Sewage Charge Changes to Benefit Households, Schools, Hit Industry

By Ruth Held

There will be some changes in the sewage service charges in Kewaskum. It will mean a reduced rate for many households but industry can expect a big jump. Schools can expect a drop in rate, also.

The village board met Wednesday night to review a revised ordinance which sets forth the service charges that must be established to comply with new requirements of the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) in order for the village to qualify for a federal grant on additions made to the sewage treatment plant last year.

The expansion cost, including engineering and related fees, came to $49,000. A 25 per cent grant has already been received from the Wisconsin Department of Natural Resources. When the village meets the EPA requirements, it can expect a federal grant to cover 50 to 55 per cent of the expansion costs.

Meeting with the board was Dr. Raymond Kipp, professor of civil engineering at Marquette University who at board request prepared the ordinance revision and who is working with the EPA to meet its requirements. One of them is that all users must "pay their way" equitably.

The sewage rates now in force are not equitable by EPA standards. Presently, the single family household pays a flat quarterly charge of $14, regardless of how much water is used. Under the revised ordinance, the sewage charge will be based on water usage.

Based on Dr. Kipp's preliminary and unofficial figures, the rate is expected to be about 80 cents per 1,000 gallons of water used quarterly. He noted that figure could change as much as 10 cents after he refines his figures.

In arriving at his figures, Dr. Kipp delved into records at the village commissioner's office and found that 77 per cent of the households use less than 25,000 gallons of water per quarter. The families that use the least water will benefit the most from the new rate.

Likewise, he said, industry must pay its equitable share. Firms listed in that category are Regal Ware Inc., Fairmont Foods, Kewaskum Frozen Foods and the L. Rosenheimer Malt and Grain Co. For them the new rates will be a jolt, he indicated. Some commercial firms are likely to get a boosted rate from the flat fee being paid now.

Presently, industry pays a sewage charge based on metering of the discharges that go into the treatment plant. Once each quarter 24-hour samples are taken, every hour on the hour and they are sent to Marquette University where they are analyzed for quantity of biochemical demand (b.o.d.); phosphate and suspended solids. Their rates vary, based on the computation of the results. Industry will continue to be metered but the rates will be upped.

A public hearing will be held on the revised ordinance when it is complete. The ordinance will then go before the village board for adoption.

Present rates have been in effect since Jan. 1, 1972, when they were raised to generate more income to meet the projected operating costs of the expanded sewage treatment facility. Dr. Kipp made a similar study at that time and came up with the new rates.

The original plant was built in 1955 at a cost of $250,000 and operated at a loss through the years.

Lab Equipment Layouts for New School Approved

Approval of equipment layouts for science and home economics labs in the new Middle School was among business transacted at the school board meeting held last Tuesday evening. These layouts were necessary in order to proceed with plumbing details for the new school.

Jan. 2 instead of Jan. 3 will be the first day of school following Christmas vacation. This was a date agreed to by a Board and Teacher Committee some time ago as a make-up day for possible snow vacations. If it is not needed, schools will be dismissed one day early at the end of the school year.

Clark Pearson, high school principal, discussed curriculum changes and scheduling plans for next year. Included in the curriculum changes will be additions of courses in technical math, successful selling, and auto mechanics. Physical education will be an elective for seniors next year rather than a required course. The schedule for next year will be on a six-day rotation as it is this year, but the day for high school students will be lengthened as it will for junior high. With the elimination of the split shift, the schools will return to normal starting and ending times.

Ken Erickson, junior high principal, discussed the snowmobile safety course run last year. The board approved running the program again this year.

Adrienne Dolata was approved as home economics teacher to begin second semester. She will replace Mrs. Wilting, who resigned.

Approval was given to give notice to American Building Maintenance that their contract for custodial services to

Local Officer Resigns; Pay Scale Is Reason

By Ruth Held

The resignation of a village patrolman was accepted and a replacement was agreed upon during a meeting of the village board Wednesday night.

A letter of resignation from James A. Wichtowski was read. He has been on the force since February of this year. The man who will replace him as of Dec. 26 will be Thomas Bauer, 22, of West Bend, presently employed at the West Bend Co., but not in police work.

Police Chief Donald Hlavaty said Bauer took the local written examination the last time applications for vacancies were taken.

Wichtowski's resignation is effective Dec. 31. As of Jan. 1, he will join the Washington County Sheriff's Department. His letter stated that he will be receiving more pay in his new job and added that he feels "it is too bad" Kewaskum does not offer a better pay scale.

Chief Hlavaty expressed regret over again losing a patrolman because of the village pay scale. Wichtowski is not the first to leave because of it. The three-man Kewaskum force (excluding the chief) in October asked the village board to accept both a constitution recognizing them as the Kewaskum Police Association as well as an accompanying salary proposal.

Members of the village board will meet in early January on the subject of re-adjusting salaries for its employees.

Board members passed a resolution of respect to be sent to Mrs. James O. Reigle on the death of her husband on Dec. 18. The resolution noted that through his foresight and zeal for the community, Reigle earned the affection of Kewaskum residents; the stature he attained in this community by his exemplary life and monumental achievements was recognized during his lifetime.

It further recognized the profound influence of Reigle upon the development of Kewaskum and recognized further that his death is a distinct loss to the village in which he worked and won the deep respect and affection.

Reigle was one of the founders of Regal Ware, Inc., a cookware firm.

the village schools will not be renewed. The schools will return to hiring their own staff rather than contracting for this service.

Dick Zarling, Kewaskum Elementary Principal, was named to the district multidisciplinary team. This group is in charge of evaluating students under Chapter 89 of Wisconsin Statutes which deals with special education.

Forms and notices for school board elections were approved. Two terms expire, those currently held by Richard Edwards and Thomas Gundrum. The deadline for filing declarations of candidacy is the fourth Tuesday of January.

The board approved hiring Al Seefeldt to work with the McKenna law office for the Wisconsin Supreme Court hearing held Friday, Dec. 21, 1973. This is on a motion submitted by Mr. Kelly, attorney for the plaintiffs, to grant a stay on building until such time as the appeal on the temporary injunction ruling can be heard by the Supreme Court. Their request for a temporary injunction was denied at a lower court level.

One of the best ways for a woman to catch a man is to keep her trap shut.

Sr. Citizens Have Active Holiday Time

The XYZ Club (Senior Citizens of Kewaskum) have had an active holiday time. They held their local Christmas dinner and party (98 persons in attendance) on Dec. 13 in St. Lucas Church basement. Then on Dec. 18 they went by bus to Hartford to attend a countywide dinner and dance held at the V.F.W. Club. Approximately 250 Washington County Senior Citizens were present.

The club will hold no meeting Jan. 2. The first meeting of '74 will be Jan. 9, at which time they will elect officers for the '74 year. So try and be there so you may have your vote.

The club wishes to thank each and every one in the club and community who have helped them in 1973.

May you all have a most Blessed and Happy New Year.

Koepke was stricken at Phelps in Vilas County. He had gone there to a resort operated by his brother to do some ice fishing. Roland is now a patient at Northwoods Hospital in Phelps and is expected to remain there for several weeks in all.

Hot Hartland Team Defeats Indians, 68-49

The Indians played away from home again Friday and took one on the chin again when they were downed by red hot Hartland Arrowhead, 68-49. It was Kewaskum's 3rd straight conference setback on the road and left them with a 1-4 record and a 3-way tie for last with Slinger and Kettle Moraine.

Hartland hit a sizzling 68 per cent of its shots (30 of 44), including 80 per cent in the 2nd half (16 of 20). Their shooting was fantastic as they demolished the Indians by a 19 point margin.

Arrowhead made good on 9 of 15 field goals in the 1st quarter and jumped off to a 22-8 lead, paced by Keith Chapman with 8 points. He was high scorer of the game with 20 points. Kewaskum gave Hartland a run in the 2nd quarter, cutting their advantage to 8 points but fell behind at halftime by ten, 36-26. Mike Koepke made 14 points for the Indians and was their top scorer with 17.

Kewaskum never threatened after that as the winners built up their lead, outpointing the Indians in the 3rd stanza, 16-13, and in the final quarter, 16-10. Arrowhead's defensive play continued to stop the Indians' fast break.

While Arrowhead hit on 30 of 45 shots, Kewaskum hit a poor 21 of 53. Hartland also out-rebounded the losers, 25-22. Mueller had 9 rebounds for Arrowhead while Don Gruber grabbed 7 for Kewaskum.

In the JV game Kewaskum won by a big margin. In other Scenic contests a torrid Mayville team remained undefeated at the top of the standings by handing Grafton its 2nd loss, 54-51. Germantown held onto 2nd place with a 78-48 romp over Pewaukee, and Kettle Moraine won its first victory over Slinger.

Due to the energy crisis Kewaskum's next game scheduled for Jan. 4 at Slinger has been postponed to Tuesday, Jan. 29. Principal Ron Rueckl said they planned to close down the building during the 2 week holiday vacation, resulting in a considerable saving of fuel. Slinger classes will not resume until Jan. 7.

GREETINGS

Instead of sending cards for Christmas and New Year's we want to wish all our relatives, neighbors and friends a Merry Christmas and a Prosperous New Year. Also thanks to our many kind friends who were so wonderful to help feed the unwanted and stray animals that are under our care. Also the young people who donated their time to help paint the animal shelter. May the good Lord bless each and every one for being so kind. Also Puppyland now has close to 500 members, we are proud to say, and we are looking for still some more. We thank you all. In behalf of Puppyland Animal Care Center, Inc. and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Koelsch.

Indian Matmen Beat Mayville

Kewaskum wrestlers made a clean sweep of it at Mayville last Thursday night, with the varsity, JV's and freshmen all coming out on top.

The varsity team won 35-22 to bring their Scenic Moraine record to 3-1 and stay close behind Hartland and Germantown.

Bruce Markielewski at 145 won a big decision by a score of 17-5. Dale Secor, 105, who had a record of 8-1, just missed winning and had to settle for a 1-1 tie.

The JV's won their 4th in succession, 33-21. Winners by pin were John Sekeres and Randy Edgar, by forfeit Mike Nigh and Eric Bergdorf, and by decision Wayne Kleinman. Dale Krueger and Dan Braun.

Mayville had only three freshmen to Kewaskum's full team and counting the forfeits it was an easy win. Dave Boylan won by a pin and Steve Bemis 11-4 in the three matches wrestled. The frosh are also 4-0.

ADULT BASKETBALL LOOP OFF THE GROUND

Wes & Rosie's tipped Sentry, while on the other court Amerahn whipped Coulter's Liquor Mart in the opening rounds of the Adult Basketball League.

Clark Pearson, a "super star from northeast Wisconsin" did it all for Wes & Rosie's. C. Boegel looked good for Amerahn. Coulter's didn't have any of their older stars such as Otto Ramthun and Mike Coulter. When these fellows show up things could change.

Sentry has the makings of a fine team with Holister De Motts, Gary Donnelly, Gary Gerhartz, D. Squire and K. Erickson.

Secretaries Have Yuletide Spirit

The Kettle Moraine Chapter of The National Secretaries Association enjoyed their annual Christmas banquet at the Holiday Inn, West Bend, Dec. 18. Members were entertained by the Half-Notes, a quartet made up of area singers, Frey Bury, Joe Weiss, Leo Schlaefel and Dick Klumb.

This year the group chose to buy Christmas gifts for Southern Colony rather than exchange gifts. Mrs. Claudia Laubach, Civic Chairman, announced that over 125 toys, games and toiletries were delivered to Southern Colony in time for their party. Mrs. Laubach expressed thanks for the commendable generosity of all members.

Membership Chairman, Adeline Halfmann, introduced two new members of the chapter, namely, Miss Charlene Goeman of the B. C. Ziegler and Company and M's. Marlene Zarling of Badger Laboratories in Jackson. This brings the total to five new members this year. Mrs. Halfmann stated that all area secretaries have an open invitation to come to a meeting to learn more about the group. Meetings are held the third Tuesday of every month.

Mrs. Kris Deiss, Vice President and Program chairman announced the program for Jan. 15, 1974, will be presented by one of the members of the Kettle Moraine Chapter, Mrs. Betty Stiles of Manpower, Inc. and the program for the month of February will be the program of the year following the theme, "Horizons for Involvement" stressing community service. Their annual seminar is planned for April 6 at the Holiday Inn. Secretaries Week will be April 21-27, with a banquet planned for Wednesday, April 24, which is Secretaries Day. All area secretaries should mark their calendars now for that date. Details will be announced in March.
