Lakes, Rivers Teams Both Win in Opener

Kewaskum's Land of Lakes and Rivers teams both won their opening tilts of the season here Sunday night. In the Lakes, the Chevrolts had little trouble defeating the Rosendale Merchants, 74-58, and in the Rivers preliminary the Honecks tripped Grafton, 49-40, with a late surge.

The Lakes five started to click from the start and immediately built up a lead. About 22-12, at the quarter they held a 14 to 10 point advantage most of the way. At halftime the score stood at 38-25. Substitutes saw much action after the initial period.

In his usual accurate shooting form, John Tassar, last year's Lakes scoring champion, opened the campaign with 25 points, high honors for the evening. The opposing center, Pinch, was quickly laid to stop and he was right back and John with 22 points. A rugged type of player, he was hard to stop. Wayland Tassar and Augie Bilgo dominated 28 points to the Lakes with 14 apiece Bilgo and Allen Tassar were best at rebounding.

The Rivers eagers and Grafton battled on even terms for three quarters before the Honecks hit a streak in the final stanza to pull ahead and win going away. The halftime count was 28-26 Grafton. "Cocky" Keller with 9, and Falk and McElhatton with 8 apiece led the winners' scoring. R. Erdmann and Maronde netted 9 each for the losers.

The lineups and points scored, included: Kewaskum—Schleif, 2; Falk, 8; McElhatton, 8; Wiernan, 6; Perkins, 6; Kompf, 6; Smith, 6; Dreher, 2; Keller, 9; Wink, 4; Grafton—Nimity, 5; Harris, 6; J. Haupt, 1; Gooden, 2; Gusewker, 7; Erdmann, 9; Maronde, 9; Sudbrink, 7.

The next games will be played Saturday night, Dec. 9, when both teams travel to Hartford. Next Wednesday night the Lakes quint plays at Horicon. The next home game for the Clavs is on Dec. 17 against Beaver Dam.

Herman Wilke Dies Suddenly Thursday

Herman F. Wilke, 70, of this village, a retired farmer of the town of Scott, Sheboygan county, died suddenly of a heart attack at his home on East Washington street early Thursday morning, Dec. 7. He had not been ill.

A prominent farmer in the town of Scott many years, Mr. Wilke was born June 25, 1880 in the town of Kewaskum. He married Emma Jandre on Aug. 1, 1903 in St. John's Lutheran church at New Fane. The couple came to their present home in the village seven years ago.

Surviving along with the widow are one daughter, Leta (Mrs. Raymond Klug) of the town of Scott, one son-in-law, three grandchildren, Floyd, Eugene and Glen Klug, and a brother, Emil Wilke of the town of Scott.

The body is in state at Miller's Funeral home since 7 p. m. Friday and will be in state at the St. Lucas Ev. Lutheran church from 12:30 to 2 p. m. Sunday, when services will be held. The Rev. Gerhard Kaness will preside and burial will take place in St. Lucas Memorial park.

MICHAEL SCHLADWEILER Michael J. Schladweiler, 65, retired farmer of the town of Auburn, residing near Maute lake, died Friday, Dec. 1, at St. Agnes hospital, Fond du Lac, of heart trouble. His death came unexpectedly.

Born Dec. 15, 1882 in the town of Auburn, Mr. Schladweiler spent most of his life in that township. He married Anna Katherine Schlitz on Nov. 4, 1925, in St. Mathias church, town of Auburn, and she survives.

Surviving further are three sisters, Sr. Anastasia, O.S.C. of Dubuque, Ia., Christine (Mrs. John Felch) of the town of Kewaskum, and Miss Eva Schladweiler of Milwaukee. He also leaves many relatives and friends.

Mr. Schladweiler was a member of the West Bend Knights of Columbus Council No. 1944.

Funeral services were held at 9:30 a. m. Monday from Miller's Funeral home and at 10 o'clock in St. Mathias church where a solemn requiem high mass was celebrated with the Rt. Rev. Msgr. J. Lederer as celebrant. Rev. Robert Brodfehrer as deacon and Rev. J. Bertram, sub-deacon. Interment was in the parish cemetery.

CARD OF THANKS My recent sad loss, the death of my dear husband, Michael Schladweiler, leaves me with a grateful heart toward neighbors and friends. Their kindness and comforting expressions of sympathy and thoughtfulness will always be remembered. I am very thankful to Rt. Rev. Msgr. Lederer, Rev. Brodfehrer and Rev. Bertram, the organist, choir, pallbearers, for the many spiritual bouquets, to the drivers, and all who assisted in any way and showed respect.

Mrs. Michael J. Schladweiler

Judge Fines Self Justice of the Peace Lyle W. Bartlett appeared before himself in open court on Dec. 6, in response to a parking ticket he received from Chief of Police Edmund Haack for illegal parking before the Kewaskum Theatre entrance on the evening of Dec. 5, in violation of the village of Kewaskum parking ordinances and imposed the usual fine of $1.00 and costs upon himself, which was duly paid.

The court ruled that consistent with its former policies there were to be no dismissals under the ordinance, without just cause shown, and that the ordinance was to be enforced impartially.

NORTH FONDY ADMITTED TO TRI-COUNTY FOOTBALL LOOP North Fond du Lac High school was re-admitted to the Fox River Valley Tri-County six-man football conference after an absence of several years.

Principals and coaches met at Fond du Lac last Wednesday night to vote on the Orioles and to talk about sites for the district basketball tournament. Admission of North Fondy increases the circuit to seven teams. Coaches drew up a tentative football schedule for next fall after voting down eight-man play.

AL ROETS RESIGNS AS COUNTY UNDERSHERIFF Al Roets of Kewaskum, Washington county undersheriff, recently resigned from the position effective at the end of the current year. Replacing him will be Alvin Schmidt, R. L. West Bend. Schmidt has been a sheriff's deputy for a period of 12 years.

RUBBISH DISPOSAL NOTICE In the future rubbish and ashes will be picked up in the village every other week instead of weekly as it was during the fall season. The next collection will be on Wednesday, Dec. 20. The rubbish should be placed out in the morning. Garbage will be collected always, on Mondays and Fridays.

Highs Nip Oakfield, Wallop Random Lake

In the opening Fox River Valley Tri-County conference game Friday night at Oakfield, the Kewaskum Indians snatched the Oaks in an overtime contest, 52-51. In a non-conference tilt on the home floor Tuesday evening the Highs were winners again, walloping Random Lake of the Kettle Moraine loop, 55-59. The Indians set a high school scoring record for the local gym in drubbing the supposedly strong Lakers.

Kewaskum's overtime win over Oakfield was a real thriller. Center Rommie Schmitt dropped in a free throw in the extra session for the win. Hubert Justman scored 19 times for the winners but he was second to Gordy Kaufman of the Oaks for scoring honors. Kaufman, who paced the conference last season in scoring, hit the nets for 28 points.

The Indians had their shooting eyes Tuesday and Random Lake was unable to match their accuracy. This time the Lakers were up against the Kewaskum first team. This fall the Indians second or B football team played the Random Lake first team in two tilts. At Random Lake no mention was made that Kewaskum used their second team and the game was publicized as though the Lakers beat the best A team. This was not possible because the A squad was playing in its own Tri-County league the same week ends and was one of the stronger teams in that loop. Surely Random Lake would have been no match for Kewaskum's A team because the B team played them fairly even.

Justman again led the Indians with 28 points Tuesday night, while Cuano-hoski pumped in 11. Buiras was tops for the visitors with 19. The Indians were way ahead throughout the tussle, the score at halftime being 42-25.

Plan Evening School for Farmers at High School

The agricultural department of Kewaskum High school is planning to sponsor an evening school for farmers, according to an announcement Thursday by D. W. Scheid, instructor in agriculture there.

In previous years Scheid has conducted a similar program in another school which has proved to be successful with several hundred rural residents attending a series of meetings.

The subject this year will be on dairy cattle feeding and management along with the production of clean milk.

Among the things planned to be covered will be the new quality milk regulation, the proposed new Bangs program, grain mixtures for dairy calves and cows, and diseases of cattle. Movies will be used at the meetings.

There will be ten meetings lasting from 8:00 to 10:00 p. m. on Thursday evenings in the high school agricultural room at Kewaskum. There is no charge for these meetings.

Scheid asked that all farmers who are interested contact him at the high school agricultural department by phone or mail. Persons who so contact him will be informed of the first meeting by mail.

The town of Erin in Washington county, composed almost entirely of Irish people, in 1854 voted solidly Democratic. But in 1860 one voter cast his ballot for Abraham Lincoln, the Republican candidate for president. It is said that this happened because this voter landed in New York dangerously ill and was nursed back to life by one of his fellow country-men who made him promise to vote Republican when he should reach his new home in the West.

Entirely New Holiday Treat for Youngsters, Who Will All Receive a Gift From Santa

You've undoubtedly observed the phenomenon that takes place when a small child sees a fire engine flash past. Eyes wide with wonder, mouth drops open, and he stands transfixed as the great red engines roar by with sirens wide open. Just seeing one makes the breath come quicker. A beautiful dream would be to ride in one, just like the men in the helmets and slickers. For the children of Kewaskum, this exciting dream will come true this Christmas when the fire fighters of the village step into the role of Santa Claus and give the youngsters the treat of their lives with a ride in the big red engines.

Santa Claus is coming to Kewaskum on Saturday, Dec. 16, the week before Christmas. He will arrive in the afternoon at about 1:30 p. m. at the new municipal building. Santa will be called for in our new fire engine and brought into the town to greet the kiddies and grownups alike. He will be stationed in the fire station where he will pass out free gifts to all kiddies. The gifts will be donated by the Kiwanis Club of Kewaskum in cooperation with the local businessmen in this community project which is completely new and different from any previous visit the jolly old fellow has paid to the village. In fact, no cities or villages in this section have ever sponsored a children's fire engine ride on Santa Claus day.

After the gifts are distributed to the small fry of this vicinity, all the kids present who are 12 years and under will be given a free ride in two of the three local fire trucks by members of the department, complete with siren and changing bells. Yes, Santa's visit this year will be excitingly new and different and something for all children to look forward to. During the afternoon Christmas carols and songs will be heard over the village through a loud speaking system.

All youngsters are invited to come to Kewaskum and be firemen for a short time as the fire engines transport them slowly around our town amid squeals and yells, imagine-riding in a fire engine and seeing Santa all at once.

BILL OF RIGHTS
Americans Are Protected From Censorship by Bill of Rights

This is the second of a series of three articles on the Bill of Rights and Bill of Rights Day which will be celebrated December 15.

Censorship is something that Americans simply don't believe in. It is a word synonymous with dictatorships, calling to mind Hitler's infamous book burning of yesterday and the Soviet iron curtain of today.

Star Dust
STAGE-SCREEN-RADIO
By INEZ GERHARD

MARTA TOREN, dark-haired and blue-eyed, was discovered at the Royal Dramatic Academy in Stockholm, where Greta Garbo and Ingrid Bergman also studied. Universal-International signed her as soon as they saw a test sent to this country, and has had her under contract for two years; her current picture is "Deported." She was just finishing a cross-country tour for it when she was summoned back to Hollywood. U-I had lent her out for "Sirocco," in which she will appear opposite Humphrey Bogart. Miss Toren will be seen as a dancer in a Damascus cafe—easy for her; she began studying ballet when she was four.

Robert Ryan will have the leading role in "Clash by Night," when RKO films the play. Talullah Bankhead starred in it, and Ryan had a small part; his performance got him his present long-term contract at RKO.

Smith and Dale, for many years a top vaudeville act, have been signed for important roles in "Two Tickets to Broadway." They were the nucleus of the famous Avon Comedy Four; it took television to revive their popularity.

Tol Avery, on the other hand, can thank radio for his debut in motion pictures, in "Where Danger Lives." Director John Farrow heard his voice on the air, and signed him to support Faith Domergue and Claude Rains.

ODDS AND ENDS . . . Anne Seymour, who was so good as Brod Crawford's wife in Columbia's "All the King's Men," has been signed for a key supporting role in "The Whistle at Eaton Falls." . . . John Payne has signed to star in six more Pine-Thomas films; he last worked for them in "Tripoli" . . . Don "Little Brown Jug" Reynolds, expert boy rider and actor who has appeared in several Gene Autry westerns, will have a featured role in "Snake River Desperados."

BROADWAY AND MAIN STREET
TV Busts Up Marriage of Young Trombonist, Harpist

By BILLY ROSE

A couple of years ago one of the staff musicians at NBC—a trombonist I'm going to call Charlie Michaels—decided he was finally in a position to realize his two big ambitions: one, to marry the swing harpist he had been keeping company with, and two, to buy a house and a piece of land in New Jersey.

For the first year everything was peaches and grade-A for the Time Square toms—there was a garden to putter around in, house to do over, and neighbors to get acquainted with. Charlie got quite a kick out of telling the suburbanites what an artist his wife had been, and showing them a studio picture of her seated at a harp with a big Spanish comb in her hair.

But last January, when TV started using a lot of live music, their marriage ran into its first snag. Charlie, who had been doing an afternoon stint on radio, was shifted to one of the TV motor car programs, and a few weeks later was assigned to two other video spots. These involved a certain amount of late rehearsals, which meant that several nights a week, instead of catching the 5-15, the trombone player didn't arrive home until after midnight—that is, when he managed to get home at all.

HIS CITY-BRED spouse, of course, didn't take kindly to this new routine—the country without a fella around the house wasn't much pression and inquiry set forth in our Bill of Rights, yet it does exist in the United States.

Censorship is one of the most hated words in America. In modern days it calls to mind Hitler's infamous book burning (above) of yesterday and the Soviet iron curtain of today.

These thoughts were expressed by Patrick Murphy Malin, executive director of the American Civil Liberties Union, in a statement issued on Bill of Rights Day, December 15. This day marks the 150th anniversary of the adoption of the Bill of Rights.

"We have censorship of plays, books and magazines by public and private agencies. Of course, obscenity must be guarded against, but these groups go much further. They seek to suppress expression of political ideas or views. Our children learn that the right to inquire is rooted in the Declaration of Independence, yet the New York Board of Education bans their reading of 'The Nation' magazine because of an article criticizing the Catholic church. 'Banned in Boston' is a familiar phrase. Certain books and plays have been banned here because their contents have been considered offensive by certain authorities. Not so familiar is the startling fact that in 90 American cities, political appointees, following the criteria of personal opinion, tell their neighbors what movies they can or cannot see."

LITTLE BROTHER to censorship is blacklisting, denying employment to people because of their political views. This was recently brought into vogue by Red Channels, a booklet listing radio performers suspected by the publishers of Communist sympathies. Despite the publishers' denial that Red Channels was intended as a factual bible, one major television sponsor suspended a player for being among the red-listed. Contrary to the American spirit of fair play, she had no hearing or a chance to defend herself.

We have an able set of laws to prosecute abusers of free speech. Mr. Malin said, which really curb subversive acts. Industry self-checks such as the movie's National Board of Review maintain high moral standards in the communications field. "Setting up arbitrary judges to suppress ideas before they are expressed is the way of dictators. Censorship is contrary to the nature of democracy, where free people can be trusted to select the wheat from the chaff for themselves."

BROADWAY AND MAIN STREET
TV Busts Up Marriage of Young Trombonist, Harpist

By BILLY ROSE

A couple of years ago one of the staff musicians at NBC—a trombonist I'm going to call Charlie Michaels—decided he was finally in a position to realize his two big ambitions: one, to marry the swing harpist he had been keeping company with, and two, to buy a house and a piece of land in New Jersey.

For the first year everything was peaches and grade-A for the Time Square toms—there was a garden to putter around in, house to do over, and neighbors to get acquainted with. Charlie got quite a kick out of telling the suburbanites what an artist his wife had been, and showing them a studio picture of her seated at a harp with a big Spanish comb in her hair.

But last January, when TV started using a lot of live music, their marriage ran into its first snag. Charlie, who had been doing an afternoon stint on radio, was shifted to one of the TV motor car programs, and a few weeks later was assigned to two other video spots. These involved a certain amount of late rehearsals, which meant that several nights a week, instead of catching the 5-15, the trombone player didn't arrive home until after midnight—that is, when he managed to get home at all.

HIS CITY-BRED spouse, of course, didn't take kindly to this new routine—the country without a fella around the house wasn't much

THE FICTION CORNER
THE GOOD OLD DAYS
By Ono Freeman Lathrop

THE OLD FELLOWS sat on the concrete wall that bordered the court-house lawn. The sun broiled down warm and golden, but the autumn air was cool. The one in the clean striped shirt and blue serge hitched his suspenders higher.

"Times ain't what they used to be when I was young," he asserted to the man next him. "Prices 'way out of sight, all sorts of machinery to do the farm work, young folks kitin' around in cars—why, when I was a young buck you took your best girl for a buggy ride behind a pair of fast bays, or you went to Funk's Grove or the Mackinaw for a day's picnic and it didn't cost you a cent. Nowadays my grandson wouldn't start out on a date without five or ten dollars in his pocket!" He looked up the street.

"Yes," the other one agreed, tilting his straw sailor back and tucking his blue shirt into his shiny grey striped trousers. "Things move too fast for me. We don't get through one war till we're starting another one, and them politicians down in Washington are ruinin' the country to the dogs. Now when McKinley was in—"

A girl switched by in white shorts and a striped jersey. His sentence hung in mid-air, forgotten. The endless procession of cars whizzed around the square, their tires sizzling on the hot asphalt. The city buses lined up in front of the drug store. They shook their heads sadly. The first one kept peering out Washington street toward the depot. "Yeah, this is a crazy age! You see new shoes springing up over night out in the new additions. Look life freight cars sprawled all over the lots—no upstairs, no cellars! Fancy gadgets in the kitchens. Give me the old days and not such a fast pace!"

Their conversation was forgotten for a moment as a girl in white shorts and a striped jersey walked past. Times sure had changed.

The other one queried, "What's your name and where do you hail from?"

"Well now, that's a long story." He shifted to the other hip as if to tell it, then grinned. "But nobody's interested in it nowadays, so I never tell it. I'm Clem Mason. Lived here all my life, and hope to die here. I've watched this town grow from a cross-roads, and hardly been across the state line. And you?"

THE OTHER FELLOW'S eyes narrowed as if he were seeing faraway places. "Name's Jed Whitcomb. Traveled a bit in my day. Went to Chicago once. Lived out in the country till my wife died last year. I like the town, but nothin' seems as good as it used to be. Too much bustle and rush."

There was a long silence while they watched a cab maneuver in and out of traffic. A woman driver and the usual delivery trucks were double-parking and gumming up the works. Horns blasted and women scurried across the crossing.

"Yep," Clem answered, his eyes still squinting up the street watching for something, "give me the good old days. A fellow could saunter down to the harness shop or the livery stable to chin a bit and not be in danger of his life. Nowadays I just sit here and don't try to navigate very far. Hate to even ride around with my grandson in the car. Too dang dangerous!" He eyed the corner anxiously.

"You're right," Jed answered. "Nothin' much to do, either. No more chatauous or medicine shows. No camp-meetin's."

A swank blue convertible drew up to the curb. A sporty young fellow leaned out and called to Clem. "Hi, Gramps. I've been out to the airport and the station. I got your plane reservations and your pullman tickets. Everything is all set."

Clem got up hastily. He looked at Jed apologetically. "My son in Washington, D. C. has sent for me to come down and see the sights. He's paying all my expenses or I'd never go. Can we drop you off any place?"

Jed rose too. "Nope. I've got my scooter-bike parked around the corner and I'll just put-put back to my daughter's. There's a good television program comes on pretty soon that I never miss."

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS

Vishinsky Names Only Conditions On Which Russia Will Make Peace; Weather Hampers Allies in Korea

EDITOR'S NOTE: When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of Western Newspaper Union's news analysts and not necessarily of this newspaper.

Asia is the danger spot of the world today, most observers believe. The above map shows point of Communist aggression and countries being aided by the United States. China Reds now dominate Tibet, and observers theorized Nepal may be next.

UNITED NATIONS: Formula for Peace

Russia's Andrie Y. Vishinsky in a slashing, abusing speech in the United Nations general assembly outlined a series of conditions which he said must be accepted before there could be world peace.

The main condition of Vishinsky's speech was the demand that the Chinese Communists be allowed a seat in the United Nations. Russia has long battled for admission of China in the U.N., but the tone of Vishinsky's speech was much stronger than it had been on other occasions.

The main points of Vishinsky's demands: 1. A pledge not to try to get around the veto. 2. Unconditional prohibition of the atomic bomb.

These were the demands reportedly given to Secretary-General Trygve Lie when he visited Prime Minister Stalin during his trip to Moscow in May. Lie's refusal to accept them is believed the reason the Russians opposed his re-election as secretary-general.

Many observers saw a threat in a part of Vishinsky's speech. He said if these demands were ignored it would be idle to think of peace being achieved through the U. N.

Snow and ice made operations slow and dangerous. Supply routes far to the rear were blocked making it necessary to depend on air drops.

Military leaders reported approximately 100,000 Chinese and Korean Communists were established in a 60-mile line below the great hydro-electric plants on the Yalu river border between Korea and Manchuria. An all-out battle in the area was expected.

The advance has been carried out behind devastating air attacks by the U. S. air force.

American officers said the advance was progressing "well," but just how fast they go depends a great deal upon the weather. In many of the mountain passes wind had piled snow 10 to 12 feet deep.

Meanwhile, the Russians are making new threats concerning the Korean conflict. Among other things, they charge that Japanese soldiers are now being used in Korea.

According to the Soviet, a Chinese-Russian treaty calls for their intervention whenever Japanese troops are used against the Chinese.

Some sources believed this could be another step in the Russian plan for justification of her throwing men and planes into the conflict. Others believe, however, that Russia would not take such a step.

WHOLESALE PRICES Wholesale Index at All-Time High

The bureau of labor statistics reported wholesale prices hit an all-time high during the second week of November. The new index was an advance of .6 of a per cent in one week and was 8.7 per cent above the June 20 level, before the Korean fighting.

NPA Chief

William H. Harrison, standing, national production administrator, ordered a 35 per cent reduction in civilian aluminum supplies and warned that the action will result in some unemployment and higher prices for aluminum products next year. The order is effective January 1, 1951.

DEFENSE: Nerve Center Moved

The air force announced that headquarters for the nation's defense against air attack will be moved from New York to Colorado Springs, Colo. The move takes the nerve center of air defense of the U. S., 1,650 miles from the Atlantic ocean, deep into the interior for safety reasons.

The move emphasized the fact that the oceans surrounding the country are no longer a barrier against attack. The swing to the west also lent emphasis to the strategic concept that if present tensions with Russia should erupt into World War III, the gravest danger of aerial blows against the United States would focus on the northwest "gateway."

Observers pointed out that guided missiles, conceivably with atomic warheads, could be fired from submarines lying a few miles off the present headquarters at Mitchell Field, N. Y., thus destroying the defense center with one blow.

The center now controls both the east and west air defense forces. Some 800 military and civilian personnel will be assigned to the new center. Lt. Gen. Ennis C. Whitehead will be in command.

EUROPE: Prewar Production

Western Europe, with American aid, increased exports and industrial output above prewar levels, the economic co-operation administration announced.

The report was an encouraging trend in the west's battle against communism. The gains must be increased, however, to support the load of arming for defense against communism.

The E.C.A. said: "The urgency to rearm has emphasized the importance of continuing its progress toward the economic goals of the recovery program. The required expansion in military production cannot be achieved unless Europe's economic base is further strengthened."

Other highs established were: Butter, 83.8 cents a pound, the level during February, 1949; cottonseed oil, 23.8 cents a pound, for the first time since January, 1948; rosin at $8.30 per 100 pounds, for the first time since February, 1948.

At the same time the bureau announced that retail food prices had declined approximately 4 of a per cent during the preceding two weeks, to a level 1.6 per cent above that of June 15, 1950. Lard and hides were the highest since November, 1947. Further price increases can be expected, most observers believe.

TRUMAN: Champions Fair Deal

President Truman held a press conference and declared—in the face of G.O.P. claims that the November election had killed his fair deal—that he would continue to press for adoption of his whole program as long as he was president.

If the Republican party thought their victory had taken any of the starch out of the President they were disappointed. He said he would present his full program to the 82nd congress when it convened in January.

To the surprise of everyone present at the press conference he did not seem disturbed by Republican gains in congress. He brushed off presidential year. He added that practically all the Republican victories could be traced to local situations. Most observers were inclined to agree with him in that respect.

Secretary of State Dean Acheson is going to keep his job—period. General Douglas MacArthur reports that American troops in Korea have plenty of clothing.

Surveys are still going on to determine whether price and wage controls are necessary. They'll be imposed as soon as there is need for them, but he doesn't think the time has come.

He could be convinced this country should send an ambassador to France, Spain, but he hasn't been convinced so.

He doesn't agree with Taft's recent statement that higher taxes could lead to inflation.

There will be further conversations on the proposed Japanese peace treaty within a few weeks.

PROFITS LEVY Bottle Shapes Up

From all indications a severe battle is shaping up over President Truman's proposed $4 billion excess profits tax. The tax bill in all probability will be presented to the "lame duck" session of congress but the President has no assurance that it will get approval, especially in the senate.

If the proposal fails in the "lame duck" session and is presented in the 82nd congress, observers believe Republican strength will show itself for the first time and a great many changes will be written into the bill.

As of the moment, the U. S. chamber of commerce branded the tax "un-American" and urged congress to cut Federal nondefense spending by at least $6 billion instead of approving the levy.

A Republican substitute for the bill was vetoed in the house ways and means committee. Democrats on the committee criticized the GOP proposal as one that would hit small business and favor corporations with income swollen by the defense program.

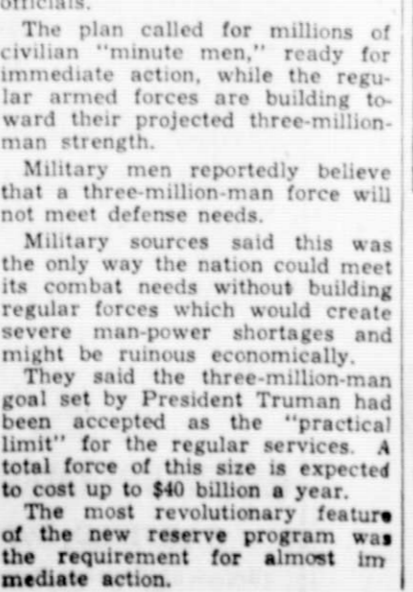

The President's plan calls for a tax of 75 per cent on excess profits of corporations, with the four-year period 1946-49 used as a yardstick to determine what profits are abnormal.

A barrage of other protests against the levy was received by the house ways and means committee.

All this would indicate that no action will be taken on the bill this year although it will be ready for consideration. What the new congress will do about the proposed tax is anybody's guess.

The battle will be bitter and may have a great influence on the 1952 presidential election.

Atomic Dogtag

Corp. Doris J. Aggar is shown with the army's new self-developing photographic dosimeter, a device which measures the extent of exposure of individuals to atomic radiation. The "atomic dogtag" is simple, inexpensive to produce and is worn about the neck. Readings can be obtained in about one minute after exposure to radioactive rays.

YEAR'S GOOFSPOTS Safety Council Reports Humans Still Have Silliest Accidents

Director of Public Information National Safety Council. So you think flying saucers are fantastic? Then just take a look at what the National Safety Council has dug up this year in its annual search for odd accidents!

Monkeys that drive cars into people... boats that crash into autos on dry land... collar buttons that send collars buttoners to the hospital... fish that are run over by autos while swimming... fallen angels that bust their bones.

Still think flying saucers rate the No. 1 goofspot? Read on! You may have suspected that some accidents are caused by monkey business. But it remained for Alice, a trained chimpanzee, to clinch it. Riding her motor scooter before an enthusiastic crowd at the St. Louis zoo, Alice became so giddy with applause that she zipped off the stage in a showy exit, ran down Trainer William Rogers and banged him up, but good.

It is relatively seldom that boats and automobiles run into each other. But it happened at Maysville, Ind., when an uninhabited motor boat leaped out of the White River and crashed into a car parked 20 feet in on dry land. Result: one dented hull, one dented fender and one red face—the latter on Mr. Emmett Holsapple, who explained that he had neglected to close the throttle as his boat neared shore.

If autos can be struck by boats on land, why can't fish be run over by autos while swimming? They can—and severe finger bruises inflicted by the collar button. He switched to sport shirts.

Gary Wilmer, Jr., of Atlanta, Ga., hopes for the best in the hereafter, of course. But he also hopes that he makes out better as a real angel than he did on his pilot run. Playing an angel in an amateur theatrical, Mr. Wilmer came down to earth with a bang when the cable supporting him above the stage snapped as he floated in mid-air.

And in Glendale, Calif., ex-City Manager Charles C. McCall has applied for state compensation with the claim that he swiveled so vigorously in his swivel chair that he hurt his back. (You guys who don't rate swivel chairs—wipe off that smile!)

Every mother, doctor, policeman and fireman knows that any small boy has an irresistible urge to stick his head into places it doesn't belong. Cases in point: Mickey Holloway, of Birmingham, Ala., was as pleased as any two-year-old boy would be at his fascinating ability to make faces at his older sister. The faces were more satisfactory, Mickey discovered, when they were framed between the bars of the banister in his home. You guessed it. His head got caught between the bars. Firemen pried him loose. Even his sister felt sorry for him—a little.

But the boy who emerged head and shoulders above any other headsticker into of 1950 was young Philip Burrows. Phil also was only two years old, but he had the advantage of living in Hollywood, Calif., where they do things more spectacularly. So Phil chose to steal headline honors by getting his head stuck in, of all things, a toilet seat. Even the firemen, accustomed to this type of crisis, were impressed as they went to work with a saw to dethrone him.

4-Year-Old Escapes At Cannon Ball Beach, South Africa, H. W. Lewis drove his car over a 100-foot cliff above the sea. A thorn tree on the brink caught the car, held it fast. Mr. Lewis climbed out to safety with a scratched thumb.

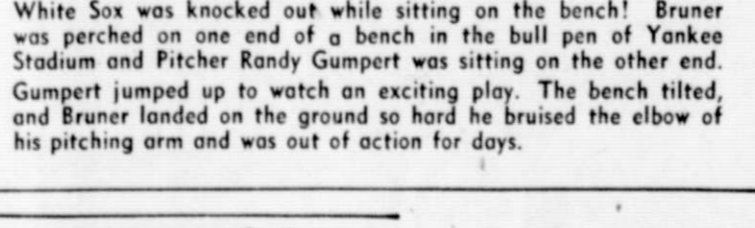

To avoid that tired and run-down feeling, four-year-old Brian O'Connor of Woodlawn, Md., suggests hurrying out to lunch. That's what he did when his mother called him to his noonday meal. Seconds later a six-foot, 1,500-pound tiger—fugitive from a road seraper—crashed through the wall of the room Brian had just left and demolished the spot where he had stood.

It is no uncommon thing during a parade to see a man waving a

Unusual Accident Knocks Out Pitcher

A big league baseball pitcher expects to take his bumps out on the mound now and then. But hurler Jack Bruner of the Chicago White Sox was knocked out while sitting on the bench! Bruner was perched on one end of a bench in the bull pen of Yankee Stadium and Pitcher Randy Gumpert was sitting on the other end. Gumpert jumped up to watch an exciting play. The bench tilted, and Bruner landed on the ground so hard he bruised the elbow of his pitching arm and was out of action for days.

J. V. Short struck and killed two fish while driving along the flood street in front of his home in Toledo, O. They were out of a pond in his own yard.

Two farmers, sitting by the stove in the village store, were engaging in a little exaggeration fest. "Naow, I onced had a nephew," said one, "who was as fast a critter as ever I see. Why he use tew hev people shoot at him, and then outrun the bullet for five miles and get clean away."

Smile Awhile

Depression "How's business with you, old man?" "Oh, lookin' up." "What do you mean, lookin' up?" "Well, it's flat on its back, isn't it?"

Still Sick A lusty-lunged auctioneer was addressing a crowd in a small town. Taking up a box of cigars, he shouted, "You can't get better, gentlemen. I don't care where you go." "No," replied a cynical voice from the crowd, "you can't. I smoked one last week, and I'm not better yet."

Fast Guy Two farmers, sitting by the stove in the village store, were engaging in a little exaggeration fest. "Naow, I onced had a nephew," said one, "who was as fast a critter as ever I see. Why he use tew hev people shoot at him, and then outrun the bullet for five miles and get clean away."

Mr. Dan Goldsmith, 3924 Curron Road, Louisville, Ky., owner of Coogla Cut Rate Store at 935 West Broadway, says there just aren't enough words in the English language to praise HADACOL correctly. He says he knows most folks don't realize what a change HADACOL can make in their life if their systems are deficient in Vitamins B, By, Iron and Niacin.

Here is Mr. Goldsmith's statement: "Before I started taking HADACOL I was run down and nervous—and had a hard time sleeping nights. With my work in the store I have to spend sometimes 14 hours a day on my feet. Since I am in the retail business I saw how many folks were asking for HADACOL so I decided to try it myself. After the first couple of bottles I could tell a definite improvement. Now I have all the pep and energy in the world, my nerves are steady as ever and I really do get a good night's rest. HADACOL is wonderful—I not only take it, but recommend it to all my customers. I praise the day Senator Dudley J. LeBlanc put HADACOL on the market."

HADACOL is So Different
Thousands are being fitted from HADACOL... whose systems lack Vitamins B, By, Iron and Niacin. HADACOL is so wonderful because HADACOL helps build up the hemoglobin content of your blood (when Iron is needed) to carry these great Vitamins and Minerals to every organ—to every part of the body.

Colorful Jams Are Economical, Ideal Christmas Gifts

HOW OFTEN HAVE you noticed the budget running in the red while the Christmas gift list stretches? Yes, it often happens, and so close to the holidays that you just don't know what can be done about it!
It's too late to embark on any outside money-making projects, especially with all the work to be done around the house. There is a wonderful solution, however, if you'll just turn your kitchen over to making some colorful jams for a single afternoon or morning.

With a dozen jars you can take care of four to six presents nicely on your list. It's fun to make jams in the middle of winter, and it's even more fun to decorate the glasses as festively as the season.
A set of two or three glasses of jam makes a gift that any woman will welcome, especially around holiday time when she needs an extra glass of jam for a company breakfast or for those hot dinner rolls.

Pears, apples, citrus fruits as well as quick frozen fruits are here to help you make a variety. It will be almost like June, working with these fresh fruits and berries.

Strawberry Jam
(Makes 3 6-ounce glasses)
1 1-pound package quick frozen strawberries
1 1/2 cups sugar
3 Tablespoons powdered pectin
Thaw the frozen, sweetened sliced strawberries, as directed on package. Place in a large, heavy saucepan. Measure sugar to add at a moment's notice. Place saucepan of strawberries over high heat. Add powdered pectin; stir until mixture comes to a hard boil. Add sugar immediately, stirring. Keep jam at full rolling boil for 1 minute, stirring constantly. Remove from heat; skim; pour quickly into sterile glasses. Paraffin at once.

Pear-Pineapple Jam
(Makes 9 6-ounce glasses)
2 1/2 pounds pears
1 orange
1 lemon
3/4 cup canned, crushed pineapple
5 1/2 cups sugar
Peel and core pears. Grind pears, orange and lemon, including peel, using coarse blade of food chopper. Add pineapple and sugar, stirring well. Heat to boiling and cook 20 minutes, stirring occasionally. Pour into hot, sterile glasses and seal at once.

YOU CAN MAKE four pints of apple butter in no time at all using this simple, but well spiced recipe. Everyone will welcome the spread on toast or cookies.

Spiced Apple Butter
(Makes 4 pints)
5 pounds apples
3 cups water
1 3/4-ounce box powdered fruit pectin
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1/4 teaspoon allspice
1/4 teaspoon nutmeg
4 drops red food coloring
7 cups sugar
Wash, quarter and core apples. Add water; cook until tender. Put apples through food mill or coarse sieve. Add powdered fruit pectin, spices and food coloring. Heat to boiling. Stir in sugar. Bring to a full, rolling boil. Cook two minutes, stirring constantly. Skim and

You can use as few as two glasses of jam or jelly for a Christmas gift. Interesting glasses make unusual gifts, and if they're presented with a relish dish for someone special, the gift can be truly handsome.

LYNN SAYS:
Tempt the Palate With Seasoned Foods
Salt pork is a favorite when it's dipped in beaten egg and bread crumbs and fried to a golden brown. Thicken the drippings with flour, season and add cream to make the gravy.
Here's a toast for an afternoon snack: toast thinly sliced bread on one side. Butter untoasted side and spread with maple butter, or use brown sugar. Run under the broiler and serve. Have plenty.

Honey goes well over fruit fritters, and thus makes a good winter dessert. Heat honey and add a few drops of lemon juice. Fold in a bit of cream and serve while warm.
Scallops can be placed on skewers with bacon after the little discs are dipped in egg and bread crumbs. Broil and serve with lemon.
A delectable garnish for a salad uses chopped chives and a sprinkling of sieved, hard-cooked egg.

Make your next batch of chocolate sauce with brown in place of white sugar if you want an old-fashioned treat.
Marinate your eggplant slices in French dressing, then bread with crumbs and broil. Top with crisp bacon slices and you don't need to worry about a meat dish.

Gather together an assortment of jams and jellies and decorate them prettily with stickers and cord for handsome, welcome Christmas presents.

HERE ARE TWO recipes for orange marmalade which is always a delightful treat. One method takes longer than the other, so use whichever you prefer.

Orange Marmalade
(Make 8 6-ounce glasses)
4 large oranges
3 lemons
11 cups water
11 cups sugar
Juice of 2 lemons
Cut whole fruit in thin slices, removing seeds, if any. Add water and set aside for 24 hours. Cook gently for one hour. Remove from heat and set aside for 24 hours longer. Add sugar and lemon juice; cook until syrup sheets off spoon, about 45 minutes. Seal in hot, sterile glasses.

Quick Orange Marmalade
(Makes 8 6-ounce glasses)
1 medium-sized lemon
4 medium-sized oranges
1 1/2 cups boiling water
1/4 teaspoon soda
6 cups sugar
1/2 bottle fruit pectin
Remove orange and lemon peel; cut off half the white part. Shred peels very fine. Add water and soda and bring to boiling point. Cover and cook slowly 10 minutes. Remove white skin of peeled fruit and cut sections a way from membrane with sharp knife, working over bowl to catch juice. Combine pulp, juice and cooked peel; cover and cook slowly for 20 minutes. Measure three cups; add sugar and bring to boiling point. Cook five minutes. Remove from heat; add pectin. Skim and stir for five minutes. Seal in hot, sterile glasses.

Apricot Marmalade
(Makes 12 6-ounce glasses)
2 pounds dried apricots
1 dozen oranges
1 grapefruit
1/4 cup lemon juice
1 1/4 cup crushed pineapple
Sugar
Soak apricots overnight. Peel oranges and grapefruit and remove white rind. Cut in pieces and add lemon juice and soaked apricots, cut in pieces. Add pineapple. Measure combined fruit and add an equal amount of sugar. Cook until thick, stirring carefully to prevent from burning. Fill sterilized glasses and seal at once.

Persimmon Butter
(Makes about 3 pints)
2 quart persimmon pulp
1 cup orange juice
Sugar
Cook pulp and orange juice together in top of double boiler until thick. Measure and add 3/4 cup sugar for each cup of pulp. Continue cooking until thick. Pour into hot sterile jars and seal.

Try a piece of stick cinnamon in the next rice pudding you make and see what lovely flavor it gives. If you find the family turning up their noses at celery, put the vegetable in cream sauce and top with grated cheese. Bake until cheese melts and top is browned.

You'll like this gingerbread treat: split squares of the bread and put together with apple butter. Top with whipped cream.

When next you serve pork chops or roast pork, pass along a bowl of applesauce which has been beaten together with currant jelly.
Ever tried ham in hash? It's delicious. Chop the ham and combine with an equal quantity of chopped, cold boiled potatoes. Moisten with cream and bake or fry.

For a quick salad use a slice of canned tomato aspic, which is ready to use, and top with halved canned artichoke hearts. French dressing is indicated.

Shredded tuna fish mixed with a bit of mustard sauce makes an excellent spread for crackers or toast. Broil just before serving for a real treat.

Scrambled eggs to which some grated Swiss cheese has been added are perfect for suppers that are simple and easy. Serve with tossed salad and heated rolls.

Dogs always have been the favorite pets of American families. And next to photographing children, every American family seems to want a picture of its favorite pooch. Here are some of the "pin-up pooches" of the year, winners in the Gaines Dog Research Center's "My Favorite Dog Photo" contest. This picture (right) of Rag Mop, a Maltese terrier, won first place and $250 in the amateur class for Austin W. Seth of Seattle, Washington. This breed is very popular with photographers because they are intelligent and can be caught in unusual poses.

Pin-up Pooches

This unusual picture of Buster (right) peering through a stair railing, took third prize for Grace E. McBrayer of Philadelphia, Pa., secretary of the Miniature Camera Club of that city. The pictures in the contest were judged on the basis of human interest and appeal as well as photographic quality by a group of nationally-known photographic authorities.

William B. Kroeschel, Newark, N. J., had two of America's favorite photographic subjects as his entry in the contest. His "shot" of Prince Charming (right) playing with a baby won third prize in the amateur classification of the contest. Kroeschel's photograph was outstanding because he was able to capture detail and action at the same time. Prince Charming seems to be saying, "Where do you think you're going, big boy?"

"President of the Board" is what Marcus Bach, Iowa City, Iowa, a member of the Blackhawk Camera Club, calls his wire-haired fox terrier Mike resting importantly in a leather chair. The picture was awarded first prize and $250 in the camera club classification of the contest.

However, in a study made by the University on DHIA cows artificially sired by Wisconsin studs, the cows sired by E. C. B. A. C. (EAST CENTRAL BREEDERS ASS'N CO-OP) BULLS averaged butterfat . . . 40 Lbs. more than the DHIA average. These E.C.B.A.C. daughters represented 37% of the artificially-sired cows studied in this state.

Here is evidence from the University that the E.C.B.A.C. bulls have truly done a BETTER-THAN-AVERAGE JOB in Wisconsin DHIA herds under ACTUAL FARM CONDITIONS.
