Award Wesenberg U.W. Scholarship

Richard L. Wesenberg, Kewaskum, is among the 1,367 undergraduate and professional school students in the University of Wisconsin this year who are receiving university scholarships and awards as rewards for outstanding merit and to aid them in efforts to continue their education.

The scholarships and awards have an average cash value of $189. They are made to students by the university on the basis of the students' good work in studies, their other leadership accomplishments, and need.

Funds for many of the scholarships and awards come from gifts and grants given to the university by individuals, groups, or organizations, as "living memorials" and an investment in youth, to aid the educational efforts of promising young men and women. Included among them are many "living memorial" scholarship funds such as the Kemper K. Knapp, the David Schreiner, and the Allan Shafer Jr., memorials, and scholarship funds established in honor of beloved UW faculty members, such as the Frank O. Holt and the Scott M. Funds Needed By Heart Association for Clinics, Research & Education

Heart research, according to the Wisconsin Heart association, is drawing power from rapid advance of science as a whole. Most recently it has been aided by nuclear physics. This aid came in connection with digitalis, a drug derived from the leaves of the foxglove plant.

It was in 1775 that an English physician, William Withering, found digitalis to be the active ingredient in a potion brewed by an herb woman. She used the potion for treatment of dropsy, a disorder frequently resulting from heart failure.

Purified forms of the drug are still the most useful means available for strengthening of those hearts whose capacity to pump blood has been seriously diminished. Yet today, almost 200 years after Withering's discovery, the method by which the drug gives new force to the heart beat is still unknown.

However, pharmacologists (doctors who study the effect of drugs on the body) are currently growing foxglove plants in an atmosphere charged with radioactive carbon dioxide. The radioactive carbon comes from the Oak Ridge atomic pile. When the leaves are harvested and dried it is possible to obtain from them a digitalis which throws off rays; rays that can be detected with a geiger counter.

Extremely small amounts of the drug are next injected into the tissues of experimental animals and followed as it moves through the body. By this tracking of the fate of digitalis in the animal's body, scientists hope among other things, to improve the drugs curing power through the development of more effective mixtures than are now available.

The heart scientists are also using radioactive forms of many other elements in their research, among them iron, sulphur, mercury, sodium and potassium. Through the use of these tracer materials the scientist has been able to investigate changes in the blood stream and cells that formerly were completely beyond his power of observation.

However, says the Wisconsin Heart association, considering that heart disease was blamed for 52 per cent of all Wisconsin deaths last year, it is evident that much work is left to be done.

The Heart association obtains necessary funds for continued heart research, as well as physical and public education, through contributions to the annual Heart Fund drive in February. Part of the money received also goes for community service programs, such as the rheumatic fever clinics.

Residents of Kewaskum and nearby received appeal letters from R. G. Edwards, M. D. who is letter appeal chairman for this area.

Indians Win Undisputed Tri-County Championship

New Champs Drub Hustisford Team in Final Game, 74-37

Coach Ernie Mitchell's Kewaskum Indians are the new champions of the Valley Tri-County conference, succeeding Brandon. They finished the season with a 12 and 2 record, two games ahead of Campbellsport, which lost to Brandon Friday night.

The Indians made it official here Friday night when they ran wild over Hustisford by a 74-37 score, just double of the losers' total. This was the concluding game of the season and this week the Tri-County teams are busy in district tournament play.

This is a big year for Kewaskum High school athletic teams. They also won the undisputed Tri-County football championship last fall. The Indians had the league's top scorer in basketball in Center Tom Peterson. The Indians had the best offensive record in the circuit, scoring a total of 847 points in 14 games, an average of 60.7 per game. The Bells were second with 886 points. The Indians had the best defensive record, allowing their opponents only 672 points, an average of 48 per game. The Bells were also second on defense, allowing 729 points, 57 more than Kewaskum.

In the lopsided win over the Hustisford Hilltoppers Kewaskum's champions offered a well-balanced scoring attack with Bob Stenman setting the pace with 18 points. Curtis Yahr had 15 and Peterson followed with 14 tallies. Guard Schlicht was the main scorer for Hustisford with 15 points.

The Indians outpointed their opponents in every quarter by sizable margins of 17-9, 20-12, 24-8 and 13-8. The halftime score was 37-21 and substitutes saw much action in the second half as Coach Mitchell cleared the bench to keep the score down.

Indians Defeat Bells Again, 61-48, in Opener Of District Tournament

PLAY LOMIRA FOR SUB-DISTRICT CHAMPIONSHIP ON THURSDAY; WINNER TO GO TO WINNECONNE

The Kewaskum High school Indians and Lomira met for the sub-district tournament title at the Campbellsport gym Thursday night as the result of opening state tournament action at that site Tuesday night.

The Indians, champions of the Valley Tri-County conference, defeated Campbellsport for the third time this season in the opening contest of the tournament Tuesday evening. They won the tilt, the important one of the night, by a comfortable 61-48 margin. In the second game Lomira bested Oakfield, 63-51, after being given much trouble by the last place Oaks. A howling capacity crowd saw the games.

As a result of Tuesday's contests, the losers, Oakfield and Campbellsport met for tourney consolation honors Thursday night at 7:15 p. m. The winners, Kewaskum and Lomira, battled for sub-district championship laurels at 8:15 p. m. The winner of this game will travel to Winneconne Saturday night to compete for district honors against the winner in that sub-district meet. The Indians were favored over the Lions considering that they defeated them twice during the regular season.

Sub-district action at Winneconne Tuesday saw Hortonville trounce North Fond du Lac by a decisive 80-43 margin and Winneconne downed Rosendale by a 76-69 score. Thus either Hortonville or Winneconne, depending on Thursday's winner, will meet Kewaskum or Lomira for the district championship Saturday night.

The Indians were ahead of Campbellsport all through their game and outscored the Bells in every period but the last. Coach Mitchell's boys, playing a fine game, built up a 16-18 lead at the quarter and increased it to 31-21 at half-time. They outscored the Bells again in the third stanza to go ahead by 16 points, 45-29, as the third stanza ended. Although the Bells gave them a bit of trouble with their pressing style of play in the last quarter the Indians coasted to win.

Center Tom Peterson was tops for the winners with 20 points. Dave Mertzig was close behind him with 16. Mitchell used only five players with Wierman scoring 10 points, Stenman 9 and Yahr 6. Center Bob Smith led the Bells with 17 tallies and Vande Zande added 15.

NATIONAL FFA WEEK DISPLAY, DISTRICT CONTEST HERE

National FFA Week comes every year during the week of the anniversary of the birthday of George Washington. Although usually considered first as a great general, our first president, and an engineer, George Washington's first love was the farm he called Mount Vernon.

There he was one of the first in the nation to practice contour planting, crop rotations, and other soil conserving methods. Probably no other man in America of his day spent more time seeking new agricultural information, either by experimentation on his own farm or by correspondence with agricultural scientists in England.

The title of America's first "Scientific Farmer" might be applied to Washington. It was more than a century after his death that many of the sound agricultural practices he advocated found general practice.

It is out of deep respect and admiration for George Washington, the farmer in whose progressive ways they seek to follow, that Future Farmers annually observe their National FFA Week at the time of his birthday. The Future Farmers of Kewaskum have again put up a window display to observe National FFA Week. The display this year is at the Stellflug Meat Market.

In other FFA news, the Kewaskum chapter will be host for the district FFA speaking contest Monday afternoon, Feb. 27. One speaker from each of the following chapters will participate: Plymouth, Mayville, Horicon, Campbellsport, and Kewaskum.

Next week on Thursday the adult farmer group at the high school will hear K. Wm. Haebig speak about farm law. This will be the last meeting of the season for this group. The Washington school group will complete its classes for the year on Tuesday night.

TAVERN LEAGUE PLANS FOR BOWLING TOURNEY

The Washington County Tavern league met at the Norman Gehl tavern, Hartford, last Monday afternoon at 2 p. m.

According to Gertrude Minch, secretary, the main topic was the bowling tournament which will be held in April and May. Team events will be held at La Buwi's alleys and the singles and doubles at Dave's alleys.

Five delegates were named to go to the spring conference at Wausau on March 13 and 14, namely, President L. Grieveldinger, Treasurer E. Baeretschy, Secretary G. Minch, Robert McComb and E. La Buwi.

Due to the spring conference being held on these dates, the regular meeting of the Washington County

Tavern league will be held a week later, on Monday, March 19, at 8 p. m., at Bert Theon's tavern, Hartford.

Wisconsin ranks second in the nation in the number of schools on the U. S. Department of Agriculture Special Milk Program. The state has almost 3,700 schools on the program, second only to California's slightly over 4,000.

HELP EISENHOWER

pass the new farm program

You will benefit this year if Congress acts before spring planting time

"Although agriculture is our basic industry, farm families find their prices and incomes depressed amid the nation's greatest prosperity. "... An oversupply of commodities drives down prices as mounting costs force up from below, generating a severe price-cost squeeze. "... Remedies are needed now, and it is up to the administration and the Congress to provide them swiftly. As we seek to go forward, we must not go back to old programs that have failed utterly to protect farm families.

"... I recommend, therefore, the following nine-point program. I urge the Congress to pass this program with maximum speed, for delay can only aggravate and multiply the difficulties already sorely harassing millions of our rural people."

Dwight D. Eisenhower

From the President's special farm message to Congress.

The Eisenhower-Republican 9-Point Farm Program

- A VOLUNTARY, 2-POINT SOIL BANK to take 40 to 45 million acres out of production of your problem crops, get rid of the surplus, raise prices.
An Acreage Reserve which uses the surplus to reduce the surplus.
A Conservation Reserve to prevent future surpluses and to build back soil for future needs.
- LAWS TO PERMIT FASTER SURPLUS DISPOSAL especially in foreign markets. Selling, not storage, is the answer.
- STRENGTHEN COMMODITY PROGRAMS on wheat, corn, dairy products, soybeans, cotton and rice. Ease production controls wherever possible.
- PROTECT FAMILY-TYPE FARMS by limiting the size of price support loans made to large corporate-type farms.
- EXPAND RURAL DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM to help low-income farm families live better, earn more.
- PUSH FORWARD THE GREAT PLAINS PROGRAM to stabilize income in drought-stricken areas, and to prevent another dust bowl.
- INCREASE FARM RESEARCH APPROPRIATION to find new uses and new markets for farm crops, lower production costs and increase farm profits.
- ASSURE ADEQUATE CREDIT TO FARMERS to meet capital needs of present farmers, help young farmers get started, tide farmers over emergencies.
- REFUND GASOLINE TAX TO FARMERS on motor fuel used in farming operations.

Answers to some of your questions

- Q: Why will it work?
A: Because this is a program for farmers by farmers. We asked for, and got, sound advice from hundreds of farm leaders and thousands of farmers everywhere. This program gets at the root of the problem on a practical, non-political basis. It contains no double-talk or bureaucratic theories. It is the most business-like, down-to-earth approach to the business of farming and marketing of farm products this country has ever had.
- Q: Why is it a more practical program than others that have been offered?
A: Because it is especially tailored to today's peacetime conditions. It hits right at the problem of price-depressing surpluses built up because of wartime policies too long continued. These surpluses hang over your farm like a hidden mortgage.
- Q: Will all farmers benefit?
A: This program will directly benefit all farmers everywhere: producers of food grains, feed grains, oilseed and fiber crops, dairymen and livestock producers. It recognizes the special problems of regional groups and producers of certain crops.
- Q: Will this program help strengthen farm prices?
A: Yes. The present mountain of surplus, and the threat of future surplus, now holds down prices. Every farmer realizes that "a government warehouse is not a market." As surpluses are used up prices will inevitably rise. (Marketing people have estimated that net farm income would have been $2-billion higher in 1955 if it were not for the surpluses.)
- Q: How much will it help?
A: Hundreds of millions of dollars in payments to farmers can be made this year under the Soil Bank plan alone if passage is not delayed. This is in addition to its effect in strengthening farm prices. Farmers would also get $60,000,000 a year tax refund on gasoline used in their farming operations.
- Q: How big is the surplus?
A: The government now holds an $8-billion stock of farm products. We can't shut our eyes to it, throw it into the ocean or plow it under. It costs about a million dollars a day for storage and carrying charges alone.
- Q: Why do surpluses drive down livestock prices as well as grain prices?
A: Continued overproduction of grains not only clogs the grain markets but forces continued expansion in an already over-expanded livestock production. Livestock prices as well as grain prices would be higher today if it were not for the surplus.
- Q: Why is the new Soil Bank Plan the most sensible approach to the surplus problem?
A: It will get rid of the surplus and prevent the shift of another farmer's problem crops to your problem crops.
- Q: How does the Soil Bank "Acreage Reserve" use the surplus to reduce the surplus?
A: In exchange for placing a portion of their allotted crop acres in the Soil Bank (removing them from production entirely for an agreed period), farmers will receive certificates. These certificates will be good for cash at the bank or for commodities drawn from surplus government stocks. In this way farmers will be using up the surplus instead of adding to it. This part of the program applies to corn, wheat, cotton and rice.
- Q: How will the Soil Bank "Conservation Reserve" keep future surpluses from building up?
A: It will take 25 million acres out of all crop and livestock production for several years. This land will be put into grass, trees or water storage. It is voluntary and provides generous incentives for wide-spread participation. It, too, will help livestock producers as well as grain producers since it will reduce the surplus of feed grains that put more and more people into the livestock business.
- Q: Are these programs entirely voluntary?
A: Yes. President Eisenhower and the Republican Party believe it is a basic right of every farmer to be free to plan his own farm program and make the best use of his land that he knows how. The well-being of all Americans, as well as the future prosperity of farmers themselves, depends on maintaining productivity of our soil resources. Farmers who participate will no longer feel that they are forced to farm every acre to the limit, producing crops that aren't needed, in order to keep their income up.
- Q: How do I benefit if I put some of my acres in the Soil Bank?
A: You get an opportunity to restore the fertility of your soil and at the same time you are assured of an income from the land you retire. As surpluses are reduced, prices will increase on crops you do produce.
- Q: Why will Soil Bank participation help insure my income?
A: It will strengthen your cash position by giving you a guarantee—in effect, income insurance. The acres you take out of production will provide income regardless of drought, flood or other disaster.
- Q: How will the Soil Bank help livestock producers?
A: With less feed grains being produced, fewer farmers will feel that they have to raise more livestock to "piece out" their income due to surplus-depressed prices of grain. Participants in the Soil Bank plan will sign an agreement not to graze their diverted acres.
- Q: When does it start?
A: Just as soon as the necessary legislation can be enacted. The President has urged all possible speed so farmers can plan their plantings and benefit fully during the present crop year. Your Republican members of Congress are behind the President. They believe the more you know about the program, the more you can help. You can help by writing members of Congress urging immediate action.

Chevs Upset By West Bend in Finale; Tie for 2nd Half Title

Playoff on Sunday With Mayville 5 At Campbellsport

The Kewaskum Chevrolets, first half champions in the Land of Lakes league, who were rolling along without a defeat toward the second half title, ran into a snag when they were upset by West Bend in the final game of the season here Sunday night, 83 to 75.

After winning six in a row in the second half, the unexpected defeat by the Lithias dropped the Chevs into a tie for first place with Mayville, which also finished with six wins and one loss. Mayville, which lost their only game in this half to Kewaskum by one point, beat Hartford in the finale over the week end. West Bend played Santa Claus to Mayville by tipping the Chevs and handing them a gift tie for the crown.

With the first half championship already tucked away, a victory Sunday would have given the Chevrolets the second half title and undisputed grand crown in the league. But they lost and so a one-game playoff with Mayville will be necessitated. This game will be played on Sunday night, Feb. 26, at 8 p. m. on a neutral floor at Campbellsport. Should Kewaskum win this playoff they will still cop the undisputed championship. But if they lose, Mayville will take the second half title and then another three-game series will have to be played for the grand championship.

The Chevs completed their season with an overall record of 12 and 2, losing one contest in each half.

The Lithias were doing everything right here Sunday and played probably their top game of the year. The Chevs were doing the opposite, and didn't look like the same team that has been rolling over opponents all season. A sound zone defense very effectively operated by West Bend kept the Chevs rushed and off-balance. John Tessar, usually unstoppable under the basket, and players like Meisenheimer, Hanrahan, Bilgo and Krueger, all set shot artists, were kept in check most of the time. Tessar, who scored 16 points in the first half, was held scoreless in the second half as the zone defense tightened around him. However, he fouled out in the last period which possibly kept him from scoring.

Manager Jerry "Red" Stautz of the Lithias, former Kewaskum athlete, had his players keyed up for this game and they were determined to win. They showed a well balanced scoring attack but defense was the best asset. Kenny Frank was best scorer for the winners with 15 points. Two players, Meyer and Tennes, scored 14, Rau and Holfeltz 10 each, and Kieckhafer and Haggert 7 apiece. Hanrahan took top honors for the evening with 19 points for the Chevs. Tessar's 16 and 12 each by Krueger and Ellie Ramthun were next in line.

The Lithias led all through the tilt and Kewaskum just couldn't get up enough steam to close the gap. The first quarter count was 23-18, halftime 51-45, and at the third period's end 67-56. West Bend bested the Chevs on field goals, 33 to 25, but Kewaskum outdid them from the free throw line, 25 to 17.

RIVERS FIVE LOSES BY ONE POINT TO WEST BEND, 71-70

The luckless Kewaskum Rivers team lost another heartbreaker in the first game here Sunday when they were nosed out by the West Bend Home Lumbers by one point, 71-70. The local cagers finished the season in last place with seven straight setbacks but most of the defeats were by close margins.

Manager George Minz of West

Bend pulled the win out of the fire with a basket in the last three seconds to make it a real tough one to lose for Kewaskum. The visitors were behind by 10 points going into the final quarter but rallied for 24 points to come from behind and win.

Seefeldt of the losers was the high scorer with 28 points and St. Johnson led the Home Lumbers with 24.

Hustisford, Thiensville and Fillmore all ended the second half race in a tie for first place with 6 and 1 records. They must now enter a playoff series to determine the champ. Hustisford won the first half crown.
