Older Adults Bus to Provide Free Transportation

By Ruth Held

Members of the local senior citizens XYZ Club had a chance to inspect the older adults bus that will provide free transportation to persons over 60 years of age under the Older Adults Transportation Program that officially begins March 3 in Washington County.

The van-type bus is touring senior citizens centers and designated sites this month and it was here in Kewaskum last Wednesday during the weekly meeting of the XYZ Club.

The bus will be available for pre-arranged medical and dental appointments; for social services and library visits; and for food shopping, if necessary, according to Mrs. Mervin Thompson, program director of the XYZ Club.

It is not necessary to be a member of any senior citizens group in order to use the bus. However, there must be four or more persons per trip. A special feature of the 16-passenger vehicle is a lift for anyone in a wheelchair. A schedule of when and where it will pick up riders will be published in the Kewaskum Statesman at a later date, Mrs. Thompson said.

Gary Sauter of Hartford has been hired as chauffeur. He has experience as a driver of a commercial vehicle. The new bus was obtained by Washington County through funding of the Title 3 Older American Act. The Hartford Municipal Recreation Department will service and maintain it.

Jaycees Plan Pizza Sale, Add Members

The Kewaskum Jaycees met on Tuesday, Feb. 18. The meeting was called to order by U.S. Region II Director Elliot Groth. Acting Secretary 7d Weddig read the minutes of the last meeting and they were approved as read. This meeting was guest night and members introduced the guests that they had brought.

It was decided to hold a pizza sale as a fund raising project. The tentative delivery date was set as March 22. The club will sell Mr. Z's Pizza at $1.75 each or 3 for $5.00, with the proceeds going for a sports and recreational program in the village.

It was also decided to check into a wheelchair basketball game. A team of handicapped persons from Milwaukee would verse a team from the village, who would also be confined to wheelchairs.

Eight new members were added: Ralph Bier, Dick Knoebel, Keith Koerble, Mike Pfeiffer, Wayne Riekoff, Bob Schroeder, Richard Thiemer, and Larry Watry. Bob Danielsen was named chairman of the Constitution and By-law committee and Dick Knoebel was named chairman of the Pizza Sale.

The next meeting is scheduled for March 4 at 8:00 p. m. at the Valley Bank Community Room. All young men between the ages of 18 and 35 are invited to attend.

School Board to Eliminate Some Teachers on Budget Cuts

The Kewaskum Board of Education accepted the resignations from three teachers at its Monday night, Feb. 24, meeting held at the Administration Office. The teachers resigning are: Mrs. Rebecca Erber, Language Arts, at the Middle School, Monica Sierp, 6th grade, at the Kewaskum Elementary School, and Minerva Martin, 6th grade, also at the Kewaskum Elementary School.

A lengthy discussion regarding the estimated 1975-76 budgets made up a major part of the meeting. It was an unanimous decision that a first grade position at the Kewaskum Elementary be eliminated because of the decrease in the number of students at that grade level. It was also unanimous that one 1/2 time Kindergarten teacher be cut from the district staff. The elimination of a Business Education teacher at the High School received an unanimous vote of approval. These cuts had been recommended by the administrative staff.

It was proposed to cut back on 2 teachers on the Middle School staff, not as a desirable cut, but out of budget necessity. On a 4-3 vote, the Board cut four Middle School staff members, with Allen Tassar, Jerry Secor, and Tom Gundrum voting against cutting four members. A vote to cut the administrative assistant at the high school was unanimous. The Board voted in favor of passing a resolution to ask the Village to provide sidewalks to Bel-Ric to eliminate the bussing expense. This would lengthen other bus routes and help eliminate some routes, thereby a cost savings for the district will be realized.

An unanimous vote was cast to eliminate summer school unless the state would decide to fund this area of education again. The district will keep the kindergarten screening, pre-kindergarten program and possible beginning band program.

The Board adjourned to an executive session following the regular board meeting.

Bicentennial Notes

The American Revolution Bicentennial Commission of Kewaskum has been meeting and planning for the last six months with some interesting and worthwhile projects being pursued for the village.

Officers are: L. N. Peterson, Chairman; Mark Rodenkirch, Vice-Chairman; Gloria Rodenkirch, Secretary; Dan Schmidt, Treasurer.

Kewaskum area students have been busy designing an official flag for Kewaskum, all entries to be submitted by April 1. Three prizes will be awarded for design and originality.

The Chamber of Commerce has proposed a "Chief Kewaskum Marker" to be placed at the south entrance to the village. The marker would include a brief history of Chief Kewaskum and note the various organizations. The Chamber will assume the responsibility for design and construction.

A "Worship Week" in '76 has been discussed, all churches to be included.

The Legion has asked that flags be flown the entire year of '76 and they would make these available for purchase.

The Woman's Club and Junior Woman's Club will be handling the arrangements for "Pageant '76" to be held on the bank of the river in the park in July, 1976. Important steps in Kewaskum's growth will be presented in skit form with Clyde Brehm working on the music. The two groups will also work with the school children on promoting coins for bricks for a small building in the proposed park project.

Mark Smucker is compiling a History of Kewaskum booklet with several chapters being completed. More information is always appreciated and Mark can be contacted at 626-4335.

Through the bicentennial committee, interest was shown in the organization of a local historical society and Dan Schmidt has assumed the leadership in this area.

The Lions Club has submitted some excellent ideas for observing the bicentennial: to fund a contest for the best activity idea, mark all historical sites with a plaque, offer a prize for the most authentic restoration project and plan a local "Pioneer Day."

Charles Miller is compiling a pictorial history of Kewaskum and this will be available for the local historical society museum.

The committee has sent in an application to the state for designation as a bicentennial community.

The next meeting will be held on Tuesday, March 4, at 7:30 p. m. in the municipal building. Any interested persons may attend.

Norbert Dettmann Attends National SWCD Convention

The National Association of Soil and Water Conservation Districts (SWCD) held their annual convention at Denver, Colo. from Feb. 2 to 6. Two thousand district supervisors from 50 states attended including 28 from Wisconsin counties.

Norbert Dettmann, Washington county supervisor and president of the Wisconsin Assoc. of Conservation Districts, carried the vote of Wisconsin districts to the floor of the national council to decide the nation-wide policy of the local counties. One of the major points at the Denver convention was a stand on federal land use legislation in this year's congress. The association believes that the need is here for proper land use and that most decisions must be made at the local and state levels of government.

Washington and Ozaukee county citizens are fortunate in having broad zoning laws for 30 years. In recent years these laws have been strengthened by use of the soil survey to determine the best use of the land. However, in many parts of Wisconsin and the United States, people are first being exposed to zoning and land use laws.

World wide energy and food shortages were emphasized at the convention. A water shortage by the year of 2000 could be of a more serious nature than the energy shortage in 1975. A food shortage would be tied directly to the water shortage. The amount of agriculture products are tied directly to the amount of soil and water available to produce the crops. There has been good weather for crops for about 35 years. The pendulum could swing the other way and there would be much starvation. The soil and water conservation movement acknowledge these facts and they re-emphasized their stand at the convention that American agriculture needs production with protection.

We are fortunate in Washington and Ozaukee counties to have so many land owners and land users cooperating in the district's soil and water conservation programs. Services of the Washington county district office at 2395 W. Washington St., West Bend, and the Ozaukee county office, Courthouse, Port Washington, are available to assist landowners and units of government with proper land management.

Petri will hold office hours in this area on Wednesday, March 5, as follows: Campbellsport, 3-3:45 p. m., Campbellsport Village hall; Kewaskum, 4 - 4:45 p. m., Kewaskum Municipal Building.

Forage Clinic to Be Held in County

A series of meetings on forages entitled, "Profitable Forage Clinic" will be held for Washington and Ozaukee counties. They will be held at the Courthouse Auditorium in West Bend on Monday, March 3, 10 and 17, from 7:30 p. m. to 10:00 p. m.

The March 3 meeting will deal with "Management of Roughage and Grasses" and "Varieties, Fertilization, Management Techniques" by Dwayne Rohweder, Agronomy Department; and Earle Hanson, Plant Pathology Department.

At the March 10 meeting, Orrin Berge of the Ag Engineering Department will be discussing "Harvesting and Storing Equipment." Harlan Hughes of the Ag Economics Department will talk on "Economics of Forage Production."

"Getting the Most From Your Forage in Milk and/or Meat" will be the topic for March 17. This will be given by Richard Fawcett, Agronomy Department; Terry Howard, Dairy Science Department; and Richard Vathauer, Meat and Animal Science Department. All speakers are from the University of Wisconsin - Madison.

There will be a fee of $7.00 per farm. This covers cost of materials only.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

February 19, 1975

Dear Mr. Harbeck:

Breast cancer is the most deadly killer of women 35 to 50 years of age. It is also the number one cause of deaths from cancer at any age for the female population. Eighty percent of all tumors which take seven years to grow the size of a nickel in the breasts, are found by women themselves. Until recent years, the only detection a woman had for breast cancer was her own monthly examination and her doctor's yearly examination.

In the past ten years, the x-ray of the breasts, called mammography, has become a highly refined and specific test to determine breast cancer in a much earlier stage. Where routine annual x-rays are used for women over 35 years of age, more than 50 percent of the cancers that will be found, cannot be felt by the patient or the doctor. Most national experts in the field of mammography recommend that every woman past the age of 35 have an x-ray of the breasts at least once a year, to be sure that she does not have a breast cancer. This is as important for every woman as is a yearly pap test.

Thermography is a heat examination done with an infrared sensor camera to detect those women who have increased heat in the breasts. This examination can be done on a mass mobile basis to identify with even more certainty, those women who should have an annual mammogram. Any woman with a hot thermogram has two reasons for an annual x-ray: one, that it is recommended as a routine, and two, the indications of a hot pattern adds the second incentive for having a breast x-ray.

The Wisconsin Breast Cancer Detection Foundation has been established to see that in the near future every woman in the State of Wisconsin obtain annual thermograms just as an annual pap. The Foundation is creating much interest by providing the women and the doctors education and service in the use of mammograms and thermograms in screening for breast cancer. These tests will find cancer that is not otherwise found.

The Wisconsin Breast Cancer Detection Foundation has a mobile thermography screening program. Its sole purpose is to encourage and to educate as many women to have an annual mammogram, and to this end, we are using thermography as a method to encourage this procedure. We hope that the leadership of your community will recognize the technical as well as educational need to do more for earlier breast cancer detection; and the Foundation is at the service of any of your readers or any local organizations, both to educate about and provide the service of this screening technique.

William B. Hobbins, M.D.

Kewaskum Capers

By Stan and Barb

Hi friends!

This week we would like to devote much of our column to what we believe is one more good example why Kewaskum is one heck of a nice place to live, work and play.

This past Sunday evening we went with our son Mike to the annual Cub Scout doings, which this year was held in the basement hall of the Peace United Church of Christ. Seldom have I ever seen the real true togetherness of an event such as was displayed at this doings. We could devote several pages to the giving of names of all involved, but what is important is that here we saw what "working together" can accomplish. For many people these days those two words don't exist anymore, instead they have been replaced by the three words, "don't get involved." It's sad that so many people have taken that attitude. But it is heartwarming to see the wonderful "working together" spirit that was present at the Cub Scout potluck supper this past Sunday night. Thank God it still exists and even more so, pray to God it continues and improves; not only here in Kewaskum but throughout the world. We keep asking ourselves why must there be wars? Could this be the answer? Could it be that these two little words, "working together" could be the end once and for all to all wars? We would like to think so. And if they are, then the best place we adults can learn is to just sit back and watch and take lessons from our children. Believe me, they can teach us plenty.

We hear tell the fishing on most of our local lakes has been anything but good. I have a suggestion that you might want to try, that worked well for myself a few years back. This is it (which I did out of frustration and desperation). Try fishing in the most unlikely spots you can think of on your favorite lake. Sounds crazy you say? Well, maybe, but remember we have been having some pretty unlikely weather this year and like the feller once said, "don't knock it till you've tried it." And if it doesn't work and upon my advice you drilled all those holes in the ice for nothing, welllllll, I just moved out of town.

Kewaskum Statesman
Friday, February 28, 1975

Bye now

LET'S FACE IT. THE LESS ELECTRICITY YOU WASTE, THE LOWER YOUR BILL WILL BE.

If you can cut back on the electricity you waste, it'll help you keep your electric bill down—two different ways.

First, wasting less electricity means using less electricity. And the less you use, the less you pay for.

Second, wasting less electricity means generating less electricity. So if everyone uses electricity more efficiently we can put off building additional power plants. Growth used to be good for all of us because it meant low rates for customers and a fair return for investors. Today, it's just the opposite. Expensive construction in these inflationary times would mean a poor return for investors and higher rates for customers.

Eliminating electrical waste doesn't mean we'll never have to build new power plants. But it does mean we can postpone them with resulting reductions in our construction budget.

Eliminating electrical waste doesn't mean we'll never have another rate increase. Because increasing costs of fuel, labor and materials are bound to bring rate increases in the future.

But, the longer we can put off expensive construction, the longer we can keep those rate increases to an absolute minimum.

So it stands to reason, the less electricity we all waste, the better off we all are.

Wisconsin Electric engineers are working with companies and municipalities right now under a special energy management program to help them use electricity more efficiently.

You can do your part by using electricity more efficiently, too. By turning off the TV and lights when you leave the room. By insulating your home even better than it is now. By fixing the leaky hot water faucet that could be costing you almost 70 gallons a month. Just by opening your refrigerator door fifteen times tomorrow instead of twenty times.

Wisconsin Electric is doing all it can to be sure you have the electricity you need—today and tomorrow—at rates you can afford. All we ask is that you avoid waste. And use electricity wisely.

Area Balloonists To Participate in West Bend Rally

Moraine Aeronauts Inc. of West Bend will sponsor the first Kettle Moraine Balloon Rally in West Bend on Saturday and Sunday, weather permitting. Sixteen hot-air balloons are expected to fly precision tasks at the West Bend Holiday Inn. A Hare and Hound Race is planned for Saturday evening. In this event, the "hare" balloon takes off and flies at various altitudes to "catch" various winds which will cause changes in direction.

A few minutes later, the other balloons take flight and try to duplicate the course of the hare balloon and land closest to it. A target drop may also be flown for points. The points are to help to determine who will enter this year's national championships. The final competition is held in Indianola, Iowa, in August.

Glenn Mittelstadt of Campbellsport is expected to fly the Wind Maria. This is the balloon seen throughout the state on Wisconsin Physicians Service commercials on television. Tom Sheppard of West Bend will be balloonmeister in charge of all events, assisted by Jerry Rowe of West Bend and John Hubbell of Kewaskum, members of Moraine Aeronauts.

Nikki Kaplan of St. Louis, Mo., will pilot her balloon, Les Liscorne, which is decorated with full color mythological unicorns. She is the only person to fly a balloon under the St. Louis arch.

Paul Woessner and Steve Newlander, who crossed Lake Michigan in a 3 1/2-hour balloon flight on Jan. 17, will fly their balloon, "Magnificent Ratiteur, in the events. Balloon Federation of America (BFA) President Bruce Comstock of Ann Arbor, Mich., will fly an English-made balloon at the rally.

Wind and weather permitting, launching is expected to begin soon after sunrise and continue throughout the two days. The seven-story high 70,000 cubic-foot balloons are not expected to be inflated in winds of more than 12 to 15 miles per hour.

The public is also invited to attend the Balloonists' Ball and Buffet which will be held Saturday evening at Holiday Inn.

Wausau Homes Shows New Series

Over 300 dealers in attendance at recent Wausau Homes Seminars previewed another totally new home series along with new custom living options which the company has made available since the dealers met last fall. Wausau Homes is one of the few homebuilding companies who are taking an aggressive attitude in the market and, according to Marvin

C. Schuette executive vp, "are looking at 1975 very optimistically." Wausau is currently building in excess of 8 homes a day.

Schuette told dealers that everything looks good for selling homes and, according to Bob Kirst, local Wausau Man in this area, there has been a definite sales upswing in the past few months. Kirst said this was partly due to a turn around in homebuyer's attitudes and because he has been able to arrange very good financing for those who want to buy. Kirst said that according to the number of people visiting his model home at 7360 Rustic Rd., West Bend, interest in homebuying in the Washington County area is extremely good. He anticipates that the new home series will generate more sales due to the increase in the design and option choices.

"If you couldn't have wealth what would you choose?"
"Credit."

Bad First Half, Kettle Moraine Defense Subdues Indians, 72-64

Kettle Moraine's second place basketball team, one of their best in many years, kept their title hopes alive by defeating Kewaskum here Friday night with a strong first half, 72-64. The Indians now stand at 7-6.

Kettle (10-3) can win a share of the Scenic Moraine championship if they win at home against first place Grafton (11-2) Friday night.

A bad first half ruined the Indians, although a lot of credit must be given to the Lasers' very fine defense and overall quickness. Kettle's half-court press and defense caused the Indians a lot of trouble in the first half, mostly on turnovers and traveling violations. Kewaskum scored only 16 points in the half, 8 in the first quarter and 8 in the second.

Thus Kettle held a 28-16 lead at the half, which was more than the final margin. The Lasers hit 10 straight points near the end of the 2nd quarter to give them their 12-point lead. Kewaskum was back on the ball in the second half, scoring 24 points in both of the 3rd and 4th quarters but it was too late. They outscored Kettle 48-44 but could never get closer than 6. At one point the Indians scored 8 straight to close it to 46-40 and later to 48-42. But then the gap opened again.

Randy Miller, 6-6 Kettle star and No. 2 scorer in the conference, finished with a high of 18 points, while Jack Cummins had 14. Mike Koepke and Scott Koth led Kewaskum with 16 points apiece. Kettle hit 55 per cent from the floor on 30 of 54, while the Indians sank 51 per cent on 27 of 53. Koth made 10 of his points in the 3rd quarter rally.

In other games Grafton held onto undisputed first place by beating winless Pewaukee, 75-54. Hartland kept its title hopes alive by winning over Germantown, 65-46, and Mayville surprised Slinger, 50-46.

After having their 6-game winning streak broken at Slinger last Tuesday, 48-45, the Kewaskum JV's got back on the winning track with a 57-47 victory over Kettle Moraine here Friday. Leon Laatsch had another 20 point performance. Kevin Darmody and Ray Reindl helped with 12 apiece. Kewaskum hit 15 of 18 for 83 per cent from the line. Kettle made only one free throw. The win boosted the JV's to 10-7 overall and 8-5 in the conference.

This Friday Kewaskum brings the regular season to a close by entertaining Mayville (2-11) in the finale. A win would clinch 4th place for the Indians.

West Bend Runs Up 169 Points in Routing Lakes '5'

In a Lakes game at West Bend Sunday night, the Lithias set a season's high and may have set some kind of team scoring record with their 169-90 bombardment of Kewaskum. West Bend nearly doubled Kewaskum's output in winning by 79 points.

The Lithias maintained a tie for first place with Mayville in the B Division, both 5-6, as the latter beat Port Washington, knocking them out of a tie for the lead. Menomonee Falls tops the A League with 10-0, while Cedarburg and Germantown are both 9-2.

Ralph Steilen, former West Bend West standout, led the scoring with 34 points. The Lithias sank 27 of 34 free throws for 79 per cent. Tim Zettel made 30 points, Tom Busse 23 and 5 other Lithias were also in double figures. Bill Backhaus paced Kewaskum with 31. West Bend scored 54 points in the last quarter to Kewaskum's 16.

In other games Hartford gave Falls its closest game but lost, 111-104. Slinger bowed to Germantown, 131-112. Cedarburg beat Thiensville-Mequon, 118-107, and Mayville tipped Port, 123-105.

This Sunday Kewaskum plays at Menomonee Falls, A Division leaders with 10-0.

Girls Rout Rams, Lose 1st Scenic Game at Slinger

The Kewaskum girls basketball team shellacked Random Lake last Tuesday, 52-18, in a non-conference game. Reserves played much of the second half.

Kathy Stoffel was leading scorer with 11 points and Kathy Mertz was next with 9.

The Indian JV's also won, 26-14. Jane Theisen and Stephanie Matenaer combined for 18 points.

The win brought the varsity girls' record to 7-1 overall and 5-0 in Scenic.

Playing at Slinger Thursday night, Kewaskum was edged, 33-30. It was the girls' first conference loss and clinched at least a tie for the championship for the Owls, who are 6-0, each team with one game to play. The unbeaten Slinger JV's also won over Kewaskum, 26-11.

Darlene Kratz paced Slinger with 14 points and 17 rebounds. Kewaskum got into foul trouble with two starters fouling out and this ruined the Indian girls. Diane Strack and Grace Flynn each scored 8 for the losers.

EICHSTEDT SCORES 28 IN ST. NORBERT WIN

Clark Eichstedt of Kewaskum poured in 28 points and Chuck Albers scored 9 of his 15 in the second half, leading St. Norbert College over Loras, 87-73, last Wednesday. The win brought St. Norbert's record to 9-11 and Loras, led by Greg Gibney's 22 points, is 13-12.

The Green Knights, down 42-37 at halftime, took the lead to stay at 49-48 four minutes into the second half. St. Norbert ended their regular season Saturday, traveling to Houghton, Mich. to face Michigan Tech. The game was a final tuneup before a state playoff contest Tuesday. That matchup was versus Carthage College at Kenosha.
