Sister Kenny Polio Fund Appeal Opened in County

Preparations for the Washington county Sister Elizabeth Kenny Foundation polio fund appeal, which got under way Sept. 20, were completed this week at a meeting of key volunteer workers at the Farm Bureau office at West Bend. It was announced by Mrs. Viola Bauer, chairman for the Associated Women of the Washington County Farm Bureau Federation.

The Wisconsin goal in this year's campaign has been set at $60,000, of which the quota for Washington county is $600.00.

"The Kenny treatment, comprising medical and Kenny therapist services at no charge to the patient, is well known and widely accepted," Mrs. Bauer said. "It is important that these services be continued and, if possible, expanded."

"It is important to every family, for polio can strike anywhere, anytime and without warning. Until the day that science discovers a preventive or cure, polio will remain as one of the serious threats to health and normal living."

"The Kenny treatment is the most effective method known to curb the crippling after effects so commonly associated with polio. If this treatment is to be made available to all who want it, more money must be made available to permit the Kenny Foundation to train additional Kenny therapists and otherwise develop its program to combat the disease."

Assisting Mrs. Bauer in directing the Washington county campaign will be the following 11 town chairmen:

- Mrs. Virgil Ellis, town Addison; Mrs. Belle Albright, town Barton; Mrs. Norman Lepien, town Erin; Mrs. Richard Dognitz, town Farmington; Mrs. Herbert Fraederick, town Germantown; Mrs. John Doll, Hartford; Mrs. Howard Mayer, town Polk; Mrs. Edward Ritterbush, town Richfield; Mrs. H. ## Indians Lose Opener to Kohler Six, 24-18

Coach Ernie Mitchell's Kewaskum High school team opened the 1951 football season in a non-conference game at Kohler last Friday night. Although defeated in a close 24-18 battle, Kewaskum surprised the strong Kohler six which last season had one of the leading teams in the state. Kohler has lost some of last year's mainstays but still has a big veteran team while the Indians have only four returning veterans.

Kewaskum fought Kohler to a deadlock in the first half, which ended in a tie at 18-all. Only one touchdown was scored in the second half, and that by Kohler to win the contest. Three touchdowns by Ebben rained the Indians' chances for a victory. Another Kohler veteran, Gascoigne, scored his team's other touchdown. Running hard, Ronnie Vorpahl was the top scorer for the losers, pushing over two touchdowns.

Kohler's first touchdown was scored on a 40 yard pass to Gascoigne. Their three other touchdowns came on a 40 yard end run by Ebben, a kickoff return by Ebben, and a 6 yard plunge again by Ebben. A 25 yard pass to Dick Buntler clicked for Kewaskum's first score and Vorpahl crossed pay dirt the two other times on runs of 20 and 8 yards.

In a brief B team game preceding the varsity contest, Kewaskum defeated the Kohler second team by a close 7-6 margin. This preliminary game lasted only about 45 minutes.

Kewaskum played its first Tri-Country conference game this week, tackling Green Lake on the local gridiron Friday afternoon. On Sept. 25, Lomira comes here for another conference tilt.

Meeting Monday of Blood Donor Club; Needs Cited

Kewaskum will be among the participating areas from which representatives have been urged to attend the annual Community Blood Donor club meeting, Monday, Sept. 24, in the circuit court room of the courthouse in West Bend.

Depletion of the Blood Donor club's reserve blood supply has been pointed out by Gordon Ohlrogge, the organization's president, as the vital subject of the meeting. Also on the order of business are elections to fill two board of directors positions. Terms of Ben Heiting and J. T. Merriam are due to expire.

The meeting is open to all who are in areas served by the Blood Donor club. This includes all of Washington county, except Hartford and the townships of Polk, Erin and Richfield.

The meeting will be just 10 days in advance of the Oct. 4 blood collection day in West Bend, which will be the last opportunity of 1951 to replace the club's depleted supply of whole blood. Ohlrogge emphasized this week that the supply has been completely exhausted. During the month of August, he said, a total of 58 pints were used, all supplied to persons in the county needing blood, at no cost.

A total of 290 donors has been set as the minimum amount needed to give blood on Oct. 4 when the mobile collection unit of the Milwaukee Junior League blood center will be in West Bend. This minimum has not been available to this area again until July, 1952.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

Casserole: A tasty casserole dish can be made from a combination of beef, tomatoes, macaroni or noodles, onions, bread crumbs, flour, and seasonings.

Summer Salad: Combine 2 cups of potato salad with 1/2 cup diced cooked ham and four quartered, hard-cooked eggs for a different summer salad.

Food Value: Slicing or dicing vegetables shortens the cooking period but also lowers the amount of food value you will receive from them.

Tasty Sauce: Drop some lime juice in honey and mix them together to make a sauce for cakes, puddings, and ice cream.

Vitamin A: A serving of one-half cup of green snap beans will furnish about twelve per cent of an adult's vitamin A requirement.

Snap Bean: Good-quality snap beans should really "snap" when broken, and should have clean firm pods with no more than tiny beans inside.

JUST SAY

No Identity: I just got a letter from a man saying if I didn't stay away from his wife he was going to shoot me. Well, I suppose you're going to take heed of the warning.

In Dutch: Wife: Who's that woman over there staring at us? Husband: Shhh—not so loud! I'll have a time explaining to her tomorrow who you are.

Tact: Customer—"To what do you owe your extraordinary success as a house-to-house salesman?" Salesman—"To the first five words I utter when a woman opens the door: 'Miss, is your mother in?'"

Weather Prophet: "Say, Joe you're a broker; can't you give me a tip?" "I know something that is now about twenty, and within six months I can guarantee it to be over ninety."

RURAL LIVING

Writer Tells His City Friends Why He Likes It in the Country

(Editor's Note: The following article, "I Live in the Country" by Alan Devoe, was published in the September issue of Coronet magazine. It is reprinted here with the permission of that magazine.)

By ALAN DEVOE

IT IS QUITE CLEAR that most of my city friends feel sorry for me. The reason is that I live in the country. While they pity, they also wonder, and this reveals itself in certain perpetual questions.

What on earth do I find to do in the country? What is there to see? How do I fill my time?

They feel sorry for me because I have no radio or television, and because I live in a remote area from the post office. They speak with sympathy of how very "dull" my life must be, and marvel that I am content to "stagnate" here.

I receive these commiserations with scorn. For I extract from this life of "isolation," as my friends term it, a deep and endless delight.

The house in which I live is very ancient and somewhat askew; but from this ancientness and crookedness I derive continuous solace. Here in this tiny dining room the china dogs on top of the old pine corner-cupboard have watched three generations at their feeding; in the great spool-bed upstairs have occurred both births and deaths.

There clings in these low-ceilinged rooms—with their faded flowered wallpaper, their horsehair sofas, a n d wideboarded uneven floors—an aura of the stalwart tranquility, the hard-toiling patience, of that succession of homely Dutchmen who were our predecessors. Near the middle of the last century, one of these Hollenbecks (for such was the name of the sturdy family which tenanted this homestead) deserted the plow for a life of seafaring. When he was an old man, and had voyaged to every quarter of the globe, he came back to this house to eke out a living by mending stone walls.

So much for the house. It is like that tattered sampler in the hayloft of our barn which reads, "Sweet Rest for Heaven," and like the crooked path that untold thousands of footsteps have worn through the clover field to our well—a link with the simple, earthly lives of those good souls who are vanished.

In every direction, as I look from my windows, are the green wooded hills, untenanted by living man. They lie—these carved and molded masses of rugged earth—brooding in an ageless silence, baking their hummocked backs in the hot summer sun, shouldering the cold white weight of countless snows, existing eternal while the oaks and firs upon their slopes wither and die, and are born and live again through the passage of seasons.

My friends who speak of "loneliness" and "isolation" take no heed of the deep companionship of trees and rocks. Yet it is easy to discover, in lichen-covered boulders and in the cool smooth trunks of maples or the rough, fragrant trunks of firs, an essence of being with which it is very easy for a man to commune.

These high hemlocks are my fellows upon earth; together we face the elements, together struggle for sustenance, together are set upon by plagues and pestilences, together will return, when we die, to the eternal embracing earth of this planet. And it is possible for me to walk upon the black leaf mold in which these hemlocks have their roots and to draw from that contact a profound tranquility of spirit.

This relaxed contentment is a far better antidote for turmoil and vexation than my city friends can possibly receive in the diversions afforded them by the movies, the theater, the radio or television—of which they deplore my lack.

THIS COUNTRY life of mine, far from being barren of things to do and see, is crowded from daybreak until nightfall. My personal routine of eating, working, sleeping, and performing chores is sufficiently simple. But the details of the lives that surround mine and demand my attention—the lives of chipmunks and phoebes and woodchucks and of the very buttercups that grow profusely in our pasture—are so vastly absorbing as to require all my hours. It is inconceivable that I could possibly be "bored," even if I had nothing more to occupy me than the contemplation of the meadow upon which I look out as I write this.

In such a rural district as that in which I live, neurosis is impossible. That sickly "turning inward" which makes wretches of city victims has no opportunity to enter here. All man's thought and energy and time are taken here, as they were in the beginning, in a constant coping with the problems presented by the earth and the elements. And living thus in daily contemplation of the vast swing and surge of the eternal cosmic machinery, man's minor woes assume an utter insignificance.

BLONDE Marion Marshall has her best role so far in "That's My Boy," starring Dean Martin and Jerry Lewis, at Paramount, but she piled up an impressive list of credits at 20th Century-Fox before she left that studio. She was a model when 20th signed her, sent her to dramatic school for a year, then put her into "The Snake Pit"; after that came "Sitting Pretty," "Apartment for Peggy," "I Was a Male War Bride," for which she spent six months in Europe, and others. It was the test she made

Republicans Must Woo Dixiecrats to Win in 1952

By Wright A. Patterson

AS A MEANS of stealing the show from their opponents in the 1952 presidential campaign the Republicans should insert state rights as a major plank in their platform, so stated as to leave no possibility of its being misunderstood or misinterpreted.

To be effective it cannot be expressed in political weasel words, one of those "heads I win, tails you lose" kinds of statements that can be twisted to meet whatever occasion may present. It must be as explicit in its meaning as were those of Thomas Jefferson, the father and patron saint of the Democratic party, and the original states' righter.

Every piece of Fair Deal legislation the President has been able to force through congress has taken something away from the constitutional rights of the states, and something from the liberties of the people.

All of the Fair Deal legislation the President is so insistently demanding that congress enact is of the same anti-state rights character. Each bill, should it become the law of the land, would take away some rights that are now enjoyed by the states under the provisions of the constitution, some things on which the states now have the say.

At its convention, the Democratic party must either approve or condemn the actions of the Democratic administration. If it endorses such policies, it is approving a limitation of the constitutional rights of the states. That would be objectionable to the members of the party in the southern states.

With the Republicans proposing to protect the rights of the states a place to which they could turn, and might result in the Republicans carrying some of the Southern states as did Herbert Hoover.

The Republicans have joined with the southern Dixiecrats in opposing the anti-states rights legislation the President has asked for, and the adoption of such a plank would be but an endorsement of the party's policies during the last two sessions of congress. The party, as such, must either endorse such actions, or apologize for them.

The opportunity the situation presents for "squeeze play" would have been made to order for the Republicans. Will they improve it, or will they "muff" it as not needed to win that 1952 political battle?

Undoubtedly a strong states' right plank in the Republican platform would insure some Democratic votes for Republican candidates in many states.

Thanks to the brilliant military mind of the late Admiral Sherman, at the time chief of naval operations, and to his ability in the field of diplomacy,

THE FICTION CORNER

EPICUREAN ERROR

By Isabelle Snyder

Laura Fenton viewed the rutted road dubiously. "Are you sure this is the road, Amy?" "Oh yes—third road on the left—just as you wrote it in the notebook when Mrs. Edwards told us about it. . . a wonderful country home that serves divine food. Hurry, I'm starved. And it sounds so divine!"

Laura turned the carefully-cared-for coupe into the narrow road, guiding it cautiously up the steep grade. Amy giggled like a girl. "It's a good thing it isn't much farther, Laura. I'm starved!"

Laura smiled gently at the exaggerated speech of her flighty friend who refused to grow old, gracefully or otherwise. "I believe the food will be worth the long drive off our main route. Mrs. Edwards is most discriminating."

"There's the place," announced Amy coughing from the thick dust. "Just look at all the cars in the yard—the food must be wonderful."

Laura turned the coupe into the crowded farm yard and carefully selected an ample parking spot. Amy pouted. "The food may be perfect but we'll have to wait ages to get in—just look at all those others waiting!" She bounced from the car like a child and stood impatiently while Laura fastidiously changed driving gloves for fresh white ones before leaving the car primly.

"Goodness, Amy Bowen, straighten your hat," Laura scolded as they walked to the house. "It seems strange that they don't have a sign on the road or out front," she commented as they ascended the steps to the veranda where other people already waited.

"Oh, outside, please," answered Amy warmly. "It's much too nice a day to stay inside."

This Nebraska Farmer Says: "FIRESTONE OPEN CENTERS FOR ME"

"I farm 320 acres of bottom land. Sometimes it gets pretty dry and hard, and other times it gets soft and sticky. I like the Firestone Open Centers for my farm because, no matter what condition the ground's in, I can always depend on them to do a good job. In my opinion they're the best all-around tires a farmer can use."
Glenn Stauffer, Meadow Grove, Neb.

AMONG THE OPEN CENTER BUYERS MORE AND MORE FARMERS CHOOSE Firestone CHAMPIONS

FROM across the road all open center tires look about the same, but from a tractor seat farmers soon see why the Firestone Open Center outpulls all other open center tires.

Watch a Firestone Open Center in operation. You can see how the sharp taper of its bars makes them bite their way into the ground. . . You can see how the curved design of the bars makes them cup the soil for a stronger hold. . . You can see how the Flared Openings between the bars let the soil fall free to keep the tread clean. You'll find the Firestone Champion the best open center tire you can use.

Of course there are over a million farmers who would rather have a traction center type of tire, and if that's the kind you prefer, get the one and only Firestone Traction Center.

BOLTONVILLE BUSY BEAVERS 4-H CLUB NEWS

Atty. H. O. Schowalter, West Bend, and Miss Johanna Graupner, Frankfurt, Germany, highlighted the regular monthly meeting of the Boltonville Busy Beavers 4-H club, Wednesday evening, Sept. 12, at the M. W. A. lodge rooms.
 Atty. Schowalter advised the club in the interest of adopting a constitution stating, "You, as a 4-H club, are conducting yourselves as a democratic group where the power lies within the membership, and thus your requirements should be clarified for members and parents."

Following the explanation of the FFA constitution by Dan Scheid, agricultural instructor, Kewaskum High school, a committee was appointed to prepare a constitution for the next meeting, namely: Elmer Belger, Marilyn and Myrna Laatsch, Rose Mary Staehler, Douglas Wierman, Roger Zettler; advisors Dan Scheid and Norbert Dettmann.

Miss Graupner, sister of Mrs. Willard Liepert, who is on a three month visit to this country, gave the club the real spirit of international friendship. She explained the life of youth in Germany, and was enthusiastic about contacting our German correspondents, Manfred and Lothar Beck, reporting to them that she had the pleasant opportunity to visit with all of their friends.

The birthday song was sung for Janice Riley, Sept. 23, and Isadore Stahl, Sept. 25. A request, "The Place Where We Worship," a song of the outdoors will be heard on station WDBK the morning of Sept. 25.

 In a talk, "Are You Safe at Home?" Eileen Laatsch reported that Wisconsin had 641 accidental deaths in the home during 1950. Farm homes had 322 deaths, city homes 309. These accidents took the lives of 61 infants, 53 children, 55 adults, and 255 oldsters.
 For the December paper drive, Harold Gilford was appointed chairman and Ronald Zettler, assistant. For another successful drive club members were urged to begin collecting now.

Myrna Laatsch favored the group as accompanist and also read the 4-H creed. Refreshments were served by Carol Belger, Mary Anna Degner, and Myrna Laatsch.

On Thursday afternoon, Sept. 20, leaving Boltonville at 4:15 o'clock the club members visited the interesting Day Sunny Dell Golf farm located in the town of Farmington.
 The Modern Woodmen, our sponsors, will present a surprise program of local talent and serve refreshments for our next 4-H club meeting, Oct. 12. The club members are looking forward to this meeting anxiously.

MAIN STREET IN ACTION

Six Small Towns Find That Free Movies Promote Substantial Business Increase

Everyone is aware that, as a modern entertainment medium, the drive-in theater has proved its worth, at least from the standpoint of personal comfort, convenience, and privacy; but it took some enterprising Kentuckians to apply the outdoor theater idea to a cooperative venture designed to lure business into their small towns.

Take a look at these six little communities—Port Royal, Pleasureville, Monterey, Bedford, Sanders, and Worthville—located in north-central Kentucky. They're not on the rocks. Far from it. But, like many another village whose location puts it into involuntary competition with nearby larger towns, they felt that business could be better if they could find some way to attract farmers and other outlying citizens to their Main Streets.

FEATURE

Basically, this is the old story of how present-day ease and speed of transportation has tended to encourage trade to by-pass the smaller towns unless they meet the challenge with plans and promotional activities.

The answer, or at least a partial answer, for our six towns was proposed by Clifford Adams, an electrician, and R. L. Rains, pool room proprietor, both of Port Royal. They contracted with merchants of the six towns to show one free outdoor movie in each of the communities every week during the spring, summer, and early fall.

During any given week the same motion picture is shown in a different town each night, beginning in Port Royal on Monday and ending in Pleasureville on Saturday. To illustrate how successful the program has been, Pleasureville's Saturday nights now see a temporary population increase of from 2,000 to 3,000 persons who flock to town for the occasion.

Essentially, this six-town free movie plan owes its success to its almost overwhelming simplicity. It is a scheme that couldn't work in the sophisticated, macadamized confines of a large city; but in such honest localities as Pleasureville and Bedford it is accepted with the genuine appreciation and enthusiasm of those to whom a little recreation in the evening means much after a lot of hard work in the fields during the day.

The movies are sponsored by local merchants. Each sponsor pays a total of $2.50 a week, in return for which he may have a lantern-slide advertisement shown on the screen. Commercial ads from non-sponsors are accepted also, at the rate of $2.50 for a colored slide and $1.00 for a black and white typewritten ad.

A sponsor pays his weekly fee to Clifford Adams around 9 o'clock on the evening the show is appearing in his town. By that time, many of the people drawn into town by the movie have visited his store, and he already has recovered the sponsor's fee several times over because of the extra business.

On Monday nights in Port Royal the stores stay open until 11 o'clock. Farmers come in to treat their families to a free movie, talk to friends, do some shopping, sell the eggs they bring in from the farm, and buy groceries for the week.

For the young people, the first stop is at the drug store for refreshments, then on to the movie to try to find a good seat. Seating has been a real problem. A few fortunate early-comers can park their cars close enough to see. Others bring chairs, boxes, and orange crates which provide, at best, a somewhat rustic comfort.

The screen is two bedsheets sewn together and tacked to the side of a barn. Generally, the show starts around dusk, with the lantern-slide ads coming on first. At Port Royal, oddly enough, religion is introduced into the proceedings, with the Baptist minister, N. H. McCrumen, delivering a sermon before the show.

Port Royal's normal population is about 200. On Monday nights, however, upwards of 1,200 persons move into town to see the show. That means extra business.

Clifford Adams and R. L. Rains? They each net a clear profit of about $50 a week from their enterprise.

Knowledge cannot be stolen from us. It cannot be bought or sold. We may be poor, and the sheriff may come and sell our furniture, or drive away our cow, or take our pet lamb, and leave us homeless and penniless; but he cannot lay the law's hand upon the jewelry of our minds.

It's Wonderful the Way Chewing-Gum Laxative Acts Chiefly to REMOVE WASTE -NOT GOOD FOOD

Here's the secret millions of folks have discovered about the modern chewing-gum laxative. Yes, here is why FEEN-A-MINT's action is so wonderfully different! Doctors say that many other laxatives start their "flushing" action too soon . . . right in the stomach where food is being digested. Large doses of such laxatives upset digestion, flush away nourishing food you need for health and energy. You feel weak, worn out. But gentle FEEN-A-MINT, taken as recommended, works chiefly in the lower bowel where it removes only waste, not good food! You avoid that "flushed," tired, worn-out feeling. Use FEEN-A-MINT and feel your "stomach" energetic self! Give FEEN-A-MINT! No increase in price—still 25¢, 50¢ or only 1¢.

Korean Peace Negotiations Stalled; Senate Group Makes Crime Report

BLACKMAIL—With renewed claims by Chinese Communists that Kaesong's neutrality has been violated several times, a general feeling that peace negotiations are stalled until after the San Francisco conference on a Japanese peace treaty, which began on the 4th, has developed in the nation's capital.

Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway has reportedly expressed the opinion that the cease-fire talks were a blind from the start and that the Allies must now be prepared for renewal of full scale conflict. The Communists have played at the game of blackmail—a peace in Korea for abandonment of the Japanese treaty.

Now that the treaty conference is underway, and the U.S. continues in its determination to sign the treaty, there is little reason to believe a settlement will be reached in Korea. To the contrary, it appears likely all-out war will flare up at any moment.

The Communists have used the weeks of negotiations to full advantage in their build-up of equipment and men in Korea. They are reported to have approximately 600,000 men in the country, with 400,000 near the front. Approximately 600 tanks and great numbers of heavy guns have been brought into the war zone. The build-up of air power is well over 1,000 planes.

If the Communists have benefited from the weeks of lull, so have United Nations forces. Regiments are at full strength for the first time and have better and a greater number of weapons. Their defense positions are the best since the Korean conflicts began.

A few of the nation's leaders still believe there is a 50-50 chance of peace in Korea. But every day the odds are changing for the worse.

CRIME REPORT—The senate crime investigating committee concluded its 15-month investigation with a report that said "the tentacles of organized crime reach into virtually every community throughout the country."

As a solution it recommended the formation of a national crime co-ordinating council which would support and aid the activities of crime commissions in the home towns of the nation.

Among its other recommendations: (1) That the federal security agency develop a nation-wide educational campaign on the effects of narcotics; (2) that the federal penalty for narcotics peddling be increased; (3) that congress prohibit "interstate facilities in connection with any bet or wager, thus putting an end to layoff and comeback transactions between gamblers in different states"; and (4) that congress tighten laws to prevent aliens from entering illegally and liberalize the deportation process.

One of the most startling statements of the report was the one which charged that some communities have been enslaved by organized crime and grafting public officials and that honest people have lost their voice in their own local government in many areas.

OATIS CASE—Czechoslovakia's ambassador received a stormy welcome last week when he called on the White House to present his credentials. President Truman told him bluntly the quickest way to improve relations between the two countries would be to free imprisoned newspaperman, William N. Oatis.

The ambassador said the "case is closed", but a number of diplomatic observers believe otherwise. They believe Czechoslovakia will try a little blackmail, such as the deal the U.S. engineered with Hungary to win the release of businessman Robert A. Vogel, also imprisoned on spy charges.

Hungary has granted a number of minor trade and diplomatic concessions for releasing Vogel. Czechoslovakia's terms may be curbed on Radio Free Europe, a privately run American radio station at Munich which broadcasts anti-Communist propaganda behind the Iron Curtain.

DEFENSE TREATIES—The United States last week signed defense treaties with the Philippines, Australia, and New Zealand. It was a major step in this country's policy of securing peace and stopping the spread of communism in the Pacific.

The pacts, which follow the pattern of the 12-nation North Atlantic alliance by binding the U.S. to aid the Pacific countries in case of an attack on either, must be ratified by the senate. They are not expected to come up for action before early next year, however.

FOOD PRICES—The Independent Grocers Alliance, which has some 10,000 members, predicts that food prices are likely to go down this fall. According to J. Frank Grimes, president of the group, "Big farm crops and heavy production of processed foods promise to make many food price ceilings purely academic within the next few months."

Whether propaganda or not, Grimes recommends the group's members reduce food inventories in the weeks ahead. "That way, stores can be ready to jump in and buy when prices ease—then launch big sales that will make them more friends among thrifty consumers."

FOREIGN AID—The senate last week passed its version of a foreign aid bill. The measure authorizes $7,286,250,000 to erect military and economic defenses against communism. The total was $1,213,750,000 less than asked by President Truman.

Two weeks ago the house sliced $1,001,250,000 off the $8,500,000,000 requested by the administration.

Now the bill goes to conference with the house and senate working out a compromise of their differences. Whatever the final figure, it will not be near the $8.5 billion asked by the administration. The bulk of the funds, approximately 80 per cent, in both the house and senate bills, will be used for military aid. Later congress must vote actual funds to carry the authorizations approved by both branches.

DOUGLAS UPROAR—The suggestion last week by William O. Douglas, supreme court justice, that the U.S. recognize Red China, has caused an uproar on the American scene.

Douglas, who made the suggestion in an interview in San Francisco upon his return from an expedition along the southern frontiers of both Russia and China, said recognition would give the free world a real political victory. He said recognition would capitalize on the struggle between Chinese nationalism and Russia's drive for far eastern solidarity.

In the senate, however, Douglas' statement brought blasts of anger. Said Senator Connally of Texas, "We have not recognized Red China. We do not intend to recognize Red China. Justice Douglas is not secretary of state. Douglas is not President of the United States. He never will be."

EVA QUILTS—Eva Peron, politically the most powerful woman in the western hemisphere, who a few days before accepted the nomination for vice president on her husband's ticket in the November election, last week announced her decision to quit the race.

The western world, which has eyed the Argentina dictatorship with a suspicious eye, had heard reports of a serious split in the Peronista party since the President and Senora Peron had told a mass meeting that they were ready to "bow to the will of the people."

Her withdrawal is expected to consolidate the party behind her husband, Juan, and elect him to another six year term.

DEFENSE—President Truman in a nation-wide broadcast from San Francisco, where he attended the opening of the Japanese peace treaty conference, warned the nation that not even an armistice in Korea must be allowed to slow the efforts to strengthen the free world against future Communist aggression.

"Whether negotiations in Korea are successful or not," he said, "we must continue to drive ahead to build defensive strength for our country and the free world."

"The plain fact is that Communists may try to resume the offensive in Korea at any time. Moreover, they are capable of launching new attacks in Europe, in the Middle East, or elsewhere in Asia, wherever it suits them."

SCHOOL DAYS

Schools Due to Set Record Enrollment

Oscar Ewing, federal security administrator, estimates that more Americans are expected to go to school this year than ever before. He figured the total at 33,121,000, compared with the 1950-51 peak of 32,703,000.

Ewing said the largest enrollment will be at the elementary level—from 23,686,000 last year to 24,468,000 this year. Secondary school enrollments are expected to increase from 6,142,000 last year to 6,168,000.

Due to the diminishing number of war veterans and to the drafting of college-age men, the enrollment in colleges and universities is expected to decline from 2,509,000 last year to 2,225,000. Private commercial schools are expected to have 175,000 students.

Meanwhile, the U.S. office of education reports close to $6.5 billion is being invested in a year's education for children now returning to public elementary and secondary schools. Most of this sum will go for current expenditures, such as salaries, school plant, maintenance, and transportation.

About $1.5 million will be spent on new buildings, furniture and other capital outlays. According to best estimates, about $20 will be spent for each pupil during the school term 1951-52. In 1950-51 term, teacher average salary was $2,980.

Holiday Highway Deaths Set New All-Time Record

Labor Day week-end accidents climbed to a new all-time record, with motorists dying at a rate of one about every 11 minutes the national safety council reported. In the first 72 hours of the holiday, 405 persons were killed. The previous record for the same days was 410 deaths in 1949. Officials said the total would be near 500 when the final holiday tabulation was completed.

(Ed. Note—While Drew Pearson is on a brief vacation, the Washington Merry-Go-Round is being written by several distinguished guest columnists, this one by Mr. Henry J. Anslinger, the Treasury Department's commissioner of Narcotics and the U.S. Representative on the United Nations Narcotic Commission.)

The Narcotic Peddler

THE narcotic peddler does not kidnap your children; he destroys them.

In extreme distress, parents brought their 16-year-old boy to my office. The lad quivered like the leaves of the aspen. He was suffering the dreaded withdrawal syndrome of drug addiction. He was one of those who used bravado to gain admission to the delinquent gang.

"Tell me where you get heroin," I said. "I will send you to the hospital for a cure."

We used an undercover agent to buy from the "pusher," who led us to the wholesale peddler. Then by progressive steps we graduated to one of the big traffickers who controlled a nation-wide syndicate. We trapped him like a rat. It took men, endless patience, long hours of vigilant surveillance, and infinite detailed corroboration. Now, where did he get his supply? From a country which signed the Geneva Convention of 1931 to limit the manufacture of narcotic drugs to medical needs, and then estimated its heroin consumption at ten times its actual medical needs.

We first picked up the international leakage when the Los Angeles county sheriff turned over to us a peddler with ten ounces of heroin. He got it from a ship's steward traveling between New York and Trieste. In Trieste, the Allied military authorities had inadvertently repealed narcotic laws. Diversion in Italy provided a ready source, with the connivance of the Mafia, wheels within wheels. The narcotic traffic intricately interlaced and skillfully interwoven.

Bureau Is Model

We have 195 agents; less than 2 per cent of the federal enforcement personnel. These men account for 10 per cent of the federal prison population, and their convictions average 95 per cent. Our force is about as large as that of the police department in a place the size of Tampa, Florida.

The whole world regards the U. S. Treasury Department's Bureau of Narcotics as a model. The work is dangerous, nerve racking, round-the-clock, yet there is something which makes crusaders of all who engage in it. They respond beyond the call of duty.

Our enemy is artfully cunning. The seller is satisfied, and the user won't tell. There are complaints as in crimes like robberies and kidnapping. Not one witness before the Senate Crime Committee would reveal his source of supply, through fear of consequences. We work completely undercover, and must come up with the corpus delicti (evidence) at the conclusion of the investigation.

We need a law which will put the peddler away longer than 16 months. The House of Representatives passed such a bill. It is pending in the Senate.

UN Seeks New Plan

Harold Normandale is an addict with over 100 arrests, including one for rape, murder, and many for narcotics. He peddled narcotics to take care of his own addiction. This type creates addicts. There are thousands like him. They have no sense of moral responsibility. They would, without hesitation, shoot heroin into the radiant veins of your 15-year-old daughter, and send her into prostitution to get money for the heroin they pump into her innocent body, yet such peddlers get off with suspended sentences.

The addict must be quarantined in the city hospitals. Baltimore has the distinction of being the first city to set aside 10 beds for the detoxification and rehabilitation of drug addicts.

Limitation on manufacture of narcotic drugs and control of international distribution have been accomplished through eight treaties. The United Nations is now working on a plan to limit opium production to world medical needs.

Traffic Grows

About 1947 we had the traffic under control. Prison wardens reported an absence of addicted criminals. The population of our Lexington Narcotic Hospital had fallen to such an extent that a move was under way to abolish the hospital. I urged all to stand by and to prepare. We could feel it coming here and abroad. Warnings went unheeded. In the past two years it tolled in like an engulfing surf.

'Ulcer' to Cominform

A peasant revolt has held up delivery of wheat to Russia and brought a battery of Soviet officials hurrying in to Bulgaria. About 15,000 have been added to the 30,000 already in concentration camps, while treason trials have shown that the Agrarian (Peasant) party, once the strongest in Bulgaria, now operates a powerful underground. The official communist newspaper called Bulgaria an "ulcer"

Tempt the Family with Well Seasoned Vegetables
(See Recipes Below)

Flavorful Vegetables

THESE ARE COUNTLESS ways to vary the flavor of vegetables and thus make them more interesting to the palate. But how often homemakers fall into a rut, serving the same vegetables year after year, always seasoned the same way, butter, salt and pepper!

Then comes a day when the family refuses to be tempted by vegetables any longer. They continue to appear on the menu, but most often are the only food left on the plate. Rather than have this waste, it's better to offer the family such well-seasoned vegetables they cannot refuse them.

Here's an old-fashioned way to prepare cabbage, simple but delicious:

Pennsylvania Dutch Pepper Cabbage

- (Serves 6)
- 1 small head cabbage (2 pounds)
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1 medium onion, gated
- 1/2 cup sugar
- 1/2 cup cream
- 1/2 cup cider vinegar
- 1 green or red pepper, chopped

Chop cabbage fine. Add salt, onion and sugar. Let stand 1 hour. Blend cream and vinegar. Pour over cabbage. Add pepper and mix well.

Sweet-Sour Beans

- (Makes 6 cups)
- 2 pounds green beans
- 1/2 tablespoons salt
- 3 tablespoons butter
- 1 medium onion, sliced
- 1/2 cup cider vinegar
- 1/2 cup water
- 1/2 cup sugar

Wash beans and slice diagonally 1/4-inch thick. Cook until tender in a small amount of water. While hot, add salt and butter. Cool. Add onion. Mix vinegar, water and sugar; pour over beans. Store in covered jar in refrigerator. These beans will keep for weeks.

*Pickled Eggs and Beets

- (Serves 6-8)
- 1/2 cup distilled white vinegar
- 1/2 cup juice from canned or cooked beets
- 1/2 cup water
- 1 tablespoon mixed "hole" spices
- 2 tablespoons sugar
- 2 cups whole beets
- 6 hard-cooked eggs

Combine vinegar, beet juice, water, spices and sugar. Let boil for 2 minutes. Strain and cool. Pour over cold beets and hard-cooked eggs. Stir occasionally so that eggs will color evenly. Allow to stand in refrigerator for several hours before serving.

Tomatoes with Spinach

- (Serves 6-8)
- 8 medium tomatoes
- 1/2 cup thick cream sauce
- 2 tablespoons bread crumbs
- 2 cups cooked spinach
- 2 tablespoons grated cheese
- 1/2 teaspoon butter
- 1/2 teaspoon basil, if desired

Cut off a thin slice from each tomato, hollow out part of center.

LYNN SAYS:

Use your Leftovers in Sauces, Dressings
Wise cooks never throw away even small amounts of food like a tablespoon or two, left in a bottle or a jar. Use them with white sauce or mayonnaise to dress up other foods.

Tartar dressing for fish is easily made from a tablespoon of capers, another of copped parsley, 2 tablespoons of chopped olives and 2 tablespoons of pickle relish added to 1 cup of mayonnaise.

Have two extra egg yolks after making some frosting? Beat them slightly and pour over them a cup of medium white sauce, then add 2 tablespoons each of butter and lemon juice. Beat thoroughly and you have a mock hollandaise for fish or vegetables.

Cheese sauce goes well with vegetables. Add two to four ounces to a cup of medium white sauce, and heat until cheese melts. Add mustard and paprika for flavor.

An Indian dressing is easily made by adding 1/4 cup of chopped chowchow pickle to 1 cup of mayonnaise.

LYNN CHAMBERS' MENU

- Meat Loaf frosted with Mashed Potatoes
- *Peas in Squash Nests
- *Pickled Eggs and Beets
- Apple-Grape Salad
- Wheat Bread Beverage
- Lemon Meringue Pie
- *Recipe Given

Meat loaf, 2 1/2 cups; Mashed potatoes, 2 cups; Peas in Squash Nests, 2 cups; Pickled Eggs and Beets, 1/2 cup; Apple-Grape Salad, 1/2 cup; Wheat Bread Beverage, 1/2 cup; Lemon Meringue Pie, 1/2 cup.

Eggplant Souffle

- (Serves 6-8)
- 2 tablespoons butter
- 2 tablespoons flour
- 1 cup milk
- 1/2 cup gated cheese
- 1/2 teaspoon marjoram
- 1 large or 2 small eggplants
- 2 teaspoons minced onion
- 2 eggs

Salt and pepper to taste.

Peel, dice and cook eggplant in boiling water until tender. Drain and mash. Cook the minced onion in butter until nearly tender. Add flour and blend, add milk and cook for about 4 minutes or until thickened. Add eggplant, cheese and beaten yolks; stir thoroughly. Season lightly. If desired, this mixture may be refrigerated for 6 hours, to ease preparation. Then, season lightly and fold in beaten egg whites. Place lightly in ungreased baking dish and bake in a moderate (375° F.) oven for 40 to 50 minutes.

*Peas in Squash Nests

- (Serves 4)
- 2 acorn squash, halved and baked
- 1 package quick-frozen peas
- 1/2 cup pea liquid
- 3 tablespoons butter
- 2 teaspoons flour
- 1 chicken bouillon cube
- 1/4 teaspoon lemon juice
- 1 tablespoon chopped chives

Before you bake squash, place 1 teaspoon butter and 2 teaspoons brown sugar in each squash half. Sprinkle with salt and pepper.

Cook the quick-frozen peas as directed on package. Drain, reserving 1/2 cup liquid. Melt butter in saucepan. Add flour and blend. Add pea liquid and bouillon cube. Cook and stir until thickened. Add lemon juice, chives and cooked peas. Work brown sugar and butter mixture into squash, push with fork. Arrange squash halves on platter and fill centers with peas. Serve with bacon curls.

Red Cabbage

- (Serves 4-6)
- 1 red cabbage
- 4 tart apples, pared and sliced
- 1/2 cup brown sugar
- 1/4 cup basil-vinegar

Shred cabbage very fine and place in heavy kettle with all remaining ingredients. Cover tightly and simmer for 1 1/2 hours. Add 1/2 cup water and continue to cook slowly for 1/4 hour longer.

Celery dressing makes use of the last of the celery stalk. Add 1/4 cup of finely chopped celery and 1 tablespoon of chopped green pepper to one cup of mayonnaise.

To one cup of white sauce, medium, may be added 1/2 cup of any of the following for a delicious sauce: mushrooms, lobster or shrimp.

Thousand Island uses the last 1/4 cup of chili sauce in your bottle with a tablespoon each of chopped green pepper and chopped stuffed olives in 1 cup of mayonnaise.

Soubise sauce is made by rubbing 4 boiled onions and 2 sprigs of parsley through a sieve. Combine with one cup of medium white sauce.

Olives add savor to sauce. Chop 1/4 cup of stuffed or ripe olives and add to one cup of medium white sauce. Serve with meat, fish or vegetables.

Crust salads are excellent with fruit dressing made with one cup of mayonnaise to which you add one tablespoon of each of these: chopped currants, chopped raisins and chopped nuts.

U.S.S.R. EXPLAINS AGAIN

RUSSIA still refuses to return any of the 670 ships loaned to it by Uncle Sam during the last world war or to make any fair cash settlement, it is announced. There probably is a note in preparation which will say:

"The U.S.S.R., annoyed again by the matter, wishes to inform the Government of the United States that, as is well known, by the repeated renewal of inquiries about these ships it is pursuing a course typical of the war-mongering nations. The U.S.S.R., on the contrary, always a leader in the movement for peace, strives for accord by dropping the subject. Even assuming for the sake of argument (and the U.S.S.R. is always happy to assume anything for it) that Russia has 670 vessels lent to it by the United States, could any nation other than an aggressive trouble-maker keep bringing up the matter?"

"The U.S.S.R., in keeping with its well-known policy of striving for better understanding, desires to drop the subject. The simple truth, as is well known to all peace-loving nations, is that these 670 ships constitute an American W.A.R. FLEET. At the very moment they are being employed by the American Government as a means of stirring up another war. The claim is made that these ships are in Russian hands. This is perhaps true, but who is causing a disturbance by means of them? Who is using them to stir up aggressive feelings? The American Government, by repeatedly mentioning these vessels as having been loaned to Russia and asking for their return, obviously arouses bad feeling, a course always adhered to by the cannibalistic, power-grabbing nations of the imperialistic bloc."

"Not content with asking the return of a loan which is always apt to stir up ill will, the United States makes the alternative suggestion of a small cash settlement. It must be well aware that the mention of money in settlement of a loan can always lead to an argument and is never conducive to peace and happiness. It is within the power of the United States to remove all cause of unfriendly feelings by dropping the issue and ceasing to point to the terms under which the 670 ships were sent to the U.S.S.R. in her hour of need."

"Washington, by the use of two little words, can bring the U.S.S.R. and the United States closer together. These words are 'Forget it.' But the grasping agents of Wall Street prefer the eight words 'Let's be honest and abide by a contract.'"

"These eight words are characteristic of the bourgeois mind. The U.S.S.R. desires to emphasize that these 670 ships are in a sense being used in an attack on Russia. They could well be seized and put on trial immediately as instruments in a plot by the bloodthirsty forces of American militancy to create an issue by which peace and brotherly love can be further deferred. As is well known by all countries interested in world accord, all ships which were sent to Russia by the United States were clearly sent as Christmas gifts and bundles for Russians. The U.S.S.R. has photographs to prove that these vessels arrived decked in holly, that red ribbons flew from the masts and that two cruisers were plainly labeled 'Candy Canes.' Furthermore, the whole world remembers that the great need was for a knockout wallop and that America repeatedly pledged itself to 'add all we can to the Russian sock.' This sentence itself disposes of any denial the 670 ships were not a Christmas present. Trusting the U.S.A. will not bring the matter up again, we remain, very truly yours, etc., etc."

Traffic Survey in City of Hartford Completed

Madison, Wis.—The results of a 24-hour traffic count made during November, 1950 in the city of Hartford have just been published, according to Edward J. Konkel, Madison, executive secretary of the Wisconsin Good Roads association.

This report shows that a total of 5,206 vehicles passed on North Main street north of East and West Sumner streets on a 24-hour period week-day during the period of traffic count. Other heavily traveled routes were North Main street north of East Wisconsin street, showing a count of 4,527 vehicles; North Main street south of Sumner street, showing a count of 4,357 vehicles and East Sumner street east of North Main street, showing a count of 4,226 vehicles; while State Trunk Highway 40 east of South Michigan street showed a count of 2,518 vehicles.

The traffic counts indicate that there has been a continual increase in traffic on our streets and highways, and more particularly in recent years, in the state of Wisconsin there has been 192% increase in traffic during July, 1951 over the same month in 1941, and a 7.8% increase in July, 1951 over July, 1950, Konkel said.

In the state of Wisconsin there were 1,273,042 vehicles registered on June 30, 1950, of which 15,016 were registered from Washington county. These include the following:

Automobiles, 10,983; trucks, 3,529; trailers, 142; buses, 65; motorcycles, 125; municipally owned, 182.

While there are over 49 million vehicles registered in the United States at the present time, Dr. Sumner H. Slichter, noted Harvard university economist, predicts that there will be 70 million vehicles registered in the United States by 1960. This means that we will have to provide better highways, safer highways and more highways to accommodate present and future traffic in order to eliminate congestion, delays and accidents.

Konkel suggested that the citizens of Washington county take a greater interest in the highway problems of their county and state.
