Old Letter Describes Life at St. Michaels 130 Years Ago

A letter written 130 years ago by Michael Rodenkirch to his relatives in the Rhineland came to light again recently when a great-great-granddaughter, Cecilia Rodenkirch of West Bend, brought in a copy of it to the Statesman for publication. Rodenkirch was one of the first settlers of St. Michaels and descendants still reside in that area. He wrote the letter in 1846, describing the wonders he found in the New World.

(The descendants of the Michael Rodenkirch, Schneider, Thull, Herriges, Rodenkirch, Laubach, Schlaefer and Altenhofen families will hold their annual family reunion at St. Michaels Sunday, Aug. 15, starting with the celebration of Holy Mass at 10:30 a. m. and dinner served at noon).

The year 1846 was marked by crop failures in Europe. Ireland suffered a potato blight that caused a terrible famine, and throughout Germany the grain crop failed. America shipped much grain to Europe and as return cargo the ships brought thousands of immigrants, hopeful of finding a better living in the fruitful land that had relieved the famine in their own country.

One of these immigrants was Michael Rodenkirch, whose letter to his relatives in the Rhineland is printed below. The settlement that he helped found became the village of St. Michaels, three miles east of Kewaskum, and some of his great-grandchildren and great-great-grandchildren still live in that vicinity.

The Statesman herewith reprints Michael Rodenkirch's letter:

West Konsin State, Dec. 26, 1846.

Dear mother, sisters, sisters-in-law, brothers-in-law, relatives and friends:

My heartiest greetings to you all. We are well and hope the same of you. I hope you received my letter written Oct. 2, which tells where we finally settled. I want to write another short detail about the trip. Antwerp to New York is 80 francs; a young person 70 francs. From New York to Albany by steamboat, Albany to Buffalo by railroad, Buffalo to Milwaukee by steamboat. In each case buy your tickets only to the next large city instead of a through ticket. Don't believe every German rogue who poses as a broker, as a rule they are usually bad people.

When coming across be sure to be on time when the boat or trains leave or you will be left behind, as they go like a shot. I can hardly describe the wonderful trip in seeing God's creations. It took 75 days altogether to get here. We used to think England was at the end of the world. It only took five days to get to England. After 10 days we had passed Ireland and Scotland and were on the high seas.

Often the waves swept into the ship and we had to hang on when it tipped sideways. The storm and wind threw the ship on one side, but, like an egg, a ship always stays on top of the water. The last 10 days we were sailing along American shores and finally reached an earthly haven, New York, with a lovely harbor. We were all too tired the first day we could not take the first steps on solid land. The rich and abundant food of America did not agree with our tired bodies.

We live 40 miles northwest of Milwaukee in township 12, range 19, section 13. We have good land and nobody bothers us. We have a healthy home, 20 by 22 feet, built of logs. We have a wagon, a pair of oxen—which cost $50—a cow, cost $18; chicken, and other house animals. The animals go to the woods day and night. When they come home to feed, the oxen get a handful of salt and the cow some meal.

I have bought eight times 80 acres of land here. They lie close to each other, forming a section for which I paid $800. There are no hills here. If one buys uncleared land he must be in position to subsist on his savings for at least one year, as he won't be able to get money from the land.

Here we do not lock our doors, as there are no thieves. I have seen no snakes. We have foxes, badgers, deer, partridges, chickens and birds. Strawberries, raspberries, blackberries, and many herbs. Two kinds of maple, hard and soft, four oaks, bass, linden, nut trees, redwood, ironwood. Ironwood is so hard one cannot pound a nail into it. We burn ash trees. I have larch, too, of great size. The woods lie full of branches, crosswise, so I can hardly walk. I enjoy walking through the woods and seeing the lovely trees, 40 to 50 feet high, with low branches.

My children are to draw lots for the locations they wish to live on. My grandchildren need not pay Martini anymore. We eat meat three times a day, except Fridays, and days of ab-

NOTICE

The problem of rabid bats can be handled best by calling the "Orkin Man," Russell Strelow, manager of the Orkin Exterminator Company of Fond du Lac. His phone number is 921-9180 and his address is P. O. Box 268 Fond du Lac, Wis. 54935.

Mr. Strelow has told me they will come to inspect the premises and advise on how to most safely exterminate the offending animals and at what costs to the owner. No charge for consultation services. Mr. Strelow said they use an anticoagulant powder and a poison gas method to get rid of bats.

The fact that one rabid bat recently got into a home and bit a sleeping boy is enough reason to seek the eradication of all bats located near any habitable building.

REV. STASKAL TO HOLD MAUTHE LAKE SERVICES

Rev. M. K. Staskal, personnel director and assistant chaplain of Cedar Lake Home, former pastor of Peace United Church of Christ, Kewaskum, is conducting services at Mauthe Lake campground on Saturday evening, Aug. 15, at 7:30 p. m. Anyone in the area is invited to attend.

Lions Chicken Bar-B-Q, Early Farm Days in Park Sunday

The annual chicken bar-b-q sponsored by the Kewaskum Lions Club will be held in the village park on Sunday, Aug. 15. Serving time will be from 11 a. m. until 3 p. m. in the tent. Carry outs will also be available. Beer and soda will be served and games will be played.

Added attractions will be the running of the "Kettle 20" foot race through the Kettle Moraine area. This 20 kilometer race (about 12 miles) will start at 10:15 a. m. in the park. Beginning at 12:15 p. m. there will be bicycle races with classes for several age groups. A big feature of the afternoon, starting at 1:45, will be the midwest wrist wrestling championship tournament. All wrist wrestlers will be classed for competition according to the following weights: under 130 lbs., 130-150 lbs., 150-170 lbs., and 190 and over. There may also be an open class for women contestants. All are encouraged to enter the competition.

In conjunction with our nation's bicentennial, the Kewaskum Historical Society will have an early American antique farm display.

51st Reunion of Coulter Family

The David and Mary Coulter family of Kewaskum met at Sterr Park in Lomira Sunday, Aug. 1, for its 51st consecutive reunion with 112 members present.

Mrs. Alvin Schwartz, family historian and daughter of Mary and David, reported that during the year there were no deaths, four births and three marriages.

Games, swimming and cards provided entertainment. Many pictures were brought for identification to be added to family scrap books.

The committee for the reunion was Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Luedtke, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Burkholder, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Burkholder, Mr. and Mrs. Norbert Rosbeck and Mr. and Mrs. Victor Fronek.

Other than area addresses members came from Green Bay, Chicago, LaCrosse, Milwaukee and California.

BLOOD PRESSURE CHECKING WEDNESDAY

Blood pressure checking will be held on Wednesday, Aug. 18, at 11 a. m. at the Legion Clubhouse, Kewaskum. Anyone 40 or over in the community is welcome. No charge.

The second annual "Early Farm Days" antique farm machinery display will be held at the Kewaskum Village Park this Sunday, Aug. 15, beginning at 11 a. m.

It will be held in conjunction with the Lions' Club Chicken Bar-b-que, and will feature many bits of farm nostalgia as well as some items from the museum run by the society on Parkview Drive.

According to Mark Rodenkirch, co-chairman of the display, about 30 exhibitors will be at the park on that day, the same number as last year. A few antique autos will be there, but not as many as last year, but Gadow mill from Barton will be back again and will be in running order, even though it wasn't last year. Other items which will be there include an antique steam engine, old farm implements, plows, seeders, hay mowers and at least one threshing rig which will be operating continuously throughout the afternoon.

Admission to the event will be 50c for each visitor over 12, with those who are younger being admitted free. The admission charge also includes the cost of one of the society's buttons for 1976, and anyone wearing one at the gate will be admitted without charge. Any and all society members are urged to attend, and to come to the work day on Saturday to help set up some of the displays and fence off the grounds.

Bicentennial books, trays and historical society buttons will be sold in the concession stand, along with ice cream bars. Tickets for a hand-made quilt and four pillow covers will also be available, with winners announced at a later date.

About 1,000 people attended the show last year, and more are expected this time and in the future. This is the second co-chairmanship for Ron Markus and Mark Rodenkirch, both of whom are exhibitors, and they have managed to obtain machinery dating back to the 1870's, one being a reaper owned by "Whitey" Baum of Kewaskum.

The society has converted the old village garage on Parkview Drive into a museum after a great deal of work, and encourages the public to attend their meetings which are held on the third Tuesday of each month in the meeting room of the Valley Bank. Its president is Dan Schmidt, and it has about 100 members at present.

stinence. We eat white bread daily.

I wish you could be here. I have never been sorry that I came. I have often asked the two youngest children if they would want to go home, but they say, "No, not for a thousand dollars." I wish you could come to visit us at least, even if it would cost me $50. All kitchen and farm implements are good here, but high priced. Bring an axe to use on the trip. No chains. Very little tinware. Tinware is not strong enough. Make zwiebach or corn to use on the trip. Also carry plenty of cornmeal, brandy-wine, coffee, sugar and whatever you want to eat on the trip. There is no store, but 4,000 miles of ocean. Whoever wants to live in the woods should bring strong clothes, many shoes and high boots. Also waffle iron kuchen tins.

Single people can earn more here than their folks can give them. We plan to build a church next year. We have to pray in our own homes unless we want to go a long way. We pray the Gospel from our prayer books.

We live within 400, 600 and 1,000 steps from our neighbors. I live within 500 feet from neighbor Thull from Gillenfeld. Schneider, Theusch, Keller, Junk, and Herriges from Strohn. Thull and Hammes from Gillenfeld. Thullen from Strassburg; Rodermund from Scheidweiler, a Catholic from Switzerland, and a few from England, Lutherans. We are all friends and visit each other.

We have no snow, but nice weather on Christmas day. Many have asked me to write, which I intend to do later on.

The cows and animals stay outdoors summer and winter. We hang bells on their necks, which we hear a mile away. They sleep under the trees. We built a roof for them for bad weather. However, it is hard to make them stay there. They would rather stay out in the open. The sickles are narrower but longer than at home. We sharpen them here, where at home we have to heat and pound them.

A single person can save enough in a year to buy an 80 acre farm and claim at the government. You can get two times 80 acres, but if you cannot pay, some relative over 21 years can claim it. Anyone can claim land without trouble; one need only point to the card and give his name and it will be written down to your credit without mentioning prices, which are always the same. Ten shilling to the acre, which is 2½ cents to the German rod. There is much unclaimed land around here, and there is no road beyond us. When I think of the 4,000 miles that separate us, my mind almost stands still. The climate is the same as with you.

There are five Indian huts here, and the Indians live on wild things. They wear skins and woolen aprons. They sell deer and doe meat. Each one has a horse to ride. They are people like we, only colored. They never harm anyone, but often ask, "Give me some." At first the family was scared, but not any more. I immediately went to their huts, taking a double-barrel gun with a concealed bayonet. They were frightened and were very liberal. They sleep on the bare ground. Their shoes of bear-skins are wound around their feet. They take much honey from the hollow trees.

We heard so many tales of the wild animals to be found here. I bought two double-barrel guns and double-barrel pistols in Antwerp, also a gun with concealed bayonet, which, in case of danger, is released with the left hand by a hair-spring. Beyond the Mississippi the wild people do live.

Give my regards to reverend pastor, the mayor, and all the rest. I greet you as often as the drops that flow in the seas between us. Greet all my relatives and friends. We remember daily in our prayers. Will you pray for us too we remain faithful in the love of God and true to our religion, and we wish you all a happy New Year. Greet all my neighbors, Peter Schladweiler, Peter Sartoris, the school teacher and his family, all my sponsors and god-children, and all the members of the parish in Strohn. I greet you a hundred thousand times and remain.

Your dutiful brother,
Michael Rodenkirch

 Dear Sir:

The following letter was sent to the Kewaskum School Board by the Education Department of the Kewaskum Junior Woman's Club:

"Gentlemen:
 As concerned parents, citizens and taxpayers, we strongly object to the manner in which the recent Budget Hearing and Annual Meeting were conducted.

We feel that as electors we should have some say as to the making of the policies of the school district. The impression received by those of us in attendance was that our opinions do not count.

We particularly recommend that you reconsider the issue of the size of the kindergarten sections in our district.

After much investigation, we feel the best solution would be to bus the 7 children who are equi-distant from Kewaskum and Farmington, to Farmington. This would create two sections at Farmington and also ease the overcrowding in Kewaskum.

Because this is an extremely important step in a child's educational growth, the child should not be hampered by large classes when a simple solution is available.

Why have a class larger than recommended by the Department of Public Instruction when the room at Farmington will stand vacant for half a day?

IS NOT THE MAIN INTEREST OF OUR SCHOOLS SUPPORTED TO BE EDUCATION?

Sincerely,

How to make a molehill out of a mountain.

The amount of electricity being used by Wisconsin Electric customers varies throughout the day. During the daytime hours there's considerably more electricity being used than at night. If you look below you can clearly see what a mountain that daytime use of electricity makes when it is plotted on a graph.

Naturally we have to have enough power plants to meet that daytime demand at its highest point. And we do. At least right now we do. But as the mountain grows, we have to build and maintain more power plants. An expensive proposition, as you can well imagine...one that ends up costing all of us more money.

But by changing our electricity habits a little we can hold down daytime peak loads and flatten that mountain somewhat—which would enable us to make better, more economical use of existing power plants. And still meet the growing demand for electricity.

SOME THINGS YOU CAN DO TO HELP

You can start by washing full loads of clothing in the evening, whenever possible. And drying them later, too.

Try using your dishwasher at night, perhaps right before you go to bed.

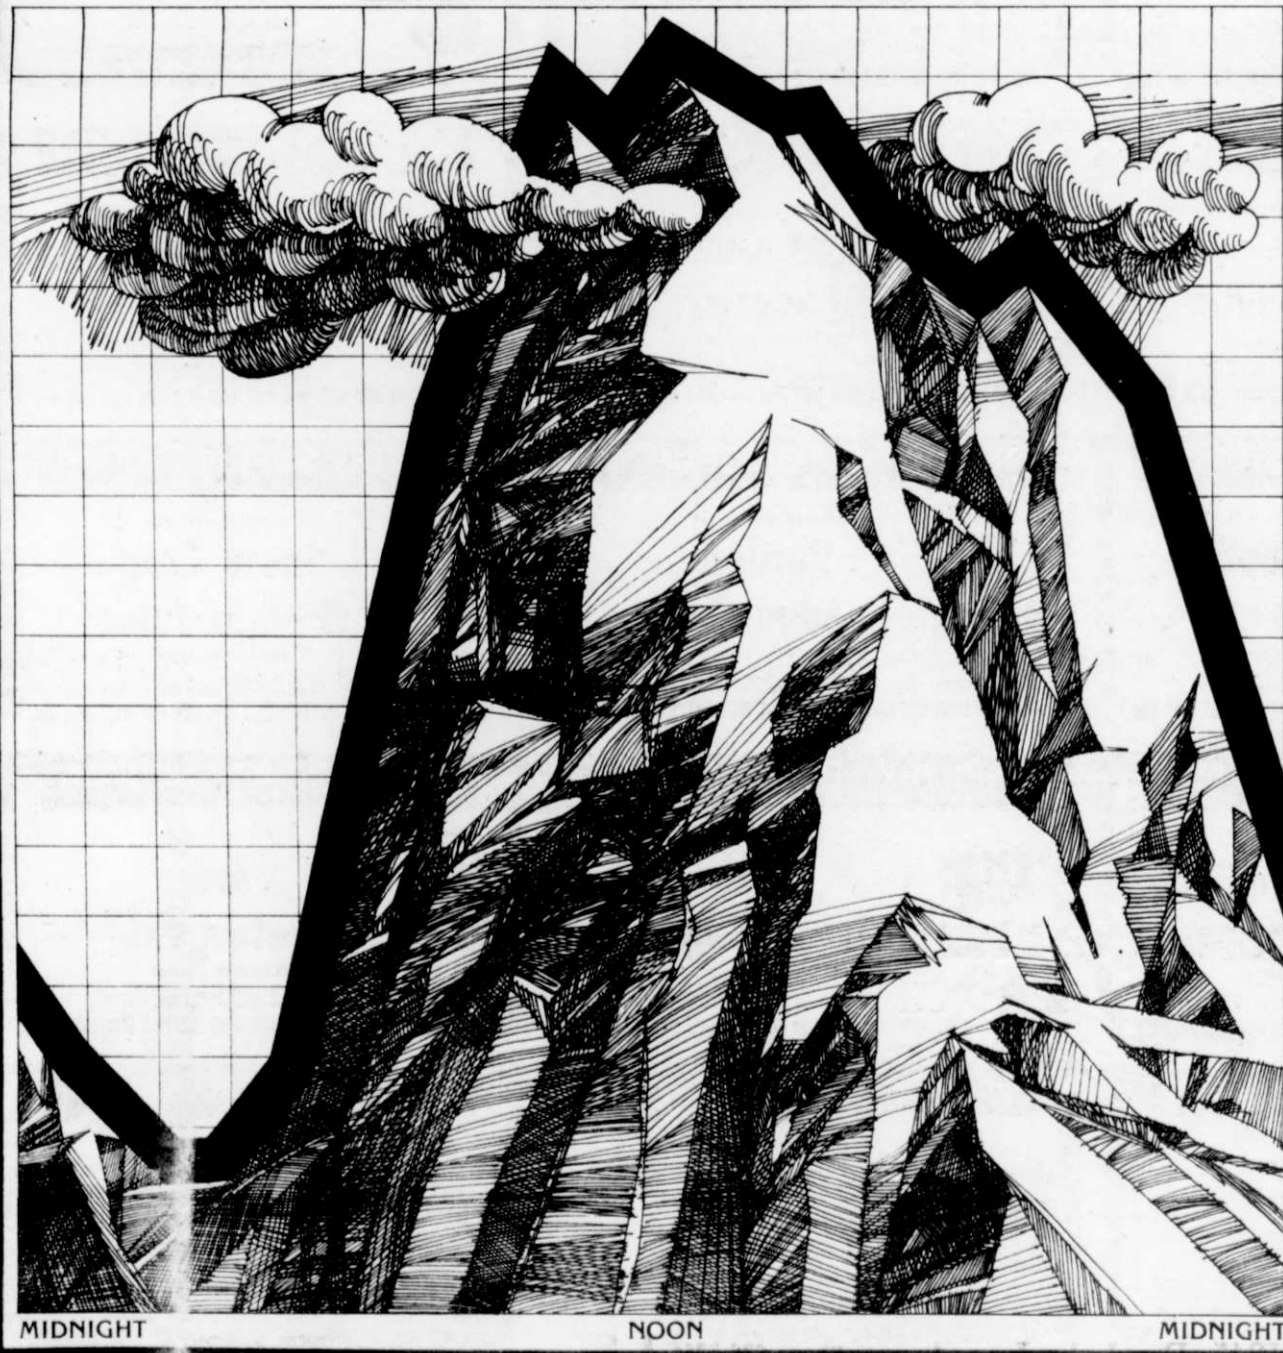

You can cut down on the use of your air-conditioner, too, by keeping the drapes closed on the sunny side of the house and making sure the thermostat is set at no less than 78°. And try to use smaller appliances like broilers or electric fry pans instead of your range.

These are just a few ways you can help cut that daytime peak down to size...to make a molehill out of the mountain...and help save yourself some money, today and in the future.

Electricity. Let's all use it wisely.

Tom Rohlinger Named to Scenic All-Conference Baseball Team

Tom Rohlinger

All seven Scenic Moraine summer conference teams (Mayville did not compete) placed at least one representative selected by the coaches on the all-conference baseball team.

Two players were unanimous choices — junior Dave Levenick of Grafton and senior Greg Stapleton of Hartland. Levenick, a catcher, had the second highest batting average with .424. Stapleton, a third baseman, and regular for the Warhawks for the past three seasons (including last year's state championship team) batted .355.

Second place Slinger placed the Scherr brothers, Bob and Dale, both underclassmen, on the first team. Kettle Moraine and Grafton also had two on the team.

Tom Rohlinger of Kewaskum was named at first base. Tom, a good all-around athlete, led the Indians in hitting with a .421 average. He also excelled on defense, playing the entire season without an error. Rohlinger missed several games with an ankle injury.

Conference champ Germantown had just one player on the first team but four received honorable mention. Named was Kent Sutherland, junior outfielder, who won the batting crown with a .472 average.

Kewaskum's Leon Laatsch received honorable mention as a pitcher. He was sort of a hard luck pitcher, seldom having many runs scored behind him. Laatsch is a junior and will be back next year.

Jack Kern One of 12 Area Prep Athletes to Vie on TV 6 Series

MILWAUKEE — Twelve top all-conference athletes from six southeast Wisconsin high school conferences will compete in a variety of events on "CHAMPION TEENS," a new WITI-TV summer mini-series premiering Thursday, Aug. 12 at 6:30 p.m.

The six-week series of half-hour shows will air consecutive Thursday evenings through Sept. 16 with the athletes competing in bicycling, golf, canoeing, swimming, basketball, the 440 yard run and log sawing.

Milwaukee Bucks basketball announcer Eddie Doucette hosts the series with Bucks guard Jon McGlocklin adding commentary in his broadcasting debut.

Six all-conference football players will compete in the first two shows. The top two point getters will qualify for the finals. Shows three and four will feature six all-conference basketball players, with two qualifying for the finals. Shows five and six will feature the top two football players and the top two basketball players competing for the title of "Champion Teen".

The six basketball players are: Pete Carter, Custer, Milwaukee city conference; John Faupl, Brookfield East, Braveland; Jack Kern, Kewaskum, Scenic Moraine; Jim Smallins, Whitefish Bay, Suburban; John Whitnell, Racine St. Catherines, Metro; and Joe Zuba, Wauwatosa East, Suburban.

The six football players are: Ernie Davis, Lincoln, City conference; Bob Karcher, Milwaukee Tech., City; Scott Koneczal, Pius XI, Metro; Tim Philosophos, Brookfield Central, Braveland; Ron Pyne, Franklin, Parkland; and Carter Schultz, Germantown, Scenic Moraine.

The winner will receive a trophy while his school will get a $100 donation from WITI-TV for a scholarship, library or other suitable fund.

"Too often, television ignores the high school athlete and instead concentrates on the major colleges and the pros," program producer Jim Behling said. "We wanted to turn that around, at least a little bit, and our 'Champion Teens' format was one of the best ways to accomplish that."

The series also gave the station a chance to test the versatility of its Live Camera 6 equipment.

Each event was shot on location—bicycling and canoeing at Brown Deer park; swimming, basketball and log sawing at Lincoln park; golf at Tripoli Country Club, and the 440 yard run at Nicolet High School.

Indians Begin Football Drills

Football coach Joe Harlow of Kewaskum has started preparing for the 1976 season. The Indians face a big challenge in attempting to defend their Scenic Moraine co-championship.

Kewaskum's first meeting was held at 7:30 p. m. last Thursday in the new gym. All seniors, juniors and sophomores interested in participating were to attend.

Practice sessions for the preseason were discussed, with tentative practices set for two-a-day on Monday through Thursday with only a morning session on Fridays. Practice began Monday, Aug. 9.

The Indians have a scrimmage with Lomira on Friday, Aug. 20, and open their season with a non-conference game at North Fond du Lac the next Friday.

Coach Harlow is beginning his 12th year at Kewaskum.
