Around the Town

The rains Wednesday and Thursday mornings were very welcome life savers for the parched crops and gave them much needed moisture. But it was just the "kiss of the hops" and we could have used more. The hail and wind with Thursdays downpour did some damage to crops and broke a few windows in the area. The hailstones were quite large. The rain didn't relieve the heat spell much as the sun came out clear and hot again.

Bob Staehler says he don't mind so much his buddies stealing his raspberries but he would appreciate it if they wouldn't back their car right into the patch to do it. Those tire marks looked like they came from Eddie Keuper's old Chev. Eob.

LOST—One rowboat and one ladder. Finder please notify Armin.

All it will take now is a housewarming party and then the "Maypole" at the Martin residence can be removed. The guilty parties who set up the pole, decorated with empty beverage containers, sent in a signed confession this week and the mystery (?) was solved. If they wanted a party the Martins had set Tuesday as the deadline for the boys to admit their act. The well worded confession, written in perfect legal form, was delivered in person by the police chief. We won't mention the names of the "we're dry" boys but their nicknames are Ollie, Armie, Johnnie and Eddie. There were also some accessories to the act, which brought no end of mysterious mail to the Martins. One of the pieces of mail was a postcard with a poem giving clues and another was a card on which was written "I did it" but the signature was forgotten. The Martins, who with three other couples were attending a Braves game the night the pole was erected, also received a well marked road map showing the shortest route out of Milwaukee. It seems they had some difficulty getting out of the city.

Who says the days of the hemmen are past? One "guest" at Inky's annual "prom" last week was seen using the branch of a tree as a toothpick. Too many bratwurst seeds?

That fire siren last Thursday evening was no fire. It was to round up the firemen to get participants for the contests and parade at the Badger Firemen's association tournament at Mequon over the week end. The local team didn't fare so well in the contests Saturday night, being disqualified in two events. They might have done better had they remembered to take their nozzle along.

Speaking of sack dresses we're getting even with the Asians now for sending us the Asian flu. The American "chemise" has invaded Japan and can be seen on the streets of Tokyo. That's almost going too far in getting even. The kimono, though some Japanese girls look cute in one, is a garment which, like the chemise, reduces feminine figures to shapeless uniformity. However, the chemise may be an improvement on the kimono—at least it's funnier. But whether

Gene Gruber to Take Over Ortman Tavern

Eugene Gruber, Kewaskum, has leased Oscar's Tap owned and operated by Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Ortman on the corner of Main and Railroad sts. and will take possession of the business next Friday, Aug. 15. The Ortman's operated the tavern for the past three years.

Mom's Bakery, located in the same building with the tavern, and operated by Mrs. Ortman, will be taken over by Mrs. David Brown, the former Darlene Nischke. Mrs. Brown's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earold Nischke, and family will move Sept. 1 into the apartment above the tavern, recently vacated by the John Vorpal family. The Nischkes at present reside in the Joe Gruber home on Kewaskum st. in the Belger addition. Nischke will be a part time bartender for Gruber.

Mr. and Mrs. Ortman and daughter Darlene will move to West Bend. He is employed at the Mallard Coach plant in Barton. Mrs. Ortman is principal of the Amy Belle school, R. 1, Colgate. The Ortman's will leave Aug. 20 on a trip to Arizona where they will visit relatives.

Sox Give Yanks Close Battle in Little League

STANDINGS

	Won	Lost
Yanks	5	0
Cubs	2	3
White Sox	2	3
Braves	1	3

In the first game last Thursday the Braves beat the Cubs, 17-15, in a contest that wasn't exactly a pitchers battle in the Little League. Yeadeke was the hitting star of the evening with 3 home runs. Poegel was the winning pitcher for the Braves. The Cubs' Dick Wictor, Sparks and Miller hit homers.

The Yanks had to go the full 5 innings to beat the White Sox and a hit by Butzke drove in 2 runs to win the game. Bobby Miller was the winning pitcher and the hitting ace for the Yanks. For the Sox F. Schoenbeck was the top batter.

Games Aug. 14 are Yanks vs. Braves at 6:30 p. m. and White Sox vs. Cubs at 8 p. m.

Births

REIGLE—A son to Mr. and Mrs. Richard Reigle, Kewaskum, Friday, Aug. 1.

JUSTMAN—A daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Harold Justman, Kewaskum, Monday, Aug. 4.

NIGH—A son to Mr. and Mrs. Leo Nigh, Plymouth, at the Plymouth hospital Friday, Aug. 1. The Nighs are former residents and he is a son of the Elmer Nighs, town of Auburn.

SCHABO—A daughter, Lynn Ellen, to Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Schabo, Friendship, Wis., Friday, July 25. Mr. Schabo formerly taught at Kewaskum High school.

Japanese and American women are now sisters under the chemise is a question that must be answered by someone else. Nobody understands women, not even women!

A Switch--Father-to-Be Is Honored at Shower

Something new in the line of baby showers was given by Mr. and Mrs. William Martin at their home Saturday night honoring father-to-be Ed Keuper of this village. Nine couples were guests at the surprise shower and was he surprised!

The expectant father was presented with beautiful practical gifts for the baby and an equal number of humorous gifts for himself. After being presented with and donning an apron to which was attached all necessary "equipment" for the care of the baby including oil can, hammer, aspirin, diapers, cotton, etc., nervous Eddie opened the gifts. The apron was made by two of the guests. The variety of comical gifts presented to the father-to-be kept the guests in stitches and Eddie himself laughed so hard he could hardly open them. This was followed by a delicious cafeteria style lunch. During the evening snacks and refreshments were served.

Besides the honored father-to-be and wife, guests included Mr. and Mrs. Joe Thom of Beloit, Mr. and Mrs. Ollie Staehler, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Bob Staehler, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Weddig, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. George Koerble, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Harbeck, Mr. and Mrs. Augie Bilgo, Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. John Geidel.

The party was also given for the above friends of the Joe Thoms, who were visiting the Martins. He is a brother of Mrs. Martin.

The West Bend council Knights of Columbus bratwurst and steak fry held Tuesday evening in the Kewaskum park was a grand success with approximately 300 persons, including members and their wives, in attendance. Many valuable prizes were given away during the evening. The weather was ideal.

Family Reunion Held, Plan '59 Event Here

The Loehrke-Krueger family reunion and picnic held Sunday at the Horicon park was attended by 115 relatives. A picnic luncheon was served at noon with games following for various age groups. Prizes were awarded to the winners. Members of the family clan spent much of the afternoon "catching up" on developments in the relationship during the past year.

Plans were made to hold the 1959 reunion at the Kewaskum park the second Sunday in August. Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Martin of Kewaskum and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hubbard, Lomira, were named to arrange for the next summer gathering.

The majority of the relatives live in this area. Two men relatives from California came from the longest distance.

Coulter's 3-Run Homer Gives Bells Win Here

NORTHERN ROCK RIVER

	Won	Lost
Bells	7	4
Oakfield	7	5
Long Lake	6	6
Eden	4	8
Brownsville	4	8
LeRoy	3	8

Kewaskum High school catcher Dan Coulter gave the Campbellsport Bells a 9 to 6 victory over Long Lake on the local diamond Sunday with a 3-run homer in the 8th inning. The blow enabled them to gain a victory after having trailed by 5 to 0 in the 7th inning. The Bells are playing their home games here this season.

Another Kewaskum product, Glenn Rempel, had scored the lead run at 6 to 5 for the Bells just ahead of the big blow.

The win enabled the Bells to keep the lead, which they will risk at second place Oakfield Sunday.

NOTICE KEWASKUM 4-H'ERS

I received this letter in the mail on Aug. 2:

Kewaskum 4-Hers,
The Badger Boosters 4-H club would like to invite you to a pot luck picnic. Who's invited? You, your members, and families. Where and when? Lizard Mound Park, Aug. 10, 1:30 p. m. Recreation? Baseball and games. When do we eat? 1:45 p. m.

Special instructions: Each family should bring a pot luck dish. Cold drinks will be provided. Lizard Mound Park is located 3 miles northwest of Barton. Take Hwy. 144 until you reach Hwy. A, then drive 3/4 miles east and then about a mile south and you will be there.

Badger Boosters 4-H Club
I hope that many of you members can make it to the picnic and remember our next meeting is Aug. 21.
