Aldwin Seefeldt Elected President Of State 4-H Council

At the annual meeting of the State 4-H Junior Leaders' Council, held during the 40th State 4-H Club Week, Aldwin Seefeldt, Kewaskum, was elected to serve as the council's president for the ensuing year.

State 4-H Club Week is held annually at the University of Wisconsin for the purpose of recognizing outstanding 4-H leadership, opening new areas of interest, widening horizons, and challenging 4-H members with decision making facts. Much time is spent to develop a "better understanding of the importance of leadership training and education in preparing for future tasks and careers."

The theme of "Learn-Live-Serve through 4-H" prevailed throughout this year's Club Week, and was expounded upon by a variety of speakers, including Dr. Conrad Elvholm, president of the university.

This was Seefeldt's fourth trip to State Club Week. Last year he was elected vice-president of the State 4-H Junior Leaders' Council. Aldwin, along with Nancy Schwock of Dodge county, represents district eight of southeastern Wisconsin on the council.

The major responsibilities of the State Junior Leaders' Council are to assist with appropriate functions of State 4-H Club Week and be ready to serve as official state 4-H representatives at other events such as State Fair, Farm and Home Week and other youth functions. The council also serves in an advisory capacity concerning 4-H projects, activities and events. Therefore, as a council member, Seefeldt helped to plan and conduct this year's Club Week. His main assignment was to preside at the talent night general assembly of the 1,200 4-Hers.

As president of the council, Seefeldt automatically became a member of the board of directors of the Wisconsin 4-H Foundation. The foundation, among other things, provides the funds that enable the Junior Leaders association and council to function. Aldwin was also selected to represent Wisconsin along with Carolyn Spargo of Mineral Point, in an exchange program with Michigan. The Michigan Club Week will be held July 12-15.

Seefeldt was officially installed at the last general assembly of Club Week. There he was sworn in by Vern Varney, acting state 4-H leader, and then he received the gavel from retiring president Richard Pamperin, Brown county, to conduct the remainder of the assembly.

Aldwin is a sixth year member of the Kewaskum 4-Hers and a fourth year junior leader. This year he is carrying the beekeeping project and continuing the junior leader project assisting his general leader, Gerald Stoffel. Aldwin has received several awards for both project and junior leadership work.

Gertrude Minch Wed To Victor Backhaus

Gertrude E. Minch, R. 2, Kewaskum, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ohrmund, 731 N. st., West Bend, and Victor H. Backhaus, son of Mrs. Elsie Backhaus and the late Herman Backhaus, R. 2, Kewaskum, were married in a 3 p. m. ceremony performed by Rev. W. P. Sauer at St. John's Lutheran church, West Bend, on Saturday, June 18.

During the nuptial rite organist Henry Gruenhagen played "O Perfect Love." Two bouquets of white gladioli and mums decorated the altar for the service.

Presented in marriage by her brother, Oscar Ohrmund, the bride chose a gown of Chantillace over taffeta, designed with a fitted bodice, short sleeves and a V-neckline formed by a short chiffon drape ending in a loose panel back. Her full lace skirt was floor length and the ballerina length veil of silk illusion was held by a clip hat of braid. A basket of roses formed the bride's bouquet.

The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. Florence Blank, as matron of honor, and Mrs. Andrew Staehler, Mrs. Wilbur Redlin and Mrs. Delmar Derge, also sisters of the bride, were bridesmaids. All wore gowns of starched nylon sheer in full pink, orchid, green and maize. The waltz length flared skirts featured white medallion trim and were topped by fitted bodices styled with short sleeves and V-necklines with Bertha collars. They wore matching open-crown picture hats of braid, trimmed with flowers, and carried baskets of roses.

Carl Backhaus served as best man for his brother, while another brother, Myron Backhaus, and Elroy Butzke, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, and Ray Schneider, friend of the couple, acted as groomsmen. Guests were seated by Richard Minch, son of the bride, and Robert Butzke, nephew of the bridegroom.

The bride's mother wore a navy blue dress with pink accessories, while the bridegroom's mother wore a light blue suit with white accessories.

A five o'clock dinner and reception was held at Jansen's hall, Nabob, followed by a wedding dance.

The newlyweds left on a two week honeymoon trip to Florida and upon returning will reside at the bride's tavern, Gert's Friendly Inn, on Hwy. 45 four miles south of Kewaskum. The bridegroom is engaged in farming.

Judge Stoltz Holds First Session of Court Here

Recently elected Honorable Robert J. Stoltz, who was installed and sworn in as judge of Washington County Court, Branch 2, on Monday, June 6, in the circuit rooms at the Washington county courthouse, West Bend, heard his first cases in the newly provided courtroom in the municipal building in Kewaskum on Monday, June 13.

The new Branch 2 will handle all traffic cases, including state, county and city violations and all county, city, village and township ordinance violations. Judge Stoltz will hear Kewaskum village, township and county cases in the courtroom here on the first and third Thursday of the month at 9:30 a. m. The court is open to the public.

Eight traffic cases were disposed of at Judge Stoltz's first session in the municipal building last week. Judge Stoltz is shown above behind the bench. In the foreground are Lawrence Berend, left, clerk of circuit and county courts, and Russell Becker, newly appointed court reporter for Judge Stoltz.

Also present at the first session of court here were President James D. Reigle, village officials, a number of Kewaskum businessmen and other officials. Pictures of the proceedings were taken.

Judge Stoltz stated that he was well pleased with the local courtroom facilities and new bench provided for him.

In announcing the appointment of Russell W. Becker as reporter, the judge said that Becker is from Milwaukee and will be moving to Washington county. He is single and a graduate of St. Leo's Grade school and Notre Dame High school, Milwaukee; the Adjutant General school, U. S. Army, and Machine Shorthand, Inc. He also attended Spencerian Business college. Becker is a member of the following organizations: St. Leo's Catholic church, Phi Theta Pi International Honorary Commerce fraternity, Milwaukee Chapter Association of the U. S. Two Horsemen Hurt in Area Mishaps Sunday

Two horseback riders were injured in accidents Sunday, one just north of Kewaskum and the other, which was more serious, at Mauthe lake in the Kettle Moraine State Forest area.

Edward E. "Pat" Miller, operator of Miller's furniture store and funeral home in Kewaskum, suffered a fractured bone in his right shoulder when he was thrown from one of his riding horses when the animal suddenly reared up at the John McElhatton home just north of the village Sunday morning. Pat keeps his horses in McElhatton's barn. He is a son-in-law. Pat was removed to St. Joseph's hospital, West Bend, in the firemen's ambulance. His condition was reported as good and he was expected to return home this week.

Donald Bishop, 14, son of the William S. Bishops, 330 N. 54th st., Milwaukee, suffered a probable severe skull fracture Sunday afternoon at the Mauthe Lake camp site when he either fell from or was kicked by a horse. The youth was unable to report what had actually

ST. LUCAS LADIES AID, GUILD ENJOY OUTINGS

On Thursday, June 16, 28 members of the St. Lucas Lutheran church Ladies' Aid and the Rev. Donald Bitter enjoyed their annual spring outing by bus on a trip to Madison, where they toured the Oscar Mayer meat packing plant and enjoyed a lunch in the cafeteria of the plant. In the afternoon they toured the state capitol.

The Ladies' Guild of St. Lucas and Rev. Bitter enjoyed their annual outing last Wednesday, June 15. They left by bus for Racine where they toured the Johnson Wax Co., the 7-Up Bottling Co. and the Y.W.C.A. A smorgasbord dinner was enjoyed at the Hob Nob, just out of Racine.

Fireworks Here on Saturday, July 2

Kewaskum will have its customary Fourth of July holiday fireworks display again this year. Sponsored jointly by the fire department and village board, the fireworks will be held in the village park on Saturday night, July 2, under the supervision of the firemen.

As usual the fireworks will be touched off directly across the river from the park in perfect view from the park hill as well as other vantage points on both sides of the water. Loudly exploding fireworks and beautiful displays, many of them of a different type from those shot off in past years, will make the display a better one than ever, which is sure to be enjoyed.

Before and after the fireworks, refreshment stands will be open in the park proper, offering those famous Kewaskum picnic hamburgers, beer, soda and popcorn. Les Schneider's orchestra will provide music for "dancing, drinking and dining." The fireworks and music are free but, of course, there will be a small charge for the refreshments.

The fireworks will begin right after dark, probably about 9:15 p. m. This will give everyone ample time to get here, especially those from the rural community. But come early to start off the holiday week end and enjoy a fine evening.

Three Local Teachers At Summer Workshop

Mrs. LaVerne Hron, Parkview drive, and Mrs. Helene Miller, West Bend, who teach at the Kewaskum Public school, and Mrs. Esther Hanselman, Eagle River, who teaches at the Kewaskum Community high school, are attending the fifteenth annual five weeks summer workshop at Trees for Tomorrow Camp, Eagle River. Mrs. Miller was awarded a $100.00 Guido Rahr Foundation scholarship. Mrs. Hanselman was awarded a $100.00 scholarship by the First National Bank of Eagle River.

Forty-three teachers are registered for this course, which is one of the oldest continuing accredited conservation workshops in the country.

Sponsored by the state colleges, the summer workshop offers six credits in graduate or undergraduate work. Subjects include conservation, field biology, conservation education and special problems.

A number of field tours to national and industrial forests, reservoirs, wood-using industries, and many other points of interest in the area are scheduled throughout the course, which runs from June 12 to July 16.

Perch fishing continues to be fair at Port Washington, fishing for bullheads, northern and carp fair to good on the Milwaukee river, perch and bluegill fishing fair to good at Pike lake, evening fishing for large-mouth bass good at Big C dar lake.

Fifteen hundred legal size brown trout and eight thousand two to four inch large mouth bass were planted at Wallace lake on June 16.

In the event the Indians and the Wisconsin white settlers were to hear the stories of the waste of panfish in the southern part of the state they would turn over in their graves. They caught those that they were able to eat and then stopped until another day. Far too many fish are wasted, dehydrated in the deep freeze, and then buried or destroyed at a municipal incinerator.

The chain letter fad which you have heard so much about has invaded Kewaskum by storm the past week. None of the letters reached here before but now they have come from Milwaukee, Minneapolis, St. Paul and other places. The letters promise big profits if the chain is not broken. The letters are headed, "Beat the Depression."

After having their scheduled game at Thiensville rained out last week, the Kewaskum team got the season underway Sunday in the Badger State league by beating Port Washington, 11-2. "Mix" Marx, who will share the pitching with Al Barron of Milwaukee, hurled a 5-hitter and struck out 12. Bill Harbeck, with 4 for 5, and Fritz Kral, with 3 for 5, led the hitters. Barron and Ray Mucha, Milwaukee Triple A league stars signed by Kewaskum, both hit homers. A very large crowd attended as the Kewaskum band played and Mayor Rosenheimer pitched the first ball. Refreshments were sold. Fond du Lac is a new team in the loop and the Fond du Lac Commonwealth-Reporter had this to say: "The Badger State league is one of the strongest in the state outside of the State league."

BALMY SUMMER DINING

By Isabel Du Bois

Take one balmy summer evening. Add a cloudless sky, just a slight whisper of a breeze and a brilliant setting sun. Also a good measure of family and friends, all ravenously hungry.

Combine with some gay chatter, a bit of whimsy, even a dash of romance, on occasion. Stir well with a brazier of glowing coals and garnish with a generous whiff of pungent hickory smoke mingled with that of meat roasting in a luxuriously fragrant barbecue sauce.

From Los Angeles to Portland, Miami to St. Paul this spells picnic. And a more beguiling way of spending a balmy summer evening just can't be found.

So let's plan a picnic, Mom. Here's how; you say when.

Father Is the Fireman

Though only a few men will have anything to do with the kitchen range, practically all accept the fact that cooking over an outdoor grill is a job, that by tradition, belongs to them. And it's a wise woman who latches onto this custom and gives her spouse free reign.

Your job is to get the food ready, Mom, before turning the apron over to Dad. Then simply sit back and let him do the cooking, without comment, naturally.

You might do well to assemble his tools as well as the food. For instance his favorite piece of equipment for dousing flames, be it a long spouted sprinkling can or a child's water pistol. Also tongs or a long handled fork, perhaps two, depending on what he's cooking. Above all don't forget his padded mitts or big pot holders to protect his fingers. Another must. A long handled swab (cloth on stick) or a new paint brush for dabbing the food with butter or sauce. Remember, too, Dad loves to flaunt his outdoor cooking talent and turn the job into a real ceremony. Encourage this.

Two Skewer Combinations

And now let's see what's on the grill. For any occasion dictating an elegantly simple menu, we recommend one of Dad's best friends, the kabob, in particular, two skewer combinations. Both have chunks of pineapple and pimiento olives interspersed between Swiss cheese and meat chunks. One uses the cubes of Swiss wrapped with bacon, the other with strips of sliced, baked or broiled ham.

You'll find that the smokiness of the bacon and ham will combine well with the Swiss cheese. Besides, whereas other cheeses will melt away over the open fire, Swiss won't.

For best results brush both the olives and pineapple chunks with melted butter before roasting. Then grill about 5 to 10 minutes or until the kabobs are tender and lusciously browned. For service push them off the skewers onto hot toasted buns that are lavishly spread with butter.

Easy to Prepare Salad

The rest of the meal couldn't be easier. There's a big bowl of tossed salad, made up of crisp fresh vegetables, then topped with a mound of cottage cheese and a few tomato wedges when you're ready. Also a bowl heaped with crunchy potato chips.

For a finale, an assortment of ice cream is spooned into paper cups. Each person chooses his own personal favorite.

Lacking time for the slow baking that's necessary to savory baked beans open a can of commercially packed pork and beans. Stir in a tablespoon of sweet pickle relish for each 16 ounce can. Or add a quarter teaspoon prepared mustard and a quarter cup of cubed process cheese. Heat over the grill for a fine substitute to the home baked variety.

Golden toasted French bread is another menu star. This is a real quicky to fix. Simply slice a loaf of French bread in half lengthwise, then place on a sheet of foil and toast on the back of the grill. It will take 5 to 10 minutes depending on the coals. A big bowl of tossed greens, laced with a nippy dressing makes a colorful sidekick dish.

The grand finale, for which the rest of this menu was but a build-up is a chocolate orange torte, whisked from the refrigerator at dessert time. Though it sounds fancy it's not at all difficult to make. The base of this superb creation is a large 10 inch angel food cake purchased at your favorite bakery or grocery.

CZAJA-SPAETH

Holy Trinity church, Kewaskum, was the scene of an 11 a. m. nuptial mass read by Father Anthony Czaja, uncle of the bride, on Saturday, June 18, which united Miss Diane Mary Czaja, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Czaja, Kewaskum, and Jerome Roland Spaeth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Isadore Spaeth, R. 4, West Bend.

The bride wore a floor length gown of chantilly lace over nylon styled with short sleeves and worn with a short veil gathered to a pearl crown. Her flowers were a double heart shaped bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis. Mary Ann Czaja served as her sister's maid of honor. Diane Engel-eiter a friend, Mrs. Henry Spaeth, the bridegroom's sister-in-law and Mrs. Leonard Barth, a friend, were bridesmaids while Barbara Gaunt, the bride's cousin, was junior bridesmaid. All were gowned alike in street length dresses of white embossed nylon over mint green taffeta. Tiers of nylon formed the full skirts. They carried double ring bouquets of mint green carnations. Little Joann Czaja, sister of the bride, as flower girl, wore a floor length white organza frock with a large bow at the back and carried a miniature copy of the bride's bouquet.

Serving as his brother's best man was Tony Spaeth, while two other brothers, Bernie and Henry Spaeth, served as groomsmen together with a friend, Leonard Barth. Ushers were Ronnie Spaeth, the bridegroom's brother, and Richard Czaja brother of the bride, who came from Germany where he is serving with the army. Master David Case, cousin of the bride, was ringbearer.

Dinner at the church hall preceded a reception at the Moose hall, West Bend, and a dance at the Artistic ballroom.

Following their return from a trip through the eastern states, the couple will make their home in West Bend. The bride is a Kewaskum High school graduate and works at her father's meat market in West Bend. The bridegroom graduated from West Bend High school and is employed at the West Bend Aluminum Co.

SAUER-PUERLING

Barbara Sauer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Sauer, West Bend, and Robert Puerling, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nick Puerling, Kewaskum, were married at a 9:30 a. m. nuptial mass on Saturday, June 18, performed by the Rev. Edmund Haen at St. Frances Cabrini church, West Bend.

The bride chose a floor length gown of imported embroidered tulle, designed with a fitted basque bodice, long tapered sleeves and a scalloped scoop neckline encrusted with pearls and sequins. A tunic overskirt of scalloped embroidered tulle enhanced the nylon tulle skirt. Her fingertip veil of silk illusion was held by a clip crown of sequins and pearls. Her flowers were a crescent of white sweetheart roses, white carnations and lilies of the valley.

The bride was attended by Sue Cassey as maid of honor and Mrs. Carol Puerling and Judy Puerling, a sister of the bridegroom, as bridesmaids. They were dressed alike in waltz length ice blue organza dresses styled with shirred skirts, fitted shirred bodices, V-necklines and cap sleeves, and streamer trim caught with roses. Their matching miniature clip hats of lilies of the valley held face veils, and they carried baskets of pink Esther Reed and Marguerite daisies.

The flower girls, Mary Jo and Joanne Peterson, cousins of the bride, wore hoop-skirted white embroidered nylon dresses trimmed with blue cummerbunds and bows. They carried baskets of flowers.

Best man for his brother was Richard Puerling, while Robert Sauer, brother of the bride, and Joe Klahn, a friend, were groomsmen. Ushers were Ken Goeden and Don Goeden.

Dinner at the VFW hall, West Bend, was followed by a 4 p. m. reception and buffet supper.

The newlyweds, both of whom are employed at Amity Leather Products Co., West Bend, will live at 223 Decorah rd. in that city. The bride is a West Bend High school graduate and her husband graduated from Kewaskum High school.

HORN-SRAMEK

Miss Delores M. Horn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Horn, R. 1, Random Lake, and Wayne R. Sramek, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Sramek, R. 1, Kewaskum, were married in a ceremony performed by the Rev. Richard Bolin at St. John's Lutheran church, Sherman Center, at 2 p. m. on Saturday, June 11.

Maid of honor was Marie Staeger, while the bridesmaids were Mrs. Donald Horn, Judy Gardner and Mrs. Fritz Koepke. Miss Bonnie Staeger was junior bridesmaid and Shary Koth was the miniature bride.

Best man was Delmar Kempf, while Donald and Ronald Horn were groomsmen. Ushers were Ed Zambrowski, Fritz and James Gardner, Dennis Horn, ringbearer, carried a white satin heart-shaped pillow.

A buffet supper and reception for about 500 guests were held at Nonn's Kettle Moraine lake resort.

Following a honeymoon in northern Wisconsin and Michigan they will be at home on R. 1, Random Lake. The bride, a Random Lake High school graduate, is employed at the Borden Co., Plymouth. Her husband, a Kewaskum High school graduate, is employed at the Kiekhaefer Corp., Cedarburg.

Flavored Milk Drinks Are June Favorites

Summertime, when liquids are high in demand, is a good time to serve plenty of energizing, refreshing milk.

For a new and unusual refresher for your family or guests, why not try some flavored milk drinks. There's practically no end to the variety that can be made, for it seems that almost any flavor goes well with milk.

Milk snacks make appealing between-meal pick-me-ups and are delicious with cookies as an evening treat. They're especially popular when you provide a variety of juices or syrups and let everyone create his own favorite.

Try these tempting combinations next time the cry for refreshing beverages rings out.

Chocolate Milk Shake—Add 2 tablespoons or more chocolate syrup to 1 cup milk. Beat with egg beater. Top with ice cream—vanilla or chocolate.

Frosted Chocolate—Beat into the chocolate and milk mixture a scoop of ice cream. Malted milk may be added.

Maple Milk Shake—Use 2 to 3 tablespoons of maple syrup instead of chocolate.

Grape Cooler—Combine equal parts of cold grape juice and milk, stirring the grape juice into the milk. Add a top knot of slightly sweetened whipped cream. Pineapple juice may be used in the same way.

Banana Flip—Choose a fully ripe banana, flecked with brown. Peel, slice into a bowl and beat until creamy using a hand or electric beater. Add 1 cup of cold milk. Top with sweetened whipped cream with a dash of cinnamon.

Chocolate Malt Banana Flip—Add to the mashed banana 1 and ½ tablespoons chocolate flavored malt drink powder. Then stir in milk.

Pineapple Crush—Stir together ¼ cup crushed pineapple with its syrup and 1 cup cold milk. Good alone or topped with a scoop of ice cream.

Strawberry or Raspberry Crush—Using sweetened crushed berries, combine ¼ cup of the berries with 1 cup milk. Top the strawberry mix with strawberry ice cream; the raspberry with vanilla ice cream. Frozen berries, thawed, may be used.

FROSTED CHOCOLATE COOKIES

- ½ cup (1 stick) butter
- 1 cup sugar
- 1 teaspoon vanilla
- 1 large egg
- 2 squares chocolate, melted
- 1½ cups sifted all-purpose flour
- ½ teaspoon salt
- ½ teaspoon soda
- 1 cup coarsely chopped walnuts
- ½ cup chopped raisins, if desired
- ¾ cups buttermilk

Have butter at room temperature. Add sugar, egg, vanilla and beat until creamy, then add the melted chocolate. Combine dry ingredients in flour sifter and add to creamed mixture along with the nuts, raisins and milk. Mix well. Drop by teaspoonful on greased cookie sheet, 2 inches apart. Bake in a moderately hot oven (400°) about 10 minutes. Remove from pan at once, onto a cake rack. When cool, frost with Chocolate Icing made by combining 1 square melted chocolate, 1 cup powdered sugar, ½ teaspoon vanilla, 3 tablespoons hot milk or cream. Makes about 40 cookies, depending on size.

People who "swim like a fish" should remember that it is possible even for fish to drown. The Institute for Safer Living of the American Mutual Liability Insurance Company estimates that 6,500 drownings will occur this year as a result of boating and bathing accidents. Many victims, says the institute, will be skilled swimmers who made the mistake of becoming overconfident.

Helen Schaefer at Badger Girls State

Helen M. Schaefer, 1102 Fond du Lac Ave., Kewaskum, was among the 411 high school girls from throughout Wisconsin who participated in the 17th session of Badger Girl's State June 15-22 on the University of Wisconsin campus, Madison.

Co-sponsored by the Wisconsin American Legion Auxiliary and the UW Extension bureau of government, the girls spent the week learning about government on city, county and state levels in a program designed to prepare them for their future responsibilities as citizens. The girls, all seniors-to-be in Wisconsin high schools, were selected by school officials on the basis of leadership, scholarship and character. Each is sponsored by the Legion Auxiliary or a civic group in her home town.

During the week the girls hold mock elections, organized city, county and state governments, conducted campaigns and attended lectures on various phases of government. A high point of the week was the legislative session at the State Capitol where the girls who were elected senators and assemblymen enacted laws and sent them to their governor and other executive officials.

Two outstanding members of Badger Girls' State are chosen to represent Wisconsin at Girls' Nation in Washington, D. C.

Rainbow League Team Loses to Cascade, 5-3

Kewaskum was hitting the ball but right at the fielders here Sunday and as a result lost to Cascade 5-3, in a Rainbow loop contest. It was the team's first setback.

Otto Ramthun started on the hill for Kewaskum but was struck by a line drive in the second inning and had to leave the mound. Don Meisenheimer went the rest of the way. Schipper went the route for Cascade, striking out 4 and walking 5, while giving up 3 hits. The visitors collected 5 hits off of the local hurlers, who fanned 7 and passed 4. Kewaskum was charged with 5 errors and Cascade 2.

Miller's triple for the winners was the best hit of the day. Kewaskum hit 9 fly balls to the outfield, some of them long ones, which were caught. They scored 1 on their runs in the first frame and the other 2 in the sixth.

Beechwood will invade the local diamond this Sunday. This game is scheduled at Beechwood but as they have no playing field, it will be played here.
