Unfair Labor Practices Noted in Westra Picketing at Kewaskum School Projects

An administrative law judge for the National Labor Relations Board (NLRB) has found eight Milwaukee area unions guilty of unfair labor practices in connection with strikes at two Kewaskum School District projects.

The judge ruled that the eight unions engaged in unfair labor practices by inducing subcontractors for Westra Construction Co., of Waupun to strike. Westra is a nonunion contractor.

Westra entered into subcontracts with Rohde Brothers of Plymouth and Spancrete Industries of Valders for some of the structural work. Mueller Pipefitters of New Berlin had the contract for installation of gas lines.

Judge Wellington A. Gillis of Washington, D.C. ruled that the eight Milwaukee area unions involved in the case engaged in unfair labor practices by inducing employees of the three firms to refuse to work.

The judge also stated that the unions persuaded Rohde, Spancrete and Mueller to cease doing business with Westra Construction.

Westra contracted with the Kewaskum Community Schools District to build a new middle school and an addition to the high school. The school project amounted to about $1.6 million including remodeling and equipment.

Judge Gillis ordered the unions to cease such actions and to post in union halls for 60 days an NLRB order supporting his judgment.

The unions denied all charges of unlawful conduct. Union officials said picketing at the job site was legal and added that no threats or inducements were made to subcontractors.

Construction of the middle school and related school district projects began in 1973.

David has participated in various school productions including "Oklahoma," "The Curious Savage," "Brigadoon," "Tom Jones," and "Hello Dolly." His senior activities include AFS (he was our school's summer representative in Iran), National Honor Society, and the newspaper staff.

The DAR award is based on a student's dependability, service, leadership, and patriotism. For the local award, David received a pin. He will now be eligible for state awards of over $200.00 and national competition, where a $1,000 scholarship will be awarded.

Mark Smucker Is Commended Student In Merit Program

Another Kewaskum High student, Mark Smucker, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Smucker, has received some national recognition as a result of high high performance in National Merit Scholarship testing.

Mark has been named as a commended student in the Merit Program by the National Merit Corporation. The announcement came from Kewaskum High School principal Clark Pearson.

Commended students represent less than 2 per cent of those who are expected to graduate from high school in 1976. These 2 per cent or 35,000 students who received commending nationwide have finished just below the 15,000 students considered semi-finalists in the testing.

The semi-finalist winners were announced in September, and they continue in further Merit Scholarship competition. Two other Kewaskum students, Connie Slegler and David Ayer, had previously been announced as semi-finalists.

CONSUMER REPORT:

Can you really compare prices? This is almost impossible. A very careful shopper is doing well if he or she can correctly compare 100 to 200 items. There are approximately 8 to 10 thousand items in a good supermarket. The practice of selling some items at a lower price by some merchants may be called "Merchandising" but the difference is made up by charging higher prices on other items.

It is important that there is honesty and confidence between customer and food merchant. The future of the business is at stake and therefore, you can be sure the Super Savings Market, supplied with the right goods, at the right time, and at the right price has your satisfaction in mind!

Kewaskum Juniors in need of building for recycling program

The Kewaskum Junior Woman's Club is in the market for a building for its recycling program. The site the club has been using for the past six months, the basement of the old village garage, is going to be turned into a museum by the village's historical society.

According to Nancy Malvick, the chairperson of the program, any building with a large amount of space, such as a barn, or a large garage would suffice.

Mrs. Malvick had started the program in her own garage, after the Jr. Woman's group had taken over the glass collection from the Peace Church and added cans and aluminum to make it a full-scale resource recovery program.

Members of the organization have constructed hand-made glass crushers, and on the third Saturday morning of each month, they have used the garage as a place where area residents could bring their glass, cans, and aluminum to be recycled.

The monies from the project have been used for various community and youth programs.

The building is needed to keep this program going. Anyone with such a building or a space should contact Mrs. Malvick at 626-2481 or Rosemary Kempf, the Jr. Woman's Club Conservation chairperson at 626-2447.

Here is a list of items which can be recycled:

Iron-based Metal: Tin cans - remove both ends, place them inside can and flatten; painted label cans are acceptable. Soda cans - flatten as much as possible. All cans must be cleaned and labels removed.

Aluminum: Aluminum foil, junk aluminum, siding, TV dinner trays, pot pie tins, door and screen frames, aluminum beer and soda cans (they must have rounded bottoms and no seams). All are to be cleaned, labels removed and flattened as much as possible.

Clear Glass: All clear glass, no plate glass as in windows, no colored glass, except for one-half gallon and gallon jugs. They are to be cleaned with labels removed.

We are back in business! Happy to hear that so many of you missed seeing our pictures the past two months. Since Charles Miller takes time from his busy schedule to make our prints from the pictures supplied by so many of you, and if you have been keeping current with local news, you know that the Millers sold their business and moved into their new home. It seems that Mary kept "Charlie" so busy with other details in the house that he just recently completed his new dark room to carry on his photography work. The picture above shows a threshing crew passing through town. The steam engine (left center) supplied the power for the threshing machine. The load of wood (foreground) supplied the fuel for the steam engine. The house (left) is the present home of the Robert Kirst family and Kewaskum Realty (since remodeled). Holy Trinity Rectory and the rear of

Holy Trinity Catholic Church can be seen in the background. Note the small size of the trees to the right of the Kirst home at that time. Some of the trees still stand and residents are asked to look at their huge size now. Also note the dirt street, wooden sidewalk and wooden picket fence. If you have any pictures we could borrow for our Bicentennial notes please contact L. N. Peterson, chairman, 626-2766; Mark Smucker, 626-4335; Charles Miller, 626-4931, or Mrs. Bill Martin, 626-2950.

The Public Works Committee recommended that the proposal of Rohlinger Construction for the removal and stockpiling of the top soil at the site of the new fire station should be accepted upon their apparent low bid of 29c per cubic yard. Motion by Trustee Herriges, seconded by Trustee Schmidt that said proposal shall be so accepted.

Kewaskum FHA Chapter Notes

On Nov. 13, the Kewaskum Chapter of Future Homemakers of America held a meeting in the foods room.

It began with our Tupperware sale kickoff. Sharon Hamernik told us about the prizes we could receive, depending on how much we sell. She also handed out books and order forms. The orders were to be turned in by Dec. 2. The products should be delivered by Dec. 15.

We talked about having an American Beautification program for the Village of Kewaskum. The following suggestions were given: clean up the elementary school playground, paint the fire hydrants, paint some garbage cans, make some "clean-up" posters and put them up around school, fix up the park and beach and the final suggestion was plant some flowers in the boxes on the village bridges in spring.

Some suggestions like painting fire hydrants, fixing up the park and beach, and planting flowers will have to be approved of by the Chamber of Commerce before they can be done.

We decided to discuss this plan further at our next general meeting.

President Bonnie Lendved then handed out a sheet with all coming December events on it and a list of members who will serve on the planning committee.

We briefly discussed where we would go Christmas caroling. The following places were approved of: the streets of Kewaskum, the Beechwood Rest Home, and the Samaritan Home. Meadowbrook Manor was mentioned as a possibility.

Bonnie showed us two film strips on the FHA Junior Homemaker Degree. She asked Julie Peterson and Carol Proeber if they would want to run for state FHA offices.

Bonnie also asked if any freshmen would like to try out for the Junior Homemaker Degree. Jeri Feiten, Jane Rosplock, Julie Jeske and Cheri Hintze said they would like to try.

The meeting was then adjourned.

Carol Proeber,
Chapter Reporter

TOTAL SHORTAGE OF NATURAL GAS
By County in 1979

Natural gas shortage predicted for county

"Natural gas cuts of 250 billion cubic feet a year to Wisconsin industry by 1979 will increase dependence on roads, bridges and railroads to carry substitute fuels," Gov. Patrick J. Lucey said this week.

"Without adequate transportation — especially railroads — Washington County's natural gas users, such as factories, paper mills, dairies and hospitals, could be forced to pay exorbitant prices for alternative fuels such as coal and oil. Or, in the worst of situations, they could be denied fuel altogether," Lucey told a news conference.

Lucey based his report on a study from the Wisconsin Energy Office that outlined anticipated natural gas cutbacks to "interruptible users" by 1979. Interruptible pipeline service is most often provided businesses, industries and institutions such as hospitals and colleges.

Home natural gas users have been assured of continued supplies, the energy office said.

"As natural gas is cut back throughout the state, our transportation system will be called upon to deliver larger and larger quantities of alternative fuels required to keep industries going and commerce strong," Lucey continued.

"But if highways are bad and bridges unsafe, heavy fuel trucks will be forced to take roundabout detours to their customers, avoiding roads that have weight limits or bridges that are posted. The additional transportation costs will be added to the already high fuel prices, forcing some industries into an uncompetitive position, thus threatening jobs.

"Some industries will require large volumes of coal as a replacement fuel," Lucey continued. "And in many cases railroads are the only form of transportation that can economically deliver coal to plantside. But if rail lines are abandoned—or allowed to continue in a state of disrepair—coal may be denied to the mills and factories forcing temporary layoffs or plant closings."

Once the full impact of the reduction is felt in Washington County, more than 2,800 truckloads of fuel oil would be required each year simply to maintain the energy status quo, Lucey said.

On the other hand, if local industries, hospitals and schools turn to coal as a replacement for the curtailed natural gas, 1,744 carloads of the fossil fuel would be necessary just to protect Washington County jobs, and health facilities, Lucey said.

The energy office said the county's food and dairy and manufacturing industries would be particularly hard hit by the natural gas cuts and shift to alternative fuels.

It cited the loss of 1,853 million cubic feet of natural gas locally for the two industries by 1979, which would force local employers to rely upon trucks and trains to bring in oil or coal. In addition, schools and health care facilities in Washington County would be scheduled to lose 655 million cubic feet of natural gas annually, by 1979, according to the energy office projections.

The governor said the energy office predictions, based upon industry notices and projections, make it "even more imperative that rural and urban Wisconsin recognize the need for a well-balanced, healthy transportation system."

"Rural and non-metropolitan counties have the most to lose if we fail to enact the transportation funding and reform proposals before the legislature this week," Lucey said. "But the loss in jobs, population and economic future for these areas will not be theirs alone, but a loss for every citizen in Wisconsin who wants every county—rural or urban—to prosper today and tomorrow."

BROWNIE, GIRL SCOUT TROOPS 25 AND 95

On Nov. 13 we planned and practiced for our investiture. Second year Brownies were chosen for the flag ceremony and for holding the baskets with our pins we were to receive.

We had a surprise guest from West Bend. Barbara Brown and her son, whom we shall call Charlie Brown, came and taught us "White Carol Bells," to be sung in rounds.

We had our treat and then dismissed.

On Nov. 20 we held our investiture at the Kewaskum Savings and Loan in the basement. Our parents were invited and refreshments were served. A big thank you to the business people at the Kewaskum Savings and Loan and we promised to keep the noise quieter from now on.

Troop 25 will be meeting at the Middle School and Troop 95 will continue meeting at the Savings and Loan in the basement.

You can enjoy holiday decorations and make wise use of electricity.

Midget lights on your tree make sense. Five 50-bulb midget strings give you 250 lights and use less electricity than a single 100-watt bulb. The same number of standard size tree bulbs use almost 20 times as much electricity.

You can cut down on the number of lights you need, too, by using tinsel and ornaments to reflect glitter and add sparkle.

Then save on outdoor decorations. Displaying your tree in a window, or putting up other midget light window decorations, will serve double-duty as indoor-outdoor attractions. And if they're the twinkle-type lights, they'll use about half as much electricity because they're "asleep" half the time.

Normally, the larger the tree, the more lights it takes to decorate it properly. A smaller tree will probably cost less to buy and will need fewer light strings and trim for attractive decorating.

Always turn off tree lights when you leave the house. In fact, it's a good idea to turn them off when no one is in the room where the tree is located. This makes power saving sense and is a good safety precaution.

While you want your decorations to be attractive, you also want them to be safe. Keep these safety hints in mind:

- Make sure lighted bulbs do not come in contact with drapes, carpet or furniture. They produce heat and can cause scorching.

- Spread your strings of lights on the floor. Check carefully for frayed wires, cracked insulation, damaged plugs or light sockets. Replace if necessary. Test the lights before putting them on the tree.

- Also check extension cords for wear or damage. Do not run extension cords across walking areas... even if covered with a rug or mat.

- If you are using a real tree, keep it well watered. Dry needles can be a fire hazard.

- Do not overload household circuits—another reason midget lights are beneficial, since they use less power.

- Don't string a light set on an aluminum tree. It is best to illuminate any metallic tree with a floodlight.

- Look for the UL label when buying new lights and equipment.

By using your ingenuity and imagination, decorating for Christmas can be fun... and less expensive. Remember, when you decorate for the holidays, light up wisely and safely.

One more helpful tip—cook or bake several holiday dishes at the same time and freeze them. You'll save time and energy.

Decorate tastefully, not wastefully.

Thank you to the Girl Scouts for the very pretty Christmas centerpiece they made and gave to the Statesman.

Mrs. Mary Ellen Shea, 91, formerly of R. 2, Campbellsport, and a resident of the Henry Boyle Catholic Home for the Aged, Fond du Lac, the past year, died Friday, Nov. 28. She was the mother of Maurice Shea of Madison, who formerly taught in the Kewaskum school system.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Malvick and daughter and the latter's mother returned home Saturday after a ten day vacation to Florida, where they spent one day at Disneyland and viewed other sites. They also spent some time visiting with Mrs. Malvick's grandmother at Athens, Ga.

Eichstedt Is Only Loss at St. Norbert

DE PERE-- Talent and optimism are walking hand in hand across the St. Norbert College basketball court.

With a nucleus of six returning lettermen and an abundance of talent in the wings, Head Coach Romie Kosnar can afford an optimistic outlook.

The Green Knights have lost only one starter - MVP Clark Eichstedt, of Kewaskum. "Ike's" outstanding rebounding and consistent performances will be missed by the '75-76 Knights, but Kosnar and assistant Ron Brault are confident there is enough ability to plug the holes left by the former captain.

The new captain is Paul Schramka of Milwaukee, regular since his freshman year.

Indians Take 27-0 Lead to Roll Over Pewaukee; Edge Grafton

Unbelievable. Playing their scenic opener at Pewaukee Friday, the Kewaskum Indians ran up 27 straight points in the first quarter while holding the Pirates scoreless and rolled to an easy 74-54 win. It was like there was a cover on the basket for the Pirates, who didn't score a point until early in the second period when Tim Dunne finally sank a free throw.

Pewaukee then outscored the Indians in the second quarter, 20-16, but trailed at halftime, 43-20. They also outpointed Kewaskum in the final stanza with reserves in the game.

After the Indians' great 27-0 first quarter the game was as good as over and Kewaskum coasted to victory. Kewaskum shot 32 out of 68 for 47 per cent. Jack Kern was top scorer with 23 points, while Leon Laatsch and Scott Tessar also hit in double figures.

Pewaukee went 0 for 11 in the first quarter but after that emerged with 24 out of 53 shots for 45 per cent. They did have a problem getting their shots off. The Kewaskum press forced turnovers and even gave Pewaukee trouble getting over the time line. With leaping Kern and Laatsch dominating the boards, the Indians outrebounded Pewaukee, 40 to 23.

It was a clean sweep for Kewaskum as the JV's beat Pewaukee, 59-45, and the freshmen won, 41-32. Wayne Endlich and Mark Tessar each scored 16 points for the JV's and Mike Schaub led the frosh with 14.

In other close scenic openers Friday Germantown edged Mayville, 61-58, Kettle Moraine shaded Hartland in overtime, 51-47, and Grafton nosed out Slinger in overtime 61-58.

Kewaskum 63 - Grafton 61

The Indians didn't have one of their better games here Tuesday night but still managed to squeeze out a 63-61 win over defending tri-champion Grafton in a barn burner. Kewaskum had to overcome a very slow start and some hot shooting by Grafton's Scott Maronde to pull out a victory.

Grafton, which is not supposed to have a letterman returning, gave the Indians all they could handle and floored a strong team. Both teams had aggressive defenses and there were numerous turnovers early in the game.

Grafton outplayed the Indians at the start to jump off to an 11-2 lead (pretty much the opposite of the game at Pewaukee, but then Grafton isn't Pewaukee). Kewaskum narrowed the gap somewhat at the quarter, 16-8, and then outscored the visitors in the second quarter, 22-15, to make it 31-30 at halftime.

In the second half Kewaskum jumped off to a 40-35 advantage and after Grafton scored, they increased it to 43-37, their biggest lead of the night. It was 48-43 going into the final period. Maronde was the big noise in that quarter with 12 of his 30 points. He was by far the top scorer and it was his jump shot which brought Grafton back to a 59-59 tie. Kern dumped in a rebound and his guard, Strenger, fouled out. Tessar then made two free throws to give his team a 4-point lead with 15 seconds left. Maronde brought it to a 63-61 final on a jumper.

The Indians relied on balanced scoring with 5 players in double figures.

In other Tuesday contests, Germantown moved into a tie for first with Kewaskum by downing Kettle Moraine, 64-51, Mayville routed Pewaukee, 70-55, and Slinger won over Hartland, 68-63.

Friday the Indians travel to Hartland.

losing 16-0. It was Ruplinger's first loss. Indians who took 3rds were Clyde Gundrum at 98, Gary Schmidt at 185, John Sekeres at 167 and Gary Gavin at unlimited. Sekeres lost in overtime in his semi-final.

Tackes Productive Wrestler at UW-SP

Cal Tackes, a 1973 graduate of Kewaskum High School, is the University of Wisconsin - Stevens Point wrestling team's most productive grappler this year.

Tackes currently holds a 2-1 record, including an opening win over Steve Stolzmann of Oshkosh, perhaps the strongest conference team this year.

Competing at the Northern Open in Madison, Tackes split two decisions.

He defeated his Dupage opponent with a pin at 3:20 of the second period, before falling to Craig Harswill, last year's Big 10 champion.

The Northern Open featured such outstanding Midwest teams as Wisconsin, Iowa, Iowa State, Northern Iowa, Illinois, and about 30 other teams.

No team points were kept.

"Cal is rapidly improving and should have a good shot at the conference championship," stated UW-SP Wrestling Coach John Munson.

Tackes is a two year letterman at UW-SP, which takes its 0-1 record into action Saturday in a meet at Parkside.

Tackes, a UW-SP junior, is a history major.

Secor Pinned, Wins On Pin in Ripon College Matches

A lopsided victory and a disappointing defeat left the Ripon College wrestling team with a split in its season debut at Watertown Saturday.

Coach Bill Connor's grapplers dropped a 30-13 verdict to Maranatha College in their opener, but came back to win every match for a 58-0 decision over Blackhawk College in the second half of a double dual test at the Maranatha gym.

Doro, Secor, Beck, Davis, Novitske and Vivoda each chalked up a pin during the day's competition.

In the Maranatha match Secor was pinned by Bonner in 5:24. Against Blackhawk Secor pinned McCoy in 3:44.

The Redmen will not return to action until Jan. 14, when they compete with Elmhurst and Waukesha Tech in a triple dual event at Carthage College.

KHS Girls Team Loses at Hartland

The Kewaskum girls team traveled to Hartland last Thursday where they were beaten by a good team, 61-40. Coach Katie Koch said the hot Hartland team must have shot close to 70% from the floor, many of them on long shots.

Loraine Lorenzen did most of the scoring for the winners with 27 points. For Kewaskum Wanda Akin was high with 12 and Diane Strack, leading scorer, was held to just 8.

The score at halftime was tied at 23-23 but then Hartland got hot.

The loss brought the Indians record to 2-1 overall and 1-1 in Scenic Moraine play.

Kewaskum Defeats Slinger, 111-106, for Second Lakes Win

The Kewaskum Lakes team won its second straight game, beating Slinger here Sunday evening, 111-106, to move into first place in the B Division. The team now has already won as many games as they did during the entire season last year.

The big news in the A Division of the league Sunday was Hartford shattering the Menomonee Falls Badgers 80-game winning streak. It was Falls' first defeat since January of 1970.

Clark Eichstedt poured in 35 points and Chuck Boegel 20 to lead Kewaskum in its victory over Slinger. Dave Hunter meshed 32 for the losers.

Slinger shot 75.9 from the line on 22 of 29, while Kewaskum made 73.1. The winners made only 36.2 from the floor. Slinger led at the half, 58-55, but Kewaskum outscored them in the final two quarters.

This Sunday Kewaskum plays its first game away at Thiensville - Mequon (0-2).
