Dairy Day Event Draws Record Crowds, Is Tremendous Success

Sandy Oppermann Is Crowned Queen; Give $650 in Prizes

MORE THAN 600 SERVED NOON LUNCH; FOERSTER, MISKE RECEIVE AWARDS; HOME TALENT WINNERS ANNOUNCED

Kewaskum's second annual Dairy Day event held Saturday in the high school gymnasium, agriculture rooms and cafeteria, was a tremendous success according to the Kewaskum Business association, sponsor of the program.

A record crowd judged at approximately 1,200 persons jammed the gymnasium for the evening show and additional hundreds were present for the noon luncheon, afternoon show and ladies' program. All of the seats in the huge gym were filled for the evening program and many, many others stood in the aisles, at the rear of the gym and in the corridors.

The booths and displays set up by the various businessmen and merchants around the outside of the gym, in the ag room and halls were more numerous and attractive than last year. Most of the booths gave away prizes and souvenirs, such as aprons, caps, yardsticks, pencils, balloons, etc. The Texaco booth reported giving out 1,000 Fire Chief hats to the youngsters alone and ran out early. Many of the merchants had factory representatives in their booths.

More than 600 persons were served the free noon dairy lunch, approximately again as many as last year when some 300 enjoyed the meal served in the cafeteria by the ladies.

The afternoon program began with selections by the high school band, followed by a review of the farming situation in Washington county by County Agent Maurice Hovland, a discussion on the farm and small business tax situation by Senator Frank E. Panzer of Dodge and Washington counties, a discussion on potential agricultural programs by Representative William K. Van Pelt of the 6th congressional district, a talk by George Werner of the University of Wisconsin and an appearance and brief talk by Miss Wisconsin, Mary Alice Fox of Sheboygan.

At 2 p. m. a food demonstration, style and dress revue for the ladies was given in the cafeteria and this, too, attracted an overflow crowd of ladies. The kiddies were entertained to free movies at the theatre, which were well attended. Following the giving away of afternoon door prizes, the booths remained open straight through until the evening program.

Songs by the high school girls and mixed choruses opened the evening program at 7:15 p. m. and they were well received. Then the home talent show was enjoyed and proved very popular. Prize winning contestants were: 1. Karen Reysen and Randy Belger, accordion and drum duet; 2. The Off Beats, instrumental trio, Roger Yeadeke, Larry Roesel and Dave Skrentny;

3. Carolyn and Diane Maedke, duet; 4. David Hanselman, singing and playing trumpet.

Roman Foerster and Edgar Miske received awards for outstanding conservation work on their farms. Marvin Martin, past president of the Kewaskum Kiwanis club, presented the awards on the stage. Milo Swanton, secretary of the Council of Agriculture, then gave a talk on Russian agriculture and showed colored slides of his recent visit to that country. Miss Wisconsin then showed slides of the Miss America contest at Atlantic City, N. J., in which she was a runnerup for the title. Brief talks were given by Village President James Reigle, Business Association President Roger Strack and Kiwanis President John Stellflug.

To climax the program Sandy Oppermann was crowned Dairy Day queen by Miss Wisconsin. The queen was selected by high school students and Dairy Day visitors who were given one vote for every cent deposited in the boxes. The girl with the largest number of pennies was crowned queen and the money was given to charity. Other candidates for queen were Cathy Herriges, Dorothy Reindl, Virginia Campbell, Judy Theusch, Karen Flecker, Gelene Vetter and Darlene Prost.

Orv Behnke served as a capable master of ceremonies for the program. Bernard Murray, high school ag instructor, and County Agent Hovland are to be commended on the excellent program they arranged.

Dairy Day was brought to a close with the awarding of 53 prizes, valued at more than $650. The prizes, their donors and the winners are listed below:

More Donors Urgently Needed for Blood Bank

More donors are badly needed for the visit of the Community Blood Donor club's mobile unit in Kewaskum on Monday, Apr. 4. The response thus far has been poor and unless many more donors volunteer to give blood Kewaskum will fall short of its quota of 100 pints. It should be remembered that not all persons who volunteer to give blood can be accepted. Quite a few must be rejected because of colds, illness and other reasons on the day of the mobile unit's visit.

The clinic will be held from 1:00 to 5:45 p. m. at the Kewaskum High school. The ladies of Holy Trinity church will be in charge of refreshments. Anyone who has not been contacted is asked to call Henry Rosenheimer, 29, or Mrs. E. E. Miller, 209, or get in contact with any member of the Woman's club.

Everyone in the Community Blood Donor club area is urged to give blood and this includes surrounding communities. Let's put Kewaskum over its quota.

Five Candidates File For Trustee Offices

Last Friday, Mar. 18, was the final date for filing nomination papers at the village commissioner's office for offices in the village of Kewaskum to be elected at the spring election on Tuesday, Apr. 5.

Vacancies to be filled are three trustees for two years and one justice of the peace for a two-year term. Other officials hold over in office until next year. Five candidates filed papers for the three trustee offices, namely two of the incumbents, Arvin Merwin and Joseph Schwind, and three newcomers, Harold Degner, John Geidel and Harry R. Heinecke. Robert G. Kroncke is the only candidate for the justice office.

Voters will also cast their ballots at the Apr. 5 election for delegates-at-large to the Democratic and Republican national conventions, for judicial officers, and on a referendum issue.

Ballots were printed this week and absentee voters can now obtain their ballots at the office of the village commissioner in the municipal building. They will be available until the day before the election for persons who will be out of the village or otherwise unable to come to the polls on election day.

Our country needs more men with cool heads and fewer persons with cold feet.

Burglars Get Only $8.21 in Break-In at Heinemann Dairy Plant

Only $8.21 in cash was obtained in a safe burglary at the Heinemann Dairy in Kewaskum sometime Monday night or early Tuesday morning. The thieves gained entrance to the building through a rear boiler room door.

The burglary is believed to be the work of professionals by the systematic way in which they broke open the safe. They broke off the combination on the safe and then peeled off the front plate to gain entrance. The burglars also ransacked all of the office desks but the $8.21 was the only money taken. The rest of the cash had been deposited before the close of the day's business.

The burglary is believed to have occurred between 9 p. m. Monday and 2 a. m. Tuesday, which are about the only hours when someone is not in the plant. Irvin Guidan, who reports to work at about 2 a. m., saw no one around nor did he hear any noises. The entry was discovered by Oscar Hirsig, another employee, when he came to work at about 3:30 a. m. He went upstairs and found the safe open.

A very high wind, with gusts up to 55 miles per hour, was blowing Monday night and anyone in the area would not have become suspicious of any noises, although the job was apparently pulled off very quietly. Police are investigating the burglary and report having a certain gang under suspicion.

Spring Comes to Kewaskum a Day Early

Honeck Chevrolet of Kewaskum delivered six 1960 convertibles on Saturday, Mar. 19, the day before spring, and it was the first time ever that this many convertibles were delivered at one time in this area. It was such an unusual and rare occurrence that the Chevrolet Motors Division gave special attention to the filing of these orders and seeing to it that all deliveries could be made at one time.

Gilbert "Bud" Korth, Lloyd "Cocky" Keller, Ken Garbisch and Harold "Whitey" Baum. The deliveries were made by Killy Honeck, owner, and Herb Backhaus, salesman, pictured in the foreground.

4-H Club News

KEWASKUM 4-H'ERS

The members of the Kewaskum 4-H'ers met at the fire hall before the meeting. Fire chief Harry Schaefer took us through the fire department. He gave a talk on how to prevent fires, and told us what to do in case of a fire. He showed us different types of fire extinguishers and told us a little bit about each one. The club wishes to thank Mr. Schaefer for his interesting talk.

Our meeting followed immediately. The meeting was called to order and the pledge to the flag led by Carol Bohn. The 4-H pledge led by Bonnie Smith was recited. Roll call was taken with 33 members present.

Dawn Martin reported on the window display which was in Lay's window from March 5 to 18.

The 4-H club also had a booth at the Dairy Day activities where safety pamphlets were distributed.

The annual speaking contest will be held on April 27. We will have a local speaking contest at our next meeting where judges will select the best speech from the junior and senior divisions.

A poster contest was also discussed. Each member is asked to make a safety poster for our next meeting. All posters are to be 12" by 18".

The next meeting will be April 21. The refreshment committee for that meeting is Dawn, Dean and George Martin.

Mrs. Paul Kurth, who resides southwest of the village, was fatally injured in an auto accident at the intersection of Hwys. A and 28 at Batavia Sunday afternoon. She was a passenger in a car driven by her husband, which collided with another vehicle driven by a Sheboygan man. Mrs. Kurth suffered a skull fracture and died Monday at the Sheboygan hospital.

Congressman M. K. Reilly has recommended the appointment of Wm. J. Sullivan, editor of the Campbellsport News, for the office of postmaster in that village.

Billy Haessly, son of Mrs. Hilary Haessly and the late Mr. Haessly, who died at Theresa on Feb. 8, has enrolled in the local high school and is making his home with the Theo. Schmidt family.

Amelia Earhart, famous aviatrix who flew across both the Atlantic and Pacific oceans, passed through Kewaskum last week Monday by train while on her way to Neenah to deliver a speech that evening.

Misses Charlotte Lay and Linda Rosenheimer of Kewaskum, students at Milwaukee-Downer college, both have parts in a play to be presented by the Children's Theater group entitled "Raggedy Ann and Andy."

An unknown thief or thieves broke into the A. G. Koch general store early Saturday and took quite a bit of valuable merchandise. The burglary was not discovered until the store was opened the next morning but a neighbor, John Schaefer, reported hearing a noise at 4 a. m. Admittance was gained by prying open the rear door. Articles stolen consisted of all the cigarettes in a showcase except the Twenty Grands, shirts, size 15; shoes, hats, underwear and candy bars. The thief was particular as he took only Oh Henry and Denver Sandwich bars. A small amount of cash was taken.

The Green Sheet of the Milwaukee Journal, which has been publishing a series of pictures of babies and little tots, on Tuesday contained a picture of Doris Mae Petri, daughter of the Wendel Petris, and Arline Hoepner, daughter of Rudolph Hoepner of Wayne.

The Kewaskum Land o' Lakes team beat Slinger here Sunday, 33 to 6. High scorers were Stenschke with 13 points and Kohn with 10. Last Thursday the locals lost a practice game to the strong West Bend Comets. This team, with the aid of the Posschwitz brothers of Sheboygan, has played such teams as the world's champion colored stars, New York Renaissance, House of David and other famous fives. Kewaskum lost, 35-23, but made a very fine showing.

FIFTY YEARS AGO

March 12, 1910

Elmer Jacobitz, night operator here, is taking a few weeks layoff. Mike Kohn moved to Kaukauna where he rented a cheese factory.

A chimney fire at the Fellenz residence, occupied by Robert McCullough and family created quite a bit of excitement.

F. E. Colvin purchased a fine standard registered trotting horse from John Mack of West Bend. Mr. Colvin will hold him for service.

Wm. Raether is confined to his home with a sprained ankle, which he sustained by slipping on a stairway at the malt house.

Mrs. S. C. Wollensak slipped on an icy walk and sprained her ankle. She is laid up.

Jos. Schaefer of Wabeno who came here several weeks ago to attend the funeral of Joe Gritter and receive treatment for a scalp wound he received while logging on his farm, is still confined at the Fellenz home. He caught cold in the wound and blood poisoning set in.

Lenten Pageant at Kohlsville Church

St. John's Brotherhood of Kohlsville will present their annual inter-denominational pageant, "The Lord's Supper," on Sunday evening, Mar. 27, by reservation only because of limited seating facilities.

The pageant depicts scenes from the life of Jesus Christ, plus the Upper Room and institution of the Holy Supper. Added to the pageant this year will be twenty-six youth presenting a twenty minute interpretive dance telling the story of the nativity of the Christ Child. Tom West, son of Owen West of Cedar lake, portrays the role of Joseph. Kathleen Hoefert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Hoefert, Cedar lake, will interpret the role of Mary. The entire pageant cast of sixty-five are active members of the congregation of St. John's.

Of interest to the community will be a television broadcast of portions of the pageant on the Beulah Donahue Show (WTMJ-TV) during Holy Week — April 12, at 2:00 p. m. Miss Donahue invited the men to share their presentation of the Bible with the public via T. V., as a special spiritual contribution.

Since the tiny rural church at Kohlsville seats only 250 people, attendance at the pageant has been limited to reservations only. This year the Brotherhood has invited church groups from Milwaukee, Port Washington, Watertown and the Seminarians and their professors from Mission House, Plymouth, to be their special guests. The director, Rev. L. C. Riesch, R. 4, West Bend, has reported that all reservations have thus been taken for the Mar. 27 performance. However, congregations and individuals are welcome to write to him to make reservations for next year's presentation. On Saturday night, Mar. 26, many Sunday school classes and their teachers from this area will attend the dress-rehearsal.

Spring Convention of County School Board Association Tuesday

LOCAL TEACHERS ON GROUP THREE PANEL TO ANSWER QUESTIONS FROM FLOOR

The spring convention of the Washington County School Board association will be held at the Hartford High school on Tuesday evening, March 29. The meeting is scheduled to start at 8:00 p. m. "sharp."

Because the members of the county school boards wish to become thoroughly acquainted with the curriculum or course of study which is being taught in the public elementary and high schools, the program committee has decided to devote this meeting to this purpose.

The high school course of study is to be discussed in three divisions: (1) The subjects required to be taken by all students, (2) The college preparatory course, (3) The industrial and homemaking arts, commonly spoken of as the vocational course. At each of these high school discussions, the total elementary course of study will also be presented. The presentations of these various courses will be given by the several administrators of the county schools. A panel composed of the county supervising teachers, guidance directors, elementary teachers, and secondary teachers will help the administrators in answering any questions which anyone might have in regard to these courses of study.

Although this is primarily a meeting of school board members and teachers, the general public is invited.

The program committee consists of: Jacob Oelhafen, Melvin Mueller, co-chairmen; Fred Spoerl, Clifford Holmes, Ira Oelhafen, George Forge. The county organization chairman, Ira Oelhafen extends a personal invitation.

This is a very important meeting. It is his hope that this meeting will help everyone to better understand his duty as a school board member and thereby permit the school to be of greater service to its community.

The following program gives in greater detail the planning of the committee:

Meeting called to order—Ira Oelhafen, president, County School Board association.

Words of welcome—Gus C. Boll, principal, Hartford High school.

Comments by county superintendent—Harry D. Sheski.

Lunch remarks—George Forge, committee chairman.

Explanation of sectional meetings—Melvin Mueller, co-chairman, program committee.

Adjournment to sectional meetings.

GROUP I BASIC—Clifford Holmes, moderator. Presentation of basic education requirement covering grades 1-12, what is offered, why it is offered, followed by period of questions from the floor and answers from panel of experts: Clement Nodolf, Gus Boll, Wayne Hammond, Dorothea Back, Donald Parker, Frederic Mehre, John DeLorme, Veronica Frigo.

GROUP II COLLEGE PREPARATORY—George Forge, moderator. Presentation of college preparatory requirements, showing the relationships from grades 1-12, with emphasis on needs of proper selections of courses and guidance, what is offered, why it is offered, followed by period of questions from the floor and answers from panel of experts: George Glasrud, Paul Loofboro, Ralph Eggert, Elva Smith, Mrs. Dora Schleif, Melvin Riley, Peter Nannetti.

GROUP III INDUSTRIAL OR HOME MAKING—Jacob Oelhafen, moderator. Presentation of so-called vocational subjects, what is offered, why it is offered, and showing needs for proper balance of courses and guidance, followed by period of questions from the floor and answers from panel of experts: Clifford Rose, Stanley Sprehn, Ernest Mitchell, Earl Vivian, Mrs. Beverly Johnson, Margaret Browne, Marvin Madsen, Fred Schultz.

Elementary Teachers Of County Convene

The county-wide elementary teachers convention held at the Barton public school on Thursday, March 17, proved to be most inspiring as well as educational.

Melvin Riley, principal of the Barton public school, and president of the Association opened the session with words of welcome.

The Association held its business meeting after which Robert Younger spoke on the administration and interpretation of intelligence tests.

The entire group left Barton at noon to have dinner at the St. John's Lutheran church parlors. The remainder of the program was carried out there.

The West Bend High school orchestra, under the direction of David Schleif, presented several musical selections.

Guidance teachers of various high schools in the county, Marita Yahr, Wayne Hammond, Ernest Mitchell and Donald Parker, took part in a panel discussion on cumulative records.

James Farrey of the World Book Co. spoke on achievement tests, administration and interpretation of such.

Remarks by the county personnel closed the convention.

If you're starting flower seeds indoors this spring, plant them no sooner than four to six weeks before you transplant the seedlings outdoors, says Lou Berninger, University of Wisconsin flower specialist.

BY BOB LAKE

Washington County Conservation Warden

This is the time of year that the farmer and poultry raiser should inspect his property for sign of fox dens. Many of old vixens have their young the first two weeks in March. By May 1, the young are weaned and from then it takes a lot of poultry to keep them going.

One of our local citizens at the edge of the city watched an opossum attempt to catch a cock pheasant without success.

Complaints are coming in of dogs chasing deer. Any officer may shoot any dog found running deer. Better check and see if you have a dog that runs deer, and then tie him up.

Exactly seven weeks from today, we will hold our county fish and game hearings at the seventy-one county court houses. Now is the time for the bird hunter, deer hunter, trapper and small game hunter to inspect his hunting grounds, see what you have left for your spring breeding stock. Then you will be able to talk with authority when the various seasons are discussed on May 2, 1960.

Just a reminder, possession of a spear on inland waters in Washington and Ozaukee counties is prohibited, March 2 to April 20.

Wild geese are very late this year. In the past they have been seen flying north as early as Feb. 23. Incidentally, I did see a Purple Grackle on March 8.

Atty. Stoltz Speaks to Kiwanis Club Members

EXPERIENCE, ATTENDANCE AT WEST BEND'S SWIMMING POOL SUBJECT OF TALK

Attorney Robert J. Stoltz of West Bend spoke to the Kewaskum Kiwanis club last Monday, Mar. 21, on West Bend's history and actual experience with its indoor swimming pool.

He reported that a survey of the West Bend high school students made prior to building the pool showed that 60% of them could not swim and that now after the pool has been in use less than 2 years this percentage has been reduced to 20%. The school administrators believe that after the pool has been in use 5 or 6 years this percentage will probably be reduced to about 1%.

A recent study just released covering the period from July 1, 1959, to March 1, 1960, showed that the attendance in the student phy. ed. classes totaled over 10,000 and the attendance in all public use periods totaled over 22,000. This averages out to better than a 4,000 pool attendance a month.

Stoltz also commented on a talk given last Saturday by the dean of the University of Wisconsin Medical school in which he concluded that the push button era of living has been a primary cause of the increase in heart cases. The doctor concluded that the auto, television and elevators were among the worst inventions as far as our health is concerned. The doctor then went on to conclude that swimming was a sport that could be enjoyed by a person of any age and he strongly encouraged older people to participate in it.

St. Lucas Team Reaches Semi-Finals in Tourney

By O. E. Behnke

Kewaskum's St. Lucas church basketball team, organized on the spur of the moment, entered the Fond du Lac basketball tournament. Tournament games were played on Sundays, March 13 and 20, at the Winnebago Lutheran academy gymnasium.

Eighteen teams were entered in the double elimination tournament which was won by St. John's of West Bend.

Despite the St. Lucas team's age and well-rounded mid-sections, they won their first two games and were finally defeated by West Bend in the semi-final game.

St. Lucas defeated Montello in their first game on March 13 by a score of 52-44. Augie Bilgo led the Kewaskum team with 29 points, and Killy Honeck was second high man with 10 points.

Last Sunday at 1 p. m. St. Lucas defeated Oakfield, 58 to 54, with Bilgo tossing in 25 points and Honeck chipping in 11 points for second honors.

St. Lucas was back on the floor again at 5 p. m. to play the semi-final game against the taller, younger and fresher West Bend team, who were engaging in their first tilt for the day, and after a closely contested game, St. John's came out on top, 61-54. Augie Bilgo again topped the team, scoring 19 points, with Merlin Seefeldt a close second with 15 points.

Other players who participated (and found out they are not as young as they think they are) were: Des Smith, Bud Korth, Merle Krueger, Ellie Ramthun, Roger Schleif, Norman Zuehlke and Orv Behnke, player-coach. Leroy Bier assisted as trainer and scorekeeper. The Rev. D. F. and Mrs. Bitter and August and Mrs. Bilgo Sr. did the scouting of the other teams.

Help them walk, talk and play—give to Easter Seals.

Dear Sir:

In behalf of the Wau-Bun Girl Scout Council, Inc., we should like to take the occasion of Girl Scout Birthday, March 12, to thank you and the members of your staff for the activity coverage you give our organization in your newspaper.

As an organization which derives its operating income from Community Chests, or a Girl Scout Fund Drive where there isn't a Chest, our Council believes it has a responsibility to inform the community about its activities as fully as it can. The public should know that the money it gives is spent largely within the 3 1/2 counties of Wau-Bun Council's jurisdiction. It is spent on activities which involve and benefit local girls under the supervision of adults who reside in the local area. It should be emphasized that these adults volunteer their time and efforts and receive no payment for their Girl Scout work, usually not even expense reimbursement. It is also worthy of noting that of the $23,000 annual budget of the Wau-Bun Council only $20 goes to the national Girl Scout organization.

We regard your newspaper as one of the best media available for reporting our activities and are appreciative of your cooperation.

Sincerely,
Florence J. Reichart
