TV 6 Films Newlyweds' Unusual Ride

Unique transportation awaited Lee Stoffel and Elizabeth Ann Faber after their wedding at Holy Trinity Church Friday evening. The couple and members of the wedding party are motorcycle enthusiasts. After the ceremony they were surprised to find their bikes mounted on two hay wagons pulled by Lester Kohn and his steam engine.

Milwaukee station WITI,

TV 6, believed the occurrence newsworthy enough to send out their Live News Camera 6 to film the proceedings which were featured the same night on its 10 p. m. news, viewed by many local residents.

The top photo shows TV 6 Live Camera and the steam engine standing by awaiting the finish of the church ceremony. The lower photo shows the newlyweds (left) and members of the bridal party riding down the street on their rig with the steamer's whistle tooting.

The incident attracted a crowd of spectators to the scene.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Faber, Kewaskum, and Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Stoffel, rural Kewaskum.

Board Discovers

Completion of a Village Park No Simple Matter

Completion of a village park is no simple matter, as the Kewaskum Village Board and Plan Commission are finding out.

The idea began to take form several years ago, when some of the community's leaders had begun to realize that the time had come to modernize the village's swimming facility. As many people in the village did not want a pool, they turned their attentions to the construction of a pond.

In 1972, the DNR, at the request of village officials, began a study of the village with reference to a parksite. When finished a year later, it concluded that a new facility is necessary, and that it should be constructed on the west or southwest part of the village, since the present village park and high school are in the eastern half.

They recommended three different sites as worthy of consideration, the lands on which the firehouse is being built, those owned by Viola Spoerl, which were eventually purchased, and property owned by Mrs. Ada Meilahn.

Otto Backus' land, north of town, was ruled out because it is located too far outside the village limits to be practical, does not have enough access roads, and is not in an area recommended by the DNR study.

The next step was to get appraisals of all of the sites, to determine which of them, if any, would be suitable for purchase.

At the same time, trustee Dan Schmidt was given the task of doing a survey of communities of Kewaskum's size, to find out what types of swimming facilities they had, and how their swimming attendance has changed. A total of 23 villages were sent questionnaires, of which 10 responded and were subsequently included in the report.

Each was asked six different questions in order to determine each facility's size, other nearby facilities, such as a bathhouse, attendance, length of use, cost per year and change in cost. Recommendations of the officials of each village were also requested.

Of those who did respond, seven had pools made of concrete. Some of their advice included keeping such a pool small to reduce the cost, build (Continued on page 2)

Construction of New Medical Clinic to Begin

Construction of a new medical clinic in Kewaskum should begin within the next few weeks, "if all goes well," according to Dr. Cesar Sison.

The new building should provide a much more spacious area for medical care, about 3,000 square feet altogether, and was designed by the builder, Marshall Erdman and Associates of Madison. It will resemble a photograph Dr. Sison saw of the Sun Prairie Medical Building in Sun Prairie, and will be built on a 4.5 acre parcel recently annexed into the village.

Only one of the two levels will be used for a clinic, so that the downstairs can be left unfinished on the interior and rented out as office space, or possibly to another doctor, should one decide to locate in this area.

The exterior will be of dark orange brick, while the interior will be carpeted throughout and will consist of six examination rooms, a minor surgery room, an x-ray room, a pharmacy, two business offices, a spacious waiting room, and a small utility room. The pharmacy will be run commercially, in all probability, so that a druggist will not have to be brought in.

Lab tests will still be done at St. Joseph's Hospital in West Bend because of their excellent facility, but upon the hiring of an x-ray technician, all x-rays can be handled right here.

No decision has yet been finalized on the type of heating to be used, but Dr. Sison noted the "electric probably is cleanest, even though it is becoming costlier." He added that the original plans called for gas heat, which is of course no longer available.

There will be parking for about 30 cars when it is originally completed with room to add more space, if needed later on, possibly after the lower 3,000 feet of office space is put to use. The project is expected to be completed within 4-5 months after its start, possibly by the beginning of next year.

When the new facility opens, Dr. Sison and his cousin, Dr. Florizel Castro, both natives of the Philippines, will continue to run the clinic, and will move from their present location on Fond du Lac Ave. Mrs. Sison is also a licensed physician, but will not resume her practice immediately, instead will continue to serve as an anesthesiologist until that time.

All three doctors took their residencies at the Illinois Medical Center in Chicago, and are presently members of the medical staff of St. Joseph's. The Sisons came to Kewaskum to practice in 1971, and were joined by Dr. Castro this summer. Dr. R. G. Edwards is Kewaskum's other M.D., who has been here for over 40 years, and was recently recognized for his work by the community

Village Given OK on Pond

By Mark Smucker

After long years of planning and waiting, the new pond at the Kewaskum Kiwanis Park came another step closer to completion, as verbal approval has been obtained for the use of the pond.

"At 8:05 this morning I got a phone call from Madison saying that it was O. K.," reported Trustee Dan Schmidt on Tuesday, following a trip there the day before by Charles Miller, village president, with some revised plans. The written permit should arrive here within the next week, and so the contractors, Washkoviak Construction of Green Lake, will be contacted to see how soon the contract can be signed and the work started.

A meeting of the park committee was called for Wednesday to discuss the permit and to plan for the weeks ahead.

Board Changes Policy, Grants Building Permit in Subdivision

By Mark Smucker

Another policy change was made by the Kewaskum Village Board on Monday as they granted the building permit request of Ray Schaefer for a model home in Ideal Subdivision.

A unanimous vote was recorded on the motion to grant the permit, and there seemed to be no dissent among any of the board members. No change in the village attorney's advice against issuing any more was noted, but the board chose not to follow it any longer. The stand was taken because they feel that individual families are being hurt by a slowdown in construction, more than Ideal Land or anyone associated as a joint effort between the school system and the village, and above all, if a pool is built, it should be built indoors and heated so that it can be used year round.

Those who had a pond did not seem to regret their decision, but noted that a proper location for it must be found, so that it does not interfere with other recreational areas, and can receive maximum use. Good life-guards would also be a great asset, and it may be necessary to change the sand along the edges from time to time. Sand would also be the major cause of turbidity in the water, which would be the major drawback as compared to a concrete pool.

A natural pond does seem to have two significant advantages over a pool, however. First of all, it would only cost about 1/10 as much to build, and secondly there seems to be a general drop in usage in a concrete pool as time passes. In a seven year period, attendance at one pool dropped over 34% to 23,000 uses per year and showed little sign of picking up again. No such trend was noted in ponds.

Once the decision had been reached to begin the actual process of purchasing the land for the parksite, an option was taken on 34 acres owned by Mrs. Viola Spoerl. Prior to that time, an appraisal had been done on it, as well as other sites, and negotiations began to determine a sale price.

In September, 1973, the village board passed a resolution authorizing the Village of Kewaskum to participate in the Outdoor Resources Action Plan (ORAP-200 Local Park Aids) and accepted the findings of the Outdoor Recreation Plan, which had recently been completed by the DNR. This was a necessary step in order for the village to become eligible for state funding.

Negotiations continued throughout the winter and into the spring of 1974 between the village and Mrs. Spoerl on a purchase price for the site and a mutually beneficial method of payment. The option expired on June 2, so a new one had to be taken out at that time, since both parties were still interested in completing the transaction.

Simultaneously, the Kiwanis Club of Kewaskum was contacted to see if they would be interested in donating any funds to the village for the purpose of aiding in the completion of the park. They agreed to do this without any stipulations as to how the money would be spent, and in appreciation, it was agreed that the village would name the new facility the "Kewaskum Kiwanis Park." In December, 1974 a check was received by the village for $77,000 as was agreed, and was added to the park fund.

By that time, some of the problems had been ironed out between the village and Mrs.

Spoerl, and a purchase price of $76,007.80 was agreed upon. When it looked like this would be the site that would eventually be purchased, the process of selecting an architect began, and many replies from various firms were received. In the end, Arthur and Associates of Fond du Lac was felt to be the best firm for the job, and was hired in the spring of 1975.

On December 18, 1974, the Kewaskum Village Board, by a 7-0 vote exercised the option held on the 34 acres owned by Mrs. Spoerl at a cost of $76,007.80. An application for funding the land acquisition had been previously filed with the State of Wisconsin under the ORAP program, so the cancelled check was copied and the copy was mailed to them as proof that the land had actually been purchased, so that funding could be received. No funds are allotted under this plan, until the item in question is completely paid for; only then does the program reimburse the local government for between 10 and 65% of their cost.

At this point, the task became to find out what facilities would be best suited for Kewaskum's special recreational needs. The engineer began working closely with the village board and the Kewaskum Plan Commission in trying to find out which facilities should be included, rejected, or thought about for the park, and if included, discussed where it should be located within the site.

Special attention was given to plans for the pond, since "it had the number one priority," so plans for it were completed before all the others. Once the location and shape were decided upon, test borings had to be taken to determine whether or not the soil in the area could support the pond. They were done in August, 1975 by J. Roger Miller and Company of Sheboygan, and again in August, 1976 by the Soil Conservation Service. This same month, the funding check was received from Madison in the amount of $28,502.92, which was exactly half of the appraised value of the land, instead of its purchase price.

The detailed plans for the pond and bathhouse were ready by July, 1976 and were approved by the village board with minor corrections at that time. At present, the permit has not yet been received to use the pond, but no serious delay is anticipated. The pond will be dug as soon as the permit is received.

Washovick Construction Company of Green Lake was awarded the excavation bid on the pond for $39,924.40, and will begin its work as soon as the permit is received. Cost estimate for the remainder of the park, which includes four tennis courts, six horseshoe pits, two softball diamonds, a bathhouse, service drive, entrance sign, lighting, playground equipment, and two basketball courts, will total around $325,000 when completed in the future.

Big Brothers Big Sisters Hold First Annual Picnic

Nearly 200 people gathered at Riverside Park Saturday, Aug. 14, for the first annual family picnic of Big Brother/Big Sisters of Washington County.

Coordinated by Mike and Mary Quigley of West Bend and a committee, the picnic brought together Big Brothers and Big Sisters and their families and Little Brothers and Little Sisters and their families. Also invited were unmatched Little Brothers or Sisters, their families, board members and staff.

Morning rain gave way to a beautiful afternoon for games, entertainment, and eating.

Games were organized in most cases to team Big Brothers and Sisters with their Little Brother or Sister and included a balloon toss, softball game, 3-legged races, shoe toss and shoe race, a candy kiss scramble and a prize for the biggest bag of garbage in the clean-up.

a show in the Riverside shelter; Joe and Jon Sanfilippo demonstrated the fundamentals of judo on the lawn; and "Satori", a new rock and roll band from West Bend provided steady music. For supper it was bring-your-own, as Big Brothers and Little Brothers with families settled in little groups around the park.

The idea of the picnic, according to Mike Quigley, who had organized a similar event in Appleton before moving here, was simply to give everyone a good time. In addition, however, it was a time for sharing experiences with others, and an opportunity for everyone to come together in one place and see how large an organization it is.

Sixty Hartford and West Bend businesses donated either merchandise or gift certificates for the contest prizes, drawings and the "Chinese Auction". Prizes ranged (in weight at least) from a harmonica to two bags of cement mix.

The Hartford and West

Bend police contributed cash which went toward soda, ice cream and other expenses. The grand prizes were two 10 speed bicycles, donated anonymously and rebuilt by Sail and Trail of West Bend, and two airplane rides over the Kettle Moraine area, compliments of Bill Marth. Bike winners were Sean Collins and Brenda Spaeth, both of West Bend; the plane rides went to Joe Stoffel, West Bend, and Lynn Viergutz, Hartford.

The picnic was also a show of strength for the Washington County Big Brothers/Big Sisters program, which is nearing 100 matches this summer.

with the subdividers. Although all permits requested from now on will be handled on an individual basis, anyone applying for one will be advised that there is a problem with standing water there that has not been rectified. An attempt will be made to schedule a meeting between the village and Ideal Land for sometime next week, although they were unable to get together on the two previous tries. Ptasehinski Construction of Beaver Dam received the contract for curb and gutter along various streets around the village at a unit cost of $2.77 per linear foot. No opposition was offered at a public hearing held prior to the regular meeting. The bid may be somewhat misleading, since it does not include any other unusual expenses, especially engineering fees, which could bring the actual cost to about $4.00 per linear foot.

Summer is a great time for anyone, but especially for the adults with handicaps attending the current session at Easter Seals' Camp Wawbeek near Wisconsin Dells. Whether working in the craft shop, enjoying a cookout, aiming for the target on the rifle range or just taking it easy under a shade tree . . . there's activity for everyone. For many the two-week Wawbeek stay is the only time during the entire year that they have the opportunity to participate in these types of activities.

Maria Gavin, 223 Braatzdrive, Kewaskum, is one of over 100 campers who find Easter Seals' Camp Wawbeek a super place to have a little summer fun.

Lynn Roethke Wins Gold Medal in Junior Olympics

Lynn Roethke, a 15-year-old girl from West Bend, participated in the judo competition of the 1976 United States Junior Olympics held in Memphis, Tenn.

Lynn was the only judo competitor from Wisconsin and captured a first place gold medal in the 111 to 130 pound division. Roethke is the only Wisconsinite to ever win a first place national title in judo.

Winning all five matches with full point "Ippon" wins, Lynn proved her skill in her first match with a six second morota - seionage (two-arm shoulder throw). This was the fastest throw of the tournament.

To qualify for the National Junior Olympics, Lynn won first place in the Wisconsin State and Midwest Regional Events for 1976.

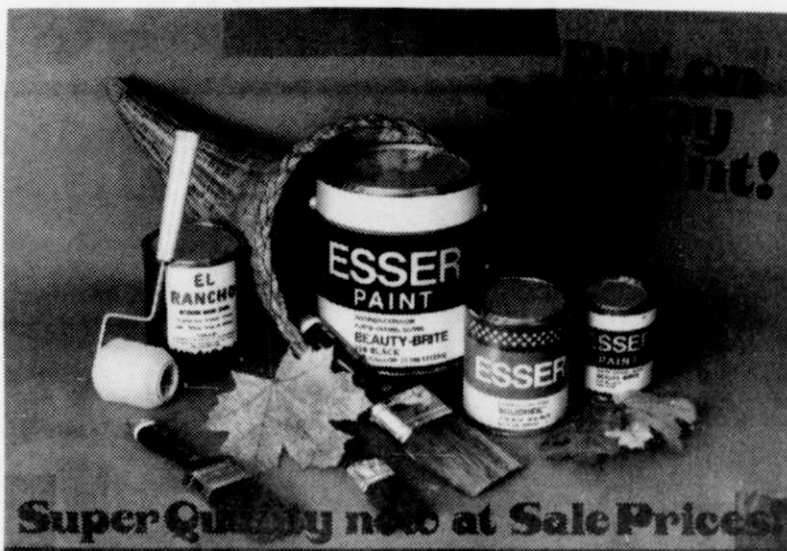

Lynn belongs to the West Bend Judo Club and is instructed by Jon and Joe Sanfilippo, both holders of the Black Belt rank of Kodokan Judo.

When asked about her future plans, Lynn stated, "I want to work and practice so I am good enough to participate in the 1980 World Olympic Games in Russia."

Pewaukee High Schooler Named Shrine Game Queen

A charming 16 year old from Pewaukee, Wis., Miss Deborah Louise Taylor, has been chosen to reign over the 27th Annual Midwest Shrine Football Game, September 3, at Milwaukee County Stadium. A sell-out crowd will see the Green Bay Packers meet the Atlanta Falcons, according to Eldon H. Roesler, Oconomowoc, director of the game.

Queen Debbie, who was crowned at Tripoli Temple's annual Coronation Ball on Saturday, August 28, is an alumna of the Shriners Hospitals for Crippled Children, as were the 20 young Queens who preceded her.

She started the long road to her throne at the age of three years when she had her first examination at the Chicago Unit of the Shriners Hospitals. Over a period of years, she was treated 25 times as an outpatient. It was established that she suffered from Albright's syndrome in her left side, resulting in imperfectly formed bones with a tendency to fracture. Much of her life has been spent in casts or wearing braces.

During the same treatment period, an increasing loss of vision in Debbie's left eye led to further examination which established that a piece of bone in her skull was growing inward and pinching the optic nerve. Her vision down to 20 per cent, she underwent surgery in 1974, the bone was removed, and her sight was saved.

This fall, Queen Debbie will start her senior year at Pewaukee High School (of the Scenic Moraine Conference, of which Kewaskum is also a member) where she has established a good scholastic record. She enjoys most her classes in speech, history and business. She has been seen in a number of plays and has a solo part in the last musical staged by her school. Debbie has been active in chorus and now is going into the school choir. On occasion she has sung solos for a Milwaukee church choir.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Taylor. Her sister, Vickie, now Mrs. William Sorrell, will make Debbie an aunt in December.

Perhaps in preparation, the Shrine Queen has been active in baby sitting this summer. In her spare time, she enjoys writing to friends, swimming, playing billiards and listening to recordings of Elvis Presley and other stars of the 50's and 60's. Despite the fragility of her bones, Debbie's favorite recreation is dancing.

During half-time ceremonies at the Shrine game, Tripoli Temple will present her a scholarship which she will use, after completing high school, to study computer science at nearby Waukesha County Technical Institute, and to continue her musical studies.

A petite beauty, blessed with admirable courage and limitless charm, Queen Deborah Taylor sings the praises of the Shriners Hospitals and remembers the Chicago unit staff as "the nicest people" rather than the difficulties which brought her into contact with them. She says she admires the hospitals which treat any patients who need care without regard to race, creed or religion and at no cost to the parents.

Junior Women to Hold First Meeting

The first meeting of the 1976-77 club year for the Kewaskum Junior Woman's Club will convene at 8:00 p. m. on Thursday evening, Sept. 9, at Valley Bank.

We hope to see many new faces in our midst as well as all stalwarts from last year's membership.

With many committees having met and organized during the summer months, new ideas are already on their way to becoming reality.

Mark the 9th on your calendar now — and get in on the action this year. From all we've heard, there should be plenty!

Money may not buy happiness, but, you've got to admit that when you have it you can be miserable in comfort.

The sale of artificial sexual aids and the obscene portrayal of homosexuality, oral copulation, sexual torture and other sexual perversions in Washington County should be a matter of serious concern to all of us.

Every resident of our county should be made aware that dehumanizing sexual acts are being explicitly shown in moving pictures, books and magazines in our county. They should also be made aware that some of this material will eventually get into the hands of their children, even though it might be sold only to adults.

Our Washington County District Attorney, who is the official responsible for the enforcement of the laws against obscenity and pornography, has refused to prosecute, saying it takes too much time and it isn't worth the time and cost.

Our organization feels that nothing is more important than the preservation of our families and community from this moral corruption. We have devoted over a thousand hours to a study of pornography, the laws against it, prosecutions, convictions, and the opinions of eminent psychiatrists, judges and law enforcement officials. From all this research we learned that there is plenty of evidence that pornography is related to sex crimes like rape, torture and murder, and that a society's morality deteriorates with the presence of pornography.

If you will please publish this article, as well as others that we will send you in the future, we will try to inform your readers what they can do to protect their families and community from this demoralizing scandal. Your readers are also urged to dial 338-1596 for information.

Dear Editor:

With so many negative things ever rearing ugly heads of discontent, I feel a happy letter might be welcomed by our community.

How would you like to feed a family that consumed 150 lbs. of potatoes per meal or 75 lbs. of carrots . . . three bushels of green beans or 3 bushels of lettuce?

Here on the Cedar Lake Home Campus we now have a family of 387 residents. (The House of Friendship is already at full capacity!)

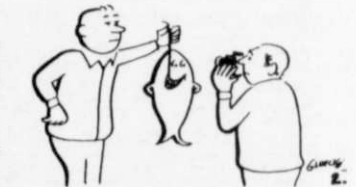

Many gardeners from our surrounding communities have been regularly sharing the over-abundance of their gardens with us. We are deeply grateful for these donations. We believe that wholesome food is most important for young and old alike. Each day we serve 1,171 resident meals. Each week, 8,127. Each month, 34,830!

A hearty thank you to the thoughtful gardeners helping treat the aged and handicapped to "fresh from the garden" produce. Every little bit helps. Indeed, love and sharing still are very much a vital part of our community.

Sincerely,
Rev. L. C. Riesch
Superintendent

Defense Leads Indians to 15-0 Win Over North Fondy in Opener

Kewaskum turned two blocked punts in the second half into touchdowns Friday night to blank North Fondy in their non-conference opener on the Orioles' field, 15-0.

The Indians scored just two running plays after the first blocked punt early in the third quarter and then recovered the second blocked punt in the end zone in the fourth quarter for a touchdown.

Before the blocked punts, the Orioles, who were annihilated by Kewaskum's Scenic champs last year, 40-12, held their own against the favored Indians on a hot night.

The game seemed to turn around in the second quarter when Kewaskum stopped the Orioles on the eight yard line on a couple of big losses. Wingback Jim Lundwall lost 10 yards to the Kewaskum 18 and two plays later quarterback Rick Behnke lost 8 more yards trying to pass on fourth down. Kewaskum, which kept the heat on Behnke all night and threw him for 37 yards in losses attempting to pass, collared the Oriole quarterback on the Kewaskum 26-yard line to end the threat.

Tackle Gary Gavin, all-conference last year, was a thorn in Fondy's side all night with his hard pass rush, and Russ Herriges nailed Behnke on the fourth down play.

Another Oriole threat was stopped in the second quarter when a Behnke pass was intercepted by Kewaskum's Lowell Bunkelman on the Indian 30-yard line.

With the defense holding the fort in a scoreless first half, the Indians snapped out of it in the second half when they controlled play. After stopping North Fondy cold in the first series of the second half, the Indians swarmed in to block Scott Parker's punt. They got the ball on the Oriole's 11-yard line (recovered by Mike Perkins) and needed just two plays to score. Halfback Wayne Endlich who led all rushers with 67 yards in 11 carries, carried twice. He zipped five yards on his first carry and then scampered the remaining six yards for the TD, which came only 2½ minutes into the third quarter.

Quarterback Paul Brenholt, who kicked the extra point after Kewaskum's second touchdown, ran this one in for the two-point conversion on a pitchout from Al Jaeger, to put the Indians up, 8-0.

In the fourth quarter, Kewaskum backed the Orioles to their one-yard line. A furious Indian rush resulted in another blocked punt, and Herriges fell on the ball in the end zone for the score.

With Endlich, Greg Eichstedt and Ray Reindl eating up yards on the ground, the insurance TD gave the Indians all the breathing room they needed. Reindl, who had a 20-yard run down to the Oriole 1-yard line called back by a clip in the third quarter, and Eichstedt carried for 57 and 52 yards respectively.

North Fondy's attack fizzled when soph Pete Braatz, who gained 51 yards, left the game with an injury. Another Oriole starter, Jeff LeMieux, sat out the second half with strained ligaments in his knee.

The Indians were flat in the first half. The reserves drove to the North Fondy 14-yard line again at the game's end. Gavin had 4 solo tackles and 20 assists and Perkins 8 solos, 2 assists and 2 fumble recoveries. The entire defense held the Orioles to a mere 8 yards in the second half, after yielding 60 in the first.

The defending champ Indians lost a lot through graduation, including four all-conference players — Jack Kern, Keith Mueller, Jack Westerman and Dennis Bremser, among other key players. Eleven lettermen are back: Brenholt, Reindl, Endlich, Eichstedt, Russ and Mark Herriges, Jim Donath, Randy White, Perkins, Gavin and Leon Laatsch.

This Friday night the Indians play another non-conference game at Campbellsport, also of the Flyway loop, before playing their first home game Sept. 10 against a new opponent, Milwaukee University School. The first conference tilt is at Pewaukee on the 17th.

The game started out as a pitcher's duel between the Brewers' Andy Hoenecke and the Braves' Dan Gerhartz. The fourth inning proved to be the downfall of the Brewers, as the Braves combined some timely hitting, coupled with some errors on the Brewers part, to score some hard earned runs.
