Transportation Policy Adopted, Petition Submitted to School Board for Change of Reporter

By MARYANNE MERWIN
Statesman Staff Writer

A transportation policy was adopted by the School Board Monday night without further discussion after Mrs. Janet Hubbell withdrew her request to have her two children bussed from school to a music lesson once a week. The new policy required consistency in pick-up and drop-off points for regular route riders and no transportation for students to non-school activities if they do not regularly receive transportation.

A request by the James Laufer family will be honored by the board. Two Laufer children will continue to attend the Kewaskum Elementary School for the remainder of the school year although the family has moved just inside the Farmington school area. No problems in bus routes are evident.

If the clock at Farmington Elementary is beyond repair, as two opinions have indicated, then a new clock has been authorized. Principal Thomas Larsen has said he is still trying to have it repaired if possible. The latest clock repair company, Cincinnati Co. from Milwaukee, had John Tesar's vote of confidence as "a good established firm" that "stands behind" its work. Christmas recess is the projected time for repair or replacement.

The Wisconsin Association of School Boards will be getting more than its share of delegates from Kewaskum if all the volunteers attend the Delegate Assembly in Milwaukee January 18. Richard Theusch volunteered as the official delegate with John Tessar, Gerald Secor and Byron Gessner expressing interest in attending the meeting. Theusch has attended for "at least two years," and he encouraged the other members to attend.

Discussion of West Bend News coverage of the transportation request from Janet Hubbell included a request by Richard Theusch to "retract" or at least "explain" his recommendation during the meeting of October 31. Theusch said that he felt people would interpret his comments (made concerning special requests) could be interpreted to mean that he was not in favor of the bussing of any village students. Harlow said that in conjunction with the transportation policy before the board, village students would not be afforded bussing under the two-mile minimum distance as stated in that policy. Gerald Secor said that the policy was not published as part of that article and only "10 out of 100 would get your (Harlow's) interpretation out of it," meaning the article in the News.

Judy Harlow agreed to print an explanation of the policy and Theusch's comment on his feelings.

Mrs. Pat Cardarelle submitted a petition which she said carried 403 signatures from people all over the district which supported the board's October 31 resolution to have Judy Harlow removed from coverage of Kewaskum School Board meetings and teacher contract negotiations. Included in the petition was a statement directed toward the two dissenting board members and the News who did not agree with the board majority passing the resolution. Cardarelle, who said she had never attended a board meeting said that she encountered "few people" to carry the petition "from door to door." School Board President Charles Ogi asked if she felt she could have obtained more signatures if she had "had more time." Cardarelle answered affirmatively. Ogi said he felt the people were overwhelmingly behind the School Board in this matter.

The petition may have been circulated from door to door in the village, but although Mrs. Cardarelle said she visited "some rural" areas (which she refused to designate), the Farmington School area was left without much contact. Fillmore residents contacted said that they had

Kiwanis Students Of the Month

Mary Fischer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James G. Fischer, and Anne Strancke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Strancke, both of rural Kewaskum, have been chosen as Kiwanis students for the month of October.

Mary was president of Student Government in her junior year. She was inducted into the National Honor Society last year. This year Mary is a member of the Spanish Club and FTA. In her sophomore year, she participated in the Ski Club and FHA. She has been in choir and this year is in the swing choir. Mary is a volleyball player and was a member of the chorus of the musical Music Man.

Anne has participated in choir for four years and was a member of the Swing and Madrigal Chorus. She was involved in numerous productions including Hello Dolly, Music Man, The Mouse That Roared and The Sound of Music. Anne represented our school at Badger Girls State. She has worked on the school newspaper, Smoke Signals, since her sophomore year, and this year is its editor. Anne was inducted into National Honor Society last year. This year she is secretary of her senior class. She participated in AFS for three years and this year serves as president. Anne has also been a member of the Spanish Club, GAA and the Ski Club.

Lakeland Receives Senn Scholarship

President Richard E. Hill announced that a memorial scholarship has been established at Lakeland College in the name of Florence Senn, former principal of Jefferson Elementary School in Manitowoc. The gift establishes a $200 scholarship for each semester and is available to a worthy student who is majoring in education. The first stipend will be awarded in February.

Presented by her brother, Peter C. Senn of Campbellsport, the fund honors a 40-year career spanning the years from 1926 - 1966. Miss Senn served as an elementary teacher in Jefferson school from 1926 until 1929, when she was named principal. She held that position until her retirement in 1966.

"It is appropriate that her deep interest in the field of education should be perpetuated through the training of students who will enter the profession," said Hill. "We deeply appreciate Senn's establishing the memorial scholarship."

Kewaskum Receives Trophy for Most Fans at Brewers Game

The Kewaskum Area Chamber of Commerce received a fine 2 1/2 foot high trophy at the Milwaukee Brewers "Fan Appreciation Night" in September for having the largest number of spectators in their population division in Wisconsin for cities under 5,000 population at "Kewaskum Night" in July.

Dick Gust, Kewaskum.

Book 'Bittersweet Triumph' Available At Public Library

The book, "Bittersweet Triumph" by Betty Heymanns, Wauwatosa, niece of Dr. and Mrs. R. G. Edwards, Kewaskum, is available at the public library. The autographed copy was donated by the Edwards.

Betty was afflicted with cerebral palsy from birth. In her book she tells of her life struggle with this affliction. In the mid thirties, few people — including doctors — knew much about the symptoms or the treatment of cerebral palsy and it wasn't until she was seven that Betty Heymanns was diagnosed as suffering from the disability. And few people knew of the heroic struggle this young girl undertook in what was to become a lifelong battle to overcome the effects of her disability, to achieve her greatest dream (to be normal), and to find her own place in the world.

This story of human courage is available at Tri-County Book Shelf at West Bend, published by Doubleday & Company. The price is $5.95.

A feature article, along with Miss Heymanns' picture, appeared last March in the Sunday Milwaukee Journal in the Lively Arts Section.

Pick Laurie Herman As Floral Designer

Laurie Herman of the Kewaskum Floral Shop was chosen as a floral designer at the Wisconsin - Upper Michigan Florist Association's Christmas Design School held recently at the Pfister Hotel in Milwaukee.

Laurie was one of four people chosen from over 700 retailers and their employers who attended the floral seminar.

Laurie was assisted by her mother, Millie, and sister, Patti. Others attending the seminar representing Kewaskum Floral were Jane Merkel and daughter Michelle, Mrs. Athleen Butzke, Julie Duwayne, Barbara Peterson and Mrs. Lucille Weber.

Board of Directors, was on hand to receive the trophy from Dick Hackett, promotion manager for the Brewers, before the game. Dick and his family and Ken Weddig, past officer of the Chamber of Commerce, and his family attended the game.

This is the first time a trophy was given for cities under 5,000. The number of spectators from here at "Kewaskum Night" was about 500 or 22% of the population of Kewaskum.

New Berlin and Fond du Lac were also recipients of trophies for cities 5,000 to 10,000 and over 10,000.

Dick Gust and John Boray were co-chairman of "Kewaskum Night." The trophy will be presented to the village to be displayed at the municipal building.

Regal Honored For Landscaping

Regal Ware, Inc. was one of three county recipients given an award for outstanding landscaping, Friday evening, by the Washington County Environmental Council. A certificate of merit and potted blue spruce tree were presented to John Tessar of Regal in honor of Regal's landscaping around their office building and along the edge of their parking lot.

The other award winners were Bieri's Cheese Mart, Jackson, and the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wachs, Jr., 937 Decorah Rd., Town of Trenton. Bieri's was cited for maintaining attractive flowers and rock gardens in front of their business on Highway 45 for many years. The Wachs home was picked as an example of a beautifully kept rural home. Mrs. Anna Lhotka, who makes her home with the Wachs, has planted flower beds in front of the home and along the edge of the lawn for 22 years.

Following the dinner at Heidelberg's Restaurant, Jackson, and the award presentation, David Thompson of the UWWC Biology Dept., showed slides of the Sierra Nevada Mountains. In his talk Thompson pointed out some of the conflicts faced by the park service in maintaining the national parks. Bears, raiding camp sites, too many campers killing fragile meadow grasses, insects that kill trees, and high mountain meadows that if left untouched would become forests, were some of the problems mentioned. His slides showed scenes along the 200 mile long John Muir back packing trail in the Sierra Nevada range.

"never heard of it." Only Degner's Store in Boltonville carried the petition, which received approximately five signatures there. Herriges' Tavern in St. Michaels was the only business in that area that admitted to having kept the petition on the premises during the six-day period it was circulated.

Richard Theusch said a light broken at the Wayne School worked a year ago was being looked on.

Closed session was to include a discussion of teacher contract negotiations in anticipation of a November 21 meeting with negotiators.

MPTI to Sponsor Two Part Seminar At High School

Dates have been set for a two part seminar called "Focus on Family Relations" to be held at Kewaskum High School, sponsored by MPTI's Women's Center.

On Tuesday evening, Nov. 29, from 7:00 - 9:45 p. m., Bonnie and Jack Anderson will discuss issues and concerns which arise in a family as parents mature and pre-schoolers grow into young adults.

What happens if mother becomes an assertive woman, and on top of that wants to work outside the home? If father is laid off or wants to move to another city? If 10 year old Karen is caught smoking or 16 year old Tom is ticketed for speeding and drinking? How can we make the most of the challenging years we spend together as a family, even when conflicts and changes hit us like a ton of bricks? Bonnie Anderson, former Director of Big Brothers and Sisters of Washington County, and Jack Anderson, reporter for the West Bend News, will share with us insights they've gained as they've changed jobs and roles and raised nine children. Participants will be introduced to communication skills and other techniques for resolving conflict, and establishing mutual trust.

On Tuesday evening, Dec. 6, Elaine Shanebrook, West Bend Attorney at Law, will talk about laws which affect the family. She will explore the meaning of the no fault divorce law and whether it will lead to a higher divorce rate, as well as discuss new types of marriage contracts which are written with the hopes of minimizing conflict and preventing divorce.

Participants can feel free to ask a wide range of questions about the right of the state to intervene in parent-child relationship (as in the Kimberley Cox case) and ways in which family members should hold property to protect themselves in the case of death or dissolution of the marriage.

This two-part seminar is designed to be helpful to women and men, as well as to young adults who are living with their parents or who are about to marry. Mark your calendar and call 626-2166 to register. YOU MUST REGISTER BY NOV. 25. Total cost of the seminar is $3.15.

A very high percentage of children brought to a clinic because of overweight had been given "reducing pills" by their parents, reports the U of Michigan Medical Center. IRA . . . Individual Retirement Account

"A special . . . Tax deferred program for folks who have no pension plan"

You Earn
7.50% compounded to yield 7.89%
With no current tax liability

Some time ago Congress passed the Pension Reform Act, offering millions of workers the tax-saving benefits of an individual pension plan thru IRA — the Individual Retirement Act. Now as part of the Tax Reform Law, IRA has been liberalized by Congress. Here . . . in simple question-and-answer form is how an IRA Account can help you. We're here to help you with your plan.

We'll Help You Build Your Own Retirement Fund . . . and Save Tax Dollars

The big tax savings in the IRA plan are available to you if you are not actively participating in a tax-qualified pension plan. And working for a company that has a pension plan does not disqualify you until you are actually included in the company's plan. The IRA plan is open to both full-time and part-time employees, including a spouse working full or part time, students with part time jobs, and self-employed individuals not covered by the Keogh plan.

How the Individual Retirement Account Works for You

Each year you can set aside in a qualified IRA plan up to 15% of your earned income (but not exceeding $1500 yearly), free of current federal income taxes. Effective after December 31, 1976, the $1500 a year limit increased to $1750 yearly, if the account is shared by a spouse who does not work for pay. Or as an alternative, you can put $875 yearly into an IRA for yourself and $875 into an IRA for your spouse, if your spouse is not gainfully employed. You can deposit a lump sum once a year — or deposit smaller amounts periodically if you prefer. What's more, the income earned by the Individual Retirement Account is also exempt from federal income taxes until you actually begin to make withdrawals from the account. And you can still take advantage of the standard income tax deduction when you are in the IRA plan.

Keep in mind that the sooner you start, the earlier your savings begin to earn and grow.

Excess Contributions Should Be Avoided

Avoid contributing more than $1500 a year for individuals, more than $1750 yearly for couples, or more than 15% of earned income, or you will be subject to penalties.

What About Working Couples?

Where husband and wife both work, they can (if both are eligible) open separate IRA accounts for a maximum tax-free set-aside of $3000 a year.

How IRA Funds Are Invested

If you take advantage of our qualified plan, your money will be placed in an insured savings account, always worth 100 cents on the dollar. Safety of savings is insured to the full legal limit by an agency of the United States government, and a very worthwhile return is paid, plus compounding of earnings that adds to the growth of the account.

What About Withdrawals?

You can't withdraw from an IRA fund without penalty before age 59½, except in case of disability or death. You must start to withdraw when you reach age 70½. You can withdraw in one lump sum or can schedule withdrawals so the entire amount in the account will be distributed during your life expectancy. Withdrawals are taxable as ordinary income, but with the expectation that you will be in a much lower tax bracket after retirement.

Remember, too, that at age 65 you qualify for a double income tax exemption that lowers your tax bracket.

What If You Should Set Up An IRA Here and Later Participate In Your Company's Retirement Plan?

You just "freeze" your IRA here and have future contributions made, instead, to your Company's plan.

What If You Should Decide to Discontinue Your IRA — Or Not Make A Deposit to Your Plan During A Particular Year?

This can be arranged without tax penalties as long as no funds are withdrawn before age 59½.

If You Are Already In A Company-Sponsored Plan, Can You Transfer To Ours When You Leave The Company — Or When The Plan Is Cancelled?

You certainly can, without tax penalty, if you do it within 60 days from the date you first become eligible to receive these funds from your employer.

If the pension plan you are in is cancelled, you can "roll over" the pension funds you receive into a tax-deferred IRA, if you act promptly.

Can IRA Deposits Be Made By Payroll Deduction?

Yes, if your employer will install our Employee Savings Plan.

Must You Have Your IRA Approved By Internal Revenue Service?

No — Our basic IRA plan has already been approved.

Your Next Step?

Come in, write or phone — we'll be glad to help get your plan going. Benefit by a tax-sheltered retirement savings program that can strengthen your future financial security.

November Is Mental Retardation Month

"The month of November may mean Thanksgiving to the majority but to thousands of public spirited citizens, and to 80 Associations for Retarded Citizens, it also means Mental Retardation Month," said Elaine A. Keller, president of the Wisconsin Association for Retarded Citizens in a release today.

"This year's theme for the month," Keller added, "is 'Together, we can do more'."

November is the month designated as a focal point for all the local and national activities in mental retardation during the year, Keller pointed out. It is the period when radio/TV networks concentrate their public service time on mental retardation messages, when the local units launch their most Congratulations Kewaskum Schools for the great production, Sound of Music, that you presented for the public!

The singing and acting were excellent. As long as we have youth who act and sing in such manner, there'll be no fear for their future.

A big congratulations, too, to the Director, Mr. Getter, and his Assistant, Mr. Bertelson. It wouldn't get off the ground without your support, enthusiasm, many hours of practice, and your excellence in the music field.

National Honor Society -
Jack Coulter

The Kewaskum National Honor Society is planning some fund raising activities for the year to bolster their scholarship fund. According to Ann Strancke, society president, one hundred dollars is needed. Bake sales are planned for the year and their annual dance is also scheduled.

Requirements to be in the society are junior or senior standing, high scholastic and academic standing, and leadership potential.

Students are nominated by NHS members and then voted on by the high school faculty. Selection is then announced at the traditional initiation ceremony.

Student Government -
Tami Edgar

The Student Government, with the help of advisor Mr Theiler, is continuing to provide social activities for the students of the high school.

Officers for the year include Mary Fischer, president; Wayne Kempf, vice-president; Jeanne Becker, secretary; Linda Rauch, treasurer, and Wayne Kempf and Liz Ogl, school board representatives.

"This year I feel is the best year for student government. They're energetic and in for the right reasons," commented Theiler.

Activities planned for the year include dances, carnival, assemblies, bike hike, movies, and a paper drive. Some funds raised will be donated to the Humane Society.

Members of the Student Government are made up of every class with respective homerooms having a representative.

Future Homemakers of America -
Karen Kalser

The local chapter of the FHA has a busy year planned. Included in activities are the food stand, which was operated at all home football games, the UNICEF collection, Christmas hall decorations, and other assorted activities.

The FHA executive board consists of the following people: Miss Holder, advisor; Mrs. Martin, assistant advisor; Carol Proeber, president; Donna Prost, vice-president; Janine Rochwite, secretary; Denise Zanow, treasurer; Doreen Hammes, point chairman; Karen Werhanowicz, historian; Barb Schulz, reporter; Dawn Gavin, song leader and parliamentarian; and Mrs. Howard Proeber, chapter mother.

This year the local chapter will again hold a November Bake Sale. Funds gained from this sale will be used to buy groceries for a needy family in the district for Thanksgiving.

24 new members have joined the chapter since it resumed meeting this fall. These members were initiated in a formal and informal initiation program.

American Field Service -
Chris Miske

The purpose of the local chapter of the American Field Service is to raise money and to help students participate in the AFS program. Officers for the local chapter are: Ann Strancke, president; Chris Nigh, vice-president; Kathy Grandin, secretary; Miss Spencer, advisor.

Chapter plans for the year include a number of community programs including the already held pot luck supper, chili supper, folk fair, Christmas party, candy sale, and spring banquet. Also planned is an AFS weekend where other students will come to Kewaskum to spend some time with students and community members.

Indians to Open Basketball Season at Plymouth Friday

The Kewaskum Indians will open the 1977-78 basketball season with a non-conference game at Plymouth Friday night.

Kewaskum will miss their one-man gang, Leon Laatsch, this year. The 6-3 Laatsch scored 505 points—finishing as the Scenic Moraine Conference's scoring champion—and an all-conference pick—and led the Indians on the boards. His rebounding talents will be missed the most as Kewaskum will not have anyone like him on the boards.

Last year the Indians came back from a dismal 0-7 start to advance an 8-13 record and finish to the Regional final.

What Kewaskum does have back is one regular starter, Mark Tassar, 6-0 forward, Roger Rezel, 6-1 center, who worked his way into the starting lineup the second half of the season, and Dale Poling, 5-8 guard, who got in a good amount of playing time.

Five other lettermen returning, all seniors, are Al Jaeger, 6-0 forward, Joe Matenaer, 6-0 forward, Bruce Steinhardt, 6-1 forward, Tim Perkins, 5-11 guard, and Jeff Limberg, 6-1 forward, who saw most of their playing time on the varsity reserves and JV's. Obviously the Indians will be smaller.

Of the three who saw a good deal of action last year, Tassar teamed up with Laatsch to give Kewaskum a one-two scoring punch. Mark, a good shooter, averaged between 12 and 14 points a game last season. Rezel is a good rebounder and came on strong late in the season, while Poling is a fine ball handler and shooter.

Jaeger, Matenaer and Steinhardt have little varsity experience and Perkins and Limberg spent last year on the JV team. One other senior, Dale Garman, reported for this year, along with 12 juniors, Ray Dominguez, a 5-7 junior, is the most promising underclassman. He's extremely quick and a very good ball handler. Junior Mike Schaub, who rushed for 526 yards in football, could help.

Coach Jim Westphal doesn't expect a great deal of help from the JV's, who were 2-16 last year. He appraised his team as one with fairly good quickness and ball handling. Starting his fourth year as coach, Westphal leans toward Kewaskum as the Scenic favorite. "They are tall and will be tough," he explained.

To start off the Indians face a rugged test at Plymouth, which advanced to the Sectional final a year ago.

Pam Kempf on All-Conference

Two Scenic Moraine schools each had two first team all-conference volleyball players picked by coaches last week. Pewaukee and Hartland, who finished first and second, each had two named to the six-player squad.

The two other first team selections were Pam Kempf of Kewaskum and Gloria Schmidt of Slinger.

Kewaskum coach Connie Kreuser called Kempf her "most consistent performer." Pam was one of the reasons for the Indians' third place finish and their advancing to the Sectional, where they tied for second. In the Sectionals, she had 38 spikes and put 29 of her 30 spikes into play.
