Changes in High School Curriculum For 1971-72 Okayed by School Board

Seminar for Better Senior Students, New Courses Available

ENROLLMENT INCREASE TO 700 MEANS MORE TEACHERS

By Ruth Held
of the Kewaskum Statesman

The board of education unanimously approved some changes in the 1971-1972 high school curriculum when it met here Monday night. The proposed changes were outlined by Principal Edward Connors who said all of them were originally recommended to him by the teaching staff and the students.

He said comments and suggestions about the study courses come to him almost daily from the 40-member staff. "But this is the first year we are working with the students through their student council," he explained.

"We are attempting to keep the curriculum in hand to adjust to our rapidly changing society; to help the student to take courses truly relevant to the present and to offer an education of a type that will keep pace with the ever changing job market," Connors stated.

He noted that a curriculum is controlled by the classroom facilities available and that the high school classrooms are being utilized at 90 per cent, far above normal.

Under the revised curriculum, and aimed at an individual approach to education, a seminar involving independent study or research for the better student and the student with a high interest in a specific course or area will be available to seniors. It was described as "the basic step to individualized instruction."

It was explained that most likely not more than a dozen students will be involved and this group will not meet in a class, as such. Seniors who elect the seminar will meet with teachers for orientation. After being assigned to their respective teachers, the student will

Granted Degree at WSU-Whitewater

A record number of seniors were granted baccalaureate degrees Sunday, Jan. 24, when Whitewater State University held its seventh mid-year commencement at 2:30 p. m. in Williams Center. Close to 600 WSU students were graduated compared to last year's total of 400.

The welcoming address was given by Dr. Raymond E. Light, acting dean of Whitewater State's newly-created College of the Arts. A new $5 million Fine Arts building will house the total departments of art, music, and theater, plus segments of the dance, when occupancy is assumed next fall.

Among the graduates was Mrs. Edward Connors, 1026 Hillside Dr., Kewaskum, who received a bachelor of science in education degree with a major in upper elementary education. She graduated Summa Cum Laude.

Local Graduate Chosen for UN Study Program

Gerald Engeleiter

Gerald Engeleiter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Engeleiter of R. 3 West Bend, a 1969 graduate of Kewaskum High School, is one of three Wisconsin students who will participate in the United Nations Study Program for the spring semester. Gerry is presently a sophomore at Carroll College in Waukesha.

The other two students participating are from the University of Wisconsin-Madison and Carroll College.

Engeleiter was one of more than 20 students recommended by professors at Carroll. He was chosen for this work-study program following screening, verbal and written interviews.

Ordinarily the program is for juniors and seniors, but Gerry's fine academic record caused the committee to overlook his sophomore standing.

The three students, along with others from across the nation, will be living in Madison, N. J., about 25 miles from New York City. There they will attend classes three days a week at Drew University in line with their selected majors. In Engeleiter's case, he will be studying in the areas of business administration, economics and political science.

The students will spend the other two days in New York observing the workings of the United Nations with 80 other young people who take advantage of Drew's United Nations program to study international relations each spring.

Gerry, 19, has been on the Dean's Honor List at Carroll College, and had a 3.75 average (out of a possible 4.0) last semester. He is a member of Tau Kappa Epsilon fraternity and has lettered in football for two years. This season he was on the specialty teams and played some defensive backfield until a non-football injury sidelined him for part of the season.

While a student at Kewaskum High School, Engeleiter was an honor student. He was a member of the National Honor Society, Student Council, and on the yearbook staff. He participated in

10 AFS Students Attend Get-Together Here

By Ruth Held
of the Kewaskum Statesman

A mixture of nationalities and cultures was smoothly blended together here when ten American Field Service students took part in an "AFS Get-Together."

Local families were hosts to the visitors who arrived in Kewaskum Friday night and were met by their weekend families at the home of Mrs. L. N. Peterson, a member of the adult AFS Chapter.

By the time the festivities ended shortly after 3 p. m. Sunday, the AFS'ers had taken part in a variety of activities arranged by Mrs. Peterson.

They had toured three local industries: Regal Ware, Inc., Badger Packaging Corp., and Fairmont Foods. They had attended two high school basketball games and saw the Kewaskum Indians victorious over both Slinger and Hartland-Arrowhead High Schools. The students were introduced at the Friday night game by faculty member Ernest Mitchell.

They had also attended church services. One was overheard to say he had been to his own denomination plus one other. And after a Sunday noon potluck dinner at the high school, the AFS students put on a program at which Kewaskum's "Ivan," as he likes to be called, was host.

He lives with Mr. and Mrs. Lester Benzschawel and their four children in Beechwood and he attends Kewaskum High School as a senior.

Speaking generally to an audience of about 100, Ivan commented on the need for peace among nations. Then, on a person-to-person basis, the tall, dark-haired, athletic-type youth said, "I don't know words to thank you. . . . You are the greatest persons because you give us something of you."

Some appeared in native costume. Others, in mini-skirts or slacks, looked very much like the girl or boy next door. Their contributions to the program varied as their nationalities and ranged from a harmonica solo, to a number of dances, to a song with guitar accompaniment, to a piano solo, to a bamboo "pole dance." "It's sort of like a long-legged bird hopping between bamboo poles," the student-dancer said. Each told of his homeland. Some showed colored slides.

Clapping their hands in rhythm, the AFS'ers enthusiastically joined in the finale, "The AFS Song," which is a parody to "When the Saints Come Marching In." Then, home with their American parents, to resume their American life.

The visiting students, their homeland, their American city and their weekend hosts were: Lida Maddahi from Iran, living in Hartford and with the Edward Volm family for the weekend; Nils Peder Eriksen (Norway) Hubertus—the August F. Bilgo family; Christiane Colinet (Belgium), West Bend—the Ronald Schultz family; Hermine Voelkert (Austria), West Bend—Mrs. Rose Miller and family.

Deborah Holland (New Zealand), Lomira—Mrs. Louise Marx and family; Enrico Ito (The Philippines), Fond du Lac—the Dean Roe family; Peter Beatty (Australia), Horicon—the Ernest Mitchell family; Nora Y. Vivas (Argentina), Waupun—the William McCarty family; Ann Andero (Sweden), Markesan—the Roman Feltenz family.

The weekend was a joint effort of the adult AFS Chapter and the high school AFS Club. Miss Katharine Brue is faculty adviser. As master of ceremonies, Charles Miller of the adult chapter, viewed in retrospect the AFS program including the students who have come here from abroad and the local students who have gone to other parts of the world.

Four Candidates File for Village Trustee Offices

There will be only one contest in the Village of Kewaskum in the April 6 spring election. The deadline for filing papers was 5 p. m. Tuesday, with four candidates filing for the three positions as village trustees.

Cyril N. Wietor, village president, will be unopposed as the only candidate to file nomination papers to seek election for the president's office. Wietor was appointed village president shortly after the beginning of the current term of office almost two years ago when the elected official, Carl Freehauf, was forced to resign because of ill health. He will be seeking his first full two year term of office.

All incumbent trustees who are up for election have filed papers to retain their positions. They are Alfred G. Kral, Charles Miller and Orval E. Behnke. A fourth candidate for the village board is Alvin H. Wiesner of 1201 River-view Dr., an employee of Fairmont Foods, Inc.

Miller was appointed to succeed Wietor, a former trustee, when Wietor was appointed village president to succeed Freehauf. He is also a member of the county board of supervisors, representing the village to succeed the late Elwyn M. Romaine. Kral and Behnke were elected to office two years ago.

REGISTRATION OPEN FOR YMCA TOT-TIME CLASSES

On Feb. 16, the Kettle Moraine YMCA will begin a pre-school program for children ages 3½ - 5. The classes will run on Tuesday and Thursday morning. All classes will be held at the Peace United Church of Christ. Fees will be $6.00 for the remainder of February and $12.00 per month thereafter.

Classes are limited to 20 children per session, so you are invited to sign up immediately that a place will be reserved for your child. Parents wanting more information about the program can call the YMCA office at 338-0553 or the Peace United Church of Christ at 626-4011.

Sandwich spread is what you get from eating between meals.

CURRICULUM

contract to accomplish a certain amount of work, on a semester or year basis. Concentration will be in the area of the student's interest.

He will receive both credit and grade if this course is part of his five and one-half credit course load. If elected in addition to the course may be taken on a credit-pass basis. If he fails, it won't become a part of his school record.

Connors stated that the seminar suggestion came from an English teacher. The student council is in favor of it and it has the recommendation of the administration. On that basis, the board members approved.

Also open to seniors will be "Synthetic and Special Fabric Construction," a study of synthetic and industry. Advanced construction techniques will be studied and garments will be constructed to gain knowledge of special techniques needed for fur-like fabrics, velvets, knits and slippery textures.

Also, "Industrial Synthetics" in which the student will learn about the different types of plastics and their characteristics, with the opportunity to apply this knowledge. Processes to be studied are: thermo priming, vacuum forming, mechanical forming, injection molding, explosion molding, the expansion of polystyrene, expandable bends and fiberglass fabrication. Both are on a one semester basis.

Both the synthetic fabric and industrial synthetic courses will also be open to juniors, plus "Comparative Government" which becomes a back-up to "Current Affairs."

Sophomores may also elect "Synthetic and Special Fabric Construction." Elective for freshmen will be "Personal Typing" which teaches simple aspects of typing. It is not new to the curriculum; it has just not been offered to freshmen before.

Freshmen athletics (football, basketball and wrestling) now being held after school will be moved to the seventh period instead of after school to make better use of the related facilities.

Also, under the revised curriculum, the reading lab Title I remedial program will be moved from the high school to junior high level at the conclusion of the 1971 summer session. The reading program in the junior high would then be expanded and a full-time Title I reading specialist be employed.

In a few areas, there will be need for more teachers, especially since the enrollment is expected to increase to 700 students, grades 9-12, next year, it was pointed out. But, "roughly speaking, the present staff can handle the new curriculum," Supt. Marshall Boyd stated.

Also, the policy regarding credit requirements for high school graduation was clarified. Although 99 per cent of the students are carrying five and one-half credits per year, "the minimum requirements for graduation is 18 credits and enrollment for four school years. Students shall select five and one-half credits each year."

Board member Allen Tessar was designated as an alternate on the wage negotiations committee which meets with a similar group representing the teachers. Tessar will serve in the absence of one of his committee.

The board adjourned into executive session for "negotiations."

Student Council Offers Community Service Projects

Last Friday a garbage truck carrying a load of left-over Christmas trees and five student council members started out from the municipal building.

What was it all about? It's one of the community service projects offered by the Kewaskum High School student council. The council is using the program to assist community organizations and to gain a community-wise reputation.

The garbage truck was manned by Dave Schacht, Clark Eichstedt, Greg Ogi, Mark Clark and Dale Frost. Trees were hauled to the skating rinks at the grade school and at the park, and set up as windbreaks.

The student council is also posting a watch at the grade school skating rink. High school people will be there after school and on Saturdays to help keep order and insure safe-play.

A sidewalk shoveling project will soon be underway. Older persons in the community needing their sidewalks shoveled will have a team of teen-agers take care of the problem free of charge.

These projects are separate from the council sponsored donkey basketball game Sunday, Feb. 7, at 3 p. m.. The funds for this project will be used to pay for the newly erected football and baseball scoreboard.

Cooperation in these projects on the part of high schoolers will be greatly needed and appreciated.

Family That Came Here 20 Years Ago As DP's From Germany Extends Appreciation

EDITOR'S NOTE—A Kewaskum family that arrived here 20 years ago as DP's (Displaced Persons) from Germany, this week presented a letter of appreciation to Rev. Dan Schowalter, which he will read in his church. Rev. Schowalter in turn submitted the letter to the Statesman, which we believe will be of interest to our readers, and will allow the family's message to reach more people. The letter follows:

25 January, 1971

On 26 of January, 1951, we came to Kewaskum as DP's from Germany. Our sponsors were Mr. and Mrs. William Schaefer. Next day we started our new life in this country. In this letter we like to express our appreciation to Mr. and Mrs. Schaefer, their mothers, Peace Church and all citizens of Kewaskum who helped us to start our life in America. We were touched to the heart of kindness and attention from such kind people and it made us feel easier.

It was 20 years ago, but we didn't forget it and we never will.

We all thank very much our sponsors, their mothers and all you good hearted people.

It was a party in Peace Church. We got lot of presents and lot of people came to meet us. You can imagine how we felt. We were nervous.

We thank God for His kindness to us, too. Once more we thank everybody being so nice to us.

God bless you and keep in good health and give you easy life.

God bless America and send peace.

Yours sincerely and thankful.

Miss Hansen Among Students Working In Field Programs

During the Lakeland College Winterim this month, 83 students are working in education and sociology field programs in four states.

In the field of education, juniors and seniors are working in local schools and agencies as teacher aides during the term. The emphasis is being placed on pre-school programs such as Head Start, child care centers, nursery schools, four year kindergarten and special education.

There are 44 students enrolled in sociology programs at institutions and agencies throughout the state, serving the aged, mentally ill, emotionally disturbed, delinquent and deprived in all departments.

According to Philip Phillips, assistant professor of education at Lakeland, the field programs help make the perspective of future professions more clear to the student.

Those students in sociology programs around the state, working in all departments from physical therapy to administration, include Karen Hansen, Kewaskum, at Sheboygan County Hospital.

Girl Scout Drive Being Conducted

There are over 80 Girl Scouts in Kewaskum and 22 adults working with them. Because of the rewarding experiences of scouting, both girls and adults have made lasting friends and have become better members of our community.

Scouts participate in activities in the home, arts, and out-of-doors, give service, learn patriotism and develop desirable character traits.

As a non-profit organization, the Wau-Bun Girl Scout Council, besides recording all business transactions and furnishing necessary literature to the area, provides personnel to help organize troops, train leaders, teach camp skills and operate Camp Tiwau-shara. This costs money.

The Wau-Bun Council, in letters sent out to businessmen, is asking for their financial support to maintain Girl Scouting in Kewaskum. Our girls will continue to receive lasting benefits. They are counting on you.

A volunteer will personally contact you during the week of Feb. 1. Or if you wish, please make your contribution to Mrs. Robert W. Schmidt, Kewaskum 53040. Please make checks payable to Wau-Bun Girl Scout Council.

Mrs. Wilmer Falk is chairman of the Girl Scout Fund Drive.

The Girl Scouts' residential drive will be held in the fall.

A sewing circle is where women come to needle others.

Student Council Sponsors Donkey Basketball Game

The Kewaskum High School Student Council is sponsoring a donkey basketball game Sunday, Feb. 7, at 3 p. m. The council's goal for the event is $1,000 to pay for the football and baseball scoreboard put up at the beginning of the school year.

The two teams riding donkeys will be composed of members of the high school faculty. Shaw Brothers, Inc. handled the same event last year in West Bend, which was a real success. This is bound to be one of the funniest versions of "Hee Haw" ever seen at Kewaskum High.

Advance sale tickets are available at businesses in town at $1.00 for adults and 75 cents for children. Tickets will also be sold at the door for $1.25 and $1.00.

MUSICAL MASQUERS TO PRESENT PLAY

The Musical Masquers, in collaboration with the University of Wisconsin theatre lab, Washington County Campus, West Bend, will present the play, "Night Must Fall" by Evelyn Williams on Jan. 29 and 30 and Feb. 5 and 6 at the UW theatre on the Washington County Campus. Director will be Lou Warncke. Admission is $2.00 for adults and $1.00 for students. Time of each performance is 8:15 p. m.

Two more new cases of infantile paralysis in the community were reported, one a 9-year-old St. Michaels boy and the other a 12-year-old Town of Auburn boy who attends the New Fane school.

Twenty-six priests of the Milwaukee Archdiocese received new appointments. Nine of them were curates, among them being the Rev. William J. Mayer, son of the Jos. Mayers of Kewaskum. Fr. Mayer was transferred from St. Monica's parish, Whitefish Bay, to St. Anthony's, Milwaukee.

Thousands of bushels of grain and cattle feed and large quantities of flour were destroyed in a $30,000 fire which swept the Bauer Bros. elevator, office building and warehouse in Campbellsport in a right fire. The buildings were practically destroyed and little of the contents could be salvaged. Kewaskum firemen were called to help the Campbellsport department battle the flames.

Ralph Koth, a Kewaskum High School graduate of last spring, who enlisted in the U. S. Navy, now is training at the naval training station at Great Lakes.

Harry H. Maaske, real estate broker, sold the Al Wictor property consisting of a lot, barber shop and residence on Main St. to an undisclosed buyer. Wictor, who was recently discharged from the marine corps, conducted a barber business in the building before entering service. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Bingen purchased the Christian Backhaus home on S. Fond du Lac Ave. The Bingen's sold their tavern recently to Mr. and Mrs. John Wink.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Marx and family moved from the lower flat in the Mike Skupniewitz home on Prospect Ave. into the home of Mrs. Marx's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Hron, on Second St., which the Marxes purchased. The Hrons are having a new home erected to the rear of their former home.

Service news: Cpl. Fred Buss, Jr. returned to the states after serving the past year in England. Cpl. Paul KraJ arrived home from England after 21 months of service overseas. Mrs. Ruth Held received two letters from her husband, T/Cpl. Norman Held, who is stationed in Brunswick, Germany, in which he writes that he is now occupying the former quarters of Herman Goering, No. 2 Nazi leader. The letters were written on Goering's personal stationery which Cpl. Held obtained in his quarters.

50 YEARS AGO

An aeroplane passed over this village Wednesday afternoon.

David M. Rosenheimer received a letter announcing the sad news of the death of his mother, Mrs. Retha Rosenheimer, which took place at her home in Erlangen, Bavaria.

That quality is sometimes done up in small packages was proven by the Grafton High School basketball team here. The common remark of the crowd was, "how small and short they are." It looked like a mistake and the kindergarten had arrived or worse yet someone had robbed the cradle. A few minutes of play, however, showed the visitors had an eye for the basket and speed. But when the final whistle shrieked Kewaskum had won, 25-9. Eldon Ramthun, playing guard for the first time, did excellent work in breaking up plays. Runte starred for the locals with 9 field goals and a free throw.

The mask ball to be given by the Modern Woodmen at the opera house Feb. 7 will be a hummer and the prize money has been increased.

A packed house of fans, including many from West Bend, Campbellsport, Wayne and other neighboring communities, saw the Kewaskum village team lose to the powerful Oshkosh B'Gosh team here Sunday night, 26-20, in the opera house. The visitors were strengthened by four professional players.

A deal was consummated whereby L. D. Guth of this village purchased the ten-acre lot of Judge A. C. Backus of Milwaukee located between the Milwaukee river and the railroad tracks in the village. Mr. Guth stated he intends to use the land for factory sites and other industrial purposes.

Expert Warns Many Women Who Need Rh Vaccine Most Are Not Getting It

By RALPH W. GAUSE, M.D.
Obstetrical Consultant
The National Foundation-
March of Dimes

Medical authorities estimate that about one out of every four women who need the Rh vaccine to prevent possible blood disease in her children is not receiving it.

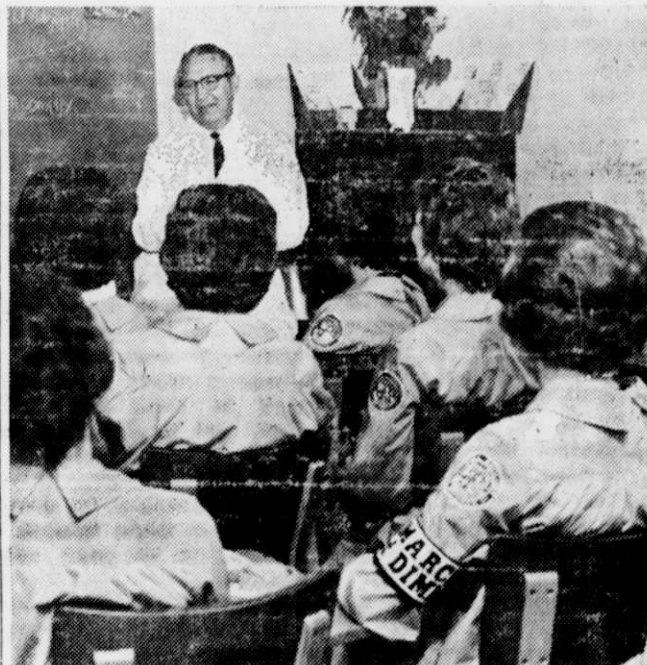

The news is particularly disturbing to us at The National Foundation because our aim is prevention of birth defects. Maximum use of the Rh immune globulin, popularly called Rh vaccine, ultimately can end the threat of severe and sometimes fatal damage to the newborn.

The Rh factor is a substance found on the surface of red blood cells. Those with this factor are Rh positive. Those without it are Rh negative, which is just as healthy. Until an Rh negative woman becomes pregnant, or needs a transfusion, there is no need for concern.

Problems in pregnancy arise only when the husband has Rh positive blood and the wife has Rh negative. There are usually no harmful effects to the baby in a first pregnancy, but subsequent pregnancies can be jeopardized.

Vaccine Effectiveness
When Rh positive blood cells from the baby intermingle with those of the mother during delivery, her body sometimes responds by developing antibodies that attack blood cells containing the Rh factor. It is these antibodies that become a possible threat to the child in later pregnancies.

Rh blood disease threatens some 40,000 unborn and newborn babies annually and is the cause of between 7,000 and 10,000 fetal deaths each year. If the infant stricken with the disease survives, he could be a victim of congenital anemia, heart failure, jaundice, spasticity, mental retardation or visual and hearing defects.

Community volunteers are kept informed about medical progress in the fight to prevent birth defects at March of Dimes Birth Defects Centers around the country.

The public needs to realize that the Rh vaccine is nearly 100 per cent effective and can prevent these tragedies. Every woman who requires the vaccine however, must be inoculated within 72 hours after she has delivered her first child or has had a miscarriage.

Antibody Mismatch
Rh immune globulin supplies an Rh negative woman with the antibodies she needs to counter an invasion of Rh positive fetal blood. As a result she does not have to make her own antibodies and so does not become sensitized to Rh positive factor.

If a woman has been sensitized by a previous pregnancy or transfusion the vaccine cannot help her. Science, however, has developed other methods that have drastically cut the toll of infant death and damage. These are exchange transfusions at birth and intrauterine transfusions. Rh disease is no threat to the vast majority. Most whites and almost all blacks have Rh positive blood. Besides, a child will not automatically inherit the Rh positiveness of his father, since one grandparent may have been Rh negative.

When the serum was licensed, The National Foundation launched a massive public and professional education drive. Chapter volunteers distribute information through health departments, schools, marriage license bureaus, pharmacies, clubs and organizations.

In particular, we would like to see Rh blood typing routinely included in premarital blood tests. Then if a couple knew beforehand that they are Rh incompatible, the mother can be inoculated right after her first delivery.

Indians Avenge Loss to Hartland, Also Tip Slinger

RETAIN FIRST PLACE TIE WITH TWO WEEKEND WINS

The Kewaskum Indians continued to roll with two big victories over the weekend, both home games. On Friday they avenged their only loss of the season in their opener at Hartland Arrowhead by snowing them under here, 94-57, and Saturday they won over a strong, third place Slinger team, 76-67. But Mayville also won their contests over the weekend to remain in a tie for first place with the Indians. Mayville barely eked out a 2-point 47-45 win over Hartland Saturday, the same team Kewaskum clobbered by 37 points the night before.

Kewaskum's one-sided win over Hartland Friday made it appear hard to believe that the Warhawks could have defeated them in an earlier tilt. But they did, 71-66, the Indians' only loss, in and outside of the conference, of the season. Friday's match was strictly no contest as Kewaskum poured it on to gain sweet revenge.

Right from the start the aroused Indians made a runaway of the game. They jumped off to an unbelievable 32-9 lead in the first quarter, hitting from all angles in their high-scoring period. Delighted fans couldn't believe it was a strong Hartland team they were playing. From then on Arrowhead never had a chance. Kewaskum outscored them big again in the second stanza, 22-14, to take a commanding 54-23 halftime lead. In the third period Kewaskum put the game way out of reach, pouring it on the Warhawks, 19-9, to take a lopsided 73-32 advantage. Finally, with subs finishing up in the final quarter, Hartland was able to outscore the Indians, 25-21, to bring the final count to 94-57.

Kewaskum shot a sizzling 68 per cent from the field in the first quarter and 53 per cent in the second, continuing this pace in the third period. It wasn't all offense for the winners, much credit must go to their staunch defensive play. Holding a good scoring team to 32 points in three quarters is a bangup job.

The Indians also won the argument on the boards, snaring 50 rebounds to the visitors 40. Clark Eichstedt and Bob Mertz each hauled in 12 rebounds and Glen Eichstedt added 11. Clark also won scoring honors with 24 points followed closely by brother Glen with 18. Mertz and Tom Theusch also scored in double figures. Rod Barbera, leading scorer in the conference, also scored 24 for Hartland to equal Eichstedt's performance and remain slightly ahead of him. Mike Audley added 18.

As always, Slinger proved to be a hard nut to crack for the Indians Saturday, although Kewaskum also beat them in their first meeting earlier. The Indians started out like a house afire and looked like they would repeat Friday's performance and drub the Owls even worse than they did Hartland the night before.

Before the Owls knew what was happening, Kewaskum ran up a decisive 16-1 lead in the first few minutes. This didn't seem to bother Slinger any and they recovered to cut the margin to 18-8 at the quarter. Bob Mertz was charged with his third foul in the second period and was taken out. This really hurt the Indians and seemed to turn the tide of the game as their lead steadily dwindled. By halftime Kewaskum's lead was cut to just 4 points, 38-34.

Slinger continued to hammer away in the third quarter and their fans went wild as they outscored Kewaskum, 19-16, to cut the lead to just one point, 54-53. Finally the Owls took the lead temporarily but then it was the Indians' turn to bounce back and they came through like champions. With the pressure on, Clark Eichstedt, who was held to 12 points in the first 3 quarters, took charge by adding 12 points in the final quarter to insure the victory. With much assistance from his teammates, the hot-shooting Indians bounced back to outscore the Owls, 22-14, in the final stanza to win going away. It was a barn-burner.

Clark finished as high scorer with his 24 points, followed by brother Glen and John Nohr, each with 13. Mertz sank 5 out of 6 shots he took and Nohr came through with some clutch baskets in the final period, when they were needed. Clark and Glen each snared 18 rebounds and the latter blocked many shots and made 5 steals. Dennis Smith made 11 assists. Jim Spreinkman had 23 points for the fighting Owls and Mike Zwierein was hot in his outside shooting.

Tonight (Friday) Kewaskum makes its longest trip of the year, playing at Kettle Moraine, which is tied for last place with Germantown.

Eichstedt Nominated for AP State Player of Week Honors

Dan Krueger, a 6-foot junior guard at Stevens Point High School, was named Associated Press Wisconsin high school player of the week by the state's sportswriters and broadcasters this week.

Krueger, who is called "Mr. Clutch" at his school, proved to be just that in his team's 58-56 overtime victory over Shawano Friday. He scored Stevens Point's last 6 points in regulation play and the team's entire 6 points in overtime. For his performance he was named player of the week.

Krueger is the son of Bob Krueger, athletic director and head basketball coach at Stevens Point State University. He was a unanimous all-Wisconsin Valley Conference selection last year, becoming the first sophomore to be named to the all-league squad since Johnny Kotz, who went on to fame at the University of Wisconsin, did it for Rhinelander in 1937. Krueger is averaging 20.5 points per game.

Others nominated for the prep player honor included Kewaskum's senior star, Clark Eichstedt, who rated fifth in the selections. Eichstedt, second high scorer in the Scenic Moraine Conference, right on the heels of Hartland's Rod Barbera, had his usual fine performances in two games over the weekend. He led the Indians to two big victories, scoring 24 points and snaring 12 rebounds against Hartland Friday, and repeating his feat by also scoring 24 points against Slinger Saturday and hauling in a remarkable 18 rebounds.

Men's Association Names Officers at Hon-E-Kor Meeting

The annual meeting of members of Hon-E-Kor Country Club was held last week, with officers of the Men's Golf Association being elected for the coming year.

Kenneth Averill, Kewaskum, was elected president and Carl Bohn, West Bend, was named vice president. Elected to the board of directors were Norman Held, Kewaskum, outgoing president; John Weinberger, West Bend, and the newly elected president, Averill. Harold Perkins, Kewaskum, was re-appointed secretary and Tom Larsen, Kewaskum, was again chosen chairman of the men's golf league. All terms are for one year.

Announcement was made that Joe Harlow, Kewaskum, has been engaged to return as club pro. Harlow is varsity football and golf coach at Kewaskum High School during the school year.

The bonds of matrimony cannot be classed as redeemable securities.

The other high school players, following Krueger, nominated for state player of the week included: Bob Falk of Madison West, Joe Vandenberg of Freedom, Tim LaHann of Fort Atkinson, Terry McKissick of Milwaukee Madison, Clark Eichstedt of Kewaskum, Tom Rector of Reedsburg, Kurt Moldenhauer of Markesan, John Groeschel of Milwaukee DeSales, Lee Towey of Hartford, Dave Delsman of Waukesha, Gary Straszburg of Fall Creek and two Kohler stars, Joe Kleefisch and Joe Funk.

The Kewaskum Land o' Lakes League team, still looking for the first victory, ran its losing streak to six in succession with two more setbacks the past week. The pair of losses left the team nestled in a tie for last place with Slinger. In a make-up game at Port Washington Thursday night, Kewaskum came close but lost, 94-85. Then on Sunday night here they were submerged by second place Hartford, 122-75, a margin of 47 points.

Starting in the 98 pound class, Sophomore Steve Ruplinger won his first conference match of the season on a decision. This was followed by George Muckerheide, Cal Tackes, John Jadro and Jeff Ketter all winning to build up a 17-0 lead for Kewaskum. Ketter downed the Pirates' best wrestler, Mike Durant, 3-2. The only local wrestlers to be defeated were two underclassmen lacking experience, Rex Bindrich and Al Gundrum.

The Indians showed strength in the heavier weights. Dave Schacht at 185 and Kim Rodenkirch, heavyweight, remained undefeated in the conference. Rodenkirch, now 5-0 in Scenic action, pinned his opponent in the first period, while Schacht, 6-0, decisioned Bob Houge 4-0. Doug Bindrich at 155 also posted a win, beating his opponent in slightly over a minute. Ramthun at 138 also pinned his opponent.

The freshmen won 4 out of 5 matches. Steve Miske, Reed Rodenkirch, Bruce Markielowski and Brian Petermann were winners. The other frosh didn't compete as Pewaukee does not field a full team.
