KHS Fine Arts Festival Sunday

KEWASKUM — This year the music, art and drama departments at Kewaskum High School are combining their efforts to present a variety of programs the entire family will enjoy.

Almost every area of the high school will be a bee-hive of activity during the annual Fine Arts Festival, which will run April 23 from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Included in this year's offerings will be a continuous demonstration in the 700 area of various art techniques. These include drawing, painting, sculpture, ceramics, batik, pastel, water color, reed weaving, rug making, print making, wall hangings, copper tooling, and jewelry.

In addition, student works of the past year will be displayed on Saturday, preceding the festival, and these will also be on display on Sunday. Ribbons for first, second, and third will be awarded.

The gymnasiums will be filled with music as the band and chorus present half hour concerts. The schedule includes symphonic band, 1:30; mixed chorus, 2:00; concert band, 2:20; girls chorus, 2:50; and swing choir and jazz ensemble at 3:10.

Along with the music and art presentation, students in theatrical literature will stage several one act plays during the afternoon. Using an improvised theater, festival-goers will be able to view the short plays in a section of the 700 area. Selections will include both comedy and melodrama.

Admission is free and it is hoped that the public will come at their leisure to browse throughout the afternoon. This year's program is again coordinated by Larry Ammel and John Baitinger of the high school staff.

School Board to Elect Officers

The second regular April meeting of the Kewaskum Board of Education will be held on Monday, April 24, at 8 p.m. in the district administration offices.

Election of board officers for the coming year will be an item on the agenda. Discussions and actions on staffing and remodeling projects for next year will be continued from the previous meeting. Payroll and vouchers payable and approval for purchasing a new calculator will also be on the agenda. Miscellaneous items which come up will also be considered.

A closed session will discuss non-negotiated wages and salaries under 19.85 (1) and teacher negotiations.

HIRE ENGINEERING FIRM, PLAN OPEN HOUSE

Three Alternative Sites for Park Shelter House Offered by Engineer

By MARYANNE MERWIN
Statesman Staff Writer

Three alternative sites for Kewaskum's shelter house were offered by consulting engineer James Arthur at Monday evening's regular Village Board meeting.

Before deciding between the three new locations at the southeast corner, the southwest corner and the northeast end of the pond at Kewaskum's new park, the members of the board have decided to take one more on-site look at the situation. Plans for the move to either the southeast or northeast areas will mean an increase of under $5,000 in the cost of the building, but "Alternate II" on the southwest could drive the price up more than $20,000. More water, sewer and driveway are blamed.

Walkways to the ball diamonds and the tennis courts, originally slated for six-foot widths, will be twelve feet wide to accommodate equipment such as emergency vehicles without endangering pedestrians. Augie Bilgo reminded the board that regular maintenance of the diamonds would require regular, though not frequent, use of equipment and had originally asked for at least ten-foot widths. Arthur said the cost of ten-foot wide walks would be $612 for a linear foot, and the board decided to go with the twelve-foot width at $919.

Bilgo assured Arthur that Kewaskum had the larger culverts needed to replace those that hadn't worked out in their placement under the paths. All that is needed is their proper placement so that gravel and stone may be moved to their proper places.

The Village has an engineering firm once more. The firm of Foth and Van Dyke from Green Bay was chosen over their competitor Ruckert and Mielke of Waukesha by a 5 to 2 vote. The majority praised the firm's "profsional presentation" of their services in a recent one-hour meeting with the board Bob Danielsen indicated he felt Kewaskum could always have notice of state and federal money that might become available because Foth, et al., "have a full-time person researching grants." Mark Kral was impressed with their "lab facilities" which could "save some time" when sample analysis might be indicated. Dissenters were most concerned with the extra distance that would have to be traveled: Dan Schmidt and Raynor Herriges, while they felt both firms were qualified, feared that physical distance might be a factor in delaying solutions to problems that might arise on individual jobs.

Two projects that will be of primary consideration by the engineers-elect will be the updating of the wastewater treatment facilities and the problem of surface-water drainage on Kewaskum's west side.

Marvin Martin reported that Kewaskum's emergency warning device may be inadequate to reach all areas of the village. "It's not reliable or as powerful as it might be," cautioned Martin, director of Civil Defense. Having access to literature offering alternative systems, Martin said he would alert the members of the board to the equipment available from Alerting Communications of America.

The facilities at the wastewater treatment plant, the municipal garage and the historical museum will be open for the public's inspection April 30, from 1-4 p. m. Kewaskum area citizens are encouraged to tour the plant that pleased the E.P.A. Augie Bilgo promises to have all the new equipment shined up from Michael Wolfgram, R.P.H.

"Preventive medicine" is most important — to avoid illness, or to catch and cure it early, before the illness becomes serious. This is why an annual medical check-up is so advisable. Just as "preventive maintenance" on your car can avert major breakdown and repair — so "preventive medicine" can nip an illness in the bud, and probably avoid great discomfort and surgery.

at the garage, and it's even possible someone will have a coffee pot plugged in at the museum. The public is encouraged to come out into the spring weather to see what's new in Kewaskum.

As a final gesture, Gregor "Pat" Nigh moved to adjourn Monday night's meeting. Nigh will be leaving service as village trustee after holding the post for six years. Donald Mlodzik was recently elected to fill that position.

MOTHER-DAUGHTER BREAKFAST AT PARISH

Bears, Bands and Bells were some of the "B" words featured in other pieces centered on the recital theme "B is for..." The students of Mrs. Monte Schmiede, Kewaskum, entertained family and friends at the Fellowship Hall.

Organ students participating were Betty Clark, Michelle Gebheim, Mike Gebheim, Doreen Jacobs, Barbara Panzer and Brenda Schultz. The pianists were John Dettmann, David Kirchstein, Karen Miske, John Staskal, Mary Straub, Rich Straub and

JUST ADD LOVE! by ANN CROWLEY YOUR DAILY DIET

Nothing is more important to good nutrition than the emphasis we should place on "Eating a well balanced Diet everyday."

With the wide assortment of nutritious foods available at your supermarket, this is not difficult. Sometimes, I think the difficulty comes in making the selection from the numerous items.

The best way to be sure to eat a well balanced diet every day is to plan (and write) your menu for the week ahead. After the menu is written, keeping in mind to use the best buys of the week from your supermarket, check the daily menu for the following:

- 1 serving of citrus fruit (orange, grapefruit, tomato)
- 3 or more servings of whole grain or enriched cereal or bread or pasta
- 4 servings of vegetables and/or fruits - try to have one green and one yellow daily
- 4 or 5 ounces of meat, fish, poultry
- 2 glasses of milk
- Some butter or margarine or other oils or fats

An egg now and then - perhaps 3 to 5 a week. See, that's not difficult at all. Everyone can eat a well balanced diet every day!

Please send any comments, questions and recipe suggestions to Ann Crowley, c/o The S.C. Shannon Company, P.O. Box 2395, Appleton, WI 54913.

Wandering Swan Visits Kewaskum

Page 4
Kewaskum Statesman
Friday, April 21, 1978

Residents of the neighborhood couldn't believe their eyes when they looked out of their windows and saw a swan feeding and resting in the backyard of one of the homes on Edgewood Road on Kewaskum's west side late Monday afternoon.

Terry Koch came busting into our office and said, "got your camera ready? There's a swan landed back of one of the houses on Edgewood Rd." Swans in Kewaskum are rare indeed.

So away we went. Dave and I, and sure enough there was this swan. We sneaked around the house and took a picture from behind the corner so as not to scare the big bird. Then we walked closer and snapped another photo from about 20 feet. Then we moved to within six feet of the swan and took another. The bird seemed very tame and never moved. Just casually looked at us. We believed it was either very tired or wounded, at the same time noting a red band on one of its legs.

Thinking the swan might have become lost from a flock flying over, we then notified Police Officer Knoebel with the idea of calling the game warden. He couldn't be reached so with Knoebel we returned to the scene.

When we arrived this time there was Ned Sengojel and Bill, with their large landing nets. Then we found out that the swan belonged to Ned.

—Statesman photo
by David Schoofs

and had escaped from his "game farm" west of the village where he is raising six of them, among other birds. After onlookers had guessed what kind of bird it was Ned informed us "she" was a Polish Mute Swan.

After letting us approach it and come close to petting it, the swan took off when it saw Ned and Bill with their nets. It flew in front of some houses and into a nearby field, where they caught it.

Our swan song!

Monday the firemen received a chimney fire call to the Merle Laatsch home in New Fane.

Candidate Flynn Addresses County Labor Council Here

Page 6
Kewaskum Statesman
Friday, April 21, 1978

Matthew J. Flynn, a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Congress in the 9th District, addressed a meeting of the Washington County Labor Council last Monday night at the Labor Center in Kewaskum.

Flynn noted the gains that had been made by working men and women over the past 20 years, but warned that those gains could be erased by inflation.

Addressing himself to the problem of inflation, Flynn noted that an immediate priority was to reduce the U. S. trade deficit, which is heavily influenced by U. S. imports of foreign oil. Flynn advocated more research into the "safe, responsible use of nuclear energy," and he advocated various conservation measures through tax incentives.

Flynn said that another problem that contributed to the trade deficit was the unwillingness of some foreign countries to open their markets to American products, while flooding American markets with low priced goods. Flynn noted that he believed in fair trade, as well as free trade, and advocated putting pressure on foreign countries to give American goods the same advantage that foreign goods enjoy in American markets. In particular, Flynn noted that our courts now permit foreign countries to sue American businesses in the United States under the U. S. Antitrust Laws, and called for reciprocity between trading countries of legal rights.

Addressing himself to the performance of Congress itself, Flynn called the Congress "arrogant," and completely out-of-touch with its home districts. Flynn blasted the Senate for voting itself a new $130,000,000 office building, and criticized the approximately one billion dollars which it now takes to run Congress alone.

Flynn, 30, graduated from college in 1969, and served three years in the Navy as a navigator. He graduated from the University of Wisconsin Law School in Madison, and works in Milwaukee as a lawyer.

March of Dimes Bike-a-Thon May 6 in Kewaskum-Campbellsport Area

Page 7
Kewaskum Statesman
Friday, April 21, 1978

On Saturday, May 6, the March of Dimes will be holding its annual bike-a-thon in the Kewaskum-Campbellsport area.

Entitled this year as the "March of Dimes Ride-Stride '78," this event will enable everyone to combat birth defects. Each year 1.2 million infants, children and adults are hospitalized for birth defects.

The bike route will be a 63 mile jaunt beginning at the Kewaskum park and at Firemen's Park in Campbellsport respectively. Checkpoints will be manned by the Alert CB Club of Fond du Lac. An Alert Club member will also be patrolling the route while the bike-a-thon is in progress.

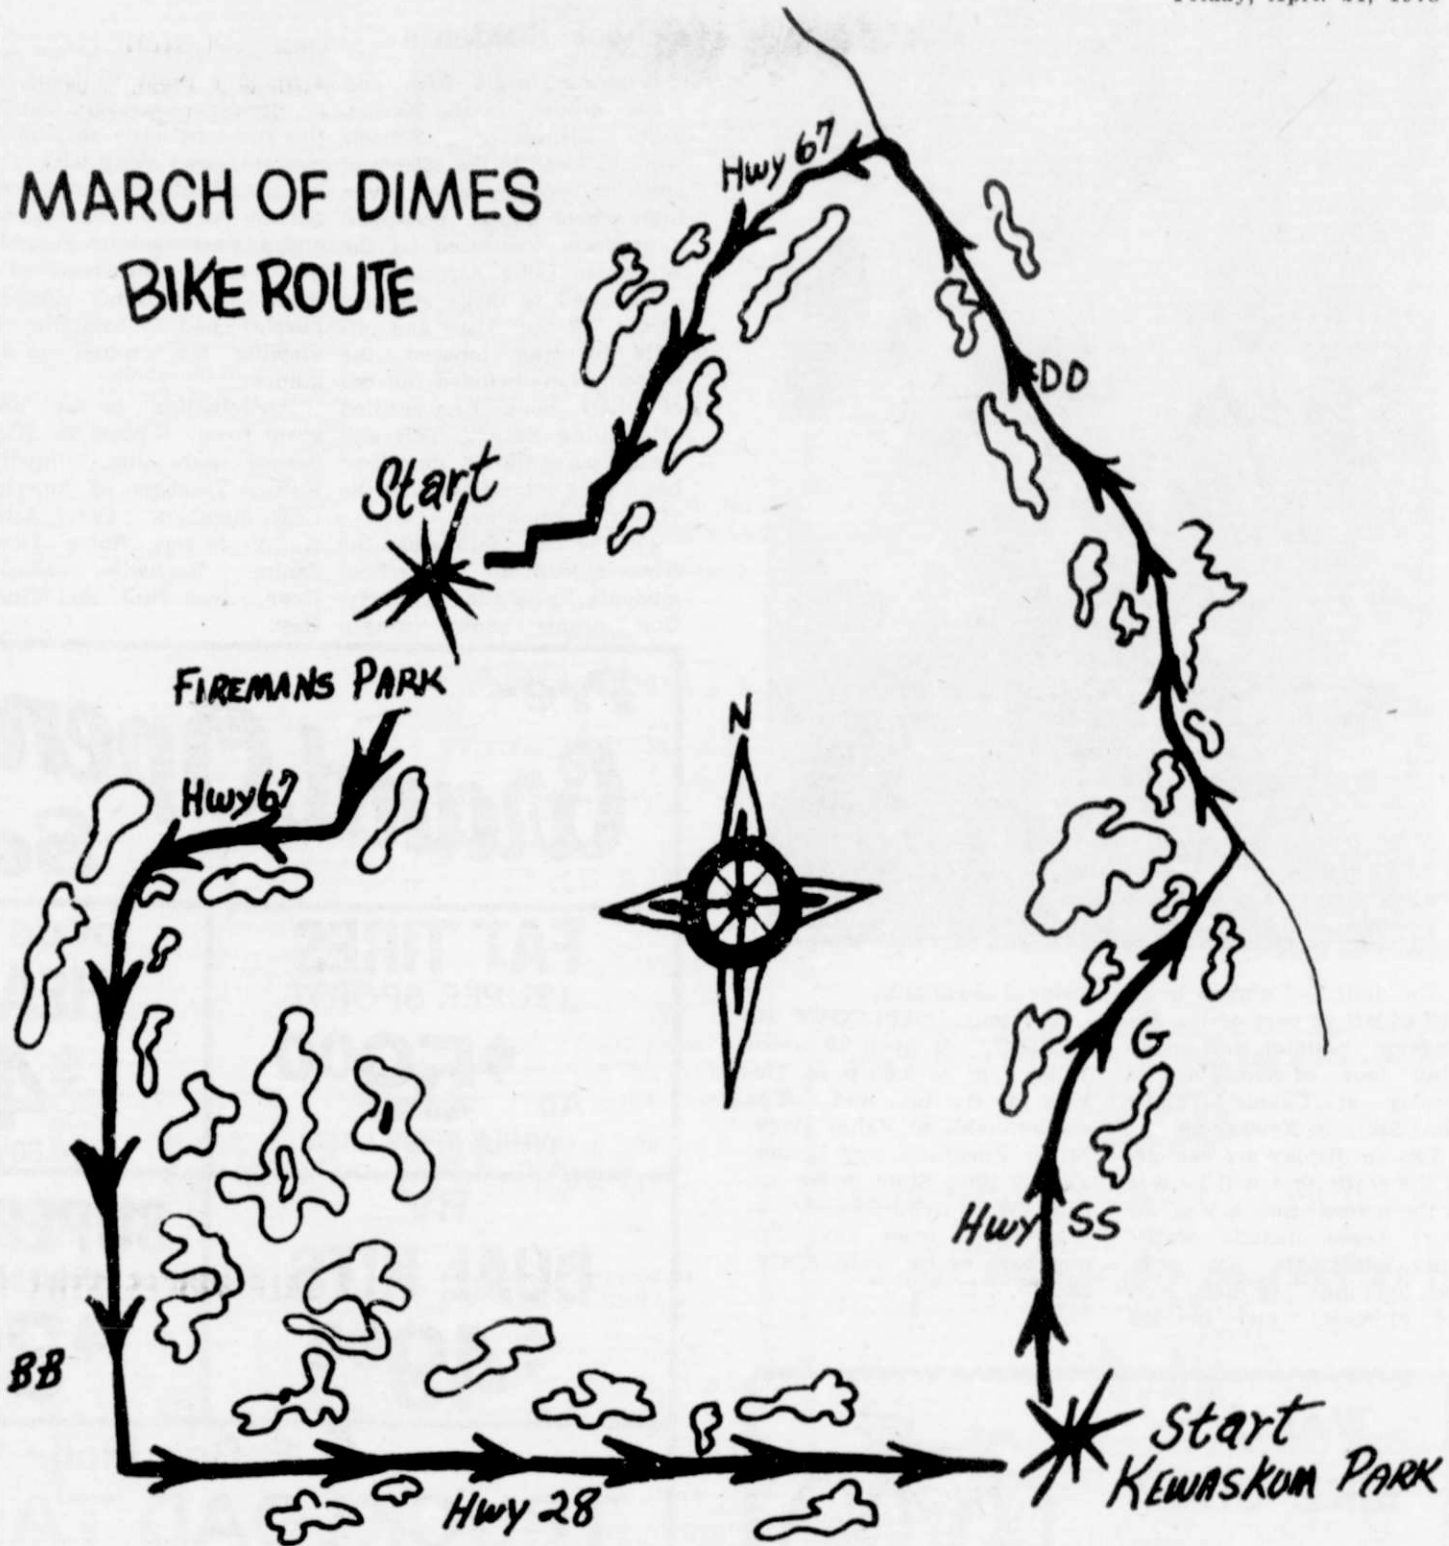

All bikers interested in this crusade for good physical health should register at the park in their respective towns between 7:00 and 11:00 a. m. Sponsor forms can be picked up in schools or at any place a Ride-Stride poster is displayed in the community.

Prizes that can be won are the grand prize of a trip for two to Disneyworld and a 10-speed bike.

Coordinator of the bike-a-thon this year is Peter Fleischer of Fond du Lac. Local Jaycees will be assisting in the registration of all bikes. Mary Fischer and Jenny Coulter, student representatives of Kewaskum High School, will be assisting the coordinator by distributing posters and sponsor forms.

Overall, 17 bike-a-thons and one walk-a-thon will be held in southeastern Wisconsin on May 6.

Smoking Effects Shown to Grade School Students

Students in all fifth and sixth grades in the Kewaskum Elementary Schools were exposed to the effects of smoking recently when seven high school pupils presented a program sponsored by the Wisconsin Lung Association. Designed to make students aware of the risks and pitfalls in using tobacco, the presentation included the use of a half hour film entitled "Breathing Easy." This animated presentation described basic lung physiology and the effects of smoking.

On the day following the film, a team of high school students presented a thirty-five minute show, using a slide and script program and a smoking robot, followed by a question period. During this time the basic physiology was reviewed along with the history of tobacco and a comparison of the reasons for and against smoking. In addition, each child received a packet containing posters, puzzles and a pamphlet reviewing the pro and con argument.

Participating in the program from Kewaskum High School were the following Future Teachers of America Club members: Carol Asch, Kathy Sauer, Robin Gust, Janine Rochwite, Denise Dean, Jean Thill and Vicky Key.

Red Cross Rural Fund Drive Underway

The West Bend Chapter of the American Red Cross is holding its annual rural fund drive in many areas which receive its services. In the City of West Bend Red Cross is a partner in the United Way fund drive, but in the village and townships it must finance all its services on its own.

Because the chapter does not wish to curtail any of its services, including First Aid and CPR, (cardiac pulmonary resuscitation), school health room volunteers, water safety, service to military families and on the scene help to disaster victims, the rural drive is held.

Funds raised in the spring Red Cross drive will be earmarked for 1977-1978. Next year the Kewaskum area will launch its first United Way appeal. Each area and township covered by the West Bend Red Cross chapter will conduct its own form of drive: in Jackson the drive is headed by Leona Laufer, Kathy Gumm and Ruth Olson; in Kewaskum, Clifford Stautz and Ruth Behnke; in the Village of Newburg, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Wilkens; Town of Trenton, Helen Ziegler and Karyl Buettner and volunteers of the Leo Club of the West Bend High Schools.

Jackie Wicklund, executive secretary of the West Bend Red Cross notes the chapter serves the Villages of Jackson, Kewaskum and Newburg, and the Townships of Barton, Farmington, Jackson, Kewaskum, Trenton, Wayne, and West Bend.

Kewaskum FFA Members Receive State Farmer Degree

Craig Martin, lower right; Tom Enright, upper left; Carol Proeber, lower left, and Pat Hanrahan, upper right, have been nominated to receive the State Farmer Degree, highest degree presented by the Wisconsin Association of Future Farmers of America. They were nominated for the degree by the Kewaskum FFA Chapter. The nominations for the degree were approved at a meeting of the State FFA Board of Directors, who could approve 2% of the total FFA membership in the state to receive the degree. Four of the 425 FFA members nominated for the State Farmer Degree, Craig, Tom, Carol and Pat will receive the degree in a special ceremony on Thursday, June 15, pending a final vote of approval of the student delegates who represent FFA members in convention business sessions. Craig is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Martin of Kohlsville, and is currently a senior at the high school and president of the FFA. Tom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Enright of Boltonville, and is currently a senior at the high school and treasurer of FFA.

Carol is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Proeber of Kohlsville, and is currently a senior at the high school and secretary of the FFA.

Pat is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Hanrahan of Kewaskum, and is currently a junior at the high school and has been elected to serve as an officer next year.

All four candidates earned the State Farmer Degree on the basis of their farming programs, leadership, activities, and FFA participation.

McKenna Hosted By Reigles at Cocktail Party

State Senator Dale McKenna (D-Jefferson), who represented Washington County in the State Senate from 1969 to 1972, returned Monday night, this time as a candidate for Lt. Governor. McKenna was the guest of honor at a fundraising cocktail party hosted by the Ron Reigles at their Kewaskum home from 6 - 8 p. m.

McKenna, who was first sent to the Senate by Washington County voters in 1969, and again in 1970, has made an impressive record in his 8½ years as a senator.

In 1972, he floor led to passage the landmark Consumer Credit Act, now used as a model by other states. In 1975, he founded the Legislative Audit Committee, a watchdog panel that has assisted the Legislative Audit Bureau in cutting waste in government. Last year, McKenna played key roles in passage of the Civil Service Reform Act and Wisconsin's new anti-drunk driving law.

McKenna is making property tax relief a campaign priority. He noted that the prospect of declining school enrollments is a factor that will force the issue of property tax relief in the years ahead. Earlier this year, McKenna suggested using part of the budget surplus to finance school-related property taxes paid by senior citizens. The plan carried a price tag of $182 million, less than half of the proposed surplus.

"All across Wisconsin, communities like West Bend are faced with declining school enrollments, empty school buildings, and an educational system that relies too heavily on the property tax to pay for itself. Yet those same property taxes are forcing elderly citizens, who no longer need schools, out of their homes," McKenna observed. "In an age of the computer and space travel, our government ought to be able to solve this dilemma. If it doesn't, our citizens would have a right to consider a tax revolt."

McKenna says the Lieuten-

ant Governor's job can be an important one if the person who holds it will listen to people and share their concerns with the Governor, who simply can't be everywhere.

"Walter Mondale is proving to be very important to the country because of the advice he is giving Jimmy Carter. A Lt. Governor can do the same thing by telling the Governor the hard truth on major issues. He can be one more pipeline from the average citizen at a time when state government badly needs it," McKenna concluded.

Petri Announces Candidacy for Lt. Governor

State Senator Thomas E. Petri (R-2nd District) has formally announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination for lieutenant governor.

Petri is the first Republican to announce that he is seeking the state's second highest political post. He has run a state-wide campaign once before, in 1974, when he was the Republican contender for the United States Senate. In that race, Petri walked over 1500 miles across Wisconsin in an effort to learn, as he said, what the people of Wisconsin want their government to do.

In his five years as a state senator, Petri's proposals have included a welfare reform package designed to give more responsibility to, and to provide for more accountability from welfare recipients; a bill to split the DNR and create a separate environmental protection agency; a bill to eliminate the sales tax on home heating fuel; and legislation aimed at reducing the tax burden for senior citizens, small businessmen, and farmers.

Petri was born in Marinette in 1940 and grew up in Fond du Lac. He graduated from Harvard College and Law School before going to Africa as a Peace Corps volunteer. While there, he served as an economic advisor to the government of Somalia in East Africa. Petri later was Director of Crime Studies and of Drug Studies for the White House, and a Fellow of the Woodrow Wilson International Center for Scholars in Washington. Senator Petri now practices law in Fond du Lac.

Petri recently attended the National Republican Governor's Conference in New Hampshire, and earlier this year, presented a program for neighborhood government at the National Press Club in Washington, D. C.

It takes a lot of backbone to wear some of the dresses attractively.

AMPI Endorses Susan Engeleiter With Contribution

Susan Shannon Engeleiter Gary Jorgensen, treasurer of the Friends of Susan Shannon Engeleiter, recently announced that the Engeleiter campaign committee has received a contribution in the sum of $5,000 from Associated Milk Producers (AMPI).

Engeleiter (R-Brookfield), who is presently serving her second term in the State Assembly, representing Brookfield, Elm Grove and a portion of Menomonee Falls, is one of four announced Republican candidates for the Ninth District Congressional seat being vacated by Robert Kasten. On Feb. 20, Kasten announced that he was a candidate for the Governor's office.

Associated Milk Producers is a milk marketing cooperative with member farmers from throughout the central United States. AMPI is headquartered in Fond du Lac and has a membership consisting of large numbers of dairy farmers from Dodge, Ozaukee, Washington, Waukesha and Jefferson counties as active co-op participants.

"There was never any question about which Ninth District Congressional candidate we would endorse," said Daniel Rodenkirch, Kewaskum area farmer and district director of the AMPI board. "Sue Engeleiter is the only Congressional candidate, Democrat or Republican, who has demonstrated a sincere interest in the problems facing the Wisconsin farmer. The Engeleiter family has long been involved in Wisconsin dairying and Sue Engeleiter has a better understanding of federal farm issues than most incumbents in Washington. AMPI will back Sue Engeleiter unequivocally in both the September primary and the general election in November."

"Unlike a lot of political action committees, an AMPI campaign contribution is truly the voice of the little guy," Rodenkirch continued. "Each AMPI dairy farm family, whether they milk 25 cows or 100 cows, has the option to voluntarily contribute to our political action committee. Participating dairy farmer members then have input in deciding which candidate is most deserving of the dairyman's support."

Several AMPI members are very active in the Republican Party and will be delegates to the Ninth District Caucus on April 28 in Oconomowoc, at which time the GOP will officially endorse a candidate for the fall election.

Girls, Boys Beat Horicon in Track

Both the Kewaskum girls and boys track teams defeated Horicon last Tuesday. The girls were 63 and one-half to 36 and two-thirds winners and the boys won, 64-54.

After the Scenic indoor meet Saturday, some of the girl regulars were rested some, limiting them to two events each, and giving some of the other team members a chance.

Barb Wilson in the mile and 880 and Julann Zemlicka in the 440 and mile were double winners. The Indians also swept the low hurdles with Carrie Henke, Mary Brenholt and Jeri Buss taking 1-2-3. Horicon was strong in the dashes, blanking Kewaskum in the 50 yard dash.

The boys also found the Marshmen strong in the sprints but picked up 13 points in the 2 mile and mile relay to win the meet. Dan Schmidt came up with a 19-2 to win the long jump.

Hee-Haw!!

A full house attended the donkey basketball games sponsored by the Kewaskum High School Student Government in the old gym on April 12. In the first game it was the senior boys vs. the senior girls, followed by a game pitting the community clubs and school board vs. the faculty and administrators. Winners of the two games were to play for the championship.
