Electors Finally Approve School Bond Referendum

After three costlier referendum elections and one advisory referendum were unsuccessful, electors of the Kewaskum School District approved a $1.6 million building program for district schools on the fifth try Tuesday. The result again was quite close with the final vote showing 1,079 for and 918 against the program out of the close to 2,000 ballots cast in the district. The margin was 161 votes.

The $1.6 million package includes a new middle school in Kewaskum, and additions to the Wayne, Farmington and Kewaskum Elementary Schools, and Kewaskum High School, including a new gymnasium.

The Village of Kewaskum vote was the deciding factor in swinging the outcome in favor of the referendum. The village heavily favored the referendum by a margin of 400 to 185. The Town of Wayne was the only other area favoring the referendum, where the vote was 188 for and 124 against. In all other areas of the school district the referendum was defeated but by close margins in each one but the Town of Scott. The result was also significant in the Town of Farmington, where, after going down almost 3 to 1 in 1971, it was almost even this time.

A final breakdown of the voting follows:

	YES	NO
T. Ashford	0	0
T. Auburn	56	57
V. Kewaskum	400	185
T. Barton	30	35
T. Farmington	213	261
T. Kewaskum	135	142
T. Wayne	188	124
T. Mitchell	0	4
T. Scott	57	110

Results of the previous referendum elections were:

April 6, 1971 ($2,915,000.00)—	685 Yes, 1356 No.
Sept. 13, 1971 ($2,605,000.00)—	455 Yes, 586 No.
Dec. 13, 1971 ($2,660,000.00)—	681 Yes, 1089 No.

The advisory referendum held July 24, 1972 relative to borrowing $200,000 for only the Wayne addition resulted in 265 Yes votes and 268 No.

A total of 585 votes were cast in the Village of Kewaskum, which is considered a good turnout for a primary election. The school bond referendum brought out the voters as the only other balloting was for State Superintendent of Public Instruction. There were 15 candidates on the ballot for the position with the winners in the primary being Barbara Thompson and Ernest J. Korpela, who will face each other in the April 3 election to succeed retiring Superintendent William C. Kahl.

Results in the village were: John W. Vranich 42, Patricia A. Barnes 59, William H. Clements 60, James P. Scamman 55, Gilbert L. Anderson 37, Ernest J. Korpela 96, Edward B. Elson 5, Barbara Thompson 35, Leonard A. Brittel 7, Gordon G. Kniskern 2, Sara J. Sherkow 32, James B. Dickson 7, William Rogers 27, Arlyn Wollenburg 8, Wilbur F. Kalinke 6.

200 Blood Donors Needed March 20

The local blood bank chairmen are again reminding area residents that the mobile unit will be at the high school gym on Tuesday, March 20, from 1 p. m. to 7 p. m.

If you are in good physical condition and between the ages of 18 years to the 66th birthday, you can donate every 10 weeks but not more than five times in 12 consecutive months.

First time donors are especially needed and are asked to call 626-2210 for an appointment.

You will never know when you, your family or friends may need blood. It doesn't cost to give but it could be the best investment you will ever make. It could save a life tomorrow!

This year's goal is 200 pints.

by Ruth Held
of the Kewaskum Statesman
Members of the Village Board gave their approval to two items Monday night that will spell more expansion for Kewaskum.

They approved what is known as "Amendment D" to the official map and the final plat for the Z and R subdivision. The major change in the official map involves the extension of Edgewood Road in a subdivision on the former Wallace Geidel property, plus addition of two streets in it that will exit separately on to Highway 45 and Highway 28. Ideal Land Co. is the subdivider.

The Z and R subdivision, planned by Howard Zemlich and Jan Rosenthal, both of Kewaskum, involves 14 lots on an extension of Stark St., at the east end of the village. Final approval of the subdivision is contingent upon installation of sewer and water by the subdividers.

Because the village incinerator was closed down as of Feb. 28, on orders of the Department of Natural Resources, board members once again turned their attention to finding an alternative to disposing of refuse. They voted to advertise for bids for pick-up and disposal from outside firms and to get bids on the cost of a portable compactor.

During the month of March, on a trial basis, the village is using a sanitary landfill site near Slinger which is operated by Waste Management Corp., of Wisconsin. Sylvester Schmidt, a village employe, gave a report on Monday's garbage pick-up and first haul to the landfill site.

He said the village compactor made two trips, each with a full load of 16 cubic yards, after pick-ups on the area east of Fond du Lac Ave., which is Monday's schedule. One employe went with the truck. He said 15 gallons of gas were used in picking up and 18 were used in driving to and from the landfill site. The village pays $9.60 to deposit each compacted load.

The 45 mile trip, and back, took two hours, 55 minutes. The pick-up time for three men was a total of 14½ manhours. Figures are being kept during the month to determine and compare costs of hauling to the landfill site as opposed to any other alternatives the board may choose to try until a final decision is made.

MORE SIGNS OF SPRING

Temperatures in the low 50's Wednesday brought in more reports of an early spring. Mrs. Wesley Haug, R. 2, Kewaskum, called to report she spotted a large flock of geese flying over, also red-winged blackbirds, and that her tulips and rhubarb were peeping out. Her son also spotted a robin Thursday morning while waiting for the school bus. Ed Brandt of the village reported seeing five robins Wednesday. Other reports of pussy willows in bloom, crocus and tulips up, geese flying over, crows and blackbirds, etc. have been heard. The ice went off the river early, too, on Wednesday after the rain Tuesday night.

Get your phones in first.
It helps everything else fall into place.

Anybody who's about to move has our sympathy.

We know how complicated it is just figuring out how to rearrange your furniture, let alone your life.

For instance, you'll probably need to get in touch with your new grocer, milkman, school, and gas and electric company offices as soon as you've moved in. (And the list doesn't end there.)

Which is why now is the time to get in touch with us. Decide on how many new phones you'll need and where you'll need them, and we'll install these links to the outside world before you move in.

But be sure and give yourself enough time to select your phones. Because there's a lot to choose from.

We've got compact Starlite® phones with dials that glow in the dark. Super-modern Styleline® phones with their dials in their handsets. Nostalgic Candlestick phones to remind you of the 1920's. And decorator Cradlephones—the last word in elegant conversations.

These phones are available in many interesting colors, too.

So picking out and ordering the phones
you'll want should be a lot of fun.

And remember, having the fun now—before you move—will probably make your life
a lot more pleasant later on.

Tri-County Civic Association Will Meet at Boltonville

Two bills to establish river basin authorities now being considered in the Wisconsin Legislature will be studied and discussed at the Mar. 14 meeting of Tri-County Civic Association. President Vaughn Brown, R. 1, Fredonia, says that if either bill is made into law it would be possible for urban areas to force sewage treatment plants, parks, reservoirs, etc. on rural areas.

Boltonville Firemen's Hall will be the site of the 8:30 p. m. meeting. A report will be given of a meeting sponsored by the Wisconsin Transportation Department to write new guidelines for planning transportation needs. The public has been invited to participate in the new plan.

For entertainment slides of cultivated and wild flowers will be shown by Tom Rosenberger, R. 1, Fredonia.

It was decided at the last meeting that the association will hold meetings in January, March, September and December on the second Wednesday of the month. The new officers in addition to Brown are Mrs. Frank Lutz, R. 1, Random Lake, Treasurer; Mrs. Tom Rosenberger, Secretary; and Vice Presidents, Mr. Lutz, Town of Sherman; Ed Bocher, Town of Fredonia; Merlin Dettmann, Town of Scott; Hilbert Roell, Town of Farmington, and Albert Schroeder, Town of Trenton.

Bill — Do you know anything about Marco Polo?

Joe — It's played with horses, isn't it?

Four Injured in Accident in Fog

A heavy fog covering Friday was blamed as a contributing factor in an accident which occurred at 10:05 a. m. on Hwy. 45, a mile south of Kewaskum. Four persons were injured in the two-car collision.

The County Sheriff's Department reported that a car driven by Roy A. Ford, 20, R. 2, Campbellsport, skidded into a vehicle driven by Richard M. Smucker, 712 Pleasant Wood Dr., Kewaskum. According to police, Ford was southbound on 45 when he came upon a slow moving truck, applied his brakes and skidded into the northbound Smucker vehicle.

Ford suffered lacerations and possible broken ribs and his brother, Richard, 18, suffered a broken leg, rib injuries and possible head injuries. Both were taken to St. Joseph's Hospital, West Bend. Smucker suffered possible internal injuries and was held at the same hospital for observation. His wife Lucy was treated at the hospital for a fractured left arm and facial and head lacerations. She was released Friday. Richard Ford was taken to a Milwaukee hospital for further treatment a spokesman said.

ARCHBISHOP'S FUND APPEAL SET IN AREA

Plans have been made for a successful and efficient Archbishop's Fund Appeal which will be conducted May 6.

30 Citizens Turn Out for Hearing On Bel-Ric Curb and Gutter Project

By Ruth Held
of the Kewaskum Statesman

About 30 local citizens turned out Monday night for a public hearing on a proposed village project that calls for installation of curb and gutter in Bel-Ric Acres. Most were residents of the subdivision.

As a statutory procedure, the village recently passed a resolution declaring its intent to levy special assessments against each property owner in Bel-Ric Acres to cover the cost of the project, based on the street frontage width of each lot.

After hearing comments for and against the project, Village President Cyril Wietor called for a show of hands vote. There were nine in favor and 14 against.

The decision of whether or not to proceed with the project lies with the village board. Wietor said it will make a decision within two or three weeks and the property owners involved will be informed what that decision is.

Stone and Robinson, consulting engineers of Brookfield, have estimated the project at $3.57 per foot. Those who spoke against had the common complaint that they were told when they bought the property that the lot was an "improved" one and that the "curb and gutter came with the house."

"Embassy Homes said so," said one man and then added, that "this is the only place I know of where an improved lot does not include improvement costs."

Wietor told him, "you were misinformed about who pays the costs. Did you check with the village?" he asked. Apparently none of the property owners had.

Village Attorney Roger McKenna told them they should have carefully read over the offer of purchase. "This is a civil matter between the buyer and seller. The village is not involved. If you were misled, I feel for you. But if there was a misrepresentation, you can go to the Wisconsin Real Estate Board."

Co-developer Lyman Murray of Milwaukee then gave his reasons for opposing curb and gutter at this time. "It is irrelevant what was promised," he said. "What is important is that the village had no zoning ordinance at the time of development and we cannot determine where curb cuts go on the empty lots."

He also cited the fact that there will be a certain amount of tearing-up by moving of heavy equipment as building continues. "I am all for curb and gutter, but at the proper time. This comes two years too soon," Murray stated. "And, if for no other reason," he continued, "curb and gutter should not be put in now because the home owners are going to be strapped financially." He said he prefers the streets be re-surfaced with gravel for the present.

Surface water is a problem according to the residents. But the village will not black top the streets unless curb and gutter is in. One resident saw this as "giving us an ultimatum—no curb and gutter, no blacktop."

Part of the drainage problem results from the fact that Bel-Ric Acres lies at a lower level than County Trunk H. There is mud and excess water everywhere, the residents said. "Curb and gutter or not, is there something the village can do about the drainage problem and the blockage at County H. It's a mess," said one man. Wietor said he will appoint a village board member to contact Washington County to try to remedy the situation.

Wietor said if the village decides to proceed with the project, bids will be asked for and it is possible they may be less than the $3.57 per foot estimate.

2 Kewaskum Sophs, Koepke and Koth, Among Top Scorers

Two sophomores on Kewaskum's varsity basketball team finished among the top 15 scorers in the Scenic Moraine Conference. Both boys will be back for two more years of competition and this speaks well for the Indians' future. Besides these two sophs, the Indians also have 4 juniors on their varsity squad and a pretty fair junior varsity team coming up. So things should be looking up. Soph Mike Koepke wound up 5th in scoring with 196 points for a 14.0 average. Soph Scott Koth finished close behind in 7th place with 184 points for an average of 13.2. Shepherd of Grafton's co-champions was the conference's leading scorer with 236 points, an average of 16.9 per game.

LOCAL STUDENTS PLAY IN UWVC VOLLEYBALL LEAGUE

36 Young People Complete Snowmobile Safety Course

The above photo, taken at Hon-E-Kor Country Club on Feb. 25, on a snowy day when we had a new covering of snow on the ground, includes 36 young people who have just completed their snowmobile safety course. These students had to have 6 hours in the classroom and then 2 hours of actual practice on the snowmobile to become certified to receive their safety certificates. The Kewaskum Sno-Chiefs Snowmobile Club sponsors this course.

The two instructors (kneeling foreground) in the photo are Bob Staehler, (right), president of the Sno-Chiefs, and John "Tiny" Martin. They now have certified 68 students. The course is also taught in Junior High School by Jan Rosenthal and Jim Borusky during the activity period. This was brought about through the efforts of Kenneth Erickson, principal of the Junior High.

Through the combined efforts of the Junior High School and the snowmobile club, the Sno-Chiefs have brought to the young people in the Kewaskum area a very fine safety course which they can attend.

After Oct. 1, 1973 all people ages 11 to 16 must have a safety certificate to drive a snowmobile. This will be the law. Besides the 68 students who are now certified there are approximately another 60 students attending classes.

For those who did not have their own machines, snowmobiles for the students used that day were donated by Laubenstein Lawn & Garden Mart and Lee Honeck Supply of Kewaskum and Tom's Small Engine and Tom's Recreation, West Bend.

In the Regional finals Saturday night Sheboygan South shaded Plymouth, 65-64, and will advance to the Oshkosh Sectional this weekend, along with Appleton East, Fond du Lac and West Bend West, other area Regional winners.

All told Scenic Moraine Conference teams fared pretty well scorewise in the Regionals and again proved they are pretty much on a par with the larger schools of the Fox River Valley, Milwaukee Suburban, Little Ten and other large conferences. Even Kewaskum, with a weak 3-16 record this season, did well.

The Indians reached the Regional at Plymouth by blasting Random Lake, 79-57, in the Split-Regional the week before here, while Plymouth did likewise over Campbellsport, 84-60.

Again we mention that Plymouth has 8 players over 6 feet tall on their squad, led by 6-6 Scott Wilke and 6-4 Ed Adams, while the Indians have only 2 players over 6 feet. But take away the second quarter and Kewaskum would have beaten the Panthers. Kewaskum outscored Plymouth, 52-47, in 3 of the quarters but the Panthers poured it on in the 2nd period, 26-9, which killed the Indians. Kewaskum outscored Plymouth in the 1st stanza, 13-12, and again in the final quarter, 26-17, with 4 Panther reserves in the game. But when Kewaskum cut the lead to 56-39, Plymouth's coach brought back 2 more starters.

Plymouth's height enabled them to control the boards and this being out-rebounded was costly to the Indians. For a time in the fatal 2nd quarter the keyed-up Panthers out-rebounded Kewaskum 11-1 and also caused a number of turnovers.

Their two sophs, Scott Koth and Mike Koepke, again paced the Indians' scoring with 18 and 14 points respectively, while Jim Gaffke chipped in 12. Bill Siech of Plymouth was high scorer with 20 points, and mates Adams and Wilke chipped in 15 and 12.
