3 Students Register For Studies at UW

Three students from Kewaskum visited the University of Wisconsin campus Madison, during the past week to register for UW studies to be started with the opening of the university's school year in September.

They were taking advantage of the UW's new advance registration-orientation program for new freshmen, now in its fourth week. Purpose of the program is to help young people make their transition into university life easier both for themselves and their parents, according to Paul Trump, UW registrar.

This summer's advance registration-orientation program con. tinues through late August.

The new students will return to the UW campus Sept. 10 to continue their orientation 'and complete their registration for studies. classes begin on Monday, Their Sept. 15.

The Kewaskum students are Gerald C. Opgenorth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis T. Opgenorth, R. 2; Elmer W. Ramthun, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Ramthun, Habeck

Village Board

Regular Meeting August 4, 1958

of Kewaskum, Washington County, Wisconsin met in regular monthly session with President Reigle presiding and all Board members present.

The minutes of the previous meetings were approved as presented upon motion by J. Stellpflug, seconded by J. Eberle and duly carried and the commissioner duly carried.

Mr. August Koch appeared to re- permit upon payment of the request a refund for excessive prop- quired fee. erty taxes paid in 1955 & 1956 because of a mechanical error in the assessment roll. Village Attorney O'Meara advised Mr. Koch that since the taxes were not paid under protest, the Board had no authority to make refund for a period of more than one year from the time of refund claim. No refund granted.

The written claim of M. W. Rosenheimer for Tax refund because of a mechanical error in the assessment was presented to the Board. The commissioner was instructed that if a check of the tax receipts reveals such taxes were paid under protest, than a refund voucher shall be prepared and presented to the Finance Committee for approval.

The following Ordinance was introduced by Trustee Merwin:

ORDINANCE NO. 58-3 An Ordinance Amending the Ordinance Providing for Financing Sewerage Service to the Village of Kewaskum

The Village Board of the Village of Kewaskum do ordain as follows: Section 1. Ordinance No. 4-54 is amended by deleting from Section 2 (a) the following clause: "(provided further however the sewage service charge for the months of July, August and September in any year shall be the amount as assessed for water used during the preceding months of April, May and June in that year plus $1.00)"

That in place of such deletion, said ordinance shall read as follows:

"(provided further however that the sewage service charge for the second quarter and the sewage service charge for the third quarter in any year shall be for each such quarter the amount as assessed for water during the preceding first quarter of that year plus $1.00)"

Summer Fruit Tray

Nature has made few foods as beautiful and appetizing as fresh fruits. Peaches, pears, plums, apples, grapes, melons, and all the rest are worthy of an artist's palette for color and form. And under their gay "coats" are wonderful flavors and textures.

You can serve nothing more refreshing in appearance than a bowl or tray of fresh fruits "au natural," surrounded by a delicacy that complements them perfectly—cook book quality packaged doughnuts from your grocer's ready-to-eat cake department. These cake quality doughnuts balance fruit flavors in color and flavor whether you serve this combination as a breakfast treat, guest or TV snack, or luncheon or dinner dessert.

Try peaches, plums and pears together in one of your pretty bowls. Use green and russet grapes for graceful contour and a com-bination of sweet and tart flavors. Set the bowl on one of your trays, and ring it with snowy cook book quality doughnuts.

In just minutes you'll have a picture plate that will bring compli-ments from both children and grownups.

MAKE IT A VARIETY PICNIC WITH DAIRY FOODS

Picnics afloat are special fun 1/2 pound butter or the entire family, and dairy Salt for the entire family, and dairy products are as much a part of a boating picnic as they are of meals at home. Mom, Dad, and the kids of all ages can enjoy a trip by water and, when a tempting shore site comes into view, the outboard motor on the boat takes them right up to the beach for a wonderful grilled

For variety in the outdoor picnics, try Butter Grilled Chicken 'n Beans. The combination of butter-topped frozen lima beans and half a broiler-chicken is hearty enough for appetites sharpened by boating and water skiing. The beans and chicken are butter-baked over the grill in individual serving packets of heavy aluminum foil. Butter Grilled Chicken 'N Beans

2 packages frozen lima beans tablespoons green onions, (optional)

Pepper

2-2 to 21/2 pound broilers, split

Cut heavy aluminum foil into 8 large squares. Cut frozen blocks of lima beans in half. Place half block of the beans on each of 4 squares of foil. Top with a tablespoon each of butter and onion. Cover with half a chicken. Top with another table-spoon of butter. Season with salt and pepper. Fold foil around chicken and beans loosely to make an individual packet. Wrap each packet in second square of heavy foil. Cook on grill 21/2 inches from heat 40 to 50 minutes or until the chicken is tender and the beans cooked. Yield: 4 servings. Serve a packet to each person.

6. Provide free access to salt and water. If salt is withheld for ome time, the animals are apt to eat large amounts of it all at once, then drink a lot of water at one time, and are therefore more subject to bloat. Where bloat actually occurred, these practices have been more or less effective: stand the animal facing uphill. Rub and knead vigorously the bloated part on the left side of the animal. Put a stick in the animal's mouth, like the bit of a bridle, with a string drench such as a mixture of one knife in an emergency away from habitations or suitable equipment.
