Village Favors Daylight Saving Time By 2 to 1 Margin to Follow State Trend; 413 Votes Here

Incumbent Haebig Beats Gnacinski In Justice Race

RALPH REMMEL RECEIVES 137 WRITE-IN VOTES FOR ASSESSOR OFFICE

Kewaskum voters followed the trend throughout the county and state by flocking to the polls in the spring election Tuesday and decisively approving a referendum providing for daylight saving time in the state this summer.

A total of 413 votes were cast in the village, a very large number for a spring election in which there was little opposition on the ballots. The DST issue was responsible for bringing out the voters. Local voters approved daylight saving time by 272 votes to 138, a margin of 2 to 1.

Spurred on by the DST referendum, voters in Washington county turned out in record numbers for the election and cast a total of 12,049 ballots for what was believed to be an all time high for a spring election. The county as a whole voted in favor of the measure by a margin of 6,147 for and 5,712 against. In 1947, when it was last voted on, DST was beaten 4,205 to 2,649 in the county. All cities and villages in the county favored the time change but 10 of the 13 townships opposed the switch. The only townships favoring it were German-town, Richfield and West Bend.

With all but 74 of the state's 3,355 precincts reported Thursday, daylight saving time won by a margin of about 91,000 votes. There were 560,668 yes votes and 468,911 noes. DST will become effective on Apr. 28 and continue until Sept. 29. In the future daylight saving time goes in automatically every summer.

In the town of Kewaskum 177 votes were cast, also an exceptionally large number. Township voters were against daylight saving time by a margin of nearly 4 to 1. There were only 37 yes votes and 139 noes.

Harry Sheski, county superintendent of schools, who was unopposed for re-election, polled a total of 6,935 votes throughout the county. George R. Currie, candidate for supreme court who also was unopposed, tallied 8,452 votes in the county. George E. Watson, state superintendent of schools who retained his post by defeating William T. Sullivan, also carried Washington county, polling 5,625 votes against 4,885 for Sullivan.

In the only opposition on the village ballot incumbent justice of the peace for two years, K. William Haebig, defeated E. "Mike" Gnacinski by a 2 to 1 margin, 259 to 129. Ralph Remmel received 137 votes as a write-in candidate for the assessor's office for which there was no candidate on the ballot as a result of the resignation of the incumbent assessor, Ed Bartelt. Other village officers were unopposed for re-election.

Loss Estimated At $30,000 in Night Time Blaze

BAR, DANCE HALL AND LIVING ROOMS BURN; LOCAL FIREMEN SAVE OTHER BUILDINGS

An early morning fire discovered at approximately 1:30 a. m. on Tuesday at the Bar-N Ranch northeast of Kewaskum completely destroyed the clubhouse on the grounds at an estimated loss of about $30,000.

Approximately 30 by 50 feet in size, the clubhouse contained a bar room, dance hall, living quarters, basement and partial second story. The entire structure, including furniture, fixtures and stock, was demolished by the flames. All that was left standing was a chimney and one small section of an outer cement block wall.

The Bar-N Ranch, located about seven miles from Kewaskum on Hwy. GGG near the entrance to Mauthe lake in the Kettle Moraine state forest, is a popular recreation and vacation spot. It was well known for summer dances and parties, for its riding horses and other sports and recreation facilities.

The fire was discovered by George Horne, R. 2, Campbellsport, a passing motorist, who was returning from work on a factory night shift. The roof of the clubhouse was enveloped in flames when Horne noticed the blaze. He notified his son, Harlan, who is a part time worker at the ranch. They awakened Walter Timmerman, who lives on the grounds, and the Kewaskum fire department was called.

The firemen devoted their efforts to keeping the flames from spreading to neighboring buildings. The clubhouse was too far gone to make any attempt to save it. A new building under construction alongside the clubhouse was damaged and other nearby buildings were scorched but were saved by the firemen. Part of the south wall of the building under construction burned. Firemen remained at the scene nearly three hours.

The ranch, normally closed during the week in the winter months, is open only on week ends at present. It is operated by Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wyach, who purchased it from local businessmen. At the time of the fire the Wyachs were in Milwaukee, where they work during the week in winter.

The structure was a log building which will be hard to replace at present building costs. It was reported that the clubhouse may be rebuilt.

Cause of the fire was undetermined. Sheriff George J. Lemieux of Fond du Lac county revealed this week that an investigation of the blaze is underway. The loss was partially covered by insurance.

SPORTSMEN'S CLUB TO MEET THURSDAY

The Kettle Moraine Sportsmen's Association, Inc. of Kewaskum will meet next Thursday night, Apr. 11, at Heisler's tavern. Members are asked to attend.

Lakes Baseball League Expanded to 14 Teams, Set 19-Game Schedule

NORTHERN DIVISION TO OPEN PLAY SUNDAY, MAY 5; NO SPLIT SEASON

At a league meeting held at Feet's Inn, West Bend, a 19-game schedule with no first and second half split season, was established for the 1957 Land o' Lakes northern division baseball league. Play will open on Sunday, May 5.

The division has been expanded to include 14 teams and is being divided into two sections for scheduling purposes only. Thirteen teams have already entered the loop while the fourteenth, Grafton, is still holding out to see if it can organize a team, according to Carl Kuss, league director.

One section will include West Bend, the defending champion, Sheboygan, Kingsbury, Plymouth, Kewaskum, Campbellsport, Random Lake and Belgium. The other section will consist of Germantown, Jackson, Port Washington, Saukville, Mequon, Cedarburg and probably Grafton.

The season should be completed on Aug. 25. Labor Day week end would be used for playoff tilts if needed. Under the scheduling system approved a team is carded to play each club in its section twice and each team in the other section once. All teams would fall under the same league standings, however.

Managers named to date include Kenny Frank, West Bend; Harry Jensen, Germantown; Jake Mueller, Saukville; Ralph Harth, Jackson; Al Wegner, Sheboygan Kingsbury; Clyde Welland, Port Washington.

The league will remain a "home talent" circuit built primarily upon players living in each community, 10 mile limit for towns and villages and 1-mile radius for cities. High school players can compete in the league with WIAA approval providing their regular high school baseball season is completed. Many of the games will be night contests.

The clinics are again conducted by local physicians with the assistance of volunteer nurse and lay help. A charge of 50c is made for each injection.

The schedule for the clinics follows:

- Jackson—Public school, Apr. 2, 9:30 to 10:30 a. m.
  - Hartford—City hall, Apr. 3, 1:00 to 2:00 p. m.
  - Richfield—Fire hall, Apr. 4, 1:00 to 2:00 p. m.

Weeds may do a considerable part of their damage just after crop plants emerge from the ground. At least that's the story with carrots, beets and onions, say University of Wisconsin weed control specialists.

Around The Town

The old saying that it always rains or snows on election day didn't hold true this time. Tuesday was a bright, sunny day although on the cool side for April 2.

Guess our crusade for daylight saving time helped a little bit judging from the results in the village election. Voters cast their ballots in favor of DST by a surprising 272 to 138 margin here, or 2 to 1. Such a large margin wasn't expected in a small, rural town such as this. Most newspapers, radio and television stations throughout the state worked to get daylight saving time through and the outcome of the election proved the power of advertising.

At least none of the firemen were in the doghouse for "hanging out" at the Bar-N Ranch until four o'clock in the morning Tuesday.

We're going to have to do something about our advertising—it's bringing too good results for the price we are charging. A woman who ran a "for rent" want ad recently called up a couple of days later and said: "For gosh sakes take my ad out of the paper, they're driving me half crazy over the phone and at the door trying to rent the place." Another fellow ran a "for sale" ad on some bicycles and called to say: Don't run my ad anymore, I'm all sold out." Still another out-of-town advertiser running a classified on "cesspool cleaning" dropped in to pay up and ordered us to keep on running the ad because he said he got more results from our paper than any other one in the surrounding area. What beautiful music to our ears!

With Lent and all these noodle dishes our cook is having a lot of trouble lately with backlashes in her self-winding spaghetti!

Ideas and contributions for this column are always welcome and one lady asked us to make mention of why the village cleaned the streets last week at the same time that the dump trucks hauling ground from the Fond du Lac ave. highway improvement project to the hollow at the north end of the park were spilling it on the streets as fast as they were cleaned.

The Milwaukee Journal ran quite a feature article Sunday on the village of Campbellsport's chief of police, Eldon Spradau, picture and all. Besides being police chief this "jack of all trades" holds the positions of village treasurer, village clerk, village assessor, clerk and treasurer of the water department, secretary of the water department and secretary of the fire department. Wonder how he does it?

Who rates what for performance and smoother riding in the low-priced three? Chevrolet has laid the answer and the proof on the line!

First, Chevrolet won the Auto Decathlon over every car in its field, and over the higher priced cars that were tested, too. This rugged ten-way test (right, below) showed Chevrolet was the champ in handling ease, braking, acceleration, passing ability, smoothness of ride and other driving qualities you want in a car.

Then, Chevy won the Pure Oil Performance Trophy at Daytona (left, below) as "best performing U. S. automobile."

It's quite a feeling to know that you are driving a car that performs so well, responds so beautifully and is so finely built. You feel proud, of course. But you also enjoy a surer, smoother, steadier way of going, a keen cat-quick response of power, and the easiest handling you've ever experienced behind a wheel. Just try this Chevrolet (V8 or Six) and see!

Chevy showed it's still the champ... at Daytona...and in the Decathlon!

State Historymobile to Visit Kewaskum June 19

History hit the highways on April 2 as the famed HISTORYMOBILE of the State Historical society of Wisconsin rolled out on its fourth annual tour of the state, carrying a new exhibit, "Mechanizing the Farm."

Official opening ceremonies were held at the State Capitol building Tuesday, April 2, at 4:30 p. m. Governor Vernon Thomson presided and the public was invited to attend.

The Historymobile schedule includes two visits to Washington county, West Bend and Kewaskum. It will be in Kewaskum on Wednesday, June 19, from 10 a. m. to 6 p. m.

This year's exhibit tells the story of a century of agriculture in Wisconsin, adding another important chapter to previous HISTORYMOBILE exhibits on the signers of the Declaration of Independence, historic sites in Wisconsin, the story of transportation and last year's colorful display on the circus in Wisconsin.

"Mechanizing the Farm" is a dramatic story of advances on the Wisconsin farm frontier: the changing patterns of rural life from grain cradle, scythe and flail to the twentieth century's modern combine, tractor and harvester. The exhibit captures many vital chapters in state farm history—the era when Wisconsin led the nation in wheat production, the brief prosperity of the "Hops Craze," the final shift to the more stable production of feed crops, livestock and the rise of Wisconsin as the nation's dairyland.

In the HISTORYMOBILE's display cases are scale model implements from the internationally-famed Cyrus Hall McCormick collection. These miniature reapers, mowers, corn planters and binders have been exhibited world-wide and are mechanically perfect in every detail. One model will show the trail-blazing 1831 McCormick reaper, the first of many improved harvesting machines McCormick developed.

Wisconsin men made many significant contributions to the development of today's modern farm and their stories are touched upon in the new exhibit. There were men like John F. Appleby (Walworth county) whose mechanical twine binder revolutionized the harvesting of grain crops; George Esterly (Rock county), inventor of an improved reaper called a "header"; Dr. Stephen A. Babcock, developer of the butterfat tester for the dairying industry; E. P. Allis and Jerome I. Case, giants in the agricultural implement industry; and William Dempster Hoard, champion of modern, scientific dairying.

The HISTORYMOBILE'S exhibit is told through case exhibits displaying model farm equipment, photographs, drawings and artifacts, all drawn from the extensive collections of the State Historical society.

The HISTORYMOBILE will be on the road until November and is scheduled to visit nearly every county in the state. During its first three years, 1954-56, nearly a half-million people visited the museum on wheels, the only mobile unit in the nation devoted solely to American history.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Tschudy of New Glarus are the curators of the HISTORYMOBILE. They travel with the unit, live in specially-designed quarters at the rear of the 43-foot trailer and supervise tours.

The cost of the HISTORYMOBILE, including the original unit, maintenance and salaries of the curators is met by private donations to the State Historical society. Exhibits are open to everyone free of charge.

INCOME TAX FACTS No. 7

Not All Income is Taxable

(This is one of a series of articles on federal income tax filing. These articles are based on information provided by the American Institute of Accountants, and the Wisconsin Society of Certified Public Accountants in cooperation with the Internal Revenue Service.)

Taxpayers make more mistakes in listing their income than any other type of error, according to a survey made by the Internal Revenue Service. It is important to know what to include and what NOT to include. Look at this list and see if you can tell which should be listed on a tax return:

- Dividends from an insurance policy
- Social Security Benefits
- Gifts
- Payments received under Workmen's Compensation laws
- The answer is that NONE of the above should be listed as taxable income. There are other forms of exempt income, too, which you will find listed in the official instruction book. Some of them are:
- Inheritances and bequests (the estate may be taxed but not the recipient)
- Railroad Retirement Act benefits
- Certain health and accident benefits
- Damages awarded by a court or paid out of court for personal injuries
- Government payments and benefits to veterans and their families, except nondisability retirement pay and interest on terminal leave bonds.

How Prizes Are Taxed

If you won a prize, watch this fine distinction: the prize is taxable if you were required to exert even the slightest effort to earn it; on the other hand, if it was made in recognition of scientific, literary or other achievement you would have performed anyway, the prize is considered a gift and you are not taxed on it.

Most scholarships and fellowships are exempt unless they are paid as compensation for services, such as teaching and research. Another point to remember in connection with scholarships: in figuring support for a dependent you do not have to count scholarships received by a student.

Some income, such as limited amounts of "sick pay" and the first $50 of certain dividends, must be explained in the tax return, but are not taxed.

If you have an annuity from life insurance, pension plan or other source, the portion which you may receive tax-free depends on your life expectancy and the amount you paid for the annuity. The Internal Revenue Service will furnish actuarial tables upon request to help you figure this out.

Anyone who owns stock needs to know about the dividend exclusion and credit. This applies only to dividends from corporations which are subject to United States corporation income tax and does not include dividends from savings and loan associations, credit unions or foreign corporations.

Your first $50 of qualified dividends is tax free. Husband and wife are each entitled to exclude the first $50 for dividends on stocks that each owns.

If you received dividends beyond this amount, you are entitled to a "dividends received credit." This credit is 4% of the remaining dividends, but it cannot be more than 4% of your taxable income, or more than the amount of tax otherwise due. The credit is not just a deduction from your taxable income — it is actually subtracted from your tax.

For example, if you received $550 in dividends, you can exclude $50 from your taxable income, and subtract 4% of $500 — or $20 — from the tax you would otherwise pay. The last page of the tax form provides a schedule for figuring the amount of your credit.

The instruction book which comes with your tax forms gives further information. Help is also available by telephone or at offices of the Internal Revenue Service. The Revenue Service urges you to consult a properly qualified advisor if you decide to seek outside help.

A Dozen Soups Are Meatless

EVEN Lenten meals can be tangy, tasty and tempting. Soups, "buy" the dozen, can be served anytime, as a solo:

In the above picture a piping hot bowl of vegetable soup is topped with sour cream and served with generous portions of tuna fish salad, tomato juice (garnished with lemon slices centered with a clove) and a hot bread. A juicy winter pear and a favorite cheese completes this meatless meal.

as Soup-Mates:

Cream of Potato Soup with Oyster Stew . . . grate a little crisp carrot over top.

Cream of Celery and Tomato Soup . . . topped with a dash of celery seed.

Cream of Asparagus and Cream of Mushroom . . . shave a little green pepper on top.

Green Pea Soup and New England Clam Chowder . . . "sprigged" with water cress.

Black Bean Soup and Manhattan Clam Chowder . . . "dribble" a circle of light cream over top.

as a basic cooking ingredient:

Shrimp Chip

- 1 can (10-ounces) frozen condensed cream of shrimp soup
  - 1/2 cup milk
  - 1 cup diced cooked shrimp (7-ounce can, drained)
  - 1 cup unsalted cooked peas
  - 1 1/2 cups crushed potato chips
- Combine soup and milk; heat slowly, stirring frequently. Blend with shrimp, peas and 1 cup potato chips in a 1-quart casserole; sprinkle remaining chips on top. Bake in a moderate oven (375° F.) about 25 minutes. 4 servings FNS

Wisconsin's butter production last year was about 13 per cent greater than the 1955 output, according to the Federal-State Crop Reporting Service for Wisconsin; but American cheese production in 1956 was down nearly 2 per cent from the previous year's output.

Cash receipts from products sold from Wisconsin farms last year were 5 per cent above the 1955 total according to recent estimates made by the Federal-State Crop Reporting Service for Wisconsin.

Grapes can easily be grown in Wisconsin. But it takes the right varieties and a little extra know-how.

Sometimes when a man recalls the good old days, he's really thinking about his bad young days.
