years old and I have started on the third bottle of HADACOL. I never have taken a medicine that helped me like HADACOL. I don't have neuritis aches or pains since I took the first bottle. I was in pain in my back and arms till I couldn't work. Now I feel good and go all the time to work." (HADACOL gives such wonderful results because it treats the cause of such deficiencies.)

Mr. Harry W. Smith, 10 North Water Street, Harrisburg, Illinois. "I am 41 years old, and I work at a brick mine. I have been bothered with aches and pains of neuritis and feel sleepy all the time, but my wife heard your broadcast on the radio about HADACOL. So I bought a trial size and it has helped me so wonderfully that I buy the large family size now. I can't begin to describe how I would feel if I couldn't buy it at all. I want everybody who feels bad to know about it."

Alex J. Anderson, Route No. 1, Coryville, Florida. "I am ten years old. I've always been puny. I never have eaten or played like my brothers. I've been taking HADACOL for a while, now feel better, play more and like to go to school. HADACOL is really a good medicine." (Just leave it to the youngsters to find out what's good for them!)

Mr. Robert C. Stuart, Barter Inn, Abingdon, Virginia. "I am working in the capacity of Health Inspector for the State of Virginia and I have tried various medicines spending many hundreds of dollars for treatment and I did not find any relief in anything or any treatment until I tried your remarkable HADACOL, which I praise with the highest regard. Now I eat three large meals a day without any pains or discomfort. I have gained the 15th of December—never felt better in all my life. I am now taking an active part in civic and extra-curricular activities which I had to ignore since last December. I have worked zealously. Thanks to your remarkable HADACOL."

Mrs. John R. Crisler, Jr., 4903 B. Chaperal, Dallas, Texas. "I'm writing you to let you know just what HADACOL has done for me. I was feeling bad—nervous, had headaches, lost my appetite—no matter what I ate I would get it. My baby is only 2 1/2 months old and it sure has helped me. I've taken only one bottle and it has done wonders. My husband is taking it now too, and he surely feels better, and not so tired after a day's work. I recommend HADACOL to everyone who needs a tonic, and it surely will make you feel better. I hope this will help someone to feel better by reading or hearing this information."

Mrs. Helen Barron of Nonesville, Georgia. "My little boy had been sick for quite some time. Until I heard about HADACOL over the radio, he was weak, run-down, and apt to catch anything—he couldn't run and play like other boys did, and he wouldn't eat anything. So I can't praise HADACOL enough. He has taken 4 bottles and eats anything, and sleeps good, isn't tired when he gets up, runs and plays as much as anyone, has gained weight, and feels good. I have taken some myself. He is 11 years old now. I can't tell enough about what HADACOL has done for my son. He even looks better. I want all my friends to try HADACOL."

Mrs. Tom Kennedy, 1302 Rector Street, Hot Springs, Arkansas. "My trouble was terrible pains right after I ate my meals. I have tried pills but they didn't do any good, so I thought I would try HADACOL. After the first bottle of HADACOL, I got relief, so I wouldn't be without HADACOL. I have already told all my neighbors about HADACOL, how good it is. They are also taking it. I am 49 years old and I sure do feel a lot better, thanks to HADACOL." (What a wise woman Mrs. Kennedy is. She realizes continued use of HADACOL helps prevent such stomach misery from returning.)

Mr. Clifton Crane, 511 West Commerce Street, Greenville, Alabama. "I am taking my third bottle of HADACOL and it has done more for me than any other medicine. I was awfully weak and nervous and run-down. I would have weak nervous spells and I had no appetite for food. So I heard different people praising HADACOL over the radio. My wife wanted me to give it a trial and I sure am glad I did. My back would hurt me so with neuritis pains till I couldn't sleep at night but that is all in the past. My backache is gone now and I am feeling good so I am going to continue taking HADACOL. I am 35 years old, employed by Greenville Ice and Coal Co., Greenville, Ala. I hope everybody that needs medicine will try HADACOL. I just can't praise it enough as it seems to be just the medicine I needed."

Mr. Aldous Kramer of Marver, Louisiana. "I want you to know how wonderful HADACOL helped me. I suffered so from neuritis pains and aches I hurt so, and I couldn't hardly use my right hand. I even had my teeth out but got no help. I started to get HADACOL. Now I sing while I plow my fields. I'm so happy. I'll never be without HADACOL. I take it every day." (That's the spirit—let's not be great to have that wonderful HADACOL feeling? Why don't you try it?)

Mr. John Krumpalman, 127 Warren St., Lexington, Kentucky. "Four months ago I was suffering from lack of energy, no get up and go at all. I also had a lack of appetite and great irritability. Then my friends recommended HADACOL, and in a very short time my appetite began to go back to normal and it seemed as though a miracle had happened because everything was once again very bright."

Bessie Starks of 303 Milford Street, Hanes Path, South Carolina. "I just had to write you a few words to try to tell you how much HADACOL has helped me. I had an operation in February. Then I started washing too soon, took neuritis in my hands and arms and after that couldn't do anything. I heard about HADACOL, decided to try it and I'm sure glad I did. My indignation was so bad I couldn't eat anything I liked but now I can eat what I want. My hands don't hurt of my hips as they did before I started using HADACOL. Please keep hollering it out so others will hear about it."

Senator Dudley J. LeBlanc, Great Statesman and Fighter for Rights of the People.
